HUGE HIGHWAY BUILDING PLAN IS ANNOUNCED

Competition on No. 7 Highway East of Peterborough is Included.

TO COST $5,000,000.

New Toronto to Allandale Highway Will Be Constructed.

TORONTO, March 31.—A new highway from Toronto to Allandale, paralleling closely the Toronto and York suburban road via Weston and Woodbridge to Schomberg and thence over the Simcoe highway to Allandale, planned to relieve traffic congestion south of Barrie, forms part of a $5,000,000 highway construction program announced yesterday by Hon. Leopold Macaulay, Minister of Highways.

The new highway, forming a completely new route northwards from Toronto, is one of numerous details of a wide scheme of surfacing, reconstruction and highway improvement which includes such major undertakings as completion of the Belle River gap in Highway No. 2, just east of Windsor; completion of the highway from Galt to Brantford; completion of Highway No. 7 from Greenwood to Brooklin; new surfacing between Aurora and Richmond Hill and widening of the highway to 30 feet, and completion of the road from Thornbury to Collingwood, which will also provide a hard surface route from Toronto, via Barrie, to Owen Sound.

175 Miles Surfacing.

In all, the Minister announced, approximately 175 miles of surfaces will be laid, 124 miles of recently-assumed highway will be graded and drained and the beginning will be undertaken on the elimination of deep ditches along the most heavily-travelled routes, of which, it is planned, 150 miles will be completed during the forthcoming season.

Paving between Brockville and Smiths Falls will be completed, as part of the plan, an additional section will be added of four miles to the Morrisburg-Ottawa highway and a hard surface will be laid on Highway No. 15 between Seeley's Bay and Morton. Much of the grading includes the Blue Water highway, especially sections south of Sarnia and Goderich, and Highway No. 7, east from Peterborough, will be completed, shortening the distance from Peterborough to Ottawa.

The major part of the work, it is expected, will be under way by May.

It is estimated that the men employed in this road work, including those providing and transporting materials will approximate 25,000.

"This year, as in other years, the Minister announces, "the Department is stipulating that a fair and living wage be paid to laborers, truck drivers and others engaged in this work.

"No sub-contractors are permitted without the written permission of the Department, and it is only in very rare cases that sub-contractors are applied for or allowed. Where such is the case, they too come under the stipulation calling for a fair, living wage.

WAGE INCREASE TO AFFECT MANY

Workers' Added Buying Estimated at $4,000,000 a Month.

RAILROAD TROUBLES.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—(CP) — The number of United States workers promised a 10 percent wage boost neared 500,000 today. The industrial leaders estimate the increased buying power of workers involved with approximate $4,000,000 a month.

Announcement of the United States Steel corporation that its 140,000 workers will receive the increase brought to approximately 420,000 the number who will be affected in the steel industry.

The General Electric Company stated that between 30,000 and 40,000 of its employes will receive the 10 percent increase.

The Consolidated Paper Company announced a similar increase for some of its 2,000 employes and raised the ante to 15 percent for others.

In other industrial sectors the situation was not so rosy.

CHILD RESCUED FROM CULVERT

UNKNOWN HERO.

HAMILTON, March 31. — Caught by swirling water emptying into the city ditch, Margaret Scott two-year-old daughter of Walter and Mrs. Scott, 517 Queensdale Avenue, Mountaintop, was carried through a 30-inch culvert across Queensdale Avenue at Wentworth Street yesterday afternoon and was saved from a possible plunge down steep falls by a passerby whose name was not ascertained.

Apparently none the worse for her soaking in cold, muddy water the child is now at her parents' home. So excited was the grateful mother when she learned of the rescue that she failed to learn the identity of the man who waded in water almost to his waist to save the little tot.

She was carried 50 feet through a pipe choked with water. She disappeared at the mouth of the drain and was not seen again until she was carried out by the current at the opposite end of the pipe. An older sister who was a witness, cried for help and attracted the attention of the pedestrian who was on a holiday stroll. He experienced difficulty in effecting rescue for the little victim was being fast carried down stream.

Exhausted by her efforts in the strong current, the little girl was in rather serious condition when taken from the water, but quickly rallied. Timely rescue saved her from death for she was dangerously close to the spot where the water falls over the mountainside, and would have been dashed upon the rocks below.

Campbell had obtained a marriage license at Gelert by saying that his intended bride was 18, but the wedding was held up while her age was investigated and the aged man was arrested. He has been remanded several times while the Crown considered lodging further charges against him.

BEER AND WINE SURE FOR JULY 1

No Matter Who Wins, Telegram Says, Beer and Wine on Sale.

ELECTION MAY 30?

TORONTO, March 31.—(C.P.)—"Beer and wine under the amended Liquor Control Act will be on sale in hotels and restaurants by July 1, no matter who wins the Provincail election," the Toronto Telegram says it is confidently stated at the Parliament Buildings to-day.

"It is expected Premier Henry will announce the election date probably in three weeks' time, with the date to be either Wednesday, May 30 or a week later, June 6.

"Political observers believe the date will not be later than June 6(as it is felt the Government wants to keep the ball rolling and maintain the beer policy before the public while the matter is hot. It is felt an election could not be held before the last week in May in view of road conditions in the country and the fact that farmers will be busy—and even into June —with seeding or general work."

INFANTS SAVED AS FIRE SWEEPS HAMILTON HOME

62 Children Carried From Building as Flames Make Headway.

NONE INJURED.

One Doctor Makes Repeated Trips, Carrying Three Babies at a Time.

HAMILTON, Mar. 31.—(CP)—Fire broke out in the Infants' Home, Caroline and Duke streets shortly before one o'clock this afternoon. A general alarm was turned in, and apparatus from all over the city responded. The children were removed to safety, and there were no casualties.

The outbreak occurred in the front building, the older part of the institution which is used by the administrative staff. The flames made great headway in the attic, and a small fire also started at the base of the elevator shaft.

The matron and her staff acted with precision and speed when the alarm was given. Their little charges were carried out to the roof of a lower section at the back, or removed to the street and thence into houses nearby. Alderman Dr. Davidson played a prominent part in the rescue work, carrying three babies at one time from the building.

None of the children were harmed in any way, and the building was emptied of its inmates in record time. Firemen arrived with speed and completed the evacuation.

Property loss is estimated at $1,000 fully covered by insurance. There were 62 children in the home.

TURKEY ORDERS HIS ARREST ON GREEK VESSEL

SHIP UNDER GUARD.

Situation Strains Bonds of New Friendly Relations in Balkans.

ISTANBUL, March 31.—(AP)—Turkey today ordered the arrest of Samuel Insull but the 74-year-old Chicago fugitive flatly refused a police request that he quit his floating haven, the tramp Steamer Maiotis which flies the flag of Greece.

It was Greece which gave him a year and half's asylum from United States authorities who seek to try him on charges of grand larceny and embezzlement growing out of the collapse of his mid west utilities companies.

Attorney - General Kewan Bey said the Istanbul penal court, which probably will give Insull a trial, was expecting to receive documents in the case momentarily.

Since her arrival here two days ago, the Maiotis has been under constant police surveillance A heavy guard has been maintained over the aged Chicagoan.

Earlier, Insull had been reported to have refused to comply with the orders of the Turkish authorities to remove him from the ship, and the captain was said to have announced he would not consent to give up his famous passenger.

Greek Complications.

Thus, with the Turkish Government apparently on the verge of taking steps to turn Insull over to American authorities, the question apparently uppermost in the negotiations to-day was the Greek Government's possible attitude.

Turkish authorities decided last night Insull's case comes under a penal code provision authorizing his arrest for American authorities seeking his return for trial on larceny and fraud charges.

As his tiny freighter lay in Istanbul Harbor, forbidden to move farther toward her destination, Rumania, Insull wsa reported to have attempted to leap to death when told of the Government's decision.

Later, however, after having been restrained and quieted by guards and friends aboard ship, the 74-year-old fugitive was said to have stiffened — stubbornly determined upon a desperate battle to again evade the clutches of American law.

Beware To-Morrow; It's April Fool's Day

WASHINGTON, March 31.— (A. P.)—To-morrow is Easter Sunday and also April Fool's Day.

This coincidence, possibly conducive to China eggs on the breakfast plate, caused so much querying of the naval almanac office that its director figured out all the April Fool's Easters for 150 years.

They fell in 1804, 1866, 1877, 1888, 1923.

To-morrow's of course, will be 1934 — and after that will come 1945 and 1956.

"It took a lot of figuring," admitted the almanac director.

ESKIMO WOMEN MAKE COSTUME FOR AVIATRIX

FINEST SKINS USED.

(Copyright, 1934, by the A.P.).

The Eskimo wife of the Danish trading manager is supervising her friends' work.

Only the finest skins are being used to outfit the feminine flyer who thrilled her Eskimo sisters last year by flying here from United States and then on to Europe.

The bear collar for the costume requires for its intricate pattern two pounds of tiny glass beads. The sealskin shorts are sewn together with seal sinews split and golled into tiny threads. They are richly embroidered in front with white dog skin and tiny strips of colored skins.

Splendid Boots.

The mamiks—the long red sealskin boots reaching almost to the hips—consist of an inner kimiksock with the hair inside and a top of sealskin reaching above the outer kamik.

Only home-made skin knives and bone needles are being used in the work which is carried on in the tiny sod huts of the primitive east Greenlanders.

Although many of the women who are working on the costume saw Mrs. Lindbergh while she was here, they are uncertain of her measurements, and, consequently, her size is being judged from photographs taken of her.

The completed costume will be shipped late in the summer when the Danish supply boat calls on its annual trip, establishing the only contact with the outside world.

AUTO LICENSES ARE IN DEMAND

Big Last Minute Rush for Licenses at the Chamber of Commerce.

LAST DAY OF GRACE.

Packed into the license issuer's office in the Chamber of Commerce and overflowing into the corridors, a large crowd of dilatory motorists this morning patiently awaited their turn to secure their 1934 automobile markers.

J. J. Dorris, official license issuer, and his assistants were coping valiantly with the last-minute rush when The Examiner dropped in to the office, and the former looked up for a minute to smile in acknowledgment of the reporter's "I told you so."

Despite three months of grace given by the Minister of Highways, which expires to-day, the sale of licenses prior to the last few days had been extremely light as compared with other years, and repeated requests that motorists make early application to avoid congestion, went practically unheeded.

Highway Patrol Officer A. E. Hornick and City Police this morning warned that the check-up on motorists driving with old markers is to start to-morrow.

From all reports, the police are going to have their hands full if they mean to make a complete sweep, as there is still a large percentage of motorists who have failed to renew their licenses.

YOUNG FARMERS URGED TO BUILD FOR NEW CANADA

Aims of New Canada Movement Are Set Forth at Millbrook Meeting.

STUDY, WORK, BUILD.

MILLBROOK, March 31 (Examiner Correspondence).—The call to the young farmers of Millbrook and vicinity to study, work, and build for a new Canada was sounded forth at a public gathering held in the Town Hall on Thursday at 8 p.m., George McKnight, president of the Young Farmers' Club, being in the chair, and the speakers, including Harold Ghent, of Wellington County, and Arthur Haas, of Holstein, in Grey County.

Mr. Ghent, as the first speaker, presented the aims of the New Canada Movement, stressing its non-denominational and non-political character, and the fact that it has no organization and no individual behind it, but is purely independent, and pointing out that "it is an attempt to gether one hundred thousand young Canadians pledged to study what brought us into the depression, examine all the contributing circumstances, and then search intelligently for the forces that may be put to work to find a way out."

"We can't use the old-fashioned methods to-day," the speaker insisted after outlining the plight in which agriculture finds itself, and the mortgaged future before the farm young people unless some intelligent action is promptly taken; "and if we work hard, and feed the nation, we want modern conveniences and some of the luxuries, and feel that we are entitled to them."

Forceful Address

By way of illustrating his forceful and constructive address, Mr. Ghent used charts showing contributing factors as links in the chain which has led to the present economic chaos, and issued a stirring challenge for understanding and study of the problems involved that conditions may be righter, a brighter future for the farm young people may be assured, and agriculture put on a sound basis since, until it is so, no other industry may really prosper.

The first chart showed an elderly farmer, with old ideas and old methods, "lost in the woods" of the new ways of a new age. These latter were shown under three heads, each with its direct chain of results, the whole being dealt with in detail and in vivid word picture. Under the first clump of trees was listed: Machines—displacing human labor, increasing production, lowering cost, with the profits going into the pockets of the capitalists and not to the benefit of the people; Growth of Nationalism—tariff, armaments, exchange rates, and self-sufficiency;

ANGUS MAGINNIS LABOR'S TARGET AT BITTER RALLY

Stormy Debating by Laborites at Annual Gathering.

C.C.F. UNDER CRITICISM.

All Canada Congress Delegates Start to Leave

TORONTO, March 31. — More squalls threaten the troubled sea of the Ontario C.C.F. Party as a result of a tempestuous session yesterday of the Ontario Labor Conference.

Bickerings, hecklings and invective flew frequently throughout the afternoon and evening, and the targets included Angus MacInnis, M.P. for Vancouver South, who had a rough passage as personal emissary to the meeting of his leader and father-in-law, J. S. Woodsworth, the father of the C.C.F.

Presenting a draft of a proposed new constitution for the Ontario C.C.F. Party, drawn up by the National Executive, Mr. MacInnis drew down on his head the heated criticism of the meeting, in which even the chairman, Arthur Mould of London, participated with gusto.

Executive Assailed.

Seeing in the proposed constitution a move to abolish the identity of the various groups which together form the present C.C.F., the members of the Labor Conference bitterly assailed the national executive, and individual leaders of the party, and envisaged a future C.C.F. composed of a mass of "deluded workers and labor leaders," playing into the hands of a hierarchy of "opportunists and canny politicians," using the new third party as a road to easy political prominence and profit.

The Labor Conference, which is supposed to form one of the spearheads of C.C.F. progress in Ontario, as a result of continuance of the discussion may to-day declare civil war on the leaders and other fac-

MIDDLE OF JUNE EXPECTED DATE FOR ELECTION

No Definite Time Announced, But June is Consensus.

APPROACH HERALDED.

(By Jack Hambleton, C.P. Staff Writer.)

TORONTO, March 31 (CP)—Ontario's legislators to-day were preparing to mend their political fences and start the election campaign, expected to have its culmination in June. With little fuss or flurry, the House adjourned Thursday, with formal prorogation scheduled for Tuesday. So far, there has been no indication as to just what date will be set for the general election. The consensus is, however, the third week in June.

With completion of its work Thursday, there was little excitement about procedure. The House buzzed with private conversations and farewells, at times the noise increasing to such an extent speakers could barely be heard. For one thing is certain, some of the members at home to-day will remain there when the next session opens. Under the Redistribution Act of 1933, 22 seats were lopped from the representation and instead of the customary 112, only 90 will be in the House next session regardless of election results.

The approach of the election was heralded by two bills, discussed at some length before adjournment. One of them, an amendment to the Election Act, would have cut the residence rule from 60, to 30 days. Harry Nixon, Progressive leader, led the opposition to the measure, declaring there would be nothing to stop the Government from shipping into any constituency a number of voters two days after the writs were issued.

The offending clause was removed from the bill. Then another battle arose over an act to amend the voters lists act, which provides for appointment of enumerators to make door-to-door canvasses of voters. Mr. Nixon divided the House on an amendment which would have required enumerators be appointed on recommendations of opposition and government members of the legislature, and to work in pairs when compiling the list. The amendment was voted down, 67 to 18.

Hydro Again

Mr. Nixon was the central figure in another discussion, this time on his questions as to the amounts paid high officials of the Ontario Hydro Electric Power Commission. The replies were refused by Hon. J. R. Cook, chairman of the Commission, who said Hydro would not be fulfilling its duty as trustee for municipalities if it were to give even to members of the legislature

Crushed By Tree Man Fatally Hurt

DELHI, Ont., March 31 (CP) — George Rapperley, 30, was dead here to-day, victim of an accident in which the limb of a tree struck and crushed him. He was found last night by his wife, who went in search of him when he failed to return home.

Rapperley was cutting trees in a woodlot about half a mile from his home. A falling tree pinned him beneath a limb, and Mrs. Rapperley found him when his feeble answers to her cries revealed his whereabout.

She rushed to the village for help. Rescuers lifted the branch from him and carried him home, where he died in his wife's arms. Four children survive.

CURRENCY DUMP DUTY IS CLAMPED DOWN ON BUTTER

Will Protect Canadian Market From New Zealand Product.

POUND TAKEN AS PAR.

Holdings in Canada on Which Duty Not Paid Are Affected.

OTTAWA, March 31.—(CP)—Imposition of a "currency dump" on New Zealand butter follows close on the heels of the lengthy debate two weeks ago in the House of Commons when the government was under fire for permitting the entry into Canada of a large consignment of butter from the Antipodean Dominion. This had been landed at Halifax and for a while was held by the customs authorities who later released it for distribution in Montreal and Toronto as the demand warranted.

This inspired many parliamentarians to direct much criticism against the government, the declaration being made that at a time when Canadian farmers were finding it necessary to store their butter, there should not have been any importations allowed from New Zealand.

The order-in-Council made public today makes New Zealand butter subject to the operation of the same principle that applied when United Kingdom currency was at a discount. The order places the New Zealand pound on a par basis for purposes of levying duty, and collects as a currency dump the difference between par—$4.86 2-3—and the depreciated value of the pound. Today that value was $4.11.

The right to do this is vested in the government by Article VI of the Canada-New Zealand treaty of 1932 ,where it is specifically set forth that either government reserves the right to impose any special duty or tax, provided that this does not exceed the duty imposed on similar goods from Great Britain.

The volume of New Zealand butter imported into Canada has not been large during the past two years, but recently several big shipments had arrived.

EXPORT TRADE BEST IN GRAIN

AT WINNIPEG MARKET.

WINNIPEG, March 31. — (CP) — The business of keeping the wheat market liquid and facilitating export was accomplished today with a minimum of pressure on the futures market. A substantial quantity of government-owned wheat futures was cancelled out against export trade during the past week with a decline of only ⅛.

The tone of the market when trade opened for Saturday's short session was firm with May holding at 67⅛; July at 68⅞ at 70⅝.

For the period under review traders with seaboard and continental connections were in the pit almost daily, covering sales of wheat made to buyers abroad. The week's trade, from an export standpoint, was the best in any similar period during the past month. Offerings were well timed and fluctuation in price small.

$100,000 FIRE HITS KITCHENER

Metropolitan Store Destroyed, Bank of Toronto, Woolworth Building Damaged.

THREE FIREMEN HURT.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

KITCHENER, Mar. 31. — Fire yesterday destroyed the Metropolitan Stores building here, with a loss of $100,000. The Bank of Toronto and the Woolworth store, adjoining buildings, suffered from water and smoke damage, and three firemen were sent to hospital with burns to face and hands.

The Waterloo and Baden firemen were summoned to help in quenching the flames, a total of forty firemen being rushed to the scene.

Flames were believed to have originated in the basement. The fire made rapid headway. The main floor fell into the basement, and the second floor suffered from smoke and water damage.

Firemen dashed to the Metropolitan Stores fire from the Reliable Furniture Company, where they extinguished a fire on a truck. Frames on the truck had caught on fire. A strike has been in progress at the plant for six weeks.

The injured firemen suffered their hurts when an explosion of gases, smoke and steam occurred as they were pouring water on the flames from eight hoses. The vapors belched through doors and windows, knocking firemen backward and throwing some into the street. Those most severely burned were standing in front of the main doorway of the store.

A metal ceiling in the store impeded progress of the flames upward, and firemen fought them from above despite smoke, which Fire Chief Guerin said, was the worst in his experience. Men were unable to use their gas masks owing to the intense heat.

Chief Guerin called on the Waterloo and Baden departments to send help after his four men were hurt. The firemen directed their efforts to preventing spread of the blaze, as they felt it was futile to attempt to save the building.

Inside hundreds of canaries and other caged birds were suffocated by the smoke, and fish in glass bowls were boiled.

"Aren't you going to eat your ice-cream, dear? — Polly, I don't know what ails Tommy — He isn't a bit like himself. He won't eat, and he's lost all his pep!"

"Alice, I wouldn't worry about Tommy. Jack was the same way a month ago, and I found all he needed was a laxative. Give him some Castoria."

"You're just the person I wanted to see, Polly! Tommy's been out playing all morning. I gave him some Castoria last night, and it's certainly wonderful!"

"Yes, it certainly is, Alice. Castoria is the ideal laxative for children. It's pleasant to take, too — because it tastes awfully good. You know, it hasn't any of the harsh drugs in it that are in some grown-up laxatives. Don't forget that it's just the thing for colic in little babies, too!"

How smart is your HUSBAND?

. . . BET HE WON'T PASS THIS TEST!

To-day, serve him mashed potatoes made this new way, and see if he can tell the difference!

HERE'S A taste-test that thousands of husbands have failed in! Try your husband.

To-day, serve him mashed potatoes, creamed with St. Charles Milk, instead of fresh cream! Not just any evaporated milk, mind you—be sure you use St. Charles.

He'll never notice the difference! You yourself, if you didn't know, would think these creamy-rich potatoes, fresh and sweet in flavor, were creamed with fresh cream!

In mashed potatoes, cream sauce, custards and cream soups—all supreme tests for evaporated milk flavor—St. Charles is amazingly like fresh cream! You'll find, as housewives all over Canada are finding, that you can use St. Charles where you've never used evaporated milk before! Fresh and creamy and sweet, St. Charles is better in cooking, better in coffee! Accept no substitutes—insist on St. Charles. Try it to-day!

WHAT MAKES SUCH A DIFFERENCE IN EVAPORATED MILK FLAVORS?

The reason for the fresher taste of St. Charles begins way back on the farms where it comes from. "Milk has to be good," say the farmers, "to sell it to Borden's!" Cows, equipment, barns, helpers, are all carefully and regularly inspected. And when the milk—still foamy-fresh—is rushed in sterile-clean, air-tight containers to the spic-and-span Borden plants, it is tested by the severest tests the milk industry has yet evolved! When milk is packed by Borden's—the oldest and most famous firm in all the dairy industry—it is sure to be pure, fresh, sweet-tasting! Try St. Charles once—and you'll buy St. Charles always!

It's better and you can prove it!

Sabbath Message For The Shut-Ins

RT. REV. DENIS O'CONNOR
Bishop of Peterborough

THE EASTER MESSAGE.

WE are come again to the greatest festival of the year, the feast of our Lord's Resurrection. It is the greatest because held in remembrance of the most glorious event of our Saviour's life, and because the fact which it commemorates is the chief proof of the divinity of the Christian religion. This feast inherits all the holiness of the ancient Sabbath which was transferred by authority of the Church from the last day of the week to the first in honor of our Lord's Resurrection. Every Sunday a Christian Sabbath is kept holy on the same account. This festival regulates all other moveable feasts. They all depend upon it, and the season of Lent is a period of preparation for it.

During Holy Week, the last week in Lent, we follow step by step the acts of that divine tragedy of nineteen centuries ago. On Palm Sunday we saw our Lord entering, amid the plaudits of the throng, the ancestral city of David. On Holy Thursday we saw Him in an upper room at the last sad supper with His own. It was there that He designed to perpetuate His priesthood and, though going away, left Himself in the Sacrament of His love. Then in the Garden He sounded the depths of agony. Betrayed by one of His own choosing, deserted by the rest, He was condemned to death after a trial that was the greatest travesty on justice in all history. On Good Friday the dire drama is complete when He hangs upon a cross while the earth trembles and the sun hides itself for shame. Here was humiliation indeed and disappointment and apparent failure. It seemed just another lost cause. "We hoped," said the disciples on their way to Emmaus, "we hoped that it was He who should have redeemed Israel.

But now, with the dawnlight of Easter Day, all is changed. Failure is changed to triumph, humiliation becomes vindication, defeat gives place to victory. "He is risen." This is the message of Easter. "Christ rising from the dead dieth now no more." This is the climax of His miracles, the supreme and final proof of the divinity of His religion. We believe that the Christian religion is divine because Christ rose from the dead. Conversely St. Paul wrote to the Corinthians: "If Christ be not risen again, then is our preaching vain and your faith is also vain." The catechism in its usual forceful simplicity sums it all up when it says: "As by dying on the cross He showed that He was man, so by raising Himself from the dead He proved that He was God."

What then is our share in the Resurrection? It is the argument of our hope as well as of our faith. It is the pledge of our own resurrection. It was for us that God became man. For us He worked and suffered and died. For us He rose again from the dead. "He was delivered up for our sins," wrote St. Paul, "and rose again for our justification." He showed us the resurrection of the flesh in Himself, and as He is the head His members must share His glory. But this membership requires that we should first share His death. "If we have been planted together in the likeness of His death, we shall be also in the likeness of His Resurrection" (Rom. VI., 5). What matters it then if there are clouds on life's mountains and storms in its valleys? For the Christian even death loses its terrors, for it is but the portal—dark though it may be—which leads from this dwelling place where the light is flickering and faint to the enduring brightness of eternal day.

All who trust in God and do His will may have strong confidence.

YOUR PROBLEMS

Religious and Social Questions Answered
By DR WYLIE CLARK

Why is it that the Christian churches are so indifferent to the laws of Moses in the Old Testament? Do not these laws stand for all time?—X.X.X.

The church is not indifferent to the teachings of the Old Testament. All laws which are principles are accepted, but laws and customs which were suitable for conditions which have passed away are no longer binding. The man who accepts only the laws of his country as they were in 1850 and takes no notice of the modifications and changes which have been made since is very much out of date. If we read the Old Testament and neglect the New Testament we are far behind in our religious knowledge.

Dr. Wylie Clark

If we study Moses and forsake Christ then we are missing the whole meaning of Christian faith and life. Some of my friends are much more interested in the study of what we call the teachings of Moses than they are in the teachings of Christ, and I am sure they are worried about things which would be cleared up if they could only view them in the light of what Christ revealed.

"He that loveth God loveth His children and keepeth His commandments." Is this not so?—E.G.

I thank you for your letter. It was good of you to express appreciation.

Yes, you are right, if we can learn to love God, like Him we will love our fellows and do our best to serve and help them, and in so doing we will be keeping His commandments.

"I will leave it with you to judge if you come under Jeremiah's condemnation."—Jeremiah 48:10.—G.F.J.

Many thanks for the two booklets. It is always helpful to find out what the other man thinks or fancies he thinks. Would you kindly read your two booklets—think a little and then look up Jeremiah. He is a good tonic to the progressive thinker.

I would suggest you read "The Short Bible," by Goodspeed and Smith, also "Who Moved the Stone?" by Morrison.

Trust that man is nothing who has not a conscience in everything.

So long as I am in hatred to another I am in bondage to my hatred.

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Scripture—John 20:1-16.

By the Rev. Alvin E. Bell
And Alfred J. Buescher

Copyright, 1934, by Central Press Association, Inc.

Very early in the morning of the first Easter day Mary Magdalene and two other women came to the tomb of Jesus bearing spices to anoint his dead body. They were amazed to find the stone rolled away from the door of the tomb and supposed Jesus' body had been stolen.

Mary Magdalene rushed back to the city to tell the disciples what they had found. Peter and John ran to the tomb and saw the grave clothes lying in position in the form of Jesus' body but empty. This convinced them that Jesus had risen.

Mary Magdalene came a second time to the tomb alone and finding it empty she turned away and met one whom she supposed was the gardener and asked him what had been done with Jesus' body. But it was Jesus she saw. He called her by name and she worshiped him.

Other appearances came to the other women that morning and to Cleophas and a friend toward evening, also to Peter during the day. In the evening as ten disciples were met Jesus came into their midst saying, "Peace be unto you".

EASTER.

Again we are on the eve of the gladdest and most significant festival of the Christian year, Easter.

As Christmas is the beginning of the great plan of redemption, the Eastertide testifies to its culmination.

It comes each year to bring its glorious message of a risen Christ to humanity, to once more convey its joyous tidings of a new and brighter life to follow this existence of struggle and shortage of earthly reward.

While on this particular occasion the miracle of nature's resurrection after the death of winter is not as apparent as usual, yet even under the backward weather conditions that have prevailed there are signs of that annual awakening which, coming at Eastertide each year, symbolizes the significance of this great festival.

Our faith tells us at this time that even as nature takes on new life after the winter's snows have passed, so the resurrection of the Crucified One gives humanity a sure hope of immortality.

It is that hope that makes Easter the most gladsome event in the Christian calendar.

SWEEPING POWERS.

The sweeping powers that have been assumed by the Pattullo Government in British Columbia as a result of the passing of its Special Powers Act have by no means attracted the attention throughout Canada that their imporance merits.

When such an outstanding Liberal as G. G. McGreer turns upon a Liberal administration and condemns its program as "an appalling monstrosity" and "an invasion of the rights of parliament," it is time for other people to take notice.

Through the act the British Columbia Cabinet has to all intents and purposes absorbed the rights and responsibilities of the Legislature.

For the next year it has power to order and to do anything it considers it advisable to order or to do "by reason of or in anticipation of" the province's "extraordinary conditions respecting finance, agriculture, industry, municipal government and unemployment."

This substitution of government by lieutenant-governor-in-council instead of by the legislature is a most radical departure; it gives the Pattullo Cabinet far more outhority than the Bennett Government is accorded by its much discussed "peace and good order" legislation, and it undoubtedly runs foul of the spirit of the British North America Act, and may bring the Provincial Government into conflict with the federal administration, which has the power to disallowed the special powers bill, and may be compelled to do so if the control established by the B.N.A. over the legislative powers of the British Columbia Legislature are not to be completely abrogated for the next twelve months.

MORBID CURIOSITY.

Reading of the wild scenes that attended the burial of Lilyan Tashman, screen star, in New York last week, we might well ask, with the Ottawa Journal, "Are we civilized?"

It is difficult to understand the mentality of men and women who turn solemn funeral rites into a riot that thirty policemen cannot handle or the morbid curiosity that impels supposedly civilized human beings to act like savages.

At this funeral, we are told, thousands milled around the funeral chapel, and the congestion was so great that women fainted, one was carried with difficulty out of the crowd suffering from a broken leg—they even stopped in the midst of this act of mercy to let the sound film men and the newspaper photographers record the incident—and men climbed lamp-posts in the hope of obtaining a better view.

Mary Pickford, leaving the chapel by a side door, was crowded against the wall and the orchids were torn from her coat, while other famous personages were applauded on arrival as if they were attendants at the first night of some great new picture.

At the cemetery the conditions were even more disgraceful. Ten thousand people forced their way past the police, and as the body was lowered into the ground they rushed to the graveside, upset tombstones, and tore the floral tributes to shreds in their anxiety to get souvenirs of the occasion.

A HEAVY BURDEN.

Figures recently issued at Ottawa as to the cost of relief in Canada should convince those who are agitating for more generous relief payments that they are on the wrong trail, and that there is no possibility of their request being granted.

Since the depression got into its stride in 1930 the Federal Government has expended on relief the huge sum of $110,196,272.92.

As the municipalities and the provinces have contributed share for share with the Dominion in relief payments, this figure can be taken to mean that since 1930 the people of Canada have been saddled with a relief bill in the neighborhood of $400,000,000.

Most of this large amount has been converted into indebtedness which simply means that for generations to come Canadians will be taxed to pay for the effects of this depression, just as they are now struggling under the burden of taxation to meet Canada's war expenses.

Figures as to the distribution of federal relief merely point the lesson. They show that Ontario has received 31 millions, Saskatchewan 17 millions, Quebec 15 millions, British Columbia 10 millions, Manitoba eight millions, Alberta six millions, Nova Scotia three millions, New Brunswick two millions and Prince Edward Island $272,000.

While some improvement is noted throughout the country, provincial relief reports show that in February there were still 267,853 families, with a total of 1,270,959 persons, still being assisted from the public funds.

In other words, one Canadian out of every ten is existing on relief at the present time, a figure which should indicate the impossibility of any substantial increase in relief allowances.

I LONG TO KNOW.

—(An Easter Message by Dyson Hague, Toronto.)

I don't think anyone at this Eastertime could have a more exalted aspiration than that great longing of St. Paul, Phl. 3:10: I want to know the power of His resurrection. The power of His resurrection! Think of it! The dynamic energy, age-lasting, world-inspiring, of that great and incontestible fact! Christ is risen from the dead. Well may each Christian heart re-echo, as its Easter longing: O that I may know it.

I long to know the power of His resurrection through that personal knowledge of Christ, which is the experience of every real Christian heart. "How do you know Christ is alive?" a skeptic once said to a Christian. And back came the answer splendid: "How do I know? I know He is alive because I spent an hour with Him this morning." Yes, the primary power of the resurrection is the everlasting evidence of personal experience by which those who receive Jesus Christ realize in their hearts and souls that He that hath the Son hath life.

I long to know the power of His resurrection in inspiring, reviving and vitalizing faith. This living faith is the wonder of Christianity. A Japanese gentleman one day said to one of our missionaries: "Do you know what led me to Christ? It was the thought of your God being alive. You know our gods are all dead. But when I heard of the Living God and the Living Christ, it awakened my heart and led me to life."

I long to know the power of His resurrection to give me power to live not only the better but the transformed life. I long to join the countless army who know the power of His love, and that Christ died for them in order that they should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto God. The slums of a thousand cities in Christendom can bring witnesses to that. You can put a diamond in the mud, but it is a diamond still. The purest, sweetest lilies blossom from the mire. Christ's resurrection is the power that enables souls to live in the heavenly places in this wicked and adulterous generation. It is a fact. It is a fact that that power to-day is lifting untold millions to seek those things which are above, where Christ is sitting in glory on the right hand of God.

I long to know the power of His resurrection to awaken the deal and to transform these poor mortal bodies of ours to resemble that Body of Him in glory. I love those words of the epitaph of one of the greatest novelists of the last century, Charles Reade: "I hope for the resurrection—not from any power in nature, but from the will of the Lord God Omnipotent, who made nature and me. He created man out of nothing; which nature could not. He can restore man from the dust; which nature cannot. And I hope for holiness and happiness in a future life—not from anything I have said or done in the body, but from the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ." This is the victory, the victory. Thanks be to God who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ, in the power of His resurrection. I believe in the resurrection of the dead, and the Life of the world to come.

I long to know the power of His resurrection to overcome these vague timidities, these haunting anxieties, these dread forebodings of the dim unknown. I love to hear the Voice of the Easter dawn: "Fear not. Dismiss your fear. Do not be afraid. I am the ever-living One. I am now alive for evermore." O to be brave; to confront the future with the calm confidence of Him who knows that all things work together for good. The only cure for terror is Christ's presence and His reassuring voice. The only one antidote to all fear, all weakness, all doubt, is the power of His resurrection. When we see the Risen One in heaven crowned with glory and honor, in His victory we triumph. Fear vanishes. Hope rallies. Faith revives. Love, joy, peace irradiate the triumphant heart. It is the power of His resurrection. So sursum corda—up with hearts! Awake, you sons and daughters of sloth in selfish dreams. Awake, and Christ shall give you life. Awake, you sons and daughters of sorrow. He is alive. He lives. Take comfort in His word. Triumph in His resurrection.

A special investigation in Hamilton is having the effect of taking an average of five cases a day off the relief lists. It is undoubtedly true that in every community there are cases which could not stand up under a rigid scrutiny.

CHAPTER 26

"Oh, have I?" said Tiggie. "Well, perhaps I have. But coming to my senses, as you call it, doesn't necessarily involve leaving my friends in the lurch. I can tell you, Viola"—he spoke her Christian name freely perhaps because in his thoughts of her since their parting he had never called her by any other—if that's how you think of me, you've got a wrong impression of me altogether.'

"Oh no, I haven't," she said. She lifted her eyes to him with the words, and something in her look moved him deeply, though it no longer held fear. "I know you so very well. You're one of those people who never—never—count the cost. That's why——"

Tiggie interrupted her with a hot denial. "I'm not!' I swear I'm not! Lou're quite wrong. I'm not that sort of fool."

"Oh, I never said you were a fool," she said. "I'm sure you're not. But—no one is wise when he's acting in the dark. And that's what you're doing, Captain Turner, though——"

He interrupted her again. It was odd that he always forgot to be courteous in his dealings with her. "Don't you call me that!' he said. "I'm Tiggie—to you!"

She accepted the correction meekly. "I meant to say Tiggie, only you looked so fierce. Please—don't you think you'd better go now? If Philip were to come home——"

"You needn't hold Philip over me,' Tiggie told her grimly. "And let me tell you frankly, I've no intention of going until we've talked this thing out.'

"What thing?" she said.

"You." Tiggie spoke with squae emphasis, realizing that it was no moment for yielding. "You won't put me off now. It's no good trying. Besides, why should you? Surely I've as much right to know all about you as that confounded lawyer fellow I saw this morning!"

"Philip," she said.

"Yes,I suppose so—Philip." Tiggie's tone was aggressive. "He tried to stuff me with a lot of lies, but they only made me the more determined to see you and find out for myself."

"What a pity!" she said with a sigh.

"It isn't a pity!" Almost angrily he contradicted her. "It would be far worse to send me away believing what wasn't true. Besides. . .." He broke off, looking at her.

"Yes?" she said, after a moment, a faint tinge of color showing in her thin face.

Tiggie went on more deliberately. "I think it's a jolly good thing I have found you. You're looking horribly ill. Do you know that?"

"I can't help it," she said averting her face.

"Of course you cant' help it!" Tiggie's voice held the old curious mixture of indignation and compassion. "How could you—when you're miserable and browbeaten and half-starved?"

"Oh, I'm not starved," she said. "I mean, I could eat if I wanted to. Only——"

"It's the same thing," declared Tiggie. "When there's no one to look after you or care, of course you get ill. I can tell you I've never seen such a change in any one in so short a time; and you weren't exactly robust before."

"No," she said.

Something in her tone told him quite plainly what would never have been uttered in words. He bent and for the first time touched her, his hand upon her shoulder. "Viola!" he said, and again his voice shook beyond his control. "You're not—trying!"

She did not attempt to contradict him, simply sat passive as a slave in his hold. After a few seconds she spoke, her voice oddly detached, impersonal. "When one doesn't count any more—with anybody, it's silly to worry, isn't it?"

"You do count!" said Tiggie. The words burst from him; he could not have stopped them had a pistol been held at his head. "You do! Do you suppose I'd have taken all this trouble if you didn't?"

He paused, breathing heavily. She did not look at him, but a slight quiver went through her.

"You ought not to have done it,' she said.

"Well, I have done it anyway," asserted Tiggie. "And I'm not sorry, see? It's absurd to say you don't count. You do. Everyone does. And you're not going to be left to your own devices any longer. There's Helen—and Spot—and all the children down in Cornwall wanting you."

She shook her head. "I can't go."

"But why on earth not?" Tiggie spoke with insistence; there was no turning back with him now. What's to stop you?"

She hesitated, then again she shook her head. "It's no use, Tiggie. I can't. You've been much too kind to me—far, far kinder than I deserve. You'll have to take my word for it—and say good-bye."

"I'm not going to," said Tiggie flatly, but he spoke with gentleness. Who could be other than gentle with this poor little lonely soul! The pathos of her wrung his heart. "I've only just found you," he said. "You can't want me to go again so soon."

She did not answer him, only sat—his hand still upon her—dumbly waiting.

"Well, look here!" said Tiggie. He was making no headway and abruptly he realized it and decided to plunge. "I'm not going, whether you do or not, because it's quite evident to me that you're making a great mistake. Spot's mother was to blame in the first place. I wish to heaven I'd been near at hand."

"It wouldn't have made any difference," he said.

"It would, he declared. "I'd have done something to prevent you coming here. That man Grierson—is he really your stepbrother?"

She bent her head. "Yes."

"The only person in the world you've got to turn to?" he pursued relentlessly.

"Yes," she said again.

"You poor little thing!" said Tiggie, and suddenly his hand began to rub up and down on her shoulder, while he stroked her head with his other.

A tremor went through her. She made a slight involuntary movement. "So you went to see him!!' she said.

"Of course I did!" said Tiggie. "Did you think a formal letter and cheque would be enough?"

"It ought to have been," she said.

"Well, it wasn't. I'm not frightened away so easily. Lies don't frighten me either." Tiggie spoke with emphasis. "But if you don't want me to know the truth, I'll be content not to know it. There! Only I'm not going to leave you to the tender mercies of a heartless tyrant till you die of sheer misery. It may be no business of mine—as you've been too considerate to point out. But I'm going to make it my business. In fact, so far as I'm concerned, it always has been—ever since the day I first saw you waiting for that husband of yours on board The Pioneer."

"Ah!" She moved again, turning her face completely from him. "That—awful day! How—good you were! And you believed me, too."

"I always believe you," said Tiggie simply.

He saw her breast heave. "That's because—you're so honest—and straight yourself," she said.

"It isn't at all," he objected. "It's because I know you."

She made a gesture that was almost agonized. "What if you don't know me? Tiggie, what if I'm not—what you think? What if—what Philip told you—is all true?"

"You don't know what he told me," said Tiggie.

"Yes—I do" She spoke with increasing effort. "And—and though he's hard—terribly hard, he's not a liar.' She began to sob—heavy long-drawn sobs that shook her from head to foot. . "He's told you the truth—as he sees it. You—you haven't believed him. But—that doesn't make it—a lie!"

Her utterance was suddenly choked; she covered her face while an agony that seemed too great for tears convulsed her whole being.

Tiggie hung over her deeply concerned. "Don't, child, don't! You musn't. You'll make yourself ill." He poured out the words over her bowed head. "Listen—listen! That isn't what matters now. It's the future we've got to deal with, not the past. I'm going to help.

"Tiggie," she said, forcing her voice to some measure of steadiness, "you say you believe what I tell you. Well, I must tell you everything, that's all. And then—I just want you to go away. I can't bear it—if you don't."

To the Editor of The Examiner:

Dear Sir,—

THE DAY OF RESURRECTION.

The day of Resurrection;
Earth, tell it our abroad;
The Passover of gladness
The Passover of God;
From death to life eternal
From earth unto the sky.

Our Christ has brought us over with hymns of victory. (Easter Hymns. Once again it is early morning, so early, and it is yet quite dark; again we are on our way to the tomb with the women who are carrying their prepared spices and ointments which they will not need now for the tomb is empty, to their great grief and dismay and sorrow they think the beloved body has been stolen.

How true it is that in our most poignant sorrows we are most near to our highest joys though at the time we are unaware of the fact. Weeping-Mary Magdalene stoops and looks into the empty tomb, oh, yes, all too true He is not there, but she turns arouni and confronts Him, yet, she knows Him not and first of all He tests her love and He says—"Why weepest thou, then she cries, if thou hast bourne Him hence, tell me where Thou hast laid Him. His answer is—Mary, and immediately she cries out "Rabboni" (Master). Then He commissions her to go and tell His brothers (His disciples) that He ascends to the Father. Oh, the unclouded joy of that day, for their greatest sorrow has been turned into the purest joy in the strength of its conviction they went gladly forth to dare, to die, singing praises in prison, suffering hardships with joyfulness—and how may we get this spiritual strength —by facing Jerusalem, and by remaining there in that close proximity to the highest until we are embued with power from on high, or power from within, which means the same thing, we sometimes speak of Heaven as above when in reality it is within us, and it is a quiet power, a power of great convictions, coming forth in every least thing we do or say.

WATER LILY.

One-Minute Pulpit

Now also when I am old and gray-headed, O God, forsake me not; until I have shewed thy strength unto this generation, and thy power to every one that is to come.—Psalm 71:18.

NEWS OF OUR OWN VILLAGE

Doc Boyle from Ottawa, east of here, give a talk on research work to the Rotarians when they et at Graham's Hotel Mon., but didn't say the boys in the dept. had found a way to take some of the frost outa these good old Canadian winters.

Maple syrup was on sale at the village market Sat., but most vests is still unspotted, we note, owing to the high price keeping the sweet stuff away from all but a few of the plutocrats, so to speak.

Your scribe had a ride in 1 of them new airflow horseless carriages the other day, and the danged thing runs so smooth over bumps you could scoot over a level railway crossing and not know it, unless a train happened to hit you on the same.

A box fight show was held in the "Y" gym here Wed. nite and a good time was held by all and sundry, even though the general opinion was that most of the world's champs ain't in no danger of being overthrowed by the local talent.

Moe Yokum and his musikans has been busy practising new tunes for the Warriors' ball that is going to be held Monday nite, and the boys promise to be plenty "hot" for the same, your scribe gleans.

Geo. Henry's beer bill was shoved through the other day, and village eating-house proprietors is busy checking up on the cost of steins, etc., while some of the boys is figgering out whether a pretzel factory would pay dividends.

The Inverlea bathing beach ain't going to be opened for a few weeks yet, your scribe hastens to state, but regrets to say he ain't got no information as to when Walt Stocker will have the benches out in the parks.

Fellowship of Prayer

Daily Lenten Devotion

Copyright 1934

Saturday, March 31. Read Luke XXIII: 39-49

"HE GAVE UP THE GHOST"

Jesus' last prayer is a line of poetry, taken from the thirty-first Psalm. He introduces into the line a word which the poet did not write, the word "Father." No prayer was to Jesus complete without that endearing word. "Father, into Thy hands I commend My spirit." He still calls God Father. The long-drawn suffering has not broken down his faith in God's fatherhood. God had refused to deliver Him from His tormentors. He had failed to take Him down from the cross. He had not stopped the mouths of the jeering crowd. He had allowed Him to suffer through six interminable hours. God had remained dumb. God had not lifted a finger. God had done nothing. But Jesus trusts Him still. God is still His Father. In the upper room Jesus had said to His disciples, "Be of good cheer I have overcome the world." He can say it still. The world has not shattered His faith or darkened His hope or soured His love. Mankind has done its worst. But He still believes and hopes and loves.

Prayer: Heavenly Father, we believe, help Thou our unbelief. We hope, help Thou our hopelessness. We love, help Thou our loveliness. The world is ever trying to break down our faith and hope and love. Strengthen us in the inner man that we, like Thine only begotten Son, may overcome. Amen.

Sunday, April 1, (Read Hebrews VII: 22-28)

"HE EVER LIVETH TO MAKE INTERCESSION".

Jesus was a man of prayer in this world. He is a man of prayer in all worlds. Death did not change Him. He is the same yesterday, to-day and forever. Prayer is a habit of love and Jesus loves forever. The Apostolic Church loved to think of Jesus praying in glory. It braced its heart by the thought that "He ever liveth to make intercession for us." This is a truth we too frequently forget. We think of Jesus praying before Easter, but not afterward. This is ignoring a glorious article of the Christian tradition. We need the strength which comes from the belief that Jesus prays for us forevermore. He is praying still for the coming of the Kingdom, for the final triumph of love. He is praying for the unity of believers. He is praying for the unity of bellevers. He is praying for all Apostles and prophets and pastors and teachers and evanagelists, missionaries and workers of every grade and name. He is praying that our faith may not fail. Because of our prayers, His and ours, His work is sure to prosper in our hands.

Prayer: O Thou risen and ever living Christ, we praise Thee that Thou has brought life and immortality to light. Having known Thee in the flesh, may we not lose Thee in the light which is inaccessible. Keep alive in us the assurance that hTou art with us assurance that Thou are 'with us world. Amen.

Foreign Affairs

Behind the Screen Austrian Politicians Scheme, Who Appear in the Limelight as Friends of the Working Class and as Guides.

(By H. W. L. MAHOOD)

The itch for publicity lets down many a man. Too often this is the record of men who enter politics. Once in, such representatives of the people manoeuvre to remain in. Gladstone was not such a representative of his constituency. His political life was based on high ideals. Defeat was by him welcomed rather than stooping to dirty self aggrandisement.

News are seldom complete. News are on the surface. There is a background to all news. The background takes longer to reach the people than the news. Without the background the picture is not complete. Years often pass before the public learns of the secret deals, the compromises, and the betrayals.

Dr. Otto Bauer is the leader of the Social Democrats. To him is due the failure of the workers' organization in Austria. Let him speak for himself. This is what he says: "In the first weeks of March our leaders were still in close personal contact with Dollfuss and frequently tried to get him to agree to a constitutional solution. At the end of March he promised our leader, Dr. Donnenberg, personally that at the beginning of April he would open negotiations with us for the reform of the constitution.

This promise he never fulfilled, for at the beginning of April he passed over definitely to the Fascist camp. This step he concealed from other nations, and refused to speak to any of the workers' organizations.

Both the Socialists and the Democrats were eagerly awaiting the opening of negotiations. Dr. Bauer continues his statement. When he said he could not receive the existing leaders we offered to send him other negotiators. He refused sharply. As we could not see him again we tried to negotiate through other people. Honestly, we left no stone unturned.

Dr. Bauer ought to have pointed out that there was one stone he and his followers left unturned. A united front of all the workers could have ground the Fascist Dollfuss into dust. Mass action could have rid Austria of both Dollfuss and the Fascist movement. This is the opinion of reliable and well-informed Austrian patriots.

The Communist Party proposed a united front to enforce the cancellation of the Dollfuss decrees by mobilizing the entire trade union power of the workers to form a proletarian united front for the disarming and dissolution of both Fascist groups, the Nazis and the Heimwehr. This united front had the power to resist all outs in wages, and against all reductions in unemployed benefits. Procrastination was the thief of the workers, one great opportunity. The cost in bloodshed would have been negligible compared with what followed in the streets of Vienna. This proposal was turned down by both the leaders of the Socialists and the Democrats. Dr. Bauer did not even reply. Evidently he had other plans. They were not the reasons of a statesman. They were the reasons of a cowardly selfish politician. For his lack of vision and courage, Austria now suffers.

Out of the depths many a people have cried for deliverance and for sane guidance. This was truly a midnight hour for the men and women most concerned in the welfare of all Austria. But the people were without a leader.

With great hesitation the decision was reached to approach President Miklas. He was receptive. He was very frank. He told the workers' representatives that his conscience was troubled by breaches of the constitution, but that he was powerless. This answer was a burden almost too heavy for even patriots to carry. Their shoulders sagged. But they were not broken in spirit. They wept but they never thought of stopping short of their quest.

From the second fruitless hope they turned to another. The Clerical politicians were accessible. To them they went for counsel and leadership. A great deal of goodwill was found. Anxiety to come to terms with Dollfuss and to make peace was expressed, by these men of the church and of the state. The effort made by the Clericals, after the interview with the workers, to persuade Dollfuss to consider the workers right and grievances, was met by a rebuff. He refused to hear the workers.

Patriotism, to be patriotism, must be triumphant. Like faith, it must be recaptured every day. Faith always means a battle. Faith is ever a strain. And patriotism to live must keep up the fight. In defeat is has often found the way to permanent triumph. From the clerical politicians, the workers went to the church. The Cardinal Archbishop received them with the utmost kindness. Dr. Innitzer is the Cardinal Archbishop of Vienna. He is a man of deep piety and recognized ability. He told them that Dollfuss was unapproachable. The workers sensed while in the presence of the Cardinal that he was with them in their trouble. He did not tell them so. What was better, they could see that he was. The spirit, and sympathy were more than any words. Only a truly great man can make an impression of oneness without words. The workers went from his presence comforted and strengthened. This they needed for the Vienna atrocity was but a few days away.

MONTREAL EXCHANGE

MONTREAL, March 31.—(CP)—Although the Montreal Stock Exchange was closed today for the Easter holidays, seven of the leading issues on the market were traded on the curb market floor.

Profit-taking eased the price to 38 when it closed 11 cents up.

Volume expanded in Noranda and some of the other base metal shares firmed lightly. Noranda at 41.25 was up $1.60.

TORONTO EXCHANGE.

TORONTO, March 31 (C.P.). — Moderately active and generally firm, industrial listing on the Toronto Stock Exchange closed the week and the month with a gain. Nickel held narrowly to the upside, closing at $28, while Brazilian and Ford "A" registered recessions of small fractions. Consolidated Smelters closed at 1.68, up ½.

Mountain Services Along Pacific Coast

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31 (AP)—Assembled beneath giant crosses atop mountain peaks, tens of thousands of worshippers will join tomorrow in Easter Sunrise Services in the Pacific Coast area.

Nearly 25,000 persons are expected to gather on historic Mount Rubidoux, scene of the first Southern California Easter service 26 years ago.

Approximately 30,000 are expected to attend service on Mount Davidson in San Francisco, where a new 103-foot lighted cross has been erected. A similar number are expected to worship in Portland.

A sermon will be preached at the base of Mount Whitney, highest peak in the United States, where a 100-foot cross is to be raised.

CHANGES MADE HOCKEY RULES

Players Falsifying Birth Dates Shall be Suspended for Not Less Than Two Years.

MINOR AGES SET.

TORONTO, March 31 (C.P.). — Drastic changes in Canadian Amateur Hockey Association playdown rules featured the annual meeting held to-day.

The meeting passed the following motion:

"In case of a playdown in which there is a home-and-home series and one team wins the first game by an overwhelming score, and play is in comparison with the score, the president of the C.A.H.A. may at his discretion and with due consideration cancel the second game. This power is also vested in the branch president."

The association ruled that a player falsifying his birth date shall be suspended not less than two years and not more than five, while officials of teams guilty of being a party to the falsification shall be suspended for life. Teams which are found guilty of playing ineligible players will lose the points they gained while playing the ineligible men, although the association may rule for replays of the games.

The ages of juveniles, midgets and bantams were set at 18, 16 and 14 respectively, all players being under the respective ages on January 1 of the year in which they wish to play.

CAN OF GASOLINE FOUND NEAR FIRE

Blaze in Kitchener Furniture Factory Believed of Incendiary Origin.

INVESTIGATION ASKED.

KITCHENER, Ont., Mar. 31 (C.P.)—The finding of a can containing gasoline or benzine near the spot where fire broke out early yesterday morning in the strike-bound plant of the Reliable Furniture Company was reported to-day by Fire Chief Guerin.

As a result, the Ontario Fire Marshal's department has been asked to investigate the outbreak. The blaze was almost coincident with the $100,000 fire which raged in the Metropolitan Store. The sprinkler system was set off, and the water released by it confined the blaze.

RIOTING BREAKS OUT AS GERMANS ARRIVE

LOS ANGELES, March 31 (AP)—Heads were battered and bodies bruised as police battled for nearly an hour with more than a hundred asserted Communists who gathered about a building last night, where officers and the crew of the German cruiser Karlsruhe were guests at a banquet.

The rioters, carrying red banners and displayed red streamers on their automobiles, attempted to destroy the building, police said. Captain William Hynes of the police "Red" squad and 15 men were unable to rout the rioters until they were reinforced by 35 detectives. No arrests were made.

The German sailors, who arrived to-day from San Diego where their ship is at anchor, gathered in the front ranks of the spectators and cheered as they watched the melee.

STONY CREEK, March 31 (CP)—While turning out to pass a car yesterday on the Niagara Highway near Webster's side road, Robert Date struck Arthur Bottomley, a pedestrian, who was taken to the General Hospital, suffering from severe lacerations and possibly a fractured skull.

After striking the pedestrian the driver allegedly cut in and damaged another car driven by Zaden Reedshow, Fruitland.

CHARLES FENNER DIES SUDDENLY

BORN IN ENGLAND.

After listening-in to the radio hockey broadcast from Detroit last night and while preparing for bed, Charles Fenner of 100 Stewart street was seized with a sudden heart attack to which he succumbed a short time later.

Husband and father of a wife and nine small children, Mr. Fenner a native of London, England, was in his 45th year. Unemployed for a period of about four years, he had been treated at intervals for severe attacks of acute indigestion, it is learned. Immediately prior to his death however, he was apparently in a good state of health.

Dr. C. M. Scott who was summond reported the facts of the death to Coroner Dr. T. W. H. Young. The latter who decided that no inquest will be held stated that death was due to "angina pectoris"

"It is another case," Dr. Young remarked, "where a person has believed himself to be suffering from acute indigestion when the real trouble has been a heart condition."

Mr. Fenner who had lived in this city for the past fifteen years, was one of the original members of the local corps of the St. John Ambulance Brigade, with which he was connected at the time of his death.

Besides his widow he leaves nine small children. They are: Jennie, Elizabeth, Gwendolyn, Esther, Gloria, Geraldine, Loretta, Charles and Stanley, also one sister, Mrs. James Shaw of Toronto.

The remains are resting at Belleghem's Funeral Home until 2 p.m. on Sunday. The funeral is to be held from the family residence at 2 p.m. on Monday with Venerable Archdeacon Dr. R. C. Blagrave rector of St. John's Church officiating. Interment at Little Lake cemetery.

TRADE GROWTH IS NOT MARKED

Although Some Improvement as Result of Empire Agreements.

BRIGHTER FUTURE.

LONDON, March 31.—The Financial Times, reviewing the first complete year's operation of the Ottawa Economic Conference agreement, said to-day there had been an improvement in some quarters in exchange of Empire goods. It noted particularly an improvement in the trade between the United Kingdom, India and South Africa, but said there had been no marked expansion of Empire trade as a whole.

The newspaper said, however, there was a strong evidence to indicate good results may be expected from the agreements when general conditions improve. The tendency since the start of this year, it said, supports this view.

The Financial Times estimated that British imports from Empire countries in 1933 totalled £249,450,000, an increase of £1,300,000 over figures for 1932. British exports to countries of the Empire, it said, however, amounted to £163,500,000, a decrease of £2,000,000.

It suggested heavy declines in the trade between the United Kingdom and the Irish Free State and between Britain and Hong Kong, the gateway to South China, were sufficient to account for the failure of Empire trade as a whole to respond to the stimulus of the Ottawa Pacts.

TURKEY ORDERS HIS ARREST ON GREEK VESSEL

Legation of Ankara, Turkey, to demand of the Turkish Government what justification it has for holding the Greek S.S. Maiotis, Samuel Insull's haven.

This threat of international difficulties between Greece and Turkey comes at a time when the two nations have been particularly friendly.

They recently signed a Balkan pact and a Turkish aviation mission visited Greece on March 25 in honor of Greek Independence Day.

Nevertheless, a strong feeling was evidenced here today that the Turkish action in holding the Maiotis at Istanbul was unwarranted and subject to criticism.

HAY UPSETS; TWO INJURED

WOODSTOCK, Ont., March 31 (CP)—Bramwell Green, R.R. No. 4 Woodstock, and Thomas Lee, of Beachville are in Woodstock Hospital as a result of injuries received when a load of hay upset. Green has a skull fracture, but is said to be making good progress. Lee has a dislocated shoulder.

Simple Rules Prevent HEADACHES

The best way—in fact the only safe, sensible way—to avoid headaches is to obey Nature. Live a moderate life. Eat moderately. Sleep sufficiently. Get lots of fresh air, exercise and recreation. Avoid worry. And, once or twice each week, enjoy a refreshing, pleasant-tasting glass of Andrews Liver Salt.

This last rule is extremely important. Even with the most careful living and the most regular physical habits you may still suffer from the effects of incomplete elimination of body wastes. Thousands of people suffer from this cause without suspecting it. Occasional use of Andrews helps your eliminative organs to function completely; hence Andrews helps you to new energy—keeps you fit—and corrects the conditions which cause headaches, indigestion, general body weariness, and the "little ills."

Begin following these simple rules for health. Take Andrews once or twice each week. Then you will escape those headaches which bother you so often now—and you will enjoy the pleasure of vigorous good health.

All druggists sell Andrews Liver Salt. In tins at 35c and 60c. Also, large bottle, 75c. Sole Agents: John A. Huston Co., Ltd., Toronto.

10 PIECE BAND MONDAY NIGHT

AT LEGION HALL.

In supporting a last-minute plea for the success of the "Warriors' Ball," to be held at the Legion Hall on Monday evening, with Mose Yokom's 10-piece orchestra in attendance, James Abraham, chairman of the Pension Committee of the local branch of the Canadian Legion provided The Examiner with some interesting facts concerning the work the Legion has performed on behalf of ex-servicemen during the past five years.

In that period, he stated $93,000 in pensions had been secured for ex-servicemen of the city, while in addition the Legion had been instrumental in getting medical attention for a number of necessitous cases. In many instances, Mr. Abraham said, it had taken the Legion years to establish cases and to prove continuity of disability from date of discharge from the services until sixteen years after the war.

Another work in which the Legion has been particularly active, he remarked, has been in the securing of relief from the Department for men on small pension and who are unemployed. The Legion had been successful in many instances of also securing grants from the Canteen Fund for payment of doctors, a charge which would otherwise have devolved upon the city.

Mr. Abraham, chairman of the Pensions and Relief Committee, has been particularly active in carrying on this branch of the Legion work.

The organization, it is interesting to note, has only one paid employee, all the other duties being carried out free.

"The Canadian Legion," Mr. Abraham believed, "along with all other ex-servicemen's organizations has much to be proud off in the assistance it is seeking to offer to our less fortunate comrades who are suffering through the result of disability caused by war service and the present depression."

Believing that the soldier organizations were assisting to weld together a very large body of men in the best interests of the country as a whole, Mr. Abraham urged that the ideals for which the Canadian Legion was striving could not be attained unless the Legion had the patronage of all public-spirited citizens of Canada.

FRANCE FEELS BUSINESS DROP

Industrialists Urge That Country Abandon the Gold Standard.

RIOTING IS FEARED.

(By Stuart Maroney—A.P. Staff Writer).

PARIS, March 31 (A.P.).—The pinch of gold prices and fears of further bloody riots are exercising a woefully depressing effect upon business in France.

Tourists, France's great "hidden exports"—already greatly diminished by the world economic crisis—are recognized to-day to have been almost eliminated as a result of the riots.

Many fled from Paris during the violent disorders in which police and anti-Government demonstrators battled in the streets with death to more than a score and injuries to hundreds.

Others, apparently despairing of an immediate improvement in conditions, have left since owing to the political unrest which precipitated and has trailed the rioting, even threatening at times to flare into new outbreaks.

Amid this unrest rises the voice of Premier Gaston Doumergue, insisting that the franc must be maintained but admitting at the same time that taxes must also be diminished if business is to survive.

Devaluation Possible.

Officials freely admit that devaluation of the franc, king of gold bloc currencies, is a possibility unless public finances are put in order.

In an effort to offset the necessity for cutting the gold content of the franc, Parliament has granted Premier Doumergue decree powers to balance the budget and bring about deflation of prices.

Among big industrialists a movement for revalorization is gaining ground, but they admit it will be a long time before rural residents—who have been protected by high tariffs—become convinced of what the industrialists believe already is a necessity.

MARKET SUPPLY OF SYRUP LIGHT

Price of Maple Product $2.50 a Gallon—Butter

EGGS SELL AT 18c.

Maple syrup was scarce on the farmers' market this morning. Only one vendor was visible, with plenty of patrons whose demands could not be satisfied. He was selling at 65 cents a quart, or $2.50 a gallon.

There was a large crowd in the basket section, where it was difficult to move around, so congested were the aisles. Produce was very plentiful. The average price of eggs was 18 cents a dozen, with 20 cents as the highest quotation, even at an early hour, and a happy medium achieved by a few ladies who asked 19 cents a dozen.

Butter was generally priced at 30 cents a pound, with two vendors asking 27 cents.

Chickens were 20 and 22 cents a pound, pullets were 22, hens 18 cents generally, with a few quotations as low as 15 cents. Turkeys were priced from 20 to 25 cents a pound, and geese 20 cents.

On the open market, potatoes were priced from $1.50 to $1.65 a bag, apples were 30 to 45 cents a peck, with choice Spys at 55 cents, mixed honey in the comb was 15 cents and pork was quoted at 14 and 16 cents a pound.

Six little pigs came to market in one lot and found buyers at $4 apiece, disappearing rapidly, all but the last, whose purchaser lingered somewhere while the bereft little porker grunted alarmingly under a sacking cover.

A dispute among soft coal operators at the bituminous coal code conference held up action on a joint committee agreement to put the industry on a seven-hour day.

LEGEND WAS DOOM OF STARVED BEAR

Indian Feared He Might S[illegible] for Fate of Another Tribal Family and Shot Bruin.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont., March 29 (C.P.).—An Indian legend coming down from the years before the white man trod the wilds of Algoma district was responsible for the death of a Batchawana bear in its den last January, according to John Tawabinsie, a full-blooded Ojibway trapper. He killed the bear after it had emerged from its hibernating quarters. Unable to obtain food the animal was starving to death.

"A long time ago, before the white man came, two Indian families were living close together between Mekatina and the Montreal River," related Tawabinsie. "It was a winter something like the present one, food was scarce and there was a famine among the Indians.

"One night a bear came out of its den, hungry, found the tracks of an Indian and followed them. The animal broke into the cabin, killed the Indian, his squaw and two papooses and departed." Another Indian found the family dead.

This is the reason I followed this bear and killed it," said Tawabinsie, who with Frank Cadreau had a trapping cabin nearby. They were afraid the bear would visit them in the night.

Tawabinsie and Cadreau had been visiting their traps when they came upon the tracks of the animal. When they stopped, the bear approached them. Tawabinsie managed to unloose his gun, but as he did so the animal disappeared in the bush. With their guns free the men tracked the animal to its den, under an old pine log.

"I looked in and saw its head with ears sticking up," said Tawabinsie. "He was all skin and bones. I aimed between his eyes and shot him twice. With one hand I pulled him out. Our dog went into the den and found the bones of another bear, which had apparently starved to death the previous winter.

CHOIR RENDERS SHORT CANTATA

"The Resurrection Morn" is Sung by Choir of Murray St. Church.

CHOIR WELL TRAINED.

The Good Friday music was beautifully rendered at Murray Street Church last evening. It consisted of a short sacred cantata apropriate to the Easter season, "The Resurrection Morn," by P. A. Schnecker, and two brief selections from "The Messiah," in "He Shall Feed His Flock," and "The Glory of the Lord."

The conductor and organist, Arthur Collison, L.A.B., A.D.C.M., was in charge of the musical service. Excellent training of the choral voices was apparent in the different renditions, while the choir itself lived up to the tradition of careful co-operation and deep interest in the music in hand, which Murray Street Church singers have built up for themselves in recent years.

The music of the very brief cantata is of the melodious, glowing type which springs from the pen of a German composer. After a short organ overture, the chorus comes in with "This is the day which the Lord Hath made" .... "We will rejoice"...."Death hath no more dominion over Him." Then the men's voices take up the story of Easter morn and the empty tomb, and another victorious chorale intervenes before the more sorrowful episode where the Magdalene weeps for her Friend and knows not that He stands before her. The chorus, "O grave, where is thy victory?" ushers in the finale, in which the entire group combines in a majestic outpouring of melodious alleluias to the risen King.

The very fine choral numbers were augmented splendidly by the equally fine solo work, with Miss Phyllis Rome, soprano, Miss Margaret Kitchen, contralto, Walter Farr, baritone, and Harry Wynne, tenor.

Of especial interest were the folowing excerpts from "The Messiah."

Miss Rome and Miss Kitchen had the solos in "He Shall Feed His Flock," with a very fine introduction by the latter. Miss Rome's bright, high, clear-toned soprano voice was superb in the air, "Come Unto Him, all ye that Labour."

The chorus had the honours in "The Glory of the Lord" and made it a noble, impressive rendition, the beautifully blended and controlled voices of the choristers swelling out in a shaded crescendo that was a flowing volume of powerful, rounded tone.

The sacred cantata, "The Resurrection Morn," which is peculiarly appropriate to Easter, will be repeated on Sunday evening by the Murray Street church choir.

GLADYS ADVISES A BLUING RINSE TO BRIGHTEN UP DULL, BLACK HAIR

By GLADYS GLAD

"Dear Miss Glad: In a recent column you said that bluing rinses help to brighten up dull black hair. Is it the ordinary bluing that is used in this rinse? And is there any special way in which the rinse must be used? Thanks. JUDY."

The bluing used in the bluing hiar rinse is not the same preparation that is used in laundering. There is a special hair bluing that is designed for use on gray and black hair. This hair bluing may be procured in any of the better class of beauty shops. The hair should first be thoroughly shampoeed, and every trace of soap rinsed away with clear, tepid water. Then enough hair bluing should be mixed with a quart of water to give it a rather deep, blue color, and the solution used as the final rinse. After this final rinse, the excess moisture should be removed with a lintless towel, and then, if possible, the hair should be shaken dry by the hands.

"Dear Miss Glad: My figure has improved so tremendously through the advice in your 'New Figure' booklet, that I've returned for further aid. I followed the reducing course in your booklet, and lost 33 pounds. And I sure am grateful to you. However, I've heard that the white of egg can be used as a dry shampoo. Can you explain just what the entire procedure is?

"MARIE."

A most effective dry shampoo can indeed be made of egg whites. The hair should first be brushed vigorously with an upward and outward stroke, to loosen any particles of dirt that may have collected on the scalp. Then apply the stiffly-beaten whites of two eggs to the head, and rub the albumen through the hair and over the scalp with your fingertips. Allow the egg whites to dry on your head. When completely dry, brush every portion of your hair well with a flexible-bristled brush. This procedure will remove all accumulated dirt, dust and oil from the hair and scalp.

"Dear Miss Glad: Not long ago, you stated that you thought it dangerous to use a soiled powder puff on the face, and suggested that tiny bits of cotton be used instead. However, I've become quite attached to the little puff that I'm now using, and although it's rather soiled, I hate to discard it. Is there any way in which I could clean it?

"MARTHA."

It's a very simple matter to clean a powder puff, and it you make it a practice always to keep your little favorite spick and span, there's no reason why you should have to discard it. Fill a basin with hot, soapy water and allow your puff to soak in it for a few minutes. Then rub the puff between your hands, and squeeze the soapy water through it until every trace of dirt and grime has been removed. When the puff is absolutely clean, rinse it in clear water, and place it on a towel to dry. And when ecompletely dry, rub the puff briskly between your hands, in order to restore it to its former softness and fluffiness.

EDITOR'S NOTE: While it is impossible for Miss Glad to answer beauty questions by mail, she will be happy to send you her pamphlets on 'The New Figure' and 'Beauty Culture' if you will write her, care of this paper, enclosing a self-addressed envelope stamped with a three-cent stamp, and ten cents in coin for each, to cover cost of printing and handling. Personal questions on beauty will be answered through Miss Glad's daily column.

Throws Away $2,000 And Then Suicides

JEROME, Pa., March 31 (C.P.)—A miner who police said tossed more than $2,000 in greenbacks to the winds before he was stopped, hanged himself in the County Home on Thursday night, authorities disclosed yesterday.

The man, John Garber, 43, was found by police Thursday standing in a shallow stream apparently attempting to drown himself. He had been taken to the home pending a mental examination.

Investigators said they believed Garber had thrown away possibly as much as $10,000 in $50, $20 and $10 bills, but only $2,000 had been recovered by neighborhood residents who turned the money over to the authorities. Records showed the man to have between $25,000 and $30,000 in banks, investigators said.

FAHEY DECLARES HE IS GUILTLESS

Escaped From Leavenworth Penitentiary 24 Years Ago, Since Resided in Canada.

CLEMENCY IS SOUGHT.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

EDMONTON, March 31.—The Edmonton Bulletin, in a copyrighted story, said today that James Fahey, arrested last Wednesday at Jasper Park, Alta., for escaping twenty-four years ago from Leavenworth Penitentiary, has issued a signed statement in which he claims he was innocent of a chargeof armed mail train robbery on which he was sent to Leavenworth in 1909.

Fahey was arrested on a charge of poaching, and was tentatively identified subsequently as a man sought for twenty-four years for breaking prison in the United States.

In the statement, the newspaper said Fahey, admitting his real name is Frank Grigware, described events leading to his arrest for train robbery and his subsequent escape from the Kansas penitentiary.

Clemency Is Sought

Meanwhile, it added, Fahey, as he is known in Jasper, has numerous friends working for his release. It said the Jasper Chamber of Commerce had telegraphed Prime Minister R. B. Bennett and President Frankin D. Roosevelt of the United States, seeking executive clemency for the 46-year-old man who has been known as a model husband and father, and a respected member of the community in which he has lived for ten years.

Petitions, it said, have been sent also to the Governor of Kansas and the Governor of Nebraska, the State in which the robbery of the train took place.

In his statement as carried by the Bulletin Fahey says he has been a naturalized Canadian citizen since about 1912, when he arrived in Edmonton. The statement says he entered Canada at Port Arthur and worked in various capacities at Yorkton, Sask.; Rainbow, Sask.; Edmonton, Spirit River in the Peace River Crossing before settling at Jasper.

CHOIR PRESENTS THE CRUCIFIXION

St. John's Choir Responds Nobly in Annual Good Friday Offering.

BEAUTIFUL CANTATA.

"The Crucifixion," which is "a Meditation on the Sacred Passion of the Holy Redeemer," with music by Sir John Stainer, was sung with effective simplicity and appealing charm last evening, by the choir of St. John's Church, with the organist and choir leader, Frederic G. Mann., L.Mus., directing.

The choir responded nobly to the skilful training of their director, and the shading and expression in this majestice, formal sacred meditation, ,made the rendition by St. John's choir quite outstanding in the annals of a Good Friday musical performance which has seen many renditions in the city. An attribute that made the whole effect very attractive was the fact that most of the words could be plainly discerned, so that the thread of the story was not lost to the ears of the listeners, as often happens.

Commencing with the sentence in recitative: "And they came to the place named Gethsemane, and Jesus said to His disciples, 'Sit ye here while I pray'," the theme progresses through the Passion and sufferings of the Redeemer to the final tragic drama of Calvary. The music, while sombre at times, is not overly dark, but the Sorrows of Christ constitute the main thread of the narrative, which depends largely on recitative, and is lightened at intervals by the hymns in which the congregation joins.

These have to do with "The Mystery of the Divine Humiliation," the Litany of the Passion, "The Mastery of Intercession," and the adoration of the Crucified. The Meditation throughout is of a dignified, intellectual character, and the rendition by the choir lived up at all times to this aspect of the composer's thought.

Especially fine in the cool, careful shading of the boys' voices was the sofe repetition of "Jesu, Lord Jesu," against the background of adult singing.

Extremely fine in its shading and expression, also, was the louder chorus, "Fling Wide the Gates, for the Saviour Waits on Tread on His Royal Way," with the pure treble of those sweet, clear boyish voices blending beautifully with the deeper tones.

Sensitive phrasing characterized the precision of the recitative by the soloists, in a fine sustaining of the mournful character of the theme.

Main soloists for the rendition of the Meditation on the Passion were H. Ridgeley and William Coleman, tenors; D. Melton and J. R. Roberts, bassos. A splendidly rendered duett, "So Thou Liftest Thy Divine Petition," impregnated with expressive feeling, was sung by William Coleman and Leslie Dyer, while minor tenor solos were taken by Jack Branson ,and smaller bass parts by Arthur Bacon and Harold Wilson.

During the Offertory, the clean, true, sweet treble of Wallace Crouter, a member of the Boys' Choir, was heard in the lovely solo, "Shepherd of Souls," from "The Sign of The Cross."

The Easter meeting of the Wide Awakes group, Canadian Girls in Training, was held on Wednesday at 7.30 p.m., at the leader's home, the chair being taken by the vice-president, Bryar Edmunds, and fourteen members in attendance.

The "calendar event" was an outline of the story of Romeo and Juliet by Marjorie McDowell, and the current event covering recent fires set by school boys in Montreal was given by the presiding officer, Bernice Smith being appointed to take this feature at next week's meeting. Business items were concerned with plans for raising money, and the remembrance of a sick member with a shower of Easter cards and ice cream.

An 7aster reading, "The White Rose," was given by Bernice Smith and a responsive service, "The Risen Saviour," featured the devotional period, the topic taken up covering the last week of Christ's life, from Friday, March 31, to April 7, A.D. 30, the Easter story to be continued at next week's meeting.

MILLBROOK

"Hints for the Home Nurse" took up the time allotted to the program at a recent Institute gathering in a western Ontario branch, the leader wisely drawing out from her audience suggestions that led on to practical discussion, rather than employing the lecture method and giving the whole talk herself.

"Does it bother the patient for the nurse to sit on the side of the bed and talk?" was a question that immediately brought a storm of protest, several speaking emphatically from experience of their absolute dislike of this habit. Included in th's bit of discussion was also a strong prohibition of the nurse standing at the foot of the bed to retail a morsel of gossip and giving emphasis to her remarks by thumping on the bed's footboard—"anything more likely to tire the patient out and wreck her nerves it would be hard to imagine," was the way one member voiced her feeling; "and along with this I want to protest against the one caring for the sick person sitting near the side of the bed, and as she talks kicking it constantly, keeping the ill one in a perfect fever of nervousness and destroying any chance of rest."

Urging that the family should be warned not to walk heavily, nor to shut doors with a bang, while there is a sick person in the home, came from the chair, and another lively discussion was started when she asked whether a patient "minded whispering in the sick room, or outside in the adjoining hallway?" Not one good word was found for this reprehensible practice, and loud talking anywhere in the house was also condemned, together with the habit some practical nurses have of taking the visitor to the sick room into one 'next door' as she was taking her departure, and remaining there for half an hour or more talking in low tones. "The patient knows they are discussing her, and her symptoms, and is likely to develop a high temperature as the murmur of voices reaches her, and she speculates, almost unconsciously, on the line the conversation is taking."

Of course, the matter of proper ventilation, and prompt and careful obedience to the doctor's orders, had a share in the afternoon's talk, also other matters such as placing the bed so the patient is not facing the direct light from a window, and that the electric light does not shine immediately into the eyes of the sick one. "Oil the door hinges," said one member feelingly; "in my last illness the creaking of the door every time it was opened or shut nearly drove me mad, and I was almost too weak to ask the nurse to have the matter remedied. The leader agreed, and also emphasized having any window sash that was loose and rattled with every draught or bit of breeze, made tight and not to allow any bit of vine or twig immediately outside to brush against the pane.

Another member spoke strongly about the habit of some home nurses in placing trays, or medicine bottles, on the polished surface of stand or dresser, or on finely-embroidered cover, without taking the precaution of first putting table oilcloth as a protection underneath. "I suffered the most excruciating worry once in seeing my polished furniture, in the care of which I had always taken such pride, marked and spoiled with bottles, spoons and glasses, trays of food, etc. and yet I was too sick to lift my head from the pillow and utter a word of protest. It did not hasten my recovery any, I can assure you."

Naturally some time was given to talking of the food tray, making it attractive and yet avoiding the blunder of over-loading it, with the result that it becomes repellent to the sick person. The leader reminded her listeners also that the "in-between" nourishment should always be brought in as dainty as possible, and mentioned the much-to-be-condemned habit of asking the patient what she would like to eat. "A sick person cannot make decisions on such matters; the doctor will give the home nurse definite instructions as to diet, and you must study to know the likes and dislikes of your patient, and then prepare the food accordingly."

In closing, for time was up all too quickly, the subject of keeping the hot water bottle filled freshly as often as necessary; of having pillows "plumped up," and plenty of water for bathing, all received attention.

Amoebic Dysentry Is Common In Shanghai

MONTREAL, March 29 (CP) — Amoebic dysentry, dread disease that has caused three deaths in Montreal among the 21 cases reported to city health authorities, is fairly common at Shanghai's international settlement, J. A. Stafford, Public Health Officer in the Chinese city, said here to-day. In the Far East, however, it was not feared so much as smallpox, cholera or bubonic plague.

In most cases the source of amoebic dysentry in Shanghai had been traced to the Malay States and the tropical Orient.

Accompanied by his wife and son, Mr. Stafford is on his way back to his home in Scotland for a holiday.

YOUNG FARMERS URGED TO BUILD

in connection with the discussion on these points it was noted that the Department of Education has purchased five hundred copies of Beverly Nichols' "Cry Havoc" in abridged form for distribution among the schools of the province. Lastly Debts—total national debt twenty billion, with the total national wealth as but thirty-five bil[illegible] dollars; onehalf the Federal income going to pay interest; and 85 per cent of Canadian farms mortgaged. Correcting the last item which the speaked said had since been found to be somewhat exaggerated, it was stated that 40 per cent of the farms owned by the operator are heavily mortgaged, and 60 per cent of those not owned by the operator are also mortgaged with the latter in many cases foreclosed.

"Where two hundred years ago there was no debt at all, there is now a huge debt overshadowing everything else." Mr. Ghent was warmly applauded as he took his seat, and the chairman introduced Mr. Arthur Haas, of Holstein, who declared the object of such meetings is "to give you something to think about; and if this thinking issues in constructive action, we shall have accomplished our purpose."

No Remuneration

Emphasizing the fact that the leaders in this New Canada Movement receive no remuneration for their services, the speaker went on, "We are on the threshold of a new era, and I believe that in the next ten years we shall see changes in this Dominion never dreamed of in the past; hence we are faced with new problems which are to be faced in new ways and with new means. 'There is nothing permanent in this world except change,' and for this post-war generation we have a threefold program—education, organization, and then action. The Movement will supply church organizations, and other societies and study units, with literature that will set forth the problems of the day that they may be studied and a proper and practical solution worked out, for until we do think of these problems we will never attempt to solve them."

"We want to hang these two men, Ignorance and Indifference," proceeded Mr. Haas, showing chart Number 2, labelled, "This is what the New Canada Movement is Doing," "and if we turn the first into Intelligence, the second evil will be automatically overcome; and with the vision and enthusiasm of youth, combined with the sympathy and co-operation of the older people, we can hope to accomplish something."

"We found the people of the province just waiting for such a movement," declared the speaker, as he told of its origin on November 6, 1933, with ten boys in the "Big Team," the Rev. Mr. Thomas asking a blessing at the initial gathering in London, Ontario, before they started out with the objective of "remodelling the present system on Christian principles; we represent a principle, not a policy, and it is more or less in the hands of the youth of to-day which way Old Man Agriculture is to go."

"As a class, agriculturists do not yet know what we really want," Mr. Haas insisted, "and we want to start the people thinking. To do this we are trying to establish New Canada Units, with ten or twelve interested people meeting once a month to study and discuss all the questions affecting farms and farmers, prescribe certain remedies, and then unitedly support them. Later, regional conventions will be called, and eventually when we have one hundred thousand young people banded together in support of measures coming from ourselves, we hope to have a provincial gathering.'

Two pages have been taken in The Weekly Sun, on a cash basis, the speaker explained, in order to put over the program, with a strong board setting forth the problems in each issue, without monetary remuneration, the personnel including three outstanding farmers: W. C. Good, Paris; Ernest H. Clarke, of Aurora; and J. H. Gibson, Caledonia; three Professors each from the Department of Economics in their respective universities: Professor W. H. Drummond, University of Toronto; Professor H. C. Grant, University of Manitoba, and Professor Father H. Saint-Denis, University of Ottawa; Rev. Phillips Jones, Social Service Council of Canada, and Gordon Lapp, of the Boys' Work Board.

In the discussion period which followed the addresses, it was made clear that the only method of financing the movement is by voluntary contributions, "and for every contribution received we will send The Sun for three months." There is no membership fee, but a pledge is asked instead, and copies of this were passed round for signature; the six points being: 1—I believe that the old methods have failed to solve the new problems; 2—I believe that the "New Canada" will need wise and well-informed leaders; 3—I believe that rural youth should train to share the responsibilities of this leadership; 4—I believe the welfare of Canada is dependent on the welfare of agriculture; 5—I believe that only in unity can youth help agriculture; 6—I believe that enlisting in the New Canada Movement I can best serve Canada, and agriculture, and that, in service, I am following the principles of Christianity.

Questionaires Sent Out

Mr. Ghent explained that questionaires are sent out to the various units, individual replies being asked for, "that we may find out in what direction the people are really thinking; at the end of a three-months' course the letters received and filed at the Toronto office showed that we are apparently pretty much all travelling in the same route in oud thinking, and this will make it easier to state definitely five or six points which we are ready to stand by, and which we believe are necessary to the good of our profession as farmers."

"If Premier Bennett or Premier Henry were to ask the farmers what they want, they would receive a thousand different answers," was a statement in connection with the New Canada slogan: "Save Agriculture—Save Canada," so we offer study and discussion on all farm problems, with consequent action as the way to build a 'better Canada'."

Fourteen of the young farmers signed the pledge on Thursday evening, the organization of the unit to proceed at a later date.

ANGUS MAGINNIS LABOR'S TARGET

tions of the party, and may carry the battle to the C.C.F. convention to be held in Toronto on April 14. The final act of the meeting yesterday was to place the matter of the new constitution in the hands of a committee, which will sit this morning.

Controversial Issue.

Yesterday's meeting of the Labor Conference, representing labor groups from many centres of the Province, had another controversial issue introduced which came within an ace of breaking up the convention, and would ecrtally have done so but for the determined stand taken by Chairman Mould, who backed up his vocal effort with a quarter-hour of violent gavel-banging.

The trouble started with the reading of a letter from one labor group asking that All-Canada Congress of Labor delegates be barred. Immediately shouts of "scabs" and other expletives filled the air. The All-Canada delegates sprang out of their chairs and started for the doors and were headed off in the nick of time by Chairman Mould and his reverberating gavel.

"Don't be quitters and runaways!" he cried. "There are certain interests laughing up their sleeves at this possibility of a split. I won't have this conference broken up this way. If you leave you'll only be stool-pigeons in the hands of these interests. If all sections will play the game, we'll build up a political party."

Then, when the echoes of this row had hardly died down, came the main flare-up of the day.

Power to Expel.

Mr. MacInnis, producing what he called the "rough draft" of the new Ontario C.C.F. constitution, revealed that under Article 5 "the Provincial Council shall direct the affairs of the C.C.F. in Ontario, accept or reject applications for membership, and have power to expel members or groups, subject only to approval of the annual convention."

"Shortly after the suspension of the Provincial Executive," Mr. MacInnis explained, "the members of the National Council took up the matter of reorganization in Ontario. It was quite obvious that the old set-up was not satisfactory We trust we have found a basis on which every one can agree who approves of the Regina basis on which the C.C.F. platform was formed. This draft is not necessarily complete, and will be open to discussion at the convention on April 14."

The meeting, however, refused to wait until the convention to discuss the constitution.

There was no discussion as the famous beer bill received its third reading. The bill will be given royal assent by the Lieutenant-Governor Tuesday, and then will be pigeon-holed until after the election when it will come into effect on "proclamation." The measure will give hotels and restaurants the right to sell beer by the glass.

ADVERTISE IN THE EXAMINER

"Dearies" Is Very Successful Comedy

Staged on Tuesday by Mission Circle at Campbellford —Good Cast.

CAMPBELLFORD, March 31 (By Examiner Staff Correspondent). — Appreciated by a large audience, "Dearies," a comedy in three acts, was very successfully staged on Tuesday evening in the church hall of St. John's United Church, Campbellford, under the auspices of the Mission Circle of that church.

With a cast of characters that fitted well their parts, the play was quick of action and carried in it a good moral despite the many laughs it gave the audience. Dealing as it did with an orphan who runs away from the orphanage, the background of the story was interesting and threw into relief the actors, who all played up to their parts splendidly An accident and reconciliation conclude this very fine production.

The cast of characters was as follows: Deborah Main, matron of the orphans' home, Helen Thomas; orphans of the home: Barbara Black, Irene Jeffs, Kate White — Mrs. P. A. Morgan, Lena — Mrs. Stuart Nelson; Mrs. Langthorne, the mother, Doris Mason; Sylvia, the daughter, Alma Simpson; Mrs. Chase, the grandmother, Mrs. Morley Petherick; Mammy, a colored servant, ——; Dixianna, Mammy's twin sister, Ruth Plumpton.

The chair for the evening was taken by the Rev. H. P. L. Seymour. Between the acts musical numbers were given by a girls' chorus, and George Lucy. Albert Hazell presided at the piano.

Cathedral Musings

WHO can know the practical spiritual signification of the Cross except He who has been nailed thereon and suffered the pangs of crucifixion of thought and desire and of the mystic death! The external Christian sees only the wooden Cross, but he whose spiritual perception is open sees the living Cross in all its glory. Sublimely stands that Cross upon the mountain of the living Faith; magnificent is its aspect. Far into space shines the Light radiating from its centre and illuminating the darkness with its beneficient rays, giving life to all who behold it. Rise, oh man, up to your divine dignity, so that you may see the true Cross, the true Light. Not the dead wooden Cross, the emblem of ignorance and suffering; not the glittering cross made of brass, the emblem of vanity, sectarianism and superstition; but the Living Golden Cross, the emblem of Wisdom which each true Brother of the Golden and Rosy Cross carries deeply buried within his own heart.

He who knows practically the true mystery of the Cross is acquainted with the highest wisdom. He who is adorned with the true Cross is safe from all danger. Infinite power of the Cross! In thee is the Divine Sophia, Wisdom herself revealed. Buried deep is the foot, teaching us Patience; high into heaven reaches thy crown, teaching us Faith. Lifted by Hope, extended by Charity are thy arms, Light surrounds thee. In thy Centre is Reality in which is hidden the jewel of priceless value, the Truth. The unfolding of the four-square city reveals the mystery of the Cross to all who can read it.—Frater IX., Rosicrucian Order, San Jose, Calif.

GROVE STUDENTS PRESENT PLAYS

Well Directed French Stories Make Tremendous Hit With Audiences.

ENACT PARTS WELL.

LAKEFIELD, March 31 (Examiner Correspondence).—On Monday evening two plays were given in The Grove assembly hall by the pupils under the direction of the masters and made a tremendous hit with the audience. The plays were French plays, but were given in English, and were interesting in plot and full of humor, and the characters excellently depicted and the parts admirably taken. Dr. Mackenzie welcomed the visitors and made it possible for all to enjoy the performance.

The first was a comedy, "Le Baron de Forchief," and the main part was taken extremely well by Edward Wood, who fairly lived the part of the peppery baron, who really was not a baron but a retired business man, who had purchased a fine old chateau belonging to a practically extinct noble family, and who cooly took their name and title and had got away with it for eighteen years when exposure is threatened by a travelling artist.

The parts of the baron's (?) wife and daughter were exceedingly good and were taken admirably by Beverley Potts and Rickart Hepburn. The painter (Etienne Lambert), who destroyed the baron's house of cards was presented by Douglas Macdonald, who made such a hit as Cassius in "Julius Caesar" last year. The part of the second painter Ronquersele was represented by John Fletcher and was also excellent.

The butler was excellent with many fine bits of acting and little touches of rare humor. Allan Dawe filled this part and made a hit.

Between the acts a program of delightful music was given by Mrs. Fletcher at the piano and Mr. Fletcher with his violin. Mr. G. G. Connell also gave a couple of much appreciated selections.

The second play, "Le Voyage de M. Perrichon," was quite as good as the first, but with an entirely different theme.

M. Perrichon, with his wife and daughter, take a journey to the mountains, and attempts the ascent of Mer de Glace, but meets with an accident, and is rescued by a young man, who is a suitor of M. Perrichon's daughter, the fair Henriette. Later on, Perrichon rescues Daniel Savary, another young man who loves Henriette. Conceited and puffed up with his own importance, M. Perrichon wavers between Armaud and Daniel, and around this wavering centres much of the humorous action of the play. Every part was so well taken that it would be hard to "pick a star," but perhaps the fair Henriette, who filled the part of the pretty girl so well that some of the spectators felt it could not be a boy. Those who recall the presentation last year of "Westward Ho," will recall his excellent work.

The cast of characters in the two plays was as follows:

"Le Baron de Forchief":

Le Baron de Forchief—Edward Wood.

Etienne Lambert—Douglas Macdonald.

Rougeurolle—John de C. Fletcher.

Tronquoy—Allan Dawe.

Le Baronne de Forchief—Beverley Potts.

Adele—R. Hepburn.

"Le Voyage de M. Perrichon":

Perrichon—Kenneth Ramsay.

Le Commandant Mathieu—Christopher Peck.

Armaud Desroches—Peter Greenwood.

Daniel Savary—Donald Campbell.

Jean—Ian Shepherd.

Madame Perrichon—Ralph Beveridge.

Henriette—Donald Macrae.

Innkeeper—David Budden.

Property manager—S. Mitchell.

"Developing Opportunity for the Community and the Individual"

THE PLAYGROUND OF ONTARIO

SOMEONE has aptly called it "Beauty's Homeland," this Ontario highland district . . . region of lake and stream and forest . . . where Nature reveals herself in a variety of moods to those who seek rest and recreation in a real vacation land.

This highland country will be served shortly by a highway system that brings its scenic beauty within easy motoring reach of vacationists. Into it and across it the highways will swing, revealing new interest at every turn, making this virgin vacation country accessible to those who come for a day, a week, a month or who plan a camp or a summer bungalow in a region of rare vacation appeal. To two-thirds of Canada's entire population Ontario's Highlands are now only, what you might call, a few hours' ride away and but little more for the visiting thousands who come from across the Border to holiday in "Beauty's Homeland."

The new highways will bring new interest and opportunity to this section of Ontario's province. Highways serve the daily life of the people, linking communities together, contributing in important measure to the expansion and development of agriculture and mercantile activity.

Proud of the part it has been privileged to play in this great undertaking, the firm of Crawley and McCracken pays tribute to the statesmen and officials who made these highways possible . . . to the engineers who planned the work . . . to the legions of men who carried the work through. "Canada's Biggest Cook" has marched with the men that made the highways — feeding, housing and caring for them, relieving officials of annoying and harassing detail in connection with camp service and management.

CLEAN POLICE BLOTTER.

Good Friday passed uneventfully in Peterborough without so much as a minor misdemeanor to mar the cleanness of the police blotter, and as a result there was no Police Court this morning.

The Fire Department received one call yesterday to a chimney fire at 210 Bethune Street; and this morning they sped away to 585 Patterson Street on a similar errand.

A NATATORIAL EFFORT.

Earning the doubtful distinction of taking the first swim of the season, J. Harold Fry, superintendent of buildings for the Toronto Savings and Loan Company, recently figured in an unrehearsed incident, the humor of which was probably not so apparent to him as it was to the onlookers.

Scouting around at the rear of the Liquor Store on George Street in the course of his duties, Mr. Fry accidentally sprawled into 2 feet of watery slush, in which he gave a neat display of his natatorial skill.

ROBINS ARRIVE

So pleased was he to note the re-appearance of Spring's harbingers that a local resident this afternoon phoned the editorial room at The Examiner and was prepared to pay for insertion of an item reporting that he had seen a couple of Robins.

The welcome little feathered visitors were seen gaily strutting in the backyard at the residence of Bertram Howden, 301 Romaine street, bringing with them the happy assurance that Spring is here.

NEW GOVERNMENT HOUSE IS PLANNED BY N.S. GOVERNMENT

BUILDING COST £52,000.

HALIFAX, March 31.—(CP).—Nestled in the heart of Halifax mercantile district, at the base of a long hill, gradually rising from the harbor to the crumbling walls of the Citadel, Nova Scotia's historic Province House is nearing its last days when provincial legislators will meet in its red-carpeted assembly hall.

Enclosed by a tall iron-rod fence, the dull-grey stone pile, seat of the first responsible government in Canada, was designed, legend says, in Lord Nelson's time by John Merrick, master painter at the Dock Yard. For more than 100 years it has served as the home of the government, its legislators and government offices.

But now, a new house is planned and the future of the Province House, the corner stone of which was laid by Lieutenant-Governor Sir George Provost, Aug. 12, 1811, is unknown. Eight years it took to complete, at a cost of £52,000, considered in those days "far too great an expenditure" for available revenue.

Through all these years the building has come through with only interior changes. Many were the battles against proposed alterations and lovers of its original architectural beauty were successful in preserving unchanged the now bleak-appearing contour. All efforts to add another story or wings to the building were frustrated.

And, as described by the late Doctor Archibald MacMechan, 40 years professor of English at Dalhousie University, "the Province House stands like the rock on which its foundations rest."

"Mystery shrouds identity of the architect," wrote Dr. MacMechan. "Tradition will have if he was John Merrick, but how a master painter should be almost an inerrant architect is not vouchsafed. The Acadian Magazine of 1886 gives the honor explicitly to Richard Scott. Whoever he was, he achieved a masterpiece.

"The mass and solidity of the fabric resting on piers and arches which Roman masons might have reared, the regularity of the ashlar, the Ionic columns supporting Grecian pediments, empty niches in the grey walls of hewn Ramshag stone all tell the one story.

"Within doors, the tale is taken up and carried on by balustrades, cornices, mantels, fanlights, fire places, panelled mahogany doors. Without and within, Province House is impressed with the classic dignity, the subtle charm deriving from the genius of the brothers Adam.

"The council chamber is still much as it was a century ago. It is a high-vaulted, stately room, rich in gesso work and Adam stucco. The doorway would not disgrace a European palace."

It was in this room Charles Dickens in 1842 gazed on a scene of colonial pomp and grandeur which he described like seeing Westminister through the wrong end of a telescope.

Outside the window of the premier's office stands the weather-beaten statue of Joseph Howe, only yards from where he was tried as a young man in 1835 for attacking through his paper "The Nova Scotian," a group of wealthy merchants whom he accused with mismanaging affairs of the city as a Commission of the Peace. But he was freed on a charge of criminal libel and now his likeness in bronze stands almost on the scene where he was carried shoulder-high by the jubilant crowd, celebrating his release.

The Province House probably will remain. But it's future is uncertain. Suggestions have been made to use it for a provincial museum by presence of an Archives Building at Dalhousie University make this improbable.

Churches At Rome Anticipate Easter

(By A. E. Stuntz, A.P. Foreign Staff)

ROME, March 31 (A.P.). — Paschal candles were lighted in all of the nearly 500 Roman churches and basilicas this morning as priests and laymen alike celebrated Holy Saturday.

Church bells which have been silent since Holy Thursday rang out, sacred images which have been somberly draped in commemoration of Christ's passion and death were uncovered, and joyful organ music once again was allowed to resound through the churches.

The ceremonies marked the end of the 40-day Lenten period of mourning for the death of Christ. To-day's services held a note of joyful anticipation for to-morrow's anniversary of His resurrection.

Cardinal Pacelli lighted the Easter fire in St. Peter's this morning by striking sparks from a flint. The "new fire," as it is called, was suggestive of the resurrection.

The Pope's paschal candle measured eight feet high and three inches in diameter. It was blessed by Cardinal Pacelli, who conducted the Vatican Holy Saturday Mass, and imparted Benediction with relics said to have been connected with Christ's passion and death.

Similar ceremonies took place at St. John Lateran, St. Maria Maggiore, and St. Paul-Outside-the-Walls.

CANTATA SUNG AT ALL SAINTS'

Maunder's "Olivet to Calvary" Featured Celebration of Good Friday.

CHORAL ACT OF WORSHIP.

An impressive feature of the Eastertide services at All Saints Church was the devotional cantata, Maunder's "Olivet to Calvary", sung by the choir Good Friday evening.

The large congregation participated in this choral act of worship by assisting in the singing of three interpolated hymns, "Just As I Am", "In the Hour of Trial" and the concluding "Rock of Ages". Preceding the cantata, Rev. J. D. Patterson read the lesson for the day and conducted the opening prayers, a solemn prelude which evoked the deep religious spirit of Maunder's commemorative drama of the way to Calvary.

The choir of fifty-five voices gave a splendid account of Maunder's inspired musical setting of themes taken directly from Scriptural records of the last few days of the Saviour's life on earth. The acclamation of the first part depicting Christ's entry into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, with its Hosannas to the Son of David, disclosed the vocal resources and fine balance of the choir directed by George Chandler. The change of mood to the portentous scene on Mount Olivet, deepening to the menace of the approaching tragedy was expressively reflected by the choir as it developed the pathos of the final scene on Calvary's hill.

In this presentation of atmosphere the choir was never more effective, and the Good Fridays of the last twenty-four years have been marked at All Saints Church by an unbroken succession of choral tributes to the Redemption. In the list of choral features of Holy Week in the past are recalled "The Crucifixion", "The Darkest Hour", and other vocal works of religious spirit which have been conducted by Mr. Chandler and the capable choir of All Saints. They excelled themseleves last night in such episodes of the Maundler composition as the scene before Pilate, introduced by the phrases: "Then Came Jesus forth from the judgment hall", "The March to Calvary".

The soloists were Mrs. J. A. Howard, soprano; F. C. Roberts and Mr. Chandler, tenors; T. H. Boddy and J. Gibson, basses. Mrs. W. A. Logan's accompaniment at the organ was a valuable aid to the choir.

MISSION WORK AMONG SAILORS

Subject of Interesting Talk at Lakefield Efficiency League Meeting.

INSTITUTE MEETS.

LAKEFIELD, Mar. 31 (Examiner Correspondence)—The regular meeting of the Efficiency League was held on Monday evening Mar. 26th with an attendance of seventy-two. The program was in charge of Mrs. Etta Garbutt, leader of the Blue group.

Miss Pearce, representative of the Upper Canada Tract Society was present and gave an illuminating talk on the Mission work among the sailors, lighthouse keepers and mounted police. Miss Etta Garbutt took the topic which was the origin and story of the familiar song "When you and I were young Maggie" and at the close of the topic Miss Jean and Master Carmen Payne delighted the audience with a song "The Vulgar Wolf." Miss Frieda Webster gave a reading and Miss Webster also sang a duet, "Reuben and Rachel" with Miss Doris Chittick.

Rev. W. R. Archer, B.A. brought the meeting to a close with the benediction.

Women's Institute

A meeting of the Women's Institute was held on Saturday night at the home of Mrs George Spence with about twenty members present. Mrs. A. Davis, the president, was in the chair. It was decided to send flowers and fruit to fourteen shut-ins. It was decided to hold a quilting in the Town Hall on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Spence donated the lining for the quilt.

Mrs. Chaplin and Mrs. Murphy each contributed a reading to the evening's program which were particularly appropriate to the occasion and much enoyed by the ladies.

Mrs. Davis read an address of apreciation to Mrs. McMaster, who leaves next week to make her home in Toronto, and who has been a valuable member of the Institute and who had very capably filled the office of convenor of the equipment for more than a year past. Mrs. Spence presented Mrs. McMaster with a pretty China breakfast set as a memento of the Women's Institute and hoped it would remind her of the happy associations in Lakefield.

Mrs. McMaster replied suitably, assuring her comrades of the Institute of her enjoyment of the work among them and hoping sometime that the friendship will be resumed. Mrs. McMaster had worked diligently and efficiently on the relief committee and the convenor Mrs. Morrison, paid a tribute to her splendid service. During the past few weeks she had knit twelve pairs of men's socks, besides other articles.

The meeting closed in the usual manner.

COOKING SCHOOL COMING TO CITY

SERVICE TO COMMUNITY

The Canadian School of Home Science is coming to Peterborough shortly. Outstanding amongst the institutions of its kind on this continent, over half-a-million Canadian housewives have personally endorsed its activities, attended its lectures and demonstrations, welcomed its up-to-the-minute instruction in cooking and home management.

Miss Frances Thompson, internationally-known Home Economist, and former Instructress of Household Science for the London (England) County Council, will personally conduct the Peterborough School. Known from coast to coast, through her lectures and demonstrations in all the main centres of the Dominion, she will reveal to local housewives much that is new in the preparation of foods and the determination of appetizing menus, and she will have much to say on the modernization of the kitchen, the introduction of labor-saving devices, the elimination of the unnecessary drudgery that is too often associated with domestic affairs.

In arranging for Miss Thompson's appearance here, The Examiner believes it has again been a distinct service to the women of this community. The Canadian School of Home Science is not only unique in the scope of its activities —embracing as it does so many branches of domestic science—but it is thoroughly "of the Empire" in character and personnel. Miss Thompson, herself an Englishwoman, is a graduate of the National Training School of Domestic Science, Westminster, London, England, and a former instructress for the Education Department of the London (England) County Council. Her assistants are all Canadians.

Canadian Made Materials

Ninety per cent of the products, materials and equipment used for the lectures and demonstrations are of Canadian manufacture. All of them are of Empire origin.

Miss Thompson came to Canada in 1929, scarcely realizing that she would find a field of activity so fertile as to make her internationally famous. Starting her demonstration schools in a small way, she so impressed her audiences that each year found the interest increasing until last year the sessions of the Canadian School of Home Science conveyed instruction to more than 200,000 Canadian housewives.

No stage success in Canada has attracted such enthusiastic audiences as Miss Thompsons cooking demonstrations. Nevertheless, her chief success is said to lie in another direction, namely, in the stimulating of the homemaking faculty of Canadian women. Hundreds of thousands of women have been made conscious that there is such a thing as domestic economy and that it can be studied and mastered and enjoyed. The effect on the country at large of such an influence has not been overlooked by the leaders of national women's organizations and, from time to time, they have publicly praised the Canadian School of Home Science for its Dominion-wide endeavours.

The outward sign of the School's work is the series of demonstrations held in leading cities. These demonstrationn, however, represent only the field work following valuable research performed in Miss Thompson's test kitchen, or "scientific laboratory." A most unlikely place for a kitchen, too—twenty-one floors above Bay Street level in downtown Toronto. Yet it is a kitchen to arouse the envy of any housewife. It has the very latest equipment—so much so that it might be called the housewife's dream. It has the newest in ranges and refrigerators; the sink at exactly the right height; the stove, cabinent and general illumination just as it should be .... the last word in kitchen-ware and utensils and work-savers of all kinds.

Test Everything

An interviewer found Miss Thompson busy in her laboratory and was soon enlightened about the purpose of the Canadian School of Home Science. "Here we test everything that comes on the market pertaining to the Kitchen," explained Miss Thompson. "We give it a fair trial. Then if it is good we start using it and telling the homemakers who come to our schools about it. If we find it's not practical or useful, or is too expensive, we don't use it again."

"That's why I feel that those who come to the School get a lot of valuable information apart from the actual cooking suggestions—for the average housewife simply hasn't time to try out all these things for herself, for hardly a week passes that does not see some new household appliance on the market, some new food product, ready-cooked or easily cooked.... some new equipment or contrivance that means actual saving of money or equivalent saving in time and labor. If they're good, the housewife should know about them; and if they are no good, she should also know about them, in order to avoid purchasing them. She can't try them out first, so we do it for her, and I think this service an extremely important part of the Cooking School."

Miss Thompson has that thoroughness for which the English are famed and she also has that rare faculty of imparting knowledge to others simply and clearly.

"Home cooking and home economy are not complicated things," she said, "if we know the right way to tackle them."

And how to do it the right way, which, after all, is the easiest way, will be shown at the forthcoming Peterborough cooking school, preliminary arrangements for which are now being made.

MINSTREL REVIEW IS WELL RECEIVED

Successful Event Sponsored by Men's Softball Club—Entertaining Program.

OMEMEE, March 31 (Examiner Correspondence).—The minstrel revue held in Coronation Hall Friday night, sponsored by the Men's Softball Club and presented under the direction of Sherman Preston of Peterborough, was a decided success. A fairly large crowd was in attendance and were delighted with the entire show. Mr. Preston had a cast of over forty members from Peterborough, and the dancing, and singing was of a high character. The costumes were beautiful and varied and the scenic effects left nothing to be desired. All in all the play was staged remarkably well, and those who stayed away missed a treat.

The opening ensemble was productive of good singing and much hilarity provided by the black-face comedians. The singing and playing of the Cowboys in the next number caught the fancy of the audience and they were roundly applauded. Two following skits, "The Honeymoon Hotel,' and "Annie Doesn't Live Here Any More," were well received by the audience. A female impersonation by the director, Mr. Preston, had the crowd guessing until the climax was reached and Mr. Preston took off his wig.

Tap dancing by the Misses Duffus and Buller was much enjoyed.

An Eastern love scene with some excellent singing was a feature everyone enjoyed. The show came to an end depicting a Southern levee scene, with a ship coming in to load cotton. All in all the show was well presented and also well

Due to a regretable misunderstanding, refreshments were not served the cast, and the management of the softball team takes this opportunity of sincerely apologizing to Mr. Preston and cast for this oversight.

Iron in the Blood

Restores Health and Vigor

The pallor of childhood, the anemia of youth,
And the weakness of advanced years
Call for more iron in the blood.
Iron is the chief constituent of the blood.
It is the element of greatest importance to the body.
Normally, sufficient iron is derived from the food,
But when the blood becomes thin and watery
Youmustobtainyoursupplyofironmoredirectly.
In Dr. Chase's Nerve Food iron is combined
With other ingredients to restore richness to the blood,
It is in such easily assimilated form
That it quickly finds its way into the blood stream
And restores vigor and energy and strength.
You can increase the iron in the blood,
Every day, if you use this restorative regularly.

FILMLAND FASHIONS

A LEI OF POPPIES

June Collyer wears this novel notion—a slim sheath of a skirt, topped by a blouse of creamy Alencon lace, and here's the touch that tells ....a lei of pressed velvet poppies to match the luscious red of the skirt!

This is an idea for revamping that model you've been planning to do something about, in a new and flattering manner. Purchase an attractive blouse all made and then in a few moments attach the skirt (cut off from its former blouse). Pin on the huge poppies in a becoming line, tack firmly in place, trim out the blouse underneath, and you've evolved something which will make your hated rival give up in despair! There's nothing like flowers for bringing out the delicate flesh tones!

Your Health

By DR LOGAN CLENDENING

An injury followed by bleeding that does not stop immediately always warrants attention and should have treatment.

In order to give intelligent treatment, diagnosis must be made. The important feature in the diagnosis is whether or not the bleeding is coming from an artery or a vein. In order to arrive at a conclusion you must know a little about the circulation of the blood.

Torniquet —arm and handkerchief.

The blood leaves the heart by way of the arteries, enters the great bed of small vessels, the capillaries, and so into the tissues, and returns to the heart by way of the veins. Bleeding from an artery, then, is characterized by the fact that the blood is ejected by successive pushes of the heart, and comes out in a forceful series of spurts. The larger the artery, the less noticeable the spurting is, and in these frequently the blood comes out with a hiss. Bleeding from a vein, on the contrary, will be a steady, soaking flow.

The blood loses oxygen in the tissues and takes up carbon dioxide, and in doing so changes in color from bright red to dark purple. Arterial blood will, therefore, be red, and venous blood purple—another point in differentiation.

To stop bleeding from an artery, compress the artery between the opening and the heart. In other words, if the cut is through the artery at the wrist a tourniquet, or constriction should be thrown around the arm above the wrist. If you do not have anything to act as a tourniquet, such as a towel or a handkerchief or a necktie, and if the bleeding is very severe, before the tourniquet can be improvised, make pressure on the artery between the cut and the heart. The pressure points are: For a cut on the scalp, press in front of the big muscle of the neck; for a cut on the arm, press against the middle of the upper arm; for a cut on the fingers, press at one side or the other of the wrists; for a cut in the leg, press exactly in the middle of the groin; on the lower leg, press exactly in the center of the knee behind; and for a cut on the toe,

Pressure points to stop bleeding

To stop venous bleeding, pressure is made directly over the site of the bleeding, preferably with a sterile piece of gauze, if you have it, but with a handkerchief or a towel or the hand, if you haven't.

In any cases of severe bleeding, probably the best thing to do first is to press down right over the bleeding just as hard as you can, pressing the soft parts against the hard parts underneath.

Since the Government started to control markets merchants of Bolivia have sold only the goods on hand and are not replacing their stocks.

OUR MAIL

Dear Anne:—

May you have a Happy Easter. Do you not love Easter? I imagine you do. Everything is springing into new life, after the Winter's sleep, rest or death, or whatever we like to call it. Anyway it, the season of the year, and the event it celebrates points to a greater, and better life. It is an earnest assurance of the life to come, for which this is but a preparation.

I well remember in one of Dr. Van Dyke's sermons hearing him compare the pre-natal life of a babe to our life on earth; in neither case do we begin to realize what is ahead of us that is so much better than the present.

I was so glad to see Water Lily and some others back. I fancy they are all busy women. Some seem to find it hard to wrest a living. It is none too easy, but so many are so much worse off we are thankful we have something always to give. It must be terrible to be hungry and cold or both, and no means to alleviate the condition. I have been so badly frozen that when I reached a place of safety I dropped unconscious, but it was an accident, or perhaps foolhardiness in carrying out an order when unexpected conditions arose. The fainting from hunger day was one of the happiest days of my life. I remember the experience as a funny one. I had risen early, breakfasted lightly, travelled a bit, the day was hot, we had planned where to lunch, but things were so interesting we forgot to lunch until I felt dizzy; all was black and I was soon unconscious. Then the hour was noticed It was interest in surroundings; not inability to get food, but I have often since thought what must it be to be so, and unable to procure food; worse still for parents to see children suffering. I do not see why anyone should lack food; there is plenty of it, unless people turn up their noses at wholesome food. I do not think there is so much of that now, and we can look forward to the better year.

Necessary as laws are they are not going to bring better times. It is the people themselves, every one of us. We have churches and everything also, but there is more thought given to amusement and money making than to God. I must stop; I am neither minister nor saint, but hold a few private opinions based on the early training of a saintly parentage in a loving but strict home.

Happy Easter Greetings to all the neighbors.

QUID EST.

Dear Qu'd Est—Thank you for your kind greetings and interesting letter. Yes, Quid Est. I do love Easter After the cold cold days of winter, this happy glorious time gives us promise of brighter, warmer, pleasanter days Just as the triumphant resurrection of Christ from the dead promises us, if we follow Him, happy, secure days with Him in the Kingdom of His love. One can't help but have these thoughts at this time of the year. We have had such nice letters from Water Lily and Pal, and now yours was just such a lovely Easter message. May your Easter be very happy, Quid Est. I extend to all the dear neighbors, the same greeting in a most sincere way.

ERITREA

If it were not for postage stamps, few of us would ever hear of Eritrea, a little Italian colony in north-eastern Africa. If you care to look it up in your atlas, you will find it lies just north of British Somaliland, along the southern shore of the Red Sea.

We illustrate, in part, the newest issue of Eritrea, which presents a most striking apeparance. The stamps are printed in rotogravure, by which process the colors stand out very brilliantly; the entire set when properly mounted looks very rich, and the designs being most interesting add further to their attractiveness.

Seldom are these stamps to be obtained in used condition, and their rather high cost prohibits most junior collectors from securing them. However, the average adult collector will find they make a most pleasing contrast in their album.

A most beautiful, and in time, valuable collection could well be made up by confining ones activities to colecting Italian colonial commemoratives and pictorials, combined with British colonial commemoratives.

Stamp Contest

Such a large number of really fine stories have been submitted that we have found it impossible to have our final decision of the prize winners ready for this week's column, but they may be expected next week. We would like to give everyone a prize, but that is impossible and we will do our best to distribute the prizes as most deserving.

Exchange Club

We have quite a number of applications on hand, and the list of new members will appear next week. If you are not a member of the club, look up one of our recent columns, where you will find a membership application. Send this in at once, and we will list your name and address in our column as soon as possible.

Quite a number are on hand, too many to answer this week, but we will do our best, and if your question isn't answered here, watch for it in an early issue.

Questions and Answers

Frank Cornish, Peterborough, Ont.: It is very hard to suggest any method by which you could get the other members to become more active. Apparently they cannot be very enthusiastic collectors, or they would always be ready to help out. Perhaps you could offer some bonus or prize to the member securing the most number of stamps for his fellow members during a period of several months or a year.

W.K.C., Peterborough Ont.: No information has been given out, as yet, regarding any contemplated new issues. We will include such notice in our column just as soon as we have it ourselves.

PARLIAMENT HILL HEARS

By WILFRID EGGLESTON

No doubt the prime minister often gets broad hints from eligible candidates who would like a place up on the hill in the Senate, but it is questionable whether he ever received one more delightfully couched than that supposed to have been voiced (I wasn't there, Sharley) at the banquet when 'Bob' White was the guest of honor, the member for Mount Royal having just achieved his 78th birthday.

'Bob' told about an Englishman who was big game hunting in the jungle. His attention was attracted to a young elephant who went hobbling through the thickets, extremely lame in one foot. The Englishman was able to overtake the poor creature, and, finding that a thorn was causing all the trouble, extracted it, and sent the poor animal along presumably rejoicing.

Five years passed. The Englishman fell upon hard times. He went to a circus one afternoon for the want of something else to do. Several jumbo pachyderms romped clumsily into the ring. One of them waved his tusks around and caught sight of the Englishman. His eyes gleamed recognition. He came swiftly over to the astonished spectator, caught him up in his trunk, and promptly lifted him from the 50-cent seat which he had been occupying, over to one of the two dollar boxes!

"I hope that the prime minister will lift me from the 50-cent seat which I now occupy in the Commons over into one of the two dollar boxes in the red chamber.," the member for Mount Royal is said to have remarked in conclusion.

"Bob" White's stories are usually of a highly entertaining nature, but sometimes they can be a mite more mischievous. I am reminded of a classic which involves one of the members of the present cabinet, who, whatever his gifts, is one of the world's worst speakers. I decline to reveal his name.

At some dinner or other, so the yarn goes, the audience was forced to listen to this inarticulate statesman at some length. And then "Bob" White arose.

"Sir John A. Macdonald," he began, "once invited into his cabinet a man of estimable qualities whose only weakness was a fondness for looking upon the wine when it was red, yellow, or virtually any other color.

"When he took him in, he gave him a word of warning: 'Mr. Minister,' he said, 'the cabinet has room for only one drunkard, and I don't propose to give up the post.'

"Similarly," pursued Mr. White, "when Premier Bennett invited Mr Blank here (giving the name) into his cabinet, he said: 'Mr. Blank, there's only room in the cabinet for one orator, and I don't propose resigning!'

"You can judge," concluded Mr. White (and just here was injected the faintest sarcasm), "how well Mr. Blank has lived up to his pledge on that occasion!"

Now that someone has broken the ice by describing the Fascist experiments of President Roosevelt as "Marxing Through Georgia" it may be permissible to disclose a couple of recent verbal slips at the capital. One of the witnesses at the mass buying probe was all worked up about the possibility of "standarizing" prices, while an eminent statesman convulsed his colleagues by bringing his first down hard upon his desk and identifying Ottawa as the metrolopis" of this part of the untry.

Major Gregg, the new sergeant-at-arms, brings back to the House of Commons the fine English name of Milton (his full name is Milton Fowler Gregg.) We had a Milton (M. N. Campbell) but lost him to the Tariff Board a year and a half ago.

When one thinks of it, the House has its famous namesakes. Dr. John Knox Blair is the member for Wellington North. John Livingstone Brown hails from Lisgar, Man. The literary world is represented by Hon. Charles Hazlitt Cahan, the secretary of state. The great nonconformist family of England lives again in the name of Hon. Wesley A. Gordon Our minister of finance is Hon. E Nelson Rhodes. The member for London is John Franklin White. Perhaps the most impressive of all is the representative for Colchester, N.S., namely Martin Luther Urquhart.

I suppose if one browsed around the names of prominent civil servants there would be some equally striking. One immediately thinks of David Livingstone McKeand, the the doughty director of the Northwest Territories and Yukon branch.

Members will persist in saying bright things in the House. Henri Bourassa referred to the well-known fact that he who pays the piper calls the tune and then turned to the braw Scots piper, "Tammas" Reid, the skirl of whose pipes oft makes the corridors of the parliament buildings like the glens o' the north: "I must confess," he observed, devastatingly, "that if I paid you piper, I would call some other tune."

And Humphrey Mitchell was rewarded by a round of applause when he recalled that priceless story told by Dickens of the old chap who had made much of his ancestry and who eventually came to his deathbed. "Tell us," begged his two maiden daughters, just before he entered that bourn from which no traveller returns, "Tell us, who was your father!"

"Lord knows who," he feebly gasped, and ever after that the two maiden daughters claimed that they were descended from the British aristocracy.

Mold Cake.—One-half cup butter one cup sugar, five egg yolks, one whole egg, one and three-fourths cups cake or pastry flour, two and one-half teaspoons baking powder, one-fourth teaspoon salt, one-half cup milk, one-half teaspoon vanilla. Cream butter and add sugar gradually, while beating constantly. Add egg yolks and egg well beaten. Mix and sift dry ingredients and add alternately with the milk to the first mixture. Add vanilla and turn into large shallow greased pan or into fancy molds and bake about 35 minutes in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.). If baked in large shallow pan, cut into fancy shapes before frosting.

FACTS AND FANCIES

Hurry-up Cake.

Beat well two whole eggs, add one cup sugar, one cup flour and one teaspoon baking powder. Heat one-half cup hot milk, add two tablespoons butter, one-half teaspoon salt and one teaspoon vanilla. Combine with the first mixture while still hot. Bake at 350 degrees for 30 minutes. Remove from oven and, while still warm, cover the top with a mixture of one-half cup coconut, five tablespoons brown sugar, three tablespoons melted butter and two tablespoons cream. Place the cake on the boiler rack in the hot oven under an open flame until the frosting bubles. A delicious cake!

Tea-time.

Try serving thin ginger wafers spread with cream cheese with the afternoon tea. They can be made in sandwich form and are quicker to make than bread and butter sandwiches.

Friends in the city of Mrs. Vrooman of Lindsay will be interested in the following account, in connection with the celebration yesterday of her ninetieth birthday anniversary:

"While all that is precious in the past is cherished in the fine memory of Mrs. A. E Vrooman of Lindsay, wife of Dr. Vrooman, ex-M.P., and later Sheriff for Victoria South, she is eagerly interested in all that concerns the present, and yesterday — when she celebrated her ninetieth birthday surrounded by friends, flowers and tokens of remembrance from near and far—both past and present were tenderly united in smiling satisfaction.

"On account of extremely frail health, the celebration was necessarily strictly restrained, but once more Mrs. Vrooman had the pleasure of being hostess to a group of her close friends, her husband joining her later in welcoming the guests. Mrs. Vrooman still directs her household as she has for the sixty-one years since she went the short step as a bride from her father's to her husband's home. In the ninety years she has known but one other change, to the Cambridge street home in Lindsay, some ten miles from Little Britain, her birthplace.

"Born in 1844, Mrs. Vrooman comes of one of the settled pioneer families of Victoria County. Her father, Robert Ferguson Whiteside came from Little Britain, Pa., when Victoria County was first opened up. Her mother came still earlier, being brought as a baby in arms in 1809 by her mother, riding side-saddle and carrying her. The old family home was built on generous lines from timber from their own woods, cut in their own mill. The carpets, coverings and a great part of the clothing in the early years were woven in their own mill, and much of the spinning for linens as well as wool was done by the mother's busy fingers. Sugar, except from their own maples, was unknown, and the candles for light were dipped in their own kitchen.

"A church for the new settlement was of first concern to both mother and father, who gave the land, timber and much other assistance for the building of the Christian church, which became a vital spiritual and social centre for many families of the community. Industry and piety were first principles with the pioneer families.

A daily chat with Examiner neighbors conducted by Anne Wilcox

It has been many a long year since furnishing a home with antiques could be so reasonably done as now. While the antique dealers do not find this change plays into their hands, the homemaker with a fondness for antiques and a purse not well-filled does. There are opportunities to acquire beautiful old pieces at very moderate prices. Like everything else there is a secret to knowing how. This secret is known to collectors, and to those who are "in the know," but not everyone is or it would remain no secret, or be, what is called an open secret.

One of the advantageous ways to get old furniture and furnishings is to buy them out of season. This time is not a matter of cold or hot weather, but rather of periods when antiques are in such demand that they command high prices, and other periods when the demand is comparatively small that the articles cannot command as much.

* * * * * * *

For the person who wishes to furnish a house with beautiful old things at moderate cost, good auctions are a boon. But she is wise if she goes many times and buys little until she gets to know the auctions of handsome old things and those of what are known as second hand pieces. Many of these are excellent, and low priced, but just now we are considering antiques, and their present day acquiring.

* * * * * * *

Another important factor in wise buying is to appreciate when an article is in good condition and when it will need to have repairs made which will bring up the cost decidedly. But also it should be appreciated that antiques are not only second, but third, fourth, fifth and sometimes more. The older they are the more valuable, provided they are still in good condition. And good condition in antiques is not quite the same as in modern pieces.

Antques have had long wear and usage, and their very appearance indicates this in a mellowing of the wood or other materials, and in the peculiar overlay which time puts on certain substances and which is called patina. Woods take on a deeper hue, while textiles fade and grow duller. Both of these things, according to their kind lend beauty to the materials. Fortunately for us articles were sturdily fashioned in bygone days, and textiles were hand woven and made from choice yarns and silken threads. Their very endurance proves their fine make.

Marital Mixup Result of Joke

PITTSBURGH, March 31—(CP)—Mrs. Helen Elizabeth Moore told the court she wanted a divorce from her second husband, W. P. Moore of Bristol, Conn., explaining thus:

Hamilton Barnes, husband No. 1, told her one day he had obtained a divorce. They parted and she married Moore.

Then Barnes came to call one day and explained he had been spoofing; that he didn't get a divorce at all. Moore and Mrs. Moore parted.

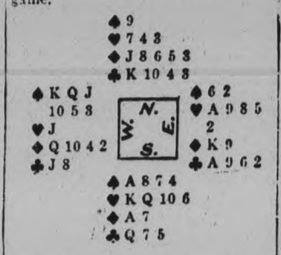
DECLARING OPPONENTS SUIT

A few days ago I saw an excellent example of how it sometimes pays to bid opponent's suit directly after he has bid it. The hands are shown below. Neither side was vulnerable nor had a score towards game.



Bidding went: South, 1-spade; West, 2-spades; East, 3-hearts; South, double; West, 3-spades; South, double, ending bidding.

The opening lead was the 5 of diamonds. Dummy's 9 forced South's ace. He led back the suit, hoping in some manner to outruff dummy, if the declarer tried to have East ruff a diamond. So when a low spade was led from dummy, South won with his ace. South led his K of hearts. West's J dropped. Dummy's ace took the trick.

West had intended having dummy ruff his 10 of diamonds, but North's play of the 3, when South led back the 7 of diamonds, showed that North originally held five of the suit, and that South held no more. Accordingly when dummy was in with the ace of hearts, instead of leading and ruffing a heart, as South expected dummy's last trump was led, and West picked up South's three low trumps.

West hoped that North might have to lead a diamond up to the Q-10, giving the declarer one trick over his contract, but things did not happen to turn out that way. When West led his J of clubs and dummy won with the ace, a club was led back and won by South's Q. South returned a club and the declarer ruffed, so that finally he had to give North a Diamond trick.

West lost one spade trick, two diamond tricks and one club trick, just permitting him to fulfil his contract. Because South had doubled, that meant game.

The double was a bad one. Evidently West had from the start wanted to play the hand at spades, because he held six or seven of that suit plus 100 honors. West's rebid of spades plainly showed that he could not stand hearts, being either void of the suit or having only a singleton. For all South knew his opponents might have been stronger than they were. They might have held both the K of clubs and the J of diamonds, which North had.

East's bid of 3-hearts appears to have been bad, but his partner might as readily have held a lone diamond and four hearts with two honors, as a lone heart and four diamonds with two honors.

GOLF FACTS NOT THEORIES!

By ALEX. J. MORRISON

A topped shot happens to run straight over some rough ground and comes to rest within six inches of the hole. "Good shot," your friend will shout.

If you're smart you'll remind yourself forcibly that it was a poor shot. You jerked your club back, stabbed at the ball and looked up so that you nearly missed it altogether. That was your contribution.

Lady Luck saw fit to favor you in that instance by affording you the same result as you'd get from a perfect swing. Your luck will carry you only so far. In the long run you'll get as many bad breaks as you will good ones.

You'll progress only as you improve your swing. Ignoring faulty swings doesn't make for improvement in your game.

TUMBLING THE PINS

SECOND PLAY-OFF games in the Inter-Alley league will be run off on Tuesday night at the K. of C., when the Knights team hope to wipe out the 587 deficit, which they ran into in the first set. Bert Duffus stated last night that his offer of a trophy for high single score, goes to the bowler who rolls the score in any game, including the play-offs. Thus we see that Jack Playford's no'o of 365 may be beaten yet.

EXAMINER BOWLING teams are nicely bunched with two more nights of trundling left to complete the second half. Lacheur, top place team last week were shunted out of the leading position when they absorbed a three-one beating from the lowly Zeihr clan, who made a great comeback after dropping the first game. Pat Cullen supplied the winning punch with two singles of 231-240.

WYLLIE'S FOUR HOPPED into first place on Thursday night, when they registered a four point gain at the expense of Dunkley. Wylie packed in 219-231-221—671. Ron Taylor made a real gain when his team shut-out Barringer. John Wyllie with 294-214-191—699, and Ralph Holyman with 238-162-224—624 were the mainstays for the winners. Logan smeared Killingbeck for a decisive win and pushed the latter into second last position. G. Logan turned in the nicest effort of the evening when he scored 202-246-304—752 and Harry Dugan added 628. Scates led the opposition with 642

RED WINGS WIN FIFTH GAME OF SERIES, 1-0, AFTER FIERCE BATTLE

ADAMS' STRATEGY WORKS.

Airtight Defense and More Speed Displayed by New Champions.

(By ELMER DULMAGE)
(Canadian Press Writer)

OLYMPIA, Detroit, Mich., March 31.—(CP)—A roaring, hockey-mad crowd of 14,000 thundered a victory song here tonight as Detroit Red Wings game little champions of the United States section, brought the National League championship to Detroit for the first time with a 1-0 triumph over Toronto Maple Leafs, defending champions.

Jack Adams

In a spectacular comeback after winning the first two games in Toronto and losing the next two at home, the Red Wings tossed a bombshell into the confident Leaf camp. They outpointed the fresher, stronger Leafs in sheer speed and and laid down as airtight a defense barricade as any team ever faced.

Speed and this great defense were more than the Canadian division winners coud cope with. Slender young Wilf Cude in the Detroit goal handled only 15 shots. His rear guard wobbled a little at times, but it never cracked.

A Wild Demonstration

Ebbie Goodfellow's first period goal, scored while Joe Primeau, Leaf centre, was serving a penalty, provided the margin of victory, climaxed by what was perhaps the wildest demonstration in hockey's history. Scores of spectators rushed on the ice as the final gong rang. They hugged and kissed the jubilant Red Wings.

Jack Adams, pudgy manager of the new National Hockey League champions and prospective Stanley Cup winners, jumped over the boards and ran from player to player, tears were in his eyes, he had gambled on this game by taking three minor leaguers into his battered line-up—and he had won.

Dumped into the most critical game of the series from Detroit Olympics of International League, Gene Carrigan, Gus Marker and Ron Moffatt played daring, fighting hockey. Only once did the rookie line fumble and then Adams saved the situation by hurrying them back to the bench.

The 'Smiling Jawn' of hockey had put over his greatest victory with strategy. He was no more jubilant about it than the rest of Detroit's hockey public, disheartened by the twin straight wins Toronto scored here to even the series at two-all and force a third game.

Thousands of newspapers and magazines, programs and hats sailed into the air as the game ended. Paper littered the ice. The Olympia was a bedlam for nearly ten minutes. Scarcely a spectator left the rink until the players had disappeared into the dressing rooms. Hundreds more stayed in the corridors and outside to wait for the Wings and cheer them again.

Hainsworth Bombarded

Goodfellow's deciding goal came at the 15.03 mark in the first period during a power play. Primeau had hardly got settled in the penalty bench when five Detroit forwards raced inside the Leaf blue line and started to pelt the veteran George Hainsworth with rubber.

Ebbie Goodfellow

They kept up the terrific pressure for more than a minute. Then Johnny Sorrell and Herbie Lewis swung in behind the cage. They fought for the puck with two Leaf players. Lewis got it, skated away a few feet and passed to Sorrell. The rangy wingman snapped it out to Goodfellow, posted straight in front of Hainsworth. And Goodfellow, one of hockey's better marksmen, shot it high into a corner of the net.

The fighting spark that the defending champions seemed to have washed completely away from the Detroit camp with their smashing 5-1 win on Wednesday night again became evident. With a lead to work on, the Wings again became the dashing, spirited set that went into Toronto last week and scored two wins.

They stopped the highest-scoring team in the circuit when the Leafs were in peak form. 'Cooney' Weiland, Larry Aurie and Lewis hung grimly to Charlie Conacher, Primeau and Harvey Jackson. The famous 'kid' line, skating as fast as it ever did, had no edge.

Goodfellow, 'Happy' Emms and Sorrell were almost as effective in a defensive way and Goodfellow shared the game's attacking honors with 'Happy' Day, Leaf captain and defense ace.

Clancy a Spectator

With King Clancy a badly battered spectator, leaving the Toronto defense with only Day, Alex Levinsky and 'Red' Horner on duty on the rearguard, Day stayed on the ice for far longer periods than he was accustomed to this season. He was one player the Wings could not outskate. Day raced from end to end in an endless series of raids.

Beaten by penalties before, the Wings steered clear of rough play. Teddy Graham and Walter Buswell played great hockey on the defence and Doug Young was as effective as ever. But none of them drew a penalty.

In the second period Weiland was banished for a trip. The crowd held its breath for the two minutes during which five Toronto forwards swarmed in for a goal. This was the greatest test of the barricade and it was so good the Leafs did not have a single clean-cut shot on Cude.

In the wild third period the Leafs doggedly fought for a goal. They had only four shots at Cude that the Detroit net man touched.

Detroit will now meet the winner of the Chicago-Montreal Maroons series for the Stanley Cup in a three-out-of-five series. The first two games of the cup finals will be played on Detroit ice next Tuesday and Thursday.

If Chicago Black Hawks defeat Maroons in their two-game total-goal series, the first of which was won at Montreal, 3-0, by Hawks, the third and fourth games of the cup finals will be played at Chicago, Sunday, April 8, and Tuesday, April 10. If Maroons win, the third and fourth games will be played at Montreal Saturday, April 7, and Tuesday, April 10.

If a fifth game is required, it will be played on Detroit ice.

KENDALL RECALLED BY CHICAGO HAWKS

London Forward to Replace Injured Goldsworthy in Sunday's Game.

CHICAGO, Mar. 31 (C.P.)—Confident they will be able to take Montreal Maroons two straight, Chicago Black Hawks raced blithely through a light workout yesterday and pulled sound in all departments as it was put by Tommy Gorman, their hockey and horse-wise coach.

The news tidbit from the Chihawk camp was that Bill Kendall, a strapping forward with the London International League team, had been recalled to aid Chicago in the drive toward the Stanley Cup. The action was taken by Major Frederic McLaughlin, the Hawks' owner, after he learned a shoulder injury suffered by Leroy Goldsworthy in the first game against Maroons might keep him out of the game here Sunday night.

20,499 Players In Amateur Ice Army

TORONTO, Mar. 31. — From Sydney to Victoria more Canadians took to the national game this year than ever before. According to the report of Registrar W. A. Hewitt at the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association's annual meeting yesterday, 20,499 players were out in the varicolored uniforms of organized clubs across the country.

This number surpassing by almost 3,000 the previous high mark of 17,772, established in 1932, does not include college players in the Canadian Intercollegiate Union, which includes McGill, Queen's and University of Toronto.

The Ontario Hockey Association was far and away head of any other district, with 9,904 registered players in organized hockey. Quebec branch was next, with 3,627, and Ottawa area had 2,295. The Maritime Provinces, home of the Moncton Hawks, Allan Cup holders, registered 1,404.

Other branches showed: Alberta, 864; Saskathewan, 792; Manitoba, 707; Thunder Bay, 597; and British Columbia, 309.

LONDON WINS INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE HONORS

Gillie, Ouelette, Brophy and Pettinger Do Scoring in Tecs' Fifth Win.

STUART AMONG STARS.

LONDON, Ont., March 31 (CP).—London Tecumsehs are champions of the International Professional Hockey League. A battling band of eleven hockey players wearing green and white colors defeated Detroit Olympics by 4 to 0 before a capacity crowd of 4,200 spectators here last night.

It was the fifth straight play-off victory in the round robin series for the Tecumsehs, and after gaining a goal advantage in the first period, they played a cautious defensive game in the second, while in the third they opened with a terrific offensive drive which swept Olympics off their feet.

Farrand Gillie, Eddie Ouellette, Bernie Brophy and Eric Pettinger were the goal-scorers for the champions. Kendall was credited with two assists, while Frank Daley, Tory Gregg and Pusie also contributed single assists.

Goalkeeper Stars.

Herbie Stuart, stellar London goaltender, celebrated his twenty-ninth birthday by shutting out his rivals, and his spectacular work played no small part in London annexing the championship. Stuart blocked and kicked out a total of 39 shots as the Olympics stormed the London net in an effort to save themselves from defeat.

Bill Kendall, right-winger, who has been on loan from the Chicago Black Hawks for the greater part of the season, has been recalled by the Chicago team to help them in the Stanley Cup play-offs. He gave a brilliant display in the game against the Olympics.

Tecumsehs displayed the same determined fighting spirit against the Olympics that they had previously exhibited against Buffalo and Syracuse. From the drop of the puck the Londoners started to bombard Goalkeeper Cox, and finally they were rewarded after 6 minutes and 13 seconds of play in the opening period, when Gillie drilled the rubber into the net, with Pusie and Gregg assisting.

Olympics did not accept defeat without an argument. They engineered numerous smart attacks. It was in the third period that the Tecs displayed marked superiority.

The newly crowned champions ran in three goals within nine minutes of play, and the early pace set by Tecs had a telling effect on the Olympics, who were leg-weary in the closing session.

Gets No Relief.

To Toots Holway, blond defence player of the Tecs, goes a good share of the credit for the victory. The Belleville product toiled faithfully without relief, and bodied his opponents without fear or favor as they endeavored to wedge their way in close to the London net.

It was the first pro hockey championship that London has won since 1927, and the rink echoed with cheers as the bell sounded to end the 1934 play-off series. The fans stormed the London dressing-room to congratulate the players.

Both teams were at equal man power, having eleven players each. The injury to Harvey Rockburn left the Tecs shorthanded, while Olympics were without their front line of Gene Carrigan, Gus Marker and Ron Moffatt, who were throwing in their lot with the Red Wings in a successful attempt to eliminate Toronto Maple Leafs in the N.H.L. final.

In the last three contests the London defence of Holway and Jean Pusie played a total of 185 minutes without a rest.

First Period.

1—London, Gillie (Pusie, Gregg), 6.13.
Penalties—Cooper, Ouellette (2), Nickarz.

Second Period.

No scoring.
Penalties—Pusie and Kendall.

Third Period.

2—London, Ouellette, 8.03.
3—London, Brophy (Kendall and Daley), 9.52.
4—London, Pettinger (Kendall), 17.32.
Penalties—None.

Inside Sportin' Dope—By A. Wise Cracker

Mister Sporting Editor:

Well, Mac, I got such a headache trying to figger out these here cash and carry playoffs that I can't hardly think of nothing to write about. The way them teams has been playing is certainly 1 for the book, as up to to-day (Thurs.) they ain't been a home team win a game. Now, ain't that a crazy kinda playoff serious when the home fans all over the circuit has to pay big money to go out and see their team licked? The Maroons couldn't win at home in 2 games, the Rangers took it on the chin in their only fixture on their own ice, Chicago couldn't beat the Canadiens in the Windy City, and up to now the Leaves has been trimmed twice before their own folks, while the Red Wings has dropped their 2 games at home. If that ain't a mess, what is?

This Detroit-Leaf serious, Mac, has got a lotta folks nuts. When Smiling Lawn Adams' lads dropped into Toronto last week and tossed the Leafs for 2 straight falls the Queen City athaletes looked to be all washed up like this morning's breakfast dishes. Anybody what seen that 2nd game at Toronto—among which I was, Mac—and watched the Red Wings give the Leaves a hockey lesson, come out of the jammed arena believing the serious was all over, and that it was a sheer waste of time and jack for Toronto to go over to Detroit at all. And then, bing! big! the Leaves grab 2 games in a row on Detroit ice and tie up the serious. Ain't that some pin?

The thing will be all over by the time this gets into print, and I won't even try to guess the winner, for the boys has got me all crossed up. I do know this, Mac, however, that no matter which outfit comes home in front they's going to be a lot of yapping about the whole serious being rigged. If the Leaves win these wise guys will say that they tossed the 2 Toronto fixtures to the Wings to spin out the playoffs, and if the Detroiters cops the 5th battle they'll argue that the Adams entry eased up in the 3rd and 4th games for the sake of the gate receipts. That stuff is the old malarkey, of course. The truth seems to be that the Leafs, which had been coasting for the last 2 or 3 weeks of the regular schedule, was away off their stride when the playoffs opened. The way they played in their 2nd home game they would probably have been taken by any team in the circuit. With their backs to the wall, how Mister Smythe's highly paid talent snapped back into their mid-season form, just in time to keep themselves from being eliminated in 3 straight games!

The big surprise to me this week, Mac, was the 3 to 0 drubbing the Maroons took at home from the Chicago Black Hawks. Personally I picked the Maroons for the Stanley Cup, and the New York Rangers seconded the motion. However, the Hawks breezed into Montreal and made a mess of the Maroons, whose only hope now is to lick Chicago four goals in the Windy City sun. nite, and that just ain't being done this season.

Something'll hafta be done, Mac, about these home team lickings. It's a nice thing that the customers all over the circuit has to put up with seeing their favorites getting bumped off. Well, that's up to the N.H.L., so why should we worry?

I for 1 ain't, so I'll say pip-pip.

Sportfully yours,
A. WISE CRACKER.

ASSOCIATION SOFTBALL RULES REMAIN SAME AS OTHER YEARS

Drastic Changes Opposed at Annual Amateur Meeting at Brantford.

LEETHER ON EXECUTIVE.

BRANTFORD, March 31.—(C.P.)—Election of officers and presentation of an optimistic financial report marked the 12th annual meeting here yesterday of the Ontario Amateur Softball Association. It was the largest meeting of the association since its inception.

Seventy-one voting delegates and a large number of persons interested in the game attended the meeting, at which drastic changes in rules were frowned upon when a long list of amendments were discussed.

Ernest B. Smith of Hamilton, was elected to the presidency by acclamation. The full list of officers follows: Honorary president, S. H. Armstrong, Toronto; honorary vice-president, G. J. Smith, Hamilton; past president, Fred G. Grant, Toronto; president, Ernest B. Smith, Hamilton; first vice-president, H. Frezell, London; second vice-president, G. Spooner, Galt; secretary, Verne McIlwraith, Guelph; treasurer, William J. Innes, Paris; executive committee, W. Easson, Stratford; W. L. Alguire, St. Catharines; D. Leether, Peterborough; Fred Kent, Brantford.

The executive members will be appointed by the president at the first executive meeting.

Secretary V. McIlwraith reported an increase in membership and Treasurer W. J. Innes of Paris announced a working profit of $138.10 in the year just closed. He noted that in the year 1932 there had been a deficit, but the last year was one of the best with the bank balance brought to $437.14.

Settle Amateur Trouble.

J. W. Turner, president of the Central Ontario branch of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada, addressed the meeting, informing the delegates that friction with the A.A.U. ranks had been removed. He also drew the delegates' attention to the value of an amateur card which, he said, was "the open sesame" to all foreign countries. No person, he said, could competee in authorized meets in any country in the world without such a card.

A re-instated professional, he continued, only was able to compete in Canada, as the world-wide bodies had not adopted the move made by Canada in bringing the money players back into the fold.

The meeting decided that in all championship games the names of players should be written on a form specially drawn up for the purpose. Little change was made in the definition of an amateur in the old rule book. The re-instatement clause, embodied in the A.A.U. of C., was added with the proviso that a second offence meant definite expulsion from amateur ranks.

A junior B series will be launched with classification similar to the intermediate B circuit, the convention decided. Sarnia brought up the contentious foul tip question, but the rule, the meeting declared, must remain unchanged. The delegation from the border cities sought a longer bat, but this also was turned down and the bat will remain at 33 inches. It was suggested the bat be extended three inches.

The rule setting the date winners of leagues must be decided was again firmly supported when changes were suggested. Base lines also will remain unchanged, the Simcoe suggestion for a 60-foot line being turned down along with a recommendation for a lead-off for the runner as in baseball.

Oppose Changes

Simcoe withdrew amendments that would have introduced spiked shoes and finger mitts for infielders, a suggestion that met loud opposition.

When the meeting started a discussion on the desire of the O.A.S.A. to have a larger share in the play-off games, practically all delegates took part. Col. G. C. McArthur, representing a committee of the executive, moved that the share of 20 per cent of the gross receipts, but this met defeat along with a suggestion the share be 12½ per cent. It was finally ruled the share would remain at one-third of the net gate.

Other decisions made included one calling for a financial statement from each association two weeks before the annual meeting. Brantford's attempt to have the foul ball ruling made uniform brought the statement from the executive that it was thought the rule was lpain enough.

Near the end of discussion a debate developed between city and town organizations on who was contributing the most money to the association. V. Mackay of Hamilton produced figures in an effort to show Hamilton had turned in $299 for play-offs, largely in excess of any other section of the association.

The convention decided against any change in the date of signing players and against the use of rubber-studded soled shoes.

Col. G. C. McArthur was made a life member of the association in recognition of his activities.

The sessions wound up with the decision to hold the next annual meeting in Peterborough.

The Allan Cup

Here is the coveted piece of silverware that scores of teams all over Canada battle for all winter long. It is now in the possession of the Moncton Black Hawks and from the looks of things it will remain in their possession for another year, at least. It was presented for amateur competition by Sir Montagu Allan in 1908 when the professionals walked off with the Lord Stanley Trophy

INTERNATIONAL HOCKEY SERIES SANCTIONED BY CANADIAN BODY

Association Clarifies Rule for Junior Playing Intermediate or Senior Hockey.

OVERTIME QUESTION.

TORONTO, March 31 (C.P.). — Toronto, out of playoff hockey for the Stanley Cup by last night's defeat of Maple Leafs by Detroit Red Wings, to-day looked forward a week to the first international amateur championship playoffs between the winners of the Allan Cup and Detroit White Stars, Simonpure champions of the United States.

Confirmation of previous arrangements made at Montreal for such a series was given yesterday at the annual meeting of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association. The series will start April 7.

The association decided against making changes in the playing rules but took occasion to clarify the rule that a junior may not play in more than one intermediate or senior game during a season. A clause was added to the rule specifying it does not apply to exhibition games, but that appearance of a junior on the line-up of a senior team playing a competition match will be taken as meaning he played with the team.

The question of overtime play was left more or less to the discretion of the branches. Most of the branches have decided to establish a 10-minute overtime period, but 30 minutes will be the limit in inter-branch playoffs. If the issue is not decided by that time the president of the association will decide on the venue of the next game.

'SNAP' PARKER, Defenseman

INJURED AT TORONTO.

"SNAP" PARKER

Although born in this city, Harold (Snap) Parker first started his hockey career with a Hamilton junior club and was a member of the Mountain city Tigers when they won the Intermediate O.H.A. title in 1917. Parker was playing with Hamilton in the memorable semi-final series when they defeated Peterborough 247th Battalion team with "Smiling Jawn" Adams, present manager of the 1934 National League champions on the local roster. Returning to this city, "Snap" played Intermediate and Senior hockey for several years and played a prominent part in aiding Petes advance into O.H.A. finals, but was forced to retire from active participation in the game when he fractured his shoulder during 1923 group play-off with Toronto Parkdale.

FEW CHANGES IN CONSTITUTION AT ANNUAL TORONTO GATHERING

Fred Waghorne Jr. Will Again Lead Ontario Body—Argue Over Residence Rule.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

TORONTO, Mar. 31.—An argument over the residence rule was the only interruption of a peaceful convention of the Ontario Amateur Lacrosse Association yesterday. Although there were efforts to break the bounds and hints to toss the troubling clause into the discard there were not any changes made. The annual meeting was one of the most businesslike in many years, lacking the usual bartering, battling and excitement that has made the gathering of the men of lacrosse famous for many years.

It was serious business and all indications point to a rapid return of the old game to its former place of prominence, not as a 12-man field sport but in the abbreviated box style. Districts were represented from all over Ontario that for years have been absent and the delegates were all anxious for business, leaving minor matters to the discretion of the new executive and although the session lasted from morning until six in the evening, only three of the proposed 18 amendments were passed, which meant only minor changes in the constitution.

The main idea of the delegates was the promotion of minor lacrosse, encouraging young boys to play the game and plans were adopted to help the sport in the age limit ranks. An amendment to allow leagues to enter championship clubs in the O.A.L.A. playdowns at the cost of one team was adopted, while the executive was given the power to create a trust fund for the promotion of junior, juvenile and midget lacrosse.

Twelve-mile Limit

The only interesting discussion of the day, which produced a minor verbal squabble, was when the proposed amendment for an alteration in the residence rule was considered. The amendment, which was beaten, was that "a player residing within the limits of a city, town or village on or before May 1 of the current year, qualifies only for the team or teams in said city, town or village. Players living in cities, towns, villages or rural districts, which have no team, may play for any club within a radius of 12 miles. If the distance of his residence is greater than 12 miles, he must play for the nearest club."

M. E. F. Kelley, former president of the O.A.L.A. and a member of the Ontario Amateur Athletic Union in the famous winter athletic feud with the Canadian sport governors, sponsored the resolution to change the residence rule, but after heated discussion his proposal was beaten. W. J. Blainey, also a former president suggested tossing the residence rule in the discard, claiming that it was seldom kept. Another suggested change in the residence rule was beaten when the proposal to force a play to be a continuous resident of the place where he plays was voted down and left at the discretion of the executive.

The delegates displayed more confidence in their executive members leaving several problems to be dealt with including the standardizing of a goalkeeper's pads, the penalty for a deliberate attack, a fund for minor teams, and the dealing with clubs which have used illegal players.

Toronto Keeps Convention.

A proposal to hold the annual convention at different places each year was defeated, out of town delegates being in favor of the trip to Toronto every year.

The suggestion to increase the number of players on a team from six to eight was also defeated, delegates being satisfied that the game at present was a success. One of the adopted proposals was that only referees residing in Ontario and districts outside of the Province controlled by the O.A.Y.A. will be elegible to handle games.

The election of officers resultel in the return of Fred Waghorn, Jr., to the presidency by acclamation for the second term. Secretary Gene Dopp and Treasurer Wendal Holmes were also re-elected by acclamation, but the other executive positions were only decided by a close vote, which resulted as follows: First vice-president, W. N. Derick, New Toronto; second vice-president, G. Laceby, Toronto; third vice-president, E. A. Kopas, Fergus, executive council, Clyde Gordon, Hamilton; W. Marriott, Hespeler; Dr. E. Courville, Cornwall; C. R. Evans, Streetsville; P. Warr, Brampton; H. L. Wilson, Mount Dennis; J. S. Dowling, Brantford; and C. W. Rowan New Toronto. Charles Lynch, Chas. Waters, and A. C. Varcoe, all of Toronto, were re-elected auditors. Sixteen of the 33 nominated ran for the eight executive positions.

Delegates to the convention, who numbered about 120 with officers of the association and lacrosse followers, attended the dinner and were addressed by Charles McKeown of the Railway and Municipal Board, a former president of the C.A.L.A. He spoke of the game of lacrosse, giving a review of the sport from 50 years ago. The speaker paid tribute to the sportsmen who have sponsored and played lacrosse through a depression.

CURLING

By THE SCRIBE

Well I cashed in on all the bets boys. The bunch certainly did turn out in full force yesterday.

In the 1922-23 season there was curling on Christmas, New Year's and Good Friday. The same thing happened this season.

It would be no afternoon bonspiel if Cruthers, Sackville, Clarke and Dulmage did not cash in on the prizes.

We hear rumors that the postponed annual meeting might be held some night during this week.

Congratulations are due 'Tim' McArthur, for winning the "Gaele" Cup at the Midland bonspiel last week. Tim learned the game down here and has been an ardent supporter ever since.

POWER RESTS EAST SECTION AMERICAN LOOP

SENATORS STILL STRONG.

(By Allan Gould, A.P. Sports Editor.)

NEW YORK, March 31 (AP)—Despite the wholesale dispersal sale conducted by Cornelius McGillicudy, serving the combined purpose of pulling his own Athletics out of the red and three others out of the ruck, the balance of power in the American League remains in the East.

The entire circuit is feeling the effects of perhaps the biggest shake-up in its history, all calculated to reduce the yawning gap between the first two or three clubs and the rest of the league, but the chief question remains. Who is going to stop the champion Senators or the powerful Yankees?

For the first time in nearly a decade, the Athletics are not by any stretch of imagination a pennant factor, for the simple reason that no amount of slugging by Jimmie Foxx and Co. will offset the absence of a major league pitching staff.

Granting the league's better balance as a whole, with no club in the push-over category, the fact remains that the Senators have the same outfit that topped the 1933 standing by seven full games and the runner-up New York Yankees look vastly improved, in personnel as well as morale. The champions have the balance and pitching, providing Whitehill and Crowder can continue their 1933 form. The Yankees have more drive and sustained power, a revamped infield and, they hope, the assurance of pitching comebacks by Red Ruffing and Danny MacFayden.

Cleveland's pitching staff alone, one of the best in either league, entitles the Indians to joint consideration with the Tigers and Red Sox in figuring the other first divison contenders.

Cochrane's fiery leadership of the Tigers, coupled with his handling of a first-rate curving corps, lifts Detroit to the status of a contender for the first time in years, but the club has weaknesses in the infield and none too much batting punch.

WOODSTOCK QUALIFIES.

WOODSTOCK Ont., March 31.—(C.P.)—Woodstock Juvenile Ontario Amateur Basketball Association team qualified to meet the Toronto winners in the Ontario finals when they defeated Stratford here last night 28-22 and took the round 67-46. This was a "tets" series for the Woodstock team which was overlooked in arranging the play-offs. Stratford was beaten by Windsor, and Toronto won from the Border team.

SPORTS DAY BY DAY

Hockey — Bowling — Boxing
Basketball — Curling, Etc.

By C. J. P.

Since we won a few shillings on the N.H.L. playoffs by betting Detroit, we had to celebrate today. And what better place to celebrate than in the salon—careful, Mr. Printer, that not saloon!— of our good friend Madame Mollee LaMurphy, the teacup reader, down on Charlotte Street? So we sat there nibbling cake and sipping tea and rehashing that great 1-0 puck classic that saw the Leafs bow in a battling finish. And our good friend, the Madame, came by and we told her all about it. "Oh yes," says she, "but I wasn't surprised as I knew ze Detroit team would win eet!"

• • • • • •

Now these words proved very surprised indeed to us and we said as much. We asked her how a teacup reader coud tell things like that. "Zat is easy, mon ami," smiled the Madame, "I just read ze tea cup of someone who knows the situation well and who is ver' interested—and bien! there is ze answer." Well, we tell her, here we've been going around all week worrying about whether our prediction and our bets were safe and you could've slipped us the lowdown anytime. "La," she la'd. "Ze Madame can tell you anything, if you drink her tea, pay ze fee and ask ze questions." That fee dig was a rap at us as we had her on the cuff for three readings the past winter on questions regarding one thing and another.

• • • • • •

Well, since we are telling all, we decided to cough up the dough and get the lowdown on the Stanley Cup series. If she told us Chicago would win, then we could maybe slip out and park a few berries on the Hawks. If, however, the tea leaves spelt the name Detroit, then we could go to town on the Red Wings. Well, we slugged off the beverage, paid the fee and asked her which team would win the Stanley Cup this year. The Madame did much squinting at the dregs in the bottom of the mug and considerable concentrating. "Ha, I have eet!" she said finally, "ze victor for ze Cup Stanley weel be ze New York team!" We told the Madame gently that the tea leaves had player her a dirty trick, in fact had lied to her, and we also told her she'd better lay off sports or else brush up on 'em in future. But the tea was okay.

• • • • • •

Radios around town got a big play last eve, and there was a flock of phone calls at this office for the scores. It must have been a swell battle with the gallant Leafs fighting furiously to sew it up and the brilliant Red Wings clinging to that one-goal lead like the missus to hubby's pay envelope! Two grand hockey teams in a swell series. You'll hear some of the second guessers now yipping about a "frameup" and a "crooked series". Yeah, but what about the three straight playoff wins last year for Toronto over the Rangers? The players only share in the profits of the first three games, so they're not going out and deliberately prolong a series into five games. And no manager is ordering a player to "take it easy and let 'em win this one". Heck, no, and leave himself open to blackmail if some of the players felt like it?—that's the bunk.

Peterborough won a lot of recognition yesterday at the annual meeting of the Ontario Amateur Softball Association in Brantford. Dave Leether, Fred Scates and Percy Harrison were the delegates from here, and the latter two—who did a bit of lobbying—certainly produced results. Dave Leether headed the polls of the nineteen nominated for the 1934 Executive and he was the only one elected in Eastern Ontario, both Rowden of Oshawa and McCarthy of Kingston being defeated. Now, maybe this town will get an even break on O.A.S.A. playdowns. This matter will come up at the first executive meeting. And Peterborough was the city named for the holding of the 1935 annual convention—quite a distinction as they generally prefer Toronto or some Western Ontario town.

• • • • • •

The session was a long-winded affair with a great many things coming up. But they turned down practically all the suggested changes, and softball will continue to be softball—and not a new type of baseball. The Association was shown to be in sound financial shape, and there is every indication of another banner season for this popular sport. After congratulating Dave Leether via phone this a.m., we were asked to run a notice for teams thinking of entering the local City Softball League this season to notify Mr. Leether within the next week at his home at 358 George street south. Applications should all be in before the first reorganization meeting of the loop.

• • • • • •

Few changes were made, also, at the annual conclave of the Ontario Lacrosse Association in Toronto yesterday. Pete King was the local delegate. A change in the residence rule came in for much discussion, but they decided to let well enough alone. Districts that hadn't been represented at the yearly meeting of the O.A.L.A. in years had delegates on hand and everything points to a better season for lacrosse than in some time. The developing of the minor leagues was the chief item agreed upon. Bank balance is around $710.

This dispatch comes from Lindsay: "The Lindsay United Football Club will enter the Peterborough League this year, it has been decided at the general wish of players and club supporters. Last year the Lindsay team played in a regular circuit with comparative success. From Peterborough comes the word that the Canadian General Football Club, which won the championship last season, will enter as well as Deloro. The Canadian Packers may not enter, but the vacancy will most likely be filled by a Peterborough Ovaltine team."

MONTREAL CLUB CANADA'S HOPE

Maroons Must Score Four Goals on Chicago Ice Against Hawks on Sunday.

ALMOST IMPOSSIBLE FEAT.

MONTREAL, March 31 (C.P.)—It's the spotlight or curtains for Montreal Marcons to-morrow night.

The big red team carries Canada's only hopes of winning back the Stanley Cup when it clashes with Chicago Black Hawks at the Windy City to-morrow night.

Canadiens knocked over by Chicago; Leafs booted out by Detroit Red Wings only Maroons are left to carry on the Dominion's prestige in the hockey wars.

And at that the burden is pretty heavy. Maroons must do something no club has succeeded in doing on Chicago ice this winter if they are to survive and meet Detroit in the cup final.

No team has scored four goals in one game at the stadium all year. Highest score against Chuck Gardiner at home was three, registered twice, by Ottawa Senators and New York Rangers. Yet Maroons must score four, holding Hawks with no goals, if they are to overcome the 3-0 lead established by Tommy Gorman's ambitious young team here last Wednesday in the first game of the total-goals series.

Character From Handwriting

By BLANCHE A. DRAPER

Annie M. Scriver, Hastings Ont.

This handwriting suggests an artistic temperament and also the ability to work along artistic lines. Your disposition is changeable according to circumstances, but as a rule is kindhearted and generous. The flourish at the termination of each word throughout the signature establishes the faculty for undertaking projects with a definite objective in view, and the ability to complete anything which you deem worthy of your efforts. You have a fair share of imagination, will power and determination. You are ambitious, and should experience no difficulty in attaining your goal. Your birthsign is Sagittarius. You are ruled by Jupiter. February and June are your most fortunate months. Thursday your lucky day. Your number is six.

Pearl Atchison, Hastings, Ont.

Your handwriting reveals a tender nature, kind, placid, and sweet. You are not as robust in health as you might wish to be at the present moment, but there is every possibility of much happiness in the future. You have the ability to take up nursing as a profession if you wish, because your gentle nature blends itself to natural sympathy and understanding of the ills pertaining to others. Your capital letters demonstrate an artistic tendency, which if developed should bring you much pleasure. Your general character is very good.

Margaret Hudson, Port Hope, Ont.

The handwriting as delineated on your sample for analysis represents quiet intelligence and expressive thought. You are ingenious and progressive. There is determination shown in the upper heavily stressed formations which indicates that you are mentally equipped with the ability to formulate plans and work for others to execute, while you have a generous share of executive ability. And artistic tendency is expressed in your capital letters. Photography should interest you even if only as a side line. Your 't' bar crossing suggest normal will power and consecutive thought. You most certainly could undertake a business college as you suggest would be an excellent thing for you. I mentioned photography because you have the essential artistic proportions, necessary for obtaining the correct posture or pose in the business of photograph taking. Your artistic sense too could be developed later into the delicate art of tinting.

Sara M. Todd, Norwood, Ont.

This handwriting shows that you are reserved and quite conservative in your ideas. You are secretive as regards personal matters. You are neat and well poised, original in manner of dress and household arrangements. You should enjoy working out your own intelligent ideas because you have the happy faculty of planning with deliberation and neatness. Certain types of people worry you and seem to upset your mental equilibrium. Your disposition is nearly always the same with the exception of these periods of mental unrest. Your number is four. Your birthsign Libra the Balance. August and December are your most fortunate months for important undertakings. Friday is your lucky day.

HEAVY DAMAGE AND ONE DEATH TOLL OF FIRES

BIG LOSS AT KITCHENER.

(By The Canadian Press)

Fire took a heavy toll Good Friday as it fell upon six Ontario points, causing one death and damages in the neighborhood of $110,000.

A 74-year-old woman was trapped in her blazing home at Walsingham Centre, near Delhi, after she had upset an oil lamp.

At Kitchener the Metropolitan Stores Building fell prey to flames that threatened to spread to the Bank of Toronto and the Woolworth Store. Three firemen required hospital treatment, following the battle with the blaze that started in the basement and did not stop until it had damaged about $100,000 worth of property and goods.

Two homes on the Lakeshore road, New Liskeard, were destroyed by flames believed to have started through an over-heated stove. No water was available as the blaze broke out in Ernest Olsen's home, and efforts with extinguishers and chemicals failed to prevent its spreading to the residence of Harry Bertram, at present occupied by his son-in-law, A. Boynon. Olsen's home was not insured, while Bertram's was partially covered.

Store is Gutted.

At Orillia the interior of a ladies' wear store on the main street, owned by E. Steacy, was gutted by fire. Damage has not been estimated. Guests in the Orillia House nearly left the building with their belongings and residents of other neighboring dwellings were prepared for a hasty move.

Fire of undetermined origin did $1,000 damage at the Moore Fruit warehouse on King street, London. Citizens were given quite a scare as packing boxes and baskets made a great blaze.

Interior at the home of Robert Rankin, St. Thomas, was damaged as fire broke out following what was believed to have been static electricity or friction as a member of the household was rubbing the arm of the chesterfield with a rag soaked with gasoline.

The Delhi fire, in which Mrs. Robert Muir was burned to death, razed three dwelling. Rev. Wilkinson Shaw's home was destroyed as a high wind swept the flames and flying embers. Lloyd Hutchison also lost his home.

AGRICULTURAL CO-OPERATION HAS MADE STEADY PROGRESS IN MANY EUROPEAN NATIONS

Almost Every Nation Employs Co-operative System of Some Sort or Another—France Has About 12,000 Agricultural Syndicates.

By H. K. REYNOLDS
Central Press Canadian Correspondent

LONDON, Mar. 31.—At about the same time that Robert Owen was beginning his co-operative industrial experiments in England, the idea of co-operation, involving both industry and agriculture, was being developed in France by Francois Charles Marie Fourier.

To-day almost every nation in Europe employs a co-operative agricultural system of some sort or another.

The first modern farm associations in France were more like trade unions than the co-operative organizations in other European countries. They were known as Agricultural Syndicates, and were chiefly concerned with the buying of farm requisites in common.

At the present time there are about 12,000 Agricultural Syndicates in France, with more than 1,500,000 members, and 5,500 societies engaged in the production, processing and sale of agricultural produce, operating dairies, wineries, cheese factories, distilleries and other produce.

Belgium had its first co-operative societies in 1890. There is a close relationship to-day between the government and the Belgium co-operatives, of which there are now about 1,200.

The co-operative movement in Spain has received a new lease of life under the republic, new legislation having been enacted to aid the farm organizations. The law emphasizes that the co-operatives are not to regard profits as their chief aim, but are to look out for their common needs.

Germany has more than 52,000 co-operative societies, of which nearly 80 per cent are agricultural associations. They operate dairies, and engage in the marketing of cattle, eggs, fruits, vegetables and wine. Under the National Socialist government in Germany, the agricultural co-operatives have undergone some changes, and new plans are being made for the improvement of the farming industry, in which the co-operatives will have an important part.

In Poland, since it emerged as an independent state after the war, efforts of agricultural leaders have been directed toward the development of an agricultural economic system divorced from the former Russian and German influences. There are now 6,000 agricultural societies.

Co-operative agriculture has flourished in Switzerland since the end of the 19th century. The dairy industry is the most important, and nearly all milk producers are organized into local co-operative societies, grouped into regional federations, which are in turn united in the Swiss Dairy Union.

In Hungary and the Danubian countries, Roumania, Bulgaria and Jugoslavia, nearly 80 per cent of the population is dependent on the land, and agricultural co-operation is developed on a large scale. It is estimated that 25 per cent of the population are included in the co-operative movement.

There are 7,500 co-operative societies in Jugoslavia, 3,500 in Bulgaria and 4,700 in Roumania.

The co-operative movement in Hungary dates from 1863, when a mortgage credit institution was organized, and co-operative grain warehouses have been operated since the middle of the 19th century.

Czechoslovakian co-operatives had their beginnings in Germany and Hungary. With the establishment of the Czechoslovakian government after the war, there were important developments, until now Czechoslovakia has 11,000 co-operative societies.

The Baltic states, Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania, have thousands of societies, and operates dairies, distilleries, etc., besides credit and insurance organizations.

TEN TROUBLERS IN EVERY 1,000 MAKE PROBLEMS

Dr. Helen MacMurchy Deals With Sterilization and Birth Control in Book.

HEALTH SPECIALIST

TORONTO, March 29 (C.P.) — Problems caused by the "10 troublers in every 1000" and manifold perplexities facing to-day's generation are reviewed by Dr. Helen MacMurchy, whose volume bearing the twin title "Sterilization? Birth Control?" is the first exhaustive treatment of these subjects by a Canadian authority. For many years she served the cause of child and family welfare as a health officer for the Ontario and Federal governments.

In 156 printed pages Dr. MacMurchy has assembled significant opinion expressed over a period of years on both subjects, ranging from almost technical communications in the British Medical Journal and Lancet to such broad statements of principle as the Encyclical letter of Pius XI on Christian Marriage, and the findings of the Church of England's Lambeth Conference.

She avoids the controversial; sets forth the opinions of many physicians, medical bodies and sociological organizations—in sme cases contradictory—and arrives at moderate conclusions, simply and briefly stated. Birth control in the sense of contraceptive action she finds 'unnatural,' to be resorted to only in exceptional cases.

From the weight of evidence and her own experience, she believes legislation with regard to sterilization must "follow a course which shall commend itself to the good judgment of the large majority of citizens," and that the element of compulsion should not enter into it. The subject is treated almost entirely from the standpoint of mental defectiveness, and the writer refers to segregation and community supervision as other means of control. The first step in any preventive measure, she holds, is compilation of a complete and confidential register of feeble-minded persons.

"Out of every 1,000 of us," writes Dr. MacMurchy, "there are about 10 who are the chief cause of our present enormous expenditure for institutions and other forms of relief and care."

Varying opinion on the influence of heredity in mental defectiveness and mental illnes is quoted. The Alberta, British Columbia and California sterilization acts are reviewed. The author's own opinion is that "in suitable cases and under proper safeguards, it seems that we should consider whether sterilization in addition to segregation and supervision might not help to lessen the terrible burden of feeble-mindedness. Legislation of this character can succeed only if it is well-considered and moderate.

She treats birth control from many angles—economic, physiological, spiritual, and finds that "something is wrong, but it is by no means certain that birth control is the remedy."

"Birth control or contraception is not a normal thing," writes Dr. MacMurchy. "It should not be undertaken or carried on except for clear, definite and grave reasons of a medical nature and under medical advice."

FIVE-DAY FLIGHT LONDON TO INDIA

New Schedules Bring Empire's Capital Within Eight Day Flight from Cape Town.

LONDON, March 29 (C.P.). — Shortening by one day of the Empire air transport schedules, to take effect next month, will bring India within five days of London, Singapore—present eastern terminus of the main trunk route—within eight days, and Cape Town within nine.

A better train service between Paris and Brindisi, for which an aeroplane journey will be substituted about two months later, and a few hours of night flying over certain sections of the routes will make these important accelerations possible.

First of the accelerated services will leave London in April for Egypt and Africa. Later on will begin the first of the quicker runs to India and the east. Rearrangement of the train schedule has put forward departure from Paris four hours, allowing the flying boats which assure the trans-Mediterranean stages to ascend from Brindisi.

Substitution of the aeroplane for the train, following provisional agreements reached with the Italian and French governments, will eliminate a very long day's flying. Probably the air route selected will go by way of Marseilles, reached at the end of the first day out from London, and the Italian coast. Corfu would then become the halt for the second night, leaving an easy run for the third day's travel on to Egypt.

Another long day's flying is needed to secure the speedup of one day in the flight to Singapore. Beginning with the outward-bound on April 22, the aeroplane flying between Rangoon and Singapore will be timed to complete the stage of 1,400 miles in the day, leaving one terminus before dawn and landing at the other after dark.

The Australian government has not yet completed arrangements for operation of the Singapore-Darwin link in the England-Australia air chain, but there is hope that the through service will be working by autumn of this year.

Class Of Amateurs Clash This Evening

TORONTO, March 31 (C.P.)—The annual battle for the Allan Cup, ancient trophy that goes to Canada's best senior amateur team, starts here to-night as the class of the East and West meet at Maple Leaf Gardens for the first of a two-of-three series. It promises to be a classic struggle with Moncton Hawks and Fort William Blue Shirts appearing evenly matched in speed and defensive ability.

Before the seniors step on the ice, the team that will go westward to Winnipeg to meet the winner of the Port Arthur West End—Edmonton club series for the Memorial Cup will be known, and there seems little doubt the team will be St. Michael's College. St. Mike's walloped Charlottetown Abegweits 12-2 in the first game of the eastern Canadian junior final and the Maritimers have practically no chance of visiting Western Canada with such a lead to overcome.

Abegweits and St. Mike's play this afternoon in the last of a two-game total-goal series.

PRINCE IN GO-BY TO ORANGE ARCHES

Venerable Lake Captain Recalls Edward as Prince of Wales Did Not Land in Kingston.

KINGSTON, Ont., March 29.—(CP)—Veteran of early shipping days on the Great Lakes and St. Lawrence, Captain James Dix of Kingston vividly remembers the visit of Edward, Prince of Wales, in 1860. The captain, now 85, was one of many school children who were boated down the river to welcome the future king.

It was their only opportunity to extend a greeting; the royal visitor did not land. His guardian, the Duke of Newcastle, refused to let the Prince land because members of the Orange Order insisted on having an official part in the welcome. The Duke had learned in Montreal of the Orange plans and wrote to the governor of Upper Canada objecting to anything which might stir up religious feeling or a "breach of the peace."

Despite this request, the Kingston lodge had arches erected and appeared in full regalia whereupon the steamer Kingston, on which the Prince made the trip pulled up anchor and continued. The same thing occurred at Belleville.

When the Prince reached Toronto, the Orangemen doffed their regalia, but the royal procession found an Orange arch erected on King Street, topped by a statue of King William III. The Duke again took offence and demanded an apology, which was forthcoming with the assurance the King William statue had no political or religious significance.

James Dix began his long marine career with the company founded by D. D. Calvin, who became Member of Parliament for Frontenac. Captain Dix recalls the old rafting days on the St. Lawrence between Garden Island and Quebec. He was aboard the first vessel to carry a wheat cargo eastward from Fort William.

A DAY IN CANADIAN HISTORY
By Fred Williams

OLD McGILL'S 113TH BIRTHDAY

On this date, in 1821 a royal charter was granted to McGill University, Montreal. So many difficulties interposed, however, that it was not until 1833 that the first degree was conferred. Even then it was a cnotinuous struggle against adverse circumstances until 1852 when an amended charter was secured. Meanwhile lecturers were dismissed because there was no money to pay them; rain and melted snow seeped through the cracked roofs; there was not enough fuel to heat the buildings; the college grounds were uncared for; students had to plow their way through snowdrifts to classes in cold rooms; and there was a time when it looked as if the attempt to build a great university in Lower Canada would have to be abandoned.

But in 1851 Judge C. D. Day, president of the Royal Society for the Advancement of Learning, took hold. He appealed to the legislature for aid and a grant of $5,000 was made. The buildings were repaired and the students began to hope. And by good luck—McGill men, past and present will tell you it was a Divine interposition—a scholar was persuaded to come up from Halifax a native of Pictou, a product of the Pictou Academy, that cradle of intellectual giants.

From the day that J. W. Dawson arrived McGill took on new life, and has since marched steadily forward. In the 30 years following his arrival the revenues of the university grew from practically nothing to $40,000 a year; the staff increased from 8 to 39; while the enrolment of students grew less than 100 to nearly 600.

Dr. Dawson held the principalship until 1893 (he had been knighted in 1884) and lived in retirement for six years, dying in 1899. He was replaced by Dr. William Peterson, who had been principal of University College, Dundee, from 1882 until his trnsfer to Canada. He remained until 1919, having become Sir William in 1915. Then in 1920 Sir Arthur W. Currie took charge. His place has to be filled. The fourth principal of McGill in its 83rd year of actual efficiency, will have to be a big man if he is to rank with his three predecessors.

BABY IN THE GLASS

There you are Baby—look in the mirror.

That's you. You with the pink cheeks, you with the laughing eyes, you with the one ear lower than the other, you with your hair sticking up in the air, you with the laugh and the grin and the chuckle, and you with the little hands, so big for a baby (father says you'll be a good shortstop some day), you with the kicking feet and you with the eager joy of being alive.

There you are—look at yourself.

Look at yourself now, in the glass, as if you were somebody else, somebody you've never seen before and don't know at all....Just another baby in the glass. Another human creature. Not at all mysterious. Not you. Just anybody. Take a good look....Time flies, small fellow! You'll grow, get ideas, discover yourself, and once you do you'll never see yourself in the mirror again....So look your fill now. I'm warning you.

You'll have troubles and you'll have joys. You'll fall down and bump your nose and yell. You'll learn to fall down and bump your nose and take it like a man (or a brave woman)....You'll want something awfully and get it, you'll want something and NOT get it. You'll be humiliated and you'll be praised. You'll get into fights, you'll get through them....You'll develop an "attitude" toward life, have opinions, prejudices, dreams, dissappointments...And when you look in the mirror then, you'll not see you. You'll be vain or you'll be humble. You'll see the human being you think you are, and that boy in the mirror may be less than he thinks he is or very much more....I can't say about that. It's up to you.

So look your fill at that jolly fellow in the mirror. Shout, you little man. Chuckle, you blue jay. Grin, you Billikin. Stretch out your hands, small, inquisitive monkey.... No, no, don't hit him. Just pat him nicely, that's a good boy.... And make your parents laugh for joy of having a small fellow in the house who knows nothing of this world, that he cannot see and hear and smell and taste and touch—and loves it all, even himself in a mirror.

Fire Destroys Car Short Circuit Blamed

MILLBROOK, March 31. — (Examiner Correspondence).—Driving from Carmel vicinity on Wednesday evening, Marshal Fallis suddenly found flames issuing from under the hood of his car, a short circuit having apparently developed, and while blinded by the smoke was forced to head for the ditch. The car turned over two or three times and was practically destroyed.

The accident occurred in the neighborhood of the somewhat dangerous curve on the hill near the former Henry family homestead, and the cause of the short circuit is unknown. Fortunately Mr. Fallis escaped without any serious injury; whether insurance was carried has not yet been definitely stated.

RADIUM SUPPLY ONLY 10 OUNCES
Worlds Stock Less Than 300 Grams, E. H. LeCrone Tells Kiwanis Club.
FOUND IN CANADA.

The world's production of radium up to 1930 was about twenty ounces, E. H. LeCrone of the radium extracting plant at Port Hope, an interest of the Eldorado Gold Mines, Toronto, informed the Kiwanis Club at their luncheon in the Empress Hotel on Thursday.

Mr. LeCrone discussed quantities of this precious and intensely active element in terms of milligrams, but finally turned to the averdupois table of weights for the benefit of any of the members who might have forgotten their school day lessons in the troy scale.

The price of radium has varied fairly considerably during the last thirty years since it first came into use, but the price paid by the Government of Canada for a supply was $52 a milligram, or $52,000 a gram, and, as already pointed out, there were only 600 grams produced up to 1930.

Radium is found in carnotite and pitchblend ores in association with uranium from which it is broken down. Canadian deposits are obtained from the Great Bear Lake country of the far north-west territory, and is transported down the Mackenzie River across Great Slave Lake and down the Slave River to Lake Athabasca, and so on to the rail head from which it is forwarded to the extracting plant at Port Hope.

Mr. Lacrone passed over the process of obtaining radium from uranium ore. He said that most ores contain about one part of radium to three million parts of radium. The tiny needles in which the element is enclosed for hospital uses are kept in what might be described as a safe of solid lead into which little "pigeon holes" are drilled as a depository for the needles.

The Port Hope plant is capable of producing one gram of radium a month. The world's stock of radium to-day is probably less than 300 grams, Mr. LeCrone said. This is approximately ten ounces. Production from 1898 to 1930 was recorded as follows: Belgian Congo, 300 grams; United States, 250; Austria, 45; Portugal, 45; Madagascar, 8; Russia, 6; Cornwall (England), 5 grams.

Instrumental numbers of Mose Yokum, pianist, and Gordon Robertson, saxaphonist, were pleasant features of the program. Archie Gates was chairman.

THE STARS SAY . . .

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE.
FOR SUNDAY, APRIL 1.

Sunday's horoscope favors affairs of church and clergy, and also gives promise of active and happy social, domestic and affectional activities, and yet it is also possible a sudden visitation may disrupt the benefic trend of affairs.

Those whose birthday it is may have a year of outstanding adventure, this divided between the benefic and the adverse. Great benefits ar shown, with elders and friends assisting.

A child born on this day should be capable, industrious, and fond of adventure. It should have many personal charms and talents and gain the recognition of its elders and important friends.

FOR MONDAY, APRIL 2.

Monday's astrological forecast is for a most favorable, fortunate and happy day in both business and in the private affiliations. There will be much stirring in all connections with fine advance upon cherished aims, particularly through deals with large corporations, rings or secret bodies.

Those whose birthday it is are on the threshold of a most eventful, prosperous and happy year, with all contacts and affiliations moving in the direction of cherished goals.

A child born on this day should be brilliant and clever in many directions, achieving success, even fame, through its graces and its talents.

A Thought

OURSELVES

When our lives are reduced to their lowest denomination, our early environment, our circumstances, our opportunities count for much less in the long run than our mental and moral make-up, i.e., the sort of people we are, the way we face up to life, the manner in which we act in and react to this old world of ours in which we dwell.

I think the poet was dead right who said:

"Not in the clamor of the crowded street,
Not in the shouts and plaudits of the throng,
But IN OURSELVES, are triumph and defeat."

YOUTHS CHARGED WITH THEFT.

NEW LISKEARD. — Two youths, Charles Bouley, 16, and Clifford Paquette, 18, were under arrest here to-day charged with theft following the $800 robbery at the Taylor Pool Room, on March 2. Police say Bouley admitted his connection with the theft and after questioning turned over $70 to the officers.

Having covered 10,000 miles on a bicycle since he started from Bombay, India, a year ago with $1.85 in his pocket, a young Indian has just arrived in London.

THAT "LIKE THE DICKENS" FEELING IS LIVER

Wake Up Your Liver Bile. Feel Fit. You Needn't use Calomel To Do It.

It's your liver, failing to pour out the vital two pounds of bile, daily, into your bowels, that makes you feel so off-colour.

Lack of bile means poor digestion. Food stays too long in your bowels and decays. Your system is poisoned. You go through the misery of gas, bloating, pain, heartburn. You have a dark brown abominable taste in your mouth and bad breath. Your skin's unhealthy and often your head aches. Your whole system seems out of kilter.

How can you reasonably expect to clear up a condition like this by merely taking salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum, or roughage? These only move the bowels, and that's not enough. You must wake up your liver bile.

Avoid calomel (mercury). Take Carter's Little Liver Pills. They're purely vegetable, gentle, sure and safe. They'll make you feel a hundred per cent better in a very short time.

Don't accept your money as substitutes. Be definite. Ask for Carter's by name—and see them! Look for the name, Carter's, on the red label. 25c. at all druggists. 69

Toronto Livestock Review

TORONTO, March 31. — Early week strength on the Toronto livestock Market disappeared as the holiday week-end drew close, and prices on all grades were barely steady to 50 cents lower at the close. Calves showed the big drop, losing 50 cents on Thursday while hogs lost 10 cents.

Packers refused to buy cattle in any great numbers on Wednesday and Thursday, but light receipts enabled the holdover to be held down to about 70 head. The cattle run was approximately the same as the previous week's but the feeling for week-end loadings was weak. Calf receipts were 600 head heavier while the lamb run included 2,400 Westerns.

Weighty steers were steady at $5.75 to $6.25 for choice, with few going to exporters. Plain steers sold down to $4.25. oGod and choice butcher cattle showed a gain, selling about 15 cents higher at $5.25 to $5.75 with the bulk from $4.75 to $5.50. One load of choice Western yearlings brought $7 ; fed calves were mostly from $5.50 to $6.50 with a few choice at $7 to $7.50.

Butcher cows were a shade higher at $3.50 to $4 for choice, while canners finished weak at $1 to $1.50. Bull trade was slow at $3 to $3.50 for butchers and at $2.25 to $2.75 for bolognas. Stockers and feeders moved within a range of $3.50 and $4.35. Milkers and springers were firm at $45 to $50 for the best.

Prices in the calf division held steady to Thursday, but weakened then, and closed the week 50 cents lower. Indications at the close were that the market would drop lower next week. Calves from Eastern Ontario made the bulk of the supply, and went from $5 to $6.50. Good and choice vealers sold up to tops of $7 and $8, with tops on Thursday at $7.50.

Hog prices, after two weeks of recessions, were steady until Thursday, when they weakened to finish 10 cents lower. Bacons held at $7.75 f.o.b., $8 off truck, and $8.50 to $8.60 off car. Thursday, with only a few off truck hogs offered, the price went down to $7.90. The British bacon market was reported weaker, and may influence opening prices on Monday.

The lamb division sold steady at $8.50 for good ewes and wethers, with a few culls going from $6 to $7.50. Thursday trading was dull, with a few sales at $8.50. A small number of lambs were unsold at the close. Good spring lambs sold in small numbers at $8.50 to $10 apiece, with light spring lambs bringing $5 to $8. Sheep held steady at $2 to $5 per cwt., according to quality.

Receipts, as reported by the Dominion Live Stock Branch, were:

	Cattle.	Calves.	Hogs.	Sheep-Lambs.

SUDBURY, Ont., Mar. 29.—(CP) — For the first time in its 50-year history, Sudbury receipts for the first three months of the year exceeded expenditures, making a loan from the bank necessary. City Treasurer A. J. McDonnel stated today. On the same date last year the city owed the bank $59,793 on current borrowings to carry the city for the first three months.

Weddings

GILMOUR—BEATTY.

MILLBROOK, March 31. — (Examiner Correspondence).—A quiet wedding was solemnized at the manse, Millbrook, at three o'clock on Wednesday, March 28, when Muriel Iona, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert J. Beatty, of Elizabethville, became the bride of Norman Cedric Gilmour, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred R. Gilmour, of Cavan, the Reverend H. R. Williams, B.A., officiating.

The wedding couple were attended by the bride's sister, Miss Irene Beatty and by Mr Joseph Thompson, of Millbrook. Lakefield News

Fire Marshall E. P. Heaton has consented to act as patron for the firemen's card party and dance on Easter Monday, and Councillor A. G. Lawless will play the genial host to the distinguished visitor. In the event of Mr. Heaton not being able to be present, he will be represented by one of his deputies.

J. W. Stuart, of Peterborough, was in the village on Wednesday.

Howard Quinn, of Peterborough, was in the village on Thursday attending the funeral of his uncle, Robert Duff.

Rev. Douglas Smith, of Brixenridge, P. Q., was in the village on Thursday attending the funeral of the late Robert Duff.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pearson, of Hall's Bridge, were in the village on Wednesday.

T. W. Quinn, of Peterborough, was in the village on Thursday attending the funeral of his uncle, Robert Duff.

The Lakefield Canoe factory has made several shipments of boats, filling orders received from England, and also from France. Before the war the company had a very good trade worked up with these two countries, and this evidence of a "comeback" is noted with genuine satisfaction and local pride. Keith Tate, manager of the Lakefield Canoe Co., is to be congratulated.

The church sheds belonging to the Baptist Church has been taken down and a smaller shed erected on the south side of the lot. The present-day conditions make the commodious shed of the past unnecessary.

The three-act comedy, "Poor Father," is being put on under the auspices of the C.Y.P.A. in the Lakefield Town Hall on Friday, April 6. The play was originally planned for February 9, but an accident to one of the principal characters necessitated its postponement.

The Grove closed for the Easter vacation on Wednesday of this week.

HUNT DILLINGR ACROSS PRAIRIE WITH NEW VIGOR

Believed Prepared for Bank Robbery After Shooting Way Out of Trap Saturday.

IN ST. PAUL.

Woman With Him at Time Thought to Have Been Wounded in Gun Fight.

ST. PAUL, April 2 (C.P.). — The search for John Dillinger spread to the entire northwest to-day while the authorities guarded against a new sortie by the quick-triggered Indiana gunman.

Police art satisfied that his pal and chief lieutenant, John Hamilton, is still with him, and they believe the pair plan to rob a bank in the north-west early this week.

A score of suspects were held for questioning to-day as a result of Saturday's shooting in which Dillinger and Hamilton, accompanied by a woman, fought their way out of an apartment when Federal agents and a city detective went to the place on a tip.

The woman was believed to have been wounded. Bloodstains were found in the snow. Later Dillinger was reported seen near Duluth in Northern Minnesota.

Federal agents refused to talk about the hunt for Dillinger, who escaped recently from the Crown Point, In., Jail. Neither was any information available as to the suspects held except that it was a general round-up.

Identification Routine.

Identification of Dillinger as one of the occupants of the apartment here was reported to have been made through fingerprints. The gunmen left behind a sub-machine gun and other weapons, a photograph of Dillinger, a bullet-proof vest, and an automobile.

Clyde May, city commissioner of public utilities, called members of the St. Paul Real Estate Board and the Apartment Owners' Association into conference to-day to discuss a proposed ordinance to keep a card index history, including fingerprints, of persons living in apartments.

"No law-abiding citizen would object, I am sure," said May.

ICE CRIPPLES SEALING SHIP

Steamer Tosses Helplessly With Broken Propeller While Mates Get Big Kills.

WILL BE TOWED HOME.

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., April 2.—(C. P. Cable.)—Crippled by Arctic ice, the big sealing steamship Thetis still tossed helplessly among the floes to the eastward of Funk Island, off Newfoundland's northern coast.

Word reached the capital by wireless that it had been found impossible to effect repairs to her propeller, and that she would have to be towed back to St. John's, with the lowest catch of the fleet's eight vessels.

Her owners were unable to secure a towing vessel to-day, but meanwhile the ship was in no danger. Weather was fine, and she was not far from the other vessels of the fleet. No seals were in sight, however, and her 100 men were forced to remain impatiently aboard ship while their more fortunate fellows secured the biggest kill in years.

Up to Student

OLIVET, Mich., April 2.—(AP)—There'll be no cutting of classes at Olivet College next year—because there'll be no classes to cut.

Class attendance, hours, credits and other compulsory features of colleges education will be abolished under a program announced by John Brewer, 35-year-old president of the college.

Instead, the students will use the mornings for study, afternoons for athletics and evenings for organized debates, discussions and social affairs. Professors will be tutors.

The new system, avers president Brewer, puts the business of obtaining an education strictly up to the student.

Yearling Deer Is Seen in Lakefield; Animal Saved From Drowning in Lake

A yearling deer turned tail and fled in confusion when confronted by Pole Chief Webster and Arthur Montgomery in Lakefield yesterday. The deer had come down the main street of the village but on seeing the officer of the law and his companion, it fled to a point nigh of the village and then took to the ice on Lake Katchewanook. The ice proved too thin and the deer went down. The animal guggled helplessly in the water for some time and when nearly exhausted it was rescued by Percy and Darcy Hill and the Rev. Dr. W. MacKenzie, headmaster of the Grove school.

Badly frightened and suffering from the effects of the ducking in chilly water, the animal was taken up to Grove School, where accommodation was found for it in Thomas Wood's stable. Mr. Wood, a member of the teaching staff at the Grove, is caring for the animal until it is sufficiently recovered to be released.

Inspector Fred Marshall, district game warden, was notified of the occurrence, which he described to The Examiner as being very unusual. It some years, he said, since a deer was last seen on the streets of Lefield village.

FEW PETERBORO STORES VACANT REALESTATE GREATLY IMPROVED

Not Many Houses Unoccupied, H.J. McCannon Reports — Vitality Indicated.

FARIERS BUYING.

Activity in Peterborough real estate for he first quarter of this year show considerable improvement over he corresponding period of 1933, H.J. McCannon told The Examiner his morning.

"Quite number of families have moved to Peterborough since last fall," Mr. McCannon said. "There have been a few sales of houses, but the number that has been rented is larger. It seems to me that the situation in this respect is quite satisfactory. Demand for the lower priced houses is good, and there is not much difficulty in renting them. Of cours there are some vacant houses, but there are not so many as might be expected.

Stores Occupied.

Mr. McCannon pointed out that the old Dressman building was now occupie.

Tenacy of the business section of the city has been well maintained throughout the last three years, and is almost at the peak level to-day.

The pessimists who predicted when the depression was first felt that Gorge Street property would be heally vacated have been completely silenced. G. H. Thompson of the Toronto Savings and Loan Company informed The Examiner that only two of their properties in the mercantile section are unoccupied, the former C.D.S. store at Georg and Simcoe Streets, and a small store on the south side of Simcoe Street, near Adamson and Dobbi's.

Mr. McCannon said that there had been several inquiries recently for the George Street store from which Ben Chesler moved across the street, and its occupancy may be reorted in the near future.

These real estate facts are obvious and are regarded as the most positive proof of the vitality of Peterbough business. All that is needd now is a little bulge of old time buying as spring opens up, and there are promising signs of improvement in that direction.

Norman Andrew of Hall and Andrew successors to Drummond and Hall implement dealers, Simcoe Street, report increased business from their country customers. Famers have been encouraged by the new year's advanced prices to buy some of the equipment which the have been deferring as long as the market was holding out against them.

"There is no desire anywhere to create false enthusiasm, but at the same time there is no reason why the improved condition of real estate should not be mentioned, and in conjunction with it the prospects for broader business which seems definitely to be developing.

If the pessimists would devote some of their doubtful activity to the brighter side of local affairs, the resulting enhancement of sentiment would go a long way in supporting the swing of better business that is now apparent.

OFFER SERVICES TO POLICE

TORONTO, April 2 (CP)—Citizens holding commissions in the police force but working quietly without uniforms or insignia were envisaged by Rev. R. J. Campbell, organizer of the Knights of the Crown, who addressed the first gathering of the organization. An offer of services of picked members of the Knights of the Crown would be made to the Police Commission as soon as organization had been completed, it was announced.

"April Fool" Prank

TORONTO, April 2 (CP) — The reported escape of 15 boys from the Victoria Industrial School in Mimico was described as an "April Fool' prank or a possible attempt on the part of an inmate to obtain publicity, W. G. Green, superintendent, stated to-day. The superintendent suggested one of the boys might have found a telephone and communicated with police, saying some of the inmates had escaped. "We have a boy who likes to get a little publicity by telephoning," he added.

WARDEN URGES CONSERVATION OF WILD LIFE

Essential to Maintenance of Tourist Business, Fred Marshall Tells Rotary.

THREE WAYS TO HELP.

Official Suggests Public Should Refuse to Purchase Illegally Caught Fish and Game.

Stressing the importance of the tourist industry and pointing out the danger that unless the supply of fish and game in Peterborough County was maintained, the construction of the new highway to the north would carry visitors past this district, Game Warden Fred Marshall, in addressing the Peterborough Rotary Club at its weekly luncheon to-day, urged greater interest in the conservation of wild life.

Mr. Marshall pointed out three ways in which Rotarians could assist toward that end.

First, while it was not to be expected that they should act as policemen, they should conscientiously obey the game laws themselves and use their influence to see that others did the same thing.

Secondly, they should refuse to encourage infractions of the law by declining to buy illegally-caught fish and game. If they would do this and thus cut off the market for these things, the men who break the regulations would have no reason to continue to do so.

In the third place, they should support the work of the Fish and Game Protective Association, which was doing splendid things for the conservation of wild life in this district.

Mr. Marshall quoted from Dominion Bureau of Statistics figures to show that tourists spent $212,000,000 in Canada in 1932 and declared that while there was a decrease last year the total was still very high. There was no doubt that fish and game were responsible for bringing the majority of these visitors into Canada for while the scenic beauty of the country was admittedly great, it was not in itself enough to attract such vast numbers of tourists. Without our attractions of fish and game, we could not expect to enjoy the revenue created by the tourist traffic.

To ensure adequate reserves of game and fish, two things were required: an ample supply of food for animal life and sufficient breeding stock to keep up the supply. The food supply in Ontario was ample.

ICE IS JAMMED UNDER BRIDGES CREEK IN FLOOD

Jackson Park Creek Above Hunter Street is in Flood.

BRIDGES BELOW CLEAR.

City Engineer Will Likely Move Jam With Dynamite.

Dammed back by huge packs of ice, jammed under several low bridges at Hunter street, the Jackson Park creek was in full flood at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

With the ice forming a solid mass beneath the bridge at Hunter street, the dammed creek water rose suddenly north of the bridge and was pouring in the cellar of the house at 226 Hunter street.

City Engineer Parsons and a squad of workmen were preparing to use dynamite to move the ice packs.

With the exception of the ice jams at the low bridges north and south of Hunter street, the city engineer reported the whole creek flowing nicely. The channel was clear below right to Little Lake, while to the north also no trouble was being experienced.

The jam at the Hunter street bridge formed within a few minutes. Ice from the bottom of the creek floated down in huge cakes. One cake stuck beneath the bridge and immediately a huge jam stretching 60 feet long was formed.

A large quantity of water was flowing between the jammed ice cakes, otherwise a real flood would have occurred immediately. Even at that the water was creeping steadily higher, although with the exception of flooding at 226 Hunter street, there was little damage it could do unless it rose five or six feet higher.

Later this afternoon it was earned that another big jam had formed beneath the bridge at Sherbrooke street and that Ackerman's plant was in danger of being flooded. Immediately on getting this information City Engineer Parsons shifted the scene of operations from Hunter street to the new point of danger.

Two sticks of dynamite were exploded below Hunter street without making any apparent change in the jam.

VIOLENT DEATH OVERTAKES SIX

Police Probe Whether Windsor Man Found in Yard Died of Fall or Blows.

YOUTH IS DROWNED.

(By the Canadian Press).

The Easter week-end brought violent death to six Ontario residents and injuries to numerous others. Mystery surrounded the death of one man whose body bore marks made by a fall or blows. Two of the victims died of injuries suffered in automobile accidents, one was drowned and another burned to death.

At Windsor police probed the death of 73-year-old Charles Howell, whose body was found in a yard. Authorities were unable to determine if the fractured skull which killed him was suffered through blows or a fall.

In Toronto, Mrs. Edith Beatty, 66, died of injuries suffered when she fell from the verandah of her home.

Arthur H. Downs of Toronto was killed in an automobile accident at Welland and a woman companion was hurt seriously. The car in which they were riding crashed into a ditch. Near Salem James MacDonald of Colborne was killed and a male companion hurt seriously when the automobile in which they were riding crashed down a bank and fell into a creek.

Samuel Washburn, Minnitaki resident, was burned to death Saturday night in a fire that destroyed his farm home. His daughter escaped with burns.

At Maxville, Arthur Chenier, 14, fell through the ice of a small creek. He was carried under the ice and drowned.

Satisfaction

CARCASSONNE, France, April 2 (AP)—Pistols barked again today in the second political duel since the Bayonne Banking scandal shook France, but—as in the previous encounter—nobody was hurt.

The combatants were Deputy Jean Mistier, Minister of Commerce in the Cabinet of former Premier Edouard Daladier, and Roger De Tour, Royalist leader.

The harmless exchange of shots on a rifle range near Carcassonne settled a political quarrel which reached a climax when De Tour slapped Mistier Saturday night.

GIRL STOWAWAY TO BE DEPORTED BACK TO IRELAND

Cannot Stay in Canada, Department of Immigration Rules as Final.

SAILS ON LINER TO-NIGHT.

Braved 11 Days in Line's Open Lifeboat to Seek Work in Ontario.

HALIFAX, April 2. (CP).—Catherine Teresa Carr has lost her fight to remain in Canada. Deportation of the plucky Irish girl who crossed the Atlantic in a freighter's lifeboat was ordered to-day by the Canadian Department of Immigration.

Sometime within the next few hours, she will be placed aboard an eastbound ship at Halifax to reverse the course that brought her into Halifax about two weeks ago, weakened from hunger and exposure after spending 11 days in an open boat aboard the steamship Sulairia.

Word was received to-day by the Sulairias agents that the 24-year-old girl must go back to her Belfast home. She will sail on the Cunard liner Scythia, due to leave Halifax to-night, occupying a berth in the hospital ward.

The order for her deportation came as the Department dismissed an appeal from the ruling of an immigration tribunal at Halifax. The tribunal had ordered her sent back a few days after her arrival.

Health Improved

To-day her health had improved enough to allow her to make the return crossing, but she was still weakened by the hardships of her trip. Her only food on that trip consisted of two loaves of bread and she went without water for the full 11 days.

Exposure too had claimed its toll. On the long voyage from Glasgow to Halifax the girl was huddled in the lifeboat, protected only by its loose canvas covering. Chilling north Atlantic winds whistling through the flimsly shelter had left her numb with cold.

She collapsed just as the Sulairia was coming up Halifax harbor. She had hoped to cling to consciousness a few hours more and creep ashore under cover of darkness, but the strain of the voyage proved too great.

Miss Carr wanted to get back to Canada to look for work. Employed formerly in London, Ont., she had been deported, but she could not find emvloyment in the Old Country. She was staying with friends in Glasgow, almost penniless, when she spent her last few cents on the loaves of bread and climbed aboard the Canada-bound ship.

WINS ROYAL BANK PRIZE

MONTREAL, April 2 (CP)—E. A. George Luxton, of University of British Columbia has been awarded the Royal Bank of Canada's $1,000 Fellowship this year for his essay on "The Restoration of International Movements of Capital."

CLAIM GRANDSON SLEW AGED MAN AFTER DISPUTE

Body Found on Roadside, at First Believed Victim of Hit-and-run Driver.

BLOOD LEADS TO FARM.

Stains Found on Axe, Barn Floor, Cutter—Latter Used to Move Remains to Road.

WALKERTON, Ont., April 2 (C.P.). — An argument over a lock on a gate fence was believed by police to have led to an altercation between 65-year-old Philip Stroh and his grandson, Earl Leffler, which resulted in the slaying of the wealthy farmer.

Leffler was arrested early to-day at the Stroh farm where he had been living with his mother and his grandparents. He was charged with murder and remanded by Magistrate F. W. Walker until Saturday.

The dead farmer, his head crushed by a sharp instrument, was found at the cross-roads 150 yards from his modern, prosperous farm, by William and Fred Baetz, who saw the corpse as they were returning along the road from Clifford to Walkerton. The body was lying in the centre of the road. A pool of blood had formed in the ice about the head.

The Baetz brothers notified the family at once. The Strohs summoned police and Constable O. McClevis and County Constable A. Ferguson hurried to the scene. Belief that the dead man was the victim of a highway accident was soon discredited by the authorities. It was evidently a case of murder, they said.

The officers followed a trail of blood to the barn behind the brick farmhouse, where they claim to have found a blood-smeared axe and signs of blood on the hay-mow and barn floor. They also detected blood on the cutter which, they believed, was used to transport the body from the place of the slaying to the cross-roads.

Women Tell Police

The widow and mother of the charged grandson, told police in broken sentences what had happened prior to the finding of the mutilated body.

The family had gone to church in the morning, they said, and had all been present when the family gathered for noon dinner. Later in the afternoon, the widow said, the grandson and her husband went into the barn to do chores. Young Leffler returned to supper but the grandfather did not, she said. When she asked the 18-year-old youth where his grandfather was, he replied he had seen him crossing a field towards the home of a neighbor, she told authorities.

It was unusual for the middle-aged farmer to wander away from home during the afternoon, she said, but the family did not become alarmed until the Baetz brothers brought word that the body had been found.

Your Evening Smile

TURNED DOWN

A number of eligible young bachelors had been invited to the fair young thing's party.

Jack and Tom found themselves next to each other at supper.

"I suppose you are a suitor for Miss Smith's hand?" said Jack.

"Well, yes, but I didn't," replied the second young man.

"Didn't what?" asked Jack, turning a puzzle face.

During the month of February 2,778,358 lbs. of branded beef were sold in Canada.

Policewoman Proves to Be Straight Shooter Brings Purse Snatcher Down With One Shot

Attractively garbed in her best Sunday clothes, Miss McCarthy went for a stroll Easter night, dangling an attractive purse from her hand.

A Negro youth, who gave the name of James Hall, 16 also on a stroll, noted the purse, seized it. Miss McCarthy said, and started to run. Miss McCarthy also ran, screaming a warning to the youth that she would shoot if he didn't stop. He did not.

More astounded than injured the youth found himself being dragged by the scruff of the neck to a corner telephone. There he got the surprise of his life when he heard Miss McCarthy say:

Adversity

BROCKVILLE, Ont., April 2. —(CP)—William E. Leclair, local man knows all about the meaning of adversity. One of his daughters, Doris, has been ill for months and a twin-sister Dorothy, went to the hospital a few days ago to undergo an operation for appendicitis. A few days later Mrs. M. Nicholson, Leclair's mother-in-law who resides with him broke an ankle in a fall downstairs and the latest victim of the jinx affecting the Leclair household is Mrs. Leclair, who fell on the ice in the yard breaking her right leg in three places.

4-2 Victory Over Derby County Gives Them Clear Lead in First Division.

HUDDERSFIELD IDLE.

Grimsby Pulls Further Ahead in Second Section by Defeating Brentford 2-1.

LONDON, April 2 (C.P. Cable).—Arsenal broke into a clear lead in the First Division of the English Soccer League to-day by defeating Derby County 4-2 on the midlanders' own grounds.

Huddersfield Town, tied with Gunners for the leadership, were idle to-day, but will meet Liverpool to-morrow.

Easter Monday saw practically all First Division clubs in action, large crowds attending the games.

Third place Tottenham Hotspurs visited Stoke and were blanked by two goals, but the Londoners retain their position in the standing three points ahead of Derby County.

Chelsea pleased the crowd at Stamford Bridge by defeating Portsmouth 4-0. The result means the Pensioners will move out of the cellar, Sheffield United replacing them as the northerners were beaten 2-0 by Aston Villa.

Lengthens Lead.

Grimsby Town pulled further ahead at the top of the Second Division, beating Brentford 2-1. Bolton Wanderers divided the points at Nottingham, where the Forest held them to a 2-2 score. Lincoln City seemed doomed to relegation, losing by the only goal of the game at Swansea.

In the Southern section of the Third Division Norwich City defeated Newport County 2-1, while Queen's Park Rangers, runners-up in the section, visited Bristol, routing the City 2-0. Chesterfield widened the margin at the top of the Northern section, playing a scoreless draw at Southport. Stockport County sailed at Barrow, being beaten 2-0.

RANGERS INCREASE MARGIN.

WEEK-END FIRES COST $85,000;

Victim Fails to Escape as Home Burns at Minnitaki —Sister is Injured.

ORILLIA HOTEL RAZED.

(By The Canadian Press)

Easter week-end fires in Ontario killed one man and caused damage estimated at more than $85,000, wrecking a hotel in Orillia and a restaurant at Listowel. The man, Samuel Washburn, died in a fire that destroyed his Minnitaki farm home near Dryden.

Flames which broke out in the furnace room caused $15,000 damage to the Diana Sweets restaurant at Listowell and about $10,000 damage to several nearby buildings. It took the combined Listowel and Palmerston fire departments several hours to bring the blaze under control.

Ten persons fled the Orillia hotel Saturday when fire broke out and spread to several adjoining buildings, causing damage estimated at $60,000 before firemen extinguished it.

At Minnitaki, Washburn failed to escape from his home. A sister staying with him was burned as she fled.

TURKISH POLICE ARREST INSULL AND JAIL HIM

Remove Aged Utilities Magnate From Hotel London Despite Protests.

Battery of Greek Legal Talent, to Fight for Him, Rumored on Way from Athens.

(By Priscilla Ring, Associated Press Foreign Staff.)

INSTABUL, April 2.—(A.P.) — Samuel Insull, Sr., a fugitive for a year and a half from Cook county, Illinois, indictments charging him with embezzlement and grand larceny, was arrested by Turkish police to-day.

They took him from the Hotel London, despite his protestations, to the House of Detention.

Kenan Beyt Attorney-General, stated that if an examination showed the 74 year old former utilities czar to be ill, he would eventually be transferred to the prison infirmary to await the disposition of his case.

A battery of Greek legal talent was reported en route from Athens to fight in his behalf—an apparent last ditch effort to save Insull from trial in Chicago on the charges which arose from the overthrow of his one-time empire of Middle Western Utilities.

Four Fast Moves.

With his removal to the House of Detention, Insull had lived in four different places in Istanbul since he arrived here last week.

His first plae of residence was the Greek tramp freighter the S.S. Maiotis, which bore him here from Athens; he was removed from the Maiotis forcibly yesterday and placed in the Hotel Aydan. Then he was taken to the Hotel London in the suburb of Pera.

There he ate lunch and followed the meal with a short nap.

The walk lasted only about 100

...000 Budget Surplus, Britain

...REASES ...RECAST

...ion of Civil Service ...es and Surtax Re-...oval Also Predicted.

TEN YEAR PEAK.

Income Levy May Be Lowered Six Pence Per Pound—Many Seek Favors.

LONDON, April 2.—(C. P. Cable) — Political commentators yesterday estimated that the financial surplus of £31,148,000 would enable Chancellor of the Exchequer Neville Chamberlain to restore all civil service pay cuts, reduce the income tax by sixpence a pound, remove the 10 per cent. increase in the surtax and restore cuts in the unemployed benefits.

They said the last item would depend on his making new arrangements for repayment of the unemployment fund debt. The chancellor, however, gave no indication that he had any intention of putting any of those measures into effect. He will make the budget statement April 17.

The close of the financial year gives Great Britain a monster Easter egg in the form of a realized surplus of £31,148,000—about $158,855,000.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer, who is salmon fishing at Deeside, forgot his rods long enough to receive a telephone from Whitehall saying his revenue in the past year amounted to £724,567,000 as against expenditures of £693,419,000.

The latter figure includes £7,749,868 in the sinking fund and £3,304,392 in debt payments to the United States. Neither was provided for in budget estimates.

The surplus, however, will have no effect on the forthcoming budget which Mr. Chamberlain will announce April 17, except insofar as some factors which put the last budget over the top may be expected to continue.

Many hands are stretched out for what favors the Chancellor may deign to bestow in the new accounting—including unemployed, police, teachers, and justices.

The big question mark of the new fiscal year is whether estimates for defence services may have to be enlarged in the event of a disarmament impasse.

Last year at this time the British treasury showed a deficitof £32,678,989—at that time about $126,800,000.

The surplus is the biggest Britain has had for ten years. There was a deficit of £32,279,000 a year ago. The result was accomplished not only by stringent government economies but by unprecedented sacrifices by the nation's taxpayers, civil servants and unemployed ever since the situation became acute in 1931.

To balance the nation's budget the taxpayers have endured the burden of an income tax at basic rates of 25 per cent.; government employes have suffered pay cuts of 10 per cent. and the unemployed have had their meagre insurance payments reduced 10 per cent.

The report shows the estimates of receipts from the income tax of £228,750,000 was almost exactly realized.

Fear Three Fliers Down On Mercy Trip

MOSCOW, Ajril 2 (AP)—Experts feared to-day that three Russian aviators met disaster in heroic attempts to rescue 89 men marooned on an ice-floe off the northern capes of Siberia.

They were Fliers Kamanin, Molokoff and Pivenstein. No word has been received from them since March 29, when they hopped in three ships from Anaoyr for the Cape Van Karen rescue base.

Normally, only a few hours is required for the flight. They took off, however, in the face of a bitter snowstorm.

Prof. Schmidt said a supply of fresh meat had been obtained through the killing of a Polar bear. He said the men were in good spirits.

The number of hogs graded in Canada for the first 12 weeks of this year was 776,435 compared with 743,427 in the corresponding period of last year.

Gone Soft

GREELEY, Colo., April 2 (CP) —The hardy gents who used to gallop out and pull down a bison before breakfast are all gone from these parts, it seems. One of Joe Filer's herd escaped from a corral and all his riders, working half a day could not round her up. In the afternoon Filer went after her with an automobile, but couldn't get close to her. At twilight George Owens managed to get a rope on the tired bison, but she resented it and chased Owens over a fairly large section of the country. When she was almost exhausted the Filer outfit managed to drag her onto a truck and take her home.

EASTER BUSIEST IN MANY YEARS

Churches Boardwalks Crowded, Visiting Motorists Keep Highways Crowded.

MERCHANTS HAPPY.

(By The Canadian Press)

Ontario's citizens returned to their labors to-day after the lengthy Easter holidays. Incoming railway trains at Toronto bore thousands of people back to the city, and railway officials reported the busiest holiday season in years. Many establishments remained closed to-day, but for the most part industry was back in full swing.

Generally, the province reported fair weather yesterday for the Easter parades held in many localities. Churches were crowded for special Easter services.

Toronto's now-famous Easter parade, staged annually on the wide boardwalk at Sunnyside, was a huge success, according to the participants. While rain threatened and had been predicted by the weatherman, it failed to materialize and the parade took place under leaden skies.

Members of the government spent the week-end quietly, awaiting formal prorogation of the Legislature to-mhorrow. Increased activity will be apparent before the end of the week, for the election campaign is about to start.

This was a highly successful Easter for merchants. Clothing stores, florists and candy shops were particularly busy and receipts are expected to reach the highest mark in the past four or five years. Heavy sales of gasoline and other automobile supplies were reported in all parts of the province, thousands of citizens taking to the highways for the first drives of Spring.

JOYFUL EASTER IS CELEBRATED BY THE FAITHFUL

CHURCHES FILLED

Fashionable Parade in Finery and Colorful Costumes in New York.

All the creeds of Christendom joined yesterday in halleujahs for the risen Lord as they celebrated Easter in song, service and festivities.

In Jerusalem, where Christ made His triumphal entry, thousands of Christians from over the globe knelt in adoration at His tomb. Temple bells rang out paens of praise, calling the faithful to worship.

A beneficent sun shone down on the city that cradled Christianity to bathe in bright light the colorful parades of the pilgrims. Mohammedans flocked to the Mosque of Omar to pray before the sacred stone as a prelude to a pilgrimage to one of their holy places, the site of the tomb of Moses. Christian and pagan brushed shoulders without disorders.

Canonized as Saint.

Rome—the city that nurtured the Catholic Church—was filled by thousands of the devoted who went to the Vatican to hear Pope Pius XI. give his Easter message and cannonize Don Giovanni Bosco, celebrated social worker of the 19th century, as a saint.

In Canada, as in the United States citizens knelt in sunrise services, jammed churches and joined in Easter cantatas.

On a rocky hillside in Bebraska, church people enacted the Easter drama on ground, legend says, was regarded as holy by the Indians.

The United States capital celebrated with two attractions—the President and the usual cherry blooms—absent. President Roosevelt, on vacation aboard a yacht in the blue waters of the Bahamas, laid aside his rod and reel to commemorate the holiday quietly. The cold weather preceding yesterday's sunshine retarded the Easter debut of the cherry blossoms.

Easter Parades.

Not all the celebration, however, was religious. The fashionable paraded in finery. In New York the weather man relented after a contemplated April fool joke of rain, the sun peeped out and the four hundred and lesser lights took to the avenues in colorful costume. In sharp contrast, several hundred poorly dressed men, women and children surged through the streets to the chants of "Work, work, jobs, jobs—we want jobs"—A discord in the counterpoint of the holiday.

Peculiarly on Easter Island—a dot in the Pacific belonging to Chile—Easter was just another day of sadness. The pitiful inhabitants are members of a leper colony awaiting freedom from the bondage of disease. But they still had hope as they joined with other Christians in prayer.

STORE DAMAGED FLEETWOOD FIRE

CAUSE UNKNOWN.

FLEETWOOD, April 2. — Fire threatened the total destruction of the general store and house in conjunction with it at Fleetwood on Friday morning early.

When Virtul Staples arose about 6.30 and proceeded to light the morning fires he discovered flames in the interior of his store. After calling the news to his wife and family he quickly summoned his nearest neighbour, Fred Crawford, to send in the telephone call for assistance. The store telephone was situated in the corner where the fire commenced and was inaccessible.

A number of neighbours joined in a water pail brigade and managed to get the blaze under control. Considerable damage was done to the ceiling, walls and shelves of goods.

As the wind was high it was most fortunate that the fire was prevented from reaching the exterior of the building where it would have spread to the house and numerous other near-by buildings. Cause of the blaze is unknown.

SIX AT PARTY STABBED, SHOT HOME SACKED

Police Find Summer Residence in Washington a Shambles—Evidence of Desperate Fight.

2 OF VICTIMS, WOMEN.

Everyone Attending Gay Affair Dies—Robbery Believed Main Incentive.

BREMERTON, Wash., April 2. (AP).—By an underworld round-up police strove to-day to capture killers who slaughtered six persons attending a gay party in a summer home.

Three men were in custody and were questioned for hours, but police said none of them was suspected of being the slayers who stabbed, beat and shot the six victims to death after binding them.

The topsy-turvy condition of the house and absence of two diamond rings, belonging to Mrs. Frank Flieder, hostess at the party, led investigators to adopt robbery as the most plausible theory for the crime.

When police broke into the home late Saturday they found the place a shambles. In various parts of the house they found the bodies of: Frank Flieder, 45, owner of the home; Mrs. Anna Taylor Flieder 50, his wife; Eugene Chenevert, 38, better known as Bert Vincent, the "Singing Bartender" and former vaudeville player; Mrs. Peggy Chenevert, 30, his wife; Magnus Jordan, 50, retired navy man and caretaker of summer homes and Fred Balcom, bartender at a Bremerton beer parlor.

Beaten With Hammer

All of the victims had been beaten with a blackjack and a hammer. Some of them had been shot. The Throats of both Mrs. Flieder and Balcom had been slashed. Flieder's jaw was broken, his head had been hammered 11 times, and a knife thrust in the back of his neck.

Evidence indicated all had been first tied up or had their mouths and eyes taped.

Luke S. May, Seattle criminologist, said Chenevert, Flieder and Balcom apparently made a desperate fight for life.

Jerry Murphy, described as a card dealer, was one of the three taken into custody. The names of the others held were not disclosed.

The tragedy was discovered when a neighbor, Tom Sanders, noticed that three dogs had been left for hours in an automobile parked outside the house. He investigated and, looking through a window, saw two of the bodies.

ARREST VERIGIN DRUNKEN MELEE

Head of 15,000 Doukhobors Held on $100 Bail—Faces Intoxication Charge.

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL.

NELSON, B.C., April 2. (CP).—Peter Verigin, head of Western Canada's 15,000 Doukhobors, to-day stood charged with being intoxicated in a public place.

Verigin, arrested with two others following a melee in a beer parlor here Saturday, is in hospital receiving treatment for minor injuries. His arraignment in court was scheduled for Tuesday but a remand pending his release from hospital was expected. Bail for the three was set at $100 each.

In the Doukhobor community it is customary for men to doff their hats to Verigin and go bareheaded in his presence.

According to reports to police, Verigin had brought several drinks for patrons at nearby tables in the beer parlor. He talked with his neighbors through an interpreter and asked several young men to take off their hats. A number of women were in the parlor. The young men took off their hats with a laugh as Verigin ordered more beer bought.

He visited another table, and made the same request, but this time his request was interpreted as demanding a mark of respect towards himself. Words followed and a melee started. Salt shakers were thrown and tables and glasses broken.

When police were called Verigin prepared to depart. He was arrested, however, and knocked down in the process. Those arrested with him are Peter Marken and Nick Ziotsoff.

CHURCHES ARE WELL ATTENDED

Easter Messages Proclaimed From Campbellford Pulpits and Choirs Render Eastertide Music.

COMMUNIONS HELD.

CAMPBELLFORD, April 2 (Examiner Staff Correspondence). — Large congregations attended the Campbellford churches on Easter Sunday when the holy season brought forth from pulpits messages of the Resurrection applicable to every day living, and combined with the messages of music rendered by the various choirs, added to the day and the season the joy that is the spirit of Eastertide.

At St Mary's Church large numbers of the faithful attended the celebrations of Low and High Mass, the celebrant for which was the Rev. C. J. Phelan. The church had a festal appearance, with the altar a profusion of Easter lilies.

The Rev. J. C. Robinson was the preacher at both services at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, taking for his sermon text in the morning John 11, 26: "I am the resurrection and the life," and in the evening the theme, "The Changed home." Special music was rendered by the choir under the direction of Mrs. E. H. Lewis, including two anthems in the evening, "They Have Taken Away My Lord" (Stainer) and "O Death, Where is Thy Sting" (Turner). In the morning Miss Helen MacDonald sang "The Resurrection Morn" and the choir rendered the anthem "The Shout of Victory" (Ashford). In the afternoon a special session of the Sunday School and Bible Classes was held, when a series of lantern slides depicting the crucifixion and resurrection of Christ were shown, and Easter eggs distributed to the scholars. A record attendance of 177 was registered.

The Rev Charles Endicott, D.D., addrssed the morning congregation at St. John's United Church, under the auspices of the W.M.S. of the church. In the evening the Rev. H. P. L. Seymour preached, taking his theme from John 11, 25: "I am the resurrection and the life." Music at the morning service included a duet 'Love Divine,' Mrs. H O. Richardson and G. Lucy; solo, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," Mr. Ed. Bates; anthem, "Christ Is Risen"; and solo by W. Henson. In the evening the anthem was "Make Thou That Sleepest," a solo, 'Ty Redeemer and My Lord" being sng by Mrs. C. J. Vesey and a duo "He Lives,' by Eileen Hall and Eer Mowat. The organist, Albert Hcll, directed the music.

Several new members were admitted into the Baptist Church at the evening service when the Ordinance of Baptism as administered by the pastor, Rev. L. M Smith. His sermon theme t this hour of worship was "The Revealer of Life." Communion was administered at the morning servite at which Mr. Smith preached on The Conqueror of Death."

At Christ Church (Anglican) large numbers took Communion both at the eight o'clock service, which was read, and at th choral celebration at eleven o'clck. The rector, Rev. T. H. Floyd, was the celebrant and preacher for the day. Special music was rendered by the choir under the direction of the organist, William Pearson. In he afternoon a special children's service was held in the church, at which the speaker was Hilton Beattie

Just Between Us Women

A daily chat with Examiner neighbors conducted by Anne Wilcox

Stuffed oranges are a novelty. The gay yellow skins make attractive containers especially for spring luncheons for which yellow is a favorite color scheme. The oranges can make a salad course or a dessert. After the centres have been taken out the skins can be left nearly round with just enough cut off to supply an opening to refill the hollows, and from which to eat the contents. Or the oranges can be cut in half and each half form one serving, if oranges are large, or use both halves if they are not sizeable enough for half to be sufficient. The oranges can be cut in basket shape very decorative and dainty. A whole orange is required for each basket. Or the centre can be cut in even points around the middle and be carefully separated so that both halves have a saw edge, in which case the handles are omitted.

• • • • • • •

FRUIT SALAD FILLING.

A good filling for stuffed oranges is made by combining the best pieces of half the centre of the orange with one tablespoon ripe pineapple cubes, 5 maraschino cherries cut in halves, one tablespoon shredded cocoanut, and 1 macaroon broken into pieces. Marinate with a little French dressing made with lemon juice instead of vinegar.

• • • • • • •

SOUR CREAM MAYONNAISE.

A sour cream mayonnaise is recommended for this dainty salad. This is made by adding whipped sour cream to mayonnaise in proportion of half as much whipped cream as mayonnaise, which should be made with less vinegar and be highly seasoned otherwise. For a fruit salad some persons like to have a little sugar blended with the mayonnaise. This whipped sour cream mayonnaise is lighter in color and more delicate in flavor than the regular mayonnaise. Put a level tablespoon of the dressing on top of the filling of each orange in its orange skin cup.

• • • • • • •

JELLY AND SHERBET STUFFING.

Orange jelly can be poured into the orange baskets or halved oranges, and be chilled, and topped with whipped cream when served. Or orange sherbet can be served in the hollowed out oranges. Top with whipped cream and a maraschino cherry.

• • • • • • •

ORANGE VELVET.

Four oranges, three eggs, one-half pint heavy cream, one cup bottle top, sugar, tiny pinch of salt. Method: Juice the oranges. Beat the eggs. Add gradually the milk with the salt in it. Sugar the orange juice and stir into the egg mixture. Put in double boiler and cook until thickened but not long enough for eggs to separate. Cool slightly, and pour gradually onto the whipped cream. Continue whipping the cream while the warm mixture is being added. Pour into the orange baskets or containers, and chill in the refrigerator.

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D.

The induction of artificial respiration is an emergency method of first importance. It is applicable to any condition where the patient is knocked unconscious or shocked, as by drowning or by electric shock, to the point that breathing has ceased. In such an event, artificial respiration takes precedence over every other form of treatment. No time should be lost in beginning it, and it should be continued for several hours. Cases are on record in which things looked quite hopeless, but in which at the end of four hours of artificial respiration the patient began to breathe voluntarily.

The best method of artificial respiration—the prone pressure method—is simple and can be learned quickly by anyone; the injured person's mouth is examined to see that these are no foreign bodies or dislocated false teeth or pieces of chewing gum, which might obstruct breathing. The neck bands are loosened. The patient is laid face downward with his forehead resting on his elbow. The resuscitator straddles the prone body. Placing an open palm on each side of the patient's chest, the resuscitator leans forward, compressing the chest with all his weight. Then springs back, taking his hands off the chest and allowing it to expand. Count five. Then lean forward again and compress the chest once more.

This method may not seem to allow as much air to go in and out as other methods. The one used instinctively probably by most people, is to put the patient on his back and alternately raise the arms over the head and press them down to the sides. One disadvantage of this method is, that with the patient on his back the tongue is likely to drop backward and close the entrance to the lungs, but even more important than this is the small amount of air which it manages to bring in and out. Comparatively, for instance, this so-called Sylvester method brings an air exchange of 2,280 cc a minute, as described, gives an air exchange of 6,760 cc per minute.

Another advantage of the prone pressure method is that it can be done a long time without fatiguing the operator—a great advantage in case only one person is present with the patient.

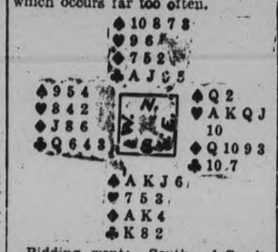
TOO DUMB TO PASS

Pass is one of the most important declarations in the game. What is the sense of overcalling a low bid at your left, unless you are certain that you have a chance to score, or that opponents probably are unable to bid game with safety. The following hand illustrates a thing which occurs far too often.



Bidding went: South, 1-Spade, which North should not have passed; but he made no bid; East, 2-Hearts; North, 2-Spades, which South would have passed had East done so; East, 3-Hearts; South, 3-Spades, which North passed; surely East was dumb to do anything except pass, but he went 4-Hearts, on account of his 150 points honor score; North, 4-Spades, ending bidding.

West led his top heart and East won two tricks—in fact, the only defensive tricks taken against the hand. East lead a diamond, which the declarer's K won. South took a single round of winning spades, then dummy ruffed South's last heart.

The three of spades was led from dummy. East's Q fell to the declarer's ace. The last adverse trump was pulled, then the declarer led his K of clubs. A low club was led. A finesse of dummy's J won the next trick. East's 10 fell. When South saw what had happened, he gained entry to his hand, by leading a diamond and winning with his ace. South led his last club. Dummy's 9 and ace won the next two tricks. South's remaining diamond was discarded upon the ace of clubs. With his last trump the declarer ruffed dummy's last diamond, giving his side 5-odd, just because East had insisted upon forcing two very conservative bidders into a game declaration. West's protests availed nothing. East continues to hand games and slams to his opponents. Probably he always will do so.

Before tomorrow see how many tricks South can win at hearts, against the best possible defence of opponents.

Indigestion, Worn Out

YOU lose vital nerve force if you allow your stomach to distress you. Acid stomach, indigestion, gas or biliousness, and "costiveness," cause the blood to be poisoned and will eventually destroy health and nerve force. This is what Mrs. Jesse Thompson of Route 2, Dorchester Station, Ont., said: "For years Mr. Thompson (see picture) suffered from indigestion and constipation. He was bothered with bloating in the stomach after eating. He used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for about three months. A TAME SESSION.

The session of the Ontario Legislature that has just closed—the lame duck session, if you prefer that description—has been on the whole a decidedly colorless if not to say tedious affair.

With the knowledge that an election would follow closely on the heels of the session, it was freely predicted that the proceedings at Queen's Park would be full of fireworks.

The Opposition under a new House leader was expected to assail the Government from all angles and develop a mass of material that could be used to great advantage during the campaign.

For some reason or other, however, the much-heralded barrage failed to find its mark and died away to a whisper before the end of the session, the issues from which much was looked for not developing into the major sensations that the Opposition counted upon to blow the Government out of the water.

Altogether it was a tame performance all through—and the session produced little in the way of political excitement or of outstanding legislation.

In fact, had it not been for the introduction of the Government's beer bill, about which a great deal will be heard in the next couple of months, the session would have gone down into history as one of the quietest and most unfruitful on record.

When the House meets again there will be only 90 members in place of the 111 who occupied the desks in the Legislature during the session that has just come to an end.

DETROIT'S TRIUMPH.

While the capture of the National Hockey League championship by the Detroit Red Wings has killed a great deal of the interest Canadians usually show in the series for the Stanley Cup, there will nevertheless be a general feeling of admiration for Manager Jack Adams and his gallant players because of their feat of toppling over the mighty Toronto squad which throughout the regular season had ridden roughshod over its opposition.

While popular sentiment puts the greatest emphasis upon the capture of the Stanley Cup, the winning of the N.H.L. title should really rank as the most noteworthy achievement inasmuch as the contest brings together the two squads which lead their respective sections after nearly five months of scheduled play.

For the first time in its history the Detroit team has succeeded in winning that honor, and has done it in most courageous fashion by coming back after apparently being on the run and holding the greatest scoring machine in professional ranks without a goal in the crucial game of the series.

While, as a matter of sentiment, most fans in this country would have preferred to see a team representing a Canadian city win the championship, they have the consolation of knowing that after all it was a team of Canadian players coached by a Canadian manager which gave Detroit its first N.H.L. title.

To Peterborough people the Red Wings' victory is of particular interest because of the fact that Coach Jack Adams of the victorious Detroit team once wore a Peterborough uniform, and gave a display of clever and brilliant hockey that is still remembered by older fans in this city.

DEMANDING THE IMPOSSIBLE.

The demoralizing effect of living on relief over a long period is illustrated by the evident trend among many of those now on the relief lists to press for larger slices of financial assistance and to "demand" greater concessions from the authorities.

A few days ago a Toronto speaker advised local unemployed to seek greatly increased relief allowances, and the same kind of thing is going on in other parts of the country.

Up in Etobicoke, in the Toronto area, an organization known as the Workers' Association has presented a modest little program to the relief authorities in which they "demand" among other things an increase of 40 per cent. in relief, to be paid in cash weekly, with an additional 50c per week per person for "non-consumable articles," free rent and taxes, free dental and medical services, one ton of coal per month, adequate summer fuel, $1.50 per month for electric current, free transportation to hospital and high school, non-contributory unemployment insurance, and the prohibition of eviction and seizure of goods.

In return for all this the Workers' Association offer to work one day a week, and if called upon to do any more labor than one day each week, want 50c per hour for unskilled labor and trade union wages for skilled workers.

The impossibility of granting such requests should be obvious; so, too, should be the fact that if by some mental lapse on the part of the authorities these concessions were made it would not be long before the association would be back to "demand" free theatre tickets, gasoline, license markers and a few other similar favors.

NOT ALL BLACK.

While public attention has perhaps been chiefly focussed upon the fact that the Government system had a deficit last year of $58,000,000, the annual report of the Canadian National Railways is not without its bright side.

Like every other business, railroading has been running through dark days over a long period, and the Canadian National has not escaped the troubles that have worried other transportation systems.

Railway revenues have in the past four years shown a tremendous decrease, and in the case of the Canadian National the difference between last year's revenue and the 1928 total was no less than $163,000,000, a shrinkage that shows how severely railway business has been hit by the prolonged depression.

That is the gloomy angle of the problem; the other side of the shield is seen in the fact that the Canadian National system has been forced to learn economy of operation, and so well has this lesson been absorbed that last year the operating expenses were $113,000,000 less than in 1928.

Effective economies have been put into operation, freight trains are moving faster and carrying greater tonnage, less fuel is being used per unit of freight train performance, passenger train miles have been greatly curtailed, and many other savings have been effected without any loss in efficiency.

If these economies are retained when business conditions improve—and they undoubtedly are improving at the present time—the publicly-owned railway should save a marked increase in its net earnings and earn large sums that will be applicable toward interest.

ON SCALING DOWN DEBTS AND INTEREST.

Mr. Bennett's critics will not deny that he possesses one admirable quality. It is the quality of subjecting loose thinking and loose theories to the test of hard realities.

Illustrative of what we mean was last week's House of Commons debate on interest and debts. For months past we have been hearing how if the Government had any brains, plus a heart for the masses, it would tell money-lenders and bond-holders they must take less interest, thereby removing our yoke of debt, and practically demolishing the depression. It was as simple as rolling off a log. All the Government had to do was to convert all Dominion and provincial obligations into a single security, declare the interest rate to be three per cent., and that would be the end of it. Tens of millions would be saved.

• • • •

Now this, as Mr. Bennett showed, might be possible under one condition. That condition would be that all the people to whom the Dominion and the provinces owe money lived in Canada. To our own people, certainly, we might be able to say: "We are going to give you three per cent. instead of five per cent. That three per cent. is worth more now than it was when you loaned us your money. Moreover, everybody else is taking a cut or making a loss, and we think you ought to make some sacrifice, too, seeing that it's for the good of Canada." That might not be pleasant, but it would be reasonable.

Unfortunately, the people who loaned us money, who bought our bonds and securities, don't all live in Canada. Many of them live in England, and in the United States. British Columbia, for example, owes most of its money in London. Alberta has most of its debt in the United States. Quebec owes money in both Britain and the United States. And so with New Brunswick and Nova Scotia.

• • • •

What does that mean? It means this: that if we wanted to reduce interest rates to three or three and a half per cent. we should have to do either one of two things. We should have to get the consent of scores of thousands of bond and security holders all over the United States and Britain to a lower interest rate, or, failing that, offer them less without their consent. Repudiate.

Now, does anybody know any way by which this country might reach all the people abroad who hold bonds and securities of the Dominion and our provinces? Any way by which we could get to them and get them all to agree to take three per cent.? Well, we might be able to reach them all, but if we did, what would they say?

They would say, and most reasonably, this: "You needed money, and we loaned it to you in good faith. We think you should live up to the terms of the contract."

So that, actually, the only way out of this interest matter is so far as the people who hold our bonds and securities outside of Canada are concerned, is by repudiation.

• • • •

Can we contemplate that? People answer, what about war debts? Haven't they been repudiated? They have been. But there is a great deal of difference between the debts which a Government contracts with another Government and the debts which a Government contracts with scores of thousands of private investors. Not in principle, perhaps, but in consequences. One Government may go to another Government and demand that it scale down the principal or interest rate of its debt. It can do so with the knowledge that it is a matter for negotiation, and that, in any event, one Government doesn't invest money in the territory of another Government for purposes of development.

It is different with private investors. Once bitten, they become twice shy, and the capital which they might send to a country for development purposes goes to the country which doesn't repudiate. Which honors its obligation. Canada, of all countries, can't ignore that.

• • • •

Mark you, the Journal is not arguing against the principle of interest reduction. We have said, and we repeat, that a lowering of interest rates on private and public debts would be a good thing, and we have said also, and we repeat, that no man has the right to say that some contract which he entered into in 1928 is more important than the fate of a whole nation in 1934. That, unfortunately, isn't the point. The point is how we are going to get our creditors—scattered all over the world—to see it in our way? We can't make them see it by the stroke of a pen, and because we can't, no sense exists in blaming the Government or in indulging in just wishful thinking.—Ottawa Journal.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENT.

And now it is said the provincial election will be held in the month of roses and weddings, which means "raspberries" for a lot of politicians during the strawberry season.

The lame duck session, as was perhaps inevitable, turned out to be quite wet.

British Columbia is to have a "brain trust," headed by a college professor, which may be all right in spite of the fact that the universities themselves do not trust a professor to run even the co-ed football squad.

If the summer this year is to be short as some pessimists claim, it is clear from the pre-views that the 1934 bathing suits will be correspondingly brief.

With Parliament away for the Easter holidays, it is so quiet in Ottawa that you can almost hear the civil servants clamoring for the restoration of their pay cuts.

Nowadays nobody cares how bad your English is if your Scotch is good.—Kitchener Record.

CHAPTER 27.

"NO, NO, YOU needn't tell me," said Tiggie soothingly. "I know how it is. That fellow Norman—he let you down—didn't play the game—didn't marry you." She flinched at the words but Tiggie's arm still held her. He went on speaking, no longer with agitation but with quiet matter-of-fact decision. "And now listen to me. As I said just now, it's the future that matters. We can't change the past. We can only cut it adrift. That's what 'm going to do—with you, Viola. Do you remember when you said you were shipwrecked and took refuge on my raft? Well—you have come aboard for good. You and all that is yours—are my responsibility now. You needn't be afraid that I shan't play the game. I'm not that sort of swine. You know that."

"Oh, yes, I know—I know," she said, speaking in a sort of despair, while she sought, though gently, to free herself from his encircling arm. "It's just that I musn't let you that's all. Please, Tiggie," as he resisted her efforts, "don't make it too hard for me."

"I'm going to make it impossible" he told her stubbornly, steeling himself against the entreaty in her voice. "It's just that I've come for; don't you see? If I give in to you, now, I know very well what'll happen. So do you. You'll go on utterly miserable—a sort of prisoner—losing ground from day to day—till in the end——" he broke off. "Well, we won't talk about that, because it won't happen. No, listen, Viola. It's my turn to do something, and I'm not a fool, so you needn't be afraid to give me a free hand. I know exactly what I'm doing. And you are going to be sensible and help me. Not for your own sake, perhaps. I don't flatter myself that you want to do it. But then you didn't come here because you wanted to; only because of the baby that's coming in September. Am I right?"

She did not answer him. She had ceased to attempt to free herself but there was tension in her attitude. He sensed a very definite resistance in her and braced himself to overcome it.

"Am I right?" he said again. "Wasn't it because of that?"

"Perhaps," she said in a whisper. "But—but—Tiggie——"

He stopped her. "You needn't make any more objections, because that's the main point with me too at the present moment. I'm asking you to put yourself in my care — to trust me. Viola, can't you do that?"

"How can I?" she whispered as if frightened. "I have no claim upon you."

"You have a claim," he declared sturdily. "Just as much claim as anybody shipwrecked has upon any passing craft. I simply refuse to leave you here to sink, so it's no use talking."

She uttered a sigh as of complete weariness. "I don't know what to say to you," she said.

"You needn't say anything," said Tiggie. "Just trust me, that's all, and let me pull you out of these stormy seas. Come, is there anything wrong with that?"

She sighed again. "I've tried so hard—to keep away from you," she said. "But it's no use. This morning when I saw you calling here — I simply ran for my life. I didn't think you'd seen me. I never thought you would be in wait for me, or I'd never have come back."

"That just shows the uselessness of attempting it," said Tiggie. "Now promise me you won't run away again."

She bowed her head on her breast. "There's nowhere to run to—but the river," she said.

"Don't talk like that!" commanded Tiggie with authority. "You're in my keeping now, remember, and I'm going to see you through. That's understood, isn't it?" He tried to look into her downcast face. "I shall play the game—and so must you. Viola promise me!"

There was exhaustion in her voice and attitude. He saw that from sheer physical weakness her resistance was failing, and the wonder crossed his mind if perhaps he had tried her too far as it was. Very gently he set her free.

"Well, remember," he said—"remember that you promised! And now tell me, when can I see you again?"

"Oh, I don't know," she said. "I ought not to see anybody—without Philip knowing."

"I'll call in and tell him to-night, then," said Tiggie.

She started in quick agitation at that. "Oh no—oh no, you mustn't! Please not that! Tiggie, please!"

"My dear, it's all right," he said. "Don't be frightened! I shan't do anything against your will. But why shouldn't I see him? Wouldn't it be best?"

"No," she said—"no!" She pressed a hand to her lips as if to still their trembling. "Please don't think of it! I couldn't bear it. No! If you really want to see me again—after you have thought it all over—I'll meet you out on the heath any evening you like—after dark."

"Bring a suitcase with you then!" said Tiggie practically. "Im going to take you away from here."

She looked at him with startled eyes. "Oh, but—if I go, I can never —come back."

"I am going to take you away from here," he repeated firmly. "And that's all we need discuss. We will go down to Spot—at Farne in Cornwall. They're wanting you. You will be happy there."

"I don't know—if I can," she said wistfully.

"Yes," said Tiggie, with great decision. You do—you can. And we will start at once—to-night."

"Oh, I don't know." She still looked at him, a piteous doubt in her eyes. "Aren't you making a —great mistake?" she said.

"My dear," said Tiggie quietly, "that's my affair, not yours. I'm only asking you to trust me. And you needn't me meet on the heath. I shall be at the garden gate with a taxi at ten o'clock, and if you are not there I shall come straight in and fetch you—Philip or no Philip. Is that understood?"

"Oh, what can I possibly say?" she said as one too hard pressed to battle further.

"Simply say that you'll be there!" said Tiggie. "I'm going now. But I shall do as I have said. And you—I can count on you, can I? Come, Viola! Your'e not afraid of me?"

"Afraid!" she said—"of you!" and suddenly, as if she could not help it, she held out both hands to him. "Oh, don't you see it's you I'm trying to save—not—not myself?"

The tears that she had not shed before welled into her eyes. Tiggie took the trembling hands into his warm, comforting hold.

"That's all right—that's all right," he said. "I know. I understand. But don't you worry! I'm much better at looking after myself than you think, so we won't bother any more about that. Now, everything is settled, isn't it? You will be at the garden gate close by here at ten to-night. I can count on you for that —?"

"Oh, yes." Her surrender was complete when it came; it was evident that she could hold out no longer. "I'll do whatever you wish —it's no use trying to do anything else."

"You're quite right," agreed Tiggie cheerfully. "It isn't. That's the most sensible observation you have made since we met. Well then, good-by for the present! And don't get downhearted as soon as my back is turned. Everything's going to be O.K."

She smiled at him wanly. "Perhaps some day—I may be able to do something for you," she said.

Tiggie smiled back at her, his open kindly smile. "Who knows? Perhaps you may!" he said.

"I begin to see light," said Harvey. He leaned back in his chair in a quiet corner of a restaurant, and looked at Tiggie aslant. "Well, you'd never have caught her if it hadn't been for me. She didn't want to meet you at all."

"I know she didn't," said Tiggie. "Bolted like a shot rabbit at the sight of you, just as she was going in at the gate," pursued Harvey. "She'd have got away, too if I had not been pretty nippy. I followed her all the way down to the river where she took refuge on a seat and stayed there for ages, just peering round now and then to see if you were anywhere near. Luckily, she didn't think me worth bothering about. I didn't come too close naturally. But she's the same girl"—an odd gleam came into his eyes —"you are quite right, Tiggie — she's the same girl as you saw on those canvases. 'Jade'—or 'Aquamarine'? I think—'Aquamarine.' "

"I think so too," said Tiggie quietly. He spoke with that new reserve which of late had grown upon him. His look was fixed as though it rested upon something beyond Harvey's faun-like countenance.

But the latter was by no means disconcerted thereby. "A curious little bit of thistledown," he commented. "The sort that never comes to rest anywhere! Are you sure you have got her now?"

"Yes," said Tiggie.

"And what are you going to do with her?' asked Harvey, frankly curious.

Tiggie's look did not alter. He made answer as one who speaks to himself. "I am going,' he said, "to marry her"

Harvey made a slight movement of surprise. "My dear chap, is that necessary?"

Tiggie's eyes came to his so suddenly that they seemed to strike sparks in the process, but Harvey was Harvey, and in a moment he smiled.

"Yes, you old heathen, it is," he said. "Because one man has let a woman down, does it follow that—"

"Are you sure it's only one?" interrupted Harvey. "No, hear me out before you strike me! Remember I came across her long before you did —I saw...."

Tiggie leaned forward and overbore his reminiscences with sheer weight. "I don't care a damn what you saw," he said. "It simply doesn't interest me. The chances are that you saw double. You often do."

Harvey laughed an involuntary laugh. "No, not on that occasion!" he protested. "But I see that the candid friend is as superfluous as usual, so I'll say no more. Only marriage is rather an extreme measure. Can't you play the fairy godfather for a bit while you mark time?"

"No," said Tiggie somberly. "There's been too much of that already."

A Thought

HELPERS

Some people will help only when need is acute and the one to be helped is at the bottom. Others would rather help before the needy one has fallen to the foot. And it is the latter sort of help which is least likely to be given, and which is the more necessary and fruitful. "The fact is," wrote Ruskin to Thackeray, "I give what I give almost in an opposite way to yours. I think there are many people who will relieve hopeless distress for one who will help at a hopeful pinch; and when I have the choice, I nearly always give where I think the money will be fruitful rather than merely helpful....In a word, I like to prop the falling more than feed the fallen." There is room for many kinds of helpfulness, but the help that prevents the need of help is better than the help that timely help would have rendered needless.

A DAY IN CANADIAN HISTORY

By Fred Williams

EASTER IN ENGLAND

This day in England is a legal holiday, the first of the year (for New Year's is little celebrated in that country). Unless the weather has been bad practically the whole people have taken the week-end holiday, from Thursday afternoon to Tuesday morning. There is something about the Easter tide, be it early or late, which appeals to the desire of the average "Englisher" to get out of doors. To-day is the first bank holiday of the year and most of London will be in the country, at the seaside, or at "Appy Ampstead 'Eath" or some other of the breathing places of the Big Smoke.

Half a century ago it used to be the time for the spring training of the volunteers and we used to go down to Brighton or Portsmouth by train on Good Friday, go into camp, have manoeuvres Monday and return to town late at night; but I presume this has long been abandoned.

In the remoter country districts some of the old time Easter customs are still observed, much to the gratification of the "trippers" who have travelled out from London or the other big cities. One of these survivals is at Ridgeway in South Devon, where the village maidens skip four or five abreast over a long rope on their way to buy their hot cross buns, and there Good Friday was for long years known as "Long Rope Day."

Both the hot cross bun and the Easter egg, though regarded by some as symbolical of the crucifixion and the resurrection are of pagan origin and were adopted by the early Christians to the doctrines of the church. The rolling of eggs on the lawn of the White House at Washington is but an Americanization of what was at one time a universal custom in rural England. One of the more pretentious of these festivals to-day is at Preston in Lancashire were hundreds of children gather in Avenham park on Easter Monday with brilliantly dyed hard boiled eggs and roll them down the glassy slope until the shells are broken and then the contents are eaten, such at least as have escaped the dirt of boot and dust of road.

Many another town or city evolved from ancient village retains the old Easter customs, the distribution of cakes, the giving of bounty money after Easter service and the bottle rolling. Thus even in these days of gloom and uncertainty there is still a Merrie England, if we but look for it, there is the breath of early spring, the blossoming of the primroses and the violets the return of the songbirds, the balm of the air from the sea—the very mention of them all makes one homesick and inclined to say with Browning:

"Oh to be in England,
Now that April's there," the "Proud-pied April dress'd in all his trim, which hath put a spirit of youth un everything."

ALL OF US

(By Marshall Maslin.)

I....I....I

I'D LIKE to go to Tibet, where they make sculpture out of butter but I know I'd be disappointed.

I wish I knew how to use a slide rule.

I'm not superstitious, but I never light three on a match because one of the other might be—and that would be embarrassing.

I bridle when people criticise newspapers to me....When I fill out a questionnaire I always write "newspaperman" as my profession. (That's arrogance, but I don't care.)

Why do the questionnaire makers always want to know my mother's maiden name?

I could quit smoking if I wanted to.

I wonder if birds are as happy they seem.

I don't believe the Chinese are "mysterious," despite Bret Harte's poem....But I think all races are mysterious.

Every man I know thinks he might build a boat some day.

While I am walking I have all the prejudices and impulses of the pedestrian; when I drive I have the lofty ways of the motorist.

I envy authors, who travel and see things and write what they see.

I do not wish I were 20 again.

I'm as inquisitive as a kitten; if you have a secret and I don't know it, I WANT to know it.

I hate to go to bed; I hate to get up.

If I didn't have to work, would I do any work?

I wonder.

WHEAT PARLEY ROME, THURSDAY

Schemes for Fixing Minimum Scale of Prices Are Leading Topic.

TOUCH EXPORTS FIRST.

By ALBERT W. WILSON
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

LONDON, England, April 2.—Schemes for fixing a minimum scale of prices for wheat and wheat flour were of paramount interest to-day in discussions concerning the international wheat parley opening Thursday at Rome.

Delegates bound for the meeting from the London headquarters of the World Wheat Commission insist this is only one phase of many recovery measures, considered. Also, in the months since the step first proposed in a private session of the advisory commission at London, the idea has undergone many changes.

Latest authoritative information available to-day is that three or four price-fixing schemes will be presented at Rome for decision.

These four schemes vary from an inclusive scheme to fix minimum vrices on all kinds of wheat and wheat flour in all countries to a scheme to fix minimum prices only on a few important grades, coupling this with constant quantitative control of exports to keep free grades in line and prevent them from destroying the market for minimum-priced grades.

The scheme, as originally proposed, was to apply only to exports—on the assumption it would adequately control the markets.

In a half-dozen preliminary meetings, the delegates debated the pros and cons of the proposals and the Associated Press learned from a reliable source that no report has been prepared for presentation at Rome giving outright approval of the scheme.

The Commission's work has been directed toward showing how such a plan might be implemented and all of its possible reactions.

There are strong indications that more reasons have been found in favor than against the scheme and that many of the delegates feel it is essential, for a few months at least.

Preacher And Writer Passes In London

LONDON, April 2 (CP Cable). — Right Rev. Edward Cuthbert Butler, distinguished Roman Catholic preacher and writer, and former headmaster of Downside School at Bath, died here to-day in his 76th year.

Born in Dublin 1858, son of Edward Butler, Irish barrister, and Mary Butler, sister of the late Sir Francis Cruise, Edward Cuthbert Butler received his early education at the school he was to serve later as headmaster. On graduation from Downside he jointed the Benedictine Order and was ordained in 1884.

When only 30 years of age he was appointed headmaster of his old school and remained there for the following ten years, and then at Cambridge for the next eight.

In 1908 he returned to Bath as Abbot of Downside Abbey, and retained that charge until 1922, serving from 1914 to 1921, also as president of the English Benedictine congregation.

All Great Britain Travels For Holiday

Southern England too was thronged with record-breaking crowds. Blackpool had more than 250,000 visitors, while Hastings harbored some 100,000.

London itself, while deserted by her own people, was the attraction for the visitors from the provinces. Hyde Park seethed with humanity. Fully 300,000 people watched the Easter fashion parade.

The Loch Ness monster apparently also took a day off, for while thousands of visitors lined the banks of the Scottish lake and canoes and motorboats dotted the water, the sea serpent was conspicuous by its absence.

Einstein Would Be An American Citizen

NEW YORK, April 2 (AP).—Albert Einstein's desire to become an American citizen has led him to postpone a vacation trip to France and Belgium, friends suggested today.

Prof. Einstein was to have sailed to-morrow, but he decided to remain a week or so longer. Friends believed he wanted to await action on a bill introduced into Congress by Rep. Edward A. Kenny of New Jersey.

The bill asks that Einstein be "unconditionally admitted to the character and privileges" of citizenship, an honor never before accorded by Congress to an alien.

HUDSON RIVER RISING, CITIZENS READY TO FLEE

NORTH RIVER, N. Y., April 2.—(AP)—Occupants of homes between North River and North Creek, in Northern Warren County, prepared to evacuate today as water of the upper Hudson river continued to rise in consequence of an ice jam two miles south of here.

The jam moved southward about a half mile during the night, flooding the North River-North Creek highway with three feet of water for nearly a mile. Ice was piled 12 feet high at the point of the jam.

All traffic to Indian and Blue Mountain Lakes, in the heart of the Adirondacks, was blocked.

Residents decribed the higher water situation as the worst since 1918.

14 FREIGHT CARS DITCHED.

SUDBURY, Ont., April 2 (CP).—As the result of a broken rail, 14 cars of a Canadian Pacific Railway freight train went off the track today on the Nemegos sub-division about 79 miles east of Chapleau, but according to information reaching Sudbury, no member of the train crew was injured. The train was travelling at about 25 miles an hour at the time. Seven of the cars were loaded and seven empty.

HOPEFUL SIGN

CHICAGO, April 2 (CP)—After Howard Mauck, 15, was taken to a hospital, a metal disc which had lodged in his throat, making eating impossible, was removed. Then the doctors looked it over. On one side were the words:

"Stop crying—start buying."

On the other was "The end of the depression is here."

SAY FINLAYSON WILL BE JUDGE

Rumored About to Retire From Politics for Seat in Ontario Supreme Court.

HENRY REFUSES COMMENT

TORONTO, April 2 (C.P.) — The Evening Telegram in a newspaper story to-day said:

"Hon. William Finlayson, Minister of Lands and Forests in the Henry Government, and member for East Simcoe, will shortly be appointed a Judge of the Supreme Court of Ontario, and will not contest the forthcoming election, retiring from politics to the Bench. The Telegram learned to-day from an authoritative political source.

"The vacancy to be filled is that created through the death of Mr. Justice Eric Armour.

"While there have been rumors to this effect, which Mr Finlayson has denied, it is now said the move has taken concrete form. It is also brought about, it is pointed out, in view of the re-organized Cabinet with which Premier Henry may appeal to the country."

The Toronto Daily Star refers to the rumor as follows: "The report that william Finlayson may be appointed to the Ontario Supreme Court Bench brought from Premier Henry the comment, 'I haven't heard anything about it.' Mr Finlayson was in Midland to-day.

"For some time rumors have been current that he would welcome a judicial post, and last October he was reported to have visited Hon. Hugh Guthrie, Minister of Justice, with a request that he be considered."

paces, for he found himself to be followed by a squad of spectators. He went back to the hotel, changed some money, picked up some newspapers, and settled himself down in the hotel lounge to read.

Insull was still in the hotel when the police, acting on instructions from the Turkish Government, placed him formally under arrest.

Files An Appeal

A Turkish lawyer immediately went into action for Insull, filing an appeal against the decision of the penal court which yesterday ruled that, as Insull had committed neither a military nor political crime and was not a citizen of Turkey, he was eligible to extradition.

Judicial authorities said, however, that the right of appeal was not operative as the penal court's decision was final.

Five detectives surrounded him as if he were a desperate gunman—not a discouraged and apparently beaten figure.

Will Be Extradited.

WASHINGTON, April 2 (AP).—Turkey to-day notified the United States that Samuel Insull would be extradited to Chicago to stand trial.

Robert P. Skinner, United States Ambassador at Kanara, notified the State Department the Turkish Government had informed him at 5 p.m. (Turkish time) that Insull's extradition had been granted.

Treaty Ratified.

ISTANBUL, April 2 (AP).—The Turkish National Assembly to-day ratified an extradition treaty with the United States, thus clearing the way for the return of Samuel Insull to Chicago.

Called into special session by the Cabinet, the Assembly acted swiftly at Ankara.

The treaty was signed in 1923 and ratified by the United States, but until the problem of Samuel Insull was placed on her doorstep Turkey had not chosen to bring it into force.

Lindsay Police Go After '33 Licenses

LINDSAY, Ont., April 2.—(CP)—Police here gave a definite warning on Thursday that starting Sunday, they would arrest every person driving an automobile without 1934 license plates, but they had to compromise and set the dead line back a couple of days. There was such a rush of license buyers on Saturday that the local license office could not begin to handle the crowd and more than 100 were turned away when the office closed at night. Cars with old licenses were stopped on Sunday and the drivers promised to buy new licenses as soon as they could get into the license office.

CHRYSLER RAISES PRICES

DETROIT, April 2 (AP)—Increases ranging from $35 to $130 were announced to-day by three units of the Chrysler Corporation. The Plymouth Motor Corporation announced a $35 increase on its standard model; Dodge increased $45 on all models, and the Chrysler models were increased from $40 on standard types to $130 on its Imperial model.

Increases of from $25 to $40 were announced by Studebaker on two of its models.

Easter Attendance Large At St. John's

Over seven hundred communicants partook of the Blessed Sacrament at the various Easter Sunday services at St. John's Church, constituting what is believed one of the largest groups of communicants on any one festival in the history of the church.

Venerable Archdeacon Dr. R. C. Blagrave preached at the choral communion service at eleven o'clock, and with the assistance of the Rev. Mr. James administered the Sacrament to two hundred communicants. There was a similar number of communicants at the seven o'clock service, and three hundred at the eight o'clock service.

Last evening the shortened evensong was read by Reg. Howden, while Douglas Blagrave read the first lesson; and Warren Turner read the second lesson, the sermon being preached by Rev. Mr. James. Each of the three young men who took part in conducting the service are students at Trinity College.

SEVEN BUILDING PERMITS ISSUED DURING MARCH

Seven building permits issued by the city engineer during March authorized building construction in the city amounting to an aggregate value of $3,450.

Each of the permits was for alteration or repairs to private dwelling houses and to business premises. Among the larger jobs were the following: James Juby, alteration to store at 342-44 Charlotte street, $900 (Thomas Ephgrave, contractor); alterations to dwelling for J. Richardson at 318 Charlotte street, $800; alterations to dwelling for F. J. Hogan at 550 Albert street, $600 (contractor F. Dummitt); repairs to 671 Stewart street for George Raper, following fire, $500; alterations at Canadian Legion Hall following fire $340.

DIVIDENDS PAID BY GOODYEAR CO.

Plants Operating at Higher Capacity Than Year Ago, Says President.

$1.25 COMMON SHARE

TORONTO, April 2.—Dividend cheques for the first quarter of 1934 on the Preferred and Common Stocks of Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company of Canada, Limited, at the rate of 7 per cent. on preferred shares and $1.25 per share on the common, have gone out to shareholders. In a letter accompanying the cheques, C. H. Carlisle, president, points out that economical operations during the period of inflated business, as well as during the period of retarded business, low capitalization as compared with the company's volume of business, efficiency of the plants, and the company's purchasing facilities have made it possible to earn and pay dividends continuously.

"During the years of intense production and extended sales," says Mr. Carlisle, "it was common practice by companies to increase their stock issue by splitting shares. Your company followed the reverse policy by gradually reducing its outstanding shares. This has further strengthened its financial structure and added to its stability."

Commenting on current operations, Mr. Carlisle says: "Your rubber plants are operating at a considerably higher capacity than they were at this time a year ago. The outlook for increased production during this year is favorable. Your cotton mill is running to full capacity 22 hours per day and is unable at this time to fill all its orders. Your cotton plant is a 2 000 spindle mill and one of the best of its kind in Canada. It has been and is operating efficiently and economically. Its capital stock consists only of $26,250.00 of Common stock, all of which is owned by your Rubber Company.

"The last annual statement showed that your company had an earned surplus of $7,740,187.32, had on hand cash or its equivalent of $6,943,614.79, with plants written down to 47 per cent. of their cost. Reserves which have been set up are very liberal and greater than required. This strong financial position is due largely to the stand taken by the Common shareholders in the early days of your company's existence. During the first seventeen years that your company was in operation, only one cash dividend of 6 per cent. was paid to the Common shareholders and latterly only moderate dividends have been paid. Earnings were thus allowed to accumulate as a surplus which, although accruing to the Common shares, at the same time gives greater strength to the Preferred shares."

WARDEN URGES CONSERVATION OF WILD LIFE

but the breeding stock was being thinned out by the yearly slaughter and was not being replaced.

Mr. Marshall pointed out the useful role played by the beaver in the wild life of a district. By damming up a stream the beaver created a water reservoir that was of great assistance in dealing with forest fires. At the same time new breeding grounds for fish and game were provided. Peterborough County, he said, should have thousands of beaver, instead of the dozens, for there was ample food and splendid streams and ponds.

The speaker emphasized the fact that the game wardens were not out to rob the public of legitimate enjoyment. Rather it was their mission to increase opportunities for recreation by protecting the fish and game supply against law-breakers. He pointed out the necessity of public support and assistance in seeing that the regulations were adequately enforced.

Mr. Marshall was introduced by President Dr. Moir and instead of the usual formal vote of thanks, the club showed its appreciation of the speaker's address by passing a resolution, on motion of Rotarians Fred L. Roy and J. K. Hughes, pledging support for the Warden in his efforts to conserve wild life.

REV. DR. ROLLS OPENS MISSION GEORGE STREET

"Campbell Morgan of New Zealand" Will Conduct Spiritual Mission.

THREE CITY CHURCHES.

Christ Must Be Given Supreme Place in Life of Everyone.

"Unless you are prepared to give to Christ the supreme place in your relationships you cannot expect the blessings He has offered His true followers and disciples," Rev. Dr. Charles J. Rolls of New Zealand declared at the morning Easter service in George Street United church yesterday. "I wonder if we are prepared to give that supreme place on this Easter day. It is a challenge."

Dr. Rolls' appearance before the George Street Church congregation inaugurated a three-week co-operative spiritual mission which he is to conduct in the city. He was greeted by an unusually large gathering of worshippers. Known widely as the "Campbell Morgan" of New Zeland and the missionary messenger of God's word, he will hold services each night of the week except Saturday until April 20, commencing at George Street United Church, then proceeding in Murray Street Baptist Church during the second week and concluding with a week at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church.

Basing the thought in his sermon on a passage in Chapter 14 of St. Luke, the speaker undertook to interpret the three requirements which Jesus exacted of those whom He expected as His disciples. Jesus held as of first importance the requirement that He be held above all other relationships, he said. His statement of the requirement as set down by St. Luke appears in the Chapter as follows: "If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he canont be my disciple."

Relationships.

Every human has a multitude of relationships, Dr. Rolls pointed out. The human has the relationships of the family, relationships of a social nature, relationships in connection with each of his daily activities and a varied host of others. Life is made up of relationships. Christ, however, is entitled to be regarded as the object of man's supreme relationships for He came to the earth to do something for man which nobody else could do. Nobody else has been able to cleanse man of his sin, raise man from the dead or give man the promise of immortality so why should Christ be denied the premier position in man's regard which is rightfuly His, Dr. Rolls asked.

Christ not only demands the supreme place in the love and affection of those who are to be His disciples, but wants also the supreme place in the purpose and practice of the lives of His disciples. He asks the renunciation of all impending relationships and withholds His blessings from those who are unwilling to abide by that requirement, the speaker said.

No Material Cross.

The second requirement is stated: "And whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after Me, cannot be My disciple." In these words Jesus is not necessarily asking "the bearing of a cross" in the material sense of suffering physical hardship, Dr. Rolls said. Jesus spent His life meeting hypocrisy with sincerity, injustice with right, untruths with truth and hate with love. The disciple who follows this example of living will find that he has a cross to bear even though it is no ta material cross, he explained.

"People too often say that they haven't anything worth giving for the sake of Jesus. Your life may seem of little worth to you, but it is worth much to Jesus. If you will give it to Him, He will lend you His majesty and dignity. And do not think a man or woman weak who gives himself or herself to Christ. Christ does not spoil life; he perfects it. One cannot be a real man or a real woman without giving himself to Christ."

Trust in Jesus.

Continuing, Dr. Rolls interpreted the third condition demanded of His disciples by Jesus as the resignation of all individual resource. Quoting, "So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple." Jesus offers aid to man in two regards—aid in building character and aid in the fight against man's enemy, sin. Since man's incidental resources are insufficient in these two interests, Jesus requires that these resources be thrust aside and that complete trust be placed in Himself, the speaker explained.

"Christ asks these things," he concluded. "If we are prepared to abide by them, He is prepared to accept us as His followers."

A multitude of seasonal blooms and plants placed in the church by the Women's Association served as a special mark of the annual Easter Sunday services. Under the direction of D. R. Howat, organist and choirmaster, special musical programs were carried out at both the morning and evening services. In the morning Miss Dorothy Sager sang a solo, "The Resurrection Morn," and took a solo part in the anthem offered by the choir, "All Glory to the Lamb That Was Slain." Master Donald Parks as well as Miss Sager sang solos in the evening.

Easter Services

AT MARMORA.

MARMORA, April 2 (Examiner Correspondence).—The Easter festival drew large congregations to St. Paul's on Sunday, with seventy-five communicating at the two celebrations. The altar, chancel front and organ were beautified with daffodils, lilies and tulips. At the 11 a.m. service, Mrs. H. R. Pearce presided at the organ. The anthem was "All Hail the Risen King," by Alfred Wooler. Mrs. S. B. Wright took the opening solo.

Rural Dean A. B. Caldwell, who officiated throughout the day, preached on "Darkness to Dawning."

At evensong the organ was taken by Mrs. L. R. Rundle. Mrs. Percy Gray sang "The Holy City," and with Mrs. Rundle rendered the duet "Low from the Grave He Rose." The subject of the sermon was "The Prince of Life."

Other services taken by the rector during the day was a children's service at 10 a.m., when the Lenten mite boxes were brought and a service of Holy Communion at Holy Trinity at 3 p.m.

Special Easter services were held at St. Andrew's United Church on Sunday and were marked with good attendances. At the morning service bright Easter music was rendered by the choir, and the pastor, Rev. C. W. Hollingsworth, delivered an eloquent sermon on the Resurrection. In lieu of the regular evening service, a dramatization of the first Easter and two outstanding events in the life of St. Paul was presented by thirty of the young people of the church.

The festival of Easter was duly observed at the Church of the Sacred Heart, with High Mass at 10 a.m. and Benediction at 7.30 p.m. The sanctuary was tastefully adorned with choice blooms and new brass candlesticks were in use for the first time. Rev. Father J. J. Keeley officiated.

JANETVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McMullen entertained the South Janetville Euchre Club, at their home on Thursday evening. Mrs. Charles Deyell and Mr. Robert Argue succeeded in winning prizes for high scores. At the conclusion of the games, lunch was served and a social hour enjoyed.

A large gathering of relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wright were invited to their home on Monday evening for the celebration of Mrs. Wright's birthday. Cards and dancing were much enjoyed. Messrs. Marwood, Carlyle and Clayton McGill and Herman Wilson supplied music for dancing.

The March meeting of the Woman's Association of the United Church was a highly successful social event, held in the Sunday school room. Mrs. James Marshall, president, capably took charge of proceedings, which savored of St. Patrick, whose birthday is celebrated at the March meeting of the association each year.

Miss Eunice Malcolm played the accompaniment for "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling," sung merrily by five young ladies exquisitely arrayed in green costumes.

Two songs, "Little Annie Rooney" and "Sweet Molly O'Reilly" were well rendered by Muriel Stinson and Marjorie Armstrong. Frank Russell contributed a violin solo, "Just An Echo," accompanied on the piano by Mrs. (Rev.) Smith. A vocal solo, "That Silver-Haired Daddy of Mine," was given by Norral Marshall.

Gladys Irvine read "Grandmother's Sermon." Jack Crawford, impersonating a negro, gave a pantomime, "Old Folks at Home." Mrs. R. J. Burn and Mrs. Andrew McGill gave a vocal duet, "In the Vine-Covered Church Away Back Home."

Miss Eunice Malcolm contributed a medley of Irish songs on the piano. Mr. Frank Joblin sang "A Soldier Boy's Motto." A military March was played by Mrs. (Rev.) Smith. Miss Olive Jackett read "Something Going On."

Five girls sang, "Alice in Wonderland," while Pearl Savanac and Edna Robinson gave a duet, "My Wild Irish Rose." Rev. Mr. Smith in his appreciative concluding remarks, heartily congratulated on behalf of all present Mr. and Mrs. James Thornton, who were present on the occasion of their 34th wedding anniversary.

Lunch was served by Mrs. J. R. McGee, Mrs. A. McGill, Mrs. James Marshall and Mrs. James Thornton.

Mr. Thomas Hawkins, drygoods merchant of this village, has again closed his shop to take a business and pleasure trip to New York City. Mr. Hawkins expects to be absent a couple of weeks travelling by motor and rail.

Mr. Allan McGill, whose spacious residence is south of the village, entertained about seventy friends and neighbors on Friday evening. Music, dancing and cards were the entertainment for the enjoyable evening. Messrs. Clarence Brown, George Pogue and Clayton McGill furnished music for dancing.

Chancellor Englebert Dolfuss, Austria's Napoleonic premier, seals his understanding with Premier Benito Mussolini of Italy with a handshake at a cavalry show near Rome, after signing a new three-cornered peace pact in which Hungary also plays a part. In consequence, European peace now rests in these two men's hands.

Christian Pilgrims Leave Tomb Site

JERUSALEM, April 2 (AP)—The exodus of Christian pilgrims from the site of the tomb of Christ began this morning, following the most colorful Easter ceremonies in Jerusalem in years.

The thousands of visitors poured out of hotels, boarding houses and private home which had been pressed into service to accommodate the unusual thropgh. Most of them proceeded to Egypt by boat and then by train to continue Mediterranean tours.

The Moslems, meanwhile, set out on their annual pilgrimage to Nebi Musa, believed to be the site of the tomb of Moses.

The picturesque assemblage of Moslems which Sunday packed the Mosque of Omar, departed singing praises to Allah, and made the same traditional display of scimitars which marked their arrival from Hebron yesterday.

You Need This 'Blood-Tested' Preparation . . .

If you are tired, run-down, and lacking in energy and strength, you'll be interested in this report by a reputable physician. It concerns a woman patient, blood tests, and the remarkable results that followed a treatment of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The first blood test showed a low haemoglobin content and still lower count of red corpuscles. In other words, there was not enough vitalizing oxygen being carried from this woman's lungs throughout her blood stream and not enough nutriment being conveyed from her digestive organs to maintain normal health by rebuilding the body cells and tissues and clearing the system of poisons. She was anaemic.

The physician prescribed Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as a safe and efficient means of improving his patient's blood-stream. The first month showed a substantial increase in haemoglobin and red corpuscles, and the woman had better color and felt better. In two more months her blood condition was very close to normal, and she was feeling peppier, stronger and happier every day. The physician described her improvement as "nothing short of remarkable." Authentic records are on file.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will do as much for you. Why not start now to take this "blood-tested" remedy for under-par people—whether children, young women, or adults. Your druggist can supply you—50c.

K. A. MACKENZIE HEADS LEGION

REVIEW ACTIVITIES

(Examiner Correspondence)

LAKEFIELD, April 2. — Despite the inclement weather and consequent slushy condition of the roads, about 50 ex-service men assembled at the Memorial Hall, Lakefield last week for the annual meeting of Branch No. 77, Canadian Legion.

Comrade J. R. Hill, presented a very comprehensive report of the branch activities during the fiscal year. The membership showed a slight increase, the total membership being 58 legionaires at the present time, which comprises about 90 per cent of the ex-service men of the district. During the year the branch attended divine service on two occasions, the initial event being celebrated on Sunday, May 28, when a record turn out attended St. John's church and listened to an eloquent sermon by the honorary president of the branch, Dr. A. W. MacKenzie, D.D., M.A., and the latter occasion being the annual Remembrance Day parade where Rev. R. J. Burton assisted by a special choir conducted service. The annual memorial services on Remembrance Day consisted of services at Lakefield, Warsaw and Apsley, as in former years; the special speakers being Dr. J. R. Fraser, Col. T. J. Johnston V.D. and Comrade J. R. Hill at the various places. A very pleasing feature of these services was the attendance of the Lakefield Citizen's Band, under the leadership of Bandmaster Walter Madill; the services of the band were rendered gratis to the branch. The annual Armistice Day dinner was held at the Lakefield Inn with a record number of ex-service men in attendance, the guest speaker was Police Magistrate O. A. Langley, K.C., a highly esteemed friend of all veterans.

Adjournment was made to the Legion room after the banquet, where a musical program was rendered by the branch executive and immensely enjoyed by all. The annual appeal to the public on poppy day was rewarded by considerably increased receipts as compared to former years, thus emphasizing the patriotic sympathy of the citizens in general.

Over eighty presents with candy were distributed to children of ex-service men at the annual Christmas tree, during the Yuletide season; in addition to this sixty-five presents received for the Buckingham contest were allotted to needy children of the district outside the Legion. Several donations were recorded during the year, especially from Messrs O. A. Langley, W. H. Casement and G. J. Elmsley, all gratefully received and faithfully applied to charitable work of the branch. Relief was not as prominent an expenditure as in former years owing to the amount of work of this nature being carried on by the municipal council but the branch and the ladies auxiliary augmented municipal assistance, particularly with clothing. Several cribbage tournaments, a softball team and the annual card party all augmented the branch coffers and afforded considerable entertainment to the members.

The high light of the year's activities was of course the unofficial visitof the Earl of Bessborough, Governor General of Canada, on May 29th, when he inspected the branch guard of honor and briefly addressed the members. This was the first visit of a vice-regal representative to the village in over 40 years and the branch was highly gratified by the honor paid its membership by His Excellency on this occasion. The financial statement and auditor's report showed the branch in a very healthy condition financially, with a considerably larger balance than last year. These various reports were adopted with the thanks of the branch to the secretary for the same.

Officers Elected

The branch president, Comrade A. B. Burrows, then vacated the chair for the election of officers, G. G. Connell took the chair for the election and installed the following officers for the ensuing year:

Honorary president, Rev. A. W. MacKenzie D.D., M.A.; honorary vice presidents, Messrs. W. H. Casement and G. G. Connell (honorary members); president, Comrade K. A. MacKenzie; vice president, Comrade E. M. Grier; secretary, Comrade J. R. Hill; sergeant at arms, Comrade T. Cunningham; auditors, Comrade W. Chappell and F. Moon; executive comrades, W. Chappell, T. W. Chaplin, W. H. Adamson, W. S. Remnant and E. H. Simpson. After being installed the president appointed Comrades A. B. Burrows, A. H. Clark and T. B. Marling (past presidents) to complete the executive.

All the officers tendered their appreciation to the comrades in brief addresses, several of them advancing worth while suggestions for the general welfare of the branch, one advocated by the president, was subsequently adopted, was the dividing the membership into five groups, each being in turn responsible for the entertainment on meeting nights after the regular business had been concluded.

A hearty vote of appreciation was tendered the retiring president, Comrade A. B. Burrows; Mr. W. H. Casement returning officer for the election and also Mr. G. G. Connell the chairman, who is also recruiting a branch orchestra, he being an excellent pianist and orchestra leader.

After adjournment a sumptuous luncheon was served by a special committee, under the supervision of Comrades Reg. Murduff, J. Roy Robinson and W. T. Remnant and the customary camp fire sing song led by Comrade Cunningham terminated a very successful affair just before midnight.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Agricultural Society the dates set for the Lakefield fair are Sept 11th and 12th. This is a week earlier than last year's fair.

ROSICRUCIANS APPOINT UNIVERSITY REGISTRAR

A university which has, as its ideal, the reconciliation of religion with science by uniting spiritual concepts with the material revelations of the laboratory has been founded by the Rosicrucian Order, A.M.O.R.C. at the Supreme Temple at Can Jose, California.

R. Farthing of 416½ George St., Peterborough, local District Rosicrucian Commissioner has just received an official communication informing him that the first unit of the Rose-Croix University, the science building is now well under construction. The science building will have an auditorium, classroom, laboratories for physics and chemistry, two dark rooms, one for photography and the other for the study of light, and its refraction, and a motion picture projection room for the enlargement and study of microscopic views of living matter.

The currriculum of the university will include courses in ontology, biology, chemistry, physics, harmonies of music, ancient and medieval philosophy, and modern metaphysics.

The primary function of the university, states R. Farthing will be to provide post-graduate courses for members of the Rosicrucian Order living in various parts of North America, who will go to San Joe for definite periods while attending the university.

The founding of the university this year commemorates a quarter of a century of Rosicrucian activity since the Order's re-organization in this jurisdiction under the guidance of its supreme officer H. Spencer Lewis.

The recent communication to Mr. Farthing carried with it the appointment of District Registrar and the right of preliminary enrollment of students, pending their matriculation. It is also quite possible a decision may be reached by the faculty permitting the enrollment for certain subjects of those who are not members of the Rosicrucian Order.

DOUBLE KILLING LAID TO BARROW

Identify Desperado by Teeth Marks on Cigar Near Where Officers Were Shot.

VICTIMS GIVEN NO CHANCE.

FORT WORTH, Tex., April 2.—(A.P.)— Tooth prints on a cigar stub led authorities to-day to attribute the slaying of two Texas highway patrolmen to Clyde Barrow, notorious south-west killer, and his woman companion, Bonnie Parker.

The officers, E.B. Wheeler 26, and H. D. Murphy, 23, were shot down without warning late yesterday when they dismounted from their motorcycles to question a man and a woman seated in a parked motor car near Grapevine, 18 miles north-east of here.

Witnesses said neither officer had a chance to draw his weapon.

A. C. Howerton, Fort Worth detective, said he was convinced the slayers were Barrow and the Parker woman. Near the scene of the shooting he said he found a cigar butt bearing the imprint of small teeth. Bonnie Parker's liking for big black cigars is well known.

Officers expressed the belief the two had been waiting for Raymond Hamilton, escaped convict, identified as the man who robbed the State National Bank of West, Tex., of $1,865 Saturday and kidnapped Mrs. Cahgunter, near Mexico, after commandeering her motor car. After being kept prisoner all night, he released her Sunday morning at Houston.

HOLY YEAR IS FINALLY CLOSED DOOR WALLED UP

50,000 Faithful Attend Ceremony at St. Peter's, Rome.

1,200,000 PILGRIMS.

Ceremonies Commenced With an Elaborate Papal Procession.

VATICAN CITY, April 2 (AP) — Pope Pius XI., wearing an apron and wielding a trowel of gold, walled up the Holy Door to St. Peter's this morning in a ceremony attended by a score of cardinals, dignitaries, hundreds of prelates and an estimated 50,000 faithful.

He thus closed the Holy Year which has brought 1,200,000 pilgrims to the Eternal City.

Proclaimed to celebrate the 1,900th anniversary of the passion, death and resurrection of Christ, the Holy Year began April 2, 1933, when the Pontiff opened the Holy Door with a golden hammer.

Elaborate Procession

This morning's ceremony commenced with an elaborate Papal procession into the huge Basilicia. The Holy Father was borne aloft on a portable throne, resting on the shoulders of 12 attendants. Cardinals and other prelates preceded him, while the throng of faithful, tourists and curious cheered and cried "Viva Il Papi"

Received in a portico of Cardinal Pacelli, High Priest of the Basilica, the Pope dismounted from the portable throne. Preceded by the whole procession, he walked through the Holy Door—the portal to the right of the main entrance.

Mounting again the portable throne, His Holiness was carried through the crowd to the Altar of Confession. He worshipped relics of Christ's passion and death, including portions of the cross, and the veil of Veronica.

He imparted a solemn Apostolic blessing.

Returning to the Holy Door he began the ceremony of the closing of this historic entrance, not to be opened again until the next Holy Year, 1950. He blessed the members of the religious fraternities who have stood guard at the Holy Door during the last year. He passed through the door into the portico and seated himself on a throne erected for the occasion.

Hymns were chanted. The Pope rose, took off his mitre and blessed the bricks and mortar lying near the Holy Door. Having recited the prayer "Summe Deus," the Pontiff resumed the mitre and put on a white apron, assisted by a Prelate of the Chamber.

Approaching the Holy Door, the Pontiff knelt on the threshold. He received the trowel and dipping into the mortar box deposited mortar on the centre of the doorsill, saying, in Latin:

"In fide et virtute Domini Nostri Jesu Christi, Filli Dei Vivi." (In the faith and strength of our Lord Jesus Christ, son of the Living God.)

He next deposited mortar to the right, saying:

"Qui Apostolorum Principi dixit: Tu es Petrus." (Who said to the Prince of the Apostles: Thou art Peter.)

Weddings

A quiet wedding was solemnized at two o'clock on Saturday afternoon at the parsonage of St. James United Church, when Alice Scott, only daughter of Mr. J. Scott, was united in marriage to Mr. William Anderson, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Anderson of Peterborough.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was becomingly attired in poudre blue French crepe trimmed with silver, with matching accessories and coresge bouquet of Talisman roses.

Attendants were Miss Marcella Spenceley, who wore an ensemble of grey and blue with matching accessories, and Mr. Alex Anderson, brother of the bridegroom.

Following the ceremony, a dainty buffet luncheon was served to the immediate relatives at the home of Mrs. E. Davis. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson left for a honeymoon trip to western points, the bride travelling in a sand swagger suit, with chocolate brown hat, shoes, gloves and purse.

The bridegroom presented the bride with a pearl necklace and the best man with a belt.

Chicago to Meet Detroit in Stanley Cup Finals

GOLF FACTS NOT THEORIES!

By ALEX. J. MORRISON

The way in which the left wrist bends in the backswing has a lot to do with keeping the club "in the groove."

This is difficult to see unless you view the swing while standing on the player's right. Even though the action of the body and fully extended left arm is correct during the backswing, the club will be pushed out of line if the left wrist bends toward the ball.

This bend also minimizes the power of the downswing. Bending the wrist properly in the same plane the left arm is moving makes for accuracy as well as power in the downswing.

Try to have the club line up across your back instead of your head.

ST. MIKE'S COP 19 TO 4 VICTORY JUNIOR SERIES

IRISH LEAVES FOR WEST.

TORONTO, April 2.—Champions At all they surveyed in East, Dr. Jerry Laflame will lead his St. Michael's College juniors into Winnipeg today to rest up for the first game of the Memorial Cup finals against the Edmonton A.C. team tomorrow evening.

The powerful Irish put the finishing touches on their Eastern championship by trouncing Charlottetown "Abbies" in the second game of the round at Maple Leaf Gardens on Saturday afternoon by 7 to 2, winning the honors by the decisive score of 19 to 4. They departed for the West at 11 o'clock Saturday evening.

Following their one-sided victory in the first game, the students went about their work in a half-hearted fashion with the result that their performance on Saturday was anything but an impressive one. Only in spots did they turn it on, but their passing plays were not up to the standard of previous games.

Display Ragged Hockey

It was a ragged display of hockey, with the Abbies' chief desire being to put up a better game than they did previously. In this repect they suceeded, but there was never any doubt as to the outcome. St. Mike's merely had to go through the motions and when goals were needed they had little trouble in securing them.

Charlottetown showed plenty of fight, though and at one stage were trailing by only 3 to 2 on the game. The Irish, however, went out again to increase the lead and simply breezed in to victory.

HAWKS DEFEAT MONTREAL CLUB ON SERIES 6-2

Northcott Scores Both Goals For Maroons as They Lose Second Game 3-2.

GARDINER INJURED.

CHICAGO, April 2.—(CP)—Hockey's Stanley Cup stage was set today for a duel of master goaltenders and rival defensive systems, chief fighting equipment of Chicago Black Hawks and Detroit Red Wings. The Hawks qualified for the classic series here last night, eliminating Montreal Maroons 6-2 on the two game round.

In turn, the Hawks ousted Montreal's two contenders to reach the stage where curly-haired Charlie Gardiner, most famous of all big league puck stoppers, faces the youthful, slender sensation of the Red Wings' rise to power, Wilf Cude. Gardiner shut out Maroons in the first series game, 3-0, and the Hawks won last night 3-2.

Chuck Gardiner

Working confidently on their three-goal lead, built up right under the eyes of a Montreal crowd last Wednesday night, Tommy Gorman's Hawks moved ahead without interruption to victory over the Maroons. They scored the first goal when the first period was only 25 seconds old to definitely quash any Montreal hope.

Hawks and Red Wings will open the second all-American Stanley Cup series tomorrow night at Detroit. The teams move to Chicago for the third and fourth games, Sunday and the following Tuesday, should a fourth be necessary. The fifth, if the series is deadlocked at two each, will be played at Detroit.

Baldy Northcott, fleet left winger, led a gallant Maroon movement for goals that never was allowed to die. The Canadian section team, who eliminated New York Rangers in the first play-off series attacked relentlessly without ever looking like winners. They did not have as many shots on goal as the Hawks.

Northcott scored both Montreal goals. He rifled in a double pass from Cy Wentworth and Hooley Smith midway through the first period a few minutes after Gardiner had returned to the game after seven stitches had been put in a cut over his right eye, received during a melee in the Chicago goalmouth.

The winger got his second early in the third period on a pass from the dashing Wentworth, but the Maroon cause had been well lost by this time. Don MacFadyen had scored the second Hawk goal in the second period. Mush March and Tommy Cook got the other Chicago goals.

Mush March

Not since 1929 when Boston Bruins defeated Rangers, have two United States teams met in the Stanley Cup final. Neither Chicago nor Detroit has ever won the historic symbol of professional hockey supremacy.

While they fought gallantly to cut down Chicago's margin on the round, Maroons made the job more difficult by earning four of the six penalties meted out. The Hawks scored while Wentworth was serving time and bombarded goalie Dave Kerr steadily on the other occasions when they had the extra man. Kerr stopped 38 shots to 26 which Gardiner turned aside.

FINAL RUSHES FAIL TO COUNT FOR HAWK CLAN

5,000 WITNESS GAME.

Houston Nets Two and Hogarth One for Winners—James and Gill Tally for Champs.

TORONTO, April 2.—In the first of the three-game series here for the Allan Cup Saturday night, Blues defeated Moncton Hawks, defending Cup holders, 3-2. Hawks outshot the Lakeheaders by at least 3-1, outskated them throughout but flopped in a scoring sense.

Other factors in the Maritimers' loss was their erratic shooting and over-anxiousness when around the net. The latter factor, while somewhat surprising considering the Hawks had been through the acid test, shots being blocked by the hardy Hacquoil, participating in his fourth Allan Cup series.

The Blues made only a half-dozen rushes in the first period yet when the rest interval was reached they were leading 2-0. They trooped off the ice leaving the fans in a daze and speculating as to how long it would continue.

Continue To Set Pace.

At the start of the second session Hawks again set the pace and peppered the Lakehead goalie hard. Again the Blues gave the spectators cause for wonderment when shortly after two minutes had elapsed they made the count 3-0. Hawks, puzzled and becoming frantic at their inability to score, shot the works and were rewarded with a pair of goals before the period ended.

But try as they would in the final 20 minutes they were unable to net another counter. In this period Fort William left no doubt as to their intentions to protect their goal-lead and the systematic way in which they accomplished this had their opponents bewildered. Every Moncton man that entered the Lakeheaders' goal area found an opponent dogging his every stride.

Gordie Houston, chunky right-winger on the Blues' second line, led the scorers with a pair of goals, both in the first period the initial one on a pass from "Porky" McLeod. The third Fort William goal was registered by Bill Hogarth, one of the youngest players on the team and regular right winger. Ossie Hacquoil, the smallest player on the ice, made the play for Hogarth's marker.

Houston's first goal was the result of a three-man rush which culminated in a melee around the Moncton cage, the Fort winger taking McLeod's pass while close in to beat Foster cleanly. His second goal was the direct result of a smart move by McLeod. The latter shot as he raced over the blue-line and the puck, hitting the boards at the back of the net, bounced out on one side of the Hawk goal while the Moncton players were sorting themselves out, preparatory to clearing the disc out of danger, Houston rushed in and slapped it home.

Ossie Hacquoil gave the Blues their third goal. The midget centre grabbed the puck inside the Moncton blue-line and after working around the defence was forced over to one side and back of the net. All the time he held the puck and at the right moment slipped it out to Hogarth, parked in front of the Moncton goal and the latter gave Foster no chance on his quick drive.

At the start of the second session Miller had the puck a foot from the net with Hacquoil out of position but the latter moved fast enough to block the shot. Miller then carried the disc right in on the lakehead defence and as the latter moved out to meet him, the Hawk centre passed it between them to James, who rifled in a waist high shot that Hacquoil only glimpsed.

Brilliant Display

Gill's goal some six minutes later was the most brilliant individual piece of work of the night. The towering rearguardsman had led a number of dangerous rushes only to have his passes picked up by the rival players. This time he skated the length of the ice and as he was on the verge of being steered into the corner swerved around the defence and got right in front of the goal before shooting the puck in.

The second game will be played here Monday night and the third, if necessary, on Wednesday. The ultimate winner will engage Detroit White Stars in a series for the North American amateur championship.

Lineup:

BISONS AND OLYMPICS FALL BEFORE STARS OVER WEEK-END

Syracuse's Last Minute Spurt Keeps Them From Position of Not Winning a Game in Round-Robin Series—Finishes in Cellar With Herd.

(By the Canadian Press).

The last puck had been shot in the International Hockey League to-day and the four teams that fought it out in the round-robin playoffs marked up their final standings with London Tecumsehs on top and Detroit Olympics the second-place team. Buffalo and Syracuse were tied in last position with two victories each in the six games they played.

London won five out of the six games played in the round-robin, while Detroit won three out of five. Until the week-end Syracuse Stars had not captured a game. But Saturday night they stepped out and defeated Buffalo Bisons, champions the previous two years, by 3-1, and on Sunday night defeated Olympics 3-2 in the game that ended the League season.

Stars' last-minute spurt kept them from the position of not winning a game in the round-robin affair. It was the work of John Ross Roach in Stars' nets that carried them to victory over Bisons on Saturday night. It was the biggest upset of the series. Buffalo grabbed a goal lead in the first session but Syracuse tallied three times in the final period.

Roach Too Much For Them.

Doggie Kuhn soloed up the ice for Buffalo's initial tally, but the Buffalo team couldn't beat Roach after that. Jack Markle and Scotty Martin were the marksmen for Stars. Markle tallied twice in the last period and Martin got the third in the same session. Roach was injured in the Sunday night game with Detroit. In the first period he cut his lip and Dave Downie, little right wing man, took his place to play a sensational game.

Mitchell tallied for Detroit in the second period but Fred Hergert, Calgary product, tied it up for Syracuse on Al Huggins' pass. In the final period Syracuse scored twice, Jack Markle and Ralph Rennie doing the honors. Carson Cooper scored the Detroit goal in this period.

St. Catherine's Quintet Eliminated in Ontario Senior "A" Competition.

LOSE ON ROUND 90-63.

WINDSOR, Ont., April 2 (CP)—A high-powered Assumption College scoring machine, that travelled most of the way in second gear, climaxed its climb to the top in Ontario Senior "A" basketball at Kennedy Collegiate Gym here Saturday night by defeating St. Catharines Grads, 37-27, in the second game of the championship round. Assumption also won the first contest, played in St. Catharines last Saturday, 53-36, to make a clean sweep of the series.

Meet London Aces

The Border Collegians will now meet London Aces, Senior "B" champions of Ontario, in a home-and-home series for the right to represent this province in the Dominion playdowns. The dates have not been arranged, but it is expected the first game will be played some time this week.

Saturday's game was not of championship calibre. Assumption travelled at top speed for the first seven minutes to fashion an eight-point lead. From then on it was a hit and miss exhibition that offered a small crowd little to become enthusiastic over. The score at half way mark was 20-11 for Assumption. The visitors whittled this margin down to five points in the early minutes of the second half but faded from the picture as purple-clad Border athletes again trained their sniping eyes on the visiting hoop.

Outstanding Marksman

The jumbo-handed Willie Rogin, Assumption centre, was the outstanding marksman of the game. He scored 15 points, five fouls and a like number of field goals. Most of his baskets were the result of beautifully executed pivot plays. Rated as one of the best foul strip artists in this district, Rogin's work in this department was not up to standard Saturday night when he sunk but five free throws in 11 attempt. "Toots" Meretsky and Gordon Aitchison were next in line for Assumption scoring honors, with eight and seven points respectively.

Max Pearl, diminutive blond veteran, and Duke Diggins, scrappy right guard, carried the brunt of the scoring burden for the visitors.

FOUR ACQUATIC MARKS BROKEN AT WATER MEET

Toronto Swimmers Grab Off Major Share of Honors in Windsor Competition.

ONTARIO CHAMPIONSHIPS

Miss Ruth Kerr Sets Record in Women's 300-Yard Individual Medley.

WINDSOR, Ont., April 2.—(CP)—Toronto swimmers grabbed the major share of the spoils of the Ontario championship swimming meet held here Saturday night under the auspices of the Border Swimming club.

First place in seven of the 12 competitive events went to representatives of the Queen City and in the process of their sweeping triumph the Toronto aquatic stars broke four Canadian records. A fifth record was broken by Ruth Kerr, a Windsor girl and regular member of the Border Swimming club but at present attached to Toronto Mermaids while attending school in the Queen City.

Miss Kerr's feat was perhaps the most outstanding of the entire meet for she won the women's 300-yards individual medley in 4:23 3-5 to pare 35 2-5 seconds off the old mark established by Dorothy Prior of Toronto.

Bob Pirie, Toronto Central 'Y' star, turned in the best time for the men's 440-yard free style and it was good enough to beat the mark established by Walter Spence, United States swimmer, several years ago. Pirie's time for the 440 last night was 4:56 2-5 and Spence's record was 4:59.

Irene Pirie, attractive member of the Toronto Dolphinets and sister of Bob, won the women's 100-yard free style in 1:03 3-5 to surpass the 1:06 1-5 record established by Margaret Hutton, a team-mate. Warren Fry, another stellar representative of Toronto Central 'Y' easily beat Gordon Kerr's old record for the junior boys 100-yards back stroke, turning in a time of 1:06 in comparison to Kerr's 1:11 effort.

The crack Toronto Central 'Y' again came to the fore in the men's 300-yards medley relay by reaching the finish line in 3:12 2-5 to better its own Canadian record of 3:15.

New records will be applied for on behalf of two other winners at the meet here Saturday night. Harriet Brown, Border Swimming club, won the junior girls 100-yards free style event in 1:10 1-5 and Doris Shimman, Detroit Yacht Club, took only one minute and 23 1-5 seconds in winning the women's 100 yards breast stroke.

The Kennedy collegiate pool in which the meet was held, is 20 yards long.

EDMONTON A. C. JUNIORS WIN WESTERN CANADA HOCKEY TITLE

Port Arthur West Ends Put Up Great Battle, but Lose Game 4-0—Albertans Face St. Mikes in First of Memorial Cup Finals at Winnipeg Tuesday.

WINNIPEG, April 2 (CP)—With the Abbot Cup and the Western Canada Junior hockey title safely shelved, Coach Dan Carrigan to-day primed his team from Edmonton Athletic Club for Canada's Junior hockey classics—the Memorial Cup final. They meet St. Michaels College, Eastern champions, here, Tuesday and Thursday.

Rated one of the strongest Junior squads to come out of the West, the Albertans Saturday night defeated Port Arthur West Ends, 4-0, here, in the second fixture of their two-game total-goal series, to take the Western championship round, 11-3.

The win gave the foothills Province its third Western title, but for Edmonton it was a signal victory, Calgary having brought the Abbott Cup home on both previous occasions.

The Edmonton team played sound hockey to gain the shutout over the Westies. Game to the finish, the Thunder Bay Juniors swarmed in on Freddie Layetzke, but the Alberta netman was unbeatable, turning aside a total of 47 shots.

Forts Battle Hard

In the second and third periods, the Forts did everything but score. They played four and sometimes five men up on the attack to hold a wide mirgin on territorial play, but their wide-open style gave the Albertans plenty of opportunities to break away—an advantage seized effectively four times.

Only a handful of fans braved a March drizzle to see the game. There was no scoring in the first period. The Westies kept the puck in Alberta territory almost throughout, and gave Layetzke 14 shots to stop, while Phat Perras blocked only five in the Port Arthur net.

HOMESICK FOR PADDED GLOVES, SAYS FORMER N. Y. BOARD HEAD

Believes Max Baer Will Lead Boxing Game Back to Former Prominence.

LACKING IN COLOR.

BY EDWARD J. NEIL
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, April 2. (AP).—The postmaster general of the United States, James A. Farley, is just a trifle homesick for the whimsies, the multi-sided ramifications the prize fight business.

Thirteen months ago to-day he resigned his post as chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission, one of the most powerful of boxing's ruling bodies, to take his place in the cabinet of President Roosevelt.

"And I wouldn't have missed it for anything," he said today as he leaned back at his desk at the National Democratic headquarters, locked his fingers behind his head, and looked back through the first year of the new deal, into the days when Tunney and Dempsey and Rickard were kings and he ruled them all.

"We had a lot of fun and a lot of laughs. Boxing was a tremendous game then, jammed with color and great personalities. It will come back, eventually, as every thing will come back. Today's slump in boxing will be eliminated when the slump in all business has been eliminated.

What boxing needs most of all right now is a colorful heavyweight champion, a fellow like Dempsey. The game may have found him in Max Baer."

"How times have changed," grinned the six-foot-two-inch cabinet member who gained his initial fame as the first baseman of the Haverstraw (N. N.) Independents.

"I sat all alone in a hotel room in Washington when Primo Carnera and Tommy Loughran fought for the heavyweight title in Miami, listening to the bout. I couldn't help thinking about nights around the ringside in New York. I get pretty lonesome for boxing. I'll never lose interest in the game. I'd go every week if I could."

He has a circle around June 14 on his calendar, the night Carnera and Baer fight for the heavyweight title in New York.

"There will be no speaking engagements made for that night," he says.

RICE AND CROUCH REPORT TO LEAFS

Toronto International League Club May Get Robello for Second Base.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 2.—(CP). Outfielder Harry Rice and Catcher Jack Crouch joined the Toronto Baseball Club here yesterday afternoon. Rice and Crouch were sent to the Maple Leafs by the Cincinnati Reds. This latest move is the first fruits of President Oakley's present visit to the Reds' training base in Tampa, Florida.

Mr. Oakley seeks three pitchers and a second baseman from the Reds and they are expected within the next week. Tommy Robello looks like the second baseman for the Leafs when the International League season opens in Albany on the 18th. Joe Morrissey, whom the Leafs desired, is headed for Boston Braves, according to the latest inside information.

In order to get Fred (Sheriff) Blake the Leafs must buy him outright from the St. Louis Cardinal chain. Cincinnati have the player on one of the "optional arrangements." Two additional pitchers from the Reds will join the Leafs, but there is a bit of business that must be settled before Larry MacPhail of the Reds turns them over to Manager Boone.

HAVANA.—Three employees were killed and 35 buses were destroyed by a fire of undetermined origin today which wrecked the garage of the Omnibus De La Habana Company.

Property damage was estimated at $500,000.

The company is in the midst of labor difficulties.

Mickey Cochrane In Florida Hospital Suffering From Attack Of Appendicitis

LAKELAND, Fla., April 2 (C.P.). — Gordon (Mickey) Cochrane, the catcher-manager for whom the Detroit Tigers paid $100,000 last winter, was in a hospital to-day suffering from an attack of appendicitis.

An operation, if it becomes necessary, will deprive the Tigers of Cochrane for eight weeks.

Dr. Grover C. Freeman, Cochrane's physician, expressed the hope last night that the operation might not be necessary. He said Cochrane was suffering a mild form of appendicitis, thereby confirming Cochrane's own diagnosis.

President Frank J. Navin of the Detroit club, was shocked when told of the diagnosis. With Coach Cy Perkins he visited Cochrane last night and was cheered by Cochrane's wish for "about a quart of ice-cream."

The loss of Cochrane's services for eight weeks would deprive the team of its sparkplug, followers of the team said.

ST. LOUIS SITE ALSO MENTIONED

Gorman to Handle Senators and Frank Patrick Hawks if First Transfer Made.

GIVEN UNTIL JULY 15.

MONTREAL, April 2 (C.P.).—In a despatch from a staff correspondent at Chicago the Gazette to-day states, in part:

"If the Ottawa Senators' franchise in the National Hockey League is moved from the Canadian capital, it will come to the American middlewest and be transferred to either Chicago or St. Louis, the Gazette learned here through reliable sources. It was mooted some time ago that the Senators might be shifted here to give Chicago two N.H.L. entries in next year's race, and to-night it was learned that if efforts to place the club in St Louis fail, the franchise will be transferred here.

"If the Senators are moved intact to St. Louis the same Ottawa interest which presently control the club will operate the franchise in the Missouri city, the Gazette was told on the best of authority. It developes that Redmond Quinn, representing the Ottawa Hockey Association, will pass through here shortly on his way to St. Louis to discuss plans for the transfer of the club there. The St. Louis rink is one of the finest in the United States.

"Failing to come to terms with St. Louis the Ottawa Club may move into the stadium here and operate the team as a rival to the Black Hawks. This proposition has gone far enough for the name of Tommy Gorman to be mentioned as the next manager of the Senators in this city. It is also reported that Frank Patrick, present managing-director of the National Hockey League, will take over Gorman's present position as coach of the Hawks to allow the popular Ottawan to handle the Senators' interests here. It is reported locally that the league has given all parties concerned until July 15 to come to a decision."

Makes No Statement.

OTTAWA, April 2 (CP).—Franklin Ahearn, M.P., president of the Ottawa Hockey Association, had no statement to make last night when questioned on reports Redmond Quain of Ottawa was en route to St. Louis to negotiate the transfer there of the Senators. Ottawa's entry in the National Hockey League.

Windsor Trundlers Take Double Honors

PEORIA, Ills., April 2. (CP) — Competitors from Windsor, Ont., in the 34th American Bowling Congress here will go home with at least two prizes and maybe three.

Shooting in the five-man team even Saturday night the Windsor Recreation team hung up a 2,734 score. As the figures stand now this count will come in for a part of the cash.

G. Karrys, Windsor, batted the maple sticks in some brilliant shooting Sunday when he chalked up a 651 score in the singles, one of the highest registered during the session Sunday afternoon. He started off with a 189, improved his range in the second, cracking 205, and then finished with a smashing 257. H. Day, also Windsor, bowled consistent games of 201, 222, 203 for a 626 total. Both of these scores are sure to collect cash.

The best doubles count of the Ontario men was turned in by H. Day and A. Schmidt. They connected with a 1,128 series.

By C. J. P.

The idea is gradually sneaking upon us that there should be more laws in this country. We've got some well-fed politicians, the best law courts in the world and plenty of husky and capable cops. But why not keep them all busy—especially when there is so much skullduggery going on? There should certainly be a law against people calling other people up Sunday afternoons, right in the middle of those other people's naps. Okay when it's a life and death matter, but for nothing less. It's downright demoralising, it shakes one's faith in mankind—and even womankind—and it's gradually putting this country on the rocks.

• • • • • • •

Some guy with a perverted sense of humor called us at three yesterday afternoon and said: "Say, whatever became of the challenge of Omemee?" We answered coldly: "Omemee? What is it, a fighter or just another Indian baseball import for Belleville?" "Naw", says he, "it's the village northwest of here that was ready to take on any hockey team last winter. Said they were all afraid of it." So we told him that as far as we knew no team had taken up the challenge, but we understood Toronto Maple Leafs were thinking of accepting, provided they could borrow three players from St. Mike's. And we're going to inform the Bell Telephone that in future we are not home to callers, any callers, Sunday afternoons—not even if she has a lisp—and for Central to just inform 'em all that our phone was lifted as we didn't pay our bills.

• • • • • • •

And there should certainly be a law against rasslers who do not tell all the truth. We see where Frankie Hart and Alex Kasaboski of Toronto meet tonight in Detroit and the article says: "It will be the second clash of these light heavies, the first being a draw last January." You can't blame the promoter. He probably asked them if they ever met before and they both said "Yes, we went to a draw last Jan." They told the truth, but not the whole truth and nothing but the truth. We'd lay a dime against a quarter they've met so often that now they haven't anything to talk about while rasslin'. There should certainly be a law against it.

• • • • • • •

Before we leave the subject, we'd suggest a law against people asking us, "What are the baseball prospects for this summer?" We don't know yet; we'd run 'em in the paper if we did know as we can't keep anything to ourselves anyway. And then those people who call up every morning and tell us they saw a robin out in so-and-so's yard—why tell us? Go tell the robin's wife. A law that's badly needed is one against people who criticize sportswriter's English, saying, "The only schooling most of 'em got was in Moler Barber College"....what of it, we enjoyed the course! And, by all means there should be a law against having to write a sport column on Blue Monday morning.

• • • • • • •

The hockeyists are heading for the last roundup, junior, senior and professional—and the long, long trail is almost wound up for another year. Looks like St. Mike's for the Memorial Cup, Moncton for the Allan Cup, and whosis for the Stanley Trophy. Detroit and Chicago tangle for the latter this e'en in Detroit, it being a three-out-of-five series, and we still like the Red Wings' chances. They'll probably have more folks on this side of the border pulling for 'em as they defeated Toronto, and also as they are all Canadian players. Chicago Hawks have more American pucksters than any other team in the N.H.L.—five being born under the Stars and Stripes. They are: Taffy Abel of Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.: Doc Romnes from Minn.; Roy Goldsworthy from the same state; Roger Jenkins of Wisconsin; and Louis Trudel of Mass.

• • • • • • •

In Toronto these days, the C.A.H.A.—this armful of initials stands for Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, which is bigger even than the O.H.A., believe it or not—is laying down a lot of new rules. So far, they've only messed around, merely scratched the surface, but wait'll they get really started! Already they've decided that in hockey playdowns, if a team swamps another in the first game, the second may be defaulted if the branch prexy says 'Oke'; and any misguided laddies who falsifies his birth certificate will be barred from the ice sport from two to five years "as a lesson"; ages of juvenile, bantam and midget players shall be 18, 16 and 14 years respectively, dating from Jan. 1st.

Also if an amateur team—yeah, the word comes under the A's in the dictionary—is raided in midseason by the pros, it may use replacements from any legal source up to Feb. 10th, long as the branch secretary gives it his nod. And then, by way of saying, "We've had enough of this Grabocki of Oshawa nonsense", they upped and decided that during the period an amateur is trying out with a cash-and-carry club, he cannot take part in any simon-pure struggles, and in fact he can not play again with an amateur team until he has given his brass a detailed account of his pro tryout. Expense allowance for some club—that item which is slipped under "miscellaneous"—has been jacked up from thirty smackers to seventy-five. But what we're waiting for is the changing of the residence rule, and the rule to permit clubs with commercial monikers to step into the O.H.A. next winter. The suspense is terrible.

The Church Hockey League is holding its annual "championship banquet" on Monday, April 9th at 6.30 p.m. in Knox Church. Officers and winning teams will be entertained while other players may attend by paying fifteen cents and notifying their managers beforehand. Eleven tickets will be issued to each for the four winning clubs: Murray St. Midgets; Knox Juveniles; All Saints' Juniors; and All Saints' Intermediates. There were twenty-one teams in this lively loop the past winter—probably the best season enjoyed by the Church Hockey League since its inception—and the circuit's organizers are to be congratulated.

West Palm Beach, Fla. — Billy Evans, business manager of the Cleveland Indians, was in town yesterday to talk to Manager Rogers Hornsby of the St. Louis Browns, giving rise to reports that a deal between the clubs might be in the making. This brought a denial from Hornsby.

New Orleans.—Bill Terry seems to have snapped out of his slump since he dropped himself from third to fifth place in the batting order. The New York Giants' manager has banged out a triple and four singles in his last six times at bat.

St. Petersburg, Fla.—With Bob Rolfe and Don Heffner safely established at shortstop and second base, the only problem confronting Joe McCarthy, manager of the New York Yankees, is to decide upon a centrefielder.

The veteran, Earle Combs, has been slow rounding into form and Myril Hoag may get the call.

"ACE" BAILEY—Forward

Captained Petes to O. H. A. Senior Championship in 1926 — Born in Bracebridge.

POPULAR SPORTSMAN

Irvin (Ace) Bailey is probably the best known player who ever wore a Peterborough club uniform. Bailey, a native of Bracebridge, started his hockey career with the Toronto St. Mary's juniors and seniors and came to this city in 1925, playing right wing for the local team which was eliminated in the senior finals by Niagara Falls. Next season, with Bailey as captain, the Petes won the O.H.A. senior title, beating London in the final series. In the fall of 1926 Bailey was signed by the Toronto St. Pats' N.H.L. team and has been with the Toronto pros ever since. During the present season he figured in one of the most sensational incidents in hockey history when in a game at Boston he was crashed to the ice by Eddie Shore and came close to being fatally injured.

Soccer Notes

Representatives from Deloro, Lindsay and Port Hope are expected at the meeting of the Peterborough and District Football Association, to-night, in the Chamber of Commerce Rooms, at eight o'clock, when they are registering for the season.

No definite decision has been made by the Canada Packers and it is a pity that they cannot get immediately organized. The Caledonians held a preliminary meeting, last week, but no official communication has been received from them stating that they will enter the league this year.

Referees associated with the soccer league are requested to register with the secretary as soon as possible and those intending taking up the officiating on the field of play should make arrangements so as to pass the necessary examinations.

...ANCHE A. DRAPER

...lyzed by Peterborough's Leading Handwriting Analyst for the Readers of The Examiner

J. Wightman,
Listowel, Ont.

Your handwriting tells of a most friendly nature. You do not seem to ever want to do anything which will upset others. Your motto seems to be 'live and let live.' You are humorous and generous, not too ambitious but you manage to get as much fun out of life as most people. Your capitals show that you are capable of creating artistic things which should express that love of color which is yours. You like the out of doors, and fresh air means more to you than medicine. It rests your nerves and relieves that tired feeling which you are subject to.

Helen M. Andrews,
265 Carlisle Ave., City.

The handwriting as delineated on your sample for analysis indicates energy and progressiveness. The forward leaning script shows haste and not always correct discernment. Some of your upper loops depict humor and intelligence. The small letter formations suggest a changeable nature, easily discouraged and apt to be morose at times. Your capital letters show an artistic tendency which could be developed more extensively for your own amusement. Your general character is good. You are quite friendly and honest. Your number is three. Your birthsign is Taurus. You are ruled by Venus. May and July are fortunate months for you. Friday is your lucky day.

Dorothy Cornwell,
140 Hunter Street, East, City.

The handwriting as delineated on your sample for analysis shows that you are pleasant and friendly. You have a very good imagination and keen persepective on life in general. You do not try to 'fool' yourself into thinking that life is a rosy dream. You know, that nothing is gained except by diligent study and hard work and you do not shirk work. Perhaps some times you are inclined to 'rush' through your tasks, but that is quite natural, because your nature desires recreation, and you do not allow yourself enough to compensate your mental output each day. Your general character is excellent, and you are loyal and true to your friends.

Velma Whitemore,
Apsley, Ont.

The handwriting as delineated on your sample for analysis indicates intelligence and keen understanding. You have a fine even disposition and honest genuine good nature. Your well expressed capitals denote an artistic tendency. You are a little afraid at times to trust your own emotions, and have to ponder seriously before completely making up your mind. You have a fair imagination and you are a lover of all beauty. You ask if you have any talent for music, and my answer is yes decidedly. Your type as a rule follow the sciences, but music could be encountered as your main hobby. Your birthsign is Aquarius, and you are ruled by Uranus. April and August are your best months. Saturday seems to be your lucky day. Your number is five.

BYRD SETTLES TO LONE STUDY

LITTLE AMERICA, Antarctic, April 2 (A.P., via Mackay Radio).—With the temperature at 60 degrees below zero, Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd was off to-day on a seven-month solo study of weather in the Antarctic.

"All is well," he reported in a message assuring the main camp that he had settled himself "as comfortably as could be expected" in his little one-room shack 123 miles south of Little America.

The leader minimized the hazards of his lonely existence.

"The winter night is a period of tranquility of a sort you will never achieve in civilization," he said.

Admiral Byrd said he expected to keep busy maintaining a continuous meteorological record and doing much writing in the now almost completely snow-covered hut.

Minister Hurls Bible Across The Church

LANSDOWNE, Md., April 2 (AP) —The congregation of the little Methodist Episcopal Church was startled in the middle of the Easter service when the minister hurled his Bible across the room.

"If the study of this book is going to hide the real Jesus from me, there goes my Bible," cried the Rev. Robert Wesley Hanford.

Denouncing the fellow who says he is a "Bible Student," he declared: "As I see it then, the Bible is not the Word of God. The Bible is men's interpretation of the Word of God. Anything reduced to words is imperfect, for language itself is imperfect.

"I am fully conscious of the far-reaching significance of the statement that the Bible is not the Word of God. It reaches into the very roots of all Protestantism."

Queen Mary Suffers From Slight Cold

LONDON, April 2 (AP)—Queen Mary, suffering from a slight cold, to-day cancelled arrangements to accompany the King to Kempton Park races.

It was said at Buckingham Palace that the cold was only slight and that Her Majesty was remaining indoors again merely as a measure of precaution.

She kept to her rooms yesterday also.

Ontario Scouting continues to go forward. An increase of 877 was shown in the 1933 report. The census as at October 31, last, shows a total of 24,753 all ranks.

Boy Scouts—the oldest branch attained a new high of 12,176 members and Scout troops increased from 465 to 505. Five new troops at Durham, Ridgeway, South River, Wolverton and Port Elgin registered during the year are credited to the Lone Scouts' activity.

The Lone Scouts is an organization of boys of Scout age (12 to 18 years) living in small villages, on farms, or elsewhere, where it is not possible to form troops owing to lack of sufficient boys or a Scoutmaster. Lone Scouts may register with the Ontario Boy Scout Association at 330 Bay street, Toronto.

Each Lone Scout choses a counsellor or friend—a man who will take an interest in his Scout activities—and give him advice and guidance when needed, and act as his examiner in the necessary tests. The Lone Scot tests etc., are the same as laid down for other Scouts, except that they are carried out mainly by mail.

March issue of "On Lone Scout Trails" the monthly publication of the organization brings to mind that this month the Lone Scout group enters on its sixth year of effort to bring Scouting to boys in outlying districts.

The pioneer in the development of the program is the present Lone Scout Commissioner Capt. John Furminger, M.C. In 1929 he accepted the task of organizinz this work and became its first Scoutmaster. Original membership was eighteen boys, which increased to over 200 members in a little over a year.

The Rover Crew, St. John's and All Saints' Troops went on hikes on Good Friday. The hike made by the latter troop was un-scheduled and was brought about by a notice mistakenly inserted in this column by your scribe on Thursday. Seventeen boys turned out for the hike, and their S.M. in the true Scout spirit, cancelled another engagement and went with them.

Members of 5th Peterborough (All Saints') Troop are requested to be at the Parish Hall for a rehearsal for parent's night program at 9.30 a.m. to-morrow.

The Rover Crew is to meet at 283 Armour road at 7 o'clock this evening to study "Scouting for Boys" by Lord Baden Powell.

BE BEAUTIFUL

By GLADYS GLAD

Back in the seventeenth century in New England, the blue-nosed Puritans considered it decidedly immoral for any woman to voice a desire for physical beauty. In those days, any gal who attempted to increase her charms in any manner whatsoever, was thought to be decidedly an unwholesome character. And consequently, the women of that era seldom made any attempts at self-improvement.

To-day, of course, we moderns know that there's nothing unwholesome about a woman who desires beauty. It's a natural desire, and a wide-spread one. And any gal who doesn't try to improve her appearance certainly can't have much interest in herself.

Most women really do make an attempt at enhancing their charms. But some of 'em, unfortunately, don't know how to go about it. They acquire foolish ideas that are more of a hindrance than a help. And one of the most common of these is the idea that ice is most beneficial when rubbed on the face after cleansings.

There's no denying that ice closes the pores and tends to tone up the skin. But, in my opinion, it is far too drastic a measure for the sensitive facial skin. In the first place, the frequent use of ice is drying to the skin. It tends to remove too much of the natural oils that keep the skin smooth and supple. And it may even cause the appearance of fine lines.

In the second place, the shock of the sudden extreme cold may cause the appearance of unsightly broken capillaries. The health of these little blood vessels is regulated by the action of the nerves. And when the nerves are choked by the sudden cold of ice, they may become paralyzed and the tiny broken veins appear.

It is my personal opinion that if a girl wishes to use something to close her pores after she cleanses her face, it is wiser for her to employ a good astringent rather than ice. An effective astringent for this purpose can be made simply by combining equal parts of rosewater, glycerine and witch hazel. This lotion is particularly good because it can be regulated. If it proves too drying, the amount of witch hazel used can be decreased. While if it is not sufficiently strong, the amount of witch hazel can and should be increased.

FRIENDS RAISE BAIL OF $10,000 IN FAHEY CASE

Westerners Also Urge Clemency for Man Suspected as Escaped Mail Robber.

GOOD CITIZEN SINCE 1910.

U. S. Seeks Extradition to Face Old Charge—Bondsmen on Way With Cash.

EDMONTON, April 2 (C.P.). — Freedom from custody until his arraignment April 13 for the extradition hearing was expected to-day by James Fahey, alleged to be Frank Grigware, who escaped from Leavenworth Penitentiary, Kansas, in 1910, while serving a life term for mail robbery.

With bail set at $10,000 Saturday, Fahey waited patiently all day yesterday, and until late last night, expecting his release momentarily. Though the arrangements had been made, he was forced to spend another night in the Royal Canadian Mounted Police cells. And it was friends in Jasper, Alta., who came forward with the bail bonds.

Two Jasper residents, H. D. Finley and E. N. Stewart, reached Edmonton last night to represent the citizens of Jasper in providing the $10,000 security bail required before Fahey's release. They brought affidavits from two bondsmen, but Magistrate George B. McLeod, who was prepared to sign for Fahey's release immediately, ruled that the bondsmen must appear personally. They will arrive to-day.

Never before, said Mr. Stewart, has the sympathy of Jasper residents been stirred so thoroughly.

No Trouble Raising Bail.

"We didn't have the slightest difficulty in arranging the $10,000 bail," he said. "We could have raised $40,000 or $60,000, or what the town is worth as the limit."

A bail order was granted to Fahey Saturday by Judge Crawford in District Court, over the objections of J. J. Rawley, K.C., counsel in the Attorney-General's department, and as such representative for the United States Government. He objected to the bail order on the grounds that Canada is obligated to keep Fahey "in safe custody" until extradition is arranged and officers come for him.

Meanwhile, Jasper residents are circulating petitions which urge clemency for Fahey on the grounds that he has led a "good" life since coming to Canada, and with his wife has been raising a fine family.

Roosevelt Continues His Fishing Cruise

MIAMI, Fla., April 2 (AP).—Refreshed by a week-end in the tropical seas, President Roosevelt kept in close touch with affairs of the United States to-day as he continued his fishing cruise.

Lieutenant Carlton McCauly in a naval amphibian was over the Bahama waters to-day with official despatches from White House headquarters here.

Mr. Roosevelt was helping to guide the yacht Nourmahal over the treacherous waters of Stranger Bay Channel. Entry depended entirely upon weather conditions.

Yesterday off Rocky Point of Great Abaco Island, the President, as commander-in-chief of the American military force, conducted a unique Easter service. The chaplain's flag was hoisted, and in the absence of a chaplain, Mr. Roosevelt as senior officer—a tradition of the sea—led the service.

MRS. SARAH SHAW.

LINDSAY, April 2.—(Examiner Correspondence)—Mrs. Sarah Shaw, mother of Mrs. (Rev.) A. E. Jones, passed away at the Queen Street United Church parsonage Thursday night and a brief funeral service was held Saturday morning and interment will take place at Chatham, where the deceased lady resided for many years. She was born the daughter of the late Charles Edward and Mrs. Shaw at St. Andrew's on the Sea, New Brunswick. As a girl in her 'teens the late Mrs. Shaw moved to Ontario with her parents and settled at Chatham. Following her marriage to the late Mr. Shaw they resided for several years at London, where their three children were born. Two children, Mrs. (Dr.) Baker of Mount Vernon, Ohio, and Mrs. A. E. Jones of Lindsay, survive. The only son William passed away at Stouffville about 4 years ago. The late Mrs. Shaw was an active church worker at Chatham.

SARAH ANN MAHOOD.

LINDSAY, April 2.—(Special to The Examiner).—The death occurred early Saturday morning of Sarah Ann Mahood, daughter of the late Alex. Mahood, of South Monaghan, and widow of the late Richard Bennett of Mount Horeb and Lindsay. The deceased lady had been ailing since the New Year and death took place at the home of her only daughter, Mrs. (Maime) T. D. Tolmie, of 49 William street, south, Lindsay. The late Mrs. Bennett was born in South Monaghan some seventy years ago and following her marriage lived for many years at Mt. Horeb, Ops Township. For some 16 years she had resided in Lindsay. She was predeceased by her husband eight years ago. Mrs. Bennett was a member of the Presbyterian church. Mrs. Tolmie is the only surviving relative.

MRS. ISRAEL D. CHURCH

MOUNT JULIAN, April 2.—(Examiner Correspondence).—On Wednesday, March 14, friends at Mount Julian received the sad news that Mrs. Israel D. Church had suddenly passed away at the home of her brother, Fred Arnott. Mrs. Church was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Arnott of Toronto and was formerly a teacher here, having taught at the Mount Julian School for four years. Her husband predeceased her in 1930.

Left to mourn her loss are four brothers, George, Frederick, James and William Arnott and one sister, Mrs. S. Gurofkey and a cousin, Mrs. William Fullerton, who has been residing with Mrs. Church for the last two years.

The funeral was held from St. John's Church, Lakefield, with the Rev. E. C. Moore of Young's Point officiating. Burial took place in Lakefield Cemetery.

GEORGE J. EARLY.

MILLBROOK, April 2.—(Examiner Correspondence).—The death of George J. Early occurred at his home in Cannington on Wednesday, March 28, in his eighty-third year, following an extended period of ill-health.

Deceased was born at London, England, and came to Canada in early manhood, finally settling in Peterborough, where, in conjunction with his wife, he carried on a photograph studio located on the east side of George street, almost opposite the "Golden Lion," business premises of the late Robert Fair, succeeding Thomas Esterbrook as proprietor of the studio some months after the latter's decease.

While a citizen of Peterborough Mr. Early was prominent in many circles, being president of the Y.M.C.A. for some time, active in temperance and church organizations, and in later years frequently mentioned the fact that he had been connected with the Young Men's Club which raised funds "and built the steeple on George Street Methodist Church." He was also a charter member of Otonabee Lodge, I.O.O.F., and a little over two years ago was presented with his veteran's jewel, signifying fifty years of continuous connection with the Order of Oddfellowship. In politics he was a Conservative, and though for a time attending the former Methodist Church both at Peterborough and Cannington, was in religion an Anglican.

After selling out the studio at Peterborough removal was made to Cannington, where he continued to reside until his death, and where the same profession of photography was carried on until within a few years ago when failing health compelled retirement from an active career. For some years Mr. Early was president of the Public Library Board at Cannington, having been instrumental in establishing this community enterprise in the northern village. He also held the office of treasurer in All Saints' Church for a considerable time, ill-health compelling relinquishment of this position, and finally making even church attendance impossible.

Predeceased by his wife (Harriet Austin Leary), whose death took place on Christmas Eve, December 24, 1933, Mr. Early is survived by one stepson, Percy J. Esterbrook, and by one grandson, both of Toronto. Deceased was a brother-in-law of Mrs. (Dr.) E. L. Burnham, Millbrook.

The funeral took place from his late residence, "Pleasant View," Ann street, Cannington, on Good Friday, at 2 p.m., the Rev. P. C. Howard, rector of the parish of Cannington and Sunderland, and formerly of Millbrook, having charge of the service. Interment was in the family burial plot, Cedarvale Cemetery, Cannington.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE REVIEWS

ONTARIO GRAIN

Ontario grains f.o.b. shipping point:—Wheat, 82c to 84c.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, April 2—Brisk upturns of grain prices late Saturday much more than offset earlier losses, and accompanied reports of an expected stimulating announcement by President Roosevelt.

In some quarters, talk was current that the Roosevelt announcement would relate to Federal finances, and would be made on his return to Washington. Late rallies in securities helped the sudden reversal from weakness to strength in grains.

Wheat closed firm at the day's top figures, ½c to 1c above Thursday's finish; corn at ⅝c to ¾c advance; oats unchanged to ¼ off, and provisions varying from 2c decline to a rise of 12c.

Oats prices broke early with corn, and then rallied with wheat. Exporters said the corn market was far out of line for business overseas.

WINNIPEG GRAIN

WINNIPEG, April 2. — With only enough trading to keep the market active for a few minutes at a time, wheat prices held steady on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange on Saturday, and, tided by a late upturn at Chicago, closed with gains of ½c to ⅝c.

May future closed at 68c, July at 69¼c, and October at 71⅛c, all at top levels. The holiday in European markets curtailing foreign demand accounted for the lull in trade.

A little seaboard interest, noted in the early trading, formed the bulk of support. Offerings were very thin and when Chicago strengthened late in the day Winnipeg values quickly followed suit. Export business was on the small side.

Cash grains trading was restricted to small lots at unchanged spreads while coarse grains prices moved higher in sympathy with wheat.

2,000 AT CONVENTION.

Ingersoll Man Proposes Various Trustee Groups Unite to Strengthen Influence.

TORONTO, April 3. (CP). — In scattered buildings of the University of Toronto and even in downtown hotels, delegates to the annual convention of the Ontario Educational Association met in sessions here to-day to discuss and attempt to solve their various problems, ranging from school taxation to fitting punishment of pupils.

More than 2,000 representatives from nearly all sectons of the province were welcomed to the city by a representative of Mayor W. J. Stewart, and then dvided into their respective groups to receive reports and consider resolutions and suggestions urged in different addresses.

One resolution suggesting delrease of teaching of French language in Ontario public schools, was taken under consideration by the trustees' and ratepayers' section. The resolution was presented by the Halton County Association and urged a full course in economic, citizenship and business proctice be prepared and inserted in the high school course of study in the lower school, and that less stress be placed on Latin and French. Instead, it was suggested more stress be placed on such subjects as manual training, domestic science, etc.

United Trustees

Union of trustee organizations was urged by J. Ferris David of Ingersoll as a means of overcoming the many problems facing the section which through amalgamation would be welded into a far more powerful body and would prove more influential in its demands. He also spoke before the trustees' and ratepapers' section.

John A. Tory of Toronto, supervisor of the Sun Life Assurance Company, outlined to members of the commercial section the demands placed upon youths graduating from the commercial classes. He urged corporations to accept their responsibility to youth in this regard and advised teachers and pupils to prepare for rapidly changing conditions in the business world.

Most resolutions tabled in the different meetings urged teaching of economics, good citizenship and business practice in both high and public schools.

Has Novel Placed In Sound Dialogue

Mrs. Blanche Draper, who conducts the "Character from Handwriting' feature which has been running in The Examiner for some months past, to-day received her membership card in the Writers' Guild, together with a revised version of her novel "Ellen of the Circus" which has been put in sound dialogue, for motion picture production.

She also received a request for more of her stories, it is learned. The noval was entered by Mrs. Draper in the all-Canadian contest sponsored by the Graphic Publishing Company of Ottawa in which Adian Macdonald of the Peterborough Normal School teaching staff received high honours.

Although Mrs. Draper's novel was not a prize winner at the time, it was specially requested by the Publishing Company that they might keep it for further reading on account of its merit. It has since been re-written.

Mrs. Draper has had stories published in "Motion Picture Review" and in other publications.

CITY COUNCIL BARS RELIEF TO NEWCOMERS

Township Relief Officer Attempting to Place Family in City.

COUNCIL PASSES MOTION

Family Mentioned Would be Maintained by Township for 3 Months.

Any family moving into Peterborough with expectations of going on relief will be disappointed as the result of a resolution passed last night by the City Council.

Alderman Fred Tuggey roused the Council to action on this question, when he declared that he knew positively that a township relief officer was seeking to move an indigent family from his township into the city in order that the township could be relieved of its support.

Alderman Hamilton immediately moved a resolution "That anybody moving into Peterborough henceforth will not be considered for relief by either the Council or the Central Relief Board." The resolution carried unanimously.

Stated Case

Alderman Tuggey opened the subject by stating, "I know of a township relief officer who is busying himself looking for a house in the city for a family now on relief in the township. This township is planning to move this family into the city, pay its rent and maintain it for three months and then this family will apply for relief from the city. This information came to me yesterday and I know it is true. I'm not mentioning the name of the township but I could give its name and the name of the relief officer."

Alderman Stocker—"Why that's been going on for years."

Mayor Denne—"Can we not make some stipulation to stop it?"

It was at this point that Alderman Hamilton worded his resolution which the Council said would be enforced definitely.

Village Sacked

MEXICO, D.F., April 3.—(A. P.)—Dispatches from Oaxaca reported to-day that 20 persons, including several women and children, were slain, a number of persons were kidnapped, and the entire village of Guadalupe Vista Hermosa was sacked and burned by raiders.

The attackers, it was said, came from nearby villages of Monte Leon and Chilapa, inflamed by an ancient boundary dispute.

Montreal Beauties Too Much For Judge

MONTREAL, April 3 (AP) — As contestants in a beauty contest he was sponsoring moved slowly across the stage in front of him, ex-Alderman Oswald Woodall, 57, of Verdun, Que., suddenly collapsed and died last night. The contest, held in Wood Hall, Verdun, was immediately cancelled as Woodall was carried from the stage to a waiting room, where he died before a doctor could reach him.

Sub-Post Office Changed In North

The sub-postmastership was relinquished by E. F. Mason at George and Antrim streets. Mr. Lacheur stated, owing to increase in Mr Mason's own business which made it inconvenient for him to continue as sub-postmaster.

REV SUTHERLAND KEENE MINISTER RESIGNS CHARGE

Special Meeting of Presbytery Deals With Resignation of Rev. Sutherland.

OUTSIDE INFLUENCE.

Membership in C. C. F. Objected to Minister Charges.

Resignation of the Rev. John S. Sutherland, M.A., as minister of the pastoral charge of Keene, Westwood and Warsaw was this morning accepted at a special meeting of Peterborough Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. Moderator Rev. H. R. Williams of Millbrook presided and meeting was held in St. Paul's Church.

Threatening also to resign from the Presbyteriaan Church in Canada—a drastic course from which he was dissuaded, Mr. Sutherland alleged that owing to the part he had taken in formation of a branch of the C.C.F. organization in Peterborough city and county, and his later acceptance of the presidency of the organization, outside influence had been brought to bear on his congregation at Keene.

Following his election as president of the C.C.F. Club he charged, "there was a telephone message came through from Peterborough asking what stand my congregation was going to take about it".

Freedom Of Action

"I think", Mr. Sutherland vigorously protested, "that any minister should have full freedom of action, and should not be subject to interference". He cited as an instance the stand taken by the Rev. Father Coughlin in his radio broadcasts on economic problems of the day, and claimed the same right to political freedom.

In accepting Mr. Sutherland's resignation from the charge which he had held since January 1930, the Presbytery, on motion of Rev. Dr. A. T. Barr, pastor of St. Paul's Church

FLOOD HOLDS AT CORNWALL

Morrisburg-Ottawa Highway is Unsafe for Traffic in River Areas.

LOSS CONSIDERABLE.

OTTAWA, April 3 (CP).—Eastern Ontario continued to-day to watch with apprehension swollen rivers which, in certain localities, has reached the proportion of floods. Reports, however, did not indicate that the situation at Cornwall and Winchester, Ont., where considerable loss has been suffered and inconvenience caused, was any worse.

From Winchester, where the Nation River has overflowed its banks, flooding farm lands for miles it was reported that the Morrisburg-Ottawa highway is now unsafe for motor traffic in the flooded section. Reports stated that many motorists who tried to drive through the water south of Cass Bridge, were compelled to turn back. Only trucks with high road clearance could make the passage.

From Cornwall, where a score of families were driven from their homes in the north-eastern section of the city, the flood situation was reported as unchanged. Families in the flooded area were reported as sleeping in the top stories of their flooded homes, while others found it necessary to go to other sections of the city.

Your Evening Smile

SELLING SOMETHING, AT LEAST

"What's your line now?" asked the broken-down artist to his fellow boarder.

"I've just taken up story-writing," said the other offhandedly.

"Sold anything yet?" asked the artist, hoping he might have found a victim to "touch" for some cash.

"Yes," he said, after a while—"my watch, my radio, and my best overcoat."

He Feels Better

KINGSTON, Ont., April 3.—Conscience to-day had stricken one resident of Kingston, believed to be a citizen receiving unemployment relief, for in the mail this morning, City Treasurer O. V. Bartels received a letter which contained $22.10 and the following message: "O. V. Bartels, or to whom it may concern —Find enclosed the sum of $22.10 as I have received this amount and want to be right with God and man. I am returning the same. Hope you will place it in city treasury where it belongs and oblige another that wants to live right."

Both City Treasurer and Mayor Peters stated they were at loss to know what city department to credit the money to. It is believed to be for excess in relief received by the conscience-stricken sender.

ALBERTA TAKES HAND IN URGING FAHEY FREEDOM

Legislature Names Group to Draft Resolution Favoring Closing Extradition Action.

PLEA SENT BENNETT.

EDMONTON, April 3 (CP)— The closest possible to an official voice had been raised to-day to win freedom for James Fahey and keep him from being torn from his family and removed to Leavenworth Penitentiary to serve a life term.

Released on $10,000 bond from custody of Royal Canadian Mounted Police, Fahey learned last night the members of the Alberta Legislature, in informal session, had named a committee to draft a resolution favoring cessation of extradition proceedings instituted against him by United States authorities. The proposal was given the support of Premier J. E. Brownlee.

As Frank Grigware, Fahey is alleged to have escaped from Leavenworth Penitentiary in Kansas in 1910, while serving a life term for mail robbery. Admitting he escaped, Fahey denied his guilt in the robbery, and declared he was only the victim of bad company when a youth of 19 years.

The Jasper, Alta., carpenter shook his tousled head of brown hair, turing to grey at the temples, as he walked out of the R.C.M.P. barracks here last night after friends from Jasper had posted $10,000 bail to guarantee his appearance at the extradition hearing April 13.

Wife Greets Him

At the doorway awaiting him was his wife, whom he married after his break from Leavenworth Penitentiary and settled at Spirit River, Alta., where he once was mayor. After cameras had clicked, they hurried away by automobile to the

Giant Cunard Liner In Workmen's Hands

GLASGOW, April 3 (CP Cable)— A kilted band playing "The Campbells Are Coming," to-day headed a march of 400 workmen back to resume work on the giant Cunard liner "No. 534," on which work had been stopped for the last two and a quarter years because of financial difficulties. Resumption of work was made possible by Government advances.

Within two months the total of 2,800 men thrown idle when work ceased will be employed again, and it is expected that eventually 6,000 men will be employed in connection with the vessel, a mammoth of 70,000 tons.

Resumption of work has brought new hope to the Clydeside and was celebrated with the greatest enthusiasm. A battery of motion-picture and still cameras recorded the scenes of activity at the shipyard, with smiles on every hand.

DEPARTMENT OF UTILITIES HAS $20,040 DEFICIT

Commission Set Aside $15,627.00 For Depreciation to Plant.

INCREASE FORECAST.

Thirteenth Bill Was Deficit to $3,747.76 to Commission.

An increase in industrial and commercial power rates in the city was forecast this afternoon with the announcement by the Utilities Commission that the electrical department of the local system had suffered a net loss last year of $20,040.17.

$15,627.00 Set Aside

The loss of $20,040.17, it was explained, was incurred after providing for depreciation on the tangible plant of the system to the amount of $15,627.00. The actual cost of the power on the books of the Hydro Commission was $3,747.76 more than the amount of the interim bills charged to the Utilities Commission for power, it was stated.

The sinking fund equity acquired by the local Commission in the lines of the Hydro system, it was said, now amount to $117,464.27.

In announcing the deficit, G. S. Matthews, chairman of the Commission, said that a 10 percent increase in industrial power rates and some slight advance in the rate for commercial lighting would have to be made to make up for the deficit.

No Change In Domestic Rate

"The loss came in industrial and commercial power and on street lighting," he explained. "It is more than probable that the domestic rates will be left as they are; because there was no appreciable loss there."

The industrial rates will probably go back to what they were two years ago, before they were reduced, he said.

Street Lighting Loss

A loss was also suffered on street lighting, but this is already being taken care of in the new street lighting rates for the city that went into effect at the first of the year.

Members of the Commission expressed themselves as optimistic for the coming year, and it was stated that even with the slight increases in industrial and commercial rates that will have to be made, power in Peterborough will still be cheaper than in most centres of similar size. The sound financial structure upon which the local utilities system is founded, was also stressed.

In the Electrical Department's financial statement for 1933 which was released, total assets of the departments are listed at $1,088,744.66. Total revenue for the year was $276,007.79, and total expenses $296,047.96.

The greatest single item in the expenses was $196,442.92 for power

ARMED REVOLT SEEN IN FRANCE

Secret Service Hunt Hidden Arsenals Said to Contain Thousands of Guns.

SUPPLY FOR REDS.

PARIS, April 3 (AP) — Definite assertions that an armed revolution in France is being prepared by both Rightists and Leftists were made today.

The Secret Service and Judicial Police under Judge Saussier, investigating magistrate, are known to be hunting hidden arsenals, but Desire Ferry, the editor of the newspaper La Liberte, owned by former Premier Andre Tardieu, says the hunt is "too late."

Thousands of rifles—some persons estimate the number to be 14,000—are reported to have been smuggled into France before Marshal Petain, Minister of War, induced the Cabinet to order a close watch of the frontier.

Large quantities—some say thousands—of automatic pistols were said to be arriving in Paris daily, consigned to big arms firms.

Ferry charged that the rifles are destined for Communists and Socialists, while the Communist newspaper Humanite, retorted with alleged details of pistol shipments to Fascist factions.

Royal Engagement

Princess Ingrid of Sweden (LEFT) is the latest member of that country's royal family to answer the call of romance. The daughter of Crown Prince Gustav Adolph is to become engaged to Crown Prince Frederick of Denmark, according to news reports. A wedding between these two would draw the Scandinavian kingdoms closer together than ever. A brother, Prince Bertil is reported to be planning to marry Christina Brambeck who, though not of nobility, is the daughter of Capt. Nils Brambeck of the Swedish army. Prince Lennart and Sigvard, also brothers, also wed commoners.

JAM IS BROKEN WITH DYNAMITE FLOOD RECEDES

No Further Trouble Expected on Jackson Park Creek by Engineer.

CELLARS FLOODED.

Huge Cakes of Ice Caught Under Low Bridges Caused the Trouble.

By the free use of dynamite and pike poles, workmen, under the direction of City Engineer R. H. Parsons, won a decisive battle yesterday with the Jackson Park creek, which for some hours early in the afternoon threatened to flood a wide section of the business district at Hunter and Aylmer Streets.

Huge cakes of ice, risen from the bottom of the creek, jammed in great piles beneath several low bridges on Hunter Street and below and the swollen waters of the creek were dammed back. In a few minutes the waters rose six to seven feet. Water poured into the cellar of a house at 226 Hunter and several stores in the neighborhood.

At one stage the big ice pack stretched continuously for some 150 feet and the job of loosening its big mass seemed a titanic task.

Went Out With Rush.

However, city workmen went systematically to work. Charges of dynamite ate away the lower sections of the jam, and then with a tremendous roar the whole mass gave way and swept down the creek like a tidal wave. Within a few minutes the creek was back within its proper boundaries.

Damage to goods stored in the cellars of stores in the neighborhood was estimated at more than $500.

At one stage of the battle, workmen had to leave the scene at Hunter Street and race down the creek to Sherbrooke Street, where the ice had jammed at the bridge and the water was threatening to flood Ackerman's plant. However, one stick of dynamite dislodged this mass.

Mr. Parsons, who expects no further trouble this spring with the creek, was congratulated last night by the City Council on the energetic manner in which he and his workmen handled the ice jam.

HON. DR. H. BRUCE ENDS ONTARIO'S 18TH ASSEMBLY

Expresses Pleasure at Signs of Recovery Evident Over Province.

REVIEWS SESSION.

Sees U. S. Senate Action on Seaway as Merely Delay in Inevitable Undertaking.

TORONTO, April 3. (CP).—With a review of legislation which becomes law with royal assent, today, Hon. Herbert A. Bruce, Lieutenant Governor of Ontario prorogued the 18th Legislative Assembly of the Province.

In the speech from the throne read by Dr. Bruce, he declared at the opening of the session he had ventured to express the hope of the progress towards recovery of business and industry then observable would be maintained at an increasing rate. "I am glad to notice that in many ways this hopeful expectation is being realized. The volume of trade has increased; better prices are being realized for our products, and surplus labor is being gradually absorbed by industry, we may therefor look forward with increasing confidence to the future and prepare for the new opportunities that await our country."

The Subject of Loans

"I observe that in the legislation you have enacted consideration has been given to special needs of the time. In certain sections of the province agriculture is menaced by the scarcity of seed grain, and the lack of credit to purchase necessary supplies.

My ministers have undertaken, with your approval, to assume on behalf of the province, two-thirds of the financial responsibility for loans required for this purpose wherever the municipal authority will assume the balance.

"Another measure of interest to agriculture is the amendment to co-operative marketing and loan act whereby a Provincial guarantee may be given to assist the work of the growers and associations to market their crops to the best advantage.

"Legislation has been enacted for the purpose of strengthening the position of the dairy farmer. The object of this measure, entitled the Milk Control Act, is to bring into operation a plan whereby milk supply will be controlled to the end that the rights and interests of the producer, the distributor and the consumer may be given proper protection.

Boon to Agriculture.

"By virtue of the enabling legislation you have enacted, it is intended that any constitutional obstacles to the operation of the contemplated Federal marketing control

SUMMER HEAT FOR N. YORK CITY

Weatherman Predicts New April High—10 Foot Drifts Pile Up in Montana.

FLOODS IN ENGLAND.

NEW YORK, April 3—(CP)—Midsummer heat in the east, a howling blizzard over part of the United States west and threatening floods in New England feature the variegated current bill offered by that veteran impressario, the weather man.

In New York he offered odds that today would break the all time high for April 3—73.4 degrees, set in 1892. That should be cheering to the citizens of Montana and Wyoming as they dig themselves out of 10 foot snowdrifts piled up by a storm last night. The thermometer reached 75 in New York yesterday, while Washington reported 84 and Boston 72. Massachusetts and Connecticut were keeping anxious eyes on the Connecticut River, which had reached flood stage at several points. The present situation is not dangerous, but it is feared that the continuing warm spell will cause a further rise. Other New England rivers were reported in the same condition.

One death was reported from the storm in Wyoming. J. Kent Kinniburgh, secretary of the Casper Chamber of Commerce, was killed when his car overturned on a slippery pavement. Army airmail ships were grounded at Cheyenne and a United Air Lines passenger ship was flagged down at Laramie and passengers transferred to automobiles.

SPRING FRESHET FLOODS STREETS OVER CORNWALL

Twenty Families Flee Homes —Chickens, Pigs Are Drowned.

WINCHESTER IN DANGER.

Bridge Damaged Near Preston—Ice on Hamilton Bay Starts Breaking.

(By the Canadian Press)

Spring freshets in Eastern Ontario today caused residents of two areas grave concern as flood waters inundated thousands of acres of land, blocked roads and drove 20 families from their dwellings.

Chicken and pigs were drowned at Cornwall when Fry Creek overflowed its banks and flooded lower floors of 20 houses, forcing residents to seek shelter with neighbors living on higher ground or to move into the second storeys of their homes. Two streets were blocked by the water and were passable only in boats.

Near Winchester the Nation River rose five feet in 15 hours, swept over its banks and submerged thousands of acres of farm land, isolating the district and rendering roads impassable. At Winchester Springs ice jammed at a concrete highway bridge and officials said they would use dynamite to break it up if conditions became worse. Considerable property damage was reported and farmers in some places were using boats.

Ice Damages Bridge

In the western part of the province little damage was reported, although a bridge between Hespeler and Preston was damaged when heavy ice split the main abuttment. Some back yards and cellars were inundated at Preston.

Warm weather brought break-up of ice in Hamilton Bay where large stretches of open water appeared after a five-months freeze-up that formed ice reaching a record thickness of 30 inches.

Goderich reported rains had weakened the Lake Huron ice there, causing sailors to expect an earlier navigation opening than they had anticipated previously.

Lake navigators at Midland, Collingwood, Toronto and some other points started to join their ships, but at Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., no sign of a breakup appeared.

TIMBER WOLVES KILL MANY DEER

Packs Forced South by Hard Winter in Northern Woods Take Heavy Toll.

IN ONTARIO, MANITOBA.

WINNIPEG, April 3. — Great packs of timber wolves, driven out of the blizzard-swept sub-arctic bush lands during the past unusually severe winter, are taking heavy toll of deer over an extensive area from the head of the Great Lakes to the Saskatchewan border, according to reports received here from hunters.

Settlers in the section between Winnipeg and the Ontario border report one pair of timber wolves have killed almost one hundred deer in that district during the past winter and have outwitted every device of the most skilled hunters on their trail.

Innumerable instances have been reported where deer have been chased by wolf packs and pulled down. Pilot Jack Ashton of Canadian Airways states upon three separate occasions during the last week he saw the marauders make a kill, the deer falling on the ice exhausted, to be devoured by the wolves.

24 Years Late

ST. PAUL, April 3 (CP). — Corrections are O.K. sigh the editors of the St. Paul Pioneer Press—but this one was asked for 24 years after the item was published.

In the issue of Sunday, January 30, 1910, the paper published a despatch in which the name of Michael Spettel was mis-spelled.

And yesterday Miss Frances Spettel and Miss Gertrude Spettel, daughters of the man whose name was mis-spelled, dropped in at the office of the newspaper and asked that the error be corrected.

They had never requested a correction in the 24 years that have elapsed, they said, nor did their father, who has died since.

The daughters brought along a clipping of the paper for verification — "just in case," they said.

TURKEY SEVERS INSULL'S LAST HOPE OF ESCAPE

Refused Right to Appeal From Decision He Can Be Extradited to U. S.

FURTHER MOVES BARRED.

Weeping Fugitive is Held in Hospital Room of Istanbul House of Detention.

By PRISCILLA RING
(Associated Press Foreign Staff)

ISTANBUL, April 3.—(AP)— The last door to the possible escape of Samuel Insull from extradition to the United States was slammed shut today.

The white-haired fugitive was refused the right of appeal from the decision of the third penal tribunal upon which the Turkish cabinet's decision to extradite him was based.

Thus it was determined definitely that he must remain here until he is transferred to the custody of United States government agents.

M. Kena, public prosecutor, explained that the third tribunal's decision that he could legally be extradited constituted merely a statement of fact and was not a verdict. Hence, he said no appeal could be entertained.

Counsel Retained in Vain

The announcement was made amid an extraordinary mobilization of legal strength for a finish fight in Insull's behalf. Greek lawyers rushed here from Athens. Others were retained in Istanbul.

Despite the apparently insurmountable odds, they had prepared to battle to the last ditch against both the arrest of the weeping Chicagoan, held today in the hospital room of the House of Detention under what is called 'house arrest', and his actual extradition.

Turkey considers the Insull case closed. After authorities had said Insull would be denied the right of appeal, the court of cessation made it final by definitely ruling against any new move.

ONTARIO HOUSE CLOSES TO-DAY

Session Officially Ends After Dr. Herbert Bruce Gives Royal Assent to Bills.

MANY MEMBERS ABSENT.

TORONTO, April 3 (CP)—With booming of cannon and the clattering of hoofs, Lieutenant Governor Herbert A. Bruce will be escorted to the Parliament Buildings here to-day for the formal prorogation of the fifth and last session of the 18th Legislative Assembly of Ontario.

The session will officially end after Col. Bruce has given royal assent to a number of bills which have been passed by the House, including the bill which will provide Ontario with beer by the glass. However, this bill will not become effective until after the general election, which is expected to take place in June, and it will probably be early in July before the freer sale of the beverage is provided.

The closing will lack the spectacular features of the opening on Jan. 31. Many of the out of town members went home as soon as business was concluded on Thursday, and will not return for the ceremonies to-day. Toronto members will all be on hand, with a number of the Cabinet Ministers also present.

ICEBERG PATROL STARTS CRUISE

Service Opened After Titanic Disaster Combs North Atlantic Ship Lanes.

CONTINUES TILL JULY.

NEW YORK, April 3. (AP). The memory of the greatest sea tragedy of modern times, the sinking of the Titanic, crept again to-day into the minds of all men connected with the North Atlantic as the United States coast guard inaugurated the 1934 iceberg patrol.

Two other vessels, the Mendota and Pontchartrain, each with eight officers, a doctor and 75 men on board, received orders to stand by at Norfolk.

From New York went out a warning calculated, coast guard officials said, to give the skippers of all ships "a case of genuine jitters"—"watch for critical ice conditions."

For all seamen this message has the same meaning—the most dangerous time of the year on the North Atlantic has started.

Extra Watchmen

From now until July, extra watchmen will stand on the bows of trans-Atlantic liners day and night, sailors will test the temperature of the water, and constantly the captains of great vessels will keep in touch with the ships of the coastguard, patrolling the ice.

All vessels during the next three months will alter their courses 90 miles southward.

It was out of the Titanic disaster that the present ice patrol was started. The Titanic struck an iceberg 22 years ago this month. As she went down with her band playing "Nearer My God to Thee" she took the lives of 1,500 of her passengers ond crew.

"Icebergs," explained Captain W. H. Shea, commander of the New York division of the coast guard, "are formed by the breaking off of portions of glaciers on the coast of Greenland and these are carried by the Labrador current into the areas off the Grand Banks of Newfoundland.

N. York Aquarium Officials Tip-Toe About Suspecting Rare Penguin Has Laid An Egg

NEW YORK, April 3 (CP)—Play some slow, very slow music please. There is mystery at the New York Aquarium.

Margaret, believed to be the female of a pair of rare black-foot penguins, has been inside the wooden hutch improvised on stilts above her pool since Friday.

Olsen, her mate, keeps lonely night and day vigil outside the door.

In the way of a solution, C. W. Coates, Curator of Tropical Fish, has whispered to an expectant city his belief that the first penguin egg to be laid in the long-established aquarium has been laid. And hopes, if Olsen is really a male, there soon may be a little addition to this strange, staring family.

The curator is so pleased with the prospect of rearing a penguin that he will not disturb the parents to make certain if an egg is there.

"If they're just fooling around," said the philosophical Mr. Coates, "we'll let 'em. But it seems pretty certain there's an egg, maybe two, there. They haven't made any noise since we gave them the hutch."

Easter, Spring and eggs are closely allied in the mind of Mr. Coates and so, although he never has ministered to a mother penguin, he ordered the hutch built.

KIRWAN CLEARED STABBING CASE BY N. YORK JURY

Require Only 30 Minutes to Decide Fatal Thrust Was Accidental.

ON HIGH SEAS.

Only Witness Present Testifies He Did Not See Wound Inflicted.

NEW YORK, April 3 (AP).—Andrew Donaldson Kirwan, acquitted of murder on the high seas, will shortly be on those seas again, this time under the care of his mother, Jean Nash Dubonnet, who is taking the boy back to her French villa.

It took a Federal jury only 30 minutes to clear Kirwan yesterday. He had been charged with stabbing Gilliam Sessoms, middle-aged Government employee in an argument over religion aboard the liner President Garfield.

The 23-year-old boy took the verdict more calmly than his mother or grandparents, who crowded around embracing him when it was announced. Mme. Dubonnet, though obviously overjoyed at the not unexpected verdict, did not lose control of her emotions.

The only witness put on the stand by the defence was M. Dubonnet, noted wine merchant, who testified the hunting knife with which Sessoms' wound was inflicted was used by his son in fishing and to pare fruit. It was acknowledged the knife was in Kirwan's hands during the argument, but it was the defence's contention that the stabbing was accidental, and due to a sudden lurch of the ship. Both men had been drinking. The only witness testified that he did not see the wound inflicted.

M. Dubonnet explained that his step-son, who is partly paralyzed, was too clumsy to use an ordinary pocket knife.

DISCOVER COAL AKLAVIK AREA

Supply, However, Will Benefit Only Inhabitants of Tiny Arctic Settlement.

WOOD GOING FAST. --

AKLAVIK, N.W.T., April 3. — Discovery of reputed good quality coal in the barren outlying districts of Aklavik yesterday promised a boon to scattered residents of this little community, isolated on the outer edge of the Arctic rim.

Discovery of the vein, six feet deep and within a few miles of the settlement, would eliminate the difficult haul by scow of 20 miles from Fort Norman, and would bring a dependable supply of coal, described in quality as equal to the best lignite of Edmonton mines.

At present the main source of fuel is the rapidly thinning scrub bushlands along the winding shores of the river, and the shipments of coal from Fort Norman. The imported coal, however, is of soft quality and "powders" too easily to be used extensively. Cost of $25 per ton also is almost prohibitive for settlers, and even in institutions such as the Church of England mission and hospital crude oil is used extensively.

The settlement has a bountiful supply of crude oil, but the present refinery is only small, and there is not sufficient equipment to permit burning of oil in homes and smaller buildings. The bushlands, too, are disappearing, and even now settlers are forced to journey miles in search of small timber.

Old Prediction Made

Authorities here said discovery of coal in the district had come as a surprise, but they accepted it a confirmation of belief in the presence of coal epxressed by Alexander Mackenzie when writing of his explorations in 1789.

Such discovery, however, would benefit only 100 or more residents of Aklavik district, base for river and flying craft that operate between here and the outside world.

A Fresh Start?

CHICAGO, April 3 (CP)— Peter, the rabbit, accused of biting three children, is in clover, so to speak.

A stay in Peter's execution, by intercession of the Des Moines chapter of the National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Belgian Hares, brought joy to John Grimes, the chapter president.

He wired the Chicago Police, who had condemned Peter to death, offering to give the rabbit a good home. "If they will entrust the rabbit to me," he said, "it will be given a chance to start life anew, out where the West begins."

Maj. Shepard Facing Second Murder Trial

TOPIKA, Kas., April 3. (AP).— Maj. Charles A. Shepard, a native of Guelph, Ont., and retired United States officer, will be brought to trial a second time on charges of murdering his wife, in the April term of federal district court here.

S. M. Brewster, United States district attorney, made the announcement here last night.

Major Shepard was convicted in 1930 and sentenced to life imprisonment. The supreme court reversed the district court on the grounds the trial court had erred in admitting testimony of a nurse as to conversations she had with Major Shepard's wife at the time of her illness.

The Government charged Major Shepard poisoned his wife so he would be free to further a romance with Miss Grace Brandon, a clerk in the government service at Kelly Fields.

ENJOYABLE PANTOMINE PRESENTED BY CHILDREN

BETHESDA, April 3 (Examiner Correspondence).—The Sunset Mission Band held their annual Easter thankoffering meeting in the West School Thursday afternoon. The present, Roy Bickle, was in the chair. In the absence of Rev. Smith, Mrs. T. Philp gave a short talk to the children on the use made of their thankofferings. Mrs. A. Bell told an interesting Easter story and a very interesting and enjoyable pantomime was presented by the children under the direction of the leader, Miss R. Dawson. There was a large attendance and the offering amounted to $8.00.

MOTION TO FORCE SNOW REMOVAL FAILS TO CARRY

City Council Refuses to Adopt Compulsory Snow Removal System.

VOTE SEVEN TO THREE

Make for Less Street Accidents, Mayor Denne Claims.

Although they were discussing snow removal, members of the City Council waxed rather warm last evening when Alderman Max Sloan urged that a by-law be prepared to compel all residents to keep the street before their homes clear of snow throughout the winter.

In proposing his motion, Alderman Sloan delved back into history, but he got nowhere with his motion, the Council snowing it under by seven votes to three. But before this occurred there were some entertaining comments upon snow shovelling in general and local streets by most of the aldermen.

Alderman Sloan said that the first snow removal by-law here was passed in 1900 and covered the removal of snow in the business district only. Then in May, 1927 the Council passed a by-law making residents responsible under penalty for the removal of snow before their homes. "But for some unknown reason this by-law was repealed in December of 1927," he concluded.

Alderman Tuggey said he recalled the snow removal by-law. "Can anyone state why it was repealed?" he asked. "It was a good by-law I think and a step in the right direction."

Take Interest in City

Snow plows could be used early in the morning in case of a heavy fall of snow at night, explained Alderman Tuggey. "But if people would only get out and shovel the snow from the street in front of their homes it would be much better," he added. "It would give some the exercise they need. They should take an interest in the city and by shovelling the snow help to eliminate the damage actions against the city."

Seconding Alderman Sloan's motion, Alderman Cotton said he recalled that the 1927 by-law was repealed because it was considered that it would work a hardship on many citizens. He mentioned the difficulties widows would have in shovelling snow from the street.

Alderman Tuggey considered that any man who would not shovel the snow for a nearby widow woman was not of much account.

Alderman McIntyre did not consider that such a by-law could properly be applied throughout the city. He pointed out the amount of vacant property and stated that it would be a hardship to many property owners.

Alderman Hamilton — "And we would still have to use the snow plows."

Operating Successfully

Alderman Stocker also considered it would be a hardship on many. But Alderman Sloan pointed out that such a by-law was operating successfully in Toronto, Port Hope and other centres. The snowplows, he stated, only removed the surface snow. "And pedestrians are forced to walk through slush and water just because some people are too lazy to clear off the street," he declared.

Mayor Denne suggested that new snowplows could be secured that would clear a wider and cleaner path. Alderman Cotton said that the streets were covered in water in many places because boulevards and lawns were higher than the sidewalks and water drained onto the sidewalk.

Alderman Sloan stated that the city had just received a claim for damages in an accident which was caused primarily because snow in front of a church had not been shovelled away. "That's just a concrete case," he declared.

Alderman Ellis—"Well, over on Mark street the more you clean the sidewalk the more water runs onto them. It just makes a canal of the sidewalk."

Mayor Denne—"If we were going to raise the sidewalks it might be all right. But that would cost a mint of money."

Alderman Sloan urged that at least the district outlined for snow removal in the 1900 by-law be increased. Mayor Denne said any man in business would keep the street in front of his store or shop clear of snow.

Alderman Tuggey—"If you're not going to make everybody shovel off the snow, then at least pass a by-law to have everyone leave the snow on the streets. Then at least the streets would be uniform."

Alderman Sloan's motion was put to a vote. He, Alderman Cotton and Tuggey only voted for it.

N.Y. Teachers Lashed

DR. EMIL ALTMAN

Educational authorities of New York City have been stirred by the charges of Dr. Emil Altman (above), chief medical examiner of New York City's school system, that 1,500 of the 36,000 school teachers in the metropolis are emotionally unbalanced or completely insane. Dr. Altman asserts that he has records to indicate that 700 are abnormal, and that a survey would show 800 others in the same category.

LINDSAY OFFICES NOT YET FILLED

OUT OF LICENSE FORMS

LINDSAY, April 3. (Examiner Correspondence).—Mr. Mortimore, plant wire chief for the local branch of the Bell Telephone Company, reports that business is on the upward trend. For a time the branch suffered a number of discontinuances in phone users but the number of users is now gradually increasing. Tolls and revenue in general is perceptibly increased of late.

Scores of citizens, especially those living in the east ward and in the northern part of the north ward, have complained of late regarding interference and static on their radio sets. It is understood that the Hydro Electric system is coming in for considerable blame. It is also understood that complaints have gone forward to the Radio Department at Ottawa.

No License Forms

March 31st was the last day for the securing of new auto licenses, but many cars appeared on the main thoroughfares of Lindsay today still bearing the yellow and black markers of 1933 and not a one has been summoned to police court. For the reason that some have been unable to secure their licenses because the local vendor of auto licenses, D. J. McLean ran out of forms. The rush Saturday was so great that many autoists could not be accommodated although the vendor had extra help.

Chief of Police Lawler has also been busy granting autoists extensions. On Saturday morning the Chief was called out of bed by one lady who sought permission to use her old license. "If the people cannot get their markers, how can I prosecute" said the Chief.

A resident of Verulam Township appeared before the cadi Monday and was charged with destroying muskrat houses. The allegation and alibi that some trappers had been destroying houses on his preserves did not work and the young man was fined $10 and costs. The case was laid by Game Warden Redge Windsor.

Several Vacancies

With the possibility of a provincial election in the not too distant future, politicians and citizens in general are surmising as to who will be fortunate enough to be appointed to fill the following vacancies in Lindsay: Clerk of the County Court, Clerk of the Supreme Court, Clerk of the Surrogate Court and Sheriff of the County of Victoria. The first three mentioned are in the one office. The office has been vacant for over three years. The position of Sheriff has also been vacant for many months. Many names are heard in connection with the vacancies and it is understood that they will be filled in the very near future.

At the present time Mr. S. P. Beal is acting as Clerk of the Surrogate, Supreme and County Courts with Miss Southeran who has been in the office for a great number of years.

Mr. Herb. McFadden is acting Sheriff since the death of the late R. J. Patterson.

Secured Another Home

Lindsay Relief Association or Welfare Board has never dabbled in the payment of rentals, although the way is open to do so, if such a policy happened to be deemed wise. The first case of eviction of a tenant on relief, was narrowly averted on the last day of the month of March. The tenant had not paid a cent of rent in four months and acting for his client a local barrister ordered the family to leave the premises (a house on King street). The tenant refused and the barrister claimed that the town had a right to pay rents. However, at the last minute and before the officials stepped in to make an eviction, some friends came to the rescue of the tenant and he moved out and took up residence in another house for which he paid a month's rent in advance. The owner of the house vacated is still out the rent.

Many friends of the family and of the deceased, the late W. Lester Lytle, attended the funeral which took place here Friday last. The deceased, who died suddenly at Oshawa, where he was employed with the Pedlar People, was born in Lindsay, being a son of the late William Lytle who for many years was associated with the old Grand Trunk Railway in Lindsay. Lester Lytle was educated in Lindsay and after leaving school took up the jewelry trade with Arthur Welsman and later with A. I. Felt in Lindsay. In 1915 he responded to the call for volunteers and enlisted in the Great War, being associated with such well known Lindsay veterans as Charles Sutcliffe, George Crawford, Art. Pym W. S. Page, Walter Scott, Jos. Bailey, Geoffrey Edwards and others. He was connected with the 77th Battalion of Ottawa. On his return from overseas at the expiration of war the late Lester Lytle secured a position at Oshawa, where he resided until the time of his death. The funeral service on Friday was conducted by Rev. C. H. Marsh, D.D., of St. Paul's Anglican Church. The late Mr. Lytle is survived by one sister, Miss Emily Lytle of Oshawa. Another sister, the late Miss Irene Lytle, died while in training for a nurse in Lindsay some years ago. The late Lester Lyle was a young gentleman, highly respected by fellow employees and by the friends who knew him so well.

PICTURES SHOWN BY REV. DR. ROLLS

An unusual treat was afforded a large gathering in George Street United Church last evening as Rev. Dr. Charles Rolls of New Zealand conducted the first of the scheduled three-week series of co-operative spiritual meetings. Illustrating with lantern slides of surpassing excellence, he presented a travelogue entitled "The Natural Beauties of Palestine."

The majority of the slides shown were made from photographs taken by Dr. Rolls in Palestine and coloured by himself. They indicated an exceptional talen for the "camera art" and a remarkable appreciation of beauty on the part of the speaker. Outstanding from both the standpoint of photography and colouring were a number depicting the natural flowers of the country.

Congregations of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church and Murray Street Baptist Church as well as that of George Street Church were represented at the meeting. Several hymns were sung and Rev. Dr. Barr of St. Paul's Church led in prayer.

BY-LAW REPEALED BY CITY COUNCIL

Order on Court of Revision Not Constitutional, Appeal Court Ruled.

A by-law passed two years ago directing the Court of Revision not to allow petitions for the remission of taxes on unoccupied property was repealed last night by the City Council.

City Solicitor J. R. Corkery explained that Toronto had passed a similar by-law as that of Peterborough at the same time, but a year ago the by-law was tested in court and it was held by the Appeal Court that the corporation was exceeding its rights in directing the Court of Revision not to remit such taxes. "It was held that the Court of Revision has the power to deal with such cases as it sees fit," he explained.

The firm of Gordon and Elliott had directed the city's attention to the ruling on the by-law. The repeal by-law was carried unanimously.

Another by-law was passed increasing the remuneration for members of the City Trust to $100 annually and for the chairman $350 annually. It was explained that this increase was passed by the Council three years ago, but through some inadvertence the by-law was never properly carried.

Alderman Sloan was appointed to the Nicholls Hospital Board to replace ex-Alderman J. A. McNabb, who resigned.

These conditions not only make life miserable, but they sap vitality, undermine health and frequently lead to most painful operations.

In an effort to swiftly relieve even the most obstinate and distressing of these conditions, there is offered the prescription of a well-known physician, successful in private practice for over 40 years. This private treatment is known as "Uratabs," and any druggist can supply. All who need such a medicine are invited to try "Uratabs" on a guarantee of satisfaction or money back on the first box purchased.

500-CAR PULPWOOD SHIPMENT

STURGEON FALLS, Ont., Apr. 3—(CP)—Instructions have been issued for the shipments of 500 cars, approximately 7,500 cords of pulpwood from the huge stack at the Sturgeon Falls plant of the Abitibi Power and Paper Company to the Port Arthur mill.

A shipment of 1,000 cords presumably for experimental purposes, was recently started to the Sault Ste. Marie mill. It is estimated the quantity stacked here since the Sturgeon Falls mill closed down some years ago approximates 60,000 cords.

All Advertising Audiences Come From the Newspaper Family

Because whatever else people may see or hear, they all have the daily newspaper reading habit.

EVERY advertiser talks to newspaper readers no matter what method of advertising he employs.

He may use letters or circulars to address his prospective customers.

He may employ advertising signs to catch the eye of those who walk or ride past.

He may broadcast a message to those who listen to the radio.

He may make his appeal through the columns of popular magazines.

But in every case, his advertising goes to habitual newspaper readers -- to people who read the papers today and will read them again tomorrow.

Therefore, newspaper advertisers enjoy the unique advantage of reaching all who are reached by any advertising and many more whom only newspapers reach.

This obvious reason for the continued success of newspaper advertising should receive the thoughtful consideration of every merchant and manufacturer. Business is improving -- particularly for those willing to look for it.

Newspaper advertising gets to everybody every day -- and gets there FIRST.

MR. CHARLESWORTH EXPLAINS.

A short time ago The Examiner criticized a statement said to have been made by Hector Charlesworth, chairman of the Canadian Radio Commission, to the effect that 80 per cent. of the people of Canada did not see a daily newspaper.

In view of the fact that Mr. Charlesworth is a life-long newspaper man, we were at a loss to understand why he should give utterance to something that was patiently untrue.

The mystery has been cleared up by the head of the Radio Commission, and in a manner that we hasten to commend to other public men, most of whom fall back on the old alibi that they have been misquoted by the newspapers.

Mr. Charlesworth, it will be noted, makes no such claim.

He does not say he was misquoted, but rather that he said something that he did not mean to say.

"Apparently that was what I said," he comments, "but it was certainly not what I intended to say."

And what the radio chief really wanted to tell the committee before which he was giving evidence was that 80 per cent. of the people did not see an afternoon newspaper until after the evening radio news broadcast.

That, of course, is probably correct; certainly it was a widely different statement from the one actually made by Mr. Charlesworth and given wide publicity throughout the country.

The air is now cleared; and the newspapers will appreciate the fact that the central figure in the incident blames his own careless speaking rather than inaccurate reporting for the erroneous statement that was circulated.

JUST PLAIN "CHISELLING."

If the report of the Auditor-General for the Dominion in regard to relief administration means anything at all, it means that municipalities all over the country have been guilty of "chiselling" in dealing with the Government in the administration of relief.

Irregularities are reported from all the provinces ,instances of municipalities with no vouchers to support their claims, in some cases, according to the Auditor-General, of "systematic manipulation of records by municipal officers in collusion with merchants and laborers" for the purpose of extracting from Provincial and Federal Governments more money than was actually spent on relief.

The whole document should cause Canadians to blush.

Instead of square-dealing there has been evidenced a desire on the part of many municipal governments to save their own citizens by loading upon the Governments everything they could get away with in the matter of relief expenditures.

"Soak the Governments," has evidently been a popular slogan in many quarters, and some of the transactions reported will make a good many Canadians wonder at the line of reasoning followed by municipal authorities in adopting a course that, to put it plainly, has been dishonest and discreditable.

And the folly of it all, of course, is that in robbing the Provincial and Federal Governments the erring municipalities have been in effect robbing themselves.

The Governments do not get their revenue out of the clouds; it comes from the Canadian people, and loading up the province and the Dominion with relief expenditures does not mean that the bills do not have to be paid one way or another by the citizens of this country.

CONSERVING WILD LIFE.

The address of Game Warden Fred. Marshall to the Rotary Club yesterday contained food for thought on the part of the general public.

The conservation of wild life in this district is essential if we are to continue to enjoy the tourist revenue that means so much to all our people, and toward this end it is the plain duty of the whole community to strive unceasingly.

Mr. Marshall has pointed out three practical ways in which the average citizen can effetcively contribute toward the preservation of our reserves of fish and game.

In the first place, adherence to the letter and spirit of the law is called for, and at the same time there is much that can be done by moral suasion to educate the public generally that it is not only good citizenship and good sportsmanship but also good business to obey the regulations.

Secondly—and this is a most important and practical suggestion—good citizens will not encourage law-breaking by buying illegally caught fish and game.

It is an open secret that there is a considerable traffic in these commodities in Peterborough, a condition that is only possible because citizens who should know better continue to provide a market for fish and game.

A general refusal on the part of the public to buy these things would be a body blow to the traffic and an important step toward fish and game conservation.

In the third place, the local Fish and Game Association, which has done much to conserve wild life in this district, should have the active co-operation of hundreds of members. The activities of the organization are distinctly along the right line and should be supported by citizens generally.

SHOULD BE CHANGED.

The confusion and congestion attendant upon a last minute rush for new automobile licenses throw a sharp light upon the unbusinesslike manner in which the sale of these markers is handled every year.

The carrying of new licenses should be made obligatory from January 1. The Examiner submits, and the markers should be on sale at least as early as mid-November in order to prevent a last minute rush.

Once let the public understand that to drive a car with old markers after the end of each year would mean a police court appearance and a fine, there would be no more difficulty experienced than there is in the United States where the states' authorities insist upon new licenses being purchased before the new year.

This extension of time only serves to convince motorists that there is no particular hurry about buying markers, and paves a way to the situation that exists at the present time with the issuing office swamped with car-owners and a varying policy being followed in the matter of law enforcement.

In some centres the municipal police are making no effort to deal with motorists who are using old license plates; in others the civic authorities are rounding up every offender.

Provincial traffic officers, of course, are stopping the drivers who are using last year's licenses—but apart from their activities there is no uniformity to the thing.

And as might have been foreseen, many of the people who crowded the license office at the last moment were those whose financial position should have enabled them to have done their marker shopping early.

$25,000 TO KILL A MAN.

Always there are those who have a bent toward statistics; they must know the cost of this and that and are never satisfied until they reduce everything to the last decimal point.

One such has been working on figures of men and dollars as they are available from records of the last war. The conclusion is that it cost the nations engaged in that war $25,000 to kill a man.

It is known that in many of the large cities of United States where there are gunmen aplenty a killing can be done for something in the neighborhood of $100.

But war is different; it is a more complicated thing. It is necessary to take men great distances, to feed and clothe them, and also to pay them. It is also necessary to waste a great many shots before one takes effect. It is also necessary that people who make large profits out of manufacturing munitions shall be well recompensed in the process.

Stripped of all its glory that is what war is for—killing men. The introduction of bombing and the use of poison gas mean that it also includes killing women and children.

But the killing of women and children is not included in the estimate of $25,000. Only men are counted.

War means keeping up the supply of men in the army. The country which has so many men killed or disabled that it can no longer bring into action as many as the opposing army loses the war. Exhaustion of man power is the chief factor in determining the outcome of war.

That is what the last war did. It killed men at a cost of $25.000 each.—Exchange.

SHOULD TURN U.S. EXPERIENCE TO ACCOUNT.

Canada is steadily moving towards greater government control of business and industry whether one likes to think so or not. In fact, we are not so far removed from the NRA right now, in spite of vigorous statements that Canada would never follow the lead of the United States. The latest move along this line is the Natural Products Marketing Act, introduced by Honorable Robert Weir. The act, according to press notices, claims to raise prices and to keep profits in check, while at the same time it will aid the producer by giving him a higher price for his product and protect the consumer by preventing him being charged too much.

This, however, is believed to be but the forerunner of other and more drastic legislation designed to regulate the business of the country. Merchandising methods will, it is stated, be made the subject of regulation, while already codes have been spoken of as something bound to come in certain industries.

It is a question just how much of this procedure is likely to bring about the desired results. The NRA undoubtedly saved the United States from serious troubles last year, but then conditions in this country never were at such a dangerous stage as they were across the line. For one thing our banking situation was altogether different.

Then, too, not all the experiments in the United States have proven successful. For instance, the federal marketing bill can be compared to fairly similar movements inaugurated at Washington which have not always attained the desired result.

If, however, we are to embark on a policy of extended government control in trade and industry the logical course is for those in authority to study United States conditions closely and to find out just what points of the NRA and other efforts have been satisfactory and what features unsatisfactory.

There is no use us setting out to steer our own course without profiting by the mistakes that Roosevelt has made and taking advantage of the points in which he has been successful. It would be a false dignity in any case which would induce us to disregard the experiences of others.—Monetary Times.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENT.

The robins are back in numbers, so that there is at last some reason to think that old man Winter has finally been routed.

Great Britain is able to report a very substantial surplus. The Mother Country always seems to have the faculty of "muddling through."

Higher wages for road camp workers are being condemned as a bribe. We have a suspicion, however, that the men in the camp don't care what the extra amount is called so long as they receive it in their pay envelopes.

Mr. Hepburn has made a number of speeches in Ontario since the beer bill was brought down, but apparently has not mentioned the subject. He surely does not expect to go through the campaign without clarifying the position of his party and himself on that issue.

February employment records show that 12,000 more Canadians were at work at the end of that month than at the beginning. A continuance of such gains would soon naturally reduce the relief lists.

It must always be distressing to the young dramatist trying to decide whether to write a good play or a successful one.—Toronto Saturday Night.

CHAPTER 28

Tiggie relapsed into silence, Harvey still watching him through slanting, speculative eyes. That decision of his had as it were become revealed to him before he had left Viola's presence, but he felt that it had existed ever since his interview with Grierson, perhaps earlier than that. It did not matter to him what they said—Grierson or Harvey or anyone; it was all of no importance. He did not even ask himself if it could be true, this idle talk of the past. It seemed to him futile and unnecessary, like the unearthing of dry bones. So far as he was concerned, it was utterly false, but he had neither the time nor the means to refute it. The point at issue now was how to save her, and he was concentrated—soul and body—upon that alone. The sight of her white, starved face and eyes of mute, unquestioning despair had moved him to an excess of energy and impulse almost unknown to him. She had left his raft—he saw it clearly—lest she should sink it. And now she was sinking herself in deep waters. He saw her as it were, borne by a current there was no withstanding, now sucked under, now flung again to the surface, battered and broken, overwhelmed in the stormy seas of life, sinking lower with each engulfing wave.

Long ago he had told himself with uneasy insistence that it was no business of his. But now—strangely vitalized and fortified by that new power in comparison with which his former strength was as that of a pigmy—he was ready to establish and defend his right to deliver her against all the world. Her low-spoken entreaties were even now in his ears, entreaties that he had swept aside almost without effort, but which he would never forget. She had begged him to leave her, knowing that if he did so she would sink, knowing that even now she was sinking, even now his helping hand might not be in time. Her wan, pinched face hung perpetually before him. He knew—in his heart he knew beyond all question—that she had given up all hope for herself, that it was only for the sake of that other life that lay in the future that she had turned to this impossible haven. Again her words came back to him: "There's nowhere to run to—but the river." She had not turned that way, possibly because of that other life of which now she must be conscious; but he saw no future for herself. Of that he was certain. It was for him to make a future for her—to build a wall about and guard it—a wall that should keep out the very sea itself.

Harvey's voice broke through his meditations. "And what do we do next?" it said.

Tiggie looked at him with the eyes of a dreamer suddenly awakened.

"Yes, I'll do that," he said deeply. And then, "Sorry, old chap! What? Oh, I'm going to pay. You can go and get a taxi! We're going back to town."

"You're spending a fortune to-day," observed Harvey with a grin. "Wouldn't it be wiser to———"

Tiggie waved him away. "No, it wouldn't. Time's short. Besides, I haven't spent anything for the past six weeks.

He did not know quite why he desired thus to justify his actions in Harvey's estimation, but he did not want the fellow to think he was as mad as he was himself. And it was true that there was no time to be lost. That white, drawn face, the misty, pain-haunted eyes—that look of sinking, sinking, sinking in deep waters! He had been a fool to stay away so long. Why had he not sought her sooner? He swore to himself as he waited for his bill that he would never be that sort of fool again. Just as he would never stop to take off his boots before plunging to save a drowning creature, so now he would wait for nothing. Time was everything. Time was life.

"Are you going to help me?" he said to Harvey when they joined each other outside again.

Harvey grinned rakishly. "Drive on, my Quixote!" he said. "I am yours to the death—and enjoying it."

Another might have taken exception to the levity of his reply, but Tiggie did not even notice it. He knew that Harvey would cloak his last moment with a jest if he possessed the strength. He also knew that Harvey's jests often held more meaning than the serious words of saner men, and respected them accordingly. He sensed in him a sympathy which was wholly without expression, and he was grateful for it.

No ordinary considerations weighed with him now. Simply in face of her need he was offering all that he had, and if later this should involve still greater sacrifice he would offer that too—even to life itself. For thus was Tiggie fashioned, after the old, grand immortal lines, often since defaced and marred, but which still in some are yet traceable—the unmistakable and indelible stamp which originally was cast in the Image of God.

A long bright evening succeeded that dazzling day. The silver trunks of the birches on the heath flushed to a soft pink as the sun went down, and a scent that was scarcely a breeze stole whispering through their branches where the buds were fast opening. The sound of the distant traffic grew remote, and the reek of petrol fumes became intermittent. The birds' hour came with the sinking sun and the trees were filled with song. The bells of a church not far away were also chiming, casting as it were a veil of peace over the strife and hurry of the world. A few dogs scampered about and barked in the welcome coolness, but there was no actively discordant note anywhere. As the sun disappeared and the pale rose of the sky deepened, a new moon became visible far away in the west, sinking with the dying day. It was long before the light began to fade. The diffusion of it seemed for a time to make it stronger.

Tiggie, walking up and down under the overhanging limes by the gate in the fence which he made the meeting place, was inclined to resent that lingering light. Not that he was in any way ashamed of his action, but he wanted the way to be as smooth as possible for her who had already traversed so rough a course. He would make everything smooth for her when she came to him, but until she came he could do nothing but wait in grim uneasy patience. He had left the taxi three or four hundred yards away at the bottom of the side road, waiting round the corner; for it was much lighter than he had anticipated, and there was no need to make it conspicuous. Besides, he preferred to wait for her in solitude.

He knew that what he was doing would have been described by most as an action of sheer, freakish eccentricity, but—like Harvey when in the grip of his genius—he was not his own master, and he had ceased to stand apart and wonder at himself. Possibly he was influenced by a certain reaction, and the shock he had received that morning had but served to set him the more stubbornly in his course. But he no longer questioned with himself as to the truth or falseness of the cold-blooded statement made by the man Grierson. In some fashion it had been too briefly and brutally uttered to convince him. And Viola's own piteous distress had not convinced him either. He did not know all; possibly he did not know anything beyond the one irrefutable fact that she was in dire need of his help. Beyond that now he did not seek to know. With the plain, almost childlike, directness of his nature he was ready to go forward upon the very slender knowledge he possessed, basing his whole procedure upon his own unsupported convictions regarding her. Instinct was his only safeguard. He had trusted to it before, and so far as he could remember he had never regretted it. So he walked up and down in the fading light waiting for her with that stubborn patience which was his British heritage.

A Thought

IN CONCLUSION

"It is a wonderful thing to have somebody believe in you. This is the one great benefit of love. Love idealizes its object. It exaggerates little tendencies into great virtue, possibilities into genius. Love is action and reaction. Where much is expected from an individual, he may rise to the level of events and make the dream come true."

THEY FOUND GOLD

TWO YOUNG men who couldn't get a job and wouldn't beg, went into the California woods to look for gold.

They knew nothing about gold hunting, but they were young, strong and energetic, in love with life, not infected by any doubts of its value, and they intended to have a good time wherever they were and whatever they were doing. One was a West Point graduate who hadn't been commissioned, the other was a German boy from Saxony who was doing his bes to get along in a strange country.

They didn't find much gold. Just about enough for beans, one of them told me. They dug, they ditched, they panned, they sweated, they toiled and they found just about enough gold to buy food at the country stores....But they did have that good time they had promised themselves....And when winter came, they did not retreat to the city. They were in a national forest and they decided to stay where they were, in the woods, in the deep-piled snow.

They built themself a house, with a hammer, an ax, an adz and nails. Cut down trees, erected a frame, covered it with slabs, split one tree into shakes for the roof, split other trees and make a wood floor, carried rocks to the site, found yellow clay and made a fireplace. They found a generator in an abandoned automobile, built a waterwheel in a creek, and had electric lights in their house....For food they had beans, home made bread, flapjacks and hardly any vegetables or fruit. And they did have plenty of meat. They shot deer and trapped bear, and salted the meat down for winter use. Thus they lived the winter through, so far from "civilization" that it was a two-day trip into town for mail.

When spring came the West Point graduate went back home to locate a job, the Saxon youth came back to town again with only a few nuggets in his pocket.

But I think those two did find plenty of gold. They learned what a man CAN do when he must. They learned how much they knew, how much they could stand. Out of that winter in that cabin in the hills, out of that rugged experience, they took the stuff of their own but half-discovered natures and from it forced their own eternal characters. They made themselves forever independent of the little nagging needs and necessities of other men....They will be forever able, now, to stand alone.

A DAY IN CANADIAN HISTORY

By Fred Williams

THE TORIES ALL STAYED AWAY

On this date, in 1834, the newly elected city council of Toronto went to government house by appointment to pay their respects to the lieutenant-governor — that is the majority did, but the Tory members stayed away, hoping thereby to embarrass William Lyon Mackenzie, but in reality committing an act of gross discourtesy to the king's representative.

Mayor Mackenzie had written to Sir John Colborne proposing to pay the respects of the mayor alone: the governor replied that he would receive "the mayor and council." All members of council were notified by letter, but when the hour came not a single Tory member of the corporation was on hand.

A journal of the time said: "William Lyon Mackenzie, attended by the Liberal members of the corporation only, waited on his excellency to pay their respects and evince their devotion and attachment to our most gracious sovereign. Having arrived at the Government House, his worship and the members of the corporation by whom he was attended, were ushered into the viceregal presence and were received, not in the friendly feeling which the circumstances of the case seemed to require or which ordinary prudence might have suggested to the head of our executive, but, on the contrary, with cold and stiff formality.

"His excellency bowed and the lord mayor bowed and his excellency said in substance that he would feel happy in co-operating with the corporation in every useful measure they may introduce, and his worship thanked his excellency and then the worshipful gentlemen were 2bowed out. The whole affair did not occupy more than two or three minutes."

The explanation of the Tories was that they refused "to walk with that factious demagogue or be seen by his excellency in the company of vulgar radicals." Needless to say the incident was made the most of by Mackenzie and his followers in their trouble-creating campaign in the next three years. In later years the Tory leader of the minority in council admitted that the boycott of the governor had been a mistake.

NAZI PLAGUE SPOTS IN EUROPE

Welt Deinst Published in Three Languages.

ZECHO-SLOVAKIA

This newspaper is published in Berlin. It is a thorough-going Nazi publication. It is propagandist. It is distributed secretly. In this is its menace.. The distributor is a seed sower. He gives himself with the publication. All the contacts of The Welt Deinst are personal. Converts are added daily. Three languages have been invaded successfully. The Zecho-Slovakian reads the Nazi literature in his own language. If he cannot read, he listens to the propagandist.

Wherever The Welt Deinst goes it calls the Aryans to form a united front. The attempt is being made to reach every considerable group of Aryans throughout the world. The Iron Guard of Roumania, the Rozwoj of Poland, the National Association of Greece, the Awakening Magyars of Hungary, the Lappos of Finland, and the pro-Nazi organizations in Switzerland, in Latvia, and in Lithuania have been invited to a place on a united front.

Zecho-Slovakia is likely to be engulfed. For it juts more than half its distance into the German-Austrian frontier like a sandbar into an angry sea. Zecho-Slovakia gives promise of being nothing more than putty in the hands of persistent Nazi missionaries. We all meet people in our lives who do not give the them for a few minutes is sufficient impression of strength. To meet to make the discovery. Zecho-Slovakia since the Great War has not made upon the world an impression of race strength, neither in citizenship nor in government. Laxity is her weak characteristic.

Socialism is not as difficult a nut to crack as Naziism. In dealing with National Socialism she has failed miserably. These lines open the chapter.

ROMANIA

Romania for centuries has not known a settled peace. Constant disturbance puts a nation as well as an individual on edge. The Nazis have taken advantage. In Romania the Nazi doctrine of government has taken deeper root than anywhere else in the Balkans. One man stood out stoutly against their inroads. When he could not be intimidate d nor cajolled they murdered him. Premier Ion G. Duca was a courageous and far-seeing statesman. Such a man cannot be murdered without a mighty reaction.

The Volkischer Beobachter is Hitlers' mouthpiece. It is Nazi to the core. References made by this newspaper to the assassination of Duca lead to the suspicion, almost positive, that it was the inspiration of the deed. Boastfully it says: The event was intended as a signal to the Jews and to the French who are manipulating to prevent Romania from coming into close contact with modern Germany.

Zelea Cordreanu, the leader of the Iron Guard, suspected of complicity fled to Germany. News of his coming had reached Germany. The Nazis planned a reception. The welcome was most cordial. Whether Cordreanu was received at Court by Hitler is not known. The probability is that he was. Tartescue, another Nazi at work in Romania, had to flee for his life. If he had fallen into the hands of Duca, the consequences would have been serious. Tartescue had studied the Romanian field and brought a fund of information valuable in mapping out a policy to pursue in seeding Romania with discontent.

Nazi policy in Romania and in some other countres is exactly in line with that of the Fascist. One weakness of the Nazi forces in this nation, is division through jealousies. Of this, more later.

GREECE

Strange that the land of Homer, and Plato, and Aristotle, and Sophocles and Phidias should become a hotbed of modern Nazi philosophy. These men thought towards truth. The Nazi thinks away from wisdom and truth. The history of no nation is an unbroken evolution. Evolution leaves behind much of the lower, but never seems to leave it all. After long time has passed, and evolution has proceeded far, comes the surprise of overmuch of the lower rising to the surface in the social life, and in the political realm, and in philosophy. Thus it is in the land of Homer. In ancient Greece there were schools of philosophy. The light was sought. Today in this same, almost holy land, leaders are plunging the people into darkness. The Nazi goes from darkness to deeper night. The blind follow, not knowing where.

The E.E.E. is held responsible for the great fire in the Jewish quarters a few years ago, in the city of Salonika. Ten thousand persons being to this Nazi organization. They are storm troopers. Brown shirts and steel helmets are worn. The badge is the Swastika. Swastika is pagan. To anger Jews the Nazi decorate the outside walls of the synagogues with this offensive emblem.

The Nazi publish a newspaper, The Makedonia, in Salonika. It is a Jew-baiting sheet. Until last year the E.E.E. was just a social organization. Government action was feared. Traitorous statements had been made in The Makedonia. The source was known. To avoid government action the E.E.E. was organized into a political party. This in Greece gives immunity. M. Fardis is the editor of the new Makedonia, and of the party.

School Principal Addresses Meeting

Women's Institute Members Meet at Home of Mrs. C. N. Whytock.

MADOC, April 3 (Examiner Correspondence) — On Friday last the Women's Institute held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. C. N. Whytock, with an attendance of nearly 20. After singing of the Institute Ode and regular business, Mr. Anderson, principal of the Madoc High School, spoke very earnestly on "War." Miss Urich, of the High School staff gave an interesting talk on "Art" and was very much enjoyed. A splendid report was given by Mrs. R. J. Burnside on the Demonstration Lecture Class held during February.

The hostess served dainty refreshments and this was followed by a social hour.

Good Friday Services

Owing to the illness of the rector, Rev. W. G. Hope Swayne, the Good Friday services of St. John's Anglican Church, Madoc, which were to have been from 12 to 3 p.m. were cancelled.

In St. Peter's Presbyterian Church the cantata, "From Cross to Crown" was rendered by a full choir, and with a good attendance. The minister, Rev. J. Hunter, took "The Seven Words" as the subject of his discourse, explaining them and giving to each a personal application. Mr. George Maybee, A.T.C.M. presided at the organ and the cantata was well rendered, the music very impressive and the solo parts were taken by Mr. Crawford, Miss Vandervoort and Mr. Bedford.

Trinity United Church had an evening service and rendered the cantata "The First Easter" with a full choir. The Easter Sunday morning service included the quarterly communion service and was well attended.

At Sacred Heart Church the early morning service was well attended and also the one at eleven o'clock. Rev. Father Meagher officiating.

At St. John's Church (Anglican) the nine o'clock service was a celebration of Holy Communion with Easter theme and hymns. The anthem "Welcome Happy Morning" was sung. The altar was decorated with flowers donated by friends in memory of their departed loved ones.

ADVERTISE IN THE EXAMINER

TRUSTEE BOARD IS OPPOSED AMALGAMATION OF RAILWAYS

Against Anything in Way of Unification Involving Taking Over of Canadian National Railways By Its Competitor—Fears for Employment.

MONTREAL, April 3 (CP)—The board of trustees, set up under the Canadian National-Canadian Pacific Act following the report of a Royal Commission, is opposed to "anything in the way of amalgamation or unification involving the taking over of the Canadian National Railways by its competitor," C. P. Fullerton, K.C., chairman of the trustees, writes in the Canadian National Railways magazine distributed yesterday.

The chairman expressed the opinion continued economies of operation are "as possible under a policy of co-operation as under a policy of amalgamation," and intimated some form of management under a single administration is not impossible in the future.

It would be a mistake, he said, to disagree with the importance of the plan of single administration management put forth by its proponents. "Many of the arguments are forceful and appealing," the chairman wrote, "and even if, when emanating from interested quarters, they are not characterized by any noticeable degree of modesty, they are not to be lightly dismissed."

"There is this to be said," Mr. Fullerton's article stated, "that unless the position of all railways in Canada materially improves within the next few years many experiments, presently unpalatable and present unacceptable, may have to be tried."

Fears For Employment

The chairman's article intimated fears of employees of wholesale dismissals because of "propaganda looking to the amalgamation of the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific Railways" should be allayed. He said conditions of railroad service "should be made attractive to the best of our young men, and this can be done only by the railroads offering at least as much security of employment as do other professions and occupations."

"The propaganda," he said, "is based on the bland assumption that where an enterprise which has been taken over by the expenditure of public money and an enterprise which is still under private ownership find themselves as a result, among other things, of depressed business conditions, conducting their operations on an unprofitable basis, the publicly owned enterprise should be made virtually to surrender its existence as a separate entity, and leave the garnering of whatever harvest is presently available, and its equity in future prosperity, to its privately-owned competitor. The underlying idea apparently is that the money of a shareholder has a sacred quality denied to that of a mere taxpayer."

Reduce Operating Expenses

Mr. Fullerton said the C.N.R. has already greatly reduced its operating expenses, "total disbursements on that account in 1933 being $113,-0000,000 under the 1928 figures." In 1933, he said, the gross earnings of the two railway systems amounted only to $262,789,430. "When it is remembered," he added, "that the operating revenues of both railways were under $263,000,000, it can be readily understood that the saving of such a further sum as is suggested in some quarters is quite impossible."

The "alleged evils of political influences," the article said, can work great harm, but "to-day the Canadian National Railways are just as free from having to consider matters from a political angle as is any railway in Canada, and it is the intention of myself and my fellow-trustees that this shall remain so."

To avoid necessity of trying any experiments in management in the future, Mr. Fullerton appealed to all employees to give their best. The trustees, he said, "can do their part to ensure that no political interference, no foolish or insane policies, and no extravagance will interfere in the management of the railway," but said the railway's success depends upon the efforts put forth "by the men who are in charge of the actual enterprise."

INDUSTRIALS ARE UNSTEADY TO-DAY

Trading Held Down to Moderate Volume Following Easter Holidays.

TORONTO, April 3. (CP)—Trading held down to moderate volume on the industrial section of the Toronto Stock Exchange to-day following the Easter holidays and prices were generally unsteady, the majority of recessions however being limited to small fractions. Oils were active but the group had more losses than gains at the close. Bank, steel, food and brewery shares all dropped back lightly.

On the whole the market was a drab affair with the tone following closely the New York unsteadiness. Of the interlisted shares Brazilian, Walkers, Common, Industrial Alcohol and International Pete held small gains and C.P.R., Nickel and Ford sagged lightly.

law in this Province will be overcome.

"Although the United States Senate has failed to ratify the proposed seaway treaty and thereby deferred the development of the water powers of the St. Lawrence River, my Ministers regard this action merely as a postponement of an inevitable undertaking."

Beer and Wine.

"Increased authority and responsibility have been conferred upon the Liquor Control Board by the legislation for the regulation of the sale and consumption of beer and wines. It is the hope of my Ministers that under wise and careful administration the amendments made will bring a wider degree of public support to the enforcement of the Liquor Control law, reduce the consumption of liquor of a high alcoholic content and prove beneficial in the cause of true temperance.

He continued: "Although the labor situation is improving, it is necessary that unemployment relief be continued on a considerable scale for the present. The arrangements for direct relief between the Dominion, the Province, and the municipalities and the provincial program of relief works, including the construction of the Trans-Canada Highway, roads and public buildings, involving originally an outlay of some thirty-eight millions of dollars, will be continued.

"In addition, the Province will co-operate, so far as opportunity is afforded, with the Federal program of public works in order that further opportunities for employment may be created."

GOLD SECTION CLOSES HIGHER

Base Metal and Silver Stocks Maintain Even Tone in Light Volume.

GAINS IN MAJORITY.

TORONTO, April 3 (C.P.). — Active buying in the gold shares persisted throughout the day in the mining section of the Toronto Stock Exchange and the close in the group was generally higher, while base metal and silver stocks maintained an even tone with volume of no importance except in Noranda and Hudson Bay. The latter groups, however, held a majority of gains over recessions at the close.

In the senior gold group gains of 10 cents to 50 were registered for Hollinger, Lake Shore, Bralorne, Pioneer, and Wright-Hargreaves and Teck-Hughes was off 5 cents and Dome and McIntyre off 25 to 75 cents each.

Noranda gained 40 cents to 41.40.

Killing Fourth Wife To Cost Druggist Life

ALBUQUERQUE., N.M., April 3 (AP)—Carl Wickman, rotund Denver druggist, must pay with his life for the murder of his fourth wife, Donalda Chicoine Wickman, a former nurse.

A jury took but 40 minutes to decide last night that the much-married Wickman had beaten his bride of two weeks to death with a tire iron on the highway near here the night of November 25, 1933. His execution was set for June 8.

Wickman, who at first reported his wife's death as the result of a hit-and-run accident and later made a statement which officers called a confession, again denied his guilt after the verdict was read. The State contended Wickman had plotted his wife's death to collect insurance on her life. Mrs. Wickman was formerly a nurse at Waverly Mass.

MINERS' SPREE SEES 10 INJURED

Pennsylvania Workers Honor John Mitchell, Father of 8-hour Day.

RIOTING ENSUES.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., April 3 (AP) —Miners in south western Pennsylvania's dominion of coal and coke marched back to the pits to-day after an uproarious celebration of "John Mitchell Day," which was marred by bloodshed.

It was early this morning before the last of the 25,000 workers, their wives and children, who gathered to pay tribute to the "Father of the 8-hour day" and the first president of the United Mine Workers of America, straggled away to the mine villages, leaving the scene of gunfire and street fighting in which ten persons were injured.

The high-tide of the day's turmoil was reached as five shots rang out near the platform where Mrs. Cornelia Bryce Pinchot, wife of Governor Pinchot, was praising the union movement and congratulating the men on their most recent victory—the temporary agreement for a seven-hour $5 day. "I'm for the union because I'm an American," Mrs. Pinchot told the miners.

As the revolvers barked, Joe Gurnat, 27, and Steve Saxon, 29, fell wounded and part of the mob turned on Joe Bosek, 30. The man, severely kicked and beaten, was finally rescued by police.

Physicians said to-day that Kurnat and Bosek may not recover.

Rioting occurred in the streets last night. Police said many of the men had been drinking.

MUSIC FESTIVAL GIVEN BY BAND

Fitting Finale to Easter Services in Local Salvation Army Hall.

LARGE AUDIENCE.

A fitting finale to the Easter services was the musical festival of the local Temple Band of the Salvation Army to a large and appreciative audience. That the standard of musical efficiency of the band, evidenced by the rendition of the various items, is high, was admitted by all present.

The band numbers, "Glory of Combat," a festival march and a tone poem "Atonement," both composed and arranged by Staff Captain Bramwell Coles of Toronto headquarters, and "Songs of Britain," by George Marshall, showed the versatility of the band. Special mention of the playing of the "Atonement" in its musical description of the trial preceding the Crucifixion and then the scene at Calvary with the resultory triumph over death at the resurrection must be made. The soloists and the band ensemble are to be highly commended on their performance.

Interesting items were also provided by the saxophone party, a septette of the bandsmen who in addition to their usual instruments very skillfully played these somewhat temperamental instruments. Their rendering of "Alice Where Art Thou?" was creditable and worthy of the applause it received, as also was the bass saxophone solo with band accompaniments, "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep," with Songster Leader B. Smith as soloist.

The delicate treatment of the old church hymn tune, "Bullinger," arranged as a cornet duet, Bandmaster V. Lang and L. French as soloists, merited commendation also, while a quartette of trombones featured "Calvary" as its quota.

Vocal items by the band and a vocal solo by Bandmaster L. G. Routley were well received, and a musical monologue added additional variety to the program. Accompaniments for these numbers were played by Mrs. S. J. Richardson, A.T.C.M., and Songster Secretary Gladys Sutherland.

A couple of unusual items were recordings of the Winnipeg Citadel Band, acknowledged as the Army's best band in the Dominion; of a broadcast from North Dakota, picked up by the Victor Company in New York studios. A cornet solo by George Weir and a festival march, "The Canadian," by Major Merritt with "O Canada" as its theme, gave all the impression that the Western band is a very capable organization.

To Bandmaster R. G. Routley and his band was tendered a hearty vote of thanks by Major Woolcott and seconded by the audience in its entirety.

As a closing number, illustrated by lantern views, "The Old Rugged Cross," fittingly climaxed this musical treat. To Mr. Haddow of the Heintzman Company, the bandmaster acknowledged the band's gratitude for the use of the orthophonic apparatus for the recordings.

WHITBY TO USE BAILIFF.

WHITBY.—Citizens in arrears of taxes for 1931 and 1932 will find the bailiff on their trail after May 1, seeking ways and means to collect $70,000 outstanding in taxes for those two years. The town council decided last night to take drastoc action after May 1, and make seizures in cases of delinquent property owners who make no attempt to pay up. In addition the council decided to enact a special by-law to strike off the voters' list those who still owe taxes for those years.

QUEEN IS IMPROVED

LONDON.—Her Majesty Queen Mary, has practically thrown off the effects of the slight cold she suffered in the past few days, it was authoritatively stated to-day.

expressed regret at the action which Mr. Sutherland had seen fit to take, and expressed appreciation of his service in the Presbytery.

Dignified Restraint

Dignified restraint was the note which characterized the meeting throughout despite the contentious question that presented itself for consideration.

Mr. Sutherland first tendered his resignation at the semi-annual Spring meeting of the Presbytery at which time it was agreed that the matter be left in abeyance for three months during which time a conference of the congregations represented was to be held.

In the interval since the last meeting of th Presbytery on March 13, however, according to Mr. Sutherland the elders of the Keene congregation took action which resulted in the special meeting of the Presbytery being called.

Opening the meeting this morning the clerk of the Presbytery explained that the meeting had been called to consider "the Keene situation." Displaying a piece of paper which he held in his hands, the clerk stated that it was the restated resignation of Mr. Sutherland from the Keene congregation.

"You heard Mr. Sutherland's resignation read at the last meeting of the Presbytery" the clerk said, "and will recall that at that time it was decided to leave the matter over until June."

Meantime, he continued, he had received a letter from Mr. Sutherland stating that he wished to resign at this meting.

Something Happened

Mr. Sutherland—"You remember at the last meeting I resigned and gave reasons for my resignation. You heard my side of the matter and also heard the representative from Keene. You remember the Presbytery asked me to stay until June, but something has happened since that time. It is now a matter for the Presbytery to rescind the former resolution and accept my resignation.

Dr. Barr—Mr. Sutherland says that something happened. I think the Presbtery should know what happened.

The clerk—"May I answer that question. I hold here Mr. Sutherland's resignation which states all the Presbytery needs to know. With the advice of the Presbytery and with Mr. Sutherland's permission I shall read the letter. It is practically the same as the first resolution.

Dr. Barr—"Well, why, if it is the same resignation, should we need to re-consider it?"

Extraordinary Action

The clerk read the letter which stated in effect that owing to the "extraordinary action" of four Keene elders, namely John Renwick, David Hastie, John Drummond and Richard Short, in taking action without consulting with the other two congregations of Westwood and Warsaw, "I give notice that at a pro re nata meeting I shall take steps of resigning from the Presbyterian Church in Canada and shall ask the Presbytery for my Presbyterial certificate."

Dr. Barr exclaimed—"I am sorry the letter has been read. I do not think there is any necessity in the first place for the letter to have been written. I do not think Mr. Sutherland really desires to withdraw from the Presbyterian Church in Canada. That is very extreme. I am sorry we did not accept his resignation at the last meeting."

He added that he spoke as a "good friend of Mr. Sutherland's" when he said that news had come to him some time before the last Presbytery meeting that Mr. Sutherland had tendered his resignation to his congregation at Keene.

"I asked Mr. Sutherland if that was so, and he replied, 'You know people talk'," Dr. Barr stated.

Embarrassing Situation

He added that he took it for granted that Mr. Sutherland had at that time taken no action. Referring to the action the Presbytery had taken at the last meeting, Dr. Barr expressed the opinion it was his action that had created "the present embarrassing situation."

The only course left open to the Presbytery, he suggested, was to take the least line of resistance and not discuss the matter. "There is a repreentative of the press here," Dr. Barr indicated, nodding his head in the direction of a reporter.

Dr. Barr deplored the giving of interviews to newspapers by the clergy, and believed that if any difference arose within the church, they should be settled within the church and not aired in the public press.

In conclusion, he moved that the previous resolution recorded by the Presbytery at the semi-annual Spring meeting be rescinded and that the Presbytery accept Mr. Sutherland's resignation forthwith and give Mr. Sutherland his Presbyterial certificate when he requests it. Seconded by the Rev. J. C. Robinson of Campbellford, the resolution carried unanimously.

After his resignation had been accepted Mr. Sutherland addressing the chair, charged that when he became president of the C.C.F. organization a telephone massage came through from Peterborough asking what stand the congregation was going to take about the matter.

"I think," he protested, "that a minister should not be subject to interference. I also protest the legality of the action of the four elders of my church. These four elders went to see the interim-Moderator to discuss the situation that had arisen in their church without consulting the congregations of Westwood and Warsaw."

James Dutton believed it was unfortunate that the Presbytery had not been in possession of all the facts at the last meeting. The present situation would not have arisen.

Unconstitutional

Referring to what Dr. Barr had said as to rumors that Mr. Sutherland had tendered his resignation to his congregation before the matter had been brought before the Presbytery, Mr. Dutton remarked, "such action was unconstitutional, yet I believe it was done, although I stand to be corrected."

Proceeding unchallenged by Mr. Sutherland, the speaker said that so far as the action of the four elders was concerned, it was probable they had not acted regularly, "but they did the only thing they could do under the circumstances."

"The elders of any congregation," he pointed out, "have some responsibility for leadership. They went to the interim-Moderator to discuss the situation that had arisen in their church, and I believe they acted in good faith."

After the elders had seen the interim-Moderator they came to Peterborough and Mr. Dutton advised them to carry on and do the best they could under the circumstances, he stated.

Mr. Sutherland said he agreed with a lot that Mr. Dutton had said, but he could not see why his congregation should have been subject to interference from Peterborough.

In closing the discussion, Dr. Barr said he felt it would be only right that the Presbytery should express regret in parting with Mr. Sutherland and should also record their appreciation of Mr. Sutherland's service in the charge he had vacated.

He wished to point out that Mr. Sutherlands' work had been fully appreciated in Westwood and Warsaw and by many people also in Keene.

Other business before the Presbytery was the consideration of a supply minister to take over the pastoral charge which Mr. Sutherland's resignation has left vacant. The matter was left in the hands of the interim-Moderator, the Rev. A. C. Reeves of Norwood, to make suitable arrangements pending reorganization of the charge.

25-Year Ministry

An M.A. graduate of Edinburgh University, Mr. Sutherland was ordained twenty-five years ago in the United Free Church of Scotland. He held a continuous charge at Nairn, Scotland, for 17½ years with exception of two years' absence during the war period in charge of the Y.M.C.A. with the Allied Forces in Southern Italy.

Relinquishing his pastorate at Nairn, he came to Canada in August, 1925, accepting the charge of the oldest congregation in the Presbyterian Church in Canada at New Glasgow, Nova Scotia, which was originally founded by the Rev. Dr. Macgregor in 1787. He ministered at New Glasgow for two years afterwards assuminb charges at Central Vancouver for one year and later at Nelson, B.C., before finally doing three months' supply work in the Toronto Presbytery before accepting the pastorate of Keene Presbyterian Church in January, 1930.

Mr. Sutherland told The Examiner that his plans for the future were indefinite. He had several his connection with Keene, he said, and was going to Toronto. He suggested the possibility of accepting nomination as the C.C.F. candidate in Peterborough Federal riding.

UNEMPLOYED URGED TO SECURE WHATEVER JOBS THEY CAN FIND

Special Relief Committee Sends Letter to City's Unemployed.

TO MAKE CHECK-UP.

In a letter that will be received by all those on relief within the next week, the Special Relief Committee urges the co-operation of all the unemployed in relieving the present economic situation by securing whatever employment they can find and in accepting work provided by relief officials. The letter was approved by the City Council.

The letter follows:

"The continuance of the economic situation is giving the Special Relief Committee cause for concern.

"The committee is anxious to do its best to help those of our fellow-citizens who, through continued lack of employment, have been compelled to seek assistance from the public funds.

"At the same time we feel that with the prospect of increased business activity every able-bodied man should personally endeavor to secure some kind of employment in order to relieve the situation.

"Taxpayers find it very difficult to pay their taxes, and this is the only way the city has for receiving money. Arrears of taxes are mounting up because many owners are not able to pay them, and if this continues the city will find itself in a position where it will not be able to procure funds from the banks, as has happened in other municipalities. You will therefore see the absolute necessity for reducing expenses, including the expenditures for relief.

"Men are being taken on in some of the factories. Work will be available on farms, and we hope that some work may be provided by the construction of highways adjacent to the city.

"All men on relief are therefore strongly urged to look for work, and also members of their families who are old enough to earn wages.

"Facilities will be provided for registration, and every reasonable assistance will be given in order to help.

"The committee desires to say that, if work is offered and refused, or if no attempt to obtain employment is made, it will be necessary to discontinue giving relief to those concerned."

It is expected that a special effort will be directed toward securing work on farms for fathers and sons of families which have come into the city during the past few years from the country. In the campaign, citizens will be appealed to to hire men for such work as spring cleaning, painting, house repairs through the city's employment bureau, which will be set up. In this way, it is planned to co-operate with those needing work, but the committee will also discover those who dodge work. A check-up will also be made of how much the unemployed receive for such jobs.

In his report to the Council, Fire Chief Gimblett records: "Fireman E. Jones has been struck off the strength of the department for failure to report for duty. I have appointed Francis E. Shearer, 5 feet, 10 inches, age 27 years, married, to the department."

BERLIN COURT IGNORES COMPLAINTS BY CATHOLICS

(By W. E. Brockmann, A.P. Foreign Staff)

BERLIN, April 3 (AP)—The Duisburg District Court, in refusing to-day to grant an injunction against the Essen National Zeitung at the request of Catholic complainants who charged unfair competitive practices, declared "the so-called Catholic press is superfluous." Coming as it did on the heels of an Easter massage from Pope Pius, promising aid to Germany's sorely beset Catholic Youth organization, the decision was considered by many as a blow at German Catholicism.

The National Zeitung s owned by Herman Wilhelm Goering, Premier of Prussia. The complainants were the publishers of the Catholic daily, Neuer Tag, and the United Publishers of Oberhausen, a Catholic firm.

THREE-DAY COURSE DOMESTIC BUSINESS

Cooking School Will be Modern to the Last Degree.

The way to a man's heart may be through his stomach but feeding the brute is only one of the domestic science problems that will be dealt with in the lectures and demonstrations of the Canadian School of Home Science next week.

Miss Frances Thompson and her assistants—all of them domestic science experts — have made this school modern to the last degree, embracing a score of domestic science problems. Monday's laundry is a nightmare in a multitude of homes. Tuesday's ironing is a much more tiring business than the preparation of Tuesday's dinner. The weekly housecleaning with its sweeping of carpets and beating of rugs is too often a frenzied, frantic business. In the Canadian School of Home Science, the housewives of Peterborough who have not yet brought modern appliances to their housekeeping aid will be shown how greatly, and at what little expense, electricity can be pressed into service to relieve these drudgeries, and what a boon electrical dishwashers, washing machines, ironers and vacuum cleaners are in the home.

Then there is the question of the informal function, be it luncheon, five o'clock tea, or dinner party. Dainties and delicacies for such affairs can generally be secured in any emergency from some neighboring confectioner's, personal likes and dislikes generally accounting for their selection, but it requires knowledge and taste and discrimination to insure that china and glassware and table appointments shall be suitable to the occasion. Here, again, at Grand Opera House you will see correct table appointment on the stage, and Miss Thompson and her assistant will demonstrate the why and wherefore of correct selection and use.

Of such things is the Canadian School of Home Science composed. It is in reality a three-day course in domestic business. Roughly, half the time is devoted to cooking and preparation of dishes and selection of menus, but the rest of the time is given over to such departments of home making and home keeping as those suggested above. For the matron, as for the maid, there is valuable instruction to be derived from these lectures and demonstrations by experts whose business is to know the easiest way, the most economical way, the best way of feeding the family and running the house.

INTERMEDIATE SCHOOLS TABOO

Secondary Teachers Indicate There is No Desire for Establishment in Province.

FAVORED BY DIRECTOR.

TORONTO, April 3 (C.P.). — Canada's largest educational convention, that of the Ontario Educational Association, swung into full stride to-day with between 20 and 30 sections meeting. To-night Premier R. B. Bennett is expected to address delegates, and for the next few days problems affecting urban and rural schools will be aired.

A committee of the Secondary School Teachers' Association met yesterday and indicated there was no desire for establishment of intermediate schools in the province. Premier George S. Henry had introduced a Bill during the legislative session which formally prorogued to-day which provided for establishment of the secondary schools, but withdrew the measure because of what he termed a "misconception" throughout the Province as to its usefulness.

G. S. Campbell Windsor speaking to the Secondary Association, declared "most extravagant and unfounded claims have been made of savings which can be effected by it. There are advocates of the intermediate school who go so far as to state this school will reduce the cost of education. This is most fallacious propaganda, and yet the most intriguing to the layman at the present time." Chicago, he said had discontinued intermediate schools because of their cost.

The Federation appointed a committee to make a study of the subject of financing secondary education in Ontario.

Before the Federation's meeting ended yesterday, Dr. G. F. Rogers Provincial Director of Education declared all the arguments he had heard against intermediate schools had merely strengthened his conviction that they were desirable.

Lesson 12
DESSERTS

This being our last lesson, I am going to devote it, very appropriately, to the subject of desserts. Every cook needs to be able to bring her dinner to a happy ending.

Now we look back on a number of the lessons that you have had; you will find many of these "happy endings" in them. I am going to pick out some of the possibilities for you:

Lesson 2, Pancakes—make the batter for them thin by adding extra sweet milk; serve with syrup, butter and sugar, perhaps lemon; with honey, jelly, jam.

Muffins—Serve fresh and hot, with a sweet if desired. Serve hot, with a hot pudding sauce from the preceding lesson.

In Lesson 3, you learned about shortcakes and other biscuit-dough good things. Use the same dough for fruit puddings. (1) Place a little canned fruit and its juice or fresh fruit and sugar and a little water, in greased moulds, put a small round of biscuit dough on top, and cook in steamer. The juice will act as a sauce when you turn out the puddings. (2) Bake the same dish and serve with hot sauce, rich cream or whipped cream, or fruit syrup as a sauce.

For Roly-poly—make plain biscuit dough or shortcake dough, roll out, spread with jam, marmalade or syrup and bread-crumbs; roll up like jelly roll, pinch the ends and moisten edge of dough with cold water to make it stick. Place in a greased bowl or loaf tin. There are three ways to cook your roll:

(b) Baked in a well-greased pan in hot oven, 450° F.
(c) Baked in a hot oven; baste occasionally with a syrup of sugar and water, which is poured over at the commencement of the cooking and served finally as a sauce. (See directions for baked dumplings, Biscuit Lesson 3.)

Dutch Apple Cake—(This cake may be made with other fruits, too, such as sliced pears, peaches and pineapple.) Make shortcake dough by one of the methods discussed in Lesson 3. Pat to about 1 inch thickness in well-greased cake pan. Into the surface, press sections of pared and cored apple; dust with sugar (1 tablespoon for each apple) and a little cinnamon. Bake in hot oven, 425° F., 25 to 35 minutes, and serve hot with a hot spice sauce or lemon sauce (given in Lesson 11).

Lesson 4 is almost all desserts—pastry, and sweet fillings for pies and tarts. Then you have more fillings in Lesson 10.

Your cake lessons, too, give you many desserts.

Any plain cake can be served hot from the oven, with a hot sauce, as a pudding; or you can cover it with fruit and cream and serve hot or cold.

A light cake can be put together like shortcake, with fresh or cooked fruits and served with cream. Ginger bread is good with hot pudding sauce or sweetened whipped cream—you will find a wonderful delicate gingerbread in the Easy-Way Cake Book, and dozens of cakes that are delicious desserts in themselves!

Spread any light cake, cold or hot, with the cooked fruit filling (made from dates, etc., in Lesson 10) or with the apricot filling—and cover with sweetened and flavored whipped cream. Or with evaporated milk which you have scalded and then chilled so it will whip.

Sponge and Angel Cakes may be split and filled with whipped cream or a delicate filling (Lesson 10) or used to line a mould which you can fill with a Bavarian or Charlotte mixture that you will learn to make in this lesson. Or use any Bavarian Cream for a deep layer of filling in a split sponge cake.

COTTAGE PUDDING

Use any simple butter or sponge cake batter and serve hot, with pudding sauce. Or put the following ingredients together by the Muffin method (Lesson 2): 2¼ cups pastry flour, ½ teaspoon salt, 4 teaspoons baking powder, 2/3 cup sugar, 1 cup milk, 1 egg and ¼ cup butter, melted. May be baked plain or over a layer of drained canned fruit, stewed dried fruit or sugared fresh fruit. Bake in moderate oven, 35 minutes (or longer over fruit).

SUET PUDDINGS

An old fashioned suet pudding, usually made with fruit in it or with jam or marmalade to give sweetness and flavor, should have its regular place amongst cold weather desserts.

Very fresh, finely minced suet provides the shortening (which in other mixtures is usually in the form of butter, lard or other fat). Flour or breadcumbs or both may be used in these puddings—and egg is often used (especially when there is a large proportion of breadcrumbs in the pudding—to make it hold together. The liquid in these puddings may be sweet or sour milk, fruit juice or molasses, or even egg, alone, as in a rich plum pudding. There will probably be baking powder in a sweet milk mixture, and soda (with perhaps some baking powder, too) where an acid liquid such as sour milk, buttermilk, fruit juice or molasses is used.

There are two ways to mix a suet pudding—the same as butter cakes, or this more favorite way:

Sift and measure flour. Chop suet finely (removing membrane) and rub into dry ingredients to mix well. Add any dried fruit like raisins or dates, and then wet materials, such as milk, egg, molasses, jam.

To Steam Suet Pudding—Grease moulds well. Fill two-thirds full, with pudding mixture. Cover. Steam individual moulds 1 to 1¼ hours; large moulds, 3 to 5 hours, depending on their size. (Note individual or small moulds mean economy of fuel, when cooking with gas or electricity.) Vegetable parchment offers a great improvement over the old fashioned pudding cloth. A well-steamed pudding may be kept for some time, hung in a cool dry place; steam it long enough to heat it through when required. Tie down moulds, when steaming, with buttered or waxed paper. Do not raise cover until end of time given for steaming, or the change of temperature may cause puddings to fall, just as a cake would do in a suddenly chilled oven.

Dark Suet Pudding—Spiced, Fruited—½ cup finely chopped suet, 1¾ cups pastry flour, 2½ teaspoons baking powder, ¼ teaspoon baking soda, ½ teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon cinnamon, 2 to 4 tablespoons brown sugar, 1/3 cup seeded raisins, cut or torn in pieces, 1/3 cup well cleaned currants (mixed with finely cut peel, if liked), ½ cup milk, 3 to 6 tablespoons molasses. Mix according to rule.

(Milk may be substituted for the molasses, in which case an extra teaspoon of baking powder would replace the soda. Or an egg may replace 2 tablespoons milk.)

Carrot Pudding—½ cup flour, ½ teaspoon soda, pinch of salt, ¾ teaspoon mixed spices, ½ cup brown sugar, ½ cup finely chopped suet, ½ cup chopped seeded raisins, ½ cup well-cleaned currants, 2 tablespoons finely cut candied peel, juice and grated rind of ½ lemon, ½ cup each grated raw potato, carrot and apple.

Mix and sift dry ingredients, add suet and fruit, mix thoroughly and add vegetables. If liked, ¼ cup blanched and chopped almonds may be included. Mix pudding well an turn into buttered mould; steam 3 hours.

This economical pudding is even nice enough to take the place of rich Plum Pudding at Christmas time.

RICH OLD-FASHIONED ENGLISH PLUM PUDDING

3 ounces chopped almonds, blanched
1½ pounds seedless raisins
½ pound currants
½ pound citron and peels
¾ pound beef suet, fine ground
¾ pound breadcrumbs
2 cups brown sugar
9 eggs
2 cups flour
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon soda
1½ to 2 teaspoons mixed spice or mix your own, half cinnamon, other half ginger, mace
¼ cup fruit juice (replacing the original brandy)

Mix according to rule and steam 3 to 4 hours. To serve, steam for an hour.

MILK PUDDINGS

Milk puddings are of many types—all must be thickened by some agent, such as flour, cornstarch, egg, rice, tapioca, sago, breadcrumbs or junket. In all but the last case, the milk is scalded before combining in the pudding. (Custards, in which the milk is thickened with egg, are dealt with in Lesson 7.)

SIMPLE MILK-FLOUR PUDDINGS

2 tablespoons sugar
3 tablespoons flour
1 cup scalded milk
⅛ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon flavoring

Combine the flour, sugar and salt very thoroughly. Stir in the scalded milk gradually, cook over hot water, stirring constantly until thick. Cover and cook, stirring occasionally until there is no more flavor of raw flour. Remove from the heat, flavor, pour into moistened moulds. Chill until firm. Serve with jam, syrup or cream.

Variations—Same as for "Cornstarch Puddings."

CORNSTARCH PUDDINGS

1 cup hot milk
1 tablespoon sugar
2 tablespoons cornstarch
⅛ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons cold milk
1/3 teaspoon flavoring

Combine the sugar, cornstarch and [illegible]. Stir to a smooth paste with the cold milk. Scald the milk in the top of the double boiler; stir the cold mixture gradually into it (do not pour too rapidly or the mixture will lump). Stir and cook until thick. Cover and cook, stirring occasionally, for 35 minutes or until there is no more flavor of raw starch. Remove from the heat, flavor, pour into moistened mould. Chill. To turn out: run a sharp knife around the outside of the mould, invert over serving dish, shake out gently.

Toppings—Whipped cream, meringue (poached or oven-poached), jelly, jam or syrup.

Variations—If moulding individually, reduce cornstarch by ¼ tablespoon in 1 cup milk. If pouring into serving glasses, reduce starch by ½ tablespoon in 1 cup milk.

Chocolate—Scald ½ ounce chocolate with the milk. Beat until smooth. Use another tablespoon sugar. Omit ½ tablespoon cornstarch. Complete according to general method (¼ cup chopped dates or nuts may be added with the flavoring).

Souffles—Substitute 1 egg white or ½ tablespoon of the cornstarch. Add, stiffly-beaten, to the cornstarch mixture after removing from the heat. Fold in thoroughly. (¼ cup fruit may be added to a white souffle in place of the flavoring, for example, dried fruits and thoroughly drained canned fruits).

RICE PUDDINGS

Rice may be used either raw or cooked in milk puddings. In the former case, the rice being starchy will thicken the mixture. If cooked rice is used, the mixture must be thickened by egg or some other ingredient.

1. PUDDINGS WITH RAW RICE

GENERAL PROPORTIONS AND METHODS

1/3 cup rice
1/3 cup sugar
½ teaspoon salt
3 cups milk
½ teaspoon vanilla

Wash the rice thoroughly, drain.

To cook: (a) Scald the milk with the salt and sugar. Stir the rice in gradually. Cover and cook stirring occasionally until the rice is tender and the mixture thickened. Remove from the heat, and add the vanilla. Pour into serving dish. Chill.

(b) Add the rice, salt, sugar and vanilla to the milk. Pour into a greased baking dish, oven-poach in a slow oven, 300° F., from 2 to 3 hours. Stir occasionally for the first while, to keep the rice from dropping to the bottom. ("Oven-poach" means to set dish in pan of hot water.)

Ethiopian-Japanese Wedding Cancelled

TOKYO, April 3 (C.P.) — The projected picture bride marriage of the Ethiopian Prince Lij Araya and Miss Masako Kureda, daughter of Viscount Hiouyuki Kuroda has been cancelled and, despite official denials of interference, vernacular newspapers surmise to-day, that the match ran afoul of powerful forces of international politics.

The Addis-Ababa, Ethiopia, correspondent of the Tokyo newspaper Nichi nichi reported that the Foreign Minister of Ethiopa had announced the marriage plans had been called off quoting the prospective bridegroom to the effect that the machinations of "a certain power" had interfered.

The foreign minister, according to the correspondent, said he notified Ethiopa's minister in Rome concerning the cancellation of the marriage plans from which the vernacular newspapers conjectured that Italy disliked the propect of Japanese penetration in Ethiopia in view of Premier Mussolini's recent declarations of Italy's mission in Africa.

II. PUDDINGS WITH COOKED RICE

GENERAL PROPORTIONS AND METHODS

1 cup uncooked custard mixture (Lesson 7. ½ cup cooked rice.

See general directions for custard mixture (Lesson 7). Add the rice, before cooking custard. Oven poach. Stir up from the bottom occasionally during the first part of the cooking, to prevent the rice from settling.

Variations—To 2 cups of pudding mixture, add ½ cup dried fruits, raisins, currants, dates or figs or a mixture of all these.

Add 1/3 cup dried fruits and ¼ cup nuts (chopped).

In the custard type, use only egg yolks. Spread the cooked pudding thinly with jam, cover with a meringue of the egg whites and 2 tablespoons of sugar to each egg white used. Oven-poach in a slow oven until the meringue is browned.

SAGO AND PEARL TAPIOCA

Cook to use as rice, allowing 1/3 cup to 2 cups milk. Tapioca must be washed and soaked for several hours in cold water to cover it, before using.

Sago must be washed and soaked 1 hour before using.

Simplified Junket—Dissolve junket powder—already sweetened, flavored and tinted—in lukewarm milk; stir one minute and pour quickly into serving glasses. Let set at room temperature, then chill, serve plain or with cream.

Bread Puddings—fully treated in Lesson 7.

GELATINE DISHES

Moulded jellies are very popular desserts, easy to make, convenient because they can be made well ahead of time, and can be widely varied from the plainest fruit flavored jelly to an elaborate dessert.

GENERAL PROPORTIONS

We have definite rules as to how much gelatine is needed to set any amount of liquid. Liquid includes the cold liquid in which the gelatine is soaked, the hot liquid in which it is dissolved, fruit juices that are added for flavoring, and the amount of liquid the sugar makes when dissolved; (when a measure of dry sugar is dissolved it measures only half as much as it did when dry; that is—1 cup sugar dissolved in 1 cup hot liquid will make 1½ cups syrup).

Allow ½ tablespoon granulated gelatine or ¼ ounce sheet gelatine to set 1 cup liquid, if there is a little acid in the mixture. (For example, lemon, orange or pineapple juice).

Allow only 1/3 tablespoon gelatine to 1 cup liquid, if no acid.

Allow up to ¾ tablespoon gelatine to 1 cup liquid, (a) in hot weather, or (b) for quick setting or (c) when jelly must support considerable solid material.

METHOD FOR PLAIN JELLY

1. Soak gelatine in at least twice as much cold liquid.
2. Make a syrup of sugar and hot liquid and boil 3 minutes. (Cover closely and cook slowly to prevent evaporation.)
3. Add soaked gelatine to hot liquid and stir until lissolved (or if liquid is better unheated, stand container of soaked gelatine in small vessel containing hot water until thoroughly dissolved, then add to large measure of liquid.
4. Add flavoring, strain and mould.

I will explain how you can make several fancy gelatine desserts with this plain jelly as a foundation, later in this Lesson.

PRECAUTIONS IN JELLY MAKING

To make jellies that are tender though firm, and of good flavor, you must always remember these points:

Measure carefully; never heat gelatine strongly (this develops disagreeable flavor); but be sure gelatine is thoroughly dissolved by stirring it long enough into very hot liquid; strain jellies before moulding; keep covered whenever possible.

Allow jelly to cool and partially set, before combining with beaten egg whites else it will separate into two layers, one plain and one frothy.

TO MOULD AND DECORATE

Wet moulds with cold water or oil them lightly. Small moulds set more readily and give better texture to jelly.

To decorate—pour a little jelly mixture into very cold mould and tilt it to coat sides; arrange decorative pieces of fruits, nuts, etc., in bottom and around sides and pour in just enough jelly mixture to hold this layer. When set, fill up mould with gelatine mixture, which has been kept in slightly warm place to prevent jelling. When poured-in jelly is partially set, more fruit may be added. Then chill thoroughly.

TO UNMOULD A JELLY

Wrap a cloth, wrung out of warm water, around the mould for just a moment or two; invert over serving dish, and shake jelly out gently. It can be decorated with whipped cream, fruit, etc.

Variations—A plain jelly made by these rules will be firm but tender—clear, quivering and delicious. It will be a good dessert in itself or with fruit added; or it will give a foundation for many fancy gelatine dishes—the whipped jellies, sponges, Bavarian creams and Charlottes (to which fruits and nuts are sometimes added); whipped cream adds its richness to these last mixtures, whilst egg white makes them, and the sponges also, light and airy.

To add fruits—pour prepared strained jelly into bowl; chill, stirring occasionally, until about as thick as honey all through; fold in the thoroughly drained fruit and mould individually or in a large shape.

USING JELLY POWDERS

Prepared jelly powders have become very fine products. They offer short-cuts to many types of moulded desserts. Observe the same rules in moulding in combining with eggs or cream, in decorating and in adding fruits, etc., to honey-thick mixtures.

DELICIOUS EXAMPLES

I am now going to tell you how to apply these rules to some of our nicest gelatine dessert mixtures.

Sweetened Lemon Jelly—This is an example of plain jelly made exactly by rule.

2 tablespoons gelatine, 1 cup cold water, 2 cups boiling water, 1 cup sugar, few thin shavings lemon rind, ½ cup lemon juice.

Orange Jelly—Another plain jelly—follow exactly the general instructions for mixing and moulding.

2 tablespoons gelatine, ½ cup cold water, 1½ cups boiling water, 1 cup sugar, 1½ cups orange juice, 2 tablespoons lemon juice.

Coffee Jelly—2 tablespoons gelatine, ½ cup cold water, 3 cups hot strong coffee, ¾ cup sugar, 3 tablespoons lemon juice.

Follow general method, dissolving sugar in the hot coffee very completely.

GELATINE SPONGES

This is our first real variation of the plain jelly mixture. Make any of the plain jellies I have given you—lemon, orange, coffee or other sweet jelly—and turn it into a sponge in this simple way; chill plain jelly in a bowl, stirring it occasionally, and when it begins to stiffen, beat it until it is frothy. Fold in the stiffly-beaten whites of eggs—allowing 1 egg white to about 1 cup jelly. Treat prepared jelly powder mixture the same way.

Fruit may be added to sponges, if desired, just as to plain jellies.

Precaution with Eggs—Note—If the jelly mixture is not partially set before folding in the egg whites, the jelly will separate into a clear layer and a frothy layer. If too cold, particles of jelly will show in the moulded mixture. Watch the thickening carefully! This is true also in the case of Spanish Cream, the Bavarians and Charlottes.

Pineapple Sponge—1 tablespoon gelatine, ¼ cup cold water, 2/3 cup boiling water, 2/3 cup sugar, thin shavings of ¼ lemon rind, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 2 tablespoons pineapple juice (cooked), 2 egg whites, ½ cup drained grated pineapple.

Note—Fresh pineapple will keep mixture from jelling; cook it first—or use canned pineapple.

Make jelly of first 7 ingredients, following general rules. Chill, stirring occasionally, and when partially set, beat until foamy; beat egg whites stiff, add to mixture, and beat until beginning to stiffen. Fold in grated pineapple, turn into wet moulds.

Spanish Cream—1 tablespoon gelatine, ¼ cup milk (cold), 2¾ cups milk (scalded), ½ teaspoon salt, ½ cup sugar, 3 eggs, 1 teaspoon vanilla.

Scald the 2¾ cups milk with the sugar and salt. Pour gradually over the well-beaten egg yolks; return to double boiler and stir and cook over hot water until thickened as a soft custard (see Lesson 7). Pour over the gelatine, which has been softened in the cold milk; stir until thoroughly dissolved. Flavor. Pour into bowl, chill, stirring occasionally until thick as honey. Fold in stiffly beaten whites of eggs, turn into moistened moulds, chill. (If using large mould increase gelatine to 1¼ tablespoons.)

CHARLOTTES AND BAVARIANS

We all love a Charlotte Russe—but not all of us know that it can easily be made in most delicious forms at home; it is simply another variation of our gelatine mixture.

A Bavarian Cream is practically the same kind of mixture—although some authorities claim the use of egg makes a Bavarian instead of Charlotte Russe.

I have explained how to use our plain jellies as a basis for our Sponges; we use the Sponges, in turn, as a foundation for Bavarian Creams and Charlottes.

Make any Sponge, according to rule, and when partly set, fold into the quantities I have given you, 1 cup heavy cream, whipped. Or if you like, you can use more cream and less egg white than we have in the Sponge.

CHARLOTTE TYPE OF GELATINE CREAM
(Without Egg White)

1 tablespoon gelatine
¼ cup cold water
1/3 cup hot milk
1/3 cup finely granulated sugar
⅛ teaspoon salt
2 cups cream, whipped
1½ teaspoons vanilla
¼ teaspoon almond extract

Dissolve the sugar and salt in the hot milk; pour over the gelatine, which has been softened in cold water; stir until dissolved. (If necessary, dissolve over hot water). Chill, stirring occasionally, until of the consistency of honey. Whip until frothy, fold in the cream, which has been beaten until stiff with the vanilla. Pour into serving dish, which has been lined with lady fingers or thin strips of stale sponge cake. Chill until firm.

VARIATIONS

Chocolate Charlotte—Scald 1½ ounces chocolate with the milk. Beat until smooth. Increase sugar to 2/3 cup and use only ¾ teaspoon vanilla. Mix as plain Charlotte.

Glorified Vanilla Charlotte—Fold in ½ cup thoroughly drained diced canned pineapple, ¼ cup halved drained maraschino cherries and ¼ cup slivered blanched almonds with the whipped cream. Complete as plain Vanilla Charlotte.

(Any of these three Charlottes make an excellent cake filling if spread after folding in the cream over the bottom layer of a cake and allowing to set before setting on the second layer.)

EASY BAVARIAN CREAM—USING EGG-WHITE

An orange Bavarian may be easily made from the plain orange jelly—fold into it (when partly set) 1 stiffly beaten egg white and 1 cup of heavy cream, whipped. Mould individually in serving dishes, lined with orange sections.

This method, when mastered, prepares you fo rthe making of a grand variety of desserts as any fresh, canned or dried fruit or dried cooked fruit may be substituted for the orange. (Some fruits require additional sharpness, such as that provided by a little lemon juice.)

And here ends the last of our series of twelve lessons—with the hope that you who have followed them have found them useful—and the three Easy-Way Books equally valuable.

Miss M. Butterfield Coming For Meeting

A speaker of note among those coming for the Missionary Convention to be held at Bethany Tabernacle this week will be Miss Mary Butterfield.

This noted missionary has been in Peterborough before, a number of years ago and many will be glad to know that she is to lecture here again.

Along with the Rev. and Mrs. Herbert Johnston of Colombia, South America, she will open her sermons on Tuesday evening, and on one or two of the evenings she will illustrate her lectures with lantern slides of her extensive ministry in Palestine. Some of the beautiful pictures depict the entrance of Gen. Allanby into Jerusalem, as well as something of Jewish colonization in Palestine.

This feature has been of great interest to Jewish friends in the home land wherever she has gone.

She has had one of the most successful missionary careers. For twenty-five years standing by her work through plague, famine, war and in peace.

When the war made conditions almost impossible the American Consul insisted that she leave her work and then for one year she toiled with great sacrifice and hardship in the Red Cross service, after which she returned to her mission work. This has also extended into Syria, Transjordania and the Persian Gulf area.

She is now touring this part of Canada and will be heard here until Friday evening. The large audiences that have turned out to hear her have been stirred by the power of her oratory and have caught the enthusiasm of her cause.

BEHIND the Scenes in HOLLYWOOD

nearing the finish of his last Warner Brothers picture and wanting to play a bit before he starts his free-lance career, will take Jessica and the children and go away somewhere. It may be Europe, or it may be up on Vancouver where he and Cive Brooks spent a happy holiday a few years ago. But, emphatically, he won't stay in the film colony.

Dick Barthelmess

"Hollywood is a pretty dull place if you're not active," he says. "What we need here is country life, like they have in the east. Where people come to see each other on horseback."

The same desire is causing other film people to push farther away from the studios — to buy up dozens of ranches in the San Fernando, some to go even greater distances. A few of the fortunate ones—Winfield Sheehan, Watterson Rothhacker — have found their Eutopia in the more accessible "Happy Valley," only an hour's drive from Hollywood. There, in a telephoneless world, they forget the hectic rush of film-making.

THE FIRST PRIZE

fight Will Rogers ever attended had to be that disputed decision between Art Lasky and Lee Ramage. When Will and Spencer Tracy, who had persuaded him to go to the Olympic Auditorium, were filing out, the gallery hounds were still in a furor.

"Can you beat that?" said Will. "They're even booing the audience now."

THE FILM COLONY

gets a chuckle out of Barbara Blair's revenge upon Edward G. Robinson.

After an altercation, the blonde actress recently bowed out of Robinson's new picture, 'Dark Hazard'. She lunched in the Brown Derby a few days later and the sketch artist wanted to put her likeness on the wall.

Barbara said all right, but it would have to go between the pictures of Douglas Fairbanks and Joe E. Brown.

Result — down came Eddie's picture and up went Barbara's.

A PORTRAYER

of hard-boiled roles, Lee Tracy has a strong streak of sentiment. Since boyhood, the star has carried a wafer-thin locket in his wallet; one frame holds the photograph of his mother, the other is to remain empty till he marries.

Unless they read it here, some of Lee's closest friends won't know of the existence of this locket.

PEDIGREED POOCHES

be curious, too, to hear the verdict on 'Rip Tide.' It's Irving Thalberg's first picture since he came back to the studio and Norma Shearer's first screen appearance in a long time. Well, write it down as a brilliant bit of sophistication—short on action but long on wit, smartness and heart appeal—especially for women. And Norma is every fan's idea of the impetuous, gallant lady.

WANT TO TRY

a new betting game? Alice Joyce and Clarence Brown started it around Hollywood, and now everybody has taken it up. You are driving to the theater or to the fights in the evening. You wager on the one-eyed cars you meet. Whether the left or the right light will be out. And don't go betting $5 a car. Motorists are too careless. On the way from a Hollywood restaurant to the Olympic stadium, Alice won $15 from Clarence—and at $1 a blinker. A tip for you—the odds seem to be in favor of the fellow betting on the outside lights.

YOUR HEALTH

The emergency treatment of electric shock, gas asphyxiation, motor exhaust gas asphyxiation and drowning, all have the one thing in common, that in all these conditions breathing usually stops, and the obvious first aid treatment is artificial respiration.

In case of electric shock, the first procedure is sometimes to remove the person from contact with the electric current. This sometimes requires some ingenuity in order to do so with safety to the rescuer. The United States department of the interior gives the following instructions in "First Aid Instructions for Miners":

"The symptoms of electric shock are: Sudden loss of consciousness; absence of respiration, or, if present, very light and may not be observable; very weak pulse; and burns at points of contact. Always rescue a sufferer as quickly as possible, being careful not to get in contact with the live wire. Lose no time in looking for a switch for turning off the current; if there is one near at hand, open at once. If there is a piece of wire at hand, throw it across the trolley wire and rail; by so doing the circuit breaker in the power house will be thrown out and the current cut off. If no wire long enough to reach from the wire to the rail is at hand, you may proceed to remove the victim from the current, but first get a dry board, piece of wood, or paper and put it under your feet, and protect the hand you use with your cap, coat or any dry non-conducting material, so as not to make a circuit. If possible use one hand only, placing the other behind you. If you do use both hands to remove the man from the ground, make sure that both your hands and your feet are well insulated so that you will not be caught in the same contact as your patient.

"Another way is to take your belt or handkerchief or a piece of rope and loop it over the patient's feet if he is lying on the wire, and thus pull him off. If an ax is near at hand use it to cut the wire, but first make sure that the handle is dry, or wrap it with a coat or cloth."

After the patient is removed from the current, stimulate by stinging blows on the soles of the shoes, and proceed with artificial respiration.

In gas asphyxiation the treatment is obviously to get the patient into the fresh air and apply artificial respiration, if breathing has ceased.

With all these it also is necessary to think of stimulation, but not until breathing has been resumed, or at least not unless someone else is applying the artificial respiration. Methods of stimulation are to put blankets over the exposed parts of the body and stimulate by rubbing and chafing the body. When the patient is conscious enough to swallow, stimulants can be given by mouth. The best of these is aromatic spirits of ammonia, one-half teaspoon in a half glass of water. This may be repeated every 15 minutes or so. Second is hot black coffee, and third is some form of alcoholic stimulation.

Heat stroke or sun stroke somewhat resemble these conditions, but the patient is usually breathing, and the most important thing to do is to reduce the high temperature of the body and simulate. The body heat may de reduced by the use of cool or lukewarm water (this is preferable to ice) and it should be dashed over the body with some force, as by splashing the body with a bucket of water.

FAHEY GLAD CASE TO BE CLEARED AFTER 24 YEARS MENTAL ANGUISH

Man Wanted for Breaking Jail as Train Robber Denies He Got Square Deal.

INNOCENT OF CRIME

EDMONTO, April 3. — (CP).— After 24 years of mental anguish, James Fahey, popular Jasper, Alta., resident held here on a charge of being an escaped United States mail train robber, is glad the whole case is going to be cleared up, according to a copyright interview by T. A. Mansell and Homer H. Ramage, published to-day in the Edmonton Journal. He will do everything possible to prove his innocence.

Interviewed at the Royal Canadian Mounted Police barracks, Fahey showed his anxiety to be released if possible to-day on bail. He was arrested at Jasper a week ago.

"Are you glad this trouble is to be cleared up at last?" he was asked.

"Yes, I am," he answered.

"Has it been on your mind all these years?"

"Yes, it has. Of course, there were times when I would forget about it."

"Were you ever on the verge of telling your wife about this trouble?"

Never Told Wife.

"Yes, several times. But you know how it is. I didn't do it."

"Did you ever have a fear that you would be arrested some day?"

"Yes, I felt that some time or other it would come out."

"Did you ever see any police circulars about yourself?"

"No."

"Did you see the moving picture, 'I'm a Fugitive From a Chain Gang'?"

"Yes."

"What do you think about the treatment of a prisoner?"

"Well, they didn't make it all easy when I was there."

Fahey was asked if he believed he would get a "square deal if he returned to the United States voluntarily."

"Well, I didn't get it before," he answered.

"Is it your intention to fight extradition to the very limit?"

"I can't say until I have consulted with my counsel."

"There is a report from Omaha that you were the leader of the gang arrested. Is that so?"

"It is not. I was the youngest. The others were 27 or in their thirties. I was innocent of the crime."

On Monday, Fahey received a telegram from his brother, James, in the state of Washington, offering him all possible assistance, it is understood. Fahey said he would reply as soon as he is released.

Socialist For Canada

SIR STAFFORD CRIPPS

Leader of the left wing element of the British Labor party, and chairman of the National Council of Socialists in England, Sir Stafford Cripps has arrived in New York on his way to Canada. Sir Stafford, it will be remembered, made a widely criticized speech in England a few weeks ago regarding royalty and the influence of Buckingham palace. Interviewed in New York, he stated that he would retract no part of his speech. He is scheduled to speak in Ottawa, Montreal and Toronto.

home of friends, where they will remain until the extradition proceedings are concluded or word is received they have been dropped.

The action of the Alberta Legislature members followed pleas to President Franklin D. Roosevelt of the United States and Prime Minister R. B. Bennett of Canada to intervene on Fahey's behalf. The Institute of Women at Jasper appealed to Mrs. Roosevelt to take action in an effort to save the Fahey family from being broken up by the extradition of Fahey. Scores of individuals are pleading by petition for his release.

W. R. Howson, Alberta Liberal leader, took the initial step that brought decision of the Legislature members to name the committee to draft a resolution urging Fahey's liberty. Mr. Howson explained that although he was Fahey's counsel, his action in suggestion the members of the Legislature plead for him was not taken because he had been retained.

24 Years' Probation

Outlining the case, Mr. Howson said Fahey had "served a period of 24 years' probation" from the time he escaped from Leavenworth Penitentiary until his arrest in Jasper two weeks ago for hunting in the confines of the national park. He thought his long record of good citizenship in Western Canada should earn release from the old charge.

Premier J. E. Brownlee declared his sympathy with Mr. Howson's proposals, but warned great care should be taken in drafting the resolution. Washington authorities, he said, might interpret the resolution differently than one coming from a group other than a law-making body.

There were no party lines in the discussion. Besides Premier Brownlee, head of the Farmer Government of the province, H. W. Allen, Farmer member for Grande Prairie, spoke in support of the resolution. So also did D. M. Duggan, Conservative leader, and Chris. Pattinson, for many years Labor member of the Legislature for Edson.

When the resolution is drafted, it will be submitted to Premier Brownlee and Hon. J. F. Lymburn, Attorney-General, for approval. It will then be conveyed to Washington authorities through Prime Minister R. B. Bennett at Ottawa. Care will be taken to point out the Legislature members acted after the Legislature had adjourned and when the Speaker was not in the chair.

Clubs For Promoting Affairs Of Farmer Gained Strength During The Past Winter

While farmers of this district are impatiently waiting for Spring to put them back on the land, they may glance over their efforts during the winter toward promoting their affairs by organization.

Some of the continuing associations which seem to have gathered strength since the first of the year are as follows:—

Peterborough County Livestock Improvement Association; the U.F.O.; Milk Producers' Association; The Cheese Patrons' Association; Swine Breeders' Association; Peterborough Livestock Shipping Board; Shorthorn Breeders' Association; Holstein Breeders' Association; and there is also the Dairymen's Association including the cheese-makers whose work during the last three years has been notably successful.

The Junior farmers have not been overlooked. Three clubs have been organized for this year, a Holstein Heifer Club centering at Norwood; Shorthorn Calf Club at Peterborough; and a Boys' Swine Club, Lakefield.

The effectiveness of this year's work will have to depend primarily on the interest and energy of the farmers in carrying on these various projects. The work of sowing and harvesting the crops calls to the rural individualist, but apparently there is a broader sentiment among farmers that if they do not attend to their own organizations no one else will.

COUNCIL ASKS CHECK ON BAND INSTRUMENTS

Wants All Town Instruments in by April 15 for Check-up, Widely Scattered.

NAME REVISION COURT.

Able Bodied Men on Relief Refuse Farm Work, Says Councillor Battisby.

CAMPBELLFORD, April 3 (Examiner Staff Correspondence). — Echoes of the band situation in the town of Campbellford were again heard last evening when the Town Council passed a resolution instructing Clerk J. F. McGregor to write the president of the Northumberland Regimental Band, Major J. M. Bygott, and Bandmaster W Pearson, requesting them that all instruments belonging to the town and which were loaned out, be called in for a check-up, the date set for this being April 15. This motion was sponsored by Councillor P. J. Sarginson, chairman of the Band Committee, and Councillor F. F. Long.

The matter was brought to the Council when J. Y. Mitchell, a veteran member of the band, addressed the Council asking that a check-up on all band instiuments should be made. A meeting had been called for this purpose, he stated, but had later been postponed. He told the Council that many of the instruments which belonged to the town were loaned out, some being as far away as Marmora.

Councillor Sarginson, when making the motion, stated he thought a report should be brought into the Council regarding these instruments as they were the property of the town, and at present some of them were scattered in various parts of the country.

The Council learned from Councillor J. R. Battisby, chairman of the Relief Committee, that there were many able-bodied men on relief in the town who had refused to take farm work when offered them with wages from ten to fifteen dollars a month, and this was a situation he defined as being serious. Relief would terminate on April 30, he stated, and he felt that many of these men who were perfectly able to work should do so and so earn enough to keep themselves next winter. As chairman of the Relief Committee he stated that he had many calls for men from farmers from many districts, and to get men to go on the farms seemed a hard job.

Because of this fact the Council put through a motion appointing Councillor Battisby employment agent for the town, and authorized him to lay information against any man refusing employment. This motion was sponsored by Deputy-Reeve E. C. McKeel and Councillor A. D. Bennett.

Ask Tax Rebate.

An application by the Lawn Bowling Club for the rebate of part of the 1933 taxes on the club property was left over for further consideration. C. W. Palliser and Neil Morrison approached the Council on this matter, pointing out that for many years this property had been over-assessed. The assessment at present is: Land $200, building $375 a total of $575. The land, which was government property, would not be assessed for more than $50.00 if privately owned, the delegation stated, and the building had cost about $100 when erected. Through the efforts of the club all back taxes had been paid up, and last year the club had paid $105 in wages, $75 to the town for running expenses, $153 to merchants for prizes and had brought into town 196 visitors, who had all spent to some extent among the merchants.

Reporting on the bylaw governing the sale of wood in the town, Councillor F. F. Long, chairman of the Legal Committee, recommended that a new bylaw be drafted for the September meeting, on the grounds that the existing bylaw was ambiguous and did not read sensibly.

The town renewed its public liability insurance for the year with the Globe Indemnity Company, through the local agent, J. P. Archer. The amount of the premium was added to the pay sheet.

A claim for unstated damages made by H. F. Bennett for an accident sustained on March 24 on the streets of town, was handed to the insurance company for settlement.

A communication relative to the relief settlement plan, from the Department of Lands and Forests, was referred to the Relief Committee.

Mayor H. N. Carr, who presided over the council, named the following members for the Court of Revision: Deputy Reeve E. C. McKeel, Councillors J. R. Battisby, N. H. Thompson, F. F. Long, and John O'Sullivan. A special meeting of the council will be held on April 19 for the purpose of returning the rolls.

Dance Floor in Rink

A request was made by C. H. Davidson, and granted by the council, that in the event of putting a floor in the Davidson Arena, a license be granted him for using the building as a dance pavilion during the summer. It was pointed out that the present rink is only in operation about two months of the year and he felt that he should try and obtain more revenue from the building to meet the taxes on it. The license will be granted on application and subject to the payment of the regular fee.

And as a measure of economy the council decided to dispense with the telephone in the council chambers, which service they thought did not warrant the expense.

WIFE'S DELIGHT AT HUSBAND'S LOSS

30 Pounds of Fat!

Here is something all wives of fat men will be glad to know. It is the experience of a woman whose husband recently weighed 230 lbs. She writes:—

"I really feel I must write and tell you that, after taking Kruschen Salts for nearly 3 months, my husband has got his weight down from 230 lbs. to 200 lbs. This has been achieved by nothing else but Kruschen. I am too heavy also, and I started taking Kruschen only three weeks ago. Already I have got down from 153 lbs. to 144 lbs. We are delighted."—(Mrs.) C.

Kruschen combats the cause of fat by assisting the internal organs to perform their functions properly—to throw off each day those waste products and poisons which, if allowed to accumulate, will be converted by the body's chemistry into fatty tissue.

Obituary

ARTHUR L. BEAVIS

HASTINGS, April 3 (Examiner Correspondence).—The death of Arthur L. Beavis, a former Vancouver printer, took place in Chicago. The funeral was held in Vancouver on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock from Nunn and Thomsons funeral chapel; five of the bearers being printers.

The deceased was formerly of this district, being born in Asphodel Township, and when a boy attended Fife's School, staying with his grandparents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Adam Beavis. He and his wife paid a visit here last summer and their many friends will learn with regret of his sudden passing.

Mr. Beavis was 50 years of age. He learned his trade on The Vancouver Daily Province, and worked for a time on The Vancouver News-Advertiser. For the past five years he has been employed by The Chicago-Tribune.

He is survived by his wife and mother. His father died suddenly about four years ago, dropping dead in a Vancouver departmental store.

MRS. MARY HILL

ALDERVILLE, April 3 (Examiner Correspondence).—The remains of Mrs. Mary Hill, widow of the late William Hill of Shannonville, Ontario, whose death occurred on Wednesday, March 28, was brought by motor to the Alderville United Church on Friday afternoon, where the funeral service was held. The Rev. R. W. Paton, M.A., B.D., was in charge and delivered a sympathetic and impressive address to a very large gathering of friends and relatives of the deceased lady.

During the service the choir sang softly that beautiful anthem, "Rock of Ages."

The late Mrs. Hill was Mary Loukes before her marriage and was born in the village of Alderville eighty-three years ago, spending her early life in the village and community, where she was an active member in the church and social societies and was very highly esteemed. After her marriage to William Hill, she spent practically all of her life at Shannonville.

She is survived by four sons: Frederick and Jack of Shannonville, Ontario; Arnold and Joseph of Point Anne, Ontario; one brother, Mr. Joseph Loukes of Hiawatha; also twenty-one grandchildren and twelve great-grandchildren.

The coffin, which was a profusion of flowers, was carried by Messrs. Alfred Simpson, Albert Crowe, Stanley Hagar, Jack Tobico, Norman Marsden and Christopher Marsden.

Interment was made in the family plot in the Alderville Indian cemetery.

JOHN COUGHLAN

HASTINGS, April 3. (Examiner Correspondence).—The funeral of the late John Coughlan, pioneer resident of Hastings was held on Friday afternoon from the family residence, to Our Lady of Mount Carmel Roman Catholic Church, where the solemn service of the Catholic Church was conducted by Rev. Father P. J. Kelly. The funeral was one of the largest in the history of the local church, many were forced to stand throughout the services. Ever since Wednesday morning hundreds of sorrowing friends from far and near, many being obliged to drive over roads that were almost impassible called at the family home to pay solemn tribute to a man who was loved by one and all. No greater tribute to a man who had passed on to his reward was ever shown than that which was shown on Friday afternoon by the huge number present at the funeral of Hastings' grand old veteran.

Born in Hastings on December 28th, 1850, Mr. Coughlan was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Coughlan, one of the first white families to settle in Hastings which was known as Crook's Rapids in their time. Mr. Coughlan's birth on December 28th 1850, was the signal of joy among the white families as he was the first white male child born in the village. His early education was received in Hastings public school and Regiopolis College, Kingston. It was when he was about to return to the latter college that the late Mr. Coughlan decided he would prefer farming to a college education which his parents had planned for him. From his first start until a number of years ago when he retired Mr. Coughlan carried on farming very successfully on the place where his death occurred.

From the time he reached manhood until his health commenced to fail he took an active interest in the welfare of the village, being a member of the village council and Reeve when Hastings was as large again as it is to-day. When a separate school was talked of for Hastings he was tireless in his efforts to see that it was carried through, and for over twenty years he was secretary-treasurer of the school board. He received the appointment of assessor for the village for a number of years and it was rare indeed if an appeal was entered against an assessment set by John Coughlan. Until recent years he could give the number of any lots in the village without consulting a plan, he had made such a thorough study of Hastings. Being in the dairy [illegible] it was natural that Mr. C[illegible] would take an interest in the cheese factory which he did, being president of the Ormonde factory for a number of years, and also salesman on the Peterborough Cheese Board where he was always very successful.

In 1875 Mr. Coughlan married Miss M. Doherty who predeceased him thirteen years ago.

There are left to mourn his loss two sons and five daughters—T. A. Coughlan of Hastings and John Coughlan of Calgary; Sister M. Carmeta (Annie) of Brighton, Mass.; Mother St. George (Cassie) of Quebec City; Mrs. S. J. Lamy, Bellevue, Alta.; Mrs. C. J. Black of Campbellford; Miss Gertrude at home.

The bearers were Messrs. T. Lynch, F. Walsh, W. J. Armstrong, D. Armstrong, C. R. Fowlds, J. Gibson.

Interment was made in Hastings R.C. cemetery.

Expectant Mothers need increased amounts of the "Vital 3" to prevent loss of teeth and nervous energy

1—CALCIUM

Vital to life, energy and strength! Adequate daily supplies are necessary to enable the intestinal muscles to contract properly, to promote normal action of body muscles and nerves, to build and to preserve strong, rigid bones and sound teeth. All healing processes need calcium. Too low a supply of calcium causes oversensitive nerves, irritable muscles, decayed teeth and softened bones. Maternity cases, in particular, require an abundance of calcium.

2—PHOSPHORUS

An important constituent of all cells of the body, of the bones and of the glandular tissues, and first among all substances as a nerve food. Necessary in regulating and maintaining the neutrality of the blood and in sustaining its normal temperature. Also needed for turning starchy foods (bread, potatoes, sugar) into energy. Fresh supplies are needed daily, and increased amounts during maternity.

3—IRON

The entire store of iron in the adult system is only about one-tenth of an ounce and constant renewal is necessary. Every cell of the body and every tiny red blood corpuscle needs a supply every day, or weakness and loss of strength immediately result. Increased amounts are needed during pregnancy in order to build up a store of iron in the infant's body, as well as to supply the mother's normal needs.

A GROWING unborn infant makes heavy demands upon the expectant mother for bone-making calcium and phosphorus to form its skeleton. If the mother's every-day meals do not supply sufficient of these materials for both mother and infant, the infant robs the mother's bones and teeth of calcium and phosphorus. That is why child-birth so often causes bone weakness and the decay and loss of teeth.

The unborn infant also draws upon its mother for iron to such an extent that she needs to increase her daily consumption of this vital substance.

It is for these reasons that Fellows' Syrup is of such value to expectant mothers. It supplies increased amounts of the "Vital 3"—Calcium, Phosphorus and Iron, together with other strengthening and invigorating mineral elements, such as sodium, potassium and manganese.

Particularly during the last ten weeks of pregnancy, when the infant is growing rapidly larger and is taxing the mother heavily, Fellows' "Vital 3" Syrup should be taken with every meal and at bed time, to help keep up the mother's strength and vigor.

Physicians have prescribed Fellows' Syrup for 60 years. It is used in 52 different countries. Your druggist has it in two sizes. Make sure that the name FELLOWS is on the label—and get the Syrup with the "Vital 3."

JOHNSON BROWN SERVED C. P. R. FOR 42 YEARS

Retired on Saturday at the Age of 65—On Lakeshore Run.

STARTED AT EARLY AGE.

Having railroaded throughout Central Ontario when railroading was real adventure, Johnson Brown was superannuated on Saturday at the age of 65 after 42 years in the employ of the C.P.R. He was conductor on freight trains between Havelock, Smith Falls and Trenton for 29 years, and for 12 years he was conductor on passenger trains along the lake front.

As a 12-year-old boy, this veteran started work with the Rathburn lumbering firm out of Deseronto. He helped build this company's private railroad, which was later taken over by the C.P.R., and gained his first railroad experience on this line as a brakeman. He joined the C.P.R. in 1892 at the age of 23 as a "brakey." Later he moved to Havelock where he resided and conducted freight trains up and down the line for 31 years.

He is well known in Havelock, Peterborough, Trenton, where he now resides, and along the lakefront. Now that he has retired, he is going to do some "visiting around," Mr. Brown stated.

His daughter, Mrs. L. V. Wood, resides on Westcott street here, while two sons, Dr. M. H. Brown and W. H. Brown, C.A., both live in Toronto.

WHISKEY STILL FOUND IN RIVER

Albert Vailois Pleads Guilty of Possessing Still and Fined $200.

BIG CROWD AT COURT.

Strange things are recovered sometimes from the Otonabee river, but Magistrate Langley expressed his doubts concerning the truth of Albert J. Vailois' story that he found a complete whiskey still in the river.

The 60-year-old resident of Woodbine Avenue appeared in court charged with possession of the still. He pleaded guilty and was fined $200 or three months in jail.

Through his counsel, T. J. Carley, Vailois related that he was walking across the fields near the shore of the Otonabee to get the cows one day. "He saw a piece of string attached to a cedar tree, and pulling on the string he tells me he drew this boiler and worm out of the river" Mr. Carley said.

"That's right," Vailois interjected, "I found it. I never made it or had it made."

"He used this still to make liquid refreshment for himself," Mr. Carley continued. "He states that he has a bad cough and it helps out a great deal."

The still and a gallon jar of moonshine found in the Vailois cellar was produced in court by R.C.M.P. Constable T. J. Woods, of Lindsay.

Vailois promised that he would never make moonshine again.

Charged with attempting to murder his wife, Thomas Hele was remanded again for trial until this Friday.

Mrs. Laura Elms, who pleaded guilty a week ago, to five charges of theft from local stores, asked to be remanded a week for sentence. She will appear for sentence on Monday.

Such a crowd gathered outside police court before 10 o'clock this morning that police were forced to line them up outside the doors of the court room in the same way as theatre crowds.

Triple Death Feared Deliberate Suicide

WOODMOUNT, Conn., April 3 (AP)—Illuminating gas pouring out of several pipes and a stove killed three members of a prominent Woodmont family in a tragedy termed today by Dr. William J. H. Fisher, medical examiner, as "more deliberate than accidental."

Pending an autopsy, the medical examiner withheld his opinion as to whether Mr. and Mrs. Werner B. Gutenberg and their 26-year-old son, Frederick A. Gutenberg, were suicides or the victims of a slaying-suicide plot.

The medical examiner reported that several jets had been "deliberately removed, causing freer and greater flow of gas from the pipes into two bedrooms where the bodies were found last night.

MANY CLAIMS FO RDAMAGES ARE LAID BEFORE LINDSAY COUNCIL

Citizens Endeavoring to Receive Compensation for Inconveniences Suffered.

DUE STREET CONDITIONS.

LINDSAY, April 3 (Special to Examiner).—Lindsay Town Council received a number of claims for damages at the meeting held on Monday night, for citizens endeavoring to receive compensation for injuries to themselves, or to their cars, because of icy conditions of sidewalks and roads. Miss MacNeill claimed damage for a broken spring on her car, which was damaged while driving on Sussex Street. Mrs. Bishop, Queen Street, slipped and fell and fractured a limb. Mr. A. Storer claimed damages for injuries to his daughter, when a limb was cut to the bone by falling on the icy walk. F. Arnott claimed damages for a broken spring on his car, due to hitting a hole in the street.

The Globe Indemnity Co. disputed the claims of Messrs. W. E. Kelcher and D. R. Stephens, whose cars were damaged by skidding on icy pavements.

Barrisers Gordon and Elliott of Peterborough wrote on behalf of Mr. Pitts, grocer, at the corner of Albert and Durham Streets, Lindsay, claiming $2,000 damages because of the flooded condition of his store cellar. The condition has occurred on different occasions, and Town Solicitor Fulton was instructed to investigate the legal side of the complaint.

Barristers Weldon and Lacey wrote concerning a claim of $75 for damages sustained by L. A. Waddell by reason of his cellar being flooded on two different occasions.

Barrister Gee communicated in regard to a bill of $48 which his client, Mrs. A. Kennedy, Bond Street, submitted because of damage to a cellar because of a lateral and drain being blocked.

Fair Wage Clause.

Ald. P. E. Pickering introduced his proposed by-law to establish a fair wage clause in all local contracts for municipal work at last night's meeting of the Town Council. It was laid on the table for one month, after receiving a first reading, and will be re-drafted.

The by-law deals with contracts with the Corporation only, and wages are set as follows: Unskilled labor, 30c an hour; blicklayers and masons, 60c; rough carpenters, 40c; finished carpenters, 50c; cement finishers, 45c; cement finishers, roadways, sidewalks, 40c; electrical workers, 60c; glaziers and painters, 50c; plumbers and steam-fitters, 60c; sheet metal workers and tinsmiths, 55c; trucks, up to 2 tons, $1.45 per hour; 3-ton trucks, $1.65; 4-ton trucks, $1.85; 2 horses, team and driver, 60c.

The number of working hours in the day or week for each of the different classes of labor shall not exceed 44 hours per week. All workmen employed shall be residents of Lindsay, except certain key men.

At Ald. Frost's suggestion, the by-law was hoisted one month to be revamped. He claimed the wages should be minimum, allowing more to be paid if necessary when better times arrived. He favored a 20 or 25 per cent. drawback on the contractor, instead of 5 per cent., as suggested by by-law, and that the hours should be 44 hours per week, but a workman should not be prevented in working longer hours, Saturday afternoon, if paid at time and a half for overtime.

Former Lindsay Boy.

Lindsay citizens were interested in learning this week of the success of a former Lindsay boy, Prof. Ford K. Edwards, who has been called to Los Angeles, Cal., to lead the discussion under the sponsorship of the State Chamber of Commerce on the problem of regulating the transportation industry, with particular reference to motor trucks. Prof. Edwards now holds the position of Professor of Transportation at the University of Southern California. Prof. Edwards is a son of the late Ernest Edwards of Lindsay. Recently Prof. Edwards published a book on "Principles of Motor Transportation," which has had many favorable comments in the American and London, England, papers, and is being used as a text book in universities in California. He has just been awarded his degree of "Doctor of Philosophy" by Yale University, and has the distinction of being the only student at Yale ever to have held the Lord Strathcona Scholarship for two years in succession. The conference being held under State authority includes some of the most prominent men in transportation circles in the United States.

Prof. Ford K. Edwards is known to many in Lindsay. His parents attended the Cambridge street Methodist Church years ago, and his father was at one time a highly respected salesman in the employ of B. J. Gough, clothier of Lindsay for many years.

WILD GEESE!

Another harbinger of Spring was noted yesterday afternoon over Otonabee Township when a flock of wild geese was observed heading north. "There were at least twenty-five in the flock," the lady who informed The Examiner said over the phone," the first big flock we have seen this year."

Cook Picks Chicago To Win Stanley Cup

BRANTFORD, April 3 (CP)—Bill Cook, starry forward of New York Rangers, home in his native town for a visit yesterday, picks Chicago to beat Detroit in the Stanley Cup National Hockey League series.

Gardner, he said, has the edge on Cude, Detroit goalie, through greater experience. The defence of both teams is good but the Hawks have better, more experienced forward lines in Bill's opinion. Chicago, he thought, with luck should get the 'breaks' which mean everything.

SEAL KILLERS SET NEW MARK

Catch Nears 200,000 Pelt Total With One Ship a Record of 55,636 Aboard Already.

SEASON NEARS CLOSE.

ST. JOHNS, Nfld., April 3 (CP).—Newfoundland's seal killers, jolly while flirting with death, sought new records to-day as they continuel clubbing "harps" and "hoods" on the northern icefields. Imogene, high-liner of the fleet of eight steamships, had more than 53,000 pelts aboard and her men were determined to set a new mark for a single cargo.

Last year Imogene broke a record of 23 years' standing when she sailed with 55,636 seals, and another day or two in the "main patch" should see a new total.

Soon the whole fleet will be homeward bound for St. John's, where citizens are preparing a warm welcome. The Eagle, one of the smaller ships, is already "log-loaded" with 26,000 pelts and on the way to port.

Others will clear the icefields within the next few days. Already the fleet has taken close to 200,000 pelts, compared with the 176,046 brought in by six ships last season.

To-day was one of rejoicing on the Beothic, Captain Abraham Kean, 79-year-old commodore of the fleet, having become the only sealing master in history to load 1,000,000 pelts. He is on his 66th trip with the fleet and had a total of 960,000 to his credit when he sailed. To-day the Beothic's catch went over the 40,000 mark, and the veteran skipper, a former minister of fisheries for Newfoundland, had his million.

YEAR OF PRAYER.

ROME, April 3.—(A.P.)—A year of world-wide prayer to bring all Christians into one faith and to atone for injuries done to God's majesty by militant atheistic associations was decreed by Pope Pius to-day in a Papal bill extending the Holy years to all the world.

NO COMMANDING IDEAL OF LIFE GIVEN PUPILS

Teachers Have a Social Inferiority Complex Declares Prof. Vlastos.

YOUTH IS PRACTICAL.

Discount Competitive Element, Too Large Part of Present System.

TORONTO, April 3 (CP) — "Teachers in this country have all too often a social inferiority complex," declared Dr. Gregory Vlastos of Queen's University, in an address before the Commercial Section of the Ontario Educational Association here today.

Teachers, said Dr. Vlastos, were apt to have a social inferiority complex in relation to the work of the lawyer, doctor or statesman and were prone to consider their work as unimportant.

"Perhaps one of the gravest criticisms against our present system is the fact that no commanding ideal of life is presented to our pupils, so that most of them accept all too uncritically goals of personal ambition and material success," he said.

"Unless action is connected with idealistic precepts, sentimentalism ensues. Youth, for all its idealism, in fact because of that idealism, is intensely practical."

The action proposed was the establishment of the co-operative, social-minded, non-individualistic attitude in the classroom. "Encourage the discussion method rather than recitations," he urged. "Discount the competitive element, which unfortunately is all too large a part of our present system of education. Above all, avoid the authoritarian method of teaching; adopt the attitude of a fellow-seeker, and guide, rather than an omniscient authority."

BANDITS STEAL BIG IRON SAFE

Leave Two Employees in Refrigerator All Night—Pair Nearly Frozen.

LOOT $700.

MONTREAL, April 3 (CP) — Rain water gushed through the gutters and wet pavements glistened in the streetlights, but Paul Sandler and Dennis Harpauk nearly froze to death here last night. Four armer bandits locked them in the refrigerator of the restaurant where the pair were employed and then carried off a locked safe containing $700 in cash.

Henri Guibord, a chauffeur employed by the restaurant, freed Sandler and Harpauk from their frigid prison when he reported for work this morning. They told police who rushed to the scene that they were washing the floor at 3 a.m. when they heard somebody forcing the front door. Four men armed with pistols rushed in and forced them into the refrigerator.

The heavy iron safe, which the proprietors said contained $700 in cash, was missing from its place in the managers' office when a check-up was made after Sandler and Harpauk were released.

HEPBURN SCORES HENRY'S 'POMP'

Raps Premier for Appointing Governor—Using Money Needed by Starving.

TOUCHES CAMP WAGES.

SUDBURY, April 3.—(CP)—Continuing his rapid tour of the north country Mitchell F. Hepburn, M.P., Ontario Liberal leader, paused long enough in this city to criticize the appointment of a lieutenant governor for Ontario in depression time.

"In Ottawa," he declared, "I have never attended a function given by the governor general. Not that I am against the governor-general. I am not. But I did not attend because I am a true democrat and I do not think money should be spent in this manner when people are starving."

Premier George S. Henry, he told a large gathering here, had appointed Hon. Herbert A. Bruce to the lieutenant-governorship merely for the sake of 'pomp.' The cost of operating government house at Toronto had gone "to pay for the entertainment of a few social people in Toronto," the Liberal leader alleged.

Recent announcement of Hon. William Finlayson, Minister of Lands and Forests, of increased wages for men in board camps was also criticized by Mr. Hepburn who declared "if it were right to pay able-bodied men 20 cents a day before an election, it was right to pay him that during one. But it was never right to pay such a pittance to anyone. I wonder how long the wages will continue on an increased scale after the election?"

Easter Services

AT MILLBROOK.

MILLBROOK, April 3 (Examiner Correspondence).—Fragrant Easter lillies added the loveliness of nature to the special Easter services in the three churches of the community on Sunday, those in St. Thomas' Anglican Church being presented by Mr. and Mrs. Wentworth Gray and family, in loving memory of their son, Maurice, whose death occurred on Easter Day three years ago.

Grace Presbyterian.

A special Easter program marked the Sunday School session of Grace Presbyterian Church at 2.30 p.m., the young men of Mr. T. W. Belch's class forming a choir of twenty members and providing two anthems, "Hear the bugle calling" and "Rejoice 'tis Eastertide," Miss Ruth Thorndyke presiding at the piano.

The regular lesson was taken up in the separate classes, other special feaures of the program being readings by Miss Jessie Armstrong, whose selection was "Easter Day," by Bobby Peers, who recited "The Easter Beautiful," and by Hugh Williams, "To greet the resurrection." The handsome banner which is competed for quarterly on the basis of attendance was awarded by the superintendent, J. H. McKnight, to F. J. Deyell's class of intermediate boys as the winners at the close of the first three months of the year.

A large congregation gathered for the church service at 7 p.m., the choir rendering the anthem, "The Day of Resurrection," and the minister, Rev. H. R. Williams, B.A., preaching an inspiring Easter sermon from the text, "They have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid Him" (John 20, 13). The thought emphasized was that death should be looked upon not as a sad, but a joyful experience for Christians, and may be compared to the laying down of the body to rest at night, with the removal of the day clothes, and waking with a new body and new garb in Paradise. "A joyful messenger of peace, whose kind hand opens to the weary pilgrim the gates of immortality, and lets the oppressed go free, is death."

A feature of peculiar interest was the presentation of thirty-eight leather-bound copies of the Presbyterian Book of Praise to the church by the Young People's Society, the minister receiving these with words of appreciation and gratitude, and offering the dedicatory prayer.

St. Andrew's United Church.

Owing to the illness of the pastor, Rev. W. W. Jones, B.D., evening worship was withdrawn at St. Andrew's Church, a large congregation gathering at 10.30 a.m., when Rev. Dr. E. L. Mahood of Peterborough brought an inspiring Easter message.

The choir, under the leadership of Mrs. H. W. Johnston, had prepared special music, the processional anthem being "Hallelujah, Christ is Risen," by Simper, a quartette, "'Tis Midnight" (Billingsley), by Mr. and Mrs. M. McDowell and Mr. and Mrs. Johnston, and a second anthem, "Risen a Glorious King," by Ira B. Wilson.

Preaching on the theme, "Humanity's One Last Chance," Dr. Mahood based his remarks on the Parable of the Hid Treasure, pointing out that the earth was the bank in the days of our Lord, banks and safety deposit boxes being unknown, and that the power of the resurrection of Jesus Christ is the treasure hidden in the field of every nation. "What would it mean if all national and international affairs were conducted in the spirit of Him Who rose from the dead? Our tomorrows would be as different as were the man's who suddenly found wealth, if we but discovered the hidden treasure in each life—the possibility of a personal knowledge of the Risen Saviour."

Announcement was made that Rev. Royal Newham, of Chesterville, will preach in St. Andrew's next Sunday morning, the pastor going to that charge, with a view to an exchange of circuits, a congregational meeting being called for Tuesday, April 10, at 8 p.m., to consider giving a call.

St. Thomas' Anglican Church.

Easter services in St. Thomas' Church began with early Communion at 8 a.m., and choral Communion at 9 o'clock, with a large number in attendance, and the rector, Rev. William Simpson, B.A., as the celebrant. Communion was at St. John's Church, Ida, at 11 a.m., and at Christ Church, Bailieboro, at 3 p.m.

Evensong and sermon were at St. Thomas' Church at 7 p.m., the choir singing the anthem, "He is Risen," by Simper, R. Stone taking the baritone solo, and Mrs. R. A. Ford the soprano. The rector preached from the text, "He is not here, but is risen" (Luke 24, 6), pointing out that the resurrection is the best attested fact in history, and while listing the objections sometimes advanced showed that these are now seldom heard, and considered obsolete. The importance of belief in the resurrection to the Christian faith and hope was also vividly presented, and the rector made it clear that the thought of Christ steadfastly setting His face to go to Jerusalem, knowing full well the trial and suffering that awaited Him there, which had been the theme of the Lenten discourses, culminating in the crucifixion, would have been of no avail had the Lord not come from the tomb victorous over death and the grave.

The service was fully choral and the hymns all in keeping with the joyfulness of the Easter occasion.

MESSENGER BOY SAVES 3 LADS

TOWS ALL ASHORE AT ONCE

SYDNEY, N. S., April 3.—(CP)—Cape Breton today hailed a new hero-telegraph messenger Freddie Snow—who plunged into the ice water of Sydney Harbor and snatched three youngsters from death.

The three were playing ferryboat with an ice floe yesterday afternoon when Snow was passing along a waterfront street. Weakened by rain, the floe suddenly parted and spilled the trio into the water, where they foundered helplessly.

Fully clothed and wearing a pair of hip rubber boots, the 20-year-old messenger ran to the rescue, jumping floes until it was necessary to dive into the water. By this time two of the boys were looked together in a frantic embrace, while the third, only four years old, had gone down twice.

Dives For One

Diving deep, Snow grasped the tot by one hand then swam toward the others. With great difficulty he dragged all three for several yards and practically carried them till his feet touched bottom.

Exhausted as he brought them safely ashore, he turned them over to spectators who had gathered on the waterfront. He escaped from the admiring crowd as soon as possible and walked to the telegraph office to tell his superiors he would have to go home to change his clothes. It was not until later they learned of his heroism.

Buddy Gates, 10, and Earl McIsaac, 10, recovered sufficiently to be taken to their homes, but Junior Watford, 4, required medical attention at a nearby residence.

PREMIER'S SHEEP ATTACKED BY DOGS

New Law for Unorganized Districts Comes Into Effect To-day.

TORONTO, April 3 (CP)—Marauding packs of dogs which have destroyed or maimed flocks of sheep in several parts of the province have not spared the farm of Premier George S. Henry. The Premier revealed yesterday that about two months ago dogs attacked sheep on his Oriole farm and destroyed about a dozen animals. The killers were never caught, he added.

Farmers in organized parts of the province, such as East York Township, within which the Premier's farm lies, are protected against loss by legislation which has been on the statute books for some time. It provides that where the municipality has paid damages for sheep worried by dogs, the municipality is entitled to recover from the owner of the dog without proving that the dog was vicious or accustomed to worrying sheep.

However, in parts of the province where there is no municipal organization, a sheep-owner can only sue the owner of a dog for any damages sustained through sheep worrying, and is still subject to the common law rule: "That a dog was entitled to his first bite." This ends to-day for an amendment to the dog tax and sheep protection act places farmers in unorganized territory on an equal basis with those in older parts of the province.

LABOR CIRCLES MOURN LEADER

John T. Fotser Dies in Montreal After Year's Illness.

AN OUTSTANDING LEADER.

MONTREAL, April 3. (CP). Labor circles throughout Canada today mourned one of Canada's most prominent leaders of organized labor—John T. Foster, president of the Montreal Trades and Labor Council and vice-president of the Canadian Trades and Labor Congress.

After a year's illness Mr. Foster died last night at his home in Outremont, a suburb of Montreal, at the age of 59.

In Montreal, in the province of Quebec and throughout Canada his advice was sought when matters of labor legislation were being discussed. Dominion and Provincial governments in addition to national and international labor bodies desired his co-operation in many matters. He travelled to Geneva three times as Canadian delegate to International Labor Bureau conferences. He represented the Trads and Labor Congress on the National Research Council.

To a large extent as a result of his efforts, the province of Quebec labor ministry was established a few years ago. A member of the Quebec social legislative commission Mr. Foster saw many of his proposals enacted into law.

On Many Commissions

Names to many commissions, he also acted as representatives of the men on various boards of conciliation. He was also editor of the Canadian Congress Journal, organ of the Canadian Labor Congress.

For 23 years he was president of the Montreal Trades and Labor Council and his unfailing ability to handle men enabled it to function smoothly.

Mr. Foster, born and educated in Montreal at an early age, become a machinist but was later forced to relinquish his trade when union matters pressed. Three sons and three daughters, all of Montreal, survive. The funeral will be held Thursday.

"BOLERO"

For some obscure reason that is hard to explain, there seems to be a touch of genius about this picture. It doesn't amount to much in essence. The story centers about two adagio dancers who do their stuff in approved fashion through the years from 1910 and on after the Great War.

Perhaps it is the art of the two major players. George Raft, with his guttersnipe look, always makes his roles stand out, by reason of the earnestness he injects into them. And Carole Lombard (the lady likes the "e" in her name, it seems, because she regards it as lucky—evidently a student of numeralogy) acts wonderfully also. What a change has come over this actress, who used to have a metallic voice and equally metallic manner. She is all softness and charm and low, sweet tones in this picture—and can she dance!

Sally Rand, as Annette, her famous (or infamous, whichever way you happen to look at it) fan dance in this feature, and gets plenty of applause from the younger section in the audience.

A curious little item in the show, and one that makes Raft's part a trifle effeminate, is the fact that his liquid refreshments — and he partakes of several doses during the production—appear to be all of the cup variety. He must be a hound for tea and coffee. When others are using glasses, he twirls his little finger elegantly around the handle of a cup, and quaffs an innocent beverage.

Raft believes in leaving sentiment out of the picture. "You can't mix business and pleasure," he declares. Frances Drake, as Leona, runs foul of the dangerous little dark man when she goes soft on him, but Carole Lombard, as Helen Hathaway (and by the way, her hair looks suspiciously like a wig, at odd moments), keeps him in his place.

The picture combines, strangely enough, tragedy and light moments. War scenes make in interlude and the Grim Reaper comes into his own when he interrups the final skating dance encore.

Aims And Objects Movement Outlined

CENTREVILLE, April 3.— (Examiner Correspondence.) — The "New Canada Movement" held a meeting on Thursday night in South Monaghan Municipal Hall, William Belch was chairman.

Ralph Staples of Cavan, delivered an address depicting the economic and commercial conditions in Canada, so detrimental to the farmers of the country. He gave an account of the origin of the movement and stated its ideals and aims, advocating sound economic training and then intelligent action.

The speaker said the movement was a challenge to young people to do something for agriculture, by following the training program, uniting their efforts and setting in motion a vitalizing force which was to gain strength and influence for the betterment of the farming industry.

An impromptu discussion took place, participated in by W. Belch,

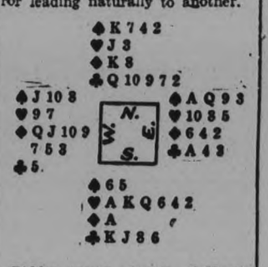
OFTEN ONE ERROR LEADS TO ANOTHER

Viewed as a double-dummy problem, nobody could fail to defeat South's game bid in hearts. As actually played, South made a small slam, without any serious blame on the part of either defender, one error leading naturally to another.



Bidding went: South, 1-Heart; North, 2-Clubs; South, 4-Hearts; without waiting to again hear from his partner, ending the auction, with neither side vulnerable.

There not being the slightest sense in leading trumps, West really had only three leads from which to choose. He might make an opening lead of spades, diamonds or clubs. South had shown himself so strong in trumps that trying to ruff him, or to establish a long suit against him appeared useless to West, especially as that defender had no cards of re-entry. West decided that making an opening lead of diamonds might be a safe lead, but one which probably would not be productive of many, if any, defensive tricks. A lead of one of the black suits appeared more reasonable. The only question in West's mind was concerning which one he should open.

An opening lead of the J of spades would have given the defenders 2 tricks. A return lead of the Ace and another club would have yielded 2 added tricks. A spade, followed by the Ace and a low club would have given 3 defensive tricks. Another spade and another ruff would have given the defenders 5 defensive tricks.

West decided against the spade lead. He led his only club. East's Ace won the trick. South dropped his K, as if he had been dealt only that one card of his partner's suit. Five from 11, left 6. The "rule of eleven" seemed to give West the 3 missing clubs, and East credited his partner with having led a fourth best card. From the standpoint of East the only chance of defeat the contract was in case West held the Ace of diamonds, and so could lead through the K of spades in dummy East led his top diamond and the declarer made a small slam.

If East had credited his partner with a singleton lead, West could have ruffed a return lead of clubs. He could have led through spades, and again ruffed a club. With the singleton lead the contract could have been put down 2 tricks, instead of being allowed to win 2 overtricks.

OUR MAIL

Dear Anne: The great day of our Christian year draws near and I have been doing some thinking on the subject that I would like to share with you and the neighbors. My mind has been dwelling rather sadly on the fact that it seems that the finest, most sacred things in life seem to be most specially soiled and marred by smaller conceptions and lowering of high ideals. My thoughts came to the great days of our Christian religion, its beginning and its fulfillment Christmas and Easter. How these seasons have been commercialized out of most of their real meaning. Christmas, the anniversary of the birth of our Lord—a day of rejoicing and praise by the angels—has become to many of us a time of giving and getting, and forgetting its real significance. And Easter has been turned into a time for personal adornment, of decking the body and almost forgetting the soul. Or a season of watching and welcoming the spring and the wakening of old nature from its winter sleep. All good enough, but taking away utterly the true meaning of the day. This great annual miracle of nature happened many, many times before Christ lived, died and rose again.

The Easter season is outstandingly peculiar to the Christian religion. There is nothing like it in any other of the great religions of the world and it is not recognized by any but Christian people. Easter, the day when Jesus Christ, God's own Son, conquered death and the grave for each of us, and rose triumphant to tell us that "Because I live ye shall live also." A day for the soul, not the body or nature or anything outside of the highest.

We have been and are passing through a cold, dark hard time of trouble, loss, confusion and fear, from which few if any, have escaped, and hope and faith have been sorely tried and almost lost. Can we not have a real Easter, one of our souls with a new realization of our Lord, and His power to conquer all things in His time and will? He, who broke the chains of death, can He not do all things? Can He not bring all the darkness, trouble and distress in the world around us into subjection to His mighty Power and Love. I am saying these things to myself too, for I confess my mind has been sorely troubled and hope darkened and faith small, but now, I am hearing a voice which says "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end." Like many others, no doubt, there's no money in our house for finery, of any kind, but I am looking forward to Easter with new hope and outlook. Will you all join in?

Sincerely,

Pal.

Dear Pal: It is so nice to hear from you again. Your Easter thoughts and message are very fine indeed. May I wish you all the joy and happiness that this Holy and Triumphant time can possibly bring to you. Good health and happiness and the beautiful peace that makes our lives complete. May you and all the neighbors have just such a peaceful and happy Easter.

Sincerely,

Anne Wilcox

The second annual Warriors' Ball held last night in the hall of the Canadian Legion, with the proceeds donated to the work carried on by the Legion, was a very gay event. Attended by over three hundred people from the city and outside points, it was one of the prettiest and most colorful dances of the season. The military outfits of different types, alternated in an unusual note, as far as a dance is concerned, with the black and white evening attire worn by the majority of the men. There were full dress military outfits, "blues," uniforms resplendent with the military honors worn by many, while a brilliant note was struck by the scarlet mess-tunics which were very prominent. The gowns worn by the ladies were exceptionally lovely. They were in the long, graceful modes of the moment, many with trains and those little dainty novelties that catch the eye: tiny muffs fashioned from the same material as the gown. One girl completed a striking outfit by a miniature hat worn on the side of her dark head and made from the same flaming cherry red taffeta that fashioned her gown. Reds and whites predominated, and these, with a few blues followed out quite unconsciously but very effectively, the patriotic decorations in the three flag colors, which made a basic motif of the entire decorative scheme. The decorations, which were arranged by the Canadian Department Stores and Mr. B Gash, caretaker at the Legion Hall, were elaborate and striking. In the dance hall, large flags were draped on the walls, the electroliers were shaded with red, white and blue streamers. Wide green panels curtained the windows, with ferns on the window sills and slender pencils of coiled green paper formed a decorative fan on the north wall. The orchestra stand, backed by a huge panel of black emblazoned in silver with the words, "Second Annual Warriors' Ball," was draped in red, white and blue, and banked with ferns. In the upper card room, flags were used for decoration, but the main decorative effect of the evening was achieved in the men's club rooms on the ground floor. This room, which is rarely used as a lounge for dances, was transformed last evening, and was a cosy sitting-out place, and was also used for the service of a delicious midnight supper. Red, white and blue bunting was wound in candy-stripe fashion around the pillars, and red, white and blue coverings transformed the daytime billiard tables. These were decorated with beautiful spring flowers and silver candelabra, holding deep cream tapers. The flowers and the many pretty ferns in hanging baskets and wicker stands, were from the greenhouses of Blade's, florists, while the comfortable furnishings were provided by Comstock Brothers. The music for dancing was splendid. Mose Yokom and his peppy ten-piece band played their brightest and best music: smooth, melodious waltzes and "hot" fox-trots "Curly" Gibson's vocal solos were an attractive addition as usual. The program of entertainment was augmented by visiting entertainers, directed by W. A Garden, who, with his trio hailed from Toronto. The team of adagio dancers, Carmana and Cora, gave a notable performance, and their sparkling small companion little Helen White, who is one of the youngest radio entertainers in Canada, sang some "blue" numbers in a way that brought her much applause. She was a bright miniature lady with dark brown curls falling to her shoulders, and a velvet suit of maroon and chartreause green. But the hit of the performance was Cora, a diminutive blonde, whose sparkling dancing was away above the ordinary. Her skill was exhibited in a difficult adagio number, a novelty wooden doll dance, with the little figure in pink and blue supported by Carmana in the traditional outfit for a man dancer, of black satin trunks and loose white satin blouse. A third brilliant dance by this team was an Indian Apache novelty. During the evening, the draw was made for two major prizes. The electric toaster, donated by the Canadian General Electric Company, was won by Bob Allin of Sherbrooke street, while the permanent wave, donated by Madame Merriam, went to Miss Gwen Northey. Prizes for bridge were drawn for, and went to Mrs. C. G. Graham, Miss Hazel Buller, Mr. H. W. Morphet, and Mr. H. R. Scott. Among the guests were Mr. E. A. Peck, K.C., M.P., Major Stuart of Millbrook, Major S. T. Medd, K.C., Major Max Sloan, Captain James Abraham, Mrs. S. A. Beath, of Toronto, and Miss Estelle Cuffe of St. Catharines. Just Between Us Women

A daily chat with Examiner neighbors conducted by Anne Wilcox

Those who get weary standing on their feet doing tasks about the house can remedy this trouble in a large measure if they really want to enough. They can so manage that they do not stand as much as they have been accustomed to, they can soften the tread on floors, and they can supply themselves with comfort-making mats on which to stand.

* * * * * * *

An important thing to learn is to work without standing. At first it will seem very strange, but it is amazing how much can be done equally as well sitting as standing. An adjustable stool, with or without a back should be used. There are kitchen high chairs in the market. They are lightweight, with rather shallow seats, and low backs, and can be lifted and carried about easily. However, an old piano stool or typist's chair is equally good, and has the advantage of a revolving seat adjustable to many varying heights.

* * * * * * *

Some modern kitchens have composition floors. These have the merit of having one smooth surface easy to keep clean, but they are hard to stand on. There is no give to the cement, as there is to wood, although the latter is harder to keep clean. In olden times kitchens were covered with rag carpet either in strips where the tread was most continual, or seamed to make an uninterrupted covering. These carpets were comfortable to the feet and for this reason their return to fashion would be welcome. But there are extra heavy oil cloths in variety which are easier to clean, than carpets and which soften the tread quite a bit.

* * * * * * *

Also there are scatter rugs and small washable mats excellent for kitchen use. The relief of standing on these textile rugs and mats will be appreciated by any homemaker who has been accustomed to standing on a bare floor. Fatigue will be reduced. A thick quilted mat can be made to use when it is necessary to stand long in one place. The homemaker can fashion one of these mats from wash goods interlined with cotton batting. The quilting will prevent the batting from getting bunchy. This mat can be put down anywhere and moved any time.

* * * * * * *

Another way to ease the tired feet is to have a chair the right height to rest the knees on. Place the chair first on one side and then on the other so that alternately each foot can be rested. Bend the leg at the knee and kneel in the chair with this leg, while the other is straight. The bent leg gets some of the weight of the body and the foot none. This is an old method which will be found a great help in resting tired feet.

Delightful Program Presented by Mission Band of Omemee Church.

(Examiner Correspondence)

OMEMEE, April 3.—A good attendance was on hand Friday to hear the concert presented by the members of the Mission Band in the basement of Trinity United church. It is evident that Mrs. Reddick is a born artist ,the children under her training assisted by several other ladies acquitting themselves most credibly.

The opening number was a chorus by the entire band "Daisy Song" was the title, the daisy being the emblem of the Mission band. This was followed by prayer and a short address by the Rev. Dr. Reddick who acted in the capacity of chairman.

The curtains parted again and the following numbers received hearty applause: Song by Rae McPhee; vocal duet by Elzena McConnell and Dorothy Brooks; exercise, by ten little members; song by Kenneth Thurston; telephone recitation, Lois Wilson and Elva Kennedy; song, 'Pussy Willow' by several girls; Japanese exercise, Doris Graham and Garnet Pogue; song, Norma Marshall; play, 'Mother Goose and her family as Mission Workers'; song, Jean Laidley; exercise, 'Playing Daisies' by six girls; song, Doreen Morcombe; song, Chinese Cousins; recitation, Mertena McConnell; quartette, composed of member of the same family, Norma, Hilda, Max and Earle Marshall; play, 'The House of Do-What-You-Can'.

At the conclusion of the program Mrs. Reddick thanked those who had contributed to the program in any way and a pleasant evening was brought to a close with the National Anthem.

I hope the family won't turn up its collective noses at the suggestion of stewed prunes and cookies for dinner dessert. My favorite manner of stewing prunes is to wash them well, soak over night then cook them slowly in the water in which they were soaked until they are syrupy. It takes a long time. No sugar is needed and the prunes are rich and delicious.

Today's Recipes

Lemon Jelly—One-half tablespoon gelatin, two tablespoons cold water one-fourth cup boiling water, one-half cup ice water, one-fourth cup sugar, one-fourth cup lemon juice, one little lemon rind. Soak the gelatin in cold water until soft. Add boiling water and stir until thoroughly dsisolved. Heat for as short a time as possible, as prolonged heating may prevent solidifying. Add sugar and stir until dissolved. Add lemon juice and rind, cool and mix thoroughly. Chill. Serve with cream or soft custard.

Orange Cookies With Clove—Two-thirds cup shortening, one and one-half cups brown sugar, two eggs, two tablespoons sour milk, two teaspoons soda, one teaspoon cinnamon, one-half teaspoon cloves, two cups flour, one-fourth teaspoon salt, grated rind of one orange, one cup dates, one-half cup nutmeats. Mix in the order given, adding the dates cut in pieces, and the chopped nuts last. Drop from the tip of a spoon onto buttered baking sheets and bake about 20 minutes in moderate oven 350 degrees. Makes four dozen cookies.

LUNCHEON DISH

Two cups crumbled breadcrumbs, one cup scalded milk, one cup minced cooked ham, two beaten eggs, two tablespoons melted butter, salt, pepper. Mix ingredients in order given. Drop by spoonful onto a hot greased griddle and brown on both sides.

AGAINST BLOOD TESTS

GREENSBURG, Pa., April 2 (CP) —Mabel, a cow kept on the St. Vincent College Farm, has always been opposed to blood tests for tuberculosis.

Observing George Edison, a farm worker, approaching with needle in hand, Mabel tossed him against a nearly stanchion. George dashed to a hospital holding his side. Said the doctor, "Two broken rib."

BEAUTY TELLS HOW MILADY MAY USE PERFUMED MIT IN HER SHOWER BATH

The beautiful and exotic Joan Crawford of cinema fame, they tell me, is an ardent shower addict. Joan takes numerous showers daily, both in summer and winter. And she far prefers showering to taking a deep bath. For she claims that she finds showers much more refreshing and stimulating.

There are a good many gals today who, like la Crawford, greatly prefer showers to baths. Business girls and schoolgirls, for instance, who do not have sufficient time in the morning for a complete bath find showers most convenient. And they also are most and revivifying after the day's work, before that early date with the boy friend.

What most girls regret about a shower, however, is that they find it impossible to use bath salts or perfumes in the water. Most gals like to smell sweet and fragrant after emerging from their tubs. But they think it impossible to do this when employing a shower.

However, I am happy to say that it isn't impossible to impart a delicate fragrance to the body when taking a shower. You can't, of course, actually perfume the water that issues from the shower spray. But you can perfume your skin delicately simply through the use of a perfumed shower mit. There are a number of such shower mits now on the market that are excellent. And it is even possible to make such mits very cheaply at home.

To make a perfumed shower mit, take a length of think turkish toweling, and make it into a bag about six by four inches. Then take half a cake of castile soap and cut it into fine shavings. Add to this an equal amount of lavender flowers, dried rose petals and powdered orris root, and mix well. Then fill the bag with the mixture, and sew it shut. And finally, attach a wide strip of tape to each of the six-inch sides, so you may slip your hand under it.

Whenever you take a shower then, simply moisten the bag, slip your hand under the tape, and scrub your entire body with the bag. This will not only cleanse your body thoroughly, but will also impregnate your skin with a most delightful, delicate fragrance.

GOLF FACTS NOT THEORIES

By ALEX. J. MORRISON

A reader asks: "I have a mid-iron, also an old cleek, which I use as an approach iron. I'm told they are out of date. Is this so?"

Golf clubs are like automobiles. The manufacturers of both come out with something new each year. The new car sells only after it has demonstrated more efficiency than the old model. Yet many old models meet the owner's requirements handsomely.

The same thing is true about golf clubs. Even more so because many so-called improvements have not afforded greater efficiency in the swing.

If your clubs meet your requirements there's certainly no reason why you shouldn't use them.

JAMES LEADS HAWKS SEXTET IN SERIES RALLY

Fleet Centre Star Stars for Maritimers, Scoring Two Goals and Assisting in Third.

THIRD GAME WEDNESDAY.

(By Elmer Dulmage—C.P. Staff Writer).

TORONTO, April 3 (C.P.).—Another Allan Cup drive of Fort William's Thundering Herd was by way of being sidetracked to-day. Moncton Hawks, defending senior hockey champions of Canada, evened the three-game classic series here last night by scoring a 4-2 victory that made them favorites to retain the battered symbol of amateur supremacy.

Not at all staggered by the surprising setback administered by the Forts in the opening game Saturday night, the Hawks pounded out a decisive victory to send the series to a deciding third game, to be played Wednesday night. They completely erased the 3-2 defeat of Saturday.

Dud James, fleet Hawk centre star, led the comeback campaign that may oust the Herd for the third straight year. Two years ago Toronto Nationals downed the Forts in the finals, and last season Saskatoon Quakers put them out in the Western playdowns. Virtually the same team gave the Hawks a merry battle for two periods last night.

How They Scored.

The polished James engineered the play for the first Moncton goal in the second period, and was on the scoring end of two brilliant attacks in the somewhat hectic third stanza when the aroused Western champions made a game of it. Bill Miller banged in the rebound of James' hard shot to get the Hawks started.

Up to that time it had been a cautious duel, with the champions pounding steadily but carefully on the Lakehead defensive barrier. They left few loopholes for Fort William thrusts, but at the same time found few in the Western armour. Goalie Gordon Hacquoil kicked out two or three hard shots.

Chunky Duke McDonald slithered a shot under a tangle of skates at the start of the third period and the puck went under the falling Hacquoil before the netman was sure where it was coming from. Then James took a pass from Sammy McManus as he sped through the defence and delivered the third Eastern blow.

Led by Hughie O'Leary, Ossie Hacquoil and Ross Knowles, the Forts bounced right back with a smashing offensive that all but flattened the Hawks. For five minutes the Lakehead team beat a hearty, vociferous tatoo on the Maritime defence that flustered the champs.

It netted two goals—one batted in during a melee by a Moncton defenceman—and ended only when Bill Hogarth cross-checked Moncton's Bert Connolly across the face and broke his nose. Hogarth was awarded a five-minute penalty and the Forts had no finishing wallop left. Instead, the dashing James added to the Hawk lead.

Bill Gill, giant Moncton defence player, batted in the first Fort William goal as O'Leary and Ossie Hacquoil struggled in a scramble a few feet from the Moncton cage. Gill was hard-pressed by the Western attackers, and was off-range in an attempt to clear. O'Leary was officially credited with the tally.

Score Second Fort Goal.

Immediately afterward, Moncton lost two players through penalties and the Forts started a desperate rally for goals. James and Aubrey Webster were chased for tripping offences. They watched O'Leary and Gordie Houston combine for the second Fort goal before James got back. But the Forts could get no more with the assistance of an extra man.

Goalie Hacquoil, whose brilliant work in goal stopped the Hawks in the first game, came back with an equally fine display. Nucker Irvine, James, Miller and Webster all laced hard shots from close range, only to have Hacquoil kick them away.

1934 ALLAN TROPHY SERIES IS AWARDED TO HALIFAX CITY

First Time Senior Amateur Hockey Finals Have Ever Gone to Maritimes.

DECIDED BY C.A.H.A.

TORONTO, April 3. (CP). Teams who enter the senior amateur hockey finals next year will fight for the Allan Cup in Halifax the first time national series has gone to the Maritimes. Delegates to the annual meeting of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association yesterday approved Halifax as the scene of the Allan Cup series next year because of Moncton Hawks' success in winning the cup last year and entering the finals again this year.

As this step gave the east the senior finals two years in succession, this year's finals being played in Toronto the meeting decided Western Canada should again receive the Memorial Cup finals for the Canadian junior hockey crown and selected Winnipeg as the scene. Winnipeg also has the finals this year between St. Michael's College of Toronto and Edmonton Athletic Club.

In their final session the Association delegates altered the playoff systems for the Allan and Memorial cups In future they will be decided in the best two-out-of-three system with points to count. A team with one win and two draws in the three-game series would be the winner by four points to two, a victory counting two points and a tie one. Up to the present playoffs have been held under the two-game, total-goal plan, the finals only coming under the two-out-of-three idea.

E. A. Gilroy of Portage La Prairie, Man., was chosen president to succeed Frank Greenleaf of Montreal.

The Ontario Hockey Association's attempt to have commercially-sponsored clubs enter the O.H.A. series on the same basis as the other teams was turned down by the convention on the recommendation of the resolutions committee. The committee, however, approved the suggestion the O.H.A. be allowed to play commercial teams in their senior series as long as only non-commercial teams competed in elimination contests to decide the O.H.A. representative in the Allan Cup playdowns.

Pick Up Players

The delegates approved the resolution of W. A. Fry of Dunnville Ont., permitting clubs to pick up players to replace those taken by professional teams until the date for declaration of branch winners. After the declaration date the clubs will not be permitted to pick up players to replace those turning pro.

Detroit White Stars, U.S. Champions, To Play For International Title

Detroit is very much in the hockey picture this year with her Red Wings in the N.H.L. play-offs and her amateur White Stars, champions of the United States. This is the team which will play off with the winners of the Allan Cup in Canada for the international championship—a series which has never before been played. Both Moncton and Fort William, cup finalists, have agreed to meet the Detroit champions in a series likely to be played in Toronto. The White Stars (above) are: Back row, left to right—Jimmy Sullivan, Bob Myers, Ted McMahon, Pete McMahon, Murray McDonald, Cliff Fauria, and Earl Bingham. Front row—Al Landy, Elgin Wright, Bart Kerwin, Gordon Hunt, Keith Crossman, and Aubrey Bingham.

Saskatoon Quakers Bring Back Two Trophies From Europe

The victorious Saskatoon Quakers are now back home after a long tour through Europe, where they succeeded in winning the mythical "world's" amateur hockey title, as well as most other games. They played 37 games in all, winning 34, losing two and tieing one. They scored 183 goals against 29 and and numbered 20 shutouts. They brought back this picture with them, showing the two trophies they won. The one on the left is the World's Amateur Hockey trophy and right, the trophy presentel by the Italian government. In the picture Herb Wilson, captain of the Quaker team, is talking to the captain of a picked French team in Paris.

JACK ADAMS HAS BUILT UP GREAT MACHINE IN 5 YEARS

"Smiling John" Started Out With Team of Great Names But Lacking in Youth.

EASY ELIMINATION.

DETROIT, April 3 (C.P.). — A Detroit Red Wing machine that Jack Adams has spent seven long years building was primed to-day for the Stanley Cup finals with Chicago Black Hawks. The first game will be played here to-night.

The first National Hockey League title team Detroit has had will line up against the Hawks as it did last Friday night when the Wings dethroned Toronto Maple Leafs. It is the first championship team Adams ever assembled, and he isn't satisfied yet.

Genial Jack showed he is not yet through building when he threw three players out of the line-up last week after the Leafs had beaten the Wings for the second straight time and replaced them with rookies. Three is no reason to believe he won't make another quick change if the Wings wobble during the Chicago series.

It has been a succession of shifts since the fall of 1927 when the pudgy Adams first came here to manage and coach the Cougars. He found himself with a veteran team, including players who were good when Jack himself was an outstanding forward in the N.H.L. and the Pacific Coast League.

He started with a team that had won only 12 games in a 44-game schedule in 1926. He had Hap Holmes in goal, Russ Traub and Reg. Noble on defence. George Hay started up front with Jack Walker and Carson Cooper. The dynamic Duke Keats and Johnny Sheppard were others. There were famous names and guile, but not enough youth. The black-haired Larry Aurie, fresh from Sudbury Juniors, was a promising rookie. He is the only Adams "original" left.

Dozens of players passed through his hands as the maestro from Napanee, Ont., built from this skeleton. His team became successively the Falcons and Red Wings, and took on strength as Adams bought youth and defensive strength. The Wings finished second in the United States section last season.

They started to go places when John Ross Roach was purchased from New Sork Rangers. Detroit found itself with greater defensive strength than ever before. This season Roach was injured and Adams obtained Wilf Cude from Montreal Canadiens on loan. To-day Cude is the outstanding figure on the eve of the play-offs.

Goodfellow Advanced

Ebbie Goodfellow and Herbie Lewis came along five years ago, Goodfellow from the Detroit Olympics of the International League. But in those days it was a struggle to make the playoff grade. Twice Detroit barely made it and each time was eliminated without winning a game.

The Roach was purchased to replace Dolly Dolson. Walter Buswell and Eddie Wiseman came to the Wings from the disbanded Chicago Shamrocks of the American Association. Adams already had Stew Evans and Doug Young, promising defence players. Carl Voss had turned out to be a good centre.

The Red Wing boss was heady to add the finishing touches. He traded Voss to Ottawa for Cooney Weiland and completed the best lightweight forward line in the circuit. Weiland, Aurie and Lewis are his aces. To tighten his defence, he traded Evans to Montreal Maroons for Teddy Graham and the blonde was just the bodychecker he needed. Graham became the strongman of the rearguard.

Gordon Pettinger was secured from Rangers and put at centre between Johnny Sorrell and Wiseman. This line played great hockey during the regular campaign. Just before the playoffs, Adams promoted Wilf Starr from the Olympics and gave Burr Williams a tryout at defence. Both made good.

Made Quick Changes

Smiling Jack cautiously moved this set into the series against Toronto and was pleasantly surprised when it scored two straight victories in Toronto. He was not surprised very much when the Leafs won the third game. But when Toronto won the fourth, he moved quickly. Out came Pettinger, Starr and the veteran Frank Carson. Up from Olympics he rushed Gus Marker, Gene Carrigan and Ron Moffatt.

This is the way Adams runs the Wings—the champions. He stirs things up. He is sure how the Wings will start tonight against Chicago, but even Jack is not sure how they will finish.

St. George Captures Rural Hockey Title

GALT, April 3. — (CP) — St. George's are champion of the O. R. H. A. and winners of the Premier Henry Trophy. In the third game of the finals here last night they registered a decisive 5-2 victory over the Blair Hornets to take the honors. A crowd of over 1,200, the largest ever to see a Rural game, watched the two teams battle for everything that was in them, but St. George had the edge and deserved their victory. They had better combination and finish to their attacks, while the Hornets just could not co-ordinate on their plays and were very weak in finishing off their assaults.

"Gossip and Such"

THE GREATEST brother combination baseball has ever seen may be in the making in the St. Louis Cardinals' training camp in Bradenton, Fla.

That's saying a lot—for there have been many famous brother combinations and a few really fine ones.

The Dean brothers, Jerome and Paul, however, may each prove a superlative star, in which event the Deans must take ascendancy over the Waners and the Sewells of current times, the Coveleskies, the Meusels and the other famed family combines of the past.

JEROME, better known as Dizzy, is the big brother of the Dean boy duo, and has been with the Cardinals for two seasons in which time he has definitely indicated that he is headed for almost certain stardom.

There are a considerable number of baseball experts who freely predict that Dizzy, barring accident or some other unforeseen happenstance, has an excellent chance to become one of the mound immortals of the National league.

Younger Pall, getting his first real big league chance this year, has shown enough stuff in minor league competition to indicate that he may prove as good, if not better than Dizzy.

IF BOTH DEAN boys enjoy superlative careers in the National league they will be tops in baseball brother combinations because there never has been a pair of big league brothers who were equally great.

The Waner brothers of Pittsburgh, Paul and Lloyd, have been powerful hitters and highly competent outfielders, but neither has exactly won the title "great." And Paul, the elder, has been defintely the best.

The Sewell brothers, Catcher Luke with Washington and Infielder Joe with the Yankees, have been good—but not great—players for more than a decade.

AMONG THE major league brother combinations of the past the most easily remembered are the Meusel boys, Bob and Emil or Irish. These two gained fame not so much because of the ability they really possessed, but because they were on opposite sides during the All-New York world series of 1921-1922-1923.

Bob, who was with the Yankees, was easily the better of the two though Irish, with the Giants, was a hard worker.

A famed pitching combination of the past were the Coveskies. Stanley Coveleskie, who won the title of the "Dependable Pole," overshadowed brother Harry, however.

Engine Hits Coaches 50 Hurt At London

LONDON, April 3.—(C.P. Cable Via Reuter's).—Fifty persons were injured, most of them slightly, when a light railway engine crashed into the rear of an excursion train, standing on a bridge at Kilburn yesterday.

The train had only arrived from Nottingham with a load of excursionists, mostly members of a four-square Gospel movement, when it was jarred by the impact from the trailing engine. Loose debris from the collision crashed from the bridge to the roadway, narrowly missing a passing motor coach and scurrying pedestrians.

It was the second railway crash to mar opening of the Easter Monday holiday. Two Southern Railway trains met head-on near the Caterham station, Surrey, but both were travelling slowly and none of the few passengers was injured. No official explanation for the crash was given immediately.

TIMMINS, April 3.—Senior entries of Noranda, Kirkland Lake, Dome and McIntyre were received at the annual meeting of the Northern Ontario Soccer Football Association held here. It is expected that the Senior schedule will get under way about the second or third week in May. Junior football will also be promoted this season as a trial venture.

BLACK HAWK STAR GOALIE GIVES MUCH CREDIT TO BACK ICE PALS

One of Few Players in National Hockey League Born Across Big Pond.

VEZINA TROPHY HOLDER.

[By Central Press Canadian]

CHICAGO, Ill., April 3.—"It's too bad I can't saw up this hardware in four pieces and give it to the mates who are entitled to it" spoke Charley Gardiner, goalie of the Chicago Black Hawks hockey team.

"Chuck" as he is more affectionately known by his mates, some admirers and some who are not admirers, had only a few hours before been presented the Vezina trophy for being the best goalie in the National Hockey League, or as Chuck put it, for having the best record.

Such modesty! What a difference between professional hockey players and professional baseball players!

But it's true. Chuck is all of that. The only time he would dare think of boasting would be when some of the Black Hawk fans gather around his "cage" and razz him for leaving the net unprotectel. Then he could set them back with this remark: "Well, I had the best record in the league."

It is doubtful if Chuck would even say that. He might let fly a few choice words at those fans who don't like to see him leave his position, but it is unlikely he would say more.

Chuck thinks he doesn't deserve such a high rating among National Hockey league goalies.

"I'm just another goalie. Why, those two sets of defence men should have all the credit. Of course, I knock down a few pucks with my mitts or stop a few with my sticks, but what about the defence? They never get any praise. Well, here's some for them.

"Lionel Conacher, one of the most versatile athletes in all the world, was at his peak this season and I have yet to see a hockey player put up a better defence than Connie. And that isn't taking anything away from Art Coulter, Rog Jenkins or Taffy Abel. They've all played a wonderful game in front of me and smothered nearly everything. It's just like baseball or football. The pitcher, or a backfield man, is hailed as a wonder, but the pitcher has eight men to help him win and the so-called star back has seven men to open holes for him," Chuck is quoted.

In spite of the esteem in which Chuck holds his defence men, and in spite of his own modesty, Gardiner was voted by hockey coaches as the league's outstanding player. He also was put on both all-star teams chosen by the coaches and hockey writers. He held the opposition to 83 goals, 15 less than John Ross Roach and Wilfred Cude combined to do for Detroit.

Gardiner learned his hockey in amateur leagues in Winnipeg and has always been a goalie but almost gave it up. In fact, he did, but after listening to the pleadings of a Tammany Tiger intermediate team of Winnipeg that permitted 13 pucks to get by him in one game didn't mean the end of the world, he came back to his place in front of the "tent." Chuck was at the tender age of 16 then and his return was the turning point of his career. His adverase until he entered professional hockey was one goal per game.

Chuck keens his eye trained for lightning-fast pucks by trapshooting and occasionally is a guest at the Lincoln Park Gun Club. At Winnipeg he is listed as ex-handican champion of the city, winning the title one year by breaking 50 straight clay birds.

CHESS MASTERS DRAW

BADEN, Germany, April 3 (AP)—The first game of the world chess championship match between Dr. Alexander Alekhine of Paris and E. D. Bogoljubow of Triberg, Germany, was played to a finish at the Kurhaus here yesterday, and resulted in a draw after 66 moves had been recorded.

Upon resumption of play, Bogoljubow, who thought he had a slight chance of winning, tried to improve his position, but he found his every effort to do so balked.

Finally, after a repetition of moves, the challenger abandoned his efforts and an agreement to draw the game was reached.

JUNIOR TEAMS ARE CONFIDENT

Strenuous Games Likely in Memorial Cup Series on Winnipeg Ice.

FIRST GAME TO-NIGHT.

WINNIPEG, April 3.—(C.P.)—St. Michael's College from Toronto, Eastern Canada champions, tonight meet Edmonton Athletic Club, Western Canada titlists, in the first of a three-game series here for the Dominion Junior Hockey championship.

Fully rested after ousting Port Arthur West Ends in the western final, the Albertans were ready for the toughest assignment of the season, but the St. Mike's crew were just as well rested and ready for the battle. The Toronto lads reached here yesterday.

There were no wild prophesies around the quarters of either team. The Westerners were just as confident as the Eastern lads, but both believed strenuous games were slates.

Dan Carrigan, coach of the Edmonton team, has given his charges light workouts since they defeated the Lakehead team.

Dr. Jerry Laflamme and Rev. Father Lynch, in charge of the Toronto team, watched ther players in a brief practice at the ampitheatre rink short after their arrival.

Neither team is expected to take the ice again until the bell sounds for the start of the tussle tonight. The second game will be played Thursday evening.

By C. J. P.

Max Swanston of Peterborough, Newt Thompson of Belleville, and Art Casterton of Kingston are the Central Ontario Baseball League's delegates to the O.B.A.A. annual meeting in Toronto next Saturday. And they will represent this loop at a Friday night meeting in Toronto when the Ulster League will be represented as well as T.A.B.A. and O.B.A.A. officials, and a delegate or two from Oshawa. The session that eve is for the purpose of ironing out the Oshawa difficulty, the Motor City crew wanting an outright release from the C.O.B.L. so they can play in the Ulster League, whereas the C.O.B.L. is offering them a year's release provided the two leagues can agree to an interlocking schedule for this summer. The T.A.B.A. and O.B.A.A. officials are sort of acting as referees or peace-makers, whichever you wish.

• • • • • •

The reason we're rehashing this is simply to remind the C.O.B.L. delegates of the task the league is intrusting in their hands, and it's also to notify the other interested parties that this loop intends to stick up for its rights in the matter. This is an old, old story, nevertheless we're repeating it again: Oshawa belongs to the C.O.B.L. and the O.B.A.A. has repeatedly ruled on this, only last November informing Oshawa it could not play elsewhere without the Central League's consent. Now, the C.O.B.L. treated Oshawa fair a year ago when it turned down a second Motor City entry at the first one's request. It stuck by the Dukes, and the Dukes—now that there is no other team there—are repaying the gesture by trying to force the C.O.B.L. to grant them a release.

• • • • • •

This would be a foolish thing to do simply because it suits Oshawa now. The reason why it would be silly is that with the O.B.A.A. going to change the residence rule this year or next, it's only a matter of a few seasons till Bowmanville, Cobourg, Port Hope, Lindsay and maybe another team will be back and ready for senior company. Then, Oshawa will be quite willing to play in the C.O.B.L. as expenses would be low and there'd be plenty of teams in. And the Central League has always been as strong or stronger than Toronto loops. Also, this league cannot set a precedent by allowing a club to pull away unconditionally from it—that would be suicide. Cobourg could next year thumb its nose at this circuit and say, "We wont play with you; Oshawa refused to and got away with it, and we'll make a stab at the same thing." Or any other club in the league.

• • • • • •

Oshawa Dukes will try hard to pull out next Friday and they will have the support of the Ulster League and the T.A.B.A.—both of whom will naturally like to get away with their raid on this league. But the O.B.A.A. cannot, simply cannot, countenance such a thing. The Central League will insist that the Dukes get just a year's leave of absence and then only providing this league plays an interlocking schedule this year with the Ulster loop. The Ontario body is too big to turn around and renege on its word and hurt a league that has kept senior baseball alive in Eastern Ontario and has always backed the O.B.A.A., just to satisfy an outlaw loop that is asking too much to return to organized ball. Even giving the C.O.B.L. Napanee wouldn't make up for the theft of Oshawa. The Intercounty League, the Ulster League, and even the T.A.B.A. have been outlaws, but never the Central League. Surely that means something!

• • • • • •

However, there may not be much trouble getting things adjusted. Oshawa may be satisfied with a year's leave of absence and the Ulster gang may be agreeable to play interlocking games with this circuit.. Then, details can be threshed out, and the C.O.B.L. delegates don't want to forget that it's up to the other fellows to offer their proposition. The Central League isn't on trial, not by any means. No doubt the Toronto teams would want a larger guarantee to come to Central Ontario towns than the C.O.B.L. team would get going to Toronto. Well, that's fair enough. It's worth more, not that Toronto teams draw any better here than we do there—otherwise, why do they want Oshawa in so badly?—but because we can stage double-headers when they come here, and besides Ulster Stadium charges lower admission prices than the Central League places.

• • • • • •

The Central League delegates intend to bring up a couple of recommendations at the O.B.A.A. convention. One is that four players may be brought in for commercial reasons up till May 1st and still play ball that season. This has little chance of being passed, but it will be food for thought for another year. The other is for a change in the residence rule from Jan. 1st to Mar. 15th and this has a very fair chance of passing if all available votes in Eastern Ontario are utilized. Hamilton will support this motion and it'll be a real battle, so every vote up this way should be used. That includes the two local minor league ones, the E.P.L. and the City League. If they have their entrance fee, or can raise it, they should certainly send it along as they mean two more votes. The dough must be paid anyway, so why not now?

• • • • • •

C.A.H.A. yesterday ruled against commercial hockey teams competing against association teams in the finals. That means that teams with commercial names—for instance, "British Consols"—may play all winter in the O.H.A. and get advertising in Ontario, but cannot use that name once they get out of the O.H.A. in Allan Cup playdowns, provided they win the O.H.A. Percy Bond put up a valiant fight, pointing out that commercially-sponsored teams were just as amateur as teams without a trade name, but the Old Boys had thick heads—it's hard to get an idea into them and even harder to get it out. Other matters, of more or less minor importance were cleaned up and the annual conclave concluded. Looks like the parents body is a bit afraid the child—the O.H.A.—is too progressive.

City Lacrosse League meets tomorrow at eight p.m. in Duffus', and players, officers and all those interested are invited. Incidentally, some suggested rules governing the Inter-County Lacrosse League shield have been submitted to us as follows: Shield to be for annual competition, and team winning it to pay for inscription. There should be a bond of $15 to the shield trustees by the winning club as a safe-guard against loss or damage, bond to be returned when the shield is given back. The shield to be returned to the trustees ten days before the final games.

Picking 'em off the grapevine: Don't forget the Westclox-Blue Petes' girls' senior cage playoff game at the Y.W. tomorrow eve at 6.45 . . . . Cobourg, Port Hope and Bowmanville ought to be ashamed of squawking because the O.B.A.A. has jacked the Lakeshore Intermediate Loop up to an 'A' rating—they used to be senior ball towns . . . . Local pro rasslin' match, sponsored by the ball club, will be put on in the Brock, April 13th . . . . Warpy Phillips of Picton has pulled out again, the little southpaw heading for Meaford this time; he may be back again . . . . Wonder if it's true that both Napanee and Picton will be in the C.O.B.L. this year—which would be okay, though both are long hops from here . . . . Boys' Hobby Show is on April 6th and 7th in the 'Y' here, and the sport tourneys in it have opened already.

O.B.A.A. Convention In Toronto, April 7

The sixteenth annual meeting of the Ontario Baseball Amateur Association is slated for the Royal York Hotel in Toronto on Saturday, April 7, and the largest gathering in some years is expected. The agenda is the largest ever to come before the yearly get-together, nearly four pages of amendments to the constitution and several nominations for every office but two, first vice-president Walsh of Toronto and Secretary W. J. Snyder of Hamilton being returned by acclamation.

The O.B.A.A. counted three hundred and thirty-nine clubs under their banner in 1933 and this number is expected to be far outdistanced for the coming campaign. The long list of amendments and the innumerable nominations for offices show an awakened interest. Another factor that should result in increased affiliations is the reclassification of the various clubs, the strong ones being moved up a notch, this giving many of the small towns an even break in the fight for an Intermediate B title. The following are the nominations for the coming meeting:

President, C. K. Jutten, Hamilton, W. A. Smith, Galt.

First vice-president, A. J. Walsh, Toronto.

Second vice-president, H. J. Carmichael, St. Catharines, J. W. Scott, Kitchener, N. A. Taylor, Rodney.

Secretary, W. J. Snyder, Hamilton.

Treasurer, A. Hillmer, Oakville, J. W. Scott, Kitchener.

A.A.U. of C. Governor, P. M. Kennedy, Toronto, B. Smith, Toronto.

Executive— H. H. Berscht, Caledonia, R. J. Cleland, Niagara Falls, H. J. Carmichael, St. Catharines, R. G. Fraser, Toronto, D. L. Graham, Strathroy, G. E. Gibbard, Napanee, E. Irving Owen Sound, W. Kay, Peterborough, J. J. McFadyen, Galt, J. W. Scott, Kitchener, B. Smith, Toronto, N. A. Taylor, Rodney, N. Thompson, Belleville, M. O. Walton, Hamilton.

The executive committee will hold their final meeting on Friday night, April 6th, at 7 o'clock. The open meeting will convene at 9.45 on Saturday morning.

GLEBE C.I. QUALIFIES FOR FINAL

OTTAWA, April 2 (CP)—Glebe Collegiate defeated Halifax Academy, 58 to 11, here last night in the semi-final round of the Canadian Interscholastic basketball playdowns. Glebe, outplaying the Maritimes in every department of the game, took the round, 100 to 17, and will meet Humberside Collegiate of Toronto in the final.

COL. MATT J. WINN RE-ELECTED

CHICAGO, April 3.—Col. Matt J. Winn was reelected President of the American Turf Association, a $7,500,000 organization controlling four major race tracks at the annual meeting here yesterday. The race-courses are Churchill Downs, Louisville; Latonia, Covington, Ky.; and Lincoln Fields and Washington Park, Chicago.

MEMORIES OF '26 - O.H.A. TITLISTS

"BABE" BOGARDIS—Winger

Played With Barrie Juniors and Port Colborne Intermediates Before Coming Here.

TURNED PRO WITH BISONS.

"BABE" BOGARDIS.

"Babe" Bogardis, member of the Peterborough Senior O.H.A. champions of 1926, has had quite a varied career as a hockey player. The peppery little "Babe" was born in Barrie, Ontario, and played Junior O.H.A. hockey in that town. Afterwards he was with Port Colborne and came to this city after several seasons with the Ports' intermediate squad. Bogardis, the lightest member of the O.H.A. champions, was one of the most effective players in the final games of the 1926 seeason. He was with the Petes again in 1927 and then made the jump to professional hockey with the Buffalo team of the International league. This season Bogardis was with the Syracuse club of the same circuit in the earlier part of the campaign.

Character From Handwriting

By BLANCHE A. DRAPER

A Feature Conducted by Peterborough's Leading Handwriting Analyist for the Readers of The Examiner

Lila Conners, Indian River, Ont.

Your handwriting shows a very reserved, reticent nature. You are neat and precise, well poised and thoughtful. You can be most dilligent and progressive provided you are engaged upon work which appeals to you. You have business ability and should have no great difficulty in obtaining much success. You are rather determined to dress in a manner which suits your personality, and this characteristic is to be admired. Music should interest you, and your feet seem to be tripping, sprightly members. You are seldom still. All your capital letters reveal artistic talent. This, of course, in your case may mean music. You are also quite susceptible to flattery. Those large flamboyant flourishes depict that trait. However, I believe that you deserve praise and so, as it is well merited, it is not detrimental to your character to desire it.

Mrs. William Smith,
Havelock, Ont.

The handwriting as delineated on your sample for analysis illustrates that you have a rather delicate constitution. You are not what might be termed really ill, but not as robust as you might wish. You sometimes get highly strung through tension. You often want people to do things your way, and if they do not, you feel hurt deeply and emotionally. Some of the letter formations show constructive ability. You really have the power to direct others, and the intelligence to see that your orders are carried out to perfection. Your letter was greatly appreciated I can assure you, and I know that one with your nature would never fail to show appreciation. You have one of the most inspiring numbers in numerology. It is eleven. Your birthsign is Scorpio. You are ruled by Mars. January and July are your best months. Tuesday is your best day.

Irene G. Richardson,
R.R. No. 4, Norwood, Ont.

The handwriting as shown on your sample ofr analysis illustrates you to be one who has a desire for neatness and precision. You are reticent and very secretive when you feel it necessary to be so, but your nature is not secretive. You are really very kind and generous, but not inclined to be impulsive because you think deeply before undertaking anything. Your 't' bars show romance and idealism, though you are a materialist through your power of initiative and ingenuity. Intelligence and a knowledge of every day affairs lend interest to your charming personality. Your birthsign is Leo the Lion. You are ruled by the Sun. Ten is your number. January and October your most fortunate months. Saturday your best day.

Betty F. McDonnell,
R.R. No. 7, Peterborough.

This handwriting represents intelligence, diligence and progress. It shows executive ability, but more along artistic lines than general business. You are rather dominating and perhaps too expressive as to likes and dislikes. The disjointed letters denote intuition, energy and impulsiveness. Both of these qualities are associated with rapidity of thought and perseverance. Your heavy down strokes show courage and activity, ambition and originality. The whole outline suggests success determination and enthusiasm. You are born under a good sign for progress too. Capricorn is an excellent birthsign for business especially of a secretarial nature. You are ruled by Saturn. March and November are your best months. Tuesday and Saturday your best days. Your lucky number is four.

Phyllis Morrison, Lakefield.

The handwriting as delineated on your sample for analysis shows that you have instructive and constructive ability. You teach because you possess a 'nack' of passing on any knowledge which you have. You have the power to plan and organise. Your capital letters show artistic ability, imagination and a certain amount of pride in your work. Your small letter formations suggest ingenuity, serectiveness and conscientious endeavour. You are born under the sign of Cancer—the Crab, ruled by the Moon. Your number is 5. Your best months are February and September. Your most fortunate day is Monday.

Miss Mary Waters,
Norwood, Ontario

You. handwriting as delineated on your sample for analysis illustrates you as one who is intelligent, and imaginative. You have a good share of will power and determination. You are versatile and restless and should enjoy travel because of your desire for change. You are benevolent and a lover of all beauty. You are easily offended but soon forget your hurt and carry on in a cheerful, good natured way. In answer to your question regarding hairdressing, I would advise that you do take this up as a business and you will make a success of your venture. You are born under the sign of Gemini—the Twins, ruled by Mercury. April and August are your lucky months and Friday your most fortunate day. Your number is 4, which is a good business number and the capacity you have to visualize things could be made to bring you monetary compensation provided however that you make an effort to curb your tendency to argue.

A Beauty Problem

And How to Solve It

It is a real problem these days,
To retain health and youth and beauty,
In the face of so many cares and worries.
For worry saps the nervous system,
And brings headaches and sleeplessness.
Resulting carelines and wrinkles so destroy beauty,
That you are almost afraid to look in the mirror.
"Sixty per cent of present day ills
May be attributed to exhausted nerves."
This is what consulting physicians say.
Dr. Chase's Nerve Food can be of very great help to you,
Because it forms new, rich blood,
And fills your system with vital nerve force.
If you are sleepless, discouraged and depressed,
And suffer from headaches, indigestion and sleeplessness,
You may be sure that nerve force is running low,
And you need this great restorative.

PIE SOCIAL HELD AT RUSH POINT

Event Climaxes Lively Program for Last Evening of Winter Session.

DANCE AT KEATING HOUSE.

RUSH POINT, Apr 1 3 (Examiner Correspondence). — Mr. Gordon Newton was the vice-president in charge of the Young People's League meeting at the Rush Point Church on Thursday evening.

Arrangements had been made for a pie social and a splendid crowd turned out for the last meeting of the month.

Rev. Mr. Kemp was present to conduct the opening exercises and then Mr. Gordon Newton took charge of the League. The program for the evening: Scripture reading, Miss Mary Toms; topic, Miss Mae Seeney, the topic being a particularly fine one and very suitable for the season; solo, Miss Jean Pollock "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say"; musical selection by Miss Luella Keating on the celestophone; reading, Mr. Reg. McQuigge; duet, Mr. Murnie Barton and Lloyd Petherick, "Say Will the Angels Come". Mr. Barton played the accompaniment on his Spanish guitar; recitation, Winston Petherick; song, Messrs. Murnie Barton and Cyril Medd, "A Picture From Life's Other Side"; recitation, Leland Petherick.

The contest by Miss Marjorie Newton, "Music and Poetry" resulted as follows: Blue, 25; White, 15; Khaki, 10; Red 0.

Then came the pies—and even the most devoted pie fans professed themselves well satisfied with quality, quantity and variety of the pies so generously supplied by the girls.

Dance at Keating Home

One of the brilliant dances of the season was held at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. George Keating on Wednesday evening. Music was supplied on the violin, guitar and banjo by the neighborhood boys and the dancing went merrily. Many of the guests amused themselves with cards. Luncheon was served at midnight and dancing resumed with renewed vigor for several hours.

Roads here for the holiday week-end are not very good. Truck-drivers report many breakages—some quite serious as well as many minor breakages.

Several cars got stuck in the deep ruts going to the dance at Mr. Frank Breckenridge's on Thursday night.

A dance was held at the home of Mr. Dan Menzies on Friday evening, March 30th

Mr. Ray Keating broke an axle in his truck on Thursday coming from Rush Point.

Mrs. John Pollock suffered a very severe burn on the right hand on Thursday, when a quantity of very hot grease splashed over it, leaving some painful blisters on several fingers and also the palm.

Mrs. Harry Petherick is recovering from shock and injuries to the back of her head received on Thursday morning when she slipped on the glare ice coming down the hill between the school and factory.

A dance was held at the home of Mr. Horace King on Good Friday.

Mr. Matthew Petherick made a trip to Claremont on Thursday.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup

The Obstinate Cough That Keeps You Awake

It's the cough that sticks; the cough that hangs on; the cough it is hard to get rid of that causes the nerve and throat wracking cough that keeps you awake at night.

Why not get a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and see how quickly it will relieve this coughing condition. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritated membranes, strengthens the bronchial organs, and when this is done there is no more lying awake with the irritating cough.

Price, 35c. a bottle; large family size, 65c.; at drug and general stores; put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

CHICAGO AFTER HOWIE MORENZ

Understood Canadiens Would Exchange for March or Thompson and Cash.

"FLASH" SLOWING UP?

MONTREAL, April 3. (CP)—The chunky form of Howie Morenz, star centre of Montreal Canadiens since 1923, may be clad in Chicago Black Hawks livery when the 1934 National Hockey League season opens, It was learned here to-day that Major Frederick McLaughlin, owner of the Hawks, has asked Canadiens to name a price for Morenz. Canadiens officials could not be reached immediately for comment.

Hockey observers here expressed the opinion that Canadiens would probably send Morenz to the Hawks if they could make a deal for Harold "Mush" March, right winger, or Paul Thompson, star left winger, and a large bundle of cash.

The veteran speedball from Stratford, Ont., has not had a very good season with the Frenchmen. The flying figure of Morenz, who streaked like a red comet through the hockey firmament for many seasons past, was noticeably slower this year. Howie was out of the game for several weeks with an ankle injury, then climaxed the season with a fracture of the right thumb in the final game with Hawks in the play-offs.

BACK TO LAND

To the Editor of The Examiner,

Dear Sir,—We are well aware that Mayor Denne and the Council are doing what they can to better the prospects of the unemployed, but the continued "passing of the buck" from Ottawa to Toronto and from Toronto to the municipalities has resulted hitherto in very little. The situation is practically unrelieved. The following letter, however, discloses a distinct advance and as the season is approaching for doing something permit me to ask you to publish it in order that inquirers and the public generally may know just where we are. The last line you will notice is the first declaration by the government of what may now be done in our locality. In fact for some time the government has been encouraging the municipal councils to give relief to the local industrial unemployed by putting them on small plots so that they may earn their own relief until the industrial employment market comes back to normal. It looks as if the governments both at Ottawa and Toronto were now opening a way with their co-operation for a very distinct improvement in the unemployment and relief situation.

J. H. Burnham.

Soldier Settlement of Canada and Land Settlement Branch

Dear Sir—

We acknowledge receipt of your letter dated March 20th, stating that you and your partner, are both single men and in receipt of direct relief, but that you would like to take advantage of the Government back to the land scheme and obtain assistance to buy twenty-three acres of land in your locality.

From the information given in your letter we infer that you have in mind the Relief Land Settlement Plan, which is administered by the Provincial Government through its Department of Lands and Forests. Relief land settlement, up until this year, has been confined entirely to lands in Northern Ontario. There has been a movement to include vacant lands in the southern counties of Ontario, but so far as we know, the plan has not yet been extended to Southern Ontario, but you could keep in touch with your municipal officials in that regard.

Yours very truly,
G. W. McColl,
For—District Superintendent.

VERY MISLEADING

To the Editor of The Examiner,

Dear Sir,—In a recent issue of your paper I see a few remarks made on a letter from East London, Cape Province, South Africa, under the caption "Canadians glad not living in South Africa." Now, remarks like that are very misleading to the majority of your readers. The letter apparently states that millions are unemployed in the Union of South Africa, there are roughly 2 million of a white population in the Union, South African, Dutch and British. The good folks in Johannesburg, Durban, Bloomfontein, Cape Town and even East London wouldn't agree with your remarks, they would soon tell you they are living in God's country, neither do they consider themselves as living in a far corner of the Empire. East London is a small harbour in Cape Colony, the Union Castle boats making a call there every week as well as many other lines too numerous to mention. South Africa has a very fine climate, plenty of sunshine, though prolonged drought in some parts lasting for years spoil it for agriculture, but not many British folks go in for agriculture there, the Boer farmers go in for sheep and cattle and lose plenty during the droughts.

The Transvaal Gold Mines are the centre of attraction, stretching from Verseeniging to Springs with Johannesburg as the Centre. The Rand or reef produces two-thirds of the world's gold, and Johannesburg is probably one of the richest cities in the [illegible] according to the wages of [illegible] and municipal employees [illegible] think many South Afri[illegible] be willing to exchange the[illegible] existence in exchange for li[illegible] Canada. Not even the black man there works for his board as many Canadians do, he can afford to go home to his kraal every six months to his three, four or five wives, and be a rich man in his native kraal in a few years. I think you will find more Canadian born folks in South Africa than South African born folks in Canada.

Dave Barclay.

IN SUPPORT OF STARLING

To the Editor of The Examiner,

Dear Sir,—A week ago I read in The Examiner a letter from "Lover of Trees" about the destruction of the starlings. A friends and myself who love birds, trees, flowers, etc., came across this very interesting piece of news in one of the papers; so we thought it might be very interesting news, for Lover of Trees to read it.

Starlings and Sparrows

The best and most emphatic defense of the Starling and English Sparrow yet seen is printed in Pennsylvania Game News, issued by the Commissioners. Conceding that at times they are a nuisance, the writer says: It is the old story of all created things. Very few creatures are wholly bad. Before we can pass judgment we must strike a balance to find whether we are better off with or without them. He states that after examination of the stomachs of thousands of birds of various species, made by the Game Commission, the starling was found, because of its numbers, to be the Pennsylvania farmer's best friend, with the English Sparrow a close second. So far not a single Starling in the insect feeding season has been found subsisting on anything else. Japanese cucumber, Mexican bean, Asiatic and Willow-leaf beetles, Alfalfa weevils, and countless other pests are grist to the Starling mill. After the Japanese beetle has grounded for the year, examination of a fresh batch of stomach showed the food had been the injurious Clover Weevil. Nor, says the authorities, do Starlings drive away other birds, Starlings, Robins, Crackles and Doves were watched for months nesting within a few feet of each other in perfect unity. The only bird none would allow near was the brown thrasher.

When we were youngsters mother always taught us to throw all crumbs, etc., out for the birds, and to this day we still do the same, and I guess if the law does allow the farmers, etc., to shoot them, there still will be some left to come for our crumbs—anyway, we hope so, and even then there will be left quite a large number of beautiful trees for us to admire.

Yours truly,
Lover of Birds, Trees, Flowers, etc.

STALLED MOTORS BLAMED FOR AIR CRASHES

Editor, Examiner, Peterborough:

Sir.—About the most distressing thing that I know of is the number of young men meeting death in airplane accidents, including our own Captain Sparks. If most of these chaps were to make a thorough study of the internal combustion engines now being used, it is my opinion that they would postpone their flying activities until the industry suppled them with a safe motor.

When a motor stalls, there is nothing to do but come down, and fast; and the fact that so many thousands of people meet death every year through stalled motors does not seem to star the builders of these motors in the least.

One would think in the interests of improved development that they would be frank enough to admit that the present construction of the motor is not safe for flying, and by such a frank admission stimulate the thought of the public and cause them to offer suggestions for its improvement.

In France the writer has witnessed the entire wing being shot from an airplane, and the pilot fluttering his plane to the ground and landing safely. It is my opinion that in practically every major accident of this kind the cause can be traced directly to the failing of the engine, and the reason the engine fails or has a tendency to fail is because it is built on the unsound principle of firing the charge before the compression stroke is completed, and unless the motor is running at a high number of revolutions it cannot help but stall.

I have done considerable flying myself, and have had the uncomfortable experience of the motor going dead and the starter failing to work. In this particular case we were 3,000 feet above the City of Detroit. It was necessary to take a nose dive at terrific speed and rely on the rush of air against the propeller to start the motor, sufficiently retarding the spark to permit the motor to fire after compression and then advancing the spark as the revolutions of the motor were built up. If we had been, at that time, only a few hundred feet from the ground, the distance would not have been sufficient to enable us to do this dive, and the result would have been a fatal crash somewhere in the centre of Detroit.

If this were done the improvement would carry over to the automobile field and the hazard of having a stalled motor on the railway crossing would not continually be facing the general driving public.

I look forward to the day when the motor industry will be frank enough to admit its shortcomings, and be broadminded enough to accept with an open mind suggestions for improvement which will result in the advancement of the industry itself, and the betterment of transportation conditions for all of us.

Respectfully yours,
JOHN EVERETT CASTLE.
Windsor, Ont.

Cubs Get Permission To Use Myles Lane

BOSTON, April 3 (AP).—Boston Cubs last night received permission from Judge James E. Dooley, president of the Canadian-American Hockey League, to use Myles Lane in the third game of the Fontaine Cup finals against Rhode Island Reds at Providence Wednesday night.

Lane, former Cubs' manager, ended the season as a member of Boston Bruins. The Cubs were left shorthanded by injuries to Left Wingers Walter Harnott and Donnie Weir, and requested to use the former Dartmouth star in the closing games of the series.

Providence has won two straight in the cup series and needs but another victory to take the trophy and league championship.

Soccer Notes

The soccer meeting scheduled for last night was postponed until this evening, in the Chamber of Commerce rooms, at eight o'clock, when the registration of the clubs will take place. Referees are requested to write their applications and forward them to the secretary.

An emergency committee has been formed to carry on the Caledonian Club until the officer-bearers have been elected by the players and enthusiasts.

AMERICAN LEAGUE UMPIRES.

CHICAGO, April 3.—The American League's staff of umpires for the 1934 season was announced yesterday by President William Harridge. The only new man is Chas. H. Donnelly from the International League, who replaces Roy Van Graflan. Thomas H. Connolly will again be umpire-in-chief. The rest of the staff includes William Dineen, George Hildebrand, Clarence B. Owens, George Moriarty, Emmett T. Ormsby, William A. McGowan, Harry C. Geisel, William R. Summers and Louis C. Kolls.

CLAIMS WORLD RECORD.

CALCUTTA, April 3 (C.P. via Havas).—After spending 24 hours and 10 minutes swimming continuously, P. K. Ghose, the famous Bengalese swimmer, came out of the water yesterday to claim he had beaten a world's record. Last year Ghose set a record by remaining in the water continuously for 79 hours, 24 minutes, but he did not swim continuously throughout the period.

ROSS-McLARNIN BOUT OFF.

CHICAGO, April 3 (AP).—Barney Ross, the world's lightweight champion, is going to stay in his own class, a least for a year. In other words, a bout with welterweight champion, Jimmy McLarnin, was called "out."

"Ross would have to give away around 12 pounds to McLarnin," Sam Pian, one of Ross' co-managers, said. "And anyway, McLarnin wants too big a share of the money for a bout with Barney."

SOUTH AFRICA NET TITLES.

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa, April 3 (C.P.).—Norman Farquharson, who represented South Africa in the Davis Cup matches and bowed to Fred Perry, the champion, at Wimbledon last year, won the South African singles' championship yesterday. He defeated R. Marcolm in a four-set series, the scores being 4—6, 6—2, 6—3, 14—12.

Mrs. Robbins won the women's singles' title, defeating Mrs. F. H. Lowe, 6—0, 6—3.

CANTON COUPLE 50 YEARS WED

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Mason Were Married in Port Hope Parsonage.

SCORES OF FRIENDS CALL

PORT HOPE, April 3.—William E. Mason, widely-known resident of Durham County, together with his wife, yesterday celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding at their home near Canton. During the day scores of friends and relatives called to extend congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Mason, aged 72 and 73 years respectively, were married in Port Hope in 1884 at the parsonage by the late Rev. Lloyd. The bride's maiden name was Agnes Jane Finnie, of Canton, a pioneer family in this district. Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Mason left for Denver, Colorado, where for twelve years the former was an employee of the Union Pacific Railway. They then returned to Canton and farmed on the homestead until fourteen years ago when they constructed a residence near there to quietly enjoy the pleasures of life in their remaining days.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Mason are members of the Woodmen of the World, of Denver, Col., and both are ardent members of the Canton United Church, where Mr. Mason has served on the official board for a number of years.

Mrs. Mason has one sister, Mrs J. A. Bruso, of Denver, Col., who attended the celebration to-day. At the time of the wedding, fifty years ago, she acted as bridesmaid, and outside of the bride and groom, is the only person living who attended the function. As well, there is one brother, Andrew Finnie, of Canton.

Five children blessed the union, three of whom are living: Mrs. Wilbur Barrie, Canton; Mrs. Frank Mason, Ashdale avenue, Toronto and Mrs. E. F. Beavis, Salem avenue, Toronto. One son, George died in 1926, while another son Harry, was killed overseas. The latter, who was an airman, met his death at Vimy Ridge on April 28, 1917.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE REVIEWS

CHICAGO GRAIN.

Unofficial crop estimates indicating a somewhat larger 1934 yield of domestic winter wheat than was asked for did much to pull grain values downward yesterday.

Four leading private experts, who made the estimates, figured that the crop would be more than 40 per cent. in excess of last year's total, although about 18 per cent. less than a five year average. he condition of the crop was placed at 75.5 per cent., as against 74.3 last December and 59.4 a year ago.

Wheat closed unsettled near the day's bottom level, ⅝c to 1c lower than Saturdays finish, corn ½c to ⅝c down, oats ⅝c to ½c off, and provisions unchanged to a decline of 22c.

ONTARIO GRAIN.

Ontario grain, f.o.b. shipping point: Wheat, 82c to 84c.

WOOL.

Wool, fine, 16c per pound; medium, 14c; coarse, 12c; rejects (cotts, black, seedy and burry fleeces), 8c; rejects included, 12c to 14c.

WINNIPEG GRAIN

WINNIPEG, April 3. — With foreign interest reduced to almost zero by the Easter holiday in European markets, wheat prices softened on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange yesterday, and closed with losses of ¼c to ½c.

May wheat closed at 67⅞c July at 69¼c, and October at 70⅝c. Offerings were light, a factor which held losses to small proportions.

Only a minimum of trade was transacted during the morning. Chicago wheat, affected by the bearish character of winter wheat reports, showed an easier tendency. Reports by several private crop experts showed the condition of United States winter wheat to be about 75 per cent. of normal.

MONTREAL PRODUCE.

Eggs were slightly cheaper on the Montreal dairy and produce market yesterday, while butter strengthened slightly, and other lines held unchanged. Graded shipments in cartons or less of eggs were quoted at 20c to 21 a dozen for "A" large; 18c to 19c for "A" medium, and 17c to 18c for "A" pullets. Receipts totalled 1,486 cases.

No. 1 graded butter in cartons or less was generally quoted at 29½c to 30c a pound, with most dealers asking 30c. Light receipts of new butter are lending a firm tone to the market, there being practically no Quebec butter available. The bulk of the demand is supplied by New Zealand butter. Arrivals for the day totalled 1,199 boxes.

Cheese continued at 11¼c a pound for current make Ontario, with summer cheese at 11½c to 12½c for white and colored. A total of 75 boxes was offered for sale during the day.

Quebec potatoes were quoted at $1 to $1.05 per 80-pound bag, and New Brunswick Mountains at $1.05 to $1.10 for similar quantities. Prince Edward Island Mountains in 90-pound bags sold for $1.30 to $1.40.

War Clouds Thinning In Crisis Of Far East

NEW YORK, April 3 (CP) — A special cable to the New York Times from Moscow to-day says war clouds in the Far East appear to be thinning.

Inquiry in the past few days in diplomatic circles in Moscow, where the Far Eastern situation is being intently and expertly watched, has revealed a widespread feeling that the war between Russia and Japan which had been predicted for this spring is not likely to come for many months, and perhaps may be held off for a year or more, the cable says.

Almost no one in Moscow dares hope that war can be permanently prevented because provocations for the conflict are deep and lasting, but one of the critical periods has now been safely passed and there are logical reasons for believing that war is not in the cards for the early future.

Big Saturday Rush For Auto Markers

CAMPBELLFORD, April 3.—(By Examiner Staff Correspondent). — The Davidson Garage was kept busy on Saturday last when the first real rush for the 1934 car licenses and markers were registered. Approximately seven hundred were sold, but this is a little below the total last year for this date, as many car-owners are not operating their cars until road conditions improve. Mr. Davidson estimates, however, that he will eventually distribute his quota of markers, which usually run around the eighteen hundred mark.

BRANTFORD LAD IS SHOT IN EYE

Youth Who Fired "BB" Gun Being Sought by Police.

VICTIM ON HIKE.

BRANTFORD, Ont., April 4 (C.P.)—Jack Gibbons, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Gibbons, Brantford, may lose the sight of an eye as the result of the firing of a "BB" gun, in the hands of an unknown youth roaming with other youths on the links of the Brantford Golf and Country Club yesterday afternoon.

The charge from the gun lodged immediately to the right of the lad's right eye. Suffering terrible pain, the Gibbons boy trudged all the way to his home, where his parents summoned Dr. N. W. Bragg. Dr. Bragg stated that while the boy may not lose the sight of his eye, its sight would be impaired.

The accident is veiled in mystery. According to young Gibbons he and a couple of chums had taken their lunches with them, and gone on a hike. Arriving at a spot back of the golf links, they had built a bonfire.

Leaving him to watch it, other boys of the group had gone for wood. One of the lads had hung his coat nearby.

Hearing voices close at hand, Jack Gibbons looked up as he heard an unknown voice inquire:

"Who owns the coat?" and at the same instant received the bullet in the eye.

The youth in possession of the gun left the spot, but it is understood the names of at least two of them are known. The affair has been placed in the hands of the police, who are investigating.

DEFINITE SIGNS OF RECOVERY SEEN IN INDUSTRIAL REPORTS

Increased Wages and Employment, Greater Harbor Activity Seen.

BUSINESS IMPROVEMENTS.

(By The Canadian Press)

Canada to-day saw definite signs of industrial recovery in optimistic overnight business news from many parts of the country. Reports told of increased wages, increased employment, greater harbor activity and new business for industrial plants.

The Dominion Steel and Coal Company at Sydney, N.S., announced it had received orders to manufacture 24,000 tons of soft steel products for export to the United Kingdom and New Zealand. The company said the order represented new business. It reported its working force at 22,000, the largest in recent years.

Port workers at Louisburg, N.S., were busy loading 7,200 tons of steel products aboard the freighter Grey County, clearing soon for Britain. Steel shipped from the port since the start of the year has reached 32,000 tons, providing a period of greater employment than for many years.

At Halifax Chairman H. L. Hetherington of the Harbor Commission said tonnage of cargo handled at the port set an all-time record for the month of March. The commission estimated the tonnage 285,432, was 98 percent greater than that of March, 1933. Mr. Hetherington said "Our facilities have been taxed to the limit."

1,500 Men at Montreal

The city of Montreal put more than 1,500 unemployed to work clearing ice and snow from the streets. In the same city the Canadian Pacific Railway reported its earnings for the week ended March 31, were $467,000 greater than those of the corresponding week last year. Mourned as Dead, Soldier Returns

CALGARY, April 4 (CP).—A picture of his own grave and a cross with his name printed on it are prized possessions of Col. D. G. L. Cunnington, of Calgary.

Severely wounded on August 11, 1918, Col. Cunnington was left on the field of battle for dead by his fellow officers. He was found by the Germans and made a prisoner of war. His tunic and other articles were left on the field where a Canadian party later found them.

Released from a prison camp, the Calgary soldier later heard of his "grave," obtained a picture and the cross. Relating the story, the colonel incidentally added his "widow" had to refund his pension and his life insurance when he returned to Canada, very much alive.

Attack Occurs at Farm Home on Markham Line Where Farmer Was Alone.

MARKHAM, Ont., April 4 (CP)—A man who gave his name as Patrick Brine was held by police to-day after he had allegedly attacked 65-year-old Warren Wilson as he sat alone in his home on the town line at Markham last night

After a terrific struggle, the intruder was subdued by a shot gun in the hands of Mrs. H. Nash, a daughter of Wilson. Hearing the commotion in the house, she rushed to the scene and helped her father in fighting off the assailant. Another daughter, Vina, also came to the assistance of the middle-aged father, but their efforts at first proved unavailing.

Mrs. Nash obtained a shot gun from a neighbor and pointed it at the intruder while others pinned him to the floor. He was held by them until police arrived.

The room where Wilson had been attacked was completely wrecked. Smashed furniture was scattered about and the telephone torn bodily from the wall.

FIRE DESTROYED INGERSOLL MILL

Loss is Estimated at $75,000 —Overheated Pulley Blamed.

MILLER CLOSE CALL.

INGERSOLL, Ont., April 4 (CP).—Swinging hand-over-hand along an endless chain between Wood's flour mills and the plant's elevator, William Vyse, night miller, escaped from flames which gutted the plant early to-day. Loss was tentatively estimated at $75,000.

The night miller was alone in the four-storey building when the flames started sweeping through the lower floors. He attempted to grope his way through to the door but the fire, already well underway, shot out a dense screen of smoke which put up a barrier between him and safety.

Gave The Alarm.

Scaling to the roof, Vyse grasped the inclining chain and swung over to the elevator 20 feet away. There he obtained a ladder and climbed down to the ground. He ran to the fire station and put in his alarm.

When fire-fighters arrived on the scene, the flames were already shooting from the windows of the lower storeys. Although it had made headway through the stored grain and flour, the firemen were able to check further spreading.

The loss was partially covered by insurance.

LONDON, Ont., April 4 (C.P.).—Milton C. Kean, London, news agent on Canadian National passenger trains, was fond of dogs. Recently he discovered a dog asleep in the corner of a baggage car, and leaned over to pet it. The official report on the affair stated that the weather was clear at the time of the accident.

SPRING SEEDING SIGNS SCARCE

Damage to Fruit Trees by Severe Winter Becomes More Apparent.

POOR RUN OF SAP.

TORONTO, April 4 (CP)—Due to heavy snowfall and cold weather not much progress has been made in Spring seeding, according to the Ontario Department of Agriculture weekly crop report issued to-day. Damage to fruit trees by the severe cold of the Winter became more apparent during the week.

Livestock, particularly cows, were reported in a satisfactory condition in Dufferin County after a recent inspection of stables. However, it was estimated 70 per cent of the cattle in Peel and Waterloo will be treated for warble fly.

In the southern section of the province snow earlier in the week was of considerable assistance to Fall wheat and alfalfa, but in Haldimand it was doubtful if it came early enough to save much of the crop. Heavy frosts at night damaged Fall wheat in Lincoln. Strawberries and raspberries have not been injured as much as other fruit by cold weather.

Poor run of sap was reported from Hastings, Prince Edward and Victoria and little syrup has been made. Wheat and clover which came through the winter in good shape were aided considerably by the snowfall. In Grenville storm damage and frost injury to apple orchards was heavy and many fields still were covered with ice.

Winter conditions prevailed in Northern Ontario and so far there was no indication of a breakup.

Temperance Workers Form Future Plans

Arrangements were discussed at a meeting of temperance advocates last evening for the early formation of an organization within the provincial parliamentary riding here to deal with the liquor situation as it presents itself from time to time.

Held in the board room at George Street United Church and attended by appoximately fifty persons, the meeting was under chairmanship of the Rev. J. H. Sutcliffe. Homer Borland acted as secretary pro tem.

As a result of the meeting which was called by Mr. Sutcliffe at the request of the Rev. Dr. A. J. Irwin, secretary of the Ontario Temperance Federation, an executive committee was appointed to draw up plans for the early formation of an organization to embrace a membership throughout the city and county.

The executive committee was appointed as follows: Rev. J. H. Sutcliffe; Homer Borland; H. B. Cowan; A. B. Cunningham, and W. G. Shiner.

Grand River Jam Continues Threatening—8 Blasting Rideau Ice Nearly Drown.

ELK CITY, Okla., April 4 (C.P.). — At least six lives were believed lost, eight persons were missing, and between 25 and 40 homes were washed away by flood waters of the Washita River to-day.

Houses in the vicinity of the little town of Hammon were torn from their foundations. Families were swept from their beds as the unusually quiet Washita spread suddenly to a width of nearly two miles.

Hope virtually was abandoned for the wife and five daughters of A. M. Adams, a farmer. Adams rescued two other children before his home was smashed against a bridge. Before he could get the others out, the house was swept downstream.

The home of Robert Scabby, an Indian living west of Hammon, was carried away and the Scabby family of four could not be found.

East of the town, the L. L. Senter home was washed away and four more persons were missing.

Several hundred rescue workers patrolled the river by boat, on horseback and afoot. Two tirplanes from here and Oklahoma City flew low over the stream.

Grand Still Blocked

The flood menace to-day centred in the valley of the swelling Grand River where periodic ice-jams backed up surface waters over farms and highways and in one point threatened to carry away a bridge.

In the Ottawa valley a similar condition prevailed with little hope of immediate relief. The floods, which in some cases drove families from their homes in Cornwall, continued to surge over farmlands but the river-level remained even as dynamite was used to blast out ice-blockages.

The highway bridge at Waldemar remained in the grip of a two-mile jam to-day. The ice was piling high in the centre of the stream and it was expected the bridge would be carried away when the floes started moving again. There, too, the water rose during the night and receded only a few

CRIPPS CAUSTIC UPON NEW DEAL

Believes Washington Proceeding With Any Measures to Aid Capitalistic System.

NO OBJECTIVE.

MONTREAL, April 4. (CP). The English crown and socialism are not incompatible, and England would be better off as a hereditary monarchy even if the country became socialistic, Sir Stafford Cripps, leader of the English Labor party, said here to-day in an interview.

"I think," Sir Stafford, a former solicitor-general of the United Kingdom said, "that rule under a hereditary monarchy would almost be better than under a political president. One of the necessities of democracy is to have a non-political head and that is very difficult when a man is selected for the presidency."

Sir Stafford did not think much of the new deal in the United States. "My impression," he said, "is that the Washington administration has no objective at all. It is merely proceeding from hand to mouth with any measures which it thinks will help the capitalist system."

HIGHWAY WASHES OUT

A Near Tragedy

TORONTO, April 4 (C.P.).—Awakened by the cries of a young daughter, Mrs. Ida Wasserman found her home was filled with coal gas fumes.

When aroused by her daughter's crying, Mrs. Wasserman went to get her a glass of water, but was on the verge of collapse when she returned to the little girl's bedside. Asleep in adjoining rooms, her 24-year old son and daughter were also awakened by the cries. The son, realising the danger of the situation, smashed open a window before running to a neighbor's home to summon help.

FAMILY SEEKS HUGE FORTUNE

Millions in England Await Heirs of Former Fur Trader to Prove Claims.

BUILT UP 200 YEARS AGO.

FORT WILLIAM, April 4 (CP).—A fortune deputed to amount to millions of dollars awaited disposition to-day while apparent direct heirs in widely-separated parts of Canada anxiously looked for developments.

The fortune consisted of the estate of the late James Hudson, accumulated 200 years ago in fur trading with the Indians in James Bay district. So far as could be learned, Hudson was no trading post factor. The unofficial title of "governor" was conferred on him by friends.

Claimants to the fortune include Moses Frost 93, of Port Arthur, and Mrs. John Peever, Vancouver. They are grandson and granddaughter respectively of the trader. The fortune is now understood to be in Chancery in England.

Delay in settlement of the estate was caused because the will, written on buckskin, was lost or stolen from Mr. Frost's mother in 1867.

Other claimants are: Mrs. Margaret Eastom, daughter of Moses Frost, and her seven children, Port Arthur; Mrs. A. Cameron, another daughter, Fort William; John Frost, Fort William; Norman Frost, Upsala, Ont.; Moses Frost, Jr., Kaministiquia, Ont.; David Frost of Kenora, Ont.; Samuel, residing somewhere in the United States, all sons of Moses Frost; William and Emphraim Peever, sons of Mrs. Peever, Vancouver.

Doctors' Allowances Increased By Robb

TORONTO, April 4 (C.P.). — Increased allowances to physicians for treatment of indigent patients have been ordered by Hon. J. M. Robb, Ontario Minister of Health.

On Dr. Robb's instructions, a circular has been issued to all physicians in Ontario notifying them that they would receive extra allowances for "mileage" and drugs as well as half the usual fees.

Previously doctors received half fees from the province for treatment of patients on relief, with a $100 maximum. Out of this sum the doctors were also required to pay their own mileage and, especially in rural districts, were required to use their own drugs.

Patient In Hospital After Trip Over Ice

KINGSTON, Ont., April 4 (CP)—A perilous trip across the ice from Wolfe Island was made to-day in bringing a patient to the Kingston General Hospital.

Leonard and Tupper Hawkins, operating an ice punt, brought over Henry Hall, the trip taking almost three hours and the islanders having a hard time of it before they finally reached the Kingston shore.

The patient was progressing favorably in hospital. Much water on top of dangerously thin ice was encountered in the crossing.

POLICE CLOSING IN ON DILLINGER; PAL IS ARRESTED

Woman, Believed One Who Escaped Trap With Desperado Saturday is Also Taken.

SECRET RAID.

Two Captured as They Return to Apartment, Man Wounded in Surprise Fire.

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 4 (AP)—Federal guns, blazing leaden retort to gang defiance, had cut close to-day to the trail of the arch-fugitive, John Dillinger, and reddened it with the blood of one of his gun-toting pals.

In a swift descent last night upon a hideout place, officers wounded and captured Eugene Green, a veteran of Midwestern crime. Arrested with him was a woman. Officers guarded her identity carefully. It was said she closely resembled Evelyn Prechetti, a girl friend of Dillinger.

Green, critically wounded, admitted he was one of three persons who shot their way out of a police trap Saturday. Dillinger himself was understood to have been one of the others. The third, a woman, is presumed to have been the Prechetti woman.

Federal men and police conducted last night's raid with great secrecy, and declined to lift the veil to-day. Green, under heavy guard, is at a hospital.

In the only statement made by either police or Federal officers, W. A. Rorer., heading Federal forces in charge of the solution of the Edward G. Bremer kidnapping case, announced that Green had admitted being one of the trio involved in Saturday's gun battle with officers.

Sought Machine Gun Butt

Rorer said the butt of a machine gun left in an automobile abandoned by the trio Saturday was found in front of Green's apartment, in front of which last night's shooting occurred. The place is owned by a negress.

A "plant" was established at the apartment by Federal agents awaiting the return of Green to obtain possession of the butt as well as other baggage, including automatic gun clips and a supply of ammunition.

Reports of the shooting conflicted. Rorer said Green was shot when he assumed a "threatening attitude which was accompanied by a menacing gesture" as he was endeavoring to get away with his equipment.

Other witnesses describing the shooting said Green and his woman companion drove up to the apartment, and that the Federal agent planted in the house opened fire from a window as Green stepped from the car.

Cyclist Is Injured Returning From Work

Involved in collision with an automobile as he was riding his bicycle south on Queen street shortly after noon today, Samuel McGlennon, 54 Morrow street, received injuries which necessitated his removal by ambulance to Nicholls Hospital.

McGlennon, a young married man had just left the Quaker Oats plant where he is employed, and was cycling south on Queen street when he became involved in collision with an automobile that was being driven west on Simcoe street by E. C. Clegg of Benson avenue, a foreman at the same plant.

Dr. H. V. Dobson, declined to discuss the nature of the man's injuries. Asked if he considered McGlennon's injuries as serious, he stated, "that remains to be seen".

It was gathered from another source that McGlennon was suffering from possible fracture of the legs and severe shock. He was conscious when admitted to hospital.

Constable William Piercy investigated, and Belleghem's ambulance was called.

Careful Attention To Mental Defectives Required In Ontario Inspector Declares

TORONTO, April 4. (CP)—Unless "serious and careful attention is given in the near future to the increasing number of mental defectives, Ontario will be unable to function as a modern civilized state," Inspector J. H. Smith of Stratford, warned the supervising and training department of the Ontario Educational Association here to-day.

"Various remedies," he said "have been suggested by committees of different states, such as sterilization, life segregation, restrictive marriage laws, eugenic education, systems in mating, all purporting to remove defective traits, polygamy and euthanasia. But of these sterilization and life segregation seem to hold out the greatest hope of most immediate and effective results.

"There is a question as to the extremity to which society should go in apply sterilization and concerning the part this remedy should play in relation to other remedial agencies. It would be possible theoretically to sterilize wholesale those individuals thought to carry defective hereditary traits. On the other hand belief in efficiency of natural selection under existing social conditions is held by some. Between these two extremes sterilization can be best used to supplement segregation surveys have shown."

Snow In Ottawa Area Reaches 107 Inches; 4 Months Except January Coldest 44 Years

OTTAWA, April 4 (CP). — The total snowfall at the Dominion Experimental Farm during the past winter, from October 24 to March 31, was 107.5 inches. This was 17.5 inches more than the average. The bulk of the total snowfall was received in the early part of the winter.

The lowest temperature ever registered since records were taken at the farm was on December 29 last, when the mercury dropped to 38 degrees below zero. In addition, the coldest November, December, February and March in 44 years were also recorded.

The weather continued so consistently cold throughout the whole winter that snow melted very little, and at the end of March nearly two feet still remained on level fields.

The company said the order represented new business. It reported its working force at 22,000, the largest in recent years.

Port workers at Louisburg, N.S., were busy loading 7,200 tons of steel products aboard the freighter Grey County, clearing soon for Britain. Steel shipped from the port since the start of the year has reached 32,000 tons, providing a period of greater employment than for many years.

At Halifax Chairman H. L. Hetherington of the Harbor Commission said tonnage of cargo handled at the port set an all-time record for the month of March. The commission estimated the tonnage 285,432.- was 98 percent greater than that of March, 1933. Mr. Hetherington said "Our facilities have been taxed to the limit."

1,500 Men at Montreal

The city of Montreal put more than 1,500 unemployed to work clearing ice and snow from the streets. In the same city the Canadian Pacific Railway reported its earnings for the week ended March 31, were $467,000 greater than those of the corresponding week last year. The Canadian National Railways reported gross revenue for the 10-day period ended March 31, showed an increase of $782,127

Mourned as Dead, Soldier Returns

CALGARY, April 4 (CP).—A picture of his own grave and a cross with his name printed on it are prized possessions of Col. D. G. L. Cunnington, of Calgary.

Severely wounded on August 11, 1918, Col. Cunnington was left on the field of battle for dead by his fellow officers. He was found by the Germans and made a prisoner of war. His tunic and other articles were left on the field where a Canadian party later found them.

Released from a prison camp, the Calgary soldier later heard of his "grave," obtained a picture and the cross. Relating the story, the colonel incidentally added his "widow" had to refund his pension and his life insurance when he returned to Canada, very much alive.

DOCTORS LOSING FIGHT FOR LIFE

Little Girl Slowly Dying as Cannibal Corpuscles Do Deadly Work.

TOT UNAWARE OF FATE.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 4 (AP) — Memphis' outstanding physicians are offering their aid to Willie Mae Miller as the four-year-old leucocythemia victim continues an uneven battle again death.

Hope sustains her mother and father because the child laughs and sings as she is taken to a hospital each day for medical attention.

Physicians say little hope remains, but that they will continue the fight.

The child, they say, many linger on indefinitely, or death may come suddenly. The white corpuscles are slowly driving the red corpuscles from the blood-stream.

Willie Mae, too young to know that she is dying, plays and sings each day—that is, until she becomes so drowsy she can play no longer, and has to be put to bed.

Doctors are sharing the fight. A different physician takes over Willie Mae's case each week. The physicians represent the best in Memphis' medical skill.

MARKHAM, Ont., April 4 (CP)—A man who gave his name as Patrick Brine was held by police to-day after he had allegedly attacked 65-year-old Warren Wilson as he sat alone in his home on the town line at Markham last night.

After a terrific struggle, the intruder was subdued by a shot gun in the hands of Mrs. H. Nash, a daughter of Wilson. Hearing the commotion in the house, she rushed to the scene and helped her father in fighting off the assailant. Another daughter, Vina, also came to the assistance of the middle-aged father, but their efforts at first proved unavailing.

Mrs. Nash obtained a shot gun from a neighbor and pointed it at the intruder while others pinned him to the floor. He was held by them until police arrived.

The room where Wilson had been attacked was completely wrecked. Smashed furniture was scattered about and the telephone torn bodily from the wall.

FIRE DESTROYED INGERSOLL MILL

Loss is Estimated at $75,000 —Overheated Pulley Blamed.

MILLER CLOSE CALL.

INGERSOLL, Ont., April 4 (CP).—Swinging hand-over-hand along an endless chain between Wood's flour mills and the plant's elevator, William Vyse, night miller, escaped from flames which gutted the plant early to-day. Loss was tentatively estimated at $75,000.

The night miller was alone in the four-storey building when the flames started sweeping through the lower floors. He attempted to grope his way through to the door but the fire, already well underway, shot out a dense screen of smoke which put up a barrier between him and safety.

Gave The Alarm.

Scaling to the roof, Vyse grasped the inclining chain and swung over to the elevator 20 feet away. There he obtained a ladder and climbed down to the ground. He ran to the fire station and put in his alarm.

When fire-fighters arrived on the scene, the flames were already shooting from the windows of the lower storeys. Although it had made headway through the stored grain and flour, the firemen were able to check further spreading.

The loss was partially covered by insurance.

Not Affectionate

LONDON, Ont., April 4 (C.P.).—Milton C. Kean, London, news agent on Canadian National passeger trains, was fond of dogs. Recently he discovered a dog asleep in the corner of a baggage car, and leaned over to pet it. The dog awoke and returned Mr. Kean's kindly interest by biting him in the nose, inflicting painful lacerations.

The official report on the affair stated that the weather was clear at the time of the accident.

SPRING SEEDING SIGNS SCARCE

Damage to Fruit Trees by Severe Winter Becomes More Apparent.

POOR RUN OF SAP.

TORONTO, April 4 (CP)—Due to heavy snowfall and cold weather not much progress has been made in Spring seeding, according to the Ontario Department of Agriculture weekly crop report issued to-day. Damage to fruit trees by the severe cold of the Winter became more apparent during the week.

Livestock, particularly cows, were reported in a satisfactory condition in Dufferin County after a recent inspection of stables. However, it was estimated 70 per cent of the cattle in Peel and Waterloo will be treated for warble fly.

In the southern section of the province snow earlier in the week was of considerable assistance to Fall wheat and alfalfa, but in Haldimand it was doubtful if it came early enough to save much of the crop. Heavy frosts at night damaged Fall wheat in Lincoln. Strawberries and raspberries have not been injured as much as other fruit by cold weather.

Poor run of sap was reported from Hastings, Prince Edward and Victoria and little syrup has been made. Wheat and clover which came through the winter in good shape were aided considerably by the snowfall. In Grenville storm damage and frost injury to apple orchards was heavy and many fields still were covered with ice.

Winter conditions prevailed in Northern Ontario and so far there was no indication of a breakup.

Temperance Workers Form Future Plans

Arrangements were discussed at a meeting of temperance advocates last evening for the early formation of an organization within the provincial parliamentary riding here to deal with the liquor situation as it presents itself from time to time.

Held in the board room at George Street United Church and attended by appoximately fifty persons, the meeting was under chairmanship of the Rev. J. H. Sutcliffe. Homer Borland acted as secretary pro tem.

As a result of the meeting which was called by Mr. Sutcliffe at the request of the Rev. Dr. A. J. Irwin, secretary of the Ontario Temperance Federation, an executive committee was appointed to draw up plans for the early formation of an organization to embrace a membership throughout the city and county.

The executive committee was appointed as follows: Rev. J. H. Sutcliffe; Homer Borland; H. B. Cowan; A. B. Cunningham, and W. G. Shiner.

OKLAHOMA TRAGEDY.

Grand River Jam Continues Threatening—8 Blasting Rideau Ice Nearly Drown.

ELK CITY, Okla., April 4 (C.P.). — At least six lives were believed lost, eight persons were missing, and between 25 and 40 homes were washed away by flood waters of the Washita River to-day.

Houses in the vicinity of the little town of Hammon were torn from their foundations. Families were swept from their beds as the unusually quiet Washita spread suddenly to a width of nearly two miles.

Hope virtually was abandoned for the wife and five daughters of A. M. Adams, a farmer. Adams rescued two other children before his home was smashed against a bridge. Before he could get the others out, the house was swept downstream.

The home of Robert Scabby, an Indian living west of Hammon was carried away and the Scabby family of four could not be found.

East of the town, the L. L. Senter home was washed away and four more persons were missing.

Several hundred rescue workers patrolled the river by boat, on horseback and afoot. Two tirplanes from here and Oklahoma City flew low over the stream.

Grand Still Blocked

The flood menace to-day centred in the valley of the swelling Grand River where periodic ice-jams backed up surface waters over farms and highways and in one point threatened to carry away a bridge.

In the Ottawa valley a similar condition prevailed with little hope of immediate relief. The floods, which in some cases drove families from their homes in Cornwall, continued to surge over farmlands but the river-level remained even as dynamite was used to blast out ice-blockages.

The highway bridge at Waldemar remained in the grip of a two-mile jam to-day. The ice was piling high in the centre of the stream and it was expected the bridge would be carried away when the floes started moving again. There, too, the water rose during the night and receded only a few

CRIPPS CAUSTIC UPON NEW DEAL

Believes Washington Proceeding With Any Measures to Aid Capitalistic System.

NO OBJECTIVE.

MONTREAL, April 4. (CP). The English crown and socialism are not incompatible, and England would be better off as a hereditary monarchy even if the country became socialistic, Sir Stafford Cripps, leader of the English Labor party, said here to-day in an interview.

"I think," Sir Stafford, a former solicitor-general of the United Kingdom said, "that rule under a hereditary monarchy would almost be better than under a political president. One of the necessities of democracy is to have a non-political head and that is very difficult when a man is selected for the presidency."

Sir Stafford did not think much of the new deal in the United States. "My impression," he said, "is that the Washington administration has no objective at all. It is merely proceeding from hand to mouth with any measures which it thinks will help the capitalist system."

HIGHWAY WASHES OUT

ROCKTON, Ont., April 3 (CP) — A washout occurred early to-day on Highway No. 8 at Christie's Corners, the front wheels of two trucks sinking into the hole. Cautious driving over Highways Nos. 5 and 8 is advised.

A Near Tragedy

TORONTO, April 4 (C.P.).—Awakened by the cries of a young daughter, Mrs. Ida Wasserman found her home was filled with coal gas fumes.

When aroused by her daughter's crying, Mrs. Wasserman went to get her a glass of water, but was on the verge of collapse when she returned to the little girl's bedside. Asleep in adjoining rooms, her 24-year old son and daughter were also awakened by the cries. The son, realizing the danger of the situation, smashed open a window before running to a neighbor's home to summon help.

FAMILY SEEKS HUGE FORTUNE

BUILT UP 200 YEARS AGO.

FORT WILLIAM, April 4 (CP).—A fortune deputed to amount to millions of dollars awaited disposition to-day while apparent direct heirs in widely-separated parts of Canada anxiously looked for developments.

The fortune consisted of the estate of the late James Hudson, accumulated 200 years ago in fur trading with the Indians in James Bay district. So far as could be learned, Hudson was no trading post factor. The unofficial title of "governor" was conferred on him by friends.

Claimants to the fortune include Moses Frost 93, of Port Arthur, and Mrs. John Peever, Vancouver. They are grandson and granddaughter respectively of the trader. The fortune is now understood to be in Chancery in England.

Delay in settlement of the estate was caused because the will, written on buckskin, was lost or stolen from Mr. Frost's mother in 1867.

Other claimants are: Mrs. Margaret Eastom, daughter of Moses Frost, and her seven children, Port Arthur; Mrs. A. Cameron, another daughter, Fort William; John Frost, Fort William; Norman Frost, Upsala, Ont.; Moses Frost, Jr., Kaministiquia, Ont.; David Frost of Kenora, Ont.; Samuel, residing somewhere in the United States, all sons of Moses Frost; William and Emphraim Peever, sons of Mrs. Peever, Vancouver.

Doctors' Allowances Increased By Robb

TORONTO, April 4 (C.P.). — Increased allowances to physicians for treatment of indigent patients have been ordered by Hon. J. M. Robb, Ontario Minister of Health.

On Dr. Robb's instructions, a circular has been issued to all physicians in Ontario notifying them that they would receive extra allowances for "mileage" and drugs as well as half the usual fees.

Previously doctors received half fees from the province for treatment of patients on relief, with a $100 maximum. Out of this sum the doctors were also required to pay their own mileage and, especially in rural districts, were required to use their own drugs.

Patient In Hospital After Trip Over Ice

KINGSTON, Ont., April 4 (CP)—A perilous trip across the ice from Wolfe Island was made to-day in bringing a patient to the Kingston General Hospital.

Leonard and Tupper Hawkins, operating an ice punt, brought over Henry Hall, the trip taking almost three hours and the islanders having a hard time of it before they finally reached the Kingston shore.

The patient was progressing favorably in hospital. Much water on top of dangerously thin ice was encountered in the crossing.

POLICE CLOSING IN ON DILLINGER; PAL IS ARRESTED

Woman, Believed One Who Escaped Trap With Desperado Saturday is Also Taken.

SECRET RAID.

Two Captured as They Return to Apartment, Man Wounded in Surprise Fire.

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 4 (AP)—Federal guns, blazing leaden retort to gang defiance, had cut close to-day to the trail of the arch-fugitive, John Dillinger, and reddened it with the blood of one of his gun-toting pals.

In a swift descent last night upon a hideout place, officers wounded and captured Eugene Green, a veteran of Midwestern crime. Arrested with him was a woman. Officers guarded her identity carefully. It was said she closely resembled Evelyn Frechetti, a girl friend of Dillinger.

Green, critically wounded, admitted he was one of three persons who shot their way out of a police trap Saturday. Dillinger himself was understood to have been one of the others. The third, a woman, is presumed to have been the Frechetti woman.

Federal men and police conducted last night's raid with great secrecy, and declined to lift the veil to-day. Green, under heavy guard, is at a hospital.

In the only statement made by either police or Federal officers, W. A. Rorer, heading Federal forces in charge of the solution of the Edward G. Bremer kidnapping case, announced that Green had admitted being one of the trio involved in Saturday's gun battle with officers.

Sought Machine Gun Butt

Rorer said the butt of a machine gun left in an automobile abandoned by the trio Saturday was found in front of Green's apartment, in front of which last night's shooting occurred. The place is owned by a negress.

A "plant" was established at the apartment by Federal agents awaiting the return of Green to obtain possession of the butt as well as other baggage, including automatic gun clips and a supply of ammunition.

Reports of the shooting conflicted. Rorer said Green was shot when he assumed a "threatening attitude which was accompanied by a menacing gesture" as he was endeavoring to get away with his equipment.

Other witnesses describing the shooting said Green and his woman companion drove up to the apartment, and that the Federal agent planted in the house opened fire from a window as Green stepped from the car.

Cyclist Is Injured Returning From Work

Involved in collision with an automobile as he was riding his bicycle south on Queen street shortly after noon today, Samuel McGlennon, 54 Morrow street, received injuries which necessitated his removal by ambulance to Nicholls Hospital.

McGlennon, a young married man had just left the Quaker Oats plant where he is employed, and was cycling south on Queen street when he became involved in collision with an automobile that was being driven west on Simcoe street by E. C. Clegg of Benson avenue, a foreman at the same plant.

Dr. H. V. Dobson, declined to discuss the nature of the man's injuries. Asked if he considered McGlennon's injuries as serious, he stated, "that remains to be seen".

It was gathered from another source that McGlennon was suffering from possible fracture of the legs and severe shock. He was conscious when admitted to hospital.

Constable William Piercy investigated, and Bellezhem's ambulance was called.

Careful Attention To Mental Defectives Required In Ontario Inspector Declares

TORONTO, April 4. (CP)—Unless "serious and careful attention is given in the near future to the increasing number of mental defectives, Ontario will be unable to function as a modern civilized state," Inspector J. H. Smith of Stratford, warned the supervising and training department of the Ontario Educational Association here to-day.

"Various remedies," he said "have been suggested by committees of different states, such as sterilization, life segregation, restrictive marriage laws, eugenic education, systems in mating, all purporting to remove defective traits, polygamy and euthanasia. But of these sterilization and life segregation seem to hold out the greatest hope of most immediate and effective results.

"There is a question as to the extremity to which society should go in apply sterilization and concerning the part this remedy should play in relation to other remedial agencies. It would be possible theoretically to sterilize wholesale those individuals thought to carry defective hereditary traits. On the other hand belief in efficiency of natural selection under existing social conditions is held by some. Between these two extremes sterilization can be best used to supplement segregation, surveys have shown."

Snow In Ottawa Area Reaches 107 Inches; 4 Months Except January Coldest 44 Years

OTTAWA, April 4 (CP). — The total snowfall at the Dominion Experimental Farm during the past winter, from October 24 to March 31, was 107.5 inches. This was 17.5 inches more than the average. The bulk of the total snowfall was received in the early part of the winter.

The lowest temperature ever registered since records were taken at the farm was on December 29 last, when the mercury dropped to 38 degrees below zero. In addition, the coldest November, December, February and March in 44 years were also recorded.

The weather continued so consistently cold throughout the whole winter that snow melted very little, and at the end of March nearly two feet still remained on level fields.

MOULD MINDS TO GREATNESS TEACHERS TOLD

Bennett Points Out Their Responsibility in Shaping Nation's Future Course.

ANNUAL CONVENTION.

Ontario's Aim is to Make Education Available to All Henry Asserts.

TORONTO, April 3. (CP). — The Ontario Educational Association's 73rd annual convention approached conclusion to-day with a message left to the delegates by Prime Minister R. B. Bennett, stressing the teachers' importance in forming the country's future course. Mr. Bennett, who started his career as a teacher 40 years ago, addressed the delegates last night and declared he was convinced there was "no influence more powerful than the schools in the building of a nation."

"With unrest and distrust all about us, what a responsibility you have in moulding the plastic minds of young people," the Prime Minister said. "How will they be moulded? Will they think in terms of greatness of their nation or of material forces making for individual comfort."

Mr. Bennett declared character, a respect for tradition and a faith in the future must be included in the building of a nation and he criticized those who would wreck the great institutions built up through the centuries. "That is not the way we are going to build the great nation of the future" he said.

Premier George S. Henry of Ontario in his address to the convention stated his government had never shown lack of interest in education. Nearly one third of the $38,000,000 revenue over which there was some measure of control had gone to education, he added.

Education For All

The Ontario government's aim was to make educational available to all those who wish it. He hoped greater support would be forthcoming for intermediate schools which would combine academic studies with vocational guidance and place students in spheres where they would find greater advance. He mentioned that legislation to establish these schools had been introduced in the Ontario Legislature during the last session but had been withdrawn because of strong opposition.

Donald A. Norris, president of the association, referred to the unfavorable effect of the apparent decline of home influences on the life of the modern child. The greatest obstacle to a perfect educational system, he said, was the inequality of pupils' mental capacities.

"A solution of this," Mr. Norris continued, "might be brought nearer by a system of pre-school examination of the mental status of the child so that his classification and allocation when he reaches school age can be simplified."

"Some people claim the teacher should remedy any faults or traits resulting from lack of home training. But the teacher is not superhuman. If children were sent to school with proper home training in obedience, I feel sure there would be less publicity on the use of the strap."

Criticizes Exams

Mr. Norris had criticism for certain of the examination systems. An examination for 13-year-old scholars in 1933, he said, required the detailing of the life or history of persons or places in the Dominion. This had to be done in two hours "and yet we are instructed that memorizing work by pupils in to be discouraged."

He deplored the printing of stories of teachers beating pupils in prominent places in the newspapers and then publishing collapse of the charges on back pages. Mr. Morris also declared it was a great error to reduce teachers salaries.

NOT RELIEF PROGRAM.

Tax Collector Reports 85 p.c. of List in With 90 p.c. Expected Shortly.

HAVELOCK, April 4 (Examiner Correspondence).—At the regular meeting of the Village Council, held in the Town Hall chambers on Tuesday evening, all members were present, and Reeve Richard Sanderson presided.

Correspondence was read from the following: Bickle Fire Engines Co., suggesting the council acquire more modern fire fighting apparatus; Miss J. A. Batten, country treasurer, in connection with the Havelock pupils attending Peterborough Collegiate Institute during 1932 and 1933 term. It was pointed out the certified attendance records made by the principal had been forwarded, with the bill for the villages' share.. A letter from The Ontario Good Roads Association, pointed out the good work carried on each year and solicited $5 membership fee from the council. Radio Station CKOC, at Ottawa, Canada, asked the co-operation of the village council in supplying any interesting data pertaining to the early history of the incorporation. Dunn and Bradstrees, mercantile publishers, asked for the village's population, to bring their bulletin up-to-date. Probably the most important letter was that from the Assistant Provincial Secretary, enclosing five new marriage licenses and special forms to be used when a divorcee is anticipating marriage. Clerk Puffer wanted it to be made known that he had all the paraphanalia necessary to issue licenses.

Mrs. Logan wrote the council in connection with the accident last Fall, when she injured her foot while coming out of a George street

MT. POCONO, Pa. April 4. —(CP) —With the thermometer near summer figures, skaters on Pocono Lake thought they better be careful. So they got an axe to test the thickness of the ice. It was 14 inches through, reminder of the coldest February ever recorded in the Northeastern United States.

The truck struck a car —one dented fender. It passed safely over an intersecton and struck another car — another dented fender. It crashed nto a telephone pole.

Jacke, sightly cut, crawled from beneath a pile of milk bottles.

"Wanna go riding," he asked a passerby.

2 NEW MEMBERS LIBRARY BOARD

Mrs. J. Armstrong, Mrs. W. Rice. Are Appointed by Havelock W.I. at April Meet.

QUILT IS RUSHED.

HAVELOCK April 4 (Examiner Correspondence)—The appointment of two new members to the Library Board, to replace the two whose resignations were handed in at the last meeting, was the chief business in hand at the regular meeting of Havelock Women's Institute, in session in the Council Chamber on Monday afternoon, April 2, when there was a fair attendance of the membership and a few visitors. The President, Mrs. Hoffman, was in charge.

Mrs. John Armstrong and Mrs. Will Rice are the new members of the Library Board; a meeting of which has been called for an early date, to select new books to supplement those already on hand.

A letter from the Department of Institutes at Toronto, advised that a summer speaker would be at Trent River on June 14th, and at Norwood on June 15th, and Havelock members are asked to attend one or both of these meetings, as a speaker has not been applied for at this point.

The autographed quilt, which is to be disposed of by drawing when finished, came up for discussion, and it was decided to try to have it ready by the next meeting date. Several blocks were handed out to members who volunteered to embroider them. All the names were written by one member, chosen to do the work especially because of her fine chirography. The blocks, thirty in number, were sold for one dollar each, ten cents per name for all but the centre of the block, which was twenty cents. Each one with his or her name thereon is the holder of a ticket, one of which will be drawn on next meeting date.

Mrs. H. Davies was in charge of the program for the afternoon. Mrs. R. Bonney gave an interesting address, in keeping with the Easter season, "An Easter Message." Mrs. John Armstrong gave a demonstration of cheese-toast, and served a generous helping to each one present.

A vocal solo, "Danny Boy," by Helen Bedford, was heartily applauded, and a hearty handclap was accorded the program convenor, Mrs. Davies, and Mrs. Rice, the lunch convenor, for an especially fine lunch..

Hostesses for the day were Mesdames Rice, Bullied, Davies, Armstrong and Kinnaird.

THREE-MILE JAM IN GRAND VALLEY MENACES TOWNS

Bridge on Highway 9 is Two Feet Under Water and Buckling Fast.

RAIN ADDS TO HAZARD.

Dykes Patrolled at Brantford —Waters Continue Rising at Cornwall.

(By the Canadian Press).

Residents in some parts of Ontario watched to-day with acute apprehension as flood waters of rain and thaw filled streams, threatened destruction of bridges, swamped highways and continued to isolate dwellings. Rain in some quarters was feared to have increased the danger.

Grand Valley reported one of the most serious ice jams in the district's history was piled against the Waldemar steel bridge over the Grand River on Provincial highway No. 9. The ice was said to have risen two feet over the floor of the bridge and to have become packed for a distance of two miles upstream. Warnings were posted that motorists used the structure at their own risk as the ice had bowed it and moved it several inches.

Persons watching the flood expressed grave concern for safety of villages and towns downstream, and for the many bridges that span the river. Rain added to the hazard and belief was expressed a serious situation would arise if the jam broke suddenly. Level of the ice against the bridge was 18 feet higher than the normal water level.

Families May Be Cut Off.

At the village of Grand Valley ice carried away the central support of a wooden bridge which was closed to traffic. Ten families would be isolated from the village if the structure collapsed. Cellars of riverside homes were flooded.

Watchmen patrolled dykes which protect Brantford from Grand River waters which had risen there four feet to almost peak level. The stream at that point was clear of ice, however, and the situation appeared to hold little danger.

At Cornwall on the upper St. Lawrence surface water continued to pour into the basin of Fly Creek and a score of families were forced to remain in the upper storeys of their homes or continue sharing the homes of neighbors.

In the vicinity of Ottawa the Rideau River turned into a torrent, rendered impassable the roadway at Hurdman's bridge and flooding the post office and several houses. The Nation River near Winchester flooded thousands of acres of farmlands and was flowing two feet deep over the Morrisburg-Ottawa road. Traffic was detoured via Chesterville.

Numerous cellars were filled with water at Russell and an ice jam threatened to demolish a bridge crossing the Castor River at that point. Farmers were using boats to travel over their property.

HASTINGS, April 4. — At the annual meeting of the Trent Valley Cemetery Association held in the Council Chambers, Walter M. Fowlds was re-elected president for the next year.

Dr. J. H. Hess was elected vice-president, which office was held by the late William Orr. G. Pickens was the new man elected to the board of directors.

A. Wilson, secretary-treasurer, read a very encouraging financial report, in spite of the fact a large number of lot owners have paid nothing towards the caretaking, leaving the burden to keep the cemetery, one of the best in the county, on the shoulders of a few faithful.

The following officers were elected:

President: Walter M. Fowlds.
Vice-President: Dr. J. H. Hess.
Secretary-Treasurer: A. Wilson.
Directors: Messrs. A. M. Brooks, J. A. Brown, H. B. Wilson, J. Pickens, C. R. Fowlds, G. Pickens.

"COALS TO NEWCASTLE"

WASHINGTON, April 4 (CP).—Harry L. Hopkins, federal relief administrator, seems to have heard the line about "carrying coals to Newcastle." At least he has an eye for seemingly strange activities. In making a verbal report to Department of Agriculture heads on the past year's relief activities he declared butter had been shipped into Wisconsin, a leading dairy state, and canned beef into North Dakota, one of the foremost range cattle states.

A Bit Late

ALBANY, N.Y., April 4.—(CP) —The spring plowing on the Kunker farm will be delayed a bit this year until George Kunger gets out of the hospital.

The 93-year-old farmer had just hitched up his team and started work in a field near the highway when an automobile swerved around a curve and into the field. Kunker was pinned to the ground and his back injured.

HURRICANE HITS TWO TOWNSHIPS

Violent Gale Rips Roofs Off, Razes Barns in Ridgetown Area.

$15,000 DAMAGE.

RIDGETOWN, Ont., April 4 (CP) —Residents of Howard and Harwich Townships to-day counted damage of about $15,000 from a windstorm that appeared yesterday and swept over a narrow eight-mile course, demolishing two buildings and partially wrecking others. The storm blew out over Lake Erie, carrying a garage into the water.

Second of its kind within five years, the miniature hurricane appeared to have originated near the village of New Scotland. In Harwich Township it levelled a barn owned by Kelso Watson, carried away part of the roof of a house occupied by William Jennings and owned by W. Reynolds, and caused other minor damage. In Howard it wrought serious damage to Ira Ross's barn.

At the Fred Coll fishery on the shore of Lake Erie the wind blew a garage into the lake, demolished a gas station house, staved in doors and smashed windows.

Telephone service in the district was disrupted and numerous poles were felled.

SOMETHING IN COMMON

NEW BRITAIN, Conn., April 4.—(CP)—Two girls named Lucy Buchiere learned that they have something else in common. Their engagements were announced the same day. Neither girl knew of the other's betrothal until after the announcements. They live in the same neighborhood and are not related.

C.C.F. PLANNING A FRESH START

All United Farmers of Ontario Organizations Will be Asked to Attend Rally.

SET FOR APRIL 14.

TORONTO, April 4 (C.P.). — The tangled affairs of the Ontario Co-operative Commonwealth Federation are expected to be straightened out here on April 14 with a provincial convention. An official call went forth last night to all C.C.F. clubs and all political groups formerly associated with any section of the Federation to attend the meeting.

Before the convention will be laid the new constitution drafted for the Ontario organization to supercede the platform suspended by the National Council recently.

Trades unions, which are regarded as purely industrial organizations which have little place in the purely political C.C.F. have not been invited to attend, but members of the unions may become members of the Federation through the Independent Labor Party or affiliated clubs.

All United Farmers of Ontario organizations will be asked to attend the convention, although the U.F.O. executive has announced the body will be divorced from the C.C.F.

MAPLE SYRUP here I comes!

● It's maple syrup time — and that means Pancake time in Canada. Just imagine a steaming stack of golden brown Aunt Jemima pancakes just smothered in the amber sweetness of fresh maple syrup. But why just imagine — you can get a package of Aunt Jemima ready-mixed Pancake Flour at your grocer's — and in 2 minutes you can be enjoying the thrill of the lightest, fluffiest, most delicious pancakes you have ever tasted.

9 Eggs in Hen

NEW BRITAIN, Conn., April 4.—(CP)—Nine large eggs were taken from a year-old Rhode Island Red hen by N. D. Hancock. He placed them on exhibition after E. W. Kirkpatrick, director of an egg-laying contest, said the presence of so many eggs of even ordinary size in a hen is 'decidedly unusual.'

The largest egg measured 8 inches around.

FARMHOUSE DESTROYED.

COBOURG, April 4. — A farmhouse owned by Mrs. G. Massey in Haldimand Township, not occupied, was completely destroyed by fire early yesterday. When neighboring farmers discovered the fire it had gained such headway it could not be saved. The barn and shed close to the house were also completely destroyed. Origin of the fire is unknown. The loss will be around $4,000, partly covered by insurance.

SUGGESTS CANADA BE EXAMPLE IN BUSINESS DEALINGS TO WORLD

Sun Life Supervisor Places Responsibility With Corporations for Future of School Graduates.

NEW VISION NEEDED.

TORONTO, April 4 (CP)—Placing a responsibility with business corporations toward the future of commercial school graduates, John A. Tory, supervisor of the Sun Life Assurance Company, yesterday told delegates to the commercial section of the Ontario Teacher's Association, Canada should be an example in business dealings to "the entire world."

He also stressed responsibility of the teachers and urged the students themselves to also assume a greater reponsibility towards life, and keep pace with rapidly changing conditions that meant changing demands in ability of commercial school graduates seeking positions.

To the old method of demanding honesty, integrity, loyalty to the company and country, accuracy and dependability, good appearance and correct English from an applicant there had to be added to-day a much wider ability.

New Viewpoints

A graduate to-day, he said, should possess a new viewpoint or new vision of life, a better understanding of big business and its failures or successes, a better knowledge of Canada's changed position in the business world and how its business was interlocked with that of other nations, business organization and an idea of general terms of contracts made by the Dominion with other nations.

Mr. Tory outlined what he described as competition between office machine and the young life of Canada and predicted that as a result of the rapid advancement of machinery the human voice soon not only would dictate but would write a letter.

It was with such things in a mind a commercial graduate must prepare to enter the realms of commercial business. But it was here the corporations also must accept responsibility toward the numerous boys and girls who had graduated but have been unable to obtain positions.

HOLLYWOOD, CAL., APR. 4—

Sorrowing filmdom has paid many tributes to Lilyan Tashman, but the one she would have loved best comes from Travis Banton, Hollywood's famous creator of styles.

Travis Banton

This young designer, who knows all the beauties of the screen, declares:

"I can think of no one out here who can take Lilyan's place. Her sartorial reputation was by on means accidental; it was the result of serious thought and study.

"She was often accused of being bizarre in her taste and selections, but this was simply the fact of her ability to forsee the trend of fashions and adopt a style before it became familiar and too popular; consequently discarding it by the time it appeared commonly."

IT WAS ONE

of those little incidents that humanize the grinding out of motion pictures. The 'Little Miss Marker' company was all set for a take when a mother cat, with a kitten in her mouth, crossed in front of the camera. Players and crew promptly forgot all about pictures. Not a foot of film was shot while the tabby made return trips until she had moved her family of three. The assistant director's time sheet showed 12 minutes lost.

THE APPROACHING

entry of Dick Barthelmess into the free-lance field culminates a long fight for what the star considers good stories. It may surprise you to know that Dick considers 'The Dawn Patrol' the last really satisfactory picture he made. That was back in 1931.

Nearly every actor cherishes the memory of one or more roles that did not click at the box-office. In Dick's case, it is 'The Enchanted Cottage,' produced back in the silent days. The other pictures he likes to remember in a long career are: 'Broken Blossoms,' 'Way Down East,' 'Tol'able David,' 'Fury,' 'The Bright Shawl,' 'Shore Leave,' 'The Patent Leather Kid,' and, among the talkies, 'Weary River,' 'Drag,' and 'Son of the Gods.'

the genteel headlines of today's society pages, and playing a searching light on the debutante racket, Fox Film's latest release, 'Coming Out Party,' will offer the lowdown on high life when it makes its appearance on the screen of the Capitol Theatre today. The film, produced by Jesse L. Lasky, is reported to have been staged on as grand and pretentious a scale as any party that may be tendered by a name out of the social register.

Frances Dee and Gene Raymond have the romantic leads, and head a cast that includes such stellar names as Alison Skipworth, Nigel Bruce, Harry Green, Gilbert Emery, Marjorie Gateson, Clifford Jones, Jessie Ralph and Germaine de Neel.

'DARK HAZARD,'

First National's novel and colorful picture starring Edward G. Robinson as an inveterate gambler and follower of dog races comes to the screen of the Regent theatre today.

The picture, which is based on the novel of W. R. Burnett, author of 'Little Caesar,' in which Robinson gained his first screen fame, deals with a man whose passion for gambling is so strong that he gives up love and home and practically everything in life considered worth while because of it.

The dog, 'Dark Hazard,' in the title role has an important part in the picture, not only as a racing dog, but as the bone of contention between Robinson and his wife. Genevieve Tobin is Robinson's leading lady, playing the part of a disillusioned gambler's wife. Glenda Farrell is the other woman in a triangular love affair while others in the cast include Robert Barrat, Gordon Westcott, Hobart Cavanaugh, George Meeker and Henry B. Walthall.

REMEMBER LITTLE

Alice Calhoun, who used to star for Vitagraph? The one-time favorite is now playing a bit part in the new Spencer Tracy picture at Fox. And, after the unpredictable manner of film fame, Charles Farrell, who used to play opposite her in the Rin-Tin-Tin pictures, is now drawing a star's salary on the same lot.

ADD TO HOLLYWOOD

whimsies the latest notion of Walter Plunkett, fashion designer for the R-K-O studio. Irene Dunne, who commutes to New York to visit her husband, wanted to cut out the two weeks of wardrobe fittings before each picture. The studio already has a dress form made to her exact dimensions. But Designer Plunkett is not satisfied. He has ordered six life-like wax heads of the star in different expressions and poses. They'll get him in the mood for the creations.

A COLLEGE STORY

saturated with love, life and laughter; a college story brimming with music but not a musical; a college story that for the first time in motion picture history does not concern itself with football, baseball, basketball, cross-country or track meet contests—but features for the first time on the talking screen an eight-oared shell race, enacted by thirty-two youths of brain and brawn, as its smashing climax. That, in brief, describes 'Sweetheart of Sigma Chi,' which opens at the Regent theatre today. Mary Carlisle and Buster Crabbe play the leading roles assisted by Charles Starret, Florence Lake and Sally Starr, Ted Flo-Rito and his entertainers supply the latest effects in jazz throughout.

"My arms were just about useless for a year with stabbing pains," writes J. Juergens, Mildmay, Ont. "I was desperate. I couldn't work. I got a $1 box of T-R-C's. They gave me so much relief I bought a $5 box. By the time that was finished I was entirely better and back at work." Stop needless misery—take T-R-C's. No harmful drugs. 50c and $1 everywhere. 269

"NOT CONSTIPATED FOR SEVEN WEEKS"

Writes Mrs. Johnson After Using Kellogg's ALL-BRAN

Sufferers from constipation will be interested in this unsolicited letter:

"Your ALL-BRAN surely relieves constipation. I am so glad over the good it has done me that I feel I must write and tell you of it.

"For lunch I take a banana, a large one. Six tablespoons of ALL-BRAN in a sauce dish, and dip banana at each bite until all is consumed. I haven't been constipated now for seven weeks."—Mrs. Louise Johnson (address furnished upon request).

Constipation often causes headaches, loss of appetite and energy, sleeplessness. This condition is usually due to lack of "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to further promote regular habits. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN has both, as well as iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that in leafy vegetables. Within the body, it forms a soft mass. Gently, it clears out the wastes.

Try ALL-BRAN in place of patent medicines — often harmful. Two tablespoonfuls daily will overcome most types of constipation. Chronic cases, with each meal. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Use as a cereal, or in cooking. Recipes on the red-and-green package. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

QUESTIONS FOR THE O.E.A.

Delegates to the Ontario Educational Association at present meeting in Toronto might make these sessions of more than usual value if they would devote a large portion of their time to discussing the vital problem of what is to become of the thousands of boys and girls at present in training in the schools of the province, and the question of just how adequate our system of education is to prepare these pupils to grapple with the changed conditions they are going to encounter when they graduate.

The future of the present crop of school pupils is a matter of grave concern, to themselves, to their parents and to the whole community.

Where are they and how are they going to fit themselves into the professional, business or industrial fabric?

Is the training they are now receiving likely to make it easy for them to become self-supporting units of society, or are they being prepared at heavy expense for positions that are non-existent at the present time and perhaps may never develop?

Are we doing enough in the matter of vocational guidance; are we sifting out the right pupils for the right jobs; are we taking sufficient care to keep square pegs from attempting to fill round holes?

Or are we merely following an indefinite and haphazard policy that, except in the case of a small percentage of pupils, rarely gets anywhere?

These and kindred questions might well be kept to the fore at such gatherings as the Ontario Educational Association, for they will have a direct effect upon the future of this whole generation.

OUTSIDERS AND RELIEF.

If outside municipalities are encouraging their unemployed to move into Peterborough in order to qualify for assistance here the City Council was most certainly sound in the decision arrived at the other night that persons coming into the city will not be considered eligible for relief.

Outsiders must be disabused of the idea that this is a land of milk and honey, and that all anybody has to do to qualify for a slice out of the city treasury is to move in and hang up their hats.

This community has been conscientiously endeavoring to take care of its own citizens who have been victims of the prolonged and unusual economic slump; it has tried to keep a roof over their heads, to provide them with medical service, to keep them warm in the winter months, and to furnish an adequate supply of food.

Beyond that Peterborough cannot be expected to go—and above all, this city cannot be expected to extend a warm welcome and relief vouchers to outside unemployed who choose to try their luck here.

The Council's resolution is a declaration of policy that should put an end to the idea that Peterborough is playing the Santa Claus role in the relief game.

Where outsiders come here with a job assured and afterward, through no fault of their own, find themselves in circumstances that necessitate assistance, some elasticity in the Council's decision might be exercised, but families with no prospect of work who move into Peterborough just to qualify for relief are not entitled to be aided by municipal funds.

A TIMELY REMINDER.

In issuing a special letter to all persons on relief urging them to use every effort to secure employment of some kind and thus relieve the burden that is at present weighing down the taxpayers, the Special Relief Committee has adopted a course that will be received in the proper spirit, The Examiner is sure, by the majority of those who are at present being assisted.

The letter puts the situation squarely up to those on the relief lists.

It tells them frankly that many citizens are finding it very difficult to pay their taxes, that arrears of taxes are mounting up, and that if this condition continues it is not beyond the bounds of possibility that Peterborough will find itself in the same position as other municipalities which are unable to procure funds from the banks.

In the face of that situation it is therefore the plain duty of every individual who is in receipt of public assistance to accept any opportunity for gainful work that offers itself.

The committee does well to bring these facts to general attention.

When direct relief has been provided for many months there is a tendency to forget the source of this assistance, and as has been seen here and elsewhere, to look upon relief operations as somethng to be exploited to the fullest degree possible.

From the tone of a recent local speech indeed it would seem that there are those who think that the community should supply unemployed families with the same income as formerly came in the pay envelope, which, of course, is a ridiculous assumption.

The situation simply is, that the revenue-raising possibilities of Peterborough has been strained close to the breaking point to take care of the community's unemployed, that no more can be provided in the way of relief, and that to relieve the pressure it is essential that every chance to secure work must be taken by those who are being helped out of the public purse.

CRIPPLED CHILDREN.

The announcement that next week is to be crippled children's week in Ontario should be a matter of general interest.

The campaign has been designed to bring home to parents the need for constant watchfulness and care, and 25 provincial organizations are joining forces in a province-wide educational crusade in which the press, motion pictures, the radio and addresses to organizations will be used in an effort to bring the message into every home.

Most cripples, it should be understood, are made, not born, for 80 per cent. of all deformities is due to disease or accident.

The principal disease responsible for the 400 Ontario children who are crippled each year are infantile paralysis, tuberculosis and rickets, and it is the hope of the Ontario Crippled Children's Committee that the due effects of these diseases may be ameliorated if the proper treatment and care can be provided.

It is saddening to think that of the 8,000 physically disabled children in the province only 15 per cent. started life with a disability, and that most of the cripples could have been cured or greatly improved if the necessary steps had been taken.

Ninety organizations, including the Junior Red Cross, the Shrine and many service clubs are ready to assist in the care of children already crippled if the parents are not financially able to pay for expert treatment.

A little thought will convince our citizens of the tremendous value of this community service.

Every child has the right to look forward to the day when he will be a competent, self-supporting citizen, but it will be difficult for him to make his way in this competitive age if he must face life with a physical handicap.

Childhood is the time for correction; the facilities for care and treatment are already provided; it only remains to bring the children within reach of the machinery available for their cure, and for that purpose the crippled children's week has been planned.

Parents who are interested and who would welcome advice on the treatment of individual cases are advised to write to Ontario Crippled Children's Week, 5 Queen's Park, Toronto.

THEY DON'T WRITE HOME.

To all appearances a father and mother in North Bay buried their son early last August, when they and some of his friends identified his supposed body after he was killed in the freight yards at Montreal. Now they have had a letter from him in a construction camp. The identity of the unfortunate young man whom the parents mourned for and went to the expense of burying, may never be known.

This would not have happened if the young man had written at anything like reasonable intervals. The most remarkable thing about it is that he did not even write at Christmas, because the mistake has only just been discovered. A son must be pretty hard baked if he can let Christmas go by without a word of greeting to his parents. Evidently, too, he does not read the newspapers. If he does, we imagine the only section that interests him is the sport pages. The news of the day does not matter.

There are many parents who are left wondering about their wandering boys—and sometimes their wandering girls. Many young people who cut the home ties and go away on their own neglect to write home as often as they should. So long as no ill befalls them they think there is no need to write; the old folks can take it for granted they are living somewhere. It never enters their heads that fathers and mothers are thinking about them and worrying, especially when the wandering ones have no fixed mail address.

This indifference among young people is not a product of modern youth. Generations of young men and women have done the same thing. There is really no preventive, and it never troubles their carefree minds until something happens. Perhaps they come to hear that they are reported dead, or that some member of the family is dead. Then they are sorry—maybe.—St. Thomas Times-Journal.

THOSE TRADE PACTS.

It is not the habit of the British people to dispense with an Opposition, and there need be no surprise at the accumulating evidences that the Labor party, which alone is in position to act as an effective Opposition against the present Government, is rapidly increasing in strength. Its return to power is a contingency which must not be excluded in making forecasts for the next few years of British politics; and we could wish that the Canadian Government were taking that contingency a little more into consideration. We might add that we wish that the Canadian Opposition were doing the same.

The Labor party, while not free trade by conviction, is naturally unimpressed with the merits of the Ottawa agreements, with whose negotiation it had nothing to do. Its hostility to them could be largely disarmed if Canada, which next to Britain herself is the most important party to the agreements, were to manifest an earnest and even an ostentatious desire to carry out her part of them in the most generous spirit. Unfortunately, everything that Canada has done, with the single exception of the appointment of the Tariff Commission, has been ostentatious in the other direction, and the present litigious effort to keep the powers of the commission down to a minimum is positively disastrous in its effect upon public opinion in many parts of England.

* * * *

As for the Canadian Liberals, much of their oratory at the time of the introduction of the agreements in Parliament led to the conclusion that should they come to power within the period of the five years for which these were concluded, they would hold themselves in no wise bound by them either in honor or in constitutional fact. That attitude we suspect to have undergone some modification since then, but the fact remains that their speeches were not encouraging to those British business men who would like to plan their Canadian trade for the next four years with some assurance.

In Canada, in a word, the agreements are being knifed by their foes, while their supposed friends give them nothing but lip-service at home and expose them to suspicion and obloquy abroad. Yet they constitute the most effective step, indeed the only effective step, that Canada has yet been able to make towards the restoration of that external trade without which she can scarcely exist; and apart altogether from their immediate benefits, the principle which they represent—that of mutual preference—seems to us to be the only principle which holds out any hope for us in the world as at present constituted.—Toronto Saturday Night.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENT.

It is an unusual spring when the Jackson Park creek does not get into the front page headlines.

Many "bargain" trips are announced by the Canadian railways, and the policy is to be commended because of the fact that it is educating the people of this country to travel by rail once more.

Although there have frequently been political parties in Canada without platforms, the C.C.F., as the Toronto Saturday Night points out, is about the first to have a platform without a party.

It looks as if Samuel Insull is finally heading for the last roundup. However, it is remarkable what a battery of smart lawyers can accomplish when the retainer is high enough.

CHAPTER 29

The sudden ceasing of the pealing bells in the distance and the steady striking of the church clock told Tiggie that the appointed hour had arrived; but there was no sound of approaching feet on the other side of the fence, and the quiet road in which he stood remained deserted save for his own presence. He stopped his prowling to and fro and took up his stand like a sentry close to the gate. The cessation of the bells made everything seem very quiet. From somewhere out on the heath children's voices arose on the still air mingled with the intermittent barking of dogs. But it sounded somehow cut off, like a world apart. Around him—close around—was a pressing, pall-like silence which nothing seemed to penetrate.

The daylight was failing now. The afterglow of the departed sun was merging from rose to primrose, and dusk was spreading softly over the earth. The night approached like a velvet curtain from the east, and an exquisite coolness—herald of the invisible dew—began to be felt. There was something of healing—balm-like—in its touch. To the man who had known the fierce heat of the Indian Plains with its nights of torment it was like a sacred thing, and he turned his face towards it almost with reverence. He was even conscious of a quickening of the pulses, and his imagination, strangely vitalized, was stirred, so that he felt somehow like a boy. For the first time he realized that he was glad to be in England again. It was odd how long that sense of home had eluded him.

There came a sound—a slow step—on the other side of the wall, and he straightened himself to listen. With the sound came an aroma other than the scent of the falling dew—the reek of a cigar. Someone—a man—was pacing the gravel path a few feet away from him. Tiggie stood tense, listening.

Up and down, up and down, went the feet. Confound the fellow! What was he doing there, behaving like a sentry on guard? His thoughts went back to his interview of the morning and the gray mask that had confronted him with grim hostility across the office table. His own muscles tightened at the thought of a possible second encounter, but he remained motionless, giving no sign of his presence.

Minutes passed, and the dusk deepened. The primrose sky was emerging into the dim green of sea-filled caves. The pale young moon had gone, and a single star shone like a silver lamp where it had been. The children's voices had faded into the distance where only a dog barked now and then. The magic of the summer night stirred in the open spaces like the waving of an unseen wand. The utter peace around was almost like a rebuke to the restless turmoil that seethed in Tiggie's soul. He felt uneasily that he was an interloper, but did not see how it could be helped.

Up and down went the feet with a monotonous precision. The man seemed to turn at exactly the same spot each time. Tiggie's patience began to stretch a little. He remembered his warning to Viola that if she were not ready for him at the appointed time he would go straight in and fetch her. But the memory of her entreaties also arose within him and kept him passive. He had already endured humiliation for her sake that day, and a further dose would not greatly affect him. He squared his jaw and continued to wait.

The church clock softly chimed the quarter, and the prowling feet on the other side of the oak fence paused abruptly. Tiggie on his side bristled responsively, but he still remained motionless. It was possible—just possible—that the fellow had tired of his vigil and was going in. And then, just as the thought went through his mind, there came a movement which was wholly contrary to his expectations. The latch of the gate beside him was sharply lifted, making a noise like the click of a weapon, and in a moment the gate swung inwards upon the darkness of the garden.

Tiggie, facing round instinctively, found himself confronted by a dim, spare figure in evening clothes.

"Hullo!" he said, jerked into speech almost in spite of himself.

A cool, peculiarly sardonic voice answered him. "Ah! Captain Turner again! Are you looking for the front door by any chance?"

"No," said Tiggie. "I'm not."

"Then——" the polite tone had a maddening note of derision—"perhaps I can direct you—elsewhere?"

Tiggie's hands were clenched. He had a deep desire to meet the situation bull-like with his head down, charging all obstacles, but something restrained him. Perhaps the echo of Viola's entreaty was still at the back of his impulses urging him to moderation. It was certainly not of his own free will that he met the sneering suggestion with composure.

"Thanks very much," he said. "I'm not wanting any directions!"

"Oh! In that case"—the opposing force drew back slightly with an unmistakable gesture of dismissal—"I will wish you a good night. I am just locking up."

It came to Tiggie that in another moment the gate would be decisively shut and locked in his face. Again the bull-like impulse attacked him, and this time his composure weakened.

He spoke abruptly. "Since you knew I was waiting here, you also probably know what I am waiting for."

Grierson paused. "That is taking a good deal for granted, is it not?" he said.

"One has to sometimes." Tiggie spoke now with intentional effrontery; sidelong methods were not for him. "But in case you don't know," he added hardly, "I'll tell you. I'm waiting for—Mrs. Norman. I have an appointment with her which I can assure you is going to be kept."

"Indeed!" Suave surprise sounded in Grierson's voice; he still stood as though prepared to bang the gate in Tiggie's face at a moment's notice. "On this spot, do you mean?" he inquired with supercilious interest.

"Exactly. On this spot," said Tiggie firmly.

"And when did you arrange that, might one ask?" queried the lawyer, coldly ironical.

"Today," said Tiggie briefly.

"Today! Since seeing me at my office?" A note of cynical amusement sounded in the cool question.

"Naturally," said Tiggie, beginning to chafe in spite of his utmost resolution. "I didn't know her address before."

"Oh, I see! You came straight on!" Grierson spoke with the calm enlightenment of one confirming a previous impression. "And she saw you and made this assignation?"

"You can call it what you like," said Tiggie, and suddenly his hand was also on the gate, pushing it inwards, "but I'm coming in to see her now—with your permission or without it."

To his surprise Grierson's spare form gave way immediately before him. He uttered a mocking laugh. "Come in by all means!" he said. "But I'm afraid you won't see her. She left for the country this afternoon."

"What?" Tiggie stood still, as it were, checked in mid-career. This fellow had an odd aptitude for straight hitting despite his somewhat circuitous methods. "What?" he said again, staring stupidly, feeling like the bull who after his mad rush realizes that he has missed his objective. "She's gone? Is that the truth?"

"I told you that she wanted to have no more to do with you," protested Grierson almost mildly. "It would have been better if you had taken my word for it in the first place."

Tiggie's hand fell from the gate. He stood, still staring, while the memory of her reluctance gradually forced itself upon him. He had overborne her opposition. Her strength had been insufficient for the contest, but her reluctance had remained, bearing fruit at this the eleventh hour. Once more she had eluded him. Once more the threads of his life were cut and left hanging. He was dumbfounded.

Some instinct of pity stirred, it seemed, in Grierson. Perhaps he felt he could afford to be generous to an opened the gate a little wider.

"Can I offer you a drink before you go?" he suggested with a blandness that failed to conceal the triumph that underlay it.

But that was too much for Tiggie. He started as a horse starts at the spur. He was beaten, but he would sooner die than admit it. His pride, which had been so rigorously smothered during all the fruitless hours of the day, suddenly flared up within him, refusing further indignity.

He straightened himself sharply, standing square in face of defeat. At least he would endure no further humiliation at the hands of this man. "No, thanks!" he said curtly. "I'd much rather not. Good night!"

He wheeled, discomfited indeed but every inch a soldier, and walked away, erect and arrogant as he had never walked on parade.

He heard the gate shut and the bolt shot behind him as he strode down the quiet road, and a fierce flame of anger went through him, for the moment consuming every other feeling. His enemy had scored a victory, and he could see his sneering smile as he strolled back from the fray. A damned civilian too! Tiggie's thoughts at this juncture began to verge upon profanity. To be worsted by an infernal, blood-sucking lawyer, a paid trickster, employed by scroundels who desired to get the better of each other! His step quickened and his breathing became labored. To have spent the whole day thus strenuously for nothing—worse than nothing—the bitterness of complete failure!

Suddenly he stood still in his tracks. What was he doing, accepting defeat like this? It was probably only coercion that had driven her away from him this second time. He recalled his first impulse in the morning. His advent had been expected and prepared for. The woman at the door had been warned to deny even the existence of the poor little refugee. He had conclusively grappled with and refuted that lie. And now he had suffered himself to be routed almost at a word.

UNTIL THE DOCTOR COMES

Not feeling very well today?
And you're afraid you may be sicker?
And you might even die?
And people would be sorry? And your family would suffer? And you'd lose forever this bright, fascinating world?
O gloomy thought! O hopeless night! How worry feeds on worry and fear on fear. How a man, apprehensive and anxious, can work himself into a 'state' and wreck his own joy in living!!....No other creature on this earth does that. Only man that has devilish ability, by thought, to make himself uncomfortable and even afraid. The placid cow, the lively cat, the friendly dog, the darting bird—none of these ever fear the thing that has not yet happened. They take their natural, instinctive precautions and leave the unknown to take care of itself, facing it only when it confronts them. ....And why should you, superior being, be so dismally otherwise?
May I give you something else to think about?....Even tin gets sick. ....A scientist told me that the other day. He said that tin gets what is called a "sickness." Mysteriously something happens to it. It turns gray and disintegrates to a powder. And the disease is infectious. You place a pile of healthy tin on the floor near some of the sick tin and the disease spreads. It's a physical change that comes over the tin. X-ray photography shows an actual change in the structure of the crystals of the tin. ....And so far the tin manufacturers have discovered no cure for the disease except to melt it over and start afresh. The tin cannot help itself. It does not worry, but it is helpless.

But you can help yourself. You can give your body a lift. Within you are forces that fight constantly, whether you sleep or wake, for health, friendly to you, inimical to the derangement that makes you ill. You fret, you worry, you coddle yourself; you get into a state of misery and fear and you make yourself worse.."It's all very well," you say, "to advise me not to worry, but how can I stop it?".... By thinking about tin, perhaps, or about one distant star, or sunspots, or diamonds, or what a baby knows, or whether married people grow to look alike. Or anything but worrying, anxious you!

ON THIS DATE

A DAY IN CANADIAN HISTORY

By Red Williams

A TORONTO LOTTERY PROPOSAL

On this date in 1850 Toronto and all Upper Canada were astounded by a proposal for a lottery to raise funds for the building of a railway! Fred C. Capreol an Englishman, had procured a charter for the construction of a railway from Toronto to Barrie (which was afterwards the Northern). He proposed to raise funds for the purchase of lands along the route of the railway by a lottery and to pay for the railway out of the increase in the value of the land. Moral and financial objections being made Capreol modified his scheme, and in 1849 an act was passed by the legislature permitting the raising of money either by subscription or lottery, but the bill was reserved by the governor-general for the royal assent on account of the lottery clause.

Capreol went to London and in seven weeks (a record for that time) was back in Toronto with the royal assent assured; and he at once got out his prospectus:

Toronto Simcoe and Huron Railroad Union Company

Union of Interests!

Capital $2,000,000

An extensive Canadian Railroad Union Tirage

Founded upon the principle of the art unions of England. Specially authorized by an Act of the Provincial Parliament, 12th, Vic, cap 199, and sanctioned by the Royal Assent of Her Majesty in Privy Council, July 30, 1849—containing $2,000,000 in stock in various allotments of $100,000—$40,000—$20,000—$10,000

$5,000—$2,000—$1,000!!!

The proceeds to be applied to construct a railway from Toronto to Lake Huron, touching at Holland Landing and Barrie. To be PUBLICLY DRAWN at the City Hall, Toronto, under the Superintendence of Directors, specially authorized by the Act of Incorporation, consisting of the following gentlemen, viz., F. C. Capreol, Hon. H. J. Boulton, M.P.P., John Hibbert, Robert Easton Burns, Jos. C. Morrison, M.P.P., Charles Berczy, Joseph D. Ridout, George Barrow, Albert Furniss, R. Holmes, M.P.P.

Bankers: The Commercial Bank, Toronto, and its various branches in Canada.

Every number to be drawn and each number to have its fate decided in accordance with the plan directed by the Act of Incorporation. Fourteen days' public notice to be given to Day of Drawing Contributions will be received of $20 each with halves and quarters in proportion.

There was some more flamboyant stuff in the prospectus about the wonderful dtvelopment the railway would bring, especially in shortening the ristance to the western states.

But alas! for Capreol, public opinio nin Upper Canada was opposed to lotteries and the project fell flat. The railway had to be built by government bonuses and municipal grants, some of which have not been paid up to this day.

It may be worth while adding that lotteries were prohibited in England on March 4, 1621, by this order-in-council:

Whereas his Majestie (James 1) was moved at the instance of the Companie for the Plantation in Virginia to giue them lycense by Proclamation to sett forth, erect and publish Lottaries within this Kingdome for the rayseigne of monie towards the advancement of the Plantation and the reliefe of the Distressed Collonies there. And that Complaint hath ben made to his Majestie by the Commons House of Parliament of the great abuse of the said Lottaries and the preiuduce the Commonwealth hath thereby sustayned. His Majestie's pleasure is, and accordingly it is this day ordered that the further execution of these Lottaries bee suspended. And forasmuch as the same were lycensed by Proclamation, it is throught fitt the Suspension bee likewise by Proclamation, which is to bee prepared and made readie for his Majesties royall signature accordingly.

PRICES HIGH ENOUGH

To the Editor of The Examiner,

Dear Sir,—I understand Mr. Bennett is about to show the farmer what to grow and how much to grow and so on. This is I suppose to raise the prices etc. Well, Mr. Bennett, the prices are already too high for at least one-half the people in the world that are unemployed and those people are not able to buy the necessities of life as it is and if an advance in prices means another foot deeper I can only see the road to a famine ahead. We have lived long enough on hot air, the people are taxed to death and now it is starve them to death. The people are burdened to-day paying taxes trying to scrape up money, as the saying is take blood out of stone. There is lots of money. There is always two ways to hang a cat, so find the right way. In the first place we are burdened paying men high salaries of which half is too much and of no use to us. The object is get those men to work.

Yours truly,
Mr. Mulcahy.
384 Mark Street.

HANDLING OF GOODS

To the Editor of The Examiner,

Dear Sir,—It would be an Utopian world if most of us did not err in one way or another. But let us avoid being a social menace wherever possible. It would surprise any observer to stand watching a food counter, where food can be handled, to see how many thoughtless people will do so. In many cases no good reason could be given for such an act.

By way of coming to the point in mind, I wonder what satisfaction is gained by the handling of candy. Easter eggs on a display counter, yet it is done by countless people. Truly, comparatively, few persons happen to be dangerous carriers of disease to-day but I ask is it in keeping with our rules of hygiene which are responsible for the fact that this is true? Perhaps I am writing too mildly to have effect.

We do not see men or women taking a slide on the slippery sidewalk or yelling, "Hey Skinny" at someone a block away. This is childish; what about those who handle Easter eggs? I wonder too, if the offenders might not be too careless to read, even this.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor.

Three Children Die In Ogdensburg Fire

OGDENSBURG, N.Y., April 3.—(A.P.).—Three small children of Mr. and Mrs. Milford Donaldson of Ogdensburg lost their lives early today when fire destroyed the family home here. The dead: Milford, Jr., 7; Lucy, 6, and Albert, 4.

A sixteen-month-old baby escaped with slight burns when the parents, the father holding the child in his arms, leaped from the roof of a porch after efforts to rescue the other children proved futile. Both parents received minor burns and all three were taken to a hospital.

The cause of the fire was undetermined.

The dead children had been sleeping in a back room on the second floor of the house, and were overcome by smoke, apparently, without awakening.

Market Closing On All Exchanges

WALL STREET.

NEW YORK, April 4 (C.P.).—The stock market did little more than tread water to-day. Numerous low-priced specialties were brought forward but leading industrials, rails and utilities were narrow and dull. The late tone was steady. Metals were a bit irregular, U.S. Smelting yielding more than a point. Standard brands and Dupont were firm. U.S. Steel, New York Central and General Motors were virtually unchanged. Transfers approximated 1,500,000 shares.

Southern Miners Out On Pay Strike

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., April 4.—(A.P.)— More than 5,000 coal miners in Kentucky, Tennessee and Georgia were out of the pits today and mine owners in Alabama were considering whether to close their plants pending the signing of the wage agreement recently reached in Washington.

Fifty-three coal mint operators of Southern Tennessee and Georgia met here yesterday and took steps to enlist the support of manufacturers, business and professional men in a protest against the code wage agreement that wiped out the differential in Northern Tennessee and Kentucky.

The operators that met here employ 1,600 workers and produce 850,000 tons of coal annually. All Southern Tennessee and Georgia mines were shut down.

FEW ADVANCES IN THE GOLDS

Considerable Profit-taking Holds Gold Shares From Showing Gains.

BASE METALS HIGHER.

Retailers have contended wholesalers are asking exhorbitant prices.

10-Point Code of Rules For The Buying Of Stocks Given Commercial Teachers

TORONTO, April 4 (CP)—A 10-point code of rules for use in buying in stocks was placed before the commercial section of the Ontario Educational Association yesterday by A. G. Steinberg, M.A., Director of Economics in the High School of Commerce, Ottawa.

"I have given my classes the following rules for buying stock," he said, adding that he claimed no originality for the code. "I merely pass them on to you for whatever they may be worth: Buy securities that are basically worth more than the price for which you can purchase them, standard stocks are usually in this condition during a time of depression.

"If you ever get a chance to sell your stocks at a price that is more than what you think is their value, then sell.

"Buy only stocks listed on the exchange. They will probably be bad enough.

"Never buy or sell on tips. Tips are for the benefit of those who give them, not for you and me. Never buy stocks advertised in unsavory publications. Do not buy from high-pressure salesmen who call at your door. If they get your money you can rest assured they will never call again.

"Buy what you can afford and never buy on margin.

"Select your broker carefully, or better still, buy through your bank.

"Consider the type of men who have charge of the institution in which you are going to invest.

"Diversify your investments: 'Don't put all your eggs in one basket.'"

MORE RADICALS IS NEED OF U.S. MEMBER CLAIMS

Democrat Scores "Brain Trust Revolution" Charges by Dr. W. A. Wirt.

NATION OF CHANGES.

Denies There is Socialism, Much Less Communism, in Roosevelt Administration.

WASHINGTON, April 4. (AP). Representative George Foulkes, (D., Mich.) struck in the the United States House of Representatives at the "brain trust revolution" charges by Dr. William A. Wirt of Gary, Indiana, asserting that what citizens want "is not less radicalism but more."

The Gary school superintendent was accused by Foulkes of aiding "Hitlerism." He contended Wirt would be disappointed if he expected the country to be shocked because of progressive tendencies in the Roosevelt administration.

"In a country whose government was established through a revolution, suggestions of change ought not to excite fears" Foulkes said. "No people should be less reluctant to consider new procedure than the American people." . . .

The Michigan Democrat said he felt Wirt had done a good thing by bringing the subject of the brain trusts and their ideas into the open for discussion. Assailing Representative Hamilton Fish (R., N.Y.), who has charged that some of the Presidential advisers are linked with a Communistic organization, Foulkes said:

"It has not dawned upon him that the Democratic party in its origin was a radical party and that the clearest thinkers and the finest characters among the founding fathers of this Republic were radicals. It does not occur to him that a courageous radicalism today, instead of being reprehensible, is to be commended and is just what the nation needs.

"As a matter of fact there is no Socialism—much less any Communism—in the Roosevelt administration."

Society Matron Haled To Court Over Dogs

BYRN MAWR, Pa., April 4.—(A.P.)— Mrs. Mary Weir Vanderbilt, divorced wife of Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., is accused in a warrant of "maintaining a public nuisance" in the form of two Scottish terriers.

Edwin Wright, who lives next door to the society matrons, is the complainant. He says that the dogs have bitten his 18 year old daughter, Louise, three times, and that Mrs. Vanderbilt has been warned they are vicious.

Saying she refused to apologize, Wright announced, "I'm not going to let Mrs. Vanderbilt thumb her nose at me." The warrant was the result.

School Board May Restore Wage Cuts

LINDSAY, Ont., April 4.—(C.P.)—The possibility of partial restoration of wage cuts forced on Lindsay teachers as a civic economy measure was seen here to-day in the Board of Education's decision to draw up contracts to try to hold the staffs intact.

Following the last pay cut the board had to cancel all contracts, but promised to do its best for the teachers. Now it is felt that steps must be taken to keep an efficient Public school and Collegiate teaching staff from being broken up as it is thought that some teachers are planning to seek work elsewhere at the end of the present term.

U. S. DAIRYMEN DIFFER ON CONTROLLED INDUSTRY

WASHINGTON, April 4 (C.P.).—Approval, opposition, and open defiance were recorded to-day by the dairymen of the United States to a plan for curtailed and controlled dairy production.

This proposal, which the Agricultural Adjustment Administration drafted as a solution to the milk problem, was met with general approval by producers from Indiana, Illinois, Kentucky, Michigan, and Ohio.

Dairymen from Alabama Georgia Florida, North and South Carolina voiced considerable opposition to the plan, contending there was no surplus in their area.

CURRY FIGHTS FOR POWER

NEW YORK, April 4 (AP)—New troubles threatened Tammany Hall to-day, as John F. Curry, beleaguered Tammany chieftain, announced his intention to fight the growing move to oust him.

He threw down the gauntlet at the Hall during his weekly reception for district leaders, of whom only seven appeared to pay their respects to their chef.

Asked if he intended to remain as leader. He replied: "I certainly do." He added he had no thought of resigning under pressure from dissatisfied district leaders.

Kitchener Workers On Second Strike

KITCHENER, Ont., April 4.—(CP)—The plant of the Ahrens Shoe Company, where a strike was settled only on Monday, was visited again today by labor troubles when 50 per cent of the employees walked out. They charge one of their number was discharged following the settlement of the first strike.

The management admits that a man was fired, because he persisted in calling workers who did not strike 'scabs.' When the first strike was settled, it had been agreed, the manager said, that there was to be no discrimination against non-strikers.

LOCH NESS SEA SERPENT OBLIGES EASTER VISITORS

INVERNESS, Scotland, April 4.—(C.P. Cable).—The Loch Ness monster after all obligingly turned up for the benefit of Easter visitors to the Scottish loch, it seemed to-day.

A woman hockey player who motored along the loch and an Inverness chemist, who also was a visitor, stoutly declare they saw the creature at different times.

They agreed it had a "huge neck and a powerful tail, about 20 feet behind."

On the other hand, hundreds of excursionists from Glasgow who spent most of their holiday trying to obtain a sight of the monster, along with visitors from many other parts of the kingdom, returned with the conviction the monster was absolutely mythical.

CONVICTION QUASHED.

GUELPH, Ont., April 4.—(C.P.)—A conviction against Mike Zinger, of Pilkington township on a charge of ill-treating a horse, has been quashed by Judge R. L. McKinnon. The $50 which Zinger had paid as a fine was ordered returned. There was not sufficient evidence to warrant conviction, the Judge ruled. "The Act," he added, "does not intend that a farmer should be blamed because he can't get the most skilled advice or send an animal to hospital."

SEMINOLE WEDDING

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., April 4 (AP)—The town has been invited to the wedding to-night of John Phillip, Seminole Indian brave, and Josie Tiger.

Tribal elders say it will be the first authentic Seminole wedding ever performed before white witnesses. Others, they say, were "just staged." The wedding festivities, however, will be crowded into one night instead of the six days usually required for a Seminole marriage ceremony.

OPPOSE NEW CONFERENCE

CANBERRA, Australia, April 4. (C. P. Cable via Reuters). — The groundwork for intra-Empire trade having been well laid at the Ottawa Conference, extensions and variations of the Ottawa agreements could not be effected through ordinary official channels, said an official statement to-day announcing the cabinet was opposed to another Imperial Economic Conference at this time.

ABSOLUTE REST

LONDON, Ont., April 4. (CP).—Absolute rest for several days has been ordered for 21-year-old Betty Jackson, who under Judge A. A. Ingram's decision last Saturday escaped extradition to the United States. Mrs. Jackson is lying ill at a hotel here, no one being allowed to see her, and is attended by a special nurse. Her cousin and companion, Miss Irene Barbee who was released along with her, has returned to her home in Kansas City.

AFTER MORE FISH.

MIAMI, Fla., April 4.—(A.P.)—Carefree and feeling "swell," President Roosevelt entered into his extended vacation cruise to-day with a determination to have better luck at fishing.

Elliott Roosevelt, second son of the President, returned last night from a flying trip to the yacht Nourmahal. He reported his "dad" was "feeling swell" but he turned in the Presidential father as an unlucky fisherman so far.

WRONG TACTICS

VERNER, Ont., April 4. (CP).—Joe Aubin's horse was a biter, not a kicker; but it will not bite any more. Becoming angered at the actions of its team-mate, a much larger animal, and unable to reach him, it seized the iron end of the wagon tongue and tried to bite it. It lost three front teeth in the effort.

DEFINITE SIGNS OF RECOVERY

compared with those of the corresponding week last year.

Canadian business, official publication of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, outlines a few improvements in general business. The index of industrial production, it says, rose from 60.9 in February, 1933, to 86.8 in January, 1934. Ttoal mineral production rose to 120.6 in January this year as compared with 91.5 in the same month last year. Automobile production in the first month of 1934 was double that of January, 1933.

Lumbering At Ottawa.

Ottawa joined the recovery march with the statement that more than 1,300 men are expected to go back to work in sawmills of that district shortly. Lumbering industry is feeling the stimulus of improved conditions and this will be reflected in expanding sawmill operations. A number of mills closed for the past few seasons are planning to reopen.

And to top it all off, the Canadian International Paper Company announced for the third time in 18 months all its employees will receive a raise in pay. The latest increase will restore wages to practically the level at which they were prior to cuts that went into effect during the depression. The raises will be retroactive to March 15.

St. John's, Nfld., reported the six ships which make up its sealing fleet will be home shortly with record catches. One vessel, the Imogene, has 53,000 pelts aboard and masn't finished yet. The same boat last year broke a record of 23 years' standing by hauling 55,636 seals on board. Already the six vessels have a total catch of 200,000 skins, compared with 176,046 last year.

Close Call for Blasters

OTTAWA, April 4 (CP)—Eight men blasting ice on the flood-swept Rideau River narrowly escaped being swept over the 75-foot Rideau Falls on a large ice cake here to-day.

Suddenly breaking away from the main ice sheet, the cake was swept into the fast-moving current, swollen by rains and the Spring freshet. Jumping from cake to cake, the men finally reached Cummings Island, where they pulled themselves to safety by a low-limbed tree. A few seconds later, the large cake was carried into the middle of the current and was dashed to pieces a mile downstream when it toppled over the falls.

In the meantime, two men in a boat had difficulty pulling ahead of the ice cake as it swept down the river.

A heavy discharge of dynamite, used to prevent flooding, caused the ice to move.

AUTO STEALING SLACKENING

CHICAGO, April 4.—(AP)— The auto thief is finding his racket a rocky road to doubloons.

A concentration of the efforts of law enforcement officers, criminologists and judges, against this type of criminal activity, is producing results in many of the largest cities.

In Chicago, where boy automobile thieves have furnished a major problem, the number of thefts in the first quarter of 1934 has been cut 43 per cent. with a 66 per cent reduction in auto strippings, compared with the same period in 1933.

32.87 MILLS FOR SAULT

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont., April 4.—(CP)—The 1934 tax rate for this city will be 32.87 mills, up .37 mills from last year, city council decided today. The separate school rate was set at 48.72, up .52 mills. The city budget amounted to $838,718, down $45,904 from 1933.

Mayor James Lyon told council relief costs would be reduced through trans-Canada road work being given jobless after the break-up.

KINGSTON BOASTS

KINGSTON, Ont., April ..(CP) —"The cleanest streets in Eastern Ontario" is the proud boast Kingston and the boast seems be well founded. Every street the city is practically com bare of ice and snow. DOCTORS FIGHT RARE MALADIES TO SAVE THREE CHILDREN'S LIVES

Calcium Deposits in Boy's Body Are Slowly Turning it to Stone.

"CANNIBAL" CORPUSCLES.

NEW YORK, April 4 (AP)—Science fought desperately against tremendous odds yesterday to save the lives of three little children.

As for the victims themselves they apparently were unaware of their plight and amused themselves as doctors sought cures for their rare maladies.

At Wilkes-Barre, Pa., seven-year-old Benny Hendrick seemed unworried by anything except a broken popgun. Shiny and new, it would send corks sailing out from his hospital bed against the wall until he dropped it and it "busted."

Benny's body is slowly turning to "stone" as calcium deposits throughout his system harden his muscles. Already his arms and legs are becoming stiff. When the ossification reaches a vital organ the fight of scientists will be lost.

2 Girl Victims

The other two victims are four-year-old girls. Both are suffering from leucocythemia, a disease in which the white corpuscles slowly crowd the red corpuscles from the bloodstream. Each day the little children grow more listless.

Willie Mae Miller, of Memphis, Tenn., seems to be the least affected of the two. She still can play several hours a day before drowsiness forces her to bed. A cheerful little girl, she romps about, while her strength lasts, singing songs she makes up herself.

The other girl, Roma Garrett, of Peekskill, N.Y., is at a hospital at Eastview, N.Y. The cannibalistic white corpuscles have ravaged her blood. Ten minutes of listless playing with a doll yesterday left her exhausted.

Still Have Hopes

Scientists are working far into the night, measuring, filtering, scanning the results of exhaustive tests, to save the lives of the children. They still have hopes of checking the diseases.

In some cases of leucocythemia, transfusions and x-ray treatments help. But according to Dr. William Martens, of Peekskill, Roma's disease is apparently not that type.

Willie Mae goes to a hospital every day for x-ray treatment. Her parents still have hope. The doctors say the overproduction of white corpuscles is continuing.

The children's plight has aroused sympathy throughout the country. A newspaper chain engaged a New York specialist to fly to Wilkes-Barre to give aid, but Dr. H. Alex Smith, of the General Hospital at Wilkes-Barre said the New Yorker was not given permission to examine the patient.

Mrs. Insull In Athens

Mrs. Samuel Insull, for the first time this year, is snapped by the cameraman in Athens, Greece, shortly after her fugitive husband had been permitted to leave Greece on his chartered vessel, Maiotis. Mrs. Insull, formerly an actress, has remained close to the side of the onetime multi-millionaire since he fled the United States.

Easter Services

BAILIEBRORO

Special services were observed in the three churches of the Fraserville circuit on Sunday, with the pastor, Rev. E. M. Cook in charge. The Bensfort choir ably rendered the music from Easter cantata "The Dawn Immortal," at the morning service at Bensfort United Church.

The choir from Fraserville Church rendered the music from "The Prince of Life" cantata, at the afternoon service at Bailieboro and the service was much enjoyed by the local congregation.

The local choir motored to Fraserville to the evening service and provided the music from the cantata "Love Triumphant."

All three services were very impressive and added greatly to the Easter services.

AT LAKEFIELD

LAKEFIELD, April 4 (Examiner Correspondence).—The Easter services in St. Johns' Church were largely attended and about one hundred and twenty-five made their Easter Communion at one of the two celebrations; the first at 8 a.m. and Choral Communion at the 11 o'clock service. Rev. A. W. Mackenzie, D.D., M.A., assisted at the latter service. The rector, Rev. W. J. Creighton, M.A., was the preacher and his thoughtful sermons were on the subject of "The Lord is Risen Indeed," the great festival of Easter, which brings to the world the message of the resurrection of the body and the life everlasting.

The anthem, "King of Kings," by Caleb Simper was sung by the choir at both morning and evening services, with the soprano solo part taken by Miss Winnie Payne. Mrs. J. W. Todd was at the organ.

At the eight o'clock service a beautiful memorial window was dedicated to "The Glory of God and in loving memory of a devoted mother, Hannah Simpson, 1846-1932." The window is the Lord in the garden with its beautiful blooms, arbour and sundial and surmounted by a Celtic cross and the words, "Lo, I am with you alway."

At the 11 o'clock service a memorial tablet was dedicated "In loving memory of Edward Travers Shewen, C.F.A., Gunner, C.E.F., 33rd Battery," who died December 14th, 1932. "I have fought a good fight."—II Timothy, 4: 7.

At the Good Friday services in St. John's Church, "The Story of the Cross" was sung by the choir; Mr. D. H. Hester taking the solo parts.

ST. JAMES' ANGLICAN

ROSENEATH, April 4 (Examiner Correspondence) — Special Easter service was held at St. James' Anglican Church at 11 a.m. on Sunday when Rev. Francis H. Battersby delivered a most solemn and touching sermon to his people. Special prayers were offered and also asked for by the rector, for Leta Dainard, a young girl of fourteen years, who was taken to Nicholls Hospital, Peterborough on Saturday, critically ill. The serious condition of this young life cast a gloom over the congregation. The attendance was very gratifying in spite of the bad roads.

A goodly attendance at the United Church, Roseneath on Sunday evening when Rev. R. W. Paton, M.A., B.D., gave an inspiring Easter message. Taking his words from First Corinthians, 15-17: "Thanks be to God which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ." In his brief remarks the speaker said to-day we gaze upon the empty cross and empty tomb. But from that empty tomb, there shines a great light, and above the door of the tomb could be written the words "Victory."

The dominant note of the Easter season is victory. It is the great day on Christian calendar which gives new significance to all other days, even Christmas borrows much of its glory from Easter. Easter speaks of life rather than of death, it speaks of a living exalted Lord, who conquered death in order that He might raise us from the grave of sin to the life of righteousness.

The Easter message, said the speaker, is one of victory. Jesus gained the victory over death. The disciples who had been heartbroken by His death, were now assured that the same fellowship enjoyed in the past would continue on, unbroken.

They realized that the death of the cross had not defeated the great purpose of Jesus. Death did not mean defeat, as they had hitherto believed, for Jesus said triumphantly "I am the resurrection and the life whosoever believeth in Me shall never die." It was the assurance that death had been conquered.

And it was also a victory over sin. The resurrection was the completion of Christ's atoning work, it was the assurance that God had accepted His sacrificial death as an atonement for sin. Jesus had become the Saviour of the world, the Christ of universal experiences. He was no longer the Christ of the Emmans road, but the Christ of every road.

His victory over sin meant an access to the fountain of life.

It is this victory over sin, that should challenge us, to endeavor to win the same victory, a self victory, in which the basic principal will be, a desire to do the will of God.

That was the secret of the victory of the Son of man, as He carried the great adventure of faith, to the cross. And so, Easter should challenge us to consecrate ourselves more wholeheartedly to the risen Lord, who has given us this victory, a victory over death and over sin.

Along with appropriate hymns the choir rendered the beautiful anthem "The Angels rolled away the stone," and "He is not here, but is risen," and a trio "The old Rugged Cross." by Messrs. W. Gerrald Davey, Lewis and Burton Roberts, with Mrs. Lily Turner at the organ. The latter was greatly appreciated by former young men of the choir.

DATE IS ARRANGED FOR SUMMER MEET

Springbrook Institute Protests High Rate of Hydro Charges in Ontario.

SPRINGBROOK, April 4 (Examiner Correspondence) — The March meeting of the Springbrook W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. L. Mumby on Wednesday, March the 28th with an attendance of thirty-five present.

Letters of acknowledgment from Mrs. Fred McKeown, Mrs. A. Reid and Mrs. M. McInroy for the plants they received during their recent illnesses were read.

It has been decided that Springbrook will be the centre for the special summer meeting at which the lady speaker will be present, the date set by the department being June 11th

Mrs. Fred Heath made the motion that the Institute place on record a motion protesting the high rate of Hydro service charges in Ontario. This motion was seconded by Mrs. George Eastwood.

The following program was then given: the motto, "A country is what its leaders make it' was given by Mrs. T. H. Webb; the topic "The important duties and activities of the municipal council" was looked after in a very capable manner by Mrs. G. Bailey who acted as leader in a discussion concerning municipal affairs. Slips of paper bearing such questions as what would I do if I were a member of the council" or "what I would do if I were a school trustee" etc., were given to a few members who during the discussion period were asked to read and answer them. Miss Phyllis Barlow rendered a pleasing piano solo "The Black Hawk Waltz." A paper on "The Origin of the League of Nations" was read by Miss K. McComb.

A contest on books of the new testament was put on by Mrs. G. Eastwood, the winners being awarded a box of candy. The meeting was brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem.

Lunch was served and during the social half hour a photo of the Springbrook W.I. which was taken some thirty years ago was passed around. This picture brought back many happy memories to the older members of our present W.I., a few of which were members when the photo was taken.

More than 70,000 foreign and counterfeit coins were placed in telephone boxes and automatic stamp machines in England last year.

LAKEFIELD SOCIAL SUCCESSFUL EVENT

Thirty-six Tables Played at Annual Firemen's Card Party.

LAKEFIELD, April 4 (Examiner Correspondence).—Thirty-six tables (the largest number at any of the Firemens' famous parties) were played at the annual Easter Monday card party of the Lakefield Fire Brigade. The affair was under the management of a capable committee of which Mr. Thomas A. Simpson was the efficient convenor and the careful regard for the smallest details made everything run like a well-oiled machine and more than that like a big happy family gathering in which the clique spirit was happily absent and the friendly atmosphere was refreshing. Prizes were won by Miss Audrey Preston and Mr. Reg. Murduff and the consolation prizes by Mrs. J. R. Hull and Mr. Tom Spencer. Prizes for ticket selling were won by: 1, Mary Allen; 2, Alice Chappell; 3, Ruth Johnston. The prizes were presented by Councillor A. G. Lawless, who congratulated Fire Chief Clark on the signal success not only of the party but of the spirit of co-operation shown by the brigade who are on the job all the time, in work and play with a spirit of teamwork which makes them a unit to be proud of—the best volunteer fire brigade in the province. It was hoped that Fire Marshal Heaton would have been present in person but he was not able to do so owing to the pressure of duty.

After the cards and refreshments had been cleared away, the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing to the excellent program of music provided by Red Moncrief and his orchestra.

The capable committee who planned and carried through the affair was Thomas Simpson (convenor), W. Hamblin, Eric Morin and Louis Sabatino.

Just before the refreshments were served jaunty paper caps with multi-colored feather adornments were distributed and the Lakefield Fire Brigade were all equipped and wore their decorations with the same dignity which they show in the rubber coats and helmets of their service uniforms.

The Woman's Institute held a gathering on Thursday afternoon in the Town Hall and two quilts were completed. One was a pretty combination of chintz in wood tints combined with plain material, and the other in pastel tinted blocks beautifully put together and sent anonymously with a short note with these words, "Inasmuch as ye did it unto the least of these my brethren ye did it unto Me." The quilt was very pretty and the kindly thought which prompted the gift was greatly appreciated, and the same spirit was manifested by the women who quilted it.

Fruit and flowers were sent to fourteen shut-ins to gladden the Easter season.

A Tired, Worn Out Woman Can't Make a Happy Home

MILBURN'S HEALTH AND NERVE PILLS

There is no happiness in the home when the mother is sick and worried by the never ending household duties. She gets run down and becomes nervous and irritable, has shortness of breath, faint and dizzy, can't sleep, and gets up in the morning feeling as tired as she went to bed, and is downhearted and discouraged.

Milburn's H. & N. Pills will soon convince women it is not necessary to suffer, as they build up the nervous system and bring back the former health and vigor.

WAR OPPONENTS WAY BACK IN '17 HOLD SAME VIEW

Only 7 Left in Congress of 56 Who Voted Peace When U. S. Plunged Into Conflict.

WORLD STILL SUFFERING.

Claim Nation's Blunder Universally Recognized—"No Troops for Foreign Soil."

BY FRANK B. HARPER

WASHINGTON, April 4.—(AP)—A corporal's guard of seven men who shouted no' when a tide-rip of 'ayes' put United States into the Great War just 17 years ago would vote the same way if the fateful roll were called today.

The seven are all that remain in Congress of the little band of 56 who voted for peace and saw war roll up a thundering total of 455 votes on April 4, 1917.

Here's what the seven said today on the 17th anniversary of that roll call:

Senator George Norris, Independent Republican of Nebraska, "Not only our nation but every civilized country in the world is now suffering from the results brought about mainly by the Great World War. Our civilization is even now on the verge of destruction.

Millionaires—Paupers

"It has made hundreds of millionaires and millions of paupers.

"It is still claiming its toll from every home and every fireside in the land. It has created a privileged class who live in luxury upon the gold coined from the life blood of our noblest citizens."

Senator C. G. Dill, Washington Democrat who was a representative 17 years ago, "If I had to do it over a hundred times I would vote the same way. I am unalterably opposed to sending men across the ocean to fight anybody."

Representative Fred Britten, (R., Ill.): "When the Woodrow Wilson administration declared war on Germany some 17 years ago, it permitted the most collossal blunder not only in the history of America but for all time to come.

"The war has been fought in vain."

Representative Denver Church, (D., Cal.): "I voted against the World War. Would I do so again? I surely would.

"Several hundred thousand boys ruined, gassed and dead; fifty billion dollars expended; twelve billion dollars loaned, sadness, distress and destitution everywhere as a result."

New world Threat

Representative James Frear (R., Wis.): "Wars again threaten to engulf the world. I have urged a constitutional amendment for a plebiscite on war, before Congress again declares war and a further provision that no American citizens shall be conscripted to fight in Europe or Asia.

"War experts announce we will soon be engaged in another war. . . . Reference made to recent wars is not to resurrect dead issues, but serves as a warning against vicious war propaganda. . . . That even surrounds Presidents and Congress when war hysteria prevents sane reasoning'"

Representative Harold Knutson, (R., Minn.): "Time has more than vindicated the position taken by those of us who voted against America's entrance into the World War.

"The constitution should be amended to provide that no declaration of war should be had until ratified by a vote of the people, save in case of invasion."

Representative Ernest Lundeen, (Farmer-Labor, Minn.) "It is now universally agreed that we did blunder when we entered, the War and it is universally agree—'Never again'."

CHINESE ATTACK FOREIGN GOODS

Acid-throwing, Anti-Modernists Rid Streets of Silk Hose, Natty Suits.

BOOST HOME PRODUCTS.

(By Morris J. Harris, A.P. Foreign Staff.)

SHANGHAI, April 4 (A.P.). — Acid-throwing "new deal" patriots of China have declared war upon foreign-fashion finery, silk stockings and high heels.

Pretty Chinese girls in numerous cities have been spattered with nitric acid and put to rout in theatres, bazaars, and restaurants by ultra-Nationalistic Celestials.

Male birds of plumage, too, with natty suits, white collars, and plastered-down hair, have felt the wrath of fashion terrorists. Smart foreign finery is to your ultra-Nationalist what a red rag is to a bull.

Chiang Kai-Shek, head of the Nationalist Government, started a "new life" movement last month, urging a back-to-the-simple-mode philosophy which caught the imagination of the 400,000,000.

A group of anti-modernists calling themselves the "Iron Blood Association for the Extermination of Traitors" is blamed by the press for the nitric acid outrages.

They aim to encourage purchasing Chinese goods instead of foreign manufactures, and borrowing from Gandhi's doctrines insist that the salvation of the Chinese people lies in a return to homespun clothes and banishment of Western fads.

The acid treatment is said to be very effective. In many quarters there has been panicky reversion to Oriental robes of sober and inconspicuous hue.

DR. McPHERSON TO AID BOARD

Will Act as Part Time Medical Officer at Collegiate Institute.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETS.

Arrangements have been completed, I. P. McNabb, chairman of the Supervision Committee told the Board of Education last night, whereby Dr. A. W. McPherson is to act as part time medical officer of health for the Collegiate Institute.

The arrangement with Dr. McPherson would incur no expense to the Board, it was stated, Dr. McPherson having agreed to examine any pupils who might be sent to him from the Collegiate after which he would refer them to their own family physicians if he deemed such a course to be necessary.

At the last meeting of the Board it will be recalled the lack of medical inspection at the Collegiate was considered and the committee was appointed to interview Dr. McPherson with power to act.

Held under chairmanship of E. F. Reid, the Board transacted several matters of routine business in short order, and afterwards went into committee on property under chairmanship of W. J. Hancock to consider the matter of a claim from James L. Young, caretaker at South Central School for $75 for tending the boulevard at King Edward School for a period of five months from May to October, 1933.

The matter was referred to W. J. Hancock, chairman of the committee; and Dr. G. R. Scott, who was head of the committee last year with a view of their trying to arrive at some satisfactory term of settlement of the matter, after having further discussed the matter with Mr. Taylor, supervisor of school caretakers, and with the claimant himself. They will report back to the Board.

In receiving James Abraham's monthly report as school attendance officer, Mr. Reid commented on the fact that thirty-four needy children had been provided during the past month with boots and shoes. It was good work, he felt, and he believed he was safe in stating that a great deal of the credit was due to the Home and School Association.

Principal Kenner's report from the Collegiate showed an average attendance for March of 98 per cent.

lodge room when the sum of $15 was realized from the sale of boxes. Bro. Arthur Beamish acted as auctioneer for the prettily decorated boxes. An enjoyable evening was spent in games, contests and dancing. Music was supplied by Bro. Arthur Beamish on piano, Bro. Don Beamish, violin and Bro. Philip Ford on guitar.

FILMLAND FASHIONS

JOAN'S A BRIDE

La Crawford's head-dress in this bridal costume is worth looking at with care if you've matrimonial tendencies for it's one you can make with your own clever fingers. The effect is especially glamorous and it is actually as simple as this: A tiny hat with a visor brim is fashioned of some rare lace. This is set onto the finely shirred veil of plain tulle and the two fashioned together with sprays of orange blossoms on either side as I've sketched it for you—at that angle most becoming to the individual you! There's a fascinating jabot collar, slightly stiffened at the edges in wing effect, and cuffs of the lace, too, to finish the simple satin gown. Orange blossoms are wreathed high about the throat.

CHICAGO POLICE MOVE BRITISHER

Former Minister Education Tells of Startling Night in Armored Patrol Car.

HAD 2 MACHINE GUNS.

LONDON, April 4 (CP via Havas) —An extraordinary story of a night in an armoured car with three detectives attached to the Chicago Police Force was told here yesterday by H. B. Lees-Smith, former Minister of Education.

After spending two days with the detectives, Mr. Smith said, he set out one night in one of the patrol cars, a highpowered machine equipped with two machine-guns, a revolving searchlight and a radio set with which they received particulars of the crimes that were committed from one hour to the next.

"The detectives' methods was to turn the searchlight on any pedestrian looking at all suspicious. They would stop their car immediately and question the suspected person or persons and search them on the spot," Mr Smith revealed

"We would enter houses without a search warrant," he continued. "In one house we visited we found a negro asleep in bed. The detectives searched the room and found a loaded revolver, but no dope. They discussed whether to lock him up for the night. Finally, looking at me, they said. "We'll let the c... tain decide." I said to the n... 'Get back to bed.' He seemed ... ful."

TIME TO TIGHTEN SPENDING BELTS

Drayton Warns Governments to Cut Out All Frills in Expenditures.

BUSINESS OVER TAXED.

ST. THOMAS, Ont., April 4 (CP). —"The 1934 tax gatherer is again with us," stated Sir Henry L. Drayton, chairman of the National Committee on Sound Public Finance of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, as he arrived here to-day to address a luncheon meeting.

"This month," he said, "we have had to fill out the Dominion income tax returns for the lean year of 1933. Brought face to face with the reality of taxation, over-burdened business has had to pull in its belt. The tightening up of the commercial figure for the spring tax parade has a most injurious and depressing effect. The stress and strains knocks the wind out of trade and prevents normal expansion and healthy economic breathing.

"I is about time that we changed the spending fashions of the day and that governments—municipal, provincial and federal—ceased from all unnecessary expenditures and duplication. The people of Canada, through their representatives, have an opportunity to set a new style for governments, which will allow taxpayers to conserve a bit more of their hard-earned money for the home, the farm and the factory. We all must constantly press for relief."

OTTAWA VALLEY WELL FLOODED

Waters Remain High With Little Prospect of Immediate Relief.

ROADS IMPASSABLE.

OTTAWA, April 4 (CP).—Inundated farm lands, flooded cellars and ice-blocked rivers and streams continued to mark the advance of spring in the Ottawa Valley to-day. While there was little sign of immediate relief for the many communities stricken with floods, the water showed a tendency to remain at the levels they had attained and there was little fear of more extended damage.

Many highways and country roads are impassable owing to the floods, and farmers are obliged to use rafts to get about.

During the night the swollen Rideau River dropped more than a foot, thus relieving Ottawa of immediate danger. A wider channel for the stream was blasted out with dynamite but there was a danger of further ice jams.

Ontario highway officials have closed the Ottawa-Morrisburg highway to traffic as water from the Nation River is pouring over the road.

PLAY PRESENTED IN WARSAW HALL

Successful Performance Staged Under Auspices of Women's Institute.

(Examiner Correspondence.)

WARSAW, April 3. — A full house greeted the play "The Wild Oats Boy," put on under the auspices of the Women's Institute, on Thursday evening.

Many well acted plays have been given in Warsaw, and they are gradually improving, and this one, by many, is considered the best yet. Three novices were in the cast: Mabel McCauley, Merle Bell and Sidney McCauley.

Much of the success was due to the direction of Albert Bryan who himself took an active part as Danny or Nora.

The cast: Aunt Annie, the housekeeper in Uncle George's home, Miss Lila Burgess; Della, the maid, Mabel McCauley; Judy, Uncle George's adopted daughter, Miss Della Tucker; Danny Murphy, the cook, maybe, Albert Bryan; Patricia Gilden (Pat), Judy's friend, Merle Bell, Eve Martin, another friend, more or less, Mrs. O. B McIlvena, Eddie, the wild oats boy, Eric Jackson; Jake Peters, the cousin from New York, Clarence Payne, Prue, the Country Cousin, Mrs. W. Anderson, Charley Brenton; (Chuck), the ex-prize fighter's cousin, Gerald Payne; Trout, Prue's pestiferous son, Sidney McCauley; Seth, the Uncle from Maine, Wallace Anderson; Mose, Uncle George's darkey servant, O. B. McIlvena.

Prompter: Mrs. Sidney Watley. There was plenty of amusement and a good moral.

At the close Dr. Munro, for the W. I. thanked those who had assisted in the play, and all who had in any way helped to make the evening the success it was.

MILLBROOK, April 4 (Examiner Correspondence)—The Young Peoples' Society of Grace Presbyterian Church entertained the sister society of St. Andrew's United Church on Monday at 8 p.m., several membe... the A.Y.P.A. of the Anglican Chur... ing also among the guests, Reg McKnight, of the hostess organization, who took the chair cordially welcoming the large number who had responded to the invitation to be present.

F. J. Deyell, president of Grace Y.P.S., gave the devotional talk his theme being "War or Peace," and Hugh Williams led in the prayer. Songs were contributed by Stanley Theobald his selection, "Back in the Old Sunday School," calling forth the encore, "Throw another log on the fire," Miss Audrey Kean was the accompanist, and Miss Vanita Ingram played for the hymns and other numbers. HIGHWAY WORK NEAR HAVELOCK butcher shop. The insurance company carrying the village's public liability risk had only agreed to pay the doctor's bill and had allowed nothing further. She warned legal procedure would be taken by 15th inst. if her loss of time was not compensated for. On motion, the correspondence as read was ordered filed.

No More Wood Sold

Councillor Hooper, in the capacity of fire marshal, reported a thorough investigation had been made into the complaints concernin gthe fire-trap in a George street bakery, and the baking was being done in the basement and provision had been made for fire-proofing the roof of same. At the same time Councillor Hooper reported that he had not been successful in selling the school board any further quantity of wood. Sixteen cords had been sold earlier, but he hadn't heard of any orders from the board for more.

Bylaw No. 418, to appeal the sanitary bylaw No. 403, was given its several readings and passed. In brief it said the majority of the members were in favor of rescinding the sanitary by-law and of being governed by the regulation laid down by the Provincial Board of Health.

Councillor F. J. Hooper was spokesman for a delegation from the Women's Institute, who requested that a cook stove be placed in the chambers. After some deliberation it was decided, on motion of Hooper and Seeney, that the request of the W.I. be granted.

The Hydro's bill for lighting at the town hall for two months past was $40. This was termed as being exorbitant by the Reeve, who said: "We can't go on like this." Councillor Hooper reminded him that the water heater was now in better working condition and the badminton club had wound up their schedule for the year. Hooper suggested replacing the 200-watt bulbs with 100's. The Reeve suggested appointing a committee to deal with the matter and see the meter man.

Chief C. F. Roberts reported that a number of complaints had been made concerning the use of air-rifles within the corporation, and wished it made known that this was strictly against the law and warned that it was necessary to possess a license for their use.

85 Per Cent. Taxes In

The tax-collector said that since the 85 per cent had been reached on the collection of 1933 taxes that $700 had been received, and felt quite sure that by the end of the month that more than 90 per cent would be collected. The assessing has been completed, and all that remains is to total up the long lists.

On motion, it was decided to extend the tax roll until the end of April, and the next meeting will be a court of revision.

Councillor Seeney requested the clerk peruse the fire coverage on village property and present a comprehensive report at the next meeting.

On motion of Councillors Spencer and Hooper, the Chief Constable's request for a new pair of uniform trousers was granted.

Complaints concerning the fire siren had been received; but this had been repaired in the meantime and the constable reported it in good working order.

Relief Officer John Kinnaird wished to apologize for erroneously reporting 69 cords of wood cut more than actually been removed. He said it had all been corrected and no one would lose anything by it. Ninety-three cords were cut on the Seeney wood lot by the village unemployed and 761 cords at the Breckenridge lot. The men were paid $1.50 a cord for cutting the wood, and the council provided for transportation to and from the lot. Vouchers were given in payment and when the wood has all been sold it is thought that a most favorable report will be disclosed. Mr. Kinnaird was of the opinion that the profit gained thereby would more than pay for all costs of relief.

More Highway Work

Since the work has been completed the inspector had recommended a deputation be sent the Minister of Highways to have work on No. 30, from Campbellford to Havelock, started at once. To this, the local member, Mr. T. P. Lancaster, was more than pleased to report that the daily press on Saturday last week carried the advertising for tenders, and in all probability work would start May 1st next. It had been stipulated that 85 per cent. of this must be local labor, and in most cases it will likely be 95 per cent.

Mr. Lancaster pointed out that extensive work had been planned for road building and completion on three sides of the village, all but the north. It was his intention, he said, that as soon as work started, to ask the Labor Department for a representative to assure a fair distribution of the contemplated work. This system had worked out wonderfully well in other parts of the province, the member pointed out.

He also said the minimum wage would be 25 cents an hour and this new highway work would be for married men or sons supporting widowed mothers. The single men will find plenty of employment on the Burleigh-Bancroft road, where it was hoped the minimum wage would soon be at the same rate, namely 25 cents an hour for an 8-hour day. If they boarded at the camp 60 cents would be deducted for food.

Reeve Richard Sanderson asked if the men would be required to register, and would it be a relief program. Mr. Lancaster replied that it was not emphatically and "there would be no tinge of relief whatever." It had been suggested by the minister that the single men assign a portion of their pay to their parents, and a proviso would possibly allow 50 per cent. This had not yet been definitely decided on.

A few small accounts were ordered paid, and Relief Officer Kinnaird wished the list of merchants and the various amounts of the vouchers received by them, paid and published to avoid unnecessary criticism of the relief administration.

The list is as follows: Leeson, $196.27; Squire, $123.08; Williams, $140.96; Isaacs, $47.34; Chiles, $30.53; Smith, $22.34; Said, $19.71; Patterson, $6.22; Ketchen, $10.35; Forsythe, $29.73; W. Smith, $23.44; R. G. Rutherford, $15.83; M. McArthur, $3; Scott, $7.93; S. Miles, sawing, $5.22; Hubbel, $9.10; Aboud, $8.50; Hydro, $10.04; H. B. Puffer, Forbes' train fare, $3.40; C. F. Roberts, Deline rate rental, $5; Mrs. (Rev.) Brown, rent, $10; Wing, $32.55; Denike, $7.85; G. Jones, $7; Dr. A. S. Thompson, $3.75; other sundry accounts during month of March, $34.40. A total expenditure of $813.07.

A hearty vote of thanks was extended Mr. Kinnaird by the members of the council for the very splendid work being done, and all without any remuneration whatever. In expressing their gratitude the council was only doing what all the ratepayers have been thinking for quite some time now.

Councillors Seeney and Johnston moved an adjournment.

PRESENTATION MADE R. DIXON

Sons of England Member Receives Past President's Jewel.

BANQUET PREPARATIONS.

At the regular meeting of Lansdowne Lodge, Sons of England, on Monday evening, April 2nd, the members presented Bro. Ray Dixon with a past presidents' jewel.

The presentation was made by Bro. Arthur Harris, District Deputy, Supreme Lodge officer; in a few well-chosen words Bro. Harris eulogised the work done by Bro. Dixon, and reminded him of his privilege to still continue his active interest in the affairs of the Lodge.

During the evening, one candidate was initiated; Bro. George Benton, with the Red Rose Degree team, carrying through the ceremonies in a manner tha won the approbation of all the members present.

Bro. Harry Beal reported that arrangements were all completed for the St. George's Day Banquet, to be held in the Paragon Rooms on Monday, April 23. Rev. Mr. Tebb of Burlington will bring to the banquet his collection of lantern slides on the Gardens of England. A musical program and the customary toasts will be honored during the evening.

The lodge is arranging to unite all the lodges in the district in a combined church parade at Port Hope on Sunday, May 27; it is expected that at least ten lodges will join in this celebration.

At the close of the regular business the members sat down to light refreshments, provided by Bro. W. Gray, and followed this by carpet ball, cards and billiards.

FLOODS RECEDE IN WISCONSIN

Nine Lives Are Lost, Three in Train Wreck and Six in Various Drownings.

ROADS WASHED OUT.

ST. PAUL, April 4. (AP).—Floods that took nine lives receded to-day, giving residents of Western Wisconsin and Southeastern Minnesota their first opportunity to survey the heavy damage to property.

Torrents of rain that fall Monday hit Wisconsin communities hardest. Precipitation there ranged from two to four inches.

Three trainmen were crushed to death at Hudson, Wis., when a freight train was derailed; three persons were drowned near Whitehall, Wis., when a buggy carrying seven persons was washed into a stream and two men and a woman were drowned in other mishaps near Eau Claire and Spring Valley, Wis.

Twenty persons trapped all day in a woolen mill at Chippewa Falls, Wis., were rescued late last night when Duncan Creek receded about three feet. Ninety other employees fled the building just in time yesterday morning.

Traffic was back to normal in some sections to-day, while in others washed-out roads, bridges and railroad tracks required the attention of repair crews. There was a heavy loss of livestock throughout the territory.

IDENTIFIES WAR PICTURE

It was not often that a soldier had an opportunity to wash his feet in a shell hole in France with some buddies, still less frequently that his picture was taken in such a pose but in some way a photographer snapped Herman Sickler, C.G.E. foreman, this city, doing that very thing away back in 1916, "up front". Strange as it seems, that picture of Private Sickler giving his "dogs a bath" was among the first of the Canadian Official War Pictures to appear in The Examiner. Private Sickler was with the 2nd Battery, First Division.

The Examiner will be glad to hear from any other readers who are able to identify the war pictures.

2 Bandaged Men Seen Near Murder

BREMERTON, Wash., April 4. — (AP).—A report that three men, two of them with bandaged heads, were seen here Friday not long after the murder of six persons at Erland's Point, to-day drew attention of authorities in their search for the slayers.

Mrs. Gladys Schreiber, wife of a navy yard worker, told of seeing the three men race past her home in a small green sedan. One of them was large, she said.

Previously Luke S. May, Seattle criminologist, had reported that at least one of the slayers must have been seriously hurt in the battle at the Frank Fielder home, and that he probably was a large man.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NEEDS TO BE RENOVATED TEACHERS TOLD

No Teaching of Arithmetic Until Sixth Grade Suggested by Professor.

SCHOOL HEALTH.

TORONTO, April 4 (CP).—Suggesting the Ontario public school curriculum was in urgent need of renovation, Prof. R. B. Liddy, department of psychology, University of Western Ontario, to-day offered for consideration by the urban teachers' section of the Ontario Educational Association, what he described as a startling change in teaching methods.

Prof. Liddy outlined an experiment undertaken by the educational authorities of Manchester, N.H., in which children were not taught arithmetic until they graduated to the sixth grade.

The experiment was not recommended by Prof. Liddy and there was "need to go ahead with care" but he wanted the subject placed before the group for serious consideration.

"Incredible though it may seem," Prof. Liddy said, "children who were taught nothing of arithmetic in the early classes were just as far advanced after one year's tuition in the sixth grade on the particular subject as children taught in the traditional way." The Manchester board, he added, had found the experiment successful.

School Health.

History of school health measures were outlined to delegates to the school health section by Dr. J. E. Davey of Hamilton, who spoke on "high points in school medical service." Dr. Davey recalled that years ago school health measures were taken only to cope with communicable diseases, but to-day embraced every branch of child health and did much to preserve the high physical condition of school pupils.

The rural teachers' section was described by Frank R. Elliott, also of Hamilton, as an integral part of the Ontario Educational Association and he urged group members to make every effort to keep and look upon the group as much a necessity in its "own little way as the parent body was in its much larger way."

North Carolina Man Inherits $25,000,000

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C., April 4 (AP).—Richard J. Reynolds, Jr., a young man who took to aviation, shipping and Broadway show business to earn a little change, inherited about $25,000,000 to-day on his 28th birthday.

The money was left in trust by his father, who ran a small tobacco factory into a huge industry, and thereby built a cigarette fortune estimated at $100,000,000. So far as known, all Reynolds had to do to assume control of the fortune was to sign a few papers for the Safety Deposit Company of Baltimore, which handled distribution of the estate.

Young Reynolds himself was saying nothing to-day. He was in seclusion with his wife and young son, Richard III., and would not tell how he planned to spend this red-letter day.

Equality With Others, Germany's Sole Aim

TORONTO, April 4 (CP)—"Germany does not wish to quarrel with her neighbors. All she requests is equality with other nations," Prof. Edward Taube of the University of Western Ontario, told delegates to the modern language group of the Ontario Educational Association, when he addressed them in German to-day.

"Since this desired equality was not granted Germany," said Prof. Taube, she considered herself justified in withdrawing from the League of Nations and the Disarmament Conference."

Taube, who was in Germany when Adolph Hitler ascended to power, said the "main aim of the National Socialists is to firmly unite the German people. An attempt likewise is being made to work out this ideal in the church, but here efforts have been somewhat unavailing."

4 Youths Charged With Firing Church

TORONTO, April 4 (CP)—A juvenile crime wave in Toronto to-day had resulted in four lads being charged with malicious damage and one with theft of $181. Other young boys, as yet unidentified, were blamed for a fire which gutted the Sacristy of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church.

Several lads were seen leaving the church a few minutes before the fire broke out in the vestry. Father Harold Casey, assistant pastor, noticed the flames and hurled fire-extinguisher bombs into the fire before turning in an alarm. This action was responsible for little damage being done to the rest of the edifice, according to fire department officials.

Mussolini Adviser

Many years ago when Mussolini was a young and troublesome Liberal, he received encouragement and advice from a young girl in his party. Now Mussolini is the most powerful man in Italy and the girl who advised him is here shown, arriving in New York. She is Madame Margherita Sarfatti, woman of letters, biographer of Mussolini and lecturer. In Italy many still look upon her as one of the Duce's leading advisers. She is a Jewess and is believed to have influenced Italy's new alliance against Germany in Southern Europe.

D. Belleghem & Sons Preparing For Extensive Store Alterations.

On page six of this paper will be found the announcement by D. Belleghem & Sons, Hunter street, that they are selling by public auction $25,000 worth of fine furniture. This does not mean that Belleghem's are going out of business. On the contrary, the sale is a substantial unloading to clear the decks for extensive store alterations badly needed for some time now.

Following remodelling, this business, which has been established for 56 years, will be conducted on more aggressive lines than heretofore, with a view to giving greater values for the least possible money. Mr. S. H. Loyons is the auctioneer in charge and bidding starts at 3 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

Mr. Lyon is well known in Peterborough as an experienced auctioneer whose sale methods are punctured with good irresistible humor.

FRENCH PREMIER DEFIES STRIKE

Fires Tenth of Civil Employees and Cuts Pay of Rest 5-10 Per Cent.

AIMS TO SAVE FRANC.

(By Richard G. Massock, Associated Press Staff Writer.)

PARIS, April 4.—(A.P.)—Premier Gaston Doumergue braves a threat of a country-wide strike by government functionaries to-day with his first dictatorial decree laws to save the franc from devaluation.

One-tenth of the nation's 800,000 civil employees will be dismissed and the pay of others will be slashed five to 10 per cent. through decrees which are expected to be promulgated to-morrow after being signed by President Lebrun at a cabinet meeting to-day.

The measures, which marked the beginning of a program to modernize the state by administrative reforms, are intended to cut 2,500,000,000 francs off the budget deficit with more to follow until 4,000,000,000 are saved.

The moves are urgently necessary to avoid inflation, the government warned functionaries who threatened to launch a national protest strike on May 1.

Drowned Brantford Lad Laid To Rest

BRANTFORD, Ont., April 4 (CP) —This afternoon at the Salvation Army Citadel, funeral service was conducted for Leonard Berry, 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Berry, whose body was found in the canal late Monday afternoon by firemen after he had been missing from his home since last January.

The service was attended by the City Council in a body, as an expression of sympathy that is felt by the entire city for the bereaved parents, and Leonards' brother Clifford, and his two sisters, Grace and Jean. Present also at the funeral were the six firemen who were searching for the body when it was brought to the surface.

Obituary

JOHN BRITNELL.

LINDSAY, April 4.— (Examiner Correspondence.)—John Britnell, a farmer living for a number of years at Long Point, Balsam Lake, in Fenelon township, passed away suddenly on Sunday last, the funeral taking place yesterday.

The late Mr. Britnell was in his sixties and was a gentleman held in high regard. When he failed to arise Easter Sunday morning, members of the family discovered that he had passed away in sleep.

For many years the deceased farmed in Bexley township. Years ago he moved to Long Point, purchasing the T. F. Myers' farm and later he added the Miles Haygarth farm. He is survived by his beloved wife and three sons, namely: Harold and Sylvester Britnell of Victoria Road, and Clifford on the farm at home.

MRS. BERT F. FOSTER.

The death occurred at Toronto General Hospital, suddenly, on Tuesday, of Mary Vance, formerly of Bethany, the beloved wife of Bert. F. Foster. Besides her husband she leaves one son, Bruce; a sister, Mrs. J. R. Kerr, of Bethany; and two brothers, Robert L. Vance of Cutknife, Sask., and J. H. Vance, of 773 Aylmer street, this city. Another brother, Richard, died two years ago.

The funeral is to be held at St. Mary's church, Lifford Line, on Friday at 2 p.m. Intement at St. Mary's cemetery.

JOHN N. HAFFEY.

The death of John Haffey, son of the late Colonel J. K. and Mrs. Haffey, occurred at Bradford Hospital, in Bradford, Pennsylvania, on March 30 last, where he had been a patient for three weeks. Deceased had lived in Bradford all his life and was well known for his charitable acts. He was 75 years of age.

For several years he had made his home with the late Leonard LaFoy on Congress street, Bradford, until the apartment was destroyed by fire about a month ago, and Mr. LaFoy was fatally burned. Mr. Haffey was fortunate in escaping the fire without serious burns.

A few weeks prior to his death Mr. Haffey fell and broke his arm and suffered severe shock. He never recovered from the accident. Surving him are two cousins, Mrs. James Kline of Tulsa, Okla., and Miss Emily T. Carew, of Peterborough, who was with him during his last illness.

The funeral was held from Koch Funeral Parlors to the family plot in DeGolin cemetery.

3,200 License Plates Already Issued Here

While 3,200 passenger and commercial automobile license plates had been issued locally up to this morning, J. J. Dorris, official license issuer told The Examiner that the number is still about fifty per cent. less than the total amount of licenses issued in the city and district last year. The aggregate number of licenses issued in 1933, he said, was 6,500.

Mr. Dorris believed there must be a lot of automobiles that have either been laid up, or which are operating in country districts with old plates, as according to city police there are few if any of the old yellow markers to be spotted within the city.

During the last ten days, Mr. Dorris informed The Examiner over 1800 plates were issued through the local office, with the peak of the rush being experienced on Saturday last, the final day of grace allowed by the Highways Department.

Besides the 3,200 plates that have been issued, at least 4,000 operators' and chauffeurs' permits have been taken out, it was stated.

Munches Peanuts in Detention Room While Lawyers Seek Loophole in Ruling.

HEALTH IS GOOD.

ISTANBUL, April 4 (C.P.). — Reduced to munching peanuts in a Turkish house of detention—unable even to obtain his personal baggage from the vessel upon which he was seized—Samuel Insull to-day awaited efforts of newly acquired British lawyers here to delay his extradition to the United States.

The aged fugitive once powerful American utilities operator, this morning sent one of his warders to the open market for a bag of peanuts. Then, while hundreds of curious pedestrians gazed up at his little room, he walked up and down before the window eating the tubers.

Insull was in good health and appeared less depressed to-day after talking with the staff of lawyers trying to find some loophole in the Turkish Government's ruling that he must be handed over to the United States for trial on larceny and fraud charges.

Insull's immediate interest was centered on obtaining a small valise from his chartered Greek freighter, the Maiotis, lying in Istanbul Harbor.

The valise was reported to contain important documents.

Mme. Couyoumjoglou, Greek wife of a Baghdad date merchant, who was close to Mr. and Mrs. Insull through their 17-months sojourn in Athens, was refused permission to land from the steamer Rumania today. She lacked a Turkish visa.

Touhy Mobster Gets 30 Years For Robbery

CHARLOTTE, N.C., April 4 (AP). — Isaac Costner, Touhy mobster, was sentenced to-day to 30 years in Federal Prison for his part in the $105,000 mail truck robbery here November 15.

The deposed member of the notorious Touhys from Chicago and one-time Tennessee mountaineer was sentenced to 25 years on conviction of robbery with firearms and to five years for robbery and assault.

The indictment listed 12 counts but he was sentenced on only two. Judgment was suspended on the other counts which charged various violations of postal laws.

Portable Inhalator Demonstrated Here

A representative of the Safety Supply Company of Toronto, this morning gave a practical demonstration at the City Fire Hall of a portable inhalator, which the Department is considering buying to replace the pulmotor long since condemned, and which was originally purchased over twenty-years ago.

Firemen Albert Mason and James Macfarlane participated in the demonstration, the former acting as the 'patient', and the latter applying artificial respiration in conjunction with the use of the inhalator. The equipment, which claims many advantages over the pulmotor, is for inducing resuscitation in cases of apparent drowning or gas poisoning.

Besides Fire Chief George Gimblett, and Alderman Malcolm McIntyre, chairman of the Fire, Water and Light Committee, the demonstration was followed with keen interest by Dr. A. W. McPherson, Medical Officer of Health.

The cost of the equipment, purchase of which has been deferred pending further consideration, was stated to be $250 complete with two spare "carbrogen" tanks. "Carbrogen", as used in the inhalator is a mixture of 93 per cent oxygen and 7 per cent carbon dioxide.

If the equipment is purchased by the Department, it is understtod, it will be the first inhalator of its kind to be used anywhere in this city.

Bryant was also accorded an expression of appreciation for her work as one of the treasurers, the office this year being combined with Mrs. W. G. Shiner taking control of both the Home and Foreign monies as well as the incidental accounts.

The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. Jackson, and Mrs. J. H. Sutcliffe read the scriptural reading and prayers were offered for various activities of the work by Miss E. J. Aldridge Mrs. E. Brumwell, Mrs. A. W. Wray, and Miss M. Mathews. An Easter message was given by Mrs. H. H. Graham, and the Rev. J. H. Sutcliffe brought a brief message and presided during the election of officers.

The suggestion was made that Dr. Jessie Ailyn be secured as guest speaker for the May meeting and plans were made for a home to be secured for the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Haddow and family, who are expected home from Bolivia in the Fall.

Secretary's Report

Mrs. F. M. Somerville in presenting the 55th annual report of the Circle, outlined the activities during the past year. Outside speakers included the Rev. Johnson Turnbull, presenting an illustrated lecture on his work in Bolivia, Dr. H. H. Bingham an illustrated lecture on Palestine of to-day, and the Rev. W. E. Hopkins of India, lecturing on Hindu life.

A display of the White Cross work was held prior to the packing of the boxes for India in conjunction with the Young Women's Circle and the Junior B.Y.P.U. Practical work included the sending of these five white cross boxes to India, three comfort boxes to Cochrane, quilts, some of which were sent to Feller Institute at Grande Ligne and others to Cochrane.

Four Bible Women are supported in India, one by the Circle as a whole and three by individuals.

Barely a week previous to the death of Mrs. T. Stenton, who for some years had served as Foreign Mission Treasurer, a life membership was presented to her by group No. 3, of which she was a member, and which was headed by Mrs. P. S. White. A letter of appreciation which Mrs. Stenton had written was read to the Circle members and that beautiful hymn, "Forever With the Lord" was sung in grateful memory of one who had served so long among them.

The passing of Mrs. W. A. Boyce also an appreciative member of the Circle was mentioned by the secretary.

OIL BATHS MAKE SKIN SMOOTH

Gladys Glad Tells Mermaids How to Recondition to Make Ready for Summer Season on the Beaches.

By GLADYS GLAD

"I took that tip you gave us the other day about trying on bathing suits," moans Janie via the mails, "and the results certainly were brutal. My figure didn't deteriorate at all—for which I'm grateful. But once I got that little one-piece on, I noticed that the skin of my entire body seems to have become rough, harsh and scaly. Now you know as well as I that a gal can't expect to bowl over the beach sheiks if she struts around with a skin like a strip of sandpaper. Yet that's just my quandry. And—"

But why go further? Janie's right when she says that it's humiliating to stroll around the beach with a rough, harsh skin. It is especially distressing during the bathing season, because there are usually so many smooth-skinned mermaids lolling around the beaches to show one up. Yet there are a lot of femmes who are going to be in the same quandary as Janie this summer, if they don't begin to correct the condition now.

The cold, dry air of winter, and the hot, dry air of furnace-heated homes, both extract oil and moisture from the skin during the winter season. And as a rule, by the end of this season, the skin usually badly needs lubricating and softening. It becomes rough, harsh and scaly. And it is just as unattractive to the sight as it is to the touch.

However, if she begins now, any gal can make her skin enviably soft and smooth by the swiming season. And it is simply by taking weekly or bi-weekly sweet almond oil baths that this can be accomplished. Such baths always should be taken before retiring at night. A warm, cleansing bath should be taken first, and the body dried. Then a generous amount of warmed sweet almond oil should be smoothed over the entire body and massaged well into the skin. If you wish, you may wipe off any excess oil. Then don an old nightie that you don't mind having soiled, and hop into bed.

The next morning, take a warm bath, using a mild soap, and follow it with a cool rinse. And as the final step, give your body a vigorous rub-down with a turkish towel, so that it leaves your skin soft, smooth and glowing.

Ginger Rogers, red-headed movie star, will never have to worry about gaining too voluptuous curves and losing her charming figure. She spends most of her time between pictures at the beach near Los Angeles, where she keeps fit by swimming and exercise.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES

Grape Juice

Mrs. M. S.: Why not substitute orange or lemonade for the grape juice? Grape juice is fattening because it contains a large amount of grape sugar.

Sterilizing

Anna: To sterilize your brush and comb, dip them into a solution of formalin. One teaspoonful to a pint of water is sufficient.

Walking

X. Y. Z.: Do not toe out when you walk. Fallen arches often result from this practice. In walking, the feet should be absolutely parallel.

DRAMA FESTIVAL IS DRAWING CREAM OF CANADIAN TALENT

Twenty-two Winning Groups to Compete for Bessborough Trophy.

SECOND IN DOMINION.

By RAY BROWN
(Canadian Press Staff Writer)

OTTAWA, April 4. (CP).—During the final week of this month, the cream of Canadian amateur dramatic talent will gather in Ottawa for the Dominion drama festival. Winning teams or groups in regional contests held during the winter months, to the number of 22, will compete in the Little Theatre for the Bessborough trophy, emblematic of Dominion amateur dramatic supremacy.

It will be the second Dominion drama festival, since the Governor General, in October, 1932, launched the idea. In addition to the Bessborough trophy, four prizes are available to winning contestants.

Regional drama festivals are over. The stage is now cleared for a competition which will focus the eyes of the Dominion and determine the dramatic group to wear the crown of victory this year. Last year, the Masquerade Club, of Winnipeg, playing Richard Hughes' "The Man Born To Be Hanged" carried off the prize. This year the Masquerade Club did not survive the regional trials.

Standard Improved

Through the Dominion Rupert Harvey, of London, judge of the finals last year, journeyed during the past dramatic season witnessing the playing of competing regional teams. His report, after judging the plays, is that the standard in the regional contests this year is higher than in the finals last.

The final test here during the week beginning April 23, promises to be fairly stiff. The adjudicator, J. T. Grien, of London, England, is an eminent dramatic critic and writer. It will be his duty to judge productions of 18 dramatic groups playing in English, and four in the French language.

Seven provinces of Canada will be represented in the contests here, and both Ontario and Quebec are sending several competing teams.

Few Repeaters.

It is notable that very few of the teams which succeeded in getting into the finals last year were equally successful this year. Canadian authors are represented in four of the productions which passed the acid test of the regional contests and will be played here.

The festival this year comprises some features which were absent last. Particularly is this so in the matter of trophies for which the teams will compete. The Bessborough trophy, which goes to the group giving the best dramatic production in either language, is the prize upon which the hopes of all teams are set. Last year, as mentioned, it went to the Masquers Club of Winnipeg. The same group also won the prize given for the best play in English.

Under the new regulations, however, the team winning the Bessborough trophy will not be eligible for the other prizes. These two other trophies will be awarded to the group which obtains the next highest number of marks for a play in the same language as the winning team, and t othe group which obtains the highest number of marks for a play in the other language.

New Challenge

In addition to these three trophies, this year a new challenge trophy has been offered by the English producer Sir Barry Jackson, to be awarded for the best presentation at the final festival in Ottawa of a play written by a Canadian. Four such plays have reached the finals. They are "The Derelict" by E. J. Thorlakson, which the University Dramatic Club of Edmonton is staging; "Brothers In Arms", from the pen of Merrill Dennison, played by the Galt C.I. Staff Players Club; "Faut-Il Le Reveiller," by Juliette Nantel Cherier, which La Rampe, of Ottawa, will give, and "All On A Summer's Day," by Martha Allen, one of the Montreal Repertory Theatre's entries.

Finally, the committee of the Dominion Drama Festival is awarding a prize of $100 to the author of the best play written by a person domiciled in Canada which was presented in any regional festival. The merits of the work as a dramatic comvosition will determine the award of this final prize.

MENU HINTS

Baked Potatoes
Crisp Salt Pork, Sliced
Milk Gravy Cabbage Salad Spinach
Fudge Cake Coffee or Tea

A simple and inexpensive menus is suggested, for the emphasis of the meal is on the dessert—fudge cake with chocolate fudge frosting. If the truth were known, chocolate frosting is, in my mind, too much chocolate spread on a chocolate cake—but just try to convince your young folk, or even your husband, of that.

Today's Recipes

Fudge Cake.—One-half cup shortening, and and one-half cups sugar, two eggs, two and one-fourth cups cake flour, one teaspoon baking powder, one teaspoon baking soda, one-half teaspoon salt, one cup sour milk, one-half cup cocoa, one-third cup hot water, one-half teaspoon vanilla. Cream shortening, add sugar gradually, creaming the while. When of whipped cream consistency, add well beaten eggs. Have flour ready, sifted, measured and sifted with baking powder, soda and salt. Add alternately to the first mixture with the sour milk, beating well after each addition. Mix cocoa to a smooth paste with hot water. Add to first mixture with vanilla. Beat to mix thoroughly. Turn into well-greased layer cake tins the bottoms of which have been lined with waxed paper. Bake in a moderate oven, 350 degrees Fahrenheit.

Chocolate Fudge Frosting.—Three squares chocolate, one and one-half cups milk, three cups sugar, three tablespoons corn syrup, one-eighth teaspoon salt, three tablespoons butter ,one teaspoon vanilla. Cut chocolate into bits. Add to milk and heat over a low flame or over hot water, stirring constantly until chocolate is melted and well blended with milk. Stir in sugar, salt and corn syrup and stir until sugar is dissolved and the mixture boils. Boil to the softball stage, 232 degrees Fahrenheit. Remove from fire, add butter and vanilla. Cook until lukewarm. Beat until the right consistency to spread.

FACTS AND FANCIES

Macaroon Souffle

Two tablespoons butter two tablespoons flour, one-fourth cup milk, salt, one-fourth cup sugar, three eggs, one-half teaspoon vanilla, one cup marcaroon crumbs. Melt the butter and stir in the flour. Add the milk, stir until smooth and thick. Mix the sugar with the egg yolks and add to the first mixture. Stir until smooth and fold in the beaten egg whites and the macaroon crumbs. Pour into a mould and chill. Serve with chocolate or caramel sauce.

Made Out of Records

Lovely articles, such as fruit, bonbon or nut dishes can be made easily out of old phonograph records. Put records in deep pan or pail, pour boiling water over them; when cool enough to put hands in, bend records in any desired shape, but keep under water at all times. The hole in record may be filled with plastic wood or a cork smoothed down with razor blade. Vases, wall pockets, etc., may be made also.

Just Between Us Women

A daily chat with Examiner neighbors conducted by Anne Wilcox

Milk, the natural nourishment for babies, continues to be an important part of their diet for several years, and is used in one form or another during all the years of a life. Most children like to drink milk, but occasionally a child is found who actually dislikes the taste of it. It may be that the child was forced to drink it when his appetite was satisfied, and ever after, the memory of this time presents itself, when a glass of milk is set before him. It may be that the flavor of milk given the child to drink during and after, weaning was distasteful compared with mother's milk. Sometimes the change of milk causes an upset system, and milk ever thereafter actually disagrees with the child.

* * * * * * *

There are adults whose system react unfavo bly to milk, and while these are isolated cases, they exist, and it is not purely a notion that they cannot drink milk. So small a group are these, however, that it does not interfere with the fact that milk is a universal food and a favorite beverage.

* * * * * * *

To tempt the appetite of those children, and adults also, who dislike the taste of milk, it can be made more palatable to them by certain disguises. For example a well-known method is to add a half or full teaspoonful of vanilla, with or without a little sugar. Another excellent change can be made by melting a quarter square of unsweetened chocolate, heating a half tumbler of milk just enough to make it blend smoothly with the melted chocolate, sweetening it with a half teaspoon of sugar, or a little more or less to suit the person's preference, and adding the milk to fill the tumbler. Chill in the refrigerator. A spoonful of whipped cream can top the glass when served, and so make a party dish out of it. Most children delight in this milk beverage.

* * * * * * *

For variety add a little beaten egg to a glassful of milk, also a dozen grains of salt and a quarter teaspoon of sugar. If the egg yolk is a rich yellow the milk will be tinted by it and be a pretty beverage. One egg will be sufficient for this medified eggnog, if it is stirred into a pint of milk. Keep the beverage well covered in the refrigerator and it will be ready to serve any time during the day and even keep for a second day.

* * * * * * *

Drinking through a straw may be sufficient to tempt a child to drink milk without having it prepared in different ways.

Your Health

By DR LOGAN CLENDENING

More public school students are injured in domestic science classes than in track athletics, and more on the stairs and in the corridors of school buildings than in football, according to a survey covering injuries among 544,000 pupils during eight school months, reported in "Accident Facts," a publication of the National Safety Council.

* * *

Analysis of the cost of accidents in industry made by Bauer & Black of Chicago, shows the average cost of an accident in which infection has set in to be over $200, compared with an accident cost of $86 where no infection has entered. The study of 1,600 cases of hand injuries in industry show over 50 per cent of hand deformities to be the result of infection. The big fact established by such studies is that most infections are the result of neglecting minor injuries. Authorities say that a similar condition prevails outside industry in respect to accidents in the home, in automobiles and elsewhere.

One of the big lessons being emphasized during National First Aid Week, March 11-17, is that careful treatment of minor wounds is one of the most important phases of first aid. In most skin abrasions an application of an antiseptic, such as tincture of iodine, covered with a dressing of sterile gauze wards off infection.

Collisions between pedestrians resulted in more paid insurance claims than collisions of pedestrians with railway trains, street cars and motorcycles combined, according to the records of a large insurance company, covering a period of a year.

* * *

The first aid bandage as known today was introduced for the first time on the battlefield during the Franco-Prussian war, 1869-70, by an uncle of the ex-kaiser, Friedrich Von Esmarck, a surgeon and professor at Kiel, Germany.

* * *

The simple, modern first aid treatment of every little scratch represents an accumulation of human knowledge painfully built up through ages of research, experiment and experience. It is simple enough now to apply an antiseptic and a sterile dressing. Yet in the background stand Harvey's studies of blood circulation, Pasteur's revelation of bacteria, Lister's pioneering in antiseptics, and many other outstanding contributions to human progress.

Addington Farmer Turns 99 On Sunday

KINGSTON, Ont., April 4.—(CP) George Asselstine, of Moscow north of Napanee, who is believed to be the oldest resident of the county of Lennox and Addington, will celebrate his 99th birthday on Sunday next.

He was born on his father's farm, only a short distance from Moscow and his grandfather was one of the United Empire Loyalists who came to Canada following the Revolutionary War in the United States. Mr. Asselstine's father, over a hundred years ago, went into the wilderness which is now the beautiful farming district of Moscow.

Mr. Asselstine to-day relates many stories of pioneer days, of cutting grain with a cradle scythe from early morn until sunset and of walking miles to see the first reaping machine in operation. Several weeks ago Mr. Asselstine fell and broke several ribs but made a remarkable recovery.

CONTRACT BRIDGE

WRITTEN FOR CENTRAL PRESS

By E. V. SHEPARD

OPENING 2, 3 AND 4 BIDS

Inquiries show that the differences are not clear between opening bids of 2, 3 and 4. Neither are the responses to each clear. Opening bids of 2 or 3 oblige partner to respond. An opening bid of 4-Spades, 4-Hearts, 5-Diamonds or 5-Clubs shows a hand worth within 2 tricks of the game contract. The bidder cannot stand any other bid, and does not want opponents to get together. He does not want partner to respond, unless that player happens to hold 3 Aces, then he may raise one trick, but no more. The following hand calls for an opening bid of 4.

♠ A K Q J 7 4 3	♦ 6 3
♥ 8 5	♣ 9 2

Both opening bids of 2 and 3 are forcing bids, but the holdings and responses are quite unlike. The opening 2 bid may be made upon one of three types of hands, as shown below. The first is a single suiter worth 9 probable tricks. The second type is a 2-suiter, worth not less than 8 playing tricks. The third type is a 3-suiter, worth at least 7 playing tricks. For each added strong suit the bidder needs one less trick than for a single suiter, because the odds are 82 to 18 that partner can better support one suit than the other.

♠ 9	♦ K Q J
♥ A K Q J 9 5	♣ A 8 4
♠ A K Q 6 3	♦ K 7
♥ K Q J 10 2	♣ 6
♠ A K 7 4	♦ 5
♥ A Q J 8	♣ K Q J 10

Partner may support the opening 2 bid, upon 4 trumps plus a quick trick. He may show a biddable suit, provided he holds a quick trick. Lacking a quick trick he must bid 2-No Trumps. With a single quick trick or more, the responding hand may bid 3-No Trumps, to show lack of a biddable suit. If the original bidder rebids his single suit, his partner should let alone a game bid. That is intended as a sign-off. When the opening bidder shows a second suit, over the first response, there must be another response made. Lack of a quick trick must make this second response either 3-No Trumps or a bid of a long suit. If the opening bidder rebids the lower of the two suits shown, the partner must choose the one he the better supports. If the response to the second take-out shows a third suit, the responding hand must choose between the three suits as trumps.

An opening bid of 3 may be made upon a single suiter or a two-suiter. The opening bid of 2 is better than 3, for a three-suite hand. All the opening bidder of three wants is to discover what aces his partner holds, as they may insure a slam. Make an opening bid of 3 upon either hand shown below.

♠ K 6	♦ K Q
♥ A K Q J 8 5 2	♣ A K
♠ A K Q J 6 2	♦ A K Q J 8 3
♥ None	♣ K

The partner of the opening 3 bidder never assists. He bids 3-No Trumps in case he has no Ace. If he holds an Ace he bids the suit containing it. If he has 2 Aces he first shows the lower one, then the upper one. There is a small slam in the first hand above if partner has the Ace of spades, and a grand slam in case he holds the Ace of diamonds. There is a grand slam in the second hand if partner has the Ace of clubs.

WHEN TO FINESSE

The question of when to finesse and when not to venture a finesse must be settled continually. Upon the correct answer being made by declarer his success frequently depends, as was the case with the deal shown today.

	♠ A 6 4 ♥ 9 8 4 2 ♦ K 8 ♣ A Q J 10
♠ 2 ♥ A 5 3 ♦ 7 5 4 3 ♣ 9 8 7 4	W. N. E. S.	♠ K J 10 9 8 3 ♥ 6 ♦ Q J 10 9 ♣ K 6
	♠ Q 7 5 ♥ K Q J 10 7 ♦ A 6 ♣ 5 3 2

Bidding went: North 1-Club, after two passes; East, 2-Spades, to show his very powerful suit; South 3-Hearts, as he also had an excellent suit, although he had passed as dealer; North, 4-Hearts, ending bidding.

When West led the 2 of spades every player at the table knew that it was a singleton, and that taking a finesse would mean that East's K would win the trick and that West would ruff. In case East held the Ace of trumps, West might obtain a second ruff, putting down the contract, no matter which adversary held the missing K of clubs. There were two chances for fulfillment of the contract; the first was in case West held the missing Ace of trumps and was not allowed to ruff; the second chance was in case West held the missing K and was allowed to ruff only once. Dummy won the first trick with the Ace of spades. The 2 of hearts was led. East followed suit with his lone 6. South played the 10, and West was in with the Ace. West had to carefully consider his return lead. Evidently the declarer did not hold the A-Q of diamonds, or he would have made an opening bid. As certainly East did not hold those two honors or he would have bid more spades. On a hunch West led his 4 of clubs. Again the declarer had to reckon on taking a finesse. Had he done so he would have lost game, as West then would have won with the K, giving his side 2 tricks. A ruff by West and a trick in spades later on would have defeated the contract by a trick.

South played dummy's Ace of clubs. Then he took 2 rounds of winning hearts, pulling all opposing trumps. Dummy was put in the lead with the K of diamonds, and a spade was led through East's hand. The K of spades won the trick. The Q of diamonds was the return card. South won the trick with his Ace. He led the Q of spades, then East was allowed to have his lone club trick, giving his side a bare 3 tricks, which enabled South to fulfill his 4-Hearts contract.

Had South risked taking either finesse in black suits, he would have been defeated. Had East held the missing Ace of hearts, in addition to his black K's, no strategy would have enabled South to go game.

Hawks Beat Wings 2-1 in First Stanley Cup Game

GOLF FACTS NOT THEORIES By ALEX. J. MORRISON

The ideal way to start the new season is to observe the three principal steps toward perfecting your swing.

1. Indoor practice.
2. Outdoor practice.
3. Warming-up exercises.

Indoor practice is particularly helpful when it comes to loosening up your muscles and joints.

Once you start playing outdoors, you'll not stop to loosen up properly, so do it now. Put a waltz record on the phonograph or get a slow waltz tune on the radio. Swing a short club or a cane back and forth in time with the music.

When you can swng without interruption and catch the down-beat of the music with your down-swing, you'll find that you're making your best swing.

. . . Is It True? . . .

That Walter Johnson, former pitcher of the Washington Senators, was the first man to reach the remarkable figure of striking out over 3,000 batters. (Quite a profitable investment for the Senators, eh?)

That Guy Hecker, first baseman for the Louisville team in 1887, was the first major league ball player to ever go through a full nine-inning game without having a chance in the field. This game was played at Cincinnati, O., Oct. 9, 1887.(He must have thought it a day off!)

That the first games played for the championship between two major leagues took place in Cincinnati in 1882, between the Chicago White Stockings, champions of the National league, and Cincinnati Reds, winners of the pennant the first season of the American association. (Don't let anyone tell you this even occurred in 1884).

That ski jumping became a competitive sport in Norway in 1860, and spread to other snow-bound districts after that, but the use of skis, as an aid in travel over snow, goes back to the misty ages. ('Tis no wonder Norway produces so many ski jumping champs.)

That polo originated in Persia more than 2,000 years ago and quickly gained popularity in Turkestan, Tibet, China, Japan and Indo-China. The Tibetans called it "pulu", meaning ball, and when the sport revived in the nineteenth century the English change "pulu" to polo.

The first mention of skating either as a form of sport or as a means of locomotion over frozen rivers and lakes, is in connection with an injury sustained through a fall on ice by St. Liedwi, of Scheidam, Holland, in 1396, who now is called "The Patron Saint of Skating."

Not for Sale

MONTREAL, April 4. — (CP) — Montreal Canadiens of the National Hockey League have no definite desire to sell or trade Howie Morenz, their star center for many years, Joseph Cattarinich, director of the club, said today. Catarinich confirmed reports that Major Frederick McLaughlin, owner of the Chicago Black Hawks, had wired an inquiry about Morenz, asking his price. Cattarinich said his club might discuss the matter later with the Hawks management, but was emphatic in his declaration that there was no specific decision made by Canadiens to sell or trade their speedy pivot man.

PAUL THOMPSON SINKS WINNING COUNT AFTER 21 MINUTES OVERTIME

Conacher Puts Hawks Ahead in First But Lewis Ties it in Final Period.

BRILLIANT GOALKEEPING.

Romnes Gives Assist for Winning Goal in the Second Overtime Period.

DETROIT, April 4 (C.P.).—Charlie Gardiner, the master craftsman of Chicago Black Hawks, had opened up a slender lead to-day in the Stanley Cup duel of goaltenders over 23-year-old Wilf Cude, the toast of Detroit and the most apt of the puck-stopping apprentices who seek the Gardiner throne

The Hawks outlasted the Red Wings here last night to score a 2-1 victory in the first of the five-game series to decide the world's supremacy in professional hockey. Paul Thompson, Chicago left winger, scored the winning goal after 21 minutes and 10 seconds of overtime—shooting the puck over Cude's shoulder from close range.

In the featured battle of goalies, bringing together Gardiner the Scot and Cude the Welshman—both received their hockey schooling in Winnipeg—the jumping-jack of the Hawks strode in ahead because his defence held firm in front of him. There was only one lapse. The Red Wings fumbled several times.

Led by the veteran Lionel Conacher, who broke away from a pile-up in his own goalmouth to score the first goal on a great solo rush, the Hawks levelled 40 cuts at Cude, a freshman in major league play-offs. But they hammered on him in vain for another tally until the second overtime period had started.

Conacher's goal was the most brilliant individual play of the night. He broke clear from his own blue line, barged between Teddy Graham and Doug. Young on the Detroit defence, and skated right up to Cude to score with a shot to the corner. The big train made other rushes, and his defensive work was near perfect.

Less than five minutes of the third period had elapsed when the desperate Wings went down five abreast on a power play. Graham carried the puck in behind the Chicago cage and passed out to Aurie. The wingman feinted Gardiner out of position and passed to Herbie Lewis, posted straight in front of the goal, and Lewis scored.

Play Is Called.

The crowd of more than 14,000 registered joy so hysterically that it required several minutes for rink attendants to clear the ice of paper and debris that were showered down. Fighting on even terms again, the Hawks took command again, but they attacked vainly for the rest of the third period.

In the first 20-minute overtime period, Tommy Gorman's team came close several times. But Cude was always in the way, and Graham, Young and Walter Buswell provided the goalie with fine protection. The second overtime session had hardly started when Doc Romnes, first-string centre, gave Thompson a pass for the winning thrust.

Hawks Favored.

With one victory tucked away, the Hawks became decided favorites to win the series. The second game will be played here to-morrow night but the third and fourth are on Chicago's home ice. If a fifth is necessary, it will be played in Detroit.

The Wings, or any other team for that matter, have yet to make Gardiner yield more than two goals a game in the playoffs. The curly-haired Hawk has been scored on only six times while Chicago was eliminating Montreal Canadiens. Montreal Maroons and winning the first Detroit game.

GROVE'S CONDITION APPEARS IMPROVED

Noted Big Time Southpaw is Working Sore Spot Out of His Arm.

BOSTON, April 4. (AP) — Although Boston Red Sox, when one considers the tremendous fortune lavished on them, have done little or nothing this spring to fill General Manager Eddie Collin's nights with sweet repose, only one of them, Bob "Lefty" Grove, has been interfering with his sleep.

"I'm going to be very uneasy until I see Grove working his regular turn," he confessed. "And yet I am reasonably sure the trouble with the big boy's arm is merely superficial.

"I questioned him about the cause of his sore muscle and learned that he had no idea when or how it came about. "Doc" Wood, our trainer, located the sore spot in a small muscle in the upper arm and gave it routine treatment. But it failed to respond and Woods took "Lefty" over to Port Myers to see "Doc" Ebling, who took care of Grove during the nine years he was with the Athletics.

IRISH SCORE FIVE MARKERS IN FIRST GAME

Victory at Winnipeg Thursday Night Would Give St. Mike's Memorial Cup.

"PEP" KELLY STARS.

Winners Score One in First and Third Periods, Three in Second.

(By Sam G. Ross—C.P. Staff Writer).

WINNIPEG, April 4 (CP).—"Two straight games" was the motto around the headquarters of St. Michael's College of Toronto to-day as they reflected on a 5-0 victory over Edmonton Athletic Club last night in the first of a three-game series for the junior hockey championship of Canada.

The smooth-skating, sharp-shooting Irish from the Queen City downed the Western champions with a torrid attack in the second period, but in the first and third periods the Edmontonians put up a strong battle. And it was two youths from the Alberta capital—Mac Colville and Bill Gauf—who held off the fourstrong St. Michael's attacks for a brief spell when Neil Colville, Gordon Watt and Bill Carse were in the penalty box with Nick Metz of St. Mike's.

Rev. Father Lynch and Dr. Jerry Laflamme were pleased with the play of their Eastern Canada champions. Down in the dressing-room of the St. Mike's it was a happy band of puck chasers.

Albertans Not Downhearted.

In the other room, the Albertans were far from downhearted. Dan Carrigan and his crew saw Lady Luck deserted them on three occasions when goals were possible, but hoped for a turn of the tide when the second game is played here on Thursday night. Victory Thursday for St. Mike's will end the series and give them possession of the Memorial Cup for the first time, while an Edmonton win will force a third game.

End to end rushes by both teams failed to bring any scoring in the early part of the game, and it took a solo effort by "Pep" Kelly halfway through the first period to start St. Mike's on the road to victory. He beat the Edmonton defence and then scored with a backhand shot. The final goal came early in the third period when Kelly took Art Jackson's pass and beat Layetzke.

Action galore was packed into the second period. With Bill Carse and Gordon Watt in the penalty box, Neil Colville grabbed the puck at centre ice in a brilliant effort to give Edmonton their first goal.

Nick Metz gave chase. Colville went through with only Harvey Teno in the St. Mike's net to beat. Metz tore after him and threw his stick to stop the goal. Both went down as they bumped. Metz was chased for 10 minutes, and Colville drew a minor for the scuffle on the ice. Peanuts were pitched onto the ice as the fans roared, and the game had to be called while the ice was swept.

Three quick goals came for St. Mike's as the Albertans played shorthanded. Johnny Acheson took a double pass from Jackson and Kelly to beat Layetzke. A minute later Jackson counted on a solo effort, and then Acheson notched another four minutes later. Only Mac Colville and Bill Guf were aiding their goalie when Acheson got his first goal, and two Edmonton players were still in the penalty box when Jackson scored. St. Mike's were short one and the Edmontonians were at full strength when Acheson got his second.

Saints Thrill Crowd.

St. Mike's thrilled the crowd with their scientific hockey that brought them the decision over the Western titlists. Edmonton went on the attack in pairs, but the pairs were not good enough to beat the Eastern stalwarts.

LEITHAM MAY BOX FOR WORLD TITLE

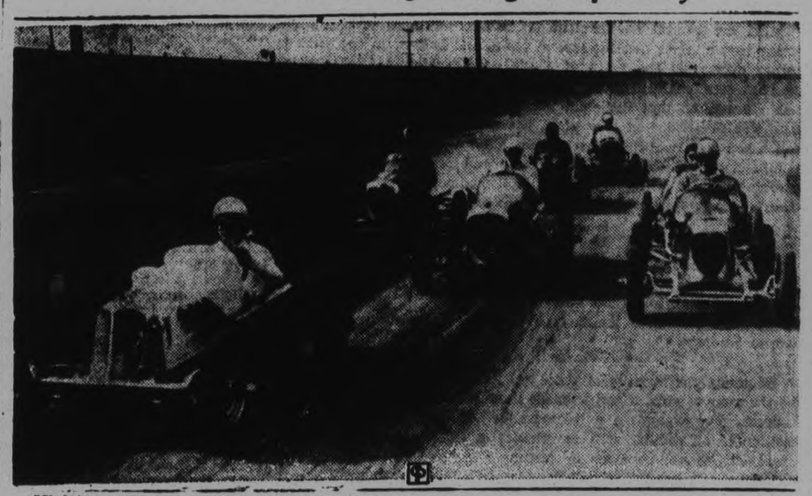
Al Brown is Sought for Match With Canadian Boxer.

MONTREAL, April 4. (CP)—An ambitious project to give the Canadian bantamweight champion, Bobby Leitham, of Verdun, Que., his long-sought chance at the world's crown is under way in connection with celebrations of the 300th anniversary of the foundation of the City of Three Rivers, Que.

An offer has been cabled to Al Brown, world ruler of the 118-pounders, now in Paris, to meet Leitham in Three Rivers for the title during the last week of July or the first week of August, over the 15-round route.

Three Rivers has made elaborate plans for its tercentennial celebration. Among the projects is enlargement of its fair grounds seating capacity to 20,000, fit crowd to watch a world title bout.

Miniature Auto Racing Gaining In Popularity



Miniature auto races, with cars one-third the size of the ordinary speedway machine, is proving popular in Los Angeles, Calif., where the idea originated. And the sport is not nearly so dangerous as ordinary speedway racing, as these small cars average 50 miles an hour. The cars, built by the youngsters who drive them, are usually powered with marine or motorcycle engines.

WEILAND-AURIE-LEWIS LINE FEARED MOSTLY BY HAWKMEN

"Wings Will Have to Open Up a Little, Played Too Cautious First Night," Says Adams, Commenting on Setback in First of Series.

DETROIT, April 4.—(AP)—Gloom and cheer were separated only by dressing room walls after Chicago Black Hawks had taken the first game of the Stanley Cup Hockey series from Detroit Red Wings 2-1.

Captain Herbie Lewis of the Wings tried to pep his mates up.

"That's just a starter," he cried. "We've got their number now and it will be a different story Thursday night."

"Take it easy, boys," Wing Manager Jack Adams told the losers. "All of us were a little too cautious tonight. We'll open up a little. We'll bump them a little harder.

Ebbie Goodfellow, Happy Emms and Doug Young, more rugged members of the squad who can give and take in the bumping exchanges smiled in anticipation.

Tommy Gorman, the Ottawan who manages the Hawks, wore his broadest smile as he greeted his players when they came off the ice. There was a lot of backslapping in the Hawk dressing room and Paul Thompson took a friendly beating from his teammates congratulating him.

"Cude never saw that shot, Paul," said Lionel Conacher, who shared the Chicago scoring with Thompson. "It was great," broke in Charlie Gardiner. "It was as nice a backhand shot as I've ever seen.

Major Frederic McLaughlin, Hawk owner, evidentaly enjoyed his triumph over his old rival, James Norris, owner of the Wings, but he had no comment to make.

After the first period Adams gave the Wings a pep talk. "You fellows have been playing hockey too long to fall for that sucker play of Conacher's," he said. "What's the matter? Are you afraid of him? Why didn't somebody smack him down and another thing. You're all shooting too high. Aim at Gardiner's shoestrings. Now let's get that goal back and remember, don't get careless."

Gorman evidently feared the Weiland-Aurie-Lewis line and between the second and third period devoted some time to telling his team to 'look out' for them.

MONCTON HAWKS ARE HEAVY FAVORITES TO WIN TROPHY

Strong Defensively, Forts Think They Have Every Bit as Good a Chance as Maritimers.

HACQUOIL BEST IN NET.

TORONTO, April 4. (CP). Moncton Hawks, who have dominated Canada's amateur hockey picture pretty thoroughly for two seasons, enter the third and deciding game of the Allan Cup final series here to-night favorites to defeat Fort William's Thundering Herd.

Critics who are backing their opinions with cash have made the Hawks favorites at around 3 to 1 to score their second straight triumph over the lighter, slower Western champions from the head of the Great Lakes. Even if all fans are not as convinced this will be another Maritime victory, the Hawks are generally regarded as holding an edge.

Percy Nicklin's big battalion from Moncton, beaten 3-2 in the first game last Saturday night, evened the series with a 4-2 win Monday night. In both games they held a sizeable edge in play over the fighting Forts without once definitely asserting much superiority on the score-card.

Hacquoil Best in Nets

The Forts are as sure as anything that Goalie Gordon Hacquoil will be as hard to beat tonight as he was in the first two games. And they believe a goal or two will win for them. Strong defensively, the Forts think they have every bit as good a chance to win as the Hawks. They don't mind in the least if Moncton does most of the hard work in midice—in fact they prefer it.

Bert Connolly, whose nose was fractured in three places in the second contest from a high crosscheck, may get into the crucial fixture but Nicklin will not decide definitely until shortly before the game starts. If Connolly does not play, Monty Muckle, right wing substitute, will be used.

Probable line-ups:

Fort William		Moncton

G. Hacquoil		Foster

O. Hacquoil		James

But the capital has an even surer sign of spring. Senator J. "Gossip and Such"

EIGHT HUNDRED spectators rose to their feet recently and cheered as the grand old man of the National league started his journey toward home plate with a possible winning run.

Two minutes later an ambulance siren shrieked—a baseball game came to an abrupt end—and a colorful veteran of the diamond was carried off the field, his left leg shattered in two places.

Such was the fate of Rabbit Maranville, infielder of the Boston Braves, and such may prove to be the final chapter of his baseball career. Rabbit was 41 last November and at his age the injury means more than it would for a younger player.

* * *

MOST BASEBALL players fear that old age will take them out of the game, but not so with the "Rabbit."

At 41 the Rabbit was as good as the day when he first joined the Braves back in 1912. It looked as thought he could go on and on—in fact, he would have eclipsed Hans Wagner's National league record of 2,785 games played had not this queer trick of fate overtaken him.

Maranville had 2,700 big league games to his credit and Manager Bill McKechnie had planned to start the season with Rabbit as his second baseman. * * *

MARANVILLE AN idol to the Boston squad, was well liked by players of other clubs and Boston fans. Although in late years a serious player and in the thick of the fight at all times, Rabbit always found time to inject a little humor into the game.

If Maranville wasn't clowning he would be throwing merry quips around the diamond. It is a certainty that he will be sorely missed on the Boston Braves' lineup this season.

THE CHANCES are 100 to 1 that Maranville will never again be seen in a big league game. His leg will knit, of course, but it certainly won't respond to action as in former times. Much younger men have had their careers ended by such fractures.

No matter how much the pain of his injury may be, we know full well that Rabbit has a greater one in the thought that he is through.

Let's hope that this thing called fate will deal a better hand and permit the old-timer's return to the game he loves.

SCOTS-PACKERS SOCCER LEAGUE

Five Teams Will Constitute District Loop—No Word From Port Hope.

REGISTRATION MEETING.

The Peterborough and District Football Association executive were informed at the general meeting, last night, that the Caledonians and Canada Packers will have a team in the league again. The Scots expect to have an organising meeting within the next week and report their office-bearers to the board.

William Downer informed the executive that the Packers would re-organize and hope to field a team that will uphold the honors of the past.

Each club will be charged ten cents for a registration form issued by the secretary. Also new flag posts for the field be purchased before the playing season begins.

Changes of Rules

The committee on rules and regulations have suggested changes in the constitution that were approved at the annual meeting but will have to be considered by the individual clubs before being placed on record. Last season, the postponement of the games through unforseen circumstances caused many unplayed games and the committee has suggested the change to read as follows:

"That no club or clubs shall have the power to postpone or break a league fixture, unless in unforseen circumstances; a 48-hour notice must be sent to the secretary of Association, also the secretary of the opposing club and official referee."

Rule 7 and 8 is to be discussed, "Ineligible players" and "any club withdrawing from the league."

There will be three teams from the city—Canadian General, Canada Packers and Caledonians along with two outside elevens—Deloro and Lindsay. No communication has been received from Port Hope.

All referees are requested to register immediately.

Toronto Saints Hold 13-Point Advantage

TORONTO, April 4. (CP)—St. Andrew's juvenile basketball team of Toronto to-day clung tenaciously to a 13-point lead, which did not feel as big as it looked, and wondered if it could stave off the speedy and surprising Hamilton Zions in the return game at Hamilton next Saturday, the Saints defeated the Zions 42-29 here last night in a semi-final Ontario Amateur Basketball Association game.

Thirty-three fouls were called throughout the hard-fought test by Referee "Yank" Shanahan of Toronto. Two players from each team were banished in the last half after incurring four fouls each and one Hamilton player, Vernon McIlveen, was put out of the game for arguing with the referee.

The United Church Zions, Juvenile church champions of Ontario, showed surprising form and it was a nip-and-tuck battle all the way. The score at half-time was 24-20 for the Toronto quintet.

DOUGHERTY'S BEATEN 12-6.

Thomas' team defeated Dougherty's, 12-6, in the junior cage game of the Boys' Hobby Show tournament in the "Y" this morning ,while Johnston's won from Whaley's, 16 to. The junior final to-night will be at 7.30, following the preliminary intermediate game which will start at 7.00. The intermediate final will start at 8.00, and will be followed at 8.30 by the Young Men's final.

DODGERS WANT MORE PITCHERS

Hal Lee to Hold Down Second Base Assignment for Boston Braves.

TRAINING BRIEFS.

(By The Associated Press)

JACKSON, Miss., April 4 (AP) —Ousted from the shortstop berth by Travis Jackson, Blondy Ryan may push his way back into the New York Giants' lineup as a second baseman. The youngster played there yesterday, while Hughey Critz was nursing an injured ankle.

• • •

ORLANDO, Fla.—The opening of the National League season is less than two weeks away, but Bob Quinn, business manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers, still is trying to find another winning pitcher.

Captious critics insist the Dodger pitching staff consists of "Mungo, Mungo and Mungo."

ATLANTA.—In his capacity of president of the Atlanta Baseball Club, Bobby Jones is sorry Babe Ruth is not manager of the New York Yankees.

The Atlanta Club needs mound strength, and Bobby says: "I'd trade a pretty fair golfing backswing for a winning pitcher. Too bad, Ruth's not the Yankees' manager; a golf bug like The Babe would make the deal gladly."

• • •

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—Hal Lee will hold down the second base assignment for the Boston Braves.

Bill McKechnie has reached the conclusion that Dick Gyselman is a third baseman and nothing else, and so the Californian loses an opportunity he may have had of replacing the crippled Rabbit Maranville at the keystone sack.

PATRICK TO QUIT JOB WITH N.H.L.

Managing Director of National League Intends to Accept Club Offer.

MONTREAL, April 4. — Frank Patrick will be with the National Hockey League next season but not as managing director and vice-president, he said, as he boarded a train for Detroit to see the Stanley Cup series between Detroit Red Wings and Chicago Black Hawks.

"I will be back next season, but not as an official of the National Hockey League," said the retiring managing director. "I have offers from two major league clubs and will, within the next few weeks, accept one or the other."

It is understood that both Boston and Chicago have been bidding for the services of Patrick, brother of Lester Patrick, manager of the New York Rangers. At the close of the Stanley Cup series Frank Patrick will return to Vancouver for the summer months, returning east next fall.

He came to Montreal last September and was installed managing director of the N.H.L. with complete charge of league referees and discipline.

No Admission Charge For Grappling Show

An amateur wrestling show, with no admission charged, is being held in the "Y" Gym tomorrow (Thursday) evening at 8.30 o'clock. Outstanding local grapplers with two Ontario champions will perform. Six or seven matches will be staged, the purpose of the show being to test out some of the local matmen and possibly send them to represent Peterborough in the provincial championships in Kitchener, April 27th and 28th. Interested spectators are invited.

Bill Hogen, city champion of the 126-pound class, meets U. E. Waterman at 135 pounds in one bout. Freddie Williams, 135-pound local champion, tangles with Jack Bennett, 145; Andy Chartran, 152, meets Kitchen Johnson, 154. Waldie Myers, 135-pound Ontario champion, comes down from Toronto to take on Bill Taylor, 156; and Bill is also slated to meet—after a suitable interval—Ban Englebloom, the 145-pound Ontario champion from Toronto. Carlos Routley and Frank Leahy will stage one of their side-splitting burlesque grappling matches, and Jack Gardner and Mick Magee may meet also.

SAMMY McMANUS TO PLAY WITH MONTREAL MAROONS

MONTREAL, April 4 (CP)—Sammy McManus, speedy forward of Moncton Hawks, Canadian hockey champs last year, who are now playing a series with Fort William for the Allan Cup, has come to terms with Montreal Maroons of the National Hockey League, officials of the Maroons announced here yesterday.

McManus has not signed a contract, but it is understood he will be seen in a Maroon uniform next year. Maroon officials hastened to put him on their negotiation list when they saw him perform against McGill University in the playdowns here two weeks ago

What may prove to be the final girls' basketball game of the year is listed for to-night at 6.45 in the Y.W.C.A. when Westclox and Blue Petes meet. It'll be their third game of the two-out-of-three series, Westclox copping the first by a 1-7 count but being held to a 13-all draw in the second. Last year's champs are favored to win out, but don't lay the family jewelery on this evening's contest. Both teams are smart, dish up fast exciting cage play and they rate a good crowd of fans for the windup game, or the second last tilt—which ever it may turn out to be.

• • • • • •

Good news is in the offing for the local Senior Lacrosse Club—though it may turn out to be just another idea gone screwy. But at the O.A.L.A. convention in Toronto Good Friday, 'twas hinted that maybe only two Toronto teams would play senior lacrosse this year and that a likely senior league would consist of Peterborough, Orillia, Richmond Hill, Malvern Grads and Oakwood Grads — the last two of Toronto. This would be fine for the local entry, cutting down a couple of the trips, bringing in the powerful Orillia team, and doing away completely with monetary guarantees to teams playing here. 'Twould be the nerts—but, of course, the idea is still up in the air.

Writing up a Bay of Quinte ball meeting the other day, the Belleville scribe said: "The second statement was by far the most astounding. All present were discussing the C.O.B.L. problem when Walt Gerow came to bat with this statement: 'You get Picton to jump senior and Napanee will go in the Central League and make a real loop of it.' There's food for thought. The C.O.B.L. magnates could do worse than visit the Prince Edward County seat and talk the matter over with them. At that, the Picton club have a real smart team of ballsters and with the addition of a battery would make it plenty interesting for the present C.O.B.L. roster."

• • • • • •

Well, we're glad the Quinte sportswriter found something to be astounded at. We're not so lucky as we've been figuring all along that Napanee wasn't loading up for fun, nor would other teams welcome them into intermediate company with four or five imports. As for that "make a real loop of it" crack—tut, tut, Walter, you haven't forgot what happened when Napanee came here last year, have you? And, as for the C.O.B.L. officials going after Picton, don't forget they twice this winter invited Picton to meetings, but Picton each time declined, saying they weren't interested in senior ball. No, we—meaning the C.O.B.L. clubs—should be very well satisfied this summer playing an interlocking schedule with the strong Ulster Stadium League, which will include Oshawa this year. Of course, Napanee would be a welcome addition also, if it doesn't remain in intermediate company.

Church Softball League holds its annual meeting Wednesday, April 18th, at seven p.m. in the Y.M.C.A. Don Charlton, chairman of the Sports' Committee of the local Boys' Work Board—who sponsor this loop—is calling the meeting and urges a good turnout, at least two representatives from each Sunday School, as each church has two votes. A committee of five will be elected to run the loop this year, last season's consisting of: Chairman Harold Rehill, Len Agnew, Whitty Thirnbeck, Jack Clayton and Secretary Don Charlton. Suggestions should be brought up at this meeting. The league starts early in May and winds up late in June. It was very successful last year, due chiefly to the officers in charge, with seventeen teams entered, six juniors, four juveniles and seven in the newly-formed bantam section. St. James won the first, Knox took the juvenile title, and St. James copped the bantam.

Friday, April 13th, is the date set for the Senior Baseball Club's pro grappling show at the Brock here, and that date is going to be an unlucky one for some of the grunt-and-groaners! Tommy McClure, of the Mutual Street Arena, Toronto, is promoting the card and will have a flock of his lively light-heavies down for the occasion and fans can get an eyeful again of the most successful sport in these days of depression. Rassiin' has more than held its own since it turned modern, and everywhere the fans are flocking to see the paid behemoths get away with their mayhem and highly-humorous antics. Local rassiin' followers are ready for another good card and this shohuld be it.

• • • • • •

And here's a free dish of amateur grappling being offered for tomorrow night in the 'Y' gym when outstanding local matmen tangle with each other, and with two Ontario champs from Toronto, at 8.30 p.m. The idea is to find out how many, if any, of the Peterborough rasslers are ready to go to the Ontario titular matches in Kitchener the end of this month. Complete card appears elsewhere in today's paper and includes Bill Taylor, prominent local grappler, Ben Engleblоom and Waldie Myers—Ont. champs—and those burlesque experts, Frank Leahy and Carlos Routley. Don't miss it, it'll be a honey—and it's free!

That City Lacrosse League meeting is to-night at eight in Duffus', and everyone interested is urged to attend and get the loop reorganized right for this summer. The boys are getting hot for the game again, and young Emmett Creighton had a gang out with their sticks up at P.C.I. yesterday warming up. They may be rushing the season a bit, but it won't be long now. They intend to workout every afternoon if possible from now on, so other young lacrossers will know where to find 'em, if they too feel the urge. This season looks like a comeback for lacrosse locally.

Up and down Sports' Rialto: According to the C.A.H.A. no commercially-named hockey team next winter may enter Allan Cup playdowns, after the O.H.A. season, not even if they change their name . . . . But they did extend the residence rule from May 15th to Oct. 15th . . . . Chicago Hawks served notice they'll be tough to take in the Stanley Cup series by knocking off the Red Wings, 2-1 in Detroit last e'en . . . . Bill Hudson, who played for Cobourg in the C.O.B.L. two years ago, will leave Port Hope next week for a tryout with St. Louis Cardinals; he's a shortstop . . . . Considerable interest and comment has been aroused by old and young puck fans over the pictures we're running of the 1926 Petes, O.H.A. senior champions.

BOXERS PREPARE FOR TITLE BOUT

Carnera to Train in Lumber Camp—Max Baer at Atlantic City.

MEET ON JULY 14TH.

By EDWARD J. NEIL
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, April 4.—The second successive day of Spring warmth and sunshine, in addition to thawing out Manhattan's winter-worn joints, to-day brought forth new facts and figures on the June 1 duel of Primo Carnera and Max Baer.

Carnera, the huge champion, will attempt to catch up with his playboy challenger in the matter of training by heading into the Maine woods Saturday for four weeks of shadow-boxing with an axe and some of the tall trees that abound in New England.

Baer, fresh from a Winter of dusk-to-dawn flights through the cabarets of the land and a joust with Hollywood, has been at Lake Tahoe, Calif., for two weeks. The Californian is due here the middle of April and will complete hi conditioning at Atlantic City, where he trained last Summer before knocking out Max Schmeling. Carnera visited at Dr. Bier's camp at Pompton Lakes, N.J., today and decided to work there on his return from Maine.

McLarnin Is Ordered To Box Van Klaveren

NEW YORK, April 4. (CP).—The New York State Athletic Commission yesterday gave Jimmy McLarnin thirty days in which to accept a challenge by Bep Van Klaveren for the welterweight championship or forfeit his title claims, so far as New York is concerned.

Van Klaveren formally challenged for the Vancouver Irishman's title during the afternoon, and posted a guarantee of $2,500 with the Commission.

McLarnin won the 147-pound title by knocking out Young Corbett in one round last May. Efforts to match him against Barney Ross, lightweight champion, recently collapsed.

YEAR IN QUEBEC CITY.

Ray Rose, one of the Peterborough-born members of the O.H.A. 1926 champion Petes, started his hockey career in his home city, and with the exception of a year's experience in the Quebec City league, played all his hockey here. He began as a member of the Peterborough junior squad and played both intermediate and senior hockey. With the championship squad Rose was one great assistance for he not only played a bang-up game on the forward line, but when (Snap) Parker was injured with a fractured shoulder and unable to play in the London series, Rose stepped into the breach, and teaming up with Bert McLeod turned great card in the final dash championship.

Character From Handwriting

By BLANCHE A. DRAPER

A Feature Conducted by Peterborough's Leading Handwriting Analyst for the Readers of The Examiner

Elsie Deck,
532 Roger St., Peterborough.

Your handwriting describes you to be one who finds it necessary to combat against two outstanding characteristics. You have a tendency at times to rush headlong into work and intrigues which are really beyond your power to undertake. There are other times when you feel too indisposed to exert yourself on anything or anyone. There is no happy medium to your nature. You are either one extreme or another. Your large upper loops tell that if you really endeavour to expend more will power on what you know, you will do well and be able to make a success of your undertaking. Your best outlet now would be a life devoted to love and happiness—a life in which you would be protected, in which you would give your best to housekeeping, because of that love. I think you would make an excellent housewife. In this station of life you would find an outlet for your pent up emotions. As it is, your writing shows dissatisfaction and discontent but a great unbounded capacity for love.

Annie E. Buchanan,
Havelock, Ont.

The handwriting as delineated on your sample for analysis indicates that you are a very interesting person. You are diligent and enterprising. Your mind is active and retentive.. Your movements, physically are quick and decisive. You do not permit yourself to dawdle over anything. This is because you are so filled with the spirit of progress that you cannot afford the time in which to procrastinate. You are introspective and restrospective mentally as regards your capacity to accomplish certain objectives, but even at that you do not waste time in so doing. Your large capitals bespeak a rather generous nature, but in this you are quite sensible. Your generosity fortunately does not dominate your good sense. You are always ready to offer a helping hand to those who are deserving assistance. You are born under Sagittarius ruled by Jupiter. February and June are your best months. Thursday your best day. Your number is 4.

Ann Bertha Johnston,
Keene, Ont.

The handwriting as delineated on your sample for analysis illustrates ingenuity and keen intelligence. You are artistic and temperamental, vital and very interested in the current events of the times. You seem to come to definite decisions very quickly. You are wise, and educated along certain lines more than the average. You are one of the leader type because of your ingenious mind, and you should enjoy all honors due to your station in life. Your health seems to be in excellent condition. Your 't' bar crossings reflect determination and excellent will power. You have sufficient ambition with which to enable you to accomplish any line of endeavor that you may choose as a life work. The long lower loop attendant to your letter 'J' in 'Johnston' shows a love of out of door recreation and interest in physical culture.

Mrs. Frank Youmans,
R.R. No. 1, Havelock, Ont.

Your handwriting with it's firm, fine open formations as delineated on your sample for analysis shows that you are affable yet honest. You positively detest anything which is not put forth open and above board. You are, however, susceptible to flattery, or one might say, you respond to kindness and kind words. As a rule you are modest and hate display, but you feel highly elated when someone praises your work or your choice of clothing. Your imagination is well expressed, and you should experience no difficulty in creating new ideas. Sometimes you are a trifle too sensitive and resent intrusion into your private affairs, but you do not 'hold a grudge' against the offenders. Your number is 4. You are born under the sign of Scorpio, the Scorpion ruled by Mars. January and July are your best months. Tuesday is your best day.

Jannette Sullivan,
Doure.

Your handwriting offered on sample for analysis suggests a kindly nature. You are an individual who would offer assistance without question to those who appeal to you for help. You are sympathetic and understanding. Your will power is normal. Relative to your question I might suggest that you undertake the growing of flowers, like hot-house plants etc. This should help to solve your problem in a monetary way. The main body of your writing tells me that you have acquired the wisdom of maturity and are gifted with common sense and that you are friendly and openhearted. If you care to send me your birth date, month and year and the date on which this delineation appears in The Examiner, using the same name, I shall be glad to be of further assistance to you.

"WORN OUT" and WORRIED Not Just Sure What Was Wrong

Many women drag around each day, unable to do their housework—cranky with their children—not wanting to see friends—feeling miserable—yet not sick enough to go to bed. Some blame it on "nerves"—more likely their kidneys are out of order. When kidneys fail the system becomes clogged with impurities—headaches—backache, frequently follow. If you don't feel right, take Dodd's Kidney Pills, as thousands of others have done for three generations. Clear your system and give nature a chance to rebuild your health and energy. 43

Trent River

The road scraper operated on the Trent River-Havelock road on Saturday, but had little effect on ridges of ice which extend the full width of the road.

The Misses Laura and Agnes Wight returned Sunday afternoon to Toronto having spent over Eastertide at the home of their mother, Mrs. A. Wight.

Miss Ferne Longmuir was a recent visitor with Miss Betty Ormiston.

Miss Josephine Hoffman of Havelock is spending the Easter holidays with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William S. Davidson.

Mr. Kenneth Craddock of Trenton is holidaying with his brothers at "Cedar Isle."

DISPUTE ARISES OVER THE SALE OF ARTICLES FROM COLE PLANT

Ald. C. G. Frost Defends Action of Lindsay Council in Taxation System.

A VERBAL BATTLE.

LINDSAY, April 4 (Examiner Correspondence).—"I have a right to know what is going on and am not in favor of any motion being sprung on me," said Ald. P. E. Pickering at Monday night's Council meeting.

Ald. Pickering objected to a motion being passed appointing a special committee to meet a party from Toronto regarding the sale of the Cole Manufacturing Co. building and plant, claiming that articles had been sold from the plant, regardless of a motion passed at a previous meeting of the Council to the effect that ony office equipment should be brought to the Town Hall for use in the municipal building.

Ald. Pickering's ire was roused when Ald. Logan stated that some article had been sold to Ald. Ferguson. Later, after considerable chin-whacking, Ald. Logan informed Ald. Pickering that the article did not belong to the Cole plant. "Furthermore," said Ald. Logan, "a chairman is supposed to use common sense, and if you think I am going to call special meetings of Council and committees two or three times a week for trivial things, you are badly mistaken. Would you?"

"The bylaws are there, Mr. Logan. I would," said Ald. Pickering. "I do not want anything put over me."

Deputy-Reeve O'Reilly stated that Ald. Pickering was a new members of the Council and had been objecting at everything. "We have been trying to help him. I even gave him a copy of procedure to study up. His bylaw, regarding fair wages, etc., is a waste of pen, paper, ink and wind. We have a lot of new members, but Mr. Pickering is apparently the only one kicking. He wants to pay all claims for damages, for instance, and who pays—the ratepayers. That's not saving the working man money."

Ald. Pickering: "No, but I want to know what is going on.""

Ald. C. G. Frost, Chairman of Finance, defended the action of the town Council in changing the system of taxation. He admitted that ratepayers were finding it hard to make payments because of the unusual time, but did not see, according to law, how the Council could do otherwise than enforce the collection of what have termed "exhorbitant penalties." By the new method of collecting the town had been able to save considerable money. Hence the taxpayers were really saving money. On April 1, 1934, the outstanding taxes of 1933 totalled $47,440.63. The Town still owes the Bank of Montreal $47,500.00 for 1933, on which interest is being paid. Besides, the town tions have been greatly improved. has to pay a collector, pay for an office staff, etc. However, collec- In January, 1933, collections of arrears amounted to $7,100, while in Jan., 1934, they amounted to $8,400. In February, 1933, they amounted to $3,900 as compared with $4,,400 in February, 1934; in March, 1933, to $3,686 as compared with $6,668 in 1934. There were collections of arrears. In March, 1934, collection of taxes amounted to $40,000, while in June, 1933, they amounted to only $29,000. On April 1, 1933, the town borrowed on current account from the bank, $34,,000, while in April of 1934 the town only had to borrow $13,000, while meant a great saving in interest.

Ald. O'Reilly: "Yes, but you will find that the moneyed men have paid. I'd like to see a list of those who have paid."

Ald. Pickering: "The working man has to pay the penalty, and it is very severe; and the moneyed man gets that penalty."

Reeve Morrison and Deputy-Reeve O'Reilly presented a motion to the Council which was carried unanimously. The Department of Highways will be petitioned to consider the question of an amendment to the law regarding motor car licenses, whereby the owner of a car can buy his license at the regular fee, but that whenever he turns his license plates in, whether it be at the expiration of four months, six months or ten months he be allowed a rebate, similar to the manner in which he receives a rebate from the insurance companies on car policies.

PATRONS' MEETING AT YOUNG'S POINT

Three Cheese Factories Were Pepresented at Meeting.

Three cheese factories were represented at the Patrons' meeting last night at Young's Point which was attended by thirty-five farmers of the district.

George Van Volkenburg explained the purposes of the Cheese Factory Patrons' Association which is still in the organization stage, but instead of expressing their opinions as a group the farmers decided to refer the project to the individual factories of Young's Point, Selwyn and Buckhorn.

Pine Grove factory was not represented. It was stated that the road from that district to Young's Point was blocked by water.

W. J. Moore, dairy instructor, Vivian Milburn and A. R. Runions accompanied Mr. Van Volkenburg.

Mr. Runions said this morning that he felt confident the factories in that area would endorse the Patrons' Association.

EVIDENCE HEARD IN DAMAGE CASE

Mrs. Mary A. Fenton is Suing the City for $500 Damages.

JUDGMENT RESERVED.

Judgment in the action of Mrs. Mary Fenton, Jackson Avenue, against the city for injuries suffered in a fall on Lake Street Sunday, December 3, was deferred by His Honor Judge Huycke this morning.

Owing to the absence of City Solicitor J. R. Corkery, who was notified after the court rose late yesterday afternoon that the appeals in the city's income tax cases would be heard in Toronto to-day, argument was not proceeded with by G. N. Gordon, K.C., counsel for the plaintiff.

Mr. Gordon conveyed to the court the request of Mr. Corkery that Judge Huycke consent to receive written argument in this case.

It transpired in the evidence that the claim for $500 damages and costs of the suit is based on the contention that the sidewalk was not properly sanded that day when, it was said, the rain froze as it fell, but also that the sidewalk was slightly sloping, a condition alleged to have been caused by upheaving frost or roots of a nearby tree. It was on this icy slope that Mrs. Fenton is said to have fallen in front of 261-263 Lake Street on the evening of December 3.

Mrs. Fenton suffered a fracture of her right leg, bruises and nervous shock by falling on an icy part of the sidewalk in front of the lane between the houses No. 261 and 263.

Dr. Ray Scott gave evidence as to the extent of the injury and that it would be several months before she would be able to use her foot normally. He said he had attended her for several weeks and the fracture was a very serious one.

John Fenton, the husband of Mrs. Mary A. Fenton testified that Mrs. Fenton had stepped on the broken part of the sidewalk opposite 261 Lake Street and that there was ice without sand at the place where she fell and broke her ankle.

Walter Peters of The Examiner gave the thermometer readings for several days before the accident and on the date of the accident and showed that there was a light rain on the morning of the accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Coss said that there was no sand on Lake street at the point of the accident, while Aylmer street was well sanded and was safe for walking. Harold LeGrow also gave evidence very much to the same effect.

The contention of the plaintiff was that the city had been negligent in not sanding the street for the safety of pedestrians.

Bruce Livingstone of the Board of Works Department stated that Lake Street had been sanded on November 30, three days prior to the accident. He explained that the city had employed eight groups of 'sanders', two or three men to each gang, that there were 77 miles of sidewalk in the city, and that the work of going over all that mileage of walk could not be completed in one day.

John H. Spence, grocer at Lake and Aylmer streets, said that when he left home to go to St. James church at 10.30 o'clock in the morning of December 3 he had to walk in the middle of Aylmer street because rain freezing as it fell left the sidewalks glare.

John Fenton, recalled, said that at the time of the accident in the evening the rain and snow on the sidewalk was not quite frozen neither was it slush. He noticed that when he helped his wife from the ground her coat was wet from the dampness on the sidewalk.

Cautious Driving Urged On Highways

TORONTO, April 4 (CP).—Cautious driving was advised to-day by the Ontario Department of Highways over many highways, and especially gravel roads.

A washout occurred early to-day on highway No. 8 at Christie's Corners, and two trucks became stuck in the hole. Floods on highway No. 31 north of Morrisburg, especially around the Nation River bridge, had closed the stretch. The Department posted a watchman to stop all traffic.

Highway No. 9 was blocked at Waldemar bridge, due to floods, and traffic was detoured via Arthur.

Manilla Property Destroyed By Fire

LINDSAY, Ont., April 4 (C.P.).—Probably the popping of canned goods exploding in the trerific heat was all that prevented loss of life in an early morning blaze at Manilla to-day which completely destroyed the home of Murray Marshall and the adjoining store owned by him and operated by C. Cloughlin & Son for a chain.

It was the loud noise of exploding canned goods that awakened Mr. and Mrs. Marshall, their daughter Jessie, and their two sons, Albert and James, in time to permit them to flee the building. The fire had mad esuch headway that they could save nothing but the few clothes they struggled into before running to safety.

The cause of the fire is unknown, and no estimate of the damage could be obtained.

PRO TOUR CONTINUES

SURINGFIELD, Mass., April 4. (AP)—Henri Cochet and Martin Plaa, French professional tennis stars, won singles matches here last night while the United States double team of Vinnie Richards and Bruce Barnes scored as the four pro netmen exhibited their wares before 1,200.

Cochet disposed of Richards, 6-1, 6-3. Plaa downed Barnes, 6-4, 9-7. Then Richards and Barnes beat the French tandem of Cochet and Plaa, 10-6, 6-3. It was the first win in doubles for the U.S. duo over the French team.

DISCHARGED FROM HOSPITAL

LAKELAND, Fla., April 4. (AP) Mickey Cochrane, catcher-manager of Detroit Tigers, was discharged from hospital yesterday after two day's observation for a pain in his right side which at first was feared to be a forerunner of appendicitis.

Dr. G. C. Freeman said "Physical laboratory and X-ray tests in Cochrane's case were all negative and he apparently is all right now. The cause of the pains in his side is undetermined, but he seems fully recovered."

Exploratory Course Taught First Year Gives Students Chance to Suit Tastes.

REDUCE FAILURES.

TORONTO, April 4 (CP)—Faith in the time-worn adage of "spare the rod and spoil the child," was expressed yesterday by James E. Bevens, principal of Pembroke Public Schools, in an address before the Urban Teachers' section of the Ontario Educational Association in annual convention here yesterday.

"After 20 years of teaching," said Mr. Bevens, president of the section, "I'm convinced that fear of consequences is one of the essentials in keeping children and adults in the right path as far as their conduct affects themselves and their fellow beings."

J. C. Anderson, Oshawa barrister, described to those attending the Urban Trustees' Section, "What he said as a sucessful attempt to reduce the number of repeaters and failures, at present a sad comment and heavy burden on the educational system."

The new system, he said, being tried in Oshawa, consisted of a first year "exploratory course," which all students were required to take. It included subjects from each of three departments and permitted students to discover for themselves and "get into the course best suited to their inclinations and abilities."

It was expected the test would greatly reduce the number of failures, he said.

Obituary

GEORGE A. GRAHAM

NORWOOD, April 4 (Examiner Correspondence) — The death occurred on Monday evening of George A. Graham in his fifty-sixth year. Mr. Graham has been a life long and highly respected resident in this vicinity.

The funeral will be held from his late residence Belmont road on Wednesday at two o'clock, with interment in Norwood cemetery.

MRS. CHARLES MANLEY

HASTINGS, April 4. (Examiner Correspondence). — After a short illness Mrs. Charles Manley died on Friday morning at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Warner at the age of 35 years.

The late Mrs. Manley, whose maiden name was Miss Bessie Warner, was born in the Township of Asphodel on April 20th, 1899. She spent the major portion of her short life in the township. In September, 1924, she became the bride of Charles Manley of Westwood where she resided until the death of her husband in 1929, when she came to live with her parents in Hastings. For the past Winter the late Mrs. Manley's father has been quite seriously ill which no doubt had weakened her resistance and she could not rally from a severe attack of pneumonia.

There is left to mourn her loss her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Warner of Hastings, four brothers, Messrs. Gordon and Ernie of Asphodel township and Charles and Bruce of Toronto.

The funeral which was held on Sunday afternoon from the family residence, Hastings, was very largely attended which with the many beautiful floral offerings showed the esteem deceased was held by a wide circle of friends. Services were conducted by Rev. H. J. Bell of Trinity United Church after which interment was made in Westwood cemetery.

The bearers were Messrs. C. Breckenridge and C. Nevins of Westwood, W. S. Fife and M. Humphries of Asphodel, H. G. Fairman and G. Fairman of Hastings.

JAMES WATSON

LAKEFIELD, April 4 (Examiner Correspondence).—The funeral took place on Saturday afternoon of the late James Watson, the service was held in St. John's Church, where the deceased had been a devout member all his life. Rev. W. J. Creighton, M.A., officiated, assisted by Rev. A. W. Mackenzie, D.D., M.A. Mrs. Todd was at the organ, and the vested choir sang two appropriate hymns. The simple dignity of the service was like the character of the deceased and the tribute paid by the rector to his loyalty and devotion was merited, for Mr. Watson was one of those rare personalities who never wavered in his loyalty and his friendship was worth having. "Another of the Old Guard passes," and he will be missed in the church and community where he had lived an honored life.

The pall-bearers were old neighbors: Messrs. R. G. Charlton, W. J. Dunford, William Frankish, W. Hockaday, R. J. Jory and Charles Thomson. Interment was made beside his wife in Hillside cemetery.

Mr. Watson was born in Lakefield seventy-four years ago and lived his life in the village and in its immediate vicinity. Mr. Watson was a man of retiring habits and while he did not shirk his responsibilities and obligations either as a churchman or a citizen, he sought no personal honor. As a member of St. John's Church he leaves a place hard to fill; he was regular in his attendance at the vestry meetings and though he seldom spoke, when he did, it was to further the interests of the church he loved. Anyone who saw Mr. Watson's daily pilgrimage to school with his little grandchildren and his patient waiting after school for them saw the real James Watson, the kindly, loving-hearted man who is sincerely mourned by his friends and neighbors.

REV. WALTER COX.

LAKEFIELD, April 4 (Examiner Correspondence): — The many friends of Rev. Walter Cox in Peterborough district will be interested in the following—

The Parish Church of Andover, Hants., England, was filled to capacity on Wednesday, March 7, when the funeral service of the late Rev. Walter Cox was held. There was a large attendance of clergy, who had known and loved Mr. Cox, and also representatives from all the neighboring parishes. There were countless floral tributes, beautiful blooms which were so greatly loved by the deceased. Local friends would be greatly touched by the wreath bearing the inscription, "Brutus, God's good man, from your lonely wife," which calls to remembrance that "Brutus" was Mrs. Cox's nickname for her husband. Interment was made in the churchyard at Andover. The funeral service was fully choral.

On Wednesday evening a memorial service was held in St. Mary's Church, Monxton, where Mr. Cox had been rector for three and a half years. The service was conducted by Rev. P. F. A. Morrell, vicar of Andover, and attended by a large number of worshippers who filled the church. Mr. Cox's surplice and preacher's stole were placed on the prayer desk, the insignia of the soldier of the cross who had fought his good fight and gone to his reward.

Rev. Waltex Cox, who was sixty years of age, was born in England, and entered the ministry of the Church of England through the Church Army, in which he served for some years doing splendid work and manifesting an aptitude for the life of an active and militant soldier in Christ's army. In 1906 Mr. Cox came to Canada and was ordained deacon by the late Bishop Mills of the Diocese of Ontario, and the following year was ordained a priest. Very soon after, Miss Sturgess, to whom Mr. Cox had become engaged before leaving England, came out to join him, and they were married by the late Rev. T. J. O'Conor Fenton, and for some years worked together in missions in the northern part of the diocese, then in Wolfe Island and Gananoque. In 1923 they came to the Parish of Lakefield, which was the only parish in Toronto diocese where Mr. Cox was rector.

Mr. Cox was active in the work of the I.O.O.F., and was a Past Grand Master of the order, and was also a Past Grand Master of the Ontario Grand Lodge A.F. and A.M.

Always a friend of youth, Mr. Cox was a member of the executive of the Dominion Council of the A.Y.P.A. for some years, and while in Lakefield was prominent in the activities of the Peterborough District Council. He was the guest speaker at the banquet of the Dominion conference held in Peterborough in 1921.

Happy and sunny of temperament Mr. Cox made friends in every walk of life, and among those who were affiliated with other religious bodies. He was a remarkably fine preacher, and made a splendid contribution to the Church of England in both England and Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox left Lakefield in November, 1926, and returned to Andover, where Mr. Cox worked as assistant in the Parish Church to his appointment as rector of Monxton.

SEES RUINATION IN RAILWAY BILL

Teachers Told Canada Will Go Bankrupt if Spread Not Stopped Within 5 Years.

HAS BEST BRAINS BEATEN.

TORONTO, April 4 (CP)—If the "cancerous spread" of railway indebtedness in Canada could not be stopped within the next five years, the country would be headed for bankruptcy, said A. G. Steinberg, M.A., of Ottawa, in an address before the commercial section of the Ontario Educational Association yesterday.

Mr. Steinberg's address emphasized the importance of taking current event problems before the economics class for study purposes. He stated that this year's problem was the central bank of Canada, as the railway question and the Duff report was last years.

Touching upon the railway problem he declared that it was the most serious problem in Canada's national life. "With a debt of nearly $3,000,000,000, with a per capita debt of nearly $300, with the fact staring us in the face that this debt has grown larger every year since 1923, and with the ablest brains in our government frankly saying that they don't know what to do about the matter—little wonder that it is a source of worry to the intelligent people of this Dominion."

In classroom work, Mr. Steinberg advised some special class investigation of a problem such as the central bank, individual investigation with oral reports for classroom edification.

Honorary Degrees To Be Given 2 Pastors

MONTREAL, April 4 (CP)—The degree of Doctor of Divinity will be conferred at the coming convocation of the Presbyterian Theological College of Montreal upon Rev. A. G. Cameron, minister in a church at Deseronto, Ont., and Rev. M. B. Davidson, minister of Central Church, Galt, Ont., it was announced here yesterday.

The two ministers, graduated from the college more than 30 years ago, will be honored for their service to the Presbyterian Church of Canada for 25 years.

Rev. Mr. Cameron is a former minister of St. Giles Church, Ottawa.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE REVIEWS

TORONTO PRODUCE.

TORONTO, April 4.— Egg receipts were clearing fairly well in yesterday's local market, at unchanged levels. Receipts were not noticeably increased and graded eggs, cases free, were 18c for A-large; A-medium, 16c; A-pullets and C grade, 15c, with some sales of C grade at 14c. Ungraded eggs, delivered, cases returned, held at 16c for A-large; A-medium, 14c; and C grade, 13c, while to the retailer A-large, loose, were 21c; A-medium, 20c; and C grade, 19c.

Influenced by strength at Montreal, butter prices were firm, although there was not a great deal of activity, buyers having apparently satisfied present needs in Monday's flurry. Ontario creamery solids were 29c on No. 1, with an asking price of 29½c, although no sales were reported at that figure. Creamery prints held to previous price of 31c on No. 1, with seconds 30½c.

The cheese market was weak, with few transactions. Buying prices showed a tendency to soften, although new large was generally quoted to the shipper from 11½c to 11¾c and retailing at 13½c.

MONTREAL PRODUCE.

MONTREAL, April 4. — Butter prices touched the highest levels in three years on the Montreal Dairy and Produce Market yesterday as stocks continued light. No. 1 grade butter, in cariots or less, was quoted at 30½c to 31c a pound, a cent higher than yesterday. Arrivals amounted to only 711 boxes. Production is expected to take a sharp increase with the advancing season, and buying is light at the present top prices.

The egg market was again easier, heavier receipts tending to lower prices. Graded shipments in cariots or less brought 19c a dozen for A-large, 18 cents for A-medium and 17c for C-grade. Receipts totalled 2,352 cases.

Other lines held unchanged. Cheese was again quoted at 11¼c for current make Ontario, with summer cheese at 11½c to 12½c for white and colored. Offerings were 147 boxes.

Quebec potatoes in 80-pound bags were quoted at $1 to $1.05 and New Brunswick Mountains in similar quantities at $1.05 to $1.10. Prince Edward Island Mountains in 90-pound bags sold at $1.30 to $1.40.

CHICAGO GRAIN.

CHICAGO, April 4. — Influenced a good deal by advices that Department of Agriculture experts were favoring further drastic Congressional regulation of commodity exchanges, grain values averaged lower yesterday.

Shrinkage of speculative interest in grains was a conspicuous feature, but sellers received considerable incentive from prospective beneficial results to spring wheat because of drenching rains in the Dakotas and Minnesota, with heavy snow in Montana. Another bearish influence was a tentative unofficial forecas that the United States probable aggregate wheat supply after July 1 would be approximately 1 000,000,000 bushels, against 913.000 000 the current season.

Wheat closed nervous at the same as Monday's finish to ⅝c lower; corn, ¼c to ½c down; oats, ¼c to ⅝c off; and provisions varying from 7c decline to a rise of 2c.

WINNIPEG GRAIN.

WINNIPEG, April 4. — Wheat prices moved listlessly over a narrow range on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange yesterday, and though support was very restricted, there was only a minimum of selling pressure. Final quotations were unchanged to ⅛c lower.

May wheat closed at 67¾c, July at 69⅛c, and October at 70½c. Foreign markets opened after a long Easter recess, but interest from outside quarters was dull.

Foreig nsales of Canadian wheat were not confirmed though seaboard and Continental houses placed scattered buying orders. Bulk of het light offerings were credited to a large local interest.

U.S. TO OPEN NATION-WIDE BALLOT BOX N R A TEST

WASHINGTON, April 3.—(A.P.)—A nation-wide ballot box test of the "new deal" will start in the United States a week from to-day.

Illinois voters, lining up for the first of the primaries of the off-year elections, will inaugurate activities that in the next seven months will reach into every State. November will finish the election of 35 senators. About the same number of governors, and the entire House of Representatives.

Republicans are voicing openly the hope that the usual off-year tide will restore them to many offices they lost in the Roosevelt landslide of 1932. Democrats predict that gains in the Senate will offset an immaterial loss of seats in the House.

The Illinois primaries next week will mark the start. It will give little indication of the outcome of the whole race. There is neither a gubernatorial nor a senatorial contest in that State this year.

Floods Endanger Villages in Grand Valley

Flood waters have risen to unprecedented heights in Grand River, Ontario, and ice jams have already bent bridges and moved them from their foundations. Dynamite is being used freely in an effort to get the waters moving, but villages along the banks of the river are fearful that serious damage will be done before the ice flows downstream. Above shows a scene of the ice pile-up with an iron bridge in the background getting the full force of the attack. Meanwhile, many farms bordering on the river are under water and several farmers are hard put to feed their stock.

FOUR ROAD BUILDING PROJECTS PLANNED FOR PETERBORO COUNTY

Use of the Strap Be More Effective

TORONTO, April 5.—(CP)—Deploring activities of irresponsible youths between the ages of 16 and 18 in York Township, Chief of Police John Foulds condemned the "ridiculous action" of certain persons in bringing a bill before parliament to abolish strapping of youths as a police court punishment. The chief aired his views in an interview today.

"It is going to multiply our trouble greatly," he commented. "All our juvenile homes are going to be packed. Also, if they would let the school teachers use the strap on these youths, they would get better results."

Part of the $5,000,000 Program Recently Outlined by Government.

STARTED EARLY IN MAY.

Four road building projects are planned for Peterborough county this Spring as part of the $5 000,000 program recently announced by the Department of Highways.

They are as follows:

Construction of a twenty-foot strip of pavement from Peterborough to Lakefield.

Grading road and putting in culverts from Havelock to Campbellford, 10.6 miles.

Grading and building culverts from Shearer's corner, six miles east of the city, to Norwood, 10.9 miles.

Grading and culverts from east of Havelock to the Hastings county boundary, 5.6 miles.

The major part of the work will be under way by May, according to the Havelock Standard, of which T. P. Lancaster, M.P.P., is publisher. Its comment adds that "a fair and living wage will be paid men, teams and trucks, with the contractors being obliged to use at least 85 per cent of local labor.

Extension of the improved highway from Campbellford to Havelock has been incorporated in the Department's plans for several years. This is the Brighton to Havelock Road, and in all probability it wil be paved. Most of the road from Campbellford south is of departmental standard, although the permanent surface has not been laid.

USE MOTOR BOAT TO SAIL HIGHWAY

Eastern Ontario Postmaster Uses Motor Boat to Deliver Mail.

BRIDGES WASHED OUT.

WINCHESTER, Ont., April 5.—(CP)—A motor boat, the first to be seen sailing on a provincial highway, has been pressed into the service by the postmaster at Winchester Springs to assist in mail distribution during the spring rampage of the Nation River. R. S. Allison, postmaster at Winchester Springs, finding that flood waters across the highway at Cass Bridge was interfering with mail deliveries, announced that he would meet local couriers in a motor boat and make the necessary distribution from his office.

Highway Closed

The flood in this district is as high as ever. The Ottawa-Morrisburg highway remains closed, and guards are stationed to see that no one attempts to drive through the swift waters at Cass bridge. Last night telephone service was disrupted for a time when a large cake of ice struck and snapped off one of the poles. Local linemen succeeded in repairing the wires temporarily though seriously handicapped by the swift waters.

Further blasting will be done today in the Chesterville district in an effort to keep the water moving. Rising water at Chesterville is causing inconvenience in the line of flooded cellars.

East of South Mountain, one of the wooden bridges which spans the Nation floated off into an adjoining field. Some apprehension is felt that, with continued sunny weather, the waters may rise still higher today.

Zuni is the largest of the Pueblo villages, situated on a small stream about 40 miles southwest of Fort Wingate, New Mexico.

TWO GUNMEN GIVEN 10 YEARS

Convicted of Robbing Two London Drug Stores While Armed.

12 LASHES ADDED.

LONDON, Ont. April 5.—(CP)—Two gunmen, John Louis Jannsen, formerly of Windsor and Norman Mack Wood, of this city, were sentenced today by Magistrate Scandrett to 10 years in Portsmouth with 12 lashes each for two robberies while armed. They were convicted a week ago of robbing two London drug stores.

Jansen will likely be taken to Windsor to stand trial on two other charge of armed robbery.

The men were captured on City street, single-handed by Sergt. Wm. McCullough soon after they held up the Standard Drug Company store on Stanley Street at the point of a gun.

THEFT IN VAIN.

Prince Brings Wife For Royal Blessing

CANNES, France, April 5. (AP) Prince Sigvard, who gave up his royal rights to marry a pretty German film player, brought his bride to Cannes to-day for grandfather Gustaf's royal blessing.

A reconciliation with the Swedish King, who has often expressed displeasure at so many marriages in his family with commoners, was expected within 4 hours.

King Gustaf, however, was busy ploying tennis and did not see the young people when they arrived.

WOMAN CAPTIVE BALKS POLICE

Agents Believe Prisoner is Friend of Long Sought John Dillinger.

2 HIDE-OUTS FOUND.

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 5 (AP)—An auburn-haired woman, parrying police questions with cryptic answers, stood to-day between Federal agents and possible capture of the notorious John ("Wooden Gun") Dillinger.

The officers continued silent on the progress of their investigation; but reports were circulated that the woman is Bernice Norton, a friend of Evelyn Frechetti who, in turn, is a friend of Dillinger. Agents referred to the woman as "Bessie," and her description fits closely that of the Norton woman.

The woman occupied an apartment with Eugene Green, a Dillinger associate. Green was severely wounded and the woman was captured Tuesday night when the pair called at the home of a negress for luggage Green had left there.

The arrest of the pair led to discovery of two more hideouts of the new Dillinger gang in the Twin Cities. The resultant inquiry led, too, to the questioning of Edward G. Bremer, St. Paul banker, who paid $200 000 for freedom from kidnappers last January, after being held captain 22 days. The possible connection between Dillinger gangsters and the Brewer kidnapping was not explained.

MME. STAVISKY ATTENDS ARCH SWINDLER'S BURIAL

PARIS, April 5.—(C. P. via Havas)—Mme. Stavisky was permitted by the authorities today to be present at the final interment of the body of her husband, Serge Stavisky, in the family vault which he had purchased in the cemetery of Pere Lachaise.

The only witnesses were police inspectors who accompanied the widow of the arch-swindler and afterward carried her back to the prison of Petite Roquette.

When the body was placed in the vault where rest the mortal remains of the parents of Stavisky—his father committed suicide in 1926, eight years before the son took his own life—the beautiful Mme. Stavisky wept.

Alibi O.K.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 5 (CP)—If it is all right with the California Railroad Commission, J. P. Thomas informed that body, he would like to abandon the telephone exchange at Kenny, Humbolt County, because:

A fire in 1921 destroyed the only line leading to the exchange;

After the fire all the instruments, including the switchboard and a lot of line, were stolen;

Consequently, the exchange has not operated since that time;

Almost nobody comes to Kenny anymore, nobody lives within ten miles of the town, and there are no immediate prospects of anyone moving in.

Outside of that, said Thomas there is practically no reason why he shouldn't go right on "operating" the exchange.

GALT WORRIED LEST ICE CAKES JAM AT BRIDGES

Pile-up at Waldemar Goes Out, Taking One Bridge, Bowing Second.

OTTAWA IS BLASTED.

Colder Weather Lowers Levels at Cornwall—Citizens Return to Homes.

(By The Canadian Press)

Lower temperatures brought relief to-day to some of Ontario's flood-threatened municipalities, but residents of Galt feared ice released from a jam up the Grand River might pile up and damage bridges spanning the stream at that city. In the eastern part of the province the situation appeared improved, for the moment at least.

An ice jam piled against Highway No. 9 steel bridge at Waldemar broke up and moved downstream, but at Waldemar carried away with it a wooden bridge already weakened by battering from large floes. The steel bridge was bowed and moved six inches on its foundations.

Water receded at Elora but left river banks piled with ice and cellars of houses on low-lying ground were still flooded. The river had dropped one foot at Galt, but citizens were fearful of damage from the ice released at Waldemar.

At Cornwall, colder weather caused the level of Fly Creek to drop and occupants of 20 homes invaded by the water expected to be able soon to repair damage to their dwellings.

Stretches of open water appeared on the Ottawa River, but blasting continued on the lower reaches of the ice-bound Rideau Eight men yesterday narrowly escaped death as they blasted Rideau River ice. A large pan on which they were standing broke away and was carried over the 75-foot Rideau Falls. The men jumped and scrambled onto a small island a short distance from the falls.

EIGHT BODIES ARE RECOVERED

Nine or Ten Still Missing as Boats Ply Shores of Flooded Washita River.

COMB 10 MILE AREA.

ELK CITY, Okla., April 5 (AP).—Eight bodies had been recovered today as the receding Washita River gave up the victims of its disastrous rampage.

Nine or ten persons still were missing as boats plied the flood-washed area.

The bodies were found along a 10-mile stretch of the river.

Those found:

Mrs. A. M. Adams and her daughters, Opal, 18, Lola Fay five, and Audrey 10. Three other daughters, believed drowned, have not been found.

L. L. Fenter, a Hammon filling station operator, his wife, a small daughter and their oldest son. The body of a younger son has not been recovered. That of the daughter, Stella Mae, 10, was found yesterday.

Two rescue workers whose capsized boat was found earlier, telephoned Hammon from Butler to report they were safe. The two, Rusty Toller and Harry Kemp, said they swam ashore.

UNDER AVERAGE OF CENTURY AGO TEACHERS TOLD

Dr. Macklin Claims More Spent on Mental Deficients Than Normal Child.

BLOW AT CIVILIZATION.

Lays Mental Rating Partly to Fact More of Population Being Educated.

TORONTO, April 5.—(CP)—Average level of intelligence among school pupils was lower today than it was a century ago, Dr. Madge Thurlow Macklin of University of Western Ontario, told the public school department of the Ontario Educational Association here today.

Dr. Macklin made a cutting attack on the care of mental deficients today and interspersed her address with biting satire.

"Not only do we do all in our power to prolong the lives of mental deficients and give them every opportunity to produce their kind," Dr. Macklin said, "but we even go so far as to spend more on their so-called education and care than we spend on the normal or superior child.

"If a child is unfortunate enough to be born with an intelligence appreciably above the average, then so much the worse for him. He needs no instruction; he can get along fairly well without it. Only in a few places do we bother to place him in a class where he is forced to compete with children of his own mental level.

YOUTH DEFENDED AGAINST ATTACK

Present Generation Not Going to Seed Leaders in Toronto Declare.

PROBLEMS GREATER.

TORONTO, April 5 (CP).—Organizations actively identified with the youth of Toronto to-day came to the support of the younger generation following an indictment directed at it by J. M. Bennett, inspector of separate schools in Toronto.

"Judging by the dance halls, stronger beer and movie houses, the present generation is going to seed intellectually," declared Mr. Bennett before the Separate Schools Trustees' Section of the Ontario Educational Association.

"Possibly we have never had a generation with a finer intellect than that of the present," asserted Frank T. Sharpe, general secretary of the Big Brother Movement. "We are now having to deal with fewer boys than ever, and I can see no indication of going to seed."

"I must state I certainly don't agree with Mr. Bennett, and I even more certainly wouldn't like to," said Miss A. Louise Burton, general secretary of the Y.W.C.A. "The problems confronting youth are much greater than they were a few years ago, and guidance must be given. I regard the youth of today as a particularly fine group."

Regina Child Victim Of Deadly Malady

REGINA, April 5 (CP)—Unaware that deaths' dark shadow was near, a Regina child played unconcernedly to-day. Meanwhile eminent medical men sought frantically for a cure for the strange disease which has attacked the child—leucocythemia.

The victim's name was withheld for fear the child would learn of the almost certain death which lies ahead. The child is an eager newspaper reader and so the name was not published.

Doctors held virtually no hope for recovery. So far no effective cure has been evolved for leucocythemia—a strange malady in which white corpuscles in the blood are turned to water.

In the midst of their own grief, the parents of the Regina victim have striven to aid sorrowing parents in the United States, where three or four children are in the group of the same disease.

Less Commuting

WASHINGTON, April 5 (AP) The United States house of representatives' immigration committee to-day approved legislation to restrict temporary habitual commuting of aliens from foreign contiguous territory to engage in either skilled or unskilled labor in the United States.

The bill, by Representative Schulte (D., Ind.), would apply to citizens of Canada and Mexico.

Schulte said the bill would result in the restoration of approximately 51 000 jobs for laborers in this country.

CANADA ENTERED UPON BIG PERIOD OF MINE MAKING

Norbert Miller Returns After Several Months in Mining District.

BIG THINGS GOING ON.

Airplane Is Now Being Largely Used for Prospecting.

"Everything I have seen in the North indicates clearly to me that we are now launched on the greatest period of mine-making this country has ever witnessed," Norbert Miller, former resident of this city and experienced aviator, who for some years has been using airplanes to prospect for gold in Northern Canada, told The Examiner to-day.

Mr. Miller returned to Peterborough on Monday for a brief rest, in order to re-equip his plane with wheels instead of the pontoons it had carried throughout the winter. He kept his plane at Chemong, and this afternoon he planned to again leave this district by air.

Most Important Industry.

"I always welcome the opportunity to clear up some of the inaccurate opinions which a large percentage of people in Southern Ontario concerning the North," continuel Mr. Miller. "I would like to make our people more conscious of the enormous development which is taking place and the future possibilities of the immense northern area, particularly as regards mining. It is my opinion, based on the authority of men who have made a close study of the situation, that mining will soon be Canada's most important industry. Gold mining has aided Canada immeasurably in keeping the country through the depression, and it is going to carry us further ahead out of the slump."

He said that one of the reasons he had learned to fly was in order

DUCA'S KILLERS ARE GIVEN LIFE

Three Only of Suspects in Rumanian Premier's Murder Found Guilty.

GOV'T DISSATISFIED.

BUCHAREST, Roumania, April 5 (C.P. via Havas). — Three men charged with having assassinated Premier Ian Duca of Roumania were found guilty by a court martial to-day and condemned to hard labor in prison for life. They were Constantinesco, Caranica and Belimace.

All other who were under suspicion of complicity in the assassination were acquitted by the court after five hours of deliberation. The trial lasted 18 days.

The sensational verdict was widely interpreted as a victory for the Fascist and anti-semitic iron guard.

The actual killer, Nicholas Constantinescu, and his two confederates were alleged members of the Iron Guard.

Corneliu Codreanu, the leader of the Iron Guard and the so-called Hitlerof Rumania, was among those freed of guilt.

Constantinescu and his confederates received the verdict quietly; the others, acquitted, were jubilant.

Government circles immediately expressed dissatisfaction with the verdict, and it was even rumored that George Tatarescu and his fellow cabinet members might resign.

Tatarescu became premier shortly after Duca's assassination Dec. 29.

LIFE OF SQUALOR IN YORK HOME TOLD AT PROBE

Silverthorne Principal Claims Children Most Neglected He Had Seen.

CHILDREN'S AID INQUIRY.

Former Nurse Tells of Dope Fiend Being Boarder at Home in Question.

TORONTO, Ajril 5 (CP)—Dirty, clad in ill-fitting, torn and filthy clothes and allowed to roam the streets until midnight—this was the description of a family which the York County Children's Aid Society allegedly refused to help, according to witnesses who testified to-day before a judicial probe into administration of the institution.

The investigation, presided over by Judge James Parker, was instituted to look into charges of maladministration lodged against the society by the Toronto Child Welfare Board. It opened yesterday with two Public Health nurses describing a destitute family which the organization had failed to aid.

"The children of the family were the most neglected I have ever seen in all my years as a school master," said Ralph M. McIntosh, Principal of Silverthorne Public School, when he appeared as a witness to-day.

"Their clothing was ill-fitting, torn and dirty," he declared. "The children had an odor about them as if they badly needed washing. In fact I sent them out of class several times to wash rooms to clean themselves up."

Shocking Conditions

"The oldest child of that family collapsed in school one day, and I took him home. The conditions in that home were below that which you would expect to find in a poverty home," said the principal.

He told of registering a complaint against the condition of the children and a request that something be done for them, with the society. He received a letter in return from C. S. Mitchell, an attendance officer, stating that he would see that something would be done to improve the attendance at school of the children, he claimed.

"I replied to Mr. Mitchell's letter saying I was not complaining of the attendance at school, but that I wanted something done to assist in helping these children prepare themselves for life," he added.

"Many of these cases are the same and the answers will be the same," said Judge Parker, ...

PREPARE PLANES FOR RESCUE JOB

Nine Aircraft Assemble for Dash to Wrangel Party in Bering Straits.

MAROONED SINCE FEB. 13.

MOSCOW, April 5. (AP).—Aeroplane motors were tuned up today for a new effort to rescue 89 men marooned since February 13 on a Bering Sea ice floe.

Nine planes, including two previously feared lost in a flight there, were concentrated on Chukotsk Peninsula ready for the rescue attempts.

The third plane which was feared to have met with disaster after having been unreported since beginning a flight to Cape Wellen March 29, was expected to reach the base to-day.

The three, it was learned when the two landed to join the rescue party yesterday, halted to await clear weather in an isolated spot before crossing the wild Anadyr Mountains.

Twelve persons already have been rescued by plane from the group on the ice floe. They were members of Prof. Otto Schmidt's Wrangel Island expedition. They took refuge on the ice when their ship, the Chelluskin, sank.

FEARS LITTLE ENTENTE.

Uneasy Over French Attitude —Banks on Support From Rome.

By Ralph Heinzen

PARIS, April 5.—(UP) — The French Foreign Office's attention was riveted today on the dramatic swiftness with which history is being written at Vienna, and the possibility that it means early restoration of the Hapsburg dynasty in Austria.

The French, it was indicated, while ready to give support to any strong action by the former Allied powers to prevent the tide of Nazism from sweeping over Austria's border, are not likely to consent to a monarchial restoration at Vienna at this juncture.

Bitter opposition to the restoration has been expressed by members of the Little Entente—Roumania, Czechoslovakia and Jugoslavia — and France has been the traditional backer of this bloc in central-southern Europe.

Foreign Minister Nicholas Titulescu, of Roumania, it was recalled, firmly informed the French some months ago that placing young Archduke Otto on the throne in Austria would result in the instant mobilization of the armies of the Little Entente. He carried this ominous information to the Quai d'Orsay as official spokesman for that bloc of three nations.

Empress Busy

Meanwhile, the former Empress Zita, able diplomat and with a friend at many courts, in recent weeks has been canvassing European capitals feverishly, it was learned in diplomatic quarters. Zita apparently feels the long period of waiting has ended and that the time has come to strike, and strike fast.

She was said to fear, however, the attitude of the Little Entente and, as a consequence, of France on the rapidy congealing project to restore her 21-year-old princeling, son to his imperial birthright in Austria.

In Italy, she may find more support, although the Italians are reported likewise disinclined to be drawn into a serious conflict with the Little Entente a this time over the still somewhat academic question of benefits to be gained from a restoration of the monarchy.

Zita was believed hoping, however, for support in Rome, with the possibility of a marriage alliance between Otto and Princess Maria, youngest daughter of King Victor Emmanuel and Queen Helene of Italy.

FLOODS IN U. S. TAKE 25 LIVES MANY MISSING

Over $1,000,000 Damage, With Half of It in Elk City Section.

AIR TRAFFIC TIED UP.

Kansas Farmers Expect Crops to Benefit From Heavy Rain.

CHICAGO, April 5. (CP). — At least 25 persons are believed dead, a number are missing and the property damage is near $1,000,000 as a result of floods in the north and southwest sections of United States.

As the high water receded today the Elk City section of Oklahoma listed one known dead and 15 missing in a seven-mile stretch of lowland through which the Washita River roared, sweeping all before it. A federal emergency relief engineer estimated property damage at more than $500,000.

In Western and Northern Wisconsin the death list stood at nine. Officials mapped relief plans at Eau Claire for victims in eight counties swamped by rains and melting snow.

Storms in Ohio caused damage estimated at $100,000. A man was killed by lightning at Canton.

In Kansas the rain continued but were less serious. Farmers expect their crops to benefit.

Snow held up highway and air traffic in the Rocky Mountain region and lay as deep as 15 inches in places in the Dakota Hills.

In the east 10 families near Hartford, Conn., abandoned their homes when the Connecticut River rose more than two feet above the flood stage.

16 Victims?

ELK CITY, Okla., April 5.—(AP) —Rescue workers patrolled the receding Washita River today in search of its victims, believed to number 16.

The body of Stella Mae Fenter, 10, was recovered and hopes were abandoned for the survival of 15 others missing in the torrent, which swept down without warning before dawn yesterday.

They were Mrs. A. M. Adams and five daughters, Opal 18; Edith 13; Audrey 10; Lola Fay 5; and Velvita, one; Mrs. Lawrence Taylor and one child; Leo Bush, his wife and one child; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Fenter,

FIND MERCHANT FATALLY BURNED

Police Are Inclined to Believe Victim Died in Effort to Set Blaze.

IN STORE ATTIC.

PORT COLBORNE, Ont., April 5. (CP).—Inquest into the death of Christopher Kotskoff, 50-year-old merchant, will be held here to-day under Coroner G. N. Black. Firemen found the merchant's body last night in the attic of one of his stores here after they had extinguished flames which police claimed Kotskoff seemed to have started.

Firemen discovered two wooden pails in the attic, one containing three inches of water and gasoline and the other damaged by heat. The merchant's face and hands were burned and his hair was singed from his head. Police said they believed Kotskoff had been blinded by the flames and was unable to find his way to a trap-door leading from the attic under which a table had been placed.

Firemen were forced to break into the building to extinguish the flames as the doors had been locked for the night. In the merchant's pockets were found the day's receipts and a number of papers. An autopsy will be performed to-day by Dr. W. W. Moffatt.

The fire caused only $500 damage.

DAUGHTERS AID ELDERLY FATHER BEAT INTRUDER

ROOM WRECKED.

MARKHAM, Ont., April 4 (CP)—A man who gave his name as Patrick Brine was held by police to-day after he had allegedly attacked 65-year-old Warren Wilson as he sat alone in his home on the town line at Markham last night.

After a terrific struggle, the intruder was subdued by a shot gun in the hands of Mrs. H. Nash, a daughter of Wilson. Hearing the commotion in the house, she rushed to the scene and helped her father in fighting off the assailant. Another daughter, Vina, also came to the assistance of the middle-aged father, but their efforts at first proved unavailing.

Mrs. Nash obtained a shot gun from a neighbor and pointed it at the intruder while others pinned him to the floor. He was held by them until police arrived.

The room where Wilson had been attacked was completely wrecked. Smashed furniture was scattered about and the telephone torn bodily from the wall.

RURAL TRUSTEES FAVOR NO FEES EXAM MARKING

Suggest System of Entrance Papers Set by County Board of Examiners.

PASS ON YEAR'S WORK.

Critics Claim Plan Might Lead to Easier Exams in Some Counties.

TORONTO, April 5 (CP)—Demanding the abolition of fee payments for marking departmental examination papers, rural trustees of the Ontario Educational Association yesterday adopted a resolution advocating a system of having entrance papers set by county boards of examiners.

According to officers of the association the resolution did not condemn the policy of passing rural pupils on entrance examinations on the basis of their year's work.

Confusion arose when trustees admitted that they did not know whether rural pupils could be passed without an entrance examination, and delegates clashed when some claimed that pupils were being passed in their own school while no less an authority than Rev. M. R. D. Sinclair of Allandale, section secretary, said that right was confined to urban schools.

The resolution provided for the setting up of a non-uniform examination system, and critics emphasized that under it examinations set by one county board might be easy, while those in a neighboring county might be more difficult.

SCHOOL GRANTS TO COME BACK WITH REVENUES

Henry Also Declares in Favor of a Policy of Diversified Training.

RESEARCH REVIEWED.

Taylor Statten Raps Phrenology, Star-gazing as Worthless in Vocational Guidance.

TORONTO, April 5.—(CP)—Final session of the Ontario Educational Association was held today, closing three days of addresses on educational problems and the passing of resolutions by the numerous sections of the organization. Messages stressing the importance of the school in the nation's life were given to the delegates by Prime Minister R. B. Bennett, Premier George S. Henry of Ontario and leaders in the educational field of the province.

Before the trustees' and ratepayers' section yesterday Premier George S. Henry said he would move for restoration of school grants as soon as revenues permitted. He also declared in favor of a policy of 'diversified training' in schools so that instructions would suit the community such as agricultural training in rural areas. The premier again announced his support of intermediate schools and believed they soon would make their appearance.

Research Benefits

Dr. H. M. Tory, head of the National Research council, told the high school principals' section of the elimination of a $20,000,000 annual loss to Manitoba and Saskatchewan wheat farmers through development of rust-resistant wheat strains. This research, he said, cost only $250,000. The result justified the expenditure, Dr. Tory added.

The $500,000 annual loss in the Maritimes' fishing industry through deterioration of processed products also has been eliminated by the bureau's research work at a cost of $5,000.

Dr. Tory said in the 10 years since this had been accomplished the fishing industry had saved $2,500,000.

"Some years ago," he continued, "during a series of wet years a serious problem arose in Western Canada due to damp and tough grain being put on the market. Prices dropped due to imperfect drying. We joined the producers and dealers in an attack upon the problems, solved it and eliminated a loss which was estimated some years as high as $3,000,000."

Worth Whole Cost

Dr. Tory declared a prominent grain man informed him recently that this accomplishment alone was "worth more than the total cost of our research organization to date." He declared the waste in industry awaiting solution of technical problems was enormous. "It amounts to tens of millions annually."

For an additional expenditure of $100,000 a year in salaries and scholarships over a period of years, he believed the export and import trade of Canada could be benefitted by tens of millions of dollars.

The trustees' and ratepayers' section heard Taylor Statten, director of character education at Pickering College, Newmarket, phrenology, star-gazing, palmistry and the study of facial characteristics as worthless in vocational guidance. Ricketts, he said, were more likely to be responsible for bulges and hollows on the cranium than to indicate love, stubborness or hate. Not even a habitual criminal could be detected by his face, he maintained.

FIND FIRE DOORS SEALED AT MILL

Witnesses at London Probe Claim Opening Closed After Blaze in 1924.

CASE ADJOURNED WEEK.

LONDON, Ont., April 5 (C.P.).—Inquest into the death of two London firemen was adjourned to-day for a week after the Crown had drawn from witnesses evidence that fire escape doors of the Hunt Flour Mill had been sealed on the floor where the men met death. The fatal blaze which took the lives of District Fire Chief Stanley Scruby and Lieutenant Arthur Hartop occurred on March 3.

For two hours George Dumaresque chief miller at the plant, told the court of details of the fire which he and others discovered. In response to questions of Crown Attorney M. J. Judd, he explained that safety doors through the fire wall were bricked up after a previous fire in 1924 since that time only the north section of the building had been used.

As a result, he said men on the fifth floor during the fire were trapped behind the wall. The only opening in the wall was at the elevator shaft, and it could not be used unless the elevator was stopped at the floor. From this floor two firemen leapt into a life net, but Scruby and Hartop were overcome by the smoke before they could make their escape.

Coroner J. C. Wilson adjourned the inquest for a week without hearing 12 firemen subpoenaed to appear.

MINSTREL SHOW HIGHLY ENJOYED AT ST JOHN'S

Show is Presented by the A. Y. P. A. of Congregation.

GEORGE WESLEY DIRECTS.

Capacity Audience in Attendance on Night of Second Presentation.

Two hours of merry fun and catchy music with a noteworthy interlude of mystery was the offering of the St. John's Anglican Young Peoples' Association when the final presentation of its minstrel show was made in the St. John's Parish Hall last night. As on the opening night, a capacity audience was attracted by the performance.

Under the direction of George Wesley, a company of fifty young men and women contributed their talents to the show. Possibly the star honors were shared by Mr. Wesley as one of the black-face end men and Hugh (Dek) Lush who served as interlocutor during the strictly minstrel part of the presentation and staged a feature magic act during the second part. Miss Helen Ludbrook leading the Aloha Serenaders, an Hawaiian guitar orchestra, scored a decided hit and Reg. Dyer, directing the A.Y.P.A. orchestra, contributed in no small way to the success. The full orchestra entertained before the rise of the curtain and a special eleven-piece band assisted with the minstrel program.

A number of the city's notables and, quite as often, the black faced comedians themselves, were the victims of the end men's witty exchanges during the first part of the show. Aided by some high-grade "stooging" on the part of Dick Lush, George Wesley, Witty Thirnbeck and Bill Coleman repeatedly convulsed the hall with their naive humor. The other three darkies George Francis, George Fryde and Walter Howell, each carried their parts well.

Vocal Star.

Among a dozen vocal offerings which the end men and the members of the circle did, Bill Coleman's "Someone is Losin' Susan" proved the feature. Carryng out a comic dance along with the song, he won three encores. Miss Ena Young was recalled after she sang "The Waltz You Saved for Me", and "Pink Elephants", sung by Whitty Thirnbeck and the company, went over particularly well. Other effective numbers were "Did You Ever See a Dream Walking," by Tom Williams, "My Darling", by Edwin MacDonald, and "Call Me Back Pal o' Mine", sung by Arthur Bacon. The company sang "Happy Days" as the curtain was run down for intermission.

Presenting among others a number of the mysteries originated by the great magicians past and present of the new and old worlds, Dick Lush held the audience in fascination as he went smoothly through a half-hour repertoire. And the act was not without a few goodly helpings of humor. The humor was more often than not at the expense of unlucky individuals in the audience although the entertainer's steady line of patter won repeated laughs on its own account.

The Magic Wand

A trick of the famous oriental magician, Ching Ling Fu, drew hearty applause. The entertainer borrowed a handkerchief from a lady in the gathering and, placing it in a tin can, proceeded to destroy it by fire. In answer to the lady's dismayed plea for the return of the handkerchief, he apparently restored it to its orignial state with a pass of the magic wand. Particularly fascinating were two tricks originated by the late Harry Houdini and Herman the Great involving, the entertainer declared, the passing of substances invisibly through the air before the very eyes of the spectators. During one, a ketchup bottle and a glass of water under separate covers on different sides of the stage were apparently caused to change places by a mere wave of the wand.

Two little lads from the audience who volunteered to assist, seemed bewildered by Howard Thurston's trick of producing out of thin air a basketful of flowers. And they were no less intrigued a moment later by the mysterious appearance of an egg in an empty bag they had been guarding.

Hawaiian Music.

Three numbers by Miss Ludbrook's Hawaiian orchestra were well received. They were "My Wild Irish Rose," "On the Beach of Waikiki" and "Cut Down the Old Pine Tree." One of the younger members of the orchestra, Bob Hamilton, made a hit with a solo presentation of "Who's Afraid of the Big Bad Wolf?", the laughing of the pigs lending readily to reproduction on the guitar. Another young member of the group, Ruth Harris, sang "Spinning Wheel" and Miss Ludbrook was accorded an encore when she played a solo, "My Little Grass Shack in Kealakekua." The orchestra consisted of Ken Wyatt, Bill Sage, Bob Hamilton, Bill Bartlett, Claire McWilliams, Betty Brown and Ruth Harris.

An uproarious monologue by George Wesley, still in negro character, and an interlude of orchestra music under the direction of Reg. Dyer completed the bill. Jack Marshall on the piano was featured in the offering "Flapperette", and the trombone of Harold Hutchison was the feature of "Sliding Jim." As a grand finale, the company sang, "Down South."

Extremely attractive stage settings were the work of the stage manager, Jack Irwin, who was responsible for the mechanical side of the production. The business manager was Miss F. G. Hutchinson. Members of the circle were Eleanor Bothwell, Ena Young, Marion Ralston, Florence Hutchinson, Arthur Bacon, Walter Farr, Edwin MacDonald and Tom Williams. The chorus included Jean Bull, Kathleen Ford, May Holmes, Marion Wigg, Florence Lemmings, Margaret Simpson, Hilda Phillips, Belle Thirnbeck, Rose Puddick, Frank Pammett, Alfred Pink, Griffin Young, Roy Pitchford, Irvin Wigg, Tom Westwood and Albert Stephens.

IT'S LATEST TO HARMONIZE FROCK AND SCENT

Flowers in Print Accented by Matching Perfume

Left, floral printed dinner frock; center, daytime dress; right, pajamas with print silk jacket.

By LISBETH

Here's a new style wrinkle for spring, and it's most intriguing. Match your floral print with a perfume suggested by the design. The costumes printed point the mood and adorn the tale.

Lily of the valley odor goes with the patttern of the conventionalized lilies and leaves of the dinner frock at the left above. The model is one of those exceedingly wearable things that look delightfully fresh and springy, especially becoming to the slim young thing who gives an air to everything she wears.

The daytime model, center, is an orange blossom design, and what could be more suggesitve at this time of year, when the birds are returning and April showers bring gifts to the bride-to-be? The idea is carried out in the tiny oranges posed at the center of the crisp white bow that marks the point of the neckline, and of course there is an orange blossom perfume that suggests the odors of the flowers. Pretty frock for the prospective bride to wear at an informal shower party.

This harmony of dress and scent even is carried out in the boudoir, where the young woman, right, is wearing a delightful suit of lounging pajamas. Only the silk jacket is in print, the trousers of solid color. A special version of that old, old toilet favorite, eau de cologne, inspired this print.

By the way, did you know that eau de cologne has been used by exquisite ladies ever since 1709, when John Marina Farina left Italy and set up his own establishment in Cologne, Germany? He compounded it, then, of sage, thyme, violets, angelica root, orange, lemon, rosemary, lavender and bergamotte.

It's still made of these oils, and individual perfumers add their own particular fragrances to this base.

It's as delightful after the bath and for giving a freshening touch after the ravages of a hard day as it was way back when.

You easily can see how appealing is this idea to the well dressed woman of accenting her print frock with an illusive but bewitching fragrance. If you cannot identify the flowers printed on your gown, you at least may decide what favorite perfume would express the design. The idea has many suggestions for the wise.

INSULL BUSY UPON MEMOIRS

Turkey Prepares to Cut Away Legal Cobwebs and Show Captive's Position.

LONDON SENDS FUNDS.

ISTANBUL, April 5.— (A.P.)— Samuel Insull found a new diversion to-day—making notes for his memoirs—while Turkish authorities prepared to cut away legal cobwebs and reveal once and for all the position of the former utilities king.

Public Prosecutor Kena announced that Istanbul legal authorities were examining the new protest lodged by Insull's lawyers against Insull's arrest on the grounds of illegality, while at the same time reaffirming that the penal tribunal had definitely rejected a petition for an appeal.

During the night, the travel-weary Chicagoan received word from his London agents that an additional $10,000 had been made available for use in continuing the last-ditch struggle against extradition to the United States.

Cheered by the message from London in response to his recent request for more funds, Insull spent yesterday evening after a light dinner writing letters and making notes to be used in his memoirs.

YOUNG PEOPLE RARELY OG WRONG UNDER THE PROPER ENVIRONMENT

Judge J. A. McGiddon Addresses Members of 21st Battalion Club.

ASSIST UNFORTUNATES.

"My experience has been that young people who have had the proper environment very rarely go wrong after they reach the age of discretion. Environment is everything. If our children are raised under good supervision and have the example of decent, respectable parents before them, they will, with few exceptions, always do the right thing."

So stated Judge J. A. McGibbon, M.C., K.C., of Lindsay, formerly Crown Attorney of Oshawa, in addressing members of the Peterborough 21st Battalion last evening at a luncheon in the Armouries. In dining with the members of the 21st Battalion, Judge McGibbon was seated among old comrades, because His Honor served in France with that famous Eastern Ontario regiment and won his captaincy and Military Cross on the field with the 21st.

His Honor's interesting and most instructive address consisted mainly of his relation of many of the discoveries he had made regarding human conduct and character during his service Overseas and as a lawyer, Crown Attorney and Judge. He felt that he could never properly have attained his present position without the experience he had gained in France and those experiences had assisted him greatly not only as a citizen, but also as a lawyer and Judge.

Invaluable Experiences

"I could not estimate in gold the value to me of my experience over there," he said. "I have never forgotten the men with whom I came in close contact in France. As an officer I had to study my men, their weaknesses and strong points, likes and d'slikes. And I have continued taht study of men since."

He gave interesting details of criminal cases that had come under his notice, particularly of young who had been involved. Crimes were committed in first instances, he said, mainly because people failed to think of the consequences of a criminal act. There still remains improvements that might be made to our penal system, he said, particularly the further segregation of different classes of criminals.

"The Bowmanville Boys' School is one of the finest institutions of its kind in the British Empire," stated Judge McGibbon. "There a boy, who has shown signs of being wayward, is set straight again and given just as thorough training as boys receive in any private secondary school in the country."

Assist Unfortunates

He urged that every effort should be made to assist those who had got a poor start in life, so that they might be saved from a life of crime and become responsible citizens. "There is an opportunity in this direction for each and all of us," he said. "There is nothing the matter with the world. Then where have we weakened? Sometimes it is suggested that Christianity is failing. Christianity has stood the test of centuries and it will continue long after we are gone. Times have changed. The war had its effect. We have been living too fast. What we need is more of the good old home with all its advantages and high standards.

"Parents should take a far greater interest than they do in the type of movies their children see and hear," he continued. "Care also should be shown in the literature our children read. Both these things have a great influence."

Fine Work of 21st Club

In conclusion he referred to the splendid work ex-soldier organizations, such as the 21st Battalion Association, are accomplishing. Many men, who returned from the War, he said, have died years before their time directly as a result of war service. Close comradeship should be maintained, he stated.

The meeting was attended by members of the old 21st Battalion from Lakefield, Lindsay, Cobourg and Bailieboro. Peter G. Wallace, president of the local club, was chairman and introduced the speaker. The thanks of the club were conveyed to Judge McGibbon by Colonel W. G. Hall. Captain Fred Hart, secretary of the club, read several letters from old comrades of the 21st Battalion which he had recently received and which further proved the close bond that still exists between members of the old battalion.

LONDON (C.P.). — Lord Trenchard, Commissioner of Police, apologized to parents when it was alleged five schoolboys in custody were "terrorized" by the police.

HOBBY SHOW IS READY TO OPEN

More Than 200 Boys Are Taking Part in the Exhibition.

MAYOR TO OPEN SHOW.

Good competition in practically all departments was promised as the placing of exhibits for the annual Peterborough Boys' Hobby Show began at the Y.M.C.A. today. His Worship Mayor Roland Denne will officially open the show to the public at 7.45 o'clock tomorrow evening.

More than two hundred boys of the city, nineteen years of age and under, are taking part in the various departments of the show this year. The sport and games part of the event got under way on Monday with the commencement of the annual basketball, ping pong, chess checkers and billiard tournaments. Judging of the hobby exhibits will commence tonight and they will be on view to the public Friday and Saturday.

The art department is expected to be one of the largest in the exhibition. More than a dozen paintings by a talented local youngster Ray Dinesen, will be shown and an important exhibit by Sam McKinlay is being placed. Through the courtesy of the Board of Education, a special manual training display from the Peterborough Public School will be on view in the main lobby supplementing the exhibit of the regular manual training department of the show. A new section in manual training competition this year will be in the radio field. A fine showing of radios is assured. Particularly good competition will prevail in the soap sculpture department.

An athletic meet in the gymnasium commencing at 8 p.m. is to be an additional feature to the Friday activities. On Saturday morning a dog show will be staged in the gymnasium and in the afternoon the judging of pet stock is scheduled. The gymnasium will, on Saturday evening, be the scene of a model airplane flying exhibit and in the swimming pool, the Y.M.C.A. junior championships will be decided.

William Herd is again serving as president of the show with Gordon McIntyre, William Wheeler and Vincent Holmes acting on his executive. J. C. McClenaghan, boys' secretary, and D. A. Loomis, physical director, are assisting in the promotion.

Whereabouts Of Woman Is Sought

BELLEVILLE, April 5. — Mr. Florence A. Smithers has fallen into insurance under a policy from the Prudential Company of England, according to word which has reached the Hastings County Refuge, where she was up to twelve years ago supervisor of the laundry. But no one here knows for certain where she is now living so that she may produce the proofs in order to secure the insurance. Last year, a diligent search has shown, she was in Trenton, but she left that town. Superintendent Sandercock of the County Home has asked the press aid in the quest for her so that the information may be conveyed to her. It is thought that she may still be in this district. At first when the letter came to the "home" in regard to the insurance, no one appeared to know her as the personnel of the place had changed since she was on the staff. Inquiry by the superintendent brought out the facts so far learned.

Jones Is Arrested For Local Police

WINDSOR, April 5.—On a telegraph warrant charging him with theft, Ernest Jones, 34, of Peterborough, a former member of the fire department of that city, was taken into custody here last night by Detectives Thomas Maxwell and James Campbell. Jones declined to discuss his affairs, and police have no details of the case. An officer from Peterborough will arrive here to-day to take the prisoner back.

PUT THEM TO WORK.

It is estimated that there is enough repair work waiting to be done in Peterborough to give employment for many months to all local men engaged in the building trades.

No matter where you go, there are evidences on every hand of dwelling houses being allowed to fall into disrepair, with broken steps, shaky verandah railings, dilapidated roofs, and woodwork fairly shouting for paint, testifying to the fact that during the years of depression a policy of retrenchment has been followed.

It would seem to be time to change front, to make a real effort to remove the ravages of the depression era, and to renovate Peterborough to meet the brighter days that it is now certain are coming, and coming fast.

All our idle carpenters, bricklayers, plasterers and painters should be mobilized and set to work at this much-needed task of putting our house in order, thus solving the problem of jobs for skilled workers who have long been out of employment, and at the same time adding materially to the value of local real estate.

It is predicted confidently that substantial increases in the prices of materials can be counted on, which offers another reason why this very essential repair program should not be further delayed.

The work can be done cheaper now than will be the case later on, and the placing of scores of unemployed building trades workers back on the pay roll would have a tonic effect upon business generally.

Property-owners would be well advised to inspect their holdings, and having checked upon the repairs that are urgently needed, to issue the orders that will put somebody back to work.

The worst of the depression is over, and Peterborough should testify to that fact by unusual repair activities during the next few months.

A GLORIOUS OPPORTUNITY.

In discussing the marketing bill introduced at Ottawa by Hon. Robert Weir, the Financial Post points out that if wisely used this legislation "can gradually create in Canada new and improved marketing conditions that will enlarge the income of every Canada—be he a farmer or merely an indirect beneficiary of farm prosperity."

But to take advantage of the opportunities that may be offered through this legislation it will be necessary for Canadian agriculture and Canadian manufacturers of processed food products to improve the quality of their products."

We have been decidedly careless in this regard and have paid the penalty for our failure to realize the folly of such a course.

As the Post says, second grade merchandise has been shipped overseas, there has been a lack of uniform standards in regard to many products, and worst of all, we have never been able to give the British market in particular that assurance of uniformity in supply that is absolutely essential if permanent markets are to be built up.

If the Empire trade pacts and this new marketing plan are to mean to us anything like what they should mean, we have got to forget hit-and-miss methods.

The opportunity for establishing permanent and profitable markets is opening out for Canadians, but we will miss the boat unless, as the Post points out, we can find a formula for improving our bacon, our livestock, our dressed beef, our apples, our eggs, our honey, our tobacco, for fixing and adhering to the most rigid standards of grading, for giving the British and foreign buyers absolute assurance of a uniform and steady supply, and for advertising and merchandising on a competitive basis.

HOW IS BUSINESS?

Distinctly encouraging in its tone is the latest issue of Canadian Business, the official organ of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, which sees evidence of a major upswing in business and industry in Canada.

According to this national magazine of business, the near term prospects for business in this country are promising.

"This year," says one article, "the post-winter spirit in activity should be greater than usual."

It is pointed out that much construction work has been held back, while the amount of industrial spring cleaning and repairing is expected to reach almost record proportions. Retail trade should be better than might seasonably be anticipated, while automobile sales, currently running above 20 per cent. better than last year, should soon be receiving concentrated stimulation.

"From the longer term point of view," remarks the Chamber of Commerce magazine, "Canadian business is faced with conflicting forces, but the favorable factors more than counter-balance the unfavorable. As we see it, the trend of business in Canada may be broadly dependent on four overlapping influences: (1) The trend of prices; (2) the degree of financial confidence; (3) the wheat situation; (4) conditions elsewhere."

While the wheels of Canadian business have to some extent slowed by extreme weather conditions, there has nevertheless been an encouraging acceleration in the movement of consumer goods, and the broadening of purchasing power. A constructive sign from the viewpoint of the business observer is the uptrend in retail prices. After holding more or less steady for many months, our retail index is definitely pointing upward with substantially higher prices in prospect.

THE RELIEF SITUATION.

"The relief idea," says the Border Cities Star, "has now been carried along for such a time that a large number of persons have convinced themselves that it is permanent, that they are only getting their rights and not enough of them at that."

That is exactly the idea that The Examiner has been endeavoring to set forth in recent articles on this subject.

It has been our hope that we could arouse the whole community—and particularly those on relief—to a realization of the seriousness of the situation, and to the impossibility of relief operations on the present scale being carried on indefinitely.

Just as the Windsor paper points out, when John Jones receives five dollars worth of relief it simply means that the citizens of Canada were forced to dig down into their pockets for the five dollars, and when, as at present, there are thousands of such men as John Jones the load on those who are still working and who still have incomes is an enormous one.

As a matter of fact, this country is conducting the most widespread and extensive charity system in its history—a system from which it must retire at the earliest possible moment.

The best thought of those now in receipt of assistance should be consentrated upon the problem of how they can get off the relief lists,rather than upon ways and means of shaking down the public for more generous assistance.

The sooner they realize that Governments and municipalities cannot do everything, that the limit has been reached, and that unless the load is lightened there is danger of the whole system breaking down, the better it will be for everybody.

To again quote the Border Cities Star: "No citizen who has the right attitude toward life and the ordinary obligations begrudges the taxes he pays for the purpose of assisting fellow-Canadians who, through no fault of their own, must have help. But there is a growing feeling that the time has come for the authorities to put their feet down firmly, to make it very clear that individuals must do more to help themselves, and also that individuals receiving public aid must stand ready to provide public service when called upon to do so."

U. S. NOT SELF-SUSTAINING.

In one of his 100 per cent. outbursts, Arthur Brisbane, chief tail-twister in the United States, writes:

Britain used to buy 23 per cent. of all imported lard from American farmers. Now she buys from us 8 per cent.

All foreign countries plan to cease or diminish their buying here and make themselves independent of the United States. We could be really independent of them. Why not prove it—produce all we can, in place of cutting down, and dump cheap goods in remaning foreign markets, South America, China, etc., at such low prices as will make our dear friends in Europe sit up straight?

As an exponent of nationalism Mr. Brisbane is without a peer in his country. His creed is "United States first in everything and everybody else go hang."

It may be pleasant for Mr. Brisbane to contemplate dumping cheap goods in other countries at such prices as will make "our dear friends" in Europe sit up straight. But apart from that he has his facts and economics all twisted, as he so often does.

In the first place, foreign countries did not plan to cease buying from the United States. The United States put up such high tariffs against them that they simply had not the money to buy anything back. So they were obliged to cease buying, and because of United States policy the foreign trade of the United States fell away so much that hundreds of thousands of American citizens lost their jobs. Foreign countries were also obliged to curtail their buying because Americans demanded that they should pay in full for money which they had already spent in the United States for goods at robber prices. Had prices been controlled in the way that President Roosevelt and other statesmen are seeking to control them today, the amount of money owing the United States would be just about one-third the amount now owed. In that case the debts could have been paid in full and American trade would not have fallen as it has done.

Then this independence theory that Mr. Brisbane speaks of. If he thinks the United States can live within itself he is nursing a fallacy. The Unted States can no more do that than Great Britain can. For example, if Canada were to prohibit the export of nickel to the United States and Great Britain to prohibit the export of rubber the largest industry in the United States, the automobile industry, would flop like a punctured balloon. Ninety per cent. of the world's supply of nickel is mined in Canada, and most of the rubber plantations in the world are in British countries. And if automobile production ceases, the oil industry and a number of other industries would fall with it.—St. Thomas Times-Journal.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENT.

Eastertide may be a holiday time for a good many Canadians, but to Hon. E. N. Rhodes it just means an opportunity to get his Budget ready for presentation.

The spring floods afford a number of insignificant little Western Ontario rivers a chance to get their names before the public once a year.

Lighted highways are predicted for Ontario soon, it having been discovered that motorists are missing a great many pedestrians in the darkness.

The conviction that the present method of issuing motor vehicle licenses in Ontario is a joke seems to be growing stronger. Perhaps even the Department of Highways will eventually see the desirability of a change.

Mr. Hepburn suggests that the higher wages that are to be paid road workers will disappear after the election. Surely the Liberal leader is not intimating that the Government is going to be returned to power?

Apparently it is the intention to have beer go on sale in Ontario just about the time the first American tourists arrive—a move which certainly suggests the heighth of hospitality.

STORM DRIFT

By ETHEL M. DELL

CHAPTER 30

Why had Tiggie not attacked the fellow there in his own garden and wrung from him full information as to her whereabouts? What had he been about to be put out of action by a mere statement which might or might not be founded on fact? It was true that she had tried to resist—to evade him, but she had yielded in the end. She had even given him her promise. The conviction began to grow upon him that this fresh move had been achieved by undue pressure, nothing else. She had not meant to disappoint him, let him down a second time. She had acted under compulsion. She had had no choice. That being the case, he was behaving like a fool, almost leaving her in the lurch to depart thus. Her need of him was no less than it had been. And now she was beyond his reach. It was as though, having seen her struggling in those deep waters, he had been on the verge of rescuing her when another wave had suddenly arisen between them and washed her from his grasp. It might be that this time she was gone for ever.

He stood motionless in the darkness, looking around him with a growing sense of impotence. Of what avail to go back now? He would only be refused admittance. The enemy was safe and unassailable in his stronghold by this time. There was nothing to be gained by attacking him at that hour. The only course was to await the morrow with such chances as it might bring forth.

His own British doggedness here once more asserted itself, surmounting the futile fire of his anger. Was he beaten because his first plans had met with defeat? Was he going to sit down and seek her no mor because once again she had been swept from his hold? No—by all the powers of heaven—no!

Tiggie turned afresh and pursued his way. This thing was going to be followed now, followed to the very end. But he realized that for the actual moment there was nothing to be done. In the morning he would start again upon his quest. In the morning he would seek and find a better inspiration. So nearly to have won, so completely to have failed, was an impossible situation to accept. In the morning he would reverse it. But tonight—this night of marvelous magic, of possibilities and of failures—there was nothing more to be done.

He reached the corner round which he had left his taxi to await him in a mood of reaction which amounted almost to a sense of elation. It would take more than this to dishearten him. In the dimness he perceived the vehicle drawn up at the curb. He would drive to the nearest hotel and there spend the night. Then in the morning he would be on the spot and ready to take action.

He reached the taxi. The man, tired of waiting about, was seated at the wheel. Tiggie addressed him, and he started as if from sleep and leaped to the ground.

"Beg pardon, sir. The lady's inside, sir. Been waiting a good half hour, sir." He dragged open the door with the words.

"What?" said Tiggie.

The next moment a vague whiteness became outlined before him against the dark interior of the cab. A voice that gasped between relief and agitation accosted him. "Oh, here you are—at last! I thought you were—never—coming."

"Gracious heavens above us!" ejaculated Tiggie. "How in wonder did you——"

She interrupted breathlessly. "Oh, never mind—please never mind now! Let's get away—do let's get away!"

Tiggie dived forward. The cab rocked under his weight. The door slammed. "Where to, sir?" said the driver at the open window.

"London!" flung out Tiggie. "Over the river—anywhere! I'll tell you later."

"Right char, sir!" said the driver, and bundled back to his own seat.

The taxi groaned, clamored, shot into motion. They went rattling and racketing down the quiet road. The night seemed to open out before them and close like a dropped curtain behind.

Tiggie lay back and removed his hat to mop his brow. "Well, I'm—damned!" he said.

"Not really, I hope!" breathed an anxious voice beside him. "I didn't mean to startle you, but Philip—Philip guessed something—and he was prowling about. I couldn't meet you, so I thought—if I ran down the other way and got into the cab—you'd find me."

She poured out the explanations between little nervous gasps while they jolted and banged down the dark road. It came to Tiggie that she was in sore need of reassurance, and at once he put out a big comforting hand that groped for and finally found and held one of hers.

"That's all right," he said. "Excuse my bad language! I never use it except when I'm pleased."

She laughed faintly in the darkness. "Isn't that like you? But are you sure I hadn't better go back? I was really going to ask you that before we started."

"Don't be silly!" said Tiggie. "It's the best thing that's ever happened. It's so good I can hardly believe it's true."

Her voice came to him rather doubtfully. The hand he held was cold. "Nor can I. I'm not sure it ought to be either. Shall we turn back? I might—I might get in somehow—without Philip finding out."

Tiggie turned towards her. "My dear," he said paternally, "there's nothing on earth to frighten you, and you'll be far better off with me than you will with Philip. You're going to trust me, aren't you?"

Her hand stirred in his; he was conscious of a grateful pressure. "Oh, I do want to," she said.

"Well, you ought not to find it very difficult," said Tiggie, a faint note of astonishment in his voice. "It's what I'm here for."

They had left the byroads now and were running down the main road between the shuttered shops. A few groups of men were sauntering home from the public houses, but otherwise the street was deserted. The river bridge loomed before them. They sat in silence in the dark taxi, holding hands.

Often in after days the memory of that night came back upon Tiggie, as the memory of a scene in a play recurs to the mind, standing out vividly from both prior and after events. Perhaps it was only then that he fully realized her complete friendliness and dependence upon him, and the effort it had cost her thus to throw herself entirely upon his mercy. She had quitted her own poor refuge now, and once more she was with him, as a storm-driven bird come to rest on his raft. He had the feeling that even yet if he startled her she might spread her wings and fly from him again to be lost in the storm. But for the moment she trusted him, was ready to accept such crumbs of comfort as he had to offer, and was trying—desperately trying, he felt—to suppress all panic in his presence.

It made him all the more determined to win and hold her confidence. Now that she was so close to him, the fever of longing had died down within him. He summoned all his strength to shield her even from himself.

They reached the bridge and began to rattle across it. The river stretched away, dim and mysterious, on each side of them. There were a few taxis about besides their own, but no other traffic. Again there came upon him that old sensation of being alone with her on a dark and heaving sea—they two alone—they two alone!

He spoke almost involuntarily. "Don't you bother about anything. Leave it all to me."

She did not answer, but again her fingers pressed his hand;and then gently but quite decidedly they freed themselves. He let them go with an odd, childish sense of loss.

As they reached the further side of the bridge he stood up and pushed his head through the window to speak to the driver. "Great Western hotel, Paddington," he said.

One-Minute Pulpit

My tongue also shall talk of thy righteousness all the day long; for they are confounded, for they are brought unto shame, that seek my hurt.—Psalm 71:24.

ALL OF US

(By Marshall Maslin.)

TWO LITTLE GIRLS BEING SILLY

A little girl told me that the Most Fun of All is being silly.

You invite another little girl to dinner and eat at a little table all by yourself with no grownups at all—

And you say silly things—
And make each other laugh—
And giggle.

You giggle and she giggles and you see who can make the most terrible FACE.

You stick your fingers in the corners of your mouth. You twist your eyes most horribly. You see if you can touch your nose with the tip of your tongue....And you giggle.

You're silly as can be. You shriek with laughter if the other little girl says the tiniest thing. You act dignified, you pretend to be very haughty. You put on very la-de-dah airs. And you howl....A grown-up comes in and shushes you a little—and for two minutes you're so still you can hear the celery crunch. ....But it's no use you're sure to explode. You're just two little girls having a lovely time being silly, making each other laugh—and you Just Can't Help It.

That's true, too. The little girl is right....The most fun is being silly....There's something about being silly that lifts up the heart, releases the poisons of care and worry and dignity, washes them out of the spirit completely. The blood runs gally, the eyes dance, the laughs ripple forth, the years drop away. Suddenly, for no reason at all, you are the self you ought to be every instant of living. Brass tacks, cold facts, absolute truth, they vanish like the mist on the waters. They lose their power, lose their gloomy influence. Philosophy is a dull fellow, Solemn analysis is another bore. Suddenly a gay spirit takes bright possession of you and his rule will not be denied....You are gay. You laugh. You chuckle. The little things seem funny to you. The law of gravity has been repealed—and in your own way you are as silly as two little girls, all by themselves, daily embroidering the plain fabric of life with the bright gold threads of silliness....Effervescent, irrepressible, joyously infectious, two little girls being silly.

The little girl holds a bit of the truth in her two small hands..... She knows....Hold fast to it, child, and don't let it slip away from you.

A Thought

SLEEP

Sleep is the most mysterious and one of the most important of all the factors relating to human development. While a man may live for weeks without food, he cannot live many days without sleep. Loss of sleep results in loss of energy even though one may have plenty of food and fresh air. Why this is so is not well understood.

During the period of sleep the vital organs work more freely, more oxygen is absorbed than expended and nature makes the needed bodily repairs or recuperation from fatigue.

Sound sleep is necessary not only to the man who would enjoy full vigor but also to the child who would develop and retain health and robust physique. Lassitude and lack of energy are too frequently due to late hours and too little sleep. Excitement, even though quite pleasurable, and especially excited suspense, will often cause wakeful nights, and the remedy is to avoid excitement, particularly toward bedtime.

Since man, both child and adult, is working and playing so intensely, and is encountering, daily, such a variety of energy reducing stimuli, his need for sleep is becoming more and more essential. This which is necessary for the constant vigor and efficiency of the adult is even more urgently needed for the health and growth of the child during the years when energy must be conserved for body and mind building.

ON THIS DATE

A DAY IN CANADIAN HISTORY

By Fred Williams

THE FIRST COLONIAL CONFERENCE

On this date, in 1887 the Canadian newspapers published a brief cable despatch from London announcing the opening of the first Colonial Conference, at which Canada was represented by Sir Alexander Campbell (who was in process of being transferred from e cabinet to the lieutenant-governorship of Ontario) and Mr. Sandford Fleming. Although it was the jubilee of Queen Victoria few people seemed to have realized the significance of the gathering at the Colonial office or the wonderful constitutional developments to which it was going to lead.

It was not the first time that a colonial conference in London had been suggested. In 1870, three years after confederation, and while our experiment was then in its initial and critical stage a despatch came to Ottawa that it was intended to hold a meeting of the colonial governments in London. (I have been unable to ascertain who was the proponent of the idea; can any reader supply the information). Sir John Macdonald made it known that he was opposed to any participation by Canada. In a letter to Hon. John Rose in London, Sir John wrote: "I am strong inclined to believe thae we ought to have nothing to do with it. We had no wrongs to complain of; we are quite satisfied with our position and relations with the mother country, and we have had a special understanding since 1865 on all matters relating with these relations. Unless convinced to the contrary I am opposed to sending any delegation or having any representatives at the conference. If H.M. Goverment should ask the Colonies it would be a different matter." The "old man" evidently fell, apart from existing relations with the old land, that it would be better taste to await an invitation to the old home rather than join a self-invited party; and on January 3, 1870, he sent Mr. Rose a copy of the order-in-council in which Canada declined to send a delegate "until invited by Her Majesty's government." Was that conference held after Canada's refusal to join?

Remarkable indeed was the transformation which came over Empire relations in the decade between 1887 and 1897. The former was a mere official gathering, which evoked no public interest; the latter, coinciding with the diamond jubilee, rivetted the attention of the world by its magnificent demonstration of the loyalty of the overseas Dominions and colonies to her majesty, the beginning of new era in Empire relations.

PRESENT CANTATA STIRLING CHURCH

Artists From Peterborough Assist in St. Andrew's Choir Presentation.

(Examiner Correspondence)

STIRLING, April 5. — On Friday evening the auditorium of the church being crowded to capacity, the beautiful cantata, 'The Promise of Easter' was given by the choir assisted by Miss Dorothy Sager of Peterborough and Gerald Chile.

The choir loft was suitably decorated in Easter colors, while a drawing 'He Is Risen' (by Tom Ward) held a prominent place over the organ. The beauty of the setting was greatly enhanced by the the use of rose flood lights, which transformed the lily garden into a beautiful maze of color.

Prior to the rendering of the Cantata(a recital was given, featuring Miss Dorothy Sager, A.T.C.M., and gold medalist: soprano solo, Stanley Northrop, A.T.C.M., also gold medalist violinist; Miss Lorraine Scott at the piano and Chas. Allen, organist.

The following numbers were given: vocal solos: The Ressurrection Morn,' 'Think of Me', 'Still as the Night', 'Dawn', 'The Day is Ended', 'Morning'; violin numbers: 'Mighty Lak a Rose', 'Liehfiede', 'Old Refrain', 'Last Rose of Summer', 'Allegro Brillante' and 'Adoration', Miss Sager delighted the audience with her numbers so sweetly rendered in ringing clear soprano notes with her varied shades of expression. Mr. Northrop held his listeners spellbound with his complete mastery of the violin and the beautiful selections given.

Promise Of Easter

Cantata gave in song, the message of the crucified Christ and His glorious resurrection. The opening majestic chorus with organ, piano and violin accompaniment, 'The Gates of Praise Swing Open Wide', was taken by the full choir of 26 voices. Following this a duet, 'Would You Seek the Savious'; a solo, 'Easter Promise' was well taken by Arthur Duncan; an obligato solo 'O Word of Hope' was exceptionally well rendered by Rev. J. Koffener; The altos next followed with the sad strains of 'Could Messiah, Die'; bass and tenors next burst into the strain, 'There is a Green Hill Far Away'; a trio 'Bells of the Easter Garden' was given by Mrs. J. Koffend soprano, Mrs. R. Eggleton, alto and Mrs. M. Meiklejohn, second alto. This with the bell-like accompaniment by Mr. Allen was much appreciated.

The audience was particularly pleased with the numbers given by the Peterborough visitors, Miss Dorothy Sager and Mr. Stanley Northrop and hope for an early return of these guest artists.

MONTREAL EXCHANGE.

MONTREAL, April 5 (C.P.). — Narrow fluctuations were recorded in to-day's trading on the Montreal Stock Exchange and at the close the market had an irregular appearance, gains and losse being about evenly divided.

Alcohols, which rose yesterday in heavy demand, lost interest and slipped back once again Canadian Industrial Alcohol A and B both lost about ⅛ point. Hollinger declined $1.00 at $18.00, and International Nickel 40 cents at 27.60, while Wabasso Cotton and others also eased slightly.

WALL STREET

NEW YORK, April 5. (AP). — Stocks moved leisurely to-day. A number of slight bulges occurred in various groups but fluctuations generally were narrow. The late zone was steady with utilities and some specialties firm. Coca Colo rose 3 points. Kennecott, Consolidated Gas and Loews were higher. U.S. Steel held fairly steady but Chrysler and American Telephone dipped moderately. Transfers approximated 1,500,000 shares.

FATAL POTION.

WHEAT PARLEY OPENS SESSION IN CITY OF ROME

U. S. Leans to International Accord on Reduction of Acreage as First Move.

DISCOURAGE GOV'T AID.

Main Aim is to Set Minimum Price for Grain Export.

ROME, April 5 (CP-AP Cable).—The International Wheat Conference got under way, ready to consider a number of proposals to raise the demand and the price of wheat, after Andrew Cairns, red-headed Canadian expert, had outlined to the delegates from 15 nations the deliberations of previous meetings.

John Van. A. McMurry, Minister to Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania, presided at the opening session of the body, officially styled the World Advisory Commission. Facing the fact the World Wheat Pact, drawn up at London last August, had failed to prevent an appreciable decline in price, the conference was ready to take under consideration these proposals:

1.—Set minimum prices for wheat exports;

2.—Discourage Government financial assistance which depresses export prices:

3.—Withdraw low quantities of wheat from human consumption by denaturing them and feeding to cattle and pigs.

4.—Increase consumption of wheat by decreasing the percentage of flour extracted.

5.—Permit future exports of denatured wheat as outside export quotas.

6.—Campaign to better the quality of bread.

7.—Cut wheat for hay and green fodder.

8.—Make wheat more easily available to countries which at present use little of it.

9.—Compensation in trade for wheat importing countries agreeing to reduce wheat acreage.

Various delegates also were prepared to bring before the meeting proposals to modify the export quotas agreed on at the conference in London last year, when rigid limits for the expiring crop year were fixed, with agreement to restrict exports in the 1934-35 crop year to roughly 15 per cent below the average of the past few years.

One proposals was to change the length of the quotas agreement from a year to three months, thus permitting more frequent adjustment in conformity with changing supply and demand.

Argentina Skeptical.

Conflicting ideas were evident on the subject of minimum quotations for wheat exports, considered the most important of all the topics of discussion. An informal poll showed that England, France and Germany, among the principal importers, and Canada and Australia, of the big exporters, favored the minimum price plan, but Argentina was skeptical of its practicability.

As a preliminary to any agreement on a minimum export price the United States seemed to favor an International accord on reduction of wheat acreage, the American contention being that otherwise a minimum price plan would discourage acreage reduction.

It was said on good authority that the permanent advisory commission of countries signing the International export limitation plan favored an agreement to raise the minimum export price at least 25 per cent. Some experts said an increase of 30 to 35 per cent would be more desirable.

At present the world parity is slightly over 40 gold cents a bushel. This is based on the average price of all parcels of imported wheat of all grades sold during the week at British ports. It is recalled the world wheat pact fixed a price of about 60 gold cents as the level at which importers would be asked to cut tariffs.

Continue Next Week.

The Commission, consisting of delegates from Canada, the United States, Argentina, and Australia, the big four exporters; England, France and Germany, the big importers; Russia and seven other smaller nations, is expected to continue its deliberations through next week.

The Commission met in the Economic Room of the International Institute of Agriculture with 35 delegates present. During the opening session Mr. Cianrs, who is secretary of the Commission, went over the results of previous meetings since the last World Wheat Conference.

Afterwards, the question of reduction of acreage occupied the delegates for some time. Views were exchanged on what had been done in this direction in the different countries represented. During the afternoon the conference recessed, planning another session to-night.

Italy Ready to Aid.

Arturo Marescalchi, Italian Under-Secretary of Agriculture, welcomed the delegates and said the Italian Government was keenly interested in the work of the Commission. He promised every co-operation.

Figures on the present situation were submitted to close scrutiny following Mr. Cairns' address. After the representatives of the various nations have concluded statements on the operation of the London pacts, and the measures they have taken or contemplate, so give the treaty full effect, the conference will get down to study of specific recommendations.

A number of the delegates were pressing for a speedy close to the conference, it was understood. Dr. Lauer, delegate from Switzerland, planned to return home at the week-end.

Blow at Progress

Unless people spent more time and thought and more money proportionately upon the intelligent and the socially adequate, we cannot expect our civilization to progress, she claimed.

Dr. Maklin ascribed the lower level of intelligence to four factors: A much higher percentage of the population was being educated to-day than formerly; preventive medicine saving a large number of lower mental grades; the dippprential birth-rate, where the feeble-minded reproduced in greater numbers than those of normal or higher intelligence, and the policy of modern civilization which encouraged the unfit rather than the fit.

"Why pay more for our liabilities than our assets?" she asked in concluding. "Is it common sense?"

Both the accused and plaintiff were paraded before his worship at the conclusion of the trial and a promise was exacted that future sessions will be conducted in a lawful peaceful manner.

The aged defendant, 54 years a resident and many years in political life, was told that he would have to come to a realization that Mrs. Bailey was a duly elected member of the trustee board and had equal right with him and with the third member Sam Hueston, brother-in-

CATTLE HERD BRINGS $11 NEW LOW AT TAX SALE

KINGSTON, Ont., April 5 (CP).—EEvery farmer knows that the best prices of livestock have dropped a great deal in the past few years, but it remained for the village of Switzerville, about 20 miles west of here, to furnish what are believed to be new low prices for cattle, at least in this district, if not in all Ontario.

At a tax sale held there, a herd of cattle brought only a grand sum of $11. The best cows in the herd were sold at $1.25 each, while four two-year-old heifers were knocked down at 75 cents each.

Stories of the Klondike and the Yukon in the days of '98 and in contrast modern prospecting methods were heard at yesterday's meeting of the Institute.

Michael (Mike) Mahoney, of Ottawa, told vivid and mirthful tales of the days when he was a Klondike sourdough and when he struck it rich in the Yukon, unknown 40 years ago, had given Canada more than $400,000,000 in gold as a result of the work of prospectors and mining engineers, he declared.

that he would be fitted to take part in the developments even then underway in the North. "To-day possibly 90 per cent. of all flying being done in Canada is in connection with mining and prospecting. If it had not been that our mining men adopted the airplane as a means of transportation, our progress in this field would have been greatly curtailed."

"It is now possible by the use of the airplane to accomplish things in the North which a few years ago were considered impossible. In some instances as much has been accomplished in one as would formerly have been possible in three or four and at less cost.

"Our last trip is an instance of this. My brother and I left Peterborough late in February, flying directly to Haileybury and then about 60 miles west to what is known as the Gowganda silver area where we staked some claims. We then visited Sudbury, Chapleau, and the Swayze areas, where there appears to be three or four new mines in the making. As is doubtless known, it was due to the activities of the Montgomery Syndicate in 1931 with which concern I was then connected, that the rush started into that area.

"We then flew over into Ventures, Quebec, about 100 miles east of Rouyn, on the Winnipeg-Quebec City line of the C.N.R. Ventures with their associates and some Government assistance are building a railroad this summer, principally to develop a large copper gold deposit they have at Opemiska Lake.

"Noranda mines are diamond drilling a gold discovery they outlined last fall at Bourbeau Lake, and it was looking exceptionally promising, when I was there last week.

"Prospector's Airways are drilling another discovery, and two large American companies are preparing for a large development program this summer, besides numerous small syndicates and companies.

"It is an area about 200 miles square about which very little is known. Many people consider it rather far north but it is on the same latitude as Winnipeg, and when one considers that the Province of Quebec extends almost another 1,000 miles north to Ungava, and that at Great Bear Lake in the North-West Territories they are working even further north than that, and that one can fly even in a small plane from Peterborough to Chibougamau in about seven hours, it is really comparatively close."

Return to North.

At Amos, Mr. Miller said, he met Paul Gliddon, former Peterborough boy, who is publishing a new mining paper, The Quebec Mining News, and also some of the men who learned flying here with him under Captain Ayres. He stressed the manner in which aviation is opening up the North.

"I expect to return to the North as soon as the ice is completely melted, probably early in May, to start work on some claims we staked on our last trip, and on which we have some interesting discoveries, and also to prospect in one or two particularly favorable areas about which little as yet is known."

Girl Pilots Glider Belgium To England Record Tow Between Countries By Plane

LONDON, April 5 (CP via Havas) —The first glider flight from Belgium to England was accomplished to-day by an English girl.

Joan Meakin purchased a glider in Germany and decided against shipping it home. Not even a hawk or a gull could soar on the most favorable wind that far without a little "engine" power now and then, so Miss Meakin hired an airplane to give her a tow.

Piloting the glider herself, she took off from the aerodrome at Ostend, Belgium, at the end of a rope that soon carried her aloft to an altitude of 2,000 feet, and 1 hour and 29 minutes later she made a perfect three-point landing at Lympne aerodrome.

As she approached Lympne, the pilot cut her adrift, and she took in the tow-line, then she circled down gracefull to the surface of the field.

"It was a little bumpy over the English Channel, but the trip was lovely," she told friends who were waiting for her.

Missing Co-Ed

Eunice J. Pollock, 20, University of Wisconsin senior, whose family is socially prominent in Manitowoc, Wis., disappeared from her room at Madison, Wis., on March 17th, following a disagreement with sorority sisters. A search for the girl is being conducted all over the United States.

Department To Issue New 3-Cent Stamp

A double-size pictorial postage stamp commemorating the Four Hundredth anniversary of the landing of Jacques Cartier on Canadian soil will be issued by the Post Office Department, according to information from Ottawa.

The new stamp which will be of special interest to philatelists will be blue in color with the inscription "1534—Jacques Cartier—1934". The vignette will depict the scene on board Cartier's ship when it neared land. The date of issuance of this new three cent stamp is not yet definitely known.

ADVANCES LOST IN MINE GROUPS

Teck Hughes, Lake Shore, Wright Hargreaves, Dome and McIntyre Record Losses.

TORONTO, April 5.—(C.P.)—The gold shares appeared a bit weary in the afternoon trading to-day on the Toronto stock exchange and some of the ground won in in active sessions of the last two weeks, was lost. Teck Hughes, Lake Shore, Wright Hargreaves, Dome and McIntyre recorded losses of 25 to 75 cents and in the cheaper issues, Sylvanite, Siscoe and God's Lake were off 7 to 20 cents each. Outside of Noranda the base metals were firm.

Dome dropped 65 cents in slow trading, Hollinger weakened 30, Lake Shore $1, McIntyre 75, Pioneer 15, Teck Hughes 35 and Wright Hargreaves 30 cents. Profit-taking on the recent rise developed propotions in the afternoon with Teck Hughes the main target. San Antonio held strong all day and closed about 25 cents higher at 3.80.

Noranda took a loss of about half a dollar.

LIFE OF SQUALOR

ing the hearing to-day. "It might be that the evidence will show that the Children's Aid Society had not sufficient funds with which to carry on. The whole of the conduct of the society must be investigated."

Dope Fiend Boarder

A dope fiend had been a boarder in the home in question, Mrs. Daisy Cooke, former nurse at the Silverthorne School said in her testimony.

"On one occasion when I visited the home I found a man in bed with his shoes and most of his clothing on" she explained.

"Did you know from the records of the Health Department of York township and do you know now that this man takes drugs?" she was asked.

"Yes, I know that he was a dope fiend. "I know now also."

"He jumped up and yelled it was a shame for the children to be starving and that he was sick of begging food for them." Nurse Cock said in describing the actions of the dope addict. "I then notified Christie Street Hospital authorities the father of the family was a returned man and had a gunshot wound in his head. I asked that the hospital authorities take action to see that the children got a chance, but they couldn't do anything."

Inspected Home.

Health Inspector Gray stated he had gone to the home to inspect it. He had seen homes in better condition and admitted he had seen some in worse condition.

"Garbage was lying about the floor, the house was generally untidy, and I told the father he would have to clean up the place." The sanitary facilities were very poor, he testified.

Dr. William A. Hawk of the staff of the Hospital for Sick Children said a boy of the family had been admitted to the hospital in 1929 with suspected infantile paralysis, but it was found he was suffering from heart trouble at a later date, and also that he had rheumatic fever which had injured the heart. The heart condition was worse when the boy was examined again in 1931, he said.

Had the boy not been given special medical attention, life would have been shortened considerably, but there was little chance of sudden death, he asserted.

Too Filty To Enter.

"The home," said Nurse Cooke, "was so filthy that you could not ask anyone to go into it, and as the mother was in hospital, I got a woman to take the children to her home and wash them up. On many occasions I washed the children, but found it impossible to talk to the father. After the mother died I reported the case to the York County Children's Aid Society, and after a time, as nothing seemed to be done about it, I notified the Soldiers' Aid Commission, but was told that it could not do anything about the case."

HELD AS LOTTERY AGENT

WINDSOR, April 5 (CP)—Held on a charge of "keeping a gaming house," Sidney Bull, 29, was remanded for one week in police court to-day on $250 bail. Police report that they found a large quantity of lattery tickets in his possession at the time of his arrest and are working on the theory that he was a wholesaler of lottery and sweepstake tickets over Western Ontario. Distributing and selling such tickets is an indictable offence, but it is alleged that a mere possession does not come under this head nor is it prima facie evidence of sale or distribution. Proof of distribution or sale is now being sought against Bull.

CLAIM PART OF ESTATE.

RENFREW, Ont., April 5.— (C.P.)—Claiming to be great grandsons of James Hudson, noted fur trader, and grandsons of Betsy Hudson, his eldest daughter, Alex Villemaire 70 and Arthur Villemaire 49, of Renfrew, assert that they are heirs to a part of the Hudson fortune. The estate of James Hudson, said to be worth millions, will be administered in the English courts. Alex and Arthur Villemaire state that a sister, Mrs. Fred Ricico, of Fort Coulonge, Que., has in her possession early photographs and birth and marriage certificates of the James Hudson family.

WAITED FOR DEATH.

MONTREAL, April 4 (C.P.). — Andre Lajeunesse, 30, calmly sat on a railroad track and waited for the train that killed him. Testifying at the inquest to-day into the man's death, R. Debenshire, Canadian Pacific engineer, said he saw Lejeunesse on the rails a quarter of a mile away. Despite warning bells and whistles, the man refused to move, and when the brakes were applied it was too late.

Lejeunesse's last gesture, Debenshire said, was to turn up his coat collar just before the locomotive struck him.

GERMANY'S PROTECTION

VATICAN CITY, April 5 (AP) — False Christianity and real paganism now are all that exist in Germany outside the Catholic churches, Pope Pius told 360 young German pilgrims to-day.

Speaking on the Christian life, the Pontiff said, "The time has come when, particularly in Germany, it is no longer sufficient to speak of the Christian life or the Christian doctrine; it is necessary to say the Catholic Christian life, the Catholic Christian doctrine.

RE-ELECTION AT QUEENS

KINGSTON, Ont., April 5.—(CP) —In the graduates election of representatives on the board of trustees of Queens University, Miss Charlotte Whitton, M.A., C.B.E., of Ottawa, has been re-elected for a further term of three years, and W. C. Clark, M.S., Ph. D., Deputy Ministerof Finance has also been elected.

The university council has re-elected J. C. MacFarlane and Alexander Longwell, B.A., B. Sc., both of Toronto, as their representatives on the board of trustees for a further term of three years.

STUDY U. S. ATTITUDE.

LONDON, April 7.—(A.P.)—The United States' attitude in the event European nations agree on military and economic action against any European violator of a disarmament treaty was the chief question in the minds of British and disarmament bureau officials as they began a series of conversations with Norman Davis, American Ambassador at Large.

MORE
SQUARE YARDS OF CLEANING

... in a package of Old Dutch than in anything else you can buy, because Old Dutch is the only cleanser made of pure "seismotite," scientifically recognized as the safest, most efficient and most economical cleaning material. Safest because it doesn't scratch; it is free from harsh, sandy grit found in ordinary cleansers. Most efficient and economical because its flaky, flat-shaped particles cover more surface, go further and do more actual cleaning per penny of cost.

Old Dutch costs less to use because it cleans more square yards of surface, cleans quicker, doesn't clog drains, is odorless and removes odors. And it does so many more cleaning tasks perfectly that it is the only cleanser you need in your home.

Made in Canada

Doesn't Scratch

This is the Old Dutch Rubber Cleaning Sponge
An attractive bathroom accessory. Mail 10c and the windmill panel from an Old Dutch Cleanser label for each sponge.

TAX ROLL RETURNED.

CAMPBELLFORD, April 5. (By Examiner Staff Correspondent).—Because the Seymour Township Council are anxious to see work start in the district for the main purpose of relieving the unemployment situation of both Seymour and Campbellford, a resolution was passed by that body at their regular session yesterday appointing Reeve Wm. J. Duncan and Deputy Reeve W. S. Milne a committee to look into the arrangements regarding the building of the Provincial highway from Campbellford to Havelock. The resolution making this appointment was sponsored by Councillors William Rowe and Frank Lee.

It was also stressed by the council on a motion sponsored by Councillors Rowe and Lee, that all owners of vehicles be requested to observe the half load regulations on the township roads during the current month.

And the tax position in the township was shown to be in a very sound condition when William Fisher, tax collector returned the rolls for the year, which were received. In all a total of $1,872 taxes were outstanding out of a total tax roll of $35,064.

The annual grant of $300 was given the Seymour Agricultural Society, when a delegation from that body approached the council. The delegation consisted of Alex Hume, G. A. Kingston, Fred Peake and Garnet Curle.

On application of J. P. Archer, local agent, and A. A. Bain, district representative, public liability insurance was renewed with the Globe Indemnity Company of Canada on the same basis as last year.

The school attendance report was presented by the attendance officer, George Anderson, and received. Accounts to the amount of $196.96 were ordered paid. Reeve Wm. J. Duncan presided over the deliberations of the council, which was fully attended.

He died in 1836 and the sabre passed on to Tremaundan.

Cut Your Work in Half!

It can be done—and your Floors won't suffer either!

Gone—yes, gone are a full half of the weary back-breaking hours you formerly spent waxing and polishing floors, once Poliflor gets to work on the floors of YOUR home. And—best of all—your floors will look better than they ever did before and will stay that way far longer.

To prove that you can save work, time and money in floor care, try Poliflor in your own home—make the test that thousands of women who now use Poliflor regularly have made—The Shine and Shuffle Test . . . it proves that all floor waxes are not the same—that Poliflor out-wears, out-shines, out-saves any other floor wax that any woman may now be using.

The SHINE and SHUFFLE TEST

While you still have some of your present polish left, get from your dealer a tin of Poliflor and test them both. Use Poliflor on one floor in your home where the finish must be right. Then take a floor where wear is extra hard and do this floor also with Poliflor Wax.

On your other floors use the polish you have been using. Test the results over a period of time—we leave the decision to you.

POLIFLOR IS A DIFFERENT POLISH—a genuine British Wax made from a scientific formula. It combines 10 different waxes in one, each playing its part in producing the finish—the lustre, the wearing quality, the ease of application and polishing.

GREAT BRITAIN PLANS AIR FLEET TO MATCH LARGEST IN THE WORLD

Consolidation of Civil and Military Fleets Upheld.

RANKED WITH NAVY.

Unless the great Powers can agree upon the limitation of their air forces—of which there is no assurance at the present time—Great Britain is out to have aerial defences as big as any other nation in the world; air parity as well as naval parity.

This article explains the policies underlying the development of British air power.

By PIERRE J. HUSS
Central Press Canadian Writer

LONDON, April 5.—Great Britain with loud reluctance, from now on will let the wings and talons of its air force grow inch by inch and year by year until they match the existing air strength of any power.

But this change-over from a policy of moderation in air, land and naval power to one of parity if not superiority is being revealed to the world as painlessly as possible. At the same time, British statesmen are equally determined not to let any responsibility for such a change-over rest on the empire's shoulders.

Undersecretary for Air Sir Philip Sassoon, in confirming in the House of Commons his superior's announcement that Britain must have parity in air strength, washed his hands of such responsibility by lamenting that other nations, particularly the United States, had refused to heed British pleas for moderation in the air.

"We do not want at this stage to put forward a program of construction which might prove to be the starting gun for a race in air armaments," he explained significantly. "In the interests of world peace, the initial measure of advance for which these estimates make provision is being designedly kept within the most modest bounds."

Equally certain is the fact that if efforts for a general disarmament convention fail completely and are followed by some sort of discussion among the powers for a limitation agreement on land, sea or air, the British government under no circumstances can be induced to sacrifice the use of heavy bombers for operations in distant regional possessions.

To Be Ranked With Navy

Thirdly, the British air force henceforth will be ranked jointly with the navy as the common defender and "spear-head of resistance" in any case of emergency, instead of being viewed as a mere adjunct of the fighting services useful here and there in making and repelling air raids and acting as an "eye" for the army and navy.

This gradual but nevertheless predeterminate strengthening of Britain's air power is particularly perceptible in the appropriations to various branches connected with both military and civil aviation, all of which received amounts exceeding those of previous years.

A significant indication is that 40 per cent of the total 1934 air expenditure has been earmarked for gross $1,500,000 more than last year technical equipment, on which it will be spent. A total of $1,250,000 will be lavished on new machines and engines.

The pay-roll of the Royal Air Force has increased by $500,000. The administration work is included under this increase. In previous years, due to low prices and low transportation fares, this miscellaneous branch of the air service repeatedly sustained reductions in appropriations but this year the amount remains stable. An additional $325,000 is appropriated for the erection of airports and similar developments. Civil aviation got approximately $2,565,000, representing the highest level for the past ten years.

Charge Civil Aviation Hindered

The attack on the separate air ministry in Britain has taken the line chiefly that under the administrative body, civil aviation becomes the tool of fighting air services, and therefore is open to charges by the powers that civil aviation is nursed by the government primarily to render it convertible to fighting purposes in war time.

To this charge Under-Secretary for Air Sir Philip Sassoon replies:

"I agree that world civil aviation has labored under a handicap by reason of its associations with military aviation; but I do not agree that it would improve matters one whit if the control of civil aviation were taken from the air ministry. It is abroad, and not in this country, that civil aviation has been made an adjunct of military power.

"If some foreign countries the development of commercial aviation has been colored by the desire to create a reserve of aircraft and personnel suitable for military use. But the striking fact is that this policy was adopted at a time when civil aviation in the countries concerned was not under military department at all, but still under civil department. This policy has played havoc with economic development abroad and is one not followed by this country."

Must Be Linked

Vigorously defending the retention of civil aviation in the air ministry from the standpoint of economy itself Sr Philip adds:

"It is clear that British air transport has not been deflected from a genuine commercial basis of operation by the fact that the air ministry is charged with responsibility for it. On the other hand, there are overwhelming practical reasons for continuing that responsibility.

"Futher, any transfer would necessitate an extensive duplication of staff, a pollutation of technical bureaucrats which I hardly think would commend itself to parliament. Such questions as angles of incidence, stagger, streamlining, spinning, buffeting, and a host of other aerodynamical problems affect equally aircraft for commercial and military uses.

"The same applies to the study of metal fatigue, alloys, corrosion, propeller design, wireless telegraphy and telephony and meteorology. You simply cannot from these angles divorce commercial from military development, at a time when the whole technique is so fluid.

"To sum up, I do not believe that there is any theoretical case for the divorce of civil aviation from the air ministry. I am quite certain that such divorce is a practical impossibility and is likely to remain so for a long time to come."

Britain Forced To Build Up Air Fleet

Blaming, among other nations, the United States, Great Britain has declared that since these nations insist on building up their air fleets rather than disarm, she must do the same. As a result Sir Philip Sassoon (INSET), under-secretary of state for air, announces that Britain will match the largest air fleet in the world. In England it has been protested that commercial aviation should be divorced from army and navy operations. This combination of the two stoutly defended by Sir Philip. In the layout is shown, UPPER LEFT, Britain's fastest fighting craft, the Hawker Fury; RIGHT, fighting machines flying in formation; CENTRE, the Atlanta, one of a fleet of England's largest passenger aeroplanes for use over the 5,550-mile trans-African route. LOWER RIGHT, the largest flying boat in England, weighing 33 tons, and capable, with slight transformation of carrying 100 passengers. Such machines could readily be used as bombers and transport aeroplanes in event of war.

'SEEING' WALLS TO GUARD JAIL

Scientific Equipment Being Tested to Make Alcatraz Prison Escape Proof.

GATES TO "SPEAK."

LOS ANGELES, April 5. (AP)—Walls that "see" and gates that "speak" may soon guard Alcatraz prison, island penitentiary in San Francisco Bay which will house the 200 most dangerous criminals in United States.

Sanford Bates, director of federal prisons at Washington, disclosed here to-day that modern scientific equipment is being tested and will be installed as soon as perfected to make the island impregnable against escape.

"We are at present experimenting with wooden gateways equipped with ray machines sensitive to the presence of metal" he said. "When a prisoner with a knife, gun or other weapon passes through, a loudspeaker in another portion of the prison will notify the warden.

"Other possibilities, as soon as they are brought to perfection, are invisible rays that will give an alarm every time a person passes through them. Installed at the water's edge they would make escape doubly difficult."

Specially trained guards, schools in criminology, psychology, wrestling, boxing and ju-jutsu will be in charge at the prison.

DECISION OF COURT OF APPEAL RESERVED IN ASSESSMENT CASE

Business Tax Simply Minimum Income Tax at Present.

WANT ACT INTERPRETED.

TORONTO, April 5 (C.P.).—Upon appeals of R. R. Hall, K.C., and William H. Bradburn, both of Peterborough, against a decision of Judge McGibbon that dividends received by them from The Peterborough Examiner, Ltd., and Bradburn's, Ltd., respectively, are liable to taxation by the City of Peterborough, the Ontario Court of Appeal at Osgoode Hall reserved its decision.

The appeal came to the tribunal at Osgoode Hall by way of a case stated by Judge McGibbon and involved interpretation of sections of the Assessment Act and of the Corporations' Tax Act. Both The Peterborough Examiner, Ltd., and Bradburn's, Ltd., have been assessed for business taxation in Peterborough in 1933 and in preceding years, but neither company has been assessed in respect of income.

The City of Peterborough assessed Messrs. Hall and Bradburn in 1933 for taxation in 1934 upon dividends that they received from the companies. They appealed to the Court of Revision which declared the dividends exempt from taxation and non-assessable under the Assessment Act. The city then appealed to Judge McGibbon, who found that the Assessment Act when read with the Corporations' Tax Act, gave the municipality a right to impose taxes upon Messrs. Hall and Bradburn in respect of the dividends.

T. J. Carley, who argued the appeal for Messrs. Hall and Bradburn, contended that the proposal of the City of Peterborough to tax the dividends in question amounted to double taxation.

For the City of Peterborough, J. R. Corkery maintained that the municipality was entitled to tax the dividends paid to shareholders of the companies. To Mr. Justice Middleton's enquiry why the two companies were not assessed for income taxation, Mr. Corkery replied that companies occupying or using land were assessed for business taxation and companies not occupying or using land were assessed on income.

"The business tax is simply a minimum income tax at present," commented Mr. Justice Middleton.

Germans Deny Ship Used As Arms Runner

BERLIN, April 5 (AP). — The Hamburger Fremdenblat announced to-day that the owner and captain of the German ship Optimist had been located in a Berlin hotel, where they vigorously denied reports that the vessel was Morocco-bound laden with arms to aid rebellious anti-French tribes.

The Rotterdam Shipping Company confirmed the owner's statement.

Canada Increases Free State Trade

OTTAWA, April 5 (CP)—Canada is one of the few countries that increased their share of the Irish Free State import trade in 1933. Imports from Canada rose from Canada rose from $4,000,000 in 1932 to $5,350,000 in 1933. These figures represent the direct trade only.

Irish Free State imports in 1933 declined in value by nearly $35,000,000. Practically all of this decline is represented by the decrease in imports from Great Britain, but declines are also shown in the case of the United States, Argentina, Germany and India.

Two Runaway London Boys Live Royally In Detroit Till $60 Clothes Money Goes

LONDON, Ont., April 5—(CP)—Two runaway London boys lived royally in a Detroit hotel while local authorities searched in vain for them. The older of the two, 15, 'paid the shot' out of $60 his Detroit stepfather sent him for clothes.

The story came out in juvenile court, when the two, brought back here, appeared on nominal truancy charges.

"He told me he had $60 and was going to runaway," the younger of the pair told Judge Warner today.

"I said I was going to run away too and he said I could come with him."

He had run away, he said, because he had been put back a class in school.

The boys said they had not been questioned upon arriving at Windsor. Neither were they questioned when they crossed to Detroit on the ferry.

Freight Tonnage To Be High On Lakes

CLEVELAND, O., April 5.—(AP)—More freight tonnage will be carried this summer on the great lakes than in any years since the depression began, a survey indicated today.

Estimates on the amount of iron ore to be shipped from the Lake Superior region ranged from 30,000,000 to 50,000,000 tons, as compared with 21,000,000 last year and 3,500,000 in 1932.

H. M. Griggs of the Ore and Coal Exchange said that coal tonnage will reach 40,000,000 this year against 31,000,000 for last season, while an official of a steamship line specializing in automobile hauling revealed that he is 'looking for the biggest year we have had in a long time."

Only 40 blast furnaces using Lake Superior ore were operating last years; 76 are blazing this spring. These furnaces used 1,727,000 tons in February against 634,000 in February 1933.

Officials of passenger and package freight lines here are unanimous in their expectation of a great improvement in their business.

GERMANY ASKS DEBT REDUCTION

Cancellation of Considerable Part Would Solve Foreign Exchange Reserve Problem.

TOTALS $5,120,000,000.

BERLIN, April 5 C.P.). — Vice-Chancellor Franz von Papen's newspaper Germana joined to-day the chorus crying for further German debt cancellations at the forthcoming transfer conference of the Reichsbank and foreign creditor agents.

Cancellation of a "considerable' part of Germany's debt—estimated at 12,800,000,000 marks (about $5,120,000,000) is suggested by the newspaper as a solution to the Reichsbank foreign exchange reserve problem.

"It should be possible to arrive at such an agreement wth the creditors," Germany contends, "because not the governments, but banks and private lenders, extended the money."

Putt'ng it up to Germany's creditors to assist the Reichsbank and the Reich in financial problems, "out of their own interests" the newspaper urged creditors to consider placing at Germany's disposal large credits to finance Germany's imports.

The Von Papen organ's proposal came on the heels of intimations by Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, president of the Reichsbank, that he will demand concessions at the forthcoming meeting.

He is expected to call attention to Germany's losses of gold and foreign exchange reserves—including a decline of more than 10 000000 marks about $4,000,000) the last week in March.

TRANSPORT SKIDS ON TURN UPSETS AT CHURCH DOOR

ANCASTER, April 5, (CP). Failing to make the turn in front of St. John's Church here early today, a big transport tractor and trailer, loaded with heavy oil drums crashed through a series of obstacles and landed on its side at the door of the venerable church building. The driver, Leslie Mise, 34, Brantford, is in the Brantford General Hospital suffering from scalp wounds and shock.

The truck was proceeding towards Hamilton and instead of turning to the left toward Hamilton went straight ahead. It sheared off a danger sign, then cut a telegraph pole through like a match, broke a fire hydrant, carried away the iron fence, and finished up against a huge fir tree by the church door.

BONARLAW, April 6 (Examiner Correspondence).—Tuesday of last week was another big night in the history of Springbrook Lodge I.O.O.F. No. 429, when the degree team of Thomasburg Lodge I.O.O.F. No. 293 came to Springbrook and conferred the first degree of Odd Fellowship on ten candidates, as follows: Dr. M. Wellman, Bruce Cassidy, Charles Burkitt, Clayton Burkitt,, M. Blakely, L.S.N.G.; Fred Coulter, R.S.V.G; Fred Blakely, Chaplain; Ed. Coulter, P.G.; John Dudgeon, I.G.; M. English, Herald; H. Coulter, Jon.; A. Martin, David; P. Blakely, Lad; W. Music was furnished by Bros. Lorne Carleton and W. Naylor.

This was also the occasion of the official visit of the District Deputy Grand Master, Bro. W. H. Heath.

After the work of the lodge was completed a tasty lunch was served in the lower hall followed by after dinner speeches and musical numbers, Noble Grand W. J. Barlow acting as toastmaster. BOVRIL SALES SEE INCREASE IN 1933

Advertising Has Proved to be Consistent and Effective.

At the thirty-seventh annual general meeting of Bovril, Limited, held recently at River Platae House, Finsbury Circus, London, E.C., Lord Luke, K.B.E. (Chairman and Managing director), said:

"We were pleased to be able to advise you that Bovril sales for 1933 exceeded those for 1932, and we still unhesitatingly believe in large-scale advertising, and I think you will agree with us that Bovril advertising is both persistent and effective.

"At the same time, you will realize how important it is to increase the sale, as we have in fact done, since a larger turnover makes all the difference to the carrying of overhead charges, as well as extending the use and benefits of Bovril.

"The question of being crowded round by other advertisements is the greatest problem of advertising to-day. You must have something striking, or the mere purchase of space will not lead you to a business victory. You must not only have agents of originality and efficiency, but skill and imagination in the reception of new ideas from them or from ingenious members of the public is also indispensable.

"Our advertising is spread over a very large number of different media, such as newspapers, magazines, outdoor advertising and dealer displays for the stores; and naturally these various items have to be considered carefully from time to time with a view of getting the utmost value out of each form of advertising.

"Wherever one goes one hears Bovril slogans quoted—in fact one may safely say that with the general public Bovril advertising is the best known of all."

Sues For Divorce

Lady Hodge, formerly Vera, Countess of Cathcart, has instituted divorce proceedings against her millionaire husband, 74-year-old Sir Rowland Hodge, inset, in London. In 1926, as Countess Cathcart, she was denied entry to the United States because she admitted "moral turpitude" in connection with her friendship for the Earl of Craven. She married Sir Rowland in 1930, her third husband.

MARMORA, April 5. — The regular monthly meeting of the Deloro Safety Committee was held in the Deloro Hall on Monday evening, with R. A. Elliott in the chair. SMELT INVADE RIVER

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont., April 5. (CP)—Smelt, in their gradual movement up the lakes, last year reached a point between the Sault and Garden River, and this year they have been reported in considerable numbers below the Sault rapids by American fishermen. There is every reason to suppose the fish, planted by the StSate of Michigan in Lake Michigan prior to 1922, to provide food for commercial fish, will this year reach Lake Superior and be found in considerable quantities in those waters.

The Spring Time Constellation—Ursa Major

BY W. H. L. MAHOOD

At 9 p.m. on the first of April, at 8 on the 15th of April, and on about the 1st of May at 7 a very good view of Ursa Major can be obtained with the naked eye. In the spring months it is almost directly overhead. The tail of the Bear, or if you wish to grasp the handle of the dipper, the end star Alcaid is at the eastern extremity. Just west is Mizar, a beautiful star. West of this star is another of lesser magnitude. You will note that the handle is not straight. The bend adds to the beauty. The handle is about twelve degrees in length.

Dubhe and Merak are at the front of the bowl. A line drawn through these two stars points directly to the Polaris star. And Polaris is the very tip star of the lesser Bear's tail. An interesting story about Tennyson might be dropped in here among the stars. Tennyson's sight was so short, that without optical aid, the two stars Dubhe and Merak apeared to him as two intersecting circles like the first proposition in Euclid.

The distance between Dube and Merak is about five degrees. Note carefully this sky distance. It can be used to advantage in measuring distances. A mastery of the higher mathematics, with the aid of suitable instruments is necessary for exact calculation of celestial distances. But for ordinary calculation the first mentioned method does fairly well.

HUTCHINSON.—In loving memory of Mrs. W. Hutchinson, who died 3 years ago to-day:
Sleep on dear, good mother, it has been long years
Since you left our hearts filled with sadness and tears;
Yours was a heart that was blithesome and gay,
Scattering sunshine all along the way;
You know how we loved you, and yes, love you yet,
Though God took you from us we cannot forget.

Father Carroll, cousin of the bride performed the ceremony. During the nuptial Mass, Miss Stella Brady sang several times.

The bride wore a brown ensemble of crepe chonga with matching accessories and a corsage bouquet of butterfly roses and ferns. The bridesmaid, Miss Catherine Hayes was gowned in a green ensemble with a corsage bouquet of briarcliff roses. The groom was assisted by his cousin, Joseph Jones. After the breakfast served to the immediate friends the young couple left by train for a short honeymoon. On their return they will reside at 474 Roger Street.

Elusive Vitamin B-1 Been Isolated

NEW YORK, April 5 (AP).—A will-o'-the-wisp of medical science—the substance called vitamin B-1—has been isolated for study and experimental purposes.

Robert R. Williams, a New York chemist, announced yesterday that he had discovered a method for isolating the vitamin from rice bran, in comparatively large quantities.

Six years ago two Dutch chemists succeeded in extracting vitamin B-1 but not in amounts adequate for experimentation.

Williams said his achievement might lead to more effective treatment of certain nervous ailments, particularly the Oriental disease, beri-beri.

NO CHANCE OF AMERICA BEING INVOLVED IN WAR

LONDON, April 5 (AP) — The danger of a conflict involving Japan and Russia was viewed in responsible British quarters to-day as the sole war threat justifying the recommendation of the United States navy that the battleships California and Tennessee be kept in readiness for action.

Despite current uncertainties in Europe, the British view is that there is not the slightest possibility of the United States becoming involved in disturbance on this side of the Atlantic.

While Russo-Japanese tension has eased in the past few months, it was held, there is still some fear of the Pacific situation, which was described here as "still the most inflammable spot in the world."

HEPBURN ISSUES NEW CHALLENGE

Offers to Meet Any Ontario Cabinet on Public Platform in Debate.

BUSY IN OXFORD.

INGERSOLL, Ont., April 5 (CP)—Mitchell F. Hepburn, M.P., Ontario Liberal leader, to-day had laid down another challenge to Ontario Cabinet Ministers to meet him on a public platform in debate. Entering the riding of South Oxford, where a Federal by-election is pending, Mr. Hepburn declared the Ontario Ministers had refused to meet him.

Speaking in support of A. S. Rennie, Tillsonburg, who is opposing Hon. Donald Sutherland, Conservative, for the seat made vacant by the death of Thomas Cayley, Mr. Hepburn said: "My only wish is to debate the problems of the day with any member of the Ontario Cabinet, but they won't do it. I say again, I am prepared to meet anyone of them in a joint debate on the public platform in South Oxford.

"I issued similar challenges previously and finally Hon. Charles McCrea (Minister of Mines) accepted. I met him and arranged for the debate, but he didn't turn up, and later he gave a monologue."

Mr. Hepburn has just completed a provincial election tour of Northern Ontario, during which he spoke at a number of Northern points.

He cut his tour short, he said, to enter the fight in South Oxford.

He scored the tactics of the Ontario Government for having attempted by the introduction of other matters to "stem the tide of rising public opinion" which had set in against them and attacked the Federal Government for its trade policies. New Zealand, he said, was shipping cheese into Canada and selling more cheese to Great Britain than this country "and still there is a surplus of butter on the Canadian market."

300 Boys Visited Local Industries

More than 300 Peterborough boys have visited this week some of the city's manufacturing plants and witnessed some of the wonders contained in the big factories. The tours, first of which was made on Tuesday to the C.G.E. and Johnson Motor plants, were originated by the Rotary Club with the co-operation of the Y.M.C.A. Yesterday the big crowd of interested youngsters were conducted through the Brinton Carpet plant and the Bell Telephone Company's exchange.

'COPS TABOO.

SHERIDAN, Colo., April 5 (C. P.). — The "anti-cop" ticket won the municipal election here. The issue in the "cop and anti-cop" campaign was whether a mounted policeman should be employed to apprehend speeders on the Denver-Colorado Springs Highway which runs through the hamlet.

James Lee Arrested For Hamilton Police

It did not take detectives long here yesterday to get on the trail of Gordon Mowat, alias James Lee, aged 22, and arrest him.

Police received word in the morning from Hamilton that Mowat, wanted in the Ambitious City for breaking and entering, was in hiding here. Early in the afternoon Detectives Meagher and Piercy took the wanted man in charge and to-day he was on his way, under guard, to Hamilton.

COOKING SCHOOL OPENS TUESDAY

Keeping House One of Nation's Most Important Jobs.

IN OPERA HOUSE.

Of first importance to every housewife in Peterborough is today's announcement that the Canadian School of Home Science will conduct a three-day's course in Grand Opera House on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, April 10, 11, 12th.

"Give us new ideas" is the cry of intelligent women who realize that keeping house is one of the nation's most important jobs. And it is to answer this demand that Miss E. Frances Thompson, internationally-known home economist, is conducting her schools in leading Canadian communities. The famous school is being brought to Peterborough by The Examiner which realizes no service it could do for its thousands of women readers seems more valuable than to bring them the very latest instruction in cookery and home management.

"Feeding a family," says Miss Thompson, director of this famous school, "is a man-size job, and the women doing it have little time to think out new methods and new dishes. So I started my three-day cooking schools to give the one hundred and one new ideas that put variety into the meals and that minimize the work attached to their preparation. Men and women engaged in other work have new ideas given them constantly, so why shouldn't the housewife, whose job is such a big one, have the same opportunity?"

Miss Thompson has attainel distinction in the field of domestic science throughout Canada and her schools have become of national importance. She was formerly instructress of household science in London, England. Capacity audiences greet her wherever the schools are held.

The course not only includes cooking, but covers much of the entire range of domestic science. In addition to learning how to cook better, at less cost, in shorter time, the housewife is made familiar with the many inventions, electrical and otherwise, that have made and are making for health, comfort, speed and convenience in the kitchen.

As well as dealing with the preparation of foods the lectures emphasize the dietetic value, proper selection and comparative merits of particular dishes. And not only must they be cooked properly, they must be served properly, in the right dishes, with the right table appointments. Thoroughly familiar with her subject and essentially practical in her treatment of it, Miss Thompson demonstrates as she talks, from a stage equipped with the most modern kitchen aids, from range and refrigerator to cabinet and sink. And during the lectures she welcomes informal discussion on any branch of home management.

Further details about the three-day course to be conducted in the Grand Opera House will be announced within a few days.

A BRIDE'S HALO

This is Barbara Week's idea of what the well dressed bride should wear. The high spot is the halo brim, whose big advantage is that it can be adjusted to just the angle most becoming to the bride's particular type of beauty. The crown of this halo-hat is made of rare lace. A shirred shoulder veil of tulle completes the picture in front. In back, a long veil of the tulle trails gracefully behind the bride. This is an effective type of head-dress and one you can work out with your milliner....or if you're truly clever, all by yourself! The only difficult thing is the brim which must be made without an apparent wrinkle! The bridesmaids may carry muffs massed with flowers instead of conventional bouquet—another novel notion.

Household Hints

MENU HINTS

Baked Hamburg With Catsup
Baked Sweet Potatoes
Scalloped Onions
Grapefruit and Celery Cabbage Salad
Plain Cake With Apricot Hard Sauce
Coffee

The onions may be left whole, if they are small, or sliced. Put in buttered baking dish, pour thin white sauce over them, cover with bread crumbs, sprinkle with grated cheese, and bake for an hour.

Today's Recipes

Baked Hamburg With Catsup.—One pound hamburg steak, one tablespoon onion juice, one-half teaspoon nutmeg, salt and pepper, three tablespoons catsup. Mix steak with onion and seasonings. Put into one round or oblong one inch thick. Spreak with catsup and bake in a hot oven 15 to 20 minutes or broil eight to ten minutes. Serve with creamed onions or with stewed mushrooms.

Apricot Hard Sauce.—Delicious as a variation of the plain hard sauce. Cream one-half cup butter and add gradually two cups confectioners' sugar. When smooth, add slowly one-half cup syrup from stewed apricots.

FACTS AND FANCIES

Be Exact!

Melted chocolate has a tendency to thicken cake batter, but do not, upon seeing this, begin to alter the batter by adding more liquid, as the cake will come out all right when baked. Select a dependable recipe and follow it exactly. Adding a little more flour or liquid to make the cake batter "look right" is the cause of many failures.

Keep Flavor In

Here's a way of keeping the flavor and quality of the juice in a berry fruit pie. Make a small cornucopia of paper and cut off the smaller end to make a neat little hole. Then insert this end in the middle of the pie while it is baking. The juice oozes into the cornucopia and when the pie has baked sufficiently it can be slowly dripped back into the pie.

Starch Note

Blouses, white shirts and other clothing which require starching in "boiled starch" must not be put out to dry, but folded and placed in a basket covered with a cloth to keep them evenly moist. The collars and cuffs and whatever requires "cold water" starch treatment must be dried until there is no remaining moisture.

A TRIPLE GRAND COUP

Some time ago I played the only triple grand coup which I ever encountered in real life. There have been very few of them even in fiction as the hand would not be easy to concoct. The term triple grand coup means that the declarer must shorten his trumps deliberately, three times, so he will hold only the same number of trumps which the adversary has, to enable him to pick up the last two trumps held against him, when both adversary and the declarer must finally ruff.

	♠ 6 4 ♥ 9 ♦ A J 10 9 8 6 5 ♣ 5 3 2
♠ 10 3 ♥ 10 7 6 ♦ Q 7 4 3 ♣ 10 9 8 4	W. N. E. S.	♠ A K Q J 9 8 7 ♥ Q J 8 2 ♦ None ♣ 7 6
	♠ 5 2 ♥ A K 5 4 3 ♦ K 2 ♣ A K Q J

Bidding went: South, 1-Heart; myself sitting North, 2-Diamonds; East, 3-Spades; South, 4-Clubs; North, 4-Diamonds; East, 4-Spades; South, 5-Diamonds, ending bidding.

East took 2 spade tricks. West's echo of the 10 and 8 showed that East had bid a 7-card suit. East shifted to the 2 of hearts. At face value the lead indicated that he held 4 hearts, but for all I knew he might be false-carding. Dummy's K won the trick.

Assuming that East held at least one more heart, a low heart was led from dummy and ruffed with the 8, so that nothing lower than the missing Q could outruff, in case East had led a singleton heart. The J of trumps was led through East. He discarded a spade. Dummy's K won the trick, and the 2 of diamonds was led through West, who played the 4. The 5 won the trick.

As I held 3 more trumps than West I had to shorten my diamonds 3 times, in order to pick up his trumps without loss of a trick. Play continued as follows: Dummy won its first club trick, I ruffed a heart and West played his last heart. Dummy won a second club trick. I ruffed another heart. Having played his last heart, West discarded a club. Dummy won its third club trick, taking West's last club.

This was the eleventh trick. Dummy had let the Aces of hearts and clubs. West held the Q-7 of diamonds, and sitting back of him I held the A-10 of that suit. It made no difference which Ace was led from dummy, both West and I had to trump, and he had to trump first. He ruffed with the 7 and my 10 won the trick. Then my Ace of diamonds picked up his last trump. We just fulfilled our game contract, by undertaking the triple grand coup. Had I gone for the drop, because dummy and I held 9 trumps, we would have gone down a trick.

When coffee is Stale... it's not only flat and tasteless... it's nervously irritating

WHEN your husband is in one of his door-slamming moods ... his nerves may be on edge because 3 times a day he's putting coffee into his system that is nervously irritating.

Stale coffee develops rancid oil. It does not put you to bed, but it wears down your resistance and exaggerates the everyday disappointments and hurts.

The clipping shows that 56 out of 93 brands of packaged coffee purchased in 16 cities were found stale!

How can you tell which coffees are Fresh and which are Stale?

There is one brand that is Dated so there can be no doubt in your mind.

Every tin of Dated Coffee is marked with the date of delivery to your grocer. That date tells us just when he received the coffee, and how long he has had it. We see that no tin stays on his shelf more than 10 days.

It can't lose its rich, full flavor. No chance for it to develop rancid oil and become dangerously irritating. Ask your grocer for Chase & Sanborn's Dated Coffee tomorrow. In pound and half-pound tins.

DATED means it's FRESH—

Denied Damages, 9 Widows Stunned

NEW YORK, April 5 (AP).—Nine widows sat stunned early to-day when a jury denied them damages for the deaths of their husbands in the steam boat Observation disaster in 1932.

The nine men were among 72 persons killed when the vessel exploded while carrying workmen to their jobs on the new Rikers Island Penitentiary in the East River.

The women each brought suit for $50,000 against the P. J. Carlin Construction Company and the Albee Godfrey Whale Creek Company. The concerns disclaimed responsibility, saying the boat was badly in need of repairs, but not through any fault of theirs.

When the verdict was announced silence fell over the court gathering—composed mostly of the widows and their children and relatives, who had been confident of victory.

COSTLY SILENCE.

CHICAGO, April 5 (CP). — His silence was golden—for her. Mrs. Jesse Conway sued her husband for separate maintenance, alleging that he never spoke to her. She was awarded $20 a week alimony.

Cat's Meowing Saves Its Aged Mistress

MEAFORD, Ont., April 5 (CP) — The meowing of a cat saved the life of Mrs. Ike Johnston, 67, near Woodford, between Meaford and Owen Sound, at 3 a.m. to-day.

The elderly woman lived alone, and a chimney fire which broke out early in the afternoon was extinguished by a number of farmers going past her home to a sale. In the evening Mrs. Johnston retired and was awakened suddenly by the meowing of her cat and barely escaped with her life in night attire.

When the fire broke out a second time, she rushed to her son's place a short distance away and summoned help.

The frame house in which she lived was totalling destroyed and part of the contents were burned. There was only a small amount of insurance on the home.

FINED FOR LEAVING ACCIDENT

BRANTFORD, Ont, April 5 — (CP), A fine of $25 and costs was imposed to-day on Edward Hodson, 50 Grand street, on a charge of leaving the scene of an accident on Cayuga street at one o'clock this morning. He crashed into a parked car, doing some damage, and then left, but the owner looked out of a bedroom window and caught the number.

WEIR FATHER OF SON.

TORONTO, April 5 (CP) —A son was born to Mrs. Robert Weir, wife of the Dominion Minister of Agriculture, at Wellesley Hospital here to-day. The boy weighed eight pounds two ounces, hospital authorities announced. Both mother and child are "doing nicely," it was announced.

"15c put it back into service!"

"MONEY was so scarce last fall that a new dress was out of the question for me," writes a Three Rivers woman. "All I had was a light green silk which had lost its first color beauty. But an envelope of dark green Diamond Dyes and an hour's work gave me a beautiful dress, practically new. Just think what a wonderful amount of pleasure and pride that 15c bought!" Women everywhere are saving on their clothing bills by using Diamond Dyes—the successful way to give permanent dark colors by boiling. They say there are no colors like Diamond—so even, rich and deep. This is because Diamond Dyes contain a greater amount of the finest aniline coloring. For dainty light shades without boiling, use the wonderful new Diamond Tints. At all drug stores. 15c.

EXAMINER

Just Between Us Women

A daily chat with Examiner neighbors conducted by Anne Wilcox

There is nothing more satisfactory in homemaking than to have every detail of the house, its furnishings and its equipment kept in its best condition. Those who are not so fortunate as to be able to do it, feel a bit envious of those who can do it. They see the finish without feeling the rub of the work when in progress. There are times when it is an ordeal to live through the topsy turvy time, while improvements are being made and rooms are being done over. So if you cannot afford to do over rooms and have fresh paint and new papers restore rooms, there is an iota of consolation in dwelling on the thought that the consequent confusion is not upon the premises.

* * * * * * *

Those who are having rooms done over and improvements made, will find they must slide lightly over the temporary disturbance and set their minds on the results, lest they get mentally weary and irritable. The work is sure to be prolonged beyond expectations. Some worker cannot come at the time expected, some materials fail to be ready or not enough came or something of the sort happens to delay completion. While this is annoying and exasperating, it is something to be prepared for without surprise. Even at the worst the work will be through within a comparatively short time, and the benefits will be ready to enjoy.

* * * * * * *

Those who have waited long to be able to have the renovating done are less likely to feel the wear of the confusion, physically or mentally, because they have the fulfillment of their hopes and wishes. To this group it is no ordinary experience through which they are going, but an unusual experience. To them the joy of being able to get the things done is in itself a compensation, and what genuine happiness is theirs when they see the things actually done, the things longed for, attained.

RE-SHAPING OF EYEBROWS MAY GIVE BEAUTY TO FACE

By GLADYS GLAD

When the alluring and talented Jean Harlow first came to Hollywood she wore her brows strictly the way Nature had fashioned them. Jean's brows were naturally very heavy, and with her platinum hair, tended to give her face a rather hard appearance. The lass was no dummy, however. She went to an expert beautician. She had her brows thinned and shaped. And the thinning changed her appearance greatly by adding sweetness and delicacy to her charming face.

Most girls nowadays, of course, pluck their brows and try to keep them neat looking. But some gals complain that they find this a very painful task. Others claim that after such plucking, small eruptions appear around their brows. And it is my contention that, in both cases, the cause usually is improper tweezing of the brows. For if the eyebrows are plucked and shaped in a proper, sanitary and careful manner, no detrimental effects should ever result.

In the first place, it is my belief that when plucking the eyebrows, the natural line of each brow should be preserved insofar as posible. Only the stray hairs that tend to mar the brows look unclean and unruly should be extracted. Garbo arches or Dietrich brows. For if the brows are plucked into a shape that Nature never intended them to have, they may detract, rather than add, to the loveliness of a gal's appearance.

In the second place, eyebrow tweezers always should be sterilized before they are used. When the brows are plucked, the pores in the skin open. And if the tweezers are not perfectly clean, germs may enter these pores and cause blemishes and eruptions.

In the third place, the plucking should be done properly. Before the eyebrow tweezing is started, a generous coating of cold cream should be smoothed over each brow and permitted to remain on for a while. This will soften the brows and the surrounding skin. Then the brows should be brushed into shape with a small eyebrow brush, and the plucking itself should be done. And after the tweezing and shaping has been completed, all remaining cream should be removed, and witch hazel or a soothing astringent should be applied to close the pores.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES

Oily Nose

Marsha: If your nose is oily, use a mild astringent on it before applying your make-up. This will close the pores, remove any excess of oil, and enable the powder to go on smoothly.

Exercise

Roslyn: Refrain from doing any exercizes involving the leg muscles until the muscles have become soft and flabby. Then vigorous exercise will break up any fatty tissues.

Astringent

Violet: A 4 per cent solution of boric acid mixed with eight ounces of witch hazel forms an excellent astringent and freshener for an oily skin.

Bleach

A. J. B.: The bleach to which you refer is composed of equal parts of strained lemon juice and glycerine. If it proves too drying, use a bit of cold cream after applying it.

Your Health
By DR LOGAN CLENDENING

Among the many important advances in medicine and surgery of the past year, is the possibility of the eradication of a disease known as "Meniere's disease", by surgical means. The principal symptom of the disease is dizziness. Nobody who has not experienced it can realize how crippling and disabling this affliction can be.

The function of equilibrium lies in three bony rings near the internal ear—the semi-circular canals. These are placed in the body so that each canal lies in a certain plane, and the thin fluid inside these canals moves when the head is held in different positions, so that the sensation of balance is communicated to the brain. It is this function which is disturbed in Meniere's disease.

The cure consists in cutting the nerve which goes to these canals. The nerve also goes to the ear, and the cure results in deafness, but since the patients are getting progressively deaf anyhow, that is not a very serious matter.

The treatment has been performed on over 30 cases, and not a single patient has had an attack of Meniere's disease after the operation. Nor has there been a single case of death following the operation.

QUESTIONS FROM READERS

H. W.: "I seem to have lost my sense of taste since the influenza, which I had a few weeks ago. What is the explanation of this and what can be done about it?"

Answer: The sense of taste very largely depends upon the sense of smell. When the sense of smell is temporarily destroyed, as by a cold in the head, the sense of taste goes along with it. After the acute infection is over, the sense of smell usually returns, and with it the sense of taste. When we smell anything it is necessary that particles of some kind be carried to the uppermost portion of the nose, to that region in which the terminal filaments of the nerve of smell are situated. There may be a mechanical disturbance in the upper part of the nose, either acute or chronic, which disturbs the sense of smell, and this will influence the sense of taste.

E. G.: "As a result of the daily wearing of iron or steel arch supports, they have become rusty. Is this rust substance absorbed by the body, especially when the feet are moist, and what would be the effect on the health of the wearer who has been wearing these supports for 13 years?"

Answer: If the supports are really made of iron or steel, which is probable, the only substance which could be absorbed is iron, which will do no harm. Whether or not iron is absorbed in this way, as many other substances are, has never been determined.

U.S. Turns Spotlight On Public Utilities

WASHINGTON, April 5. (CP)—Although the spotlight on the Public Utilities battle front is thrown on New York to-day with Governor Herbert H. Lehman and members of the legislator insisting on a far flung investigation of all utility companies as a result of the the sensational "Thayer letters", nevertheless the fight for greater regulation and reduction in rates is being pressed in many parts of the United States, a survey discloses.

Gov. Lehman is assured that an investigation will be voted by the legislature. His chief concern now he said last night, is to find a man "like Charles Evans Hughes to conduct it" in order that it will be thoroughly made.

YOUNG FARMER GIVEN 30 DAYS

Case in Lindsay Develops Over Back Pay and Set of Disc Harrows.

FEW RATS TRAPPED.

LINDSAY, April 5—A young farmer named James Douglas was sentenced to thirty days in the county jail, without the option of a fine, by Magistrate Jordan yesterday morning. The case was in some respects unusual.

Douglas was accused of taking an old worn-out disc harrow from a farm, the property of Mr. F. R. Cook, formerly of Fenelon Township, but now of Janetville. Douglas claimed that Cook owed him money for work performed over two years ago, and that Cook at the time told him to take the harrows and place them in a sale Douglas was having. This was not done at the time. A few months ago the harrows were missing and Cook informed the police. Officer Nelson located the harrows on the Douglas farm and the police court case followed.

Douglas produced a note, purported to have been written by Douglas, but signed by Cook. The latter denied that he had signed the note, which showed that Cook still owed Douglas some back wages.

In court the Magistrate held that the note was a fake. Barrister R. I. Moore appeared for Douglas and Mr. J. E. Anderson prosecuted.

Market Clerk W. Gilbert was a busy man Wednesday morning when a farmer by the name of McGee, of Bobcaygeon, arrived with a large herd of beef cattle, which were being shipped to Montreal. Mr. McGee had a herd of 70, and the average weight of the bunch shipped Wednesday was 1,200 pounds.

Canadian National Railway officials on the trains running north of Lindsay to Haliburton have been very obliging and even courteous to young men going to the various road camps, but the other day when the men abused this kindnesses and became bold, a number were ejected, some 20 in all.

A record of deaths occurred in the village of Bobcaygeon, and the adjacent Township of Verulam, namely, six in six days. In the Township the little baby girl of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Robertson, then little Roy Gibson, who passed away under almost tragic circumstances. It is reported that while the boys were playing at school Roy fell and received an injury which bothered him greatly during the night. Dr. Kelly was summoned, and the lad removed to Lindsay hospital, where an operation was performed. He failed to recover. In North Verulam, John T. Lamport passed away in his 71st year.

In Bobcaygeon three deaths occurred within 24 hours, one being Mrs. Esther Ellen Braden, in her 68th year. The death also occurred of Mrs. Fanny Humphries at the age of 92 years. The sixth death removed a young man in the very prime of life in the person of Noble Beck in his 48th year.

A highly respected and life-long resident of Eldon Township passed away Tuesday in the person of the late Mrs. Rachel McFadyen. The deceased had lived to the ripe old age of 92 years. She was an active person during her entire life, possessing her entire faculties until the time of her demise. Her life was one of kindness towards others, and she was always ready to help in time of trouble. Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Miller of Bracebridge, and one son, John D. McFadyen, with whom she resided on the homestead on what is known as the Portage Road.

Mr. and Mrs. David Anderson, of Haliburton, celebrated the 49th year of their married life last Monday, when they were surrounded by a number of friends in a birthday party. Mrs. Anderson is a native of Ireland, coming to Canada when very young. Following their marriage, they resided in Harcourt for forty years, but for nine years past have been highly respected residents of Haliburton.

At a pancake social held by the ladies of the United Church at Cambray, eight miles from here, a feature item was the burning of the mortgage on the parsonage. The Rev. Mr. Isaac Snell, pastor, gave the address.

The trapping season is on, but in this district it will be some time yet before trappers can exercise a free hand in pursuit of the muskrats, owing to the fact that ice still remains in the creeks and bays. It is reported that many trappers in making their rounds have found evidences of rats being frozen in the ice this season. It is expected that rats will be somewhat scarce, but the prices higher. Trappers claim that in many creeks the ice is very thick and that they are losing the entire first part of the spring season.

Elizabeth Bergner Portrays Frightened Little Princess Before Decadent Days

(From New York Evening Journal, Thursday, February 15, 1934)

To the Astor Theatre last evening came "Catherine the Great" a British picture made by the same Alexander Korda who was responsible for the memorable "Private Life of Henry VIII." It's an important picture. Important not only because it is splendidly acted, mounted and produced, but also because it shows the remarkable advance made by the English film studios. But above all, "Catherine the Great" is important because it introduces to American screen audiences the genius that is Elizabeth Bergner.

It isn't easy to convey elusive beauty and acting ability in words. Elizabeth Bergner's is a personality that will remain with you, leave a lasting indelible impression. When she first appears on the screen, you wonder why Europe is almost hysterical in its praise of her. At first glance you decide she isn't pretty in the conventional sense of the word. But then she talks, she smiles, and, while you watch, a slim girl with wide-set and extraordinarily expressive eyes seems to grow. To take on the stature, the color and the majesty of the role that she is portraying. It's as if her face were a canvas, and on it intelligence, grace and a depth of understanding painted a compelling and magical loveliness.

Dramatizes Early Life

Her portrait of "Catherine the Great" doesn't concern itself with the amours of the Russian Empress. The picture dramatizes the early part of her life, from the time the shy and frightened German Princess arrives at Elizabeth's decadent court until her ascension to the throne. There is little suggestion of the hard and morally lax ruler that was to come, Elizabeth Bergner's Catherine is more a spiritual Catherine, who is loyal and devoted to her husband, despite her marital unhappiness. With her eloquent face and eyes and her vibrant voice and hands she invests the part with tenderness as well as with pride of caste and a realization of power. No matter what your pre-conceived idea of Catherine. She makes you believe her characterization. Makes you believe that she is Catherine, the Empress of all the Russias. And that, if you want one person's opinion, is acting.

The Peter to Miss Bergner's Catherine is played by Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., who contrives to make the half-made and dissolute Grand Duke a romantic figure, even in his most unsympathetic moments. There is a brilliant performance by Flora Robson, who gives a sharply-defined picture of the rakish Elizabeth, who shrills like a Billingsgate fishwife, feeds on the flattery of her servile courtiers and alternates cruelty with flashes of shrewd and cynical wisdom. And with Gerald du Maurier as Lecocq, Peter's confidential valet, the cast strikes and sustains an absorbing mood of eighteenth-century pageantry.

Vast Detail

There is so much to see and assimilate in the film that any condensed resume would fail to do it justice. A tremendous amount of detail has gone into the production and each scene offers a wealth of interest.

To my mind, the most impressive is the one that occurs when Peter determines to humiliate Catherine in the eyes of the court. Mistrusting her, despite her devotion to him, insanely greedy for power and afraid that she might threaten his place on the throne, he commands her presence at a dinner for foreign dignitaries. At the head of the table with him is his latest inamorata. With a magnificent dignity, the Empress takes her place at the foot of the table and goes through the motions of eating and talking in the uncomfortable silence of the room. When Peter demands that she take off her royal order and give it to the tawdry blonde, it's too much even for the diplomats, who leave the table. And Catherine and Peter face each other across the length of the room, Catherine realizing at last that she is married to a madman and that the fate of Russia rests with her. If the picture contained only this one scene, it would still be an outstanding production.

But there are numerous other episodes, each with its own richness and strength. Notably, at the conclusion, when Catherine steps out on the balcony to address her people with a ringing speech and then, as if the little Princess of Anhalt-Zerbst has been overcome by the thought of being Russia's Empress, she sits down on the floor to catch her breath.

"Catherine the Great" is Elizabeth Bergner. And Elizabeth Bergner is superb.

ALARM QUINTET BASKET TROPHY RETAINS GORDON

Westclox Defeats Blue Petes 10-6 for Second Straight Win of Series.

CONCLUDES SEASON.

Large Crowd of Fans See Colorful Exhibition of the Cage Pastime.

In the Y.W.C.A. gym. the curtain was rung down on the Senior Section of ladies' basketball for the 1933-34 season last evening, when Westclox, by 10-6, won the necessary second victory over Blue Petes in the playoffs for the City Championship and possession of the G. N. Gordon Cup for the next twelve months. This was the third game of the series, the Alarm Lassies winning the first, 14-7; the second was tied, 13-13. Last night's setto was no exception to the previous meetings, and a large crowd of fans were treated to a splendid exhibition of the cage pastime. Both sides showed true sportsmanship throughout the season, and the Blue Petes loudly cheered the victors at the close of the game.

Presentation of all trophies won in the Junior and Senior sections will be made at a banquet to be held on Wednesday evening, April 11, at the Y.W.C.A., to which all members of league teams have been invited.

Owing to both teams being on edge the officials of the game, S. Shields and J. Cooper had quite an assignment. Timer for the game was S. Ecobichon.

NOT AN EASY WIN

Westclox had by no means an easy team to defeat, and on the night's work Blue Petes had a slight edge on the play, only falling down around the hoop. The game was exceptionally fast throughout. Endeavoring to get an early lead, both teams opened up by using rushing attacks, in strong contrast to the cautious openings of previous encounters. However, this wide-open style evidently suited the fans, who proffered much voca l encouragement. Scoring was opened by B. Thirnbeck, counting two points on one of her characteristic solo rushes, followed some time later by J. Allin to tie it up. From then on quick passing kept the sphere changing ends rapidly. Keen checking from both sides resulted in many free shots being awarded, but only a few were counted on. Score at half time was 6-4 for Westclox.

After a well-earned rest both teams came back strong and fighting for points, which were scare in this frame, with only six being tallied. Westclox were taking no chances on losing their lead and put up a clever exhibition of defensive work as well as trying for counters all the time. Tough luck kept J. Allin from running up a high score on the night's play, ably assisted by the Harvey sisters, she turned in a good performance. M. Burns proved good defensively, stopping a lot of dangerous plays.

LEADS SCORERS

G. Robinson, back after a lay-off last week, was the winners' leading scorer, with six points to her credit. D. Webb, playing defence, often secured, to take clever weaving runs up the floor.

The teams:

EXHIBITION GAME

As a nightcap, the fans were treated to an exhibition game between Wohelo and "Y" Seniors, the latter winning, 17-9. This was another fine game, with defensive work predominating, and the Club girls showing a wonderfully improved brand of play. E. Bradley and E. Lynch were the scorers for the "Y", netting nine and eight points respectively; while E. Hodson was credited with six of the losers' counters.

The teams and points scored:

Moncton Hawks Retain Allan Trophy For Second Year

Sweeping through all Canadian opposition for the second year in succession, the Moncton Hawks defeated Fort William's Thundering Herd two games out of three in the Allan cup series, emblematic of senior amateur hockey honors in Canada. They have last year's team practically intact, and Percy Nicklin, coach, who hails from Fort Francis, Ontario, has moulded together a strong machine from talent gathered from all over Canada. The team is shown in the above layout, with the exception of Duke Macdonald, star forward. At LEFT, Bill Gill, hard-hitting defence; the next group of three shows, from TOP to BOTTOM, Dud James, Sammy McManus and Webster; the next group shows Percy Nicklin, coach; Foster, goalie; and Monty Muckle, star forward. At RIGHT is Len Burrage, Gill's mate on the defence.

Lacrosse League Officers Elected

The City Lacrosse League held its re-organizing meeting in Duffus' last night, elected officers made plans for playing grounds and discussed various matters pertaining to the start of another good lacrosse season here. There was a fair representation on hand.

Officers elected for 1934 were: President, Bert Reynolds; vice-president, Arnold Hatton; secretary-treasurer, Wilf. LeBarr; and an executive committee to be named later. A committee, consisting of Messrs. LeBarr, Hatton and Reynolds, was appointed to check up on grounds, and to interview the All Saints' Club regarding use of their outdoor rink this summer in the west end.

A vote of thanks was passed to the St. John's Ambulance Corps for their valuable aid to the league last summer.

Possible team entries and several other matters came in for much discussion, and were left over till a further meeting to be held in about a week's time when entries will be accepted and definite steps taken toward starting the league off once more.

ADAMS IS CONFIDENT WINGS COME THROUGH IN CUP SERIES

Detroit Club Mentor to Swing Players Over Into Offensive Style of Play for Second Game—Lost First Through Being Over Cautious.

DETROIT, April 5. (AP).— The Detroit Red Wings, one down in their Stanley Cup series with the Chicago Blackhawks, switched to a different style of play as they prepared to resume the battle for the world hockey title to-night.

Both teams were reported at full strength after a day's rest following the Blackhawk's 2 to 1 victory Tuesday night.

After to-night's game here the schedule provides for two games in Chicago, with the fifth game, if necessary, tentatively arranged for Detroit.

Manager Jack Adams of the Wings expressed confidence that his team, "always reliable in a pinch," would repeat its feat of coming through against odds.

Over-cautious

Adams almitted a share in Tuesday's defeat. He had told his players to rely on "cautious hockey" against such snipers as Thompson, Romnes, March and Gottselig. To-day the hockey critics were saying the Wings were too cautious to a fault, minimizing their own scoring possibilities and losing the game at the first break.

Adams planned to switch the style of his game to-night and appeared confident that it would mean victory for the Wings. Manager Tommy Gorman of the Blackhawks expressed confidence that the cup was as good as "in the bag" for Chicago.

The only casualty of the first game, Cooney Weiland, the Wing's center, was ready to play to-night. Weiland has suffered nose fractures three times and is not considered unfit for the battle.

Farmer Absolved, Selling Own Produce

HAMILTON, April 5 (CP).—Proving that he sold only his own produce on Central Market and thus came within the city by-law, Ralph Moore, Norwich, was absolved of any infringement of regulations by the Property and License Committee last evening.

Mr. Moore was asked to appear when a complaint was made to Mayor H. Wilton that he was "operating a store on wheels" on the market and selling seeds in opposition to merchants who paid city taxes . Mr. Moore pointed out that because his truck was better equipped than some, he should not be penalized and also stated that he was selling only his own produce and had done business on the market for 12 years.

YALE RUGBY TEAM LOSES.

HAMILTON, Bermuda, April 5. — A picked Royal Navy rugby team defeated the Yale University fifteen 3-0 yesterday in the final game here for the Elis. The Sailors turned out en masse to swell the crowd which watched the game.

The Navy scored early in the first half, then stood off the Eli threats largely through the fine play of Bennett, a virtually impregnable back.

McGILL RETRACES CHINESE HISTORY

Project Outlined for Critical English Translations of Extensive Works.

MONTREAL, April 5 (CP)—An experimental project for a critical English translation of selected, important, and voluminous sections of the Chinese dynastic histories covering a period of three millennia is contemplated here.

McGill University, assisted by the committee on the Promotion of Chinese Studies of the American Consul of Learned Societies, Washington, D.C., is to set up in the Gest Chinese Research Library of the university the foundation for carrying out this project.

Completion at any moment of arrangements for the employment of an appropriation of the Carnegie Corporation to support the translation work as an experimental undertaking is expected. Definite selection of that part of the translation of the Chinese dynastic history that will mark the beginning of this monumental work has been deferred; however, the possibility exists some section of the Han period (202 B.C.A.D. 220) will be dealt with first.

A complete translation of the dynastic histories of China would involve the basic factual content of three millennia of an eastern civilization embracing a series of works equivalent in extent to about one and onehalf times the size of the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

GROSE QUINTET WINS IN FINALS

Thomas' Squad Takes Junior Series in Basketball Tournament.

BOYS' HOBBY SHOW.

Grose's team won the intermediate finals and Thomas' squad took the junior series in the Boys' Hobby Show basketball tourneys that finished last evening in the Y.M.C.A. Some smart cage play was dished up in the semi-final games. The Young Men's final went to Stinson's team, 30 to 24, over Galley's. The winners led, 19-7, at halftime and managed to hold off a spirited rally in the last half. Stinson, Sager, Hammell and Londerville all figured prominently in the scoring, while for the losers, Galley, Ward and Holmes worked hard. The Young Men's teams:

Galley's: Ward, Holmes, Hunter, Cunningham and Galley.

Stinson's: Sager, Hammell, Londerville, Gunsolus, Edmondson and Stinson.

Referees—McIntyre and Miller.

Grose's squad rallied strongly in the intermediate semi-final to take a 30-24 nod after trailing Weese's 15-13, at the breathing spell. Thorburn starred with twenty-one points, while McPherson went best for the losers. Only four played on each side. The teams:

Grose's: Thorburn, Thompson, Piercy and Grose.

Weese's: McPherson, Birdgenaw, Scholey and Weese.

Referees—McIntyre and Holmes.

Continue winning Streak

The intermediate finals saw Johnston's on the short end of a 6-4 count at halftime and they were still two points shy at the windup, Grose's boys winning out, 11 to 9. Thorburn got six points for the winners, while Johnston topped the losers with five. The teams:

Johnston's: Pulkinghorn, Clark, Anderson, Laing and Johnston.

Grose's: Thorburn, Thompson, Piercy, Barr and Grose.

Referee—Ward and Holmes.

Len Thomas' juniors were too good for R. Johnston's and blanked them in the final, 10-0, copping five points in each section. Sexsmith notched five points and Weir four for the victors. The teams:

Thomas': Weir, Sexsmith, Dyer, Stillwell, Ferguson and Thomas.

Johnston's: Stewart Downing, B. Ferguson, Fitzgerald, McKinley and Johnston.

GOLD AND SNAKES TALE OF CARIBOU

White Man May Look Into Indian Legend of Rugged Island of Lake Superior.

MICHIPICOOTEN, Ont., April 5. —(CP)—Legends of sands and gold on Caribou Island will prboably be checked this year by visitors to the place. Caribou Island is a good-sized dot in Lake Superior, just inside Canadian boundary waters, and about 65 miles south-west of here as the crow flies.

There's a bit of a tang to the legend in the added feature of huge serpents said to be guarding the golden sands. It's an old Indian custom to attach something a bit startling to a romance. The red man declines to go very deeply into the basis of his legends. Some of the odd occurrences and discoveries on Caribou Island have come under the notice of the white man in his search for treasure and commerce along the wild wastes of Lake Superior.

Mention of the "golden sands" is found in the records of Alexander Henry, who visited the island in 1771. He too sought contact with the "big snakes which stood guard" over the yellow dust. The Indians themselves were fearful of the place and avoided it owing to the records of tribulation coming down from the sages of the tribes.

The story goes that a party of their ancestors, blown on the island by a storm, escaped with difficulty from the enormous reptiles that guarded the yellow sands.

Famous Pavilion Doomed In London

(By T. T. Champion, Canadian Press Staff Writer.)

LONDON, April 5.—(C.P.)—The Pavilion Music Hall, occupying a commanding position in Piccadilly Circus, will soon be no more. Next to the Empire, in Leicester Square, which was demolished a few years back to make way for a big movie house, the pavilion was the favorite resort in London with Britons all over the world. On the site of the pavilion another great movie theatre is to be built.

Seventy years ago a waxwork show was at this point of Piccadilly. Then the proprietor of the adjacent Black Horse tavern took the place and ran it as a singing room, where drinks were served in the auditorium, and it was deemed an enviable privilege by the young "bloods" of the time to sit at the chairman's table. In 1885 it became a music hall proper.

All the great stars of the last half century have appeared at the Pav'

Seeking New Trial For Doomed Miner

HALIFAX, April 5 (CP).—A new trial was sought before the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia to-day for Walter Wilkinson, Glace Bay miner, sentenced to be hanged May 17 for murdering his sister-in-law, Mrs. Winifred Wilkinson.

Argument of the defence lawyers centred chiefly about the evidence of Mrs. Helen McLeod, admitted at the trial in Sydney after a stiff legal battle. Shot in the head, Mrs. Wilkinson died in Mrs. McLeod's kitchen after fleeing from her own home with her young son, and the Crown called on the neighbor to tell of a conversation with Mrs. Wilkinson a few minutes before she was killed.

Her testimony with reference to the conversation should not have been admitted, it was contended today by the defence lawyers, Neil R. McArthur, K.C., of Glace Bay, and Major J. W. Maddin, K.C., of Sydney.

Students Refuse To Fight Overseas

MACON, Ga., April 5 (AP)—Seventy-two Mercer University students to-day wrote President Roosevelt they will "refuse to be cannon fodder in any future war overseas.

The students said in the communication that they were "truly patriotic as any other group," but they believe that "the present trend of international affairs is toward another world war" and that they wish to urge the government to do everything possible to prevent such.

"Protection of one's country against foreign invasion is the only valid reason for engaging in war," the students wrote the President.

FAITH IS BASIC FOR SALVATION

Splendid Attendance in George Street Church to Hear Rev. Dr. Rolls.

GAIN VICTORY OVER SENSE.

A splendid attendance was present last evening at George Street Church, when Rev. Dr. Charles J. Rolls gave a most instructive sermon on "Faith for Life's Journey."

Pointing out that the eye of faith sees in every nook and cranny of the universe symbols of the presence of God, he went on to show that faith was basis . . . for salvation, though this was but a starting point; that faith was, necessarily, for expression, because the life imparted through faith must be expressed in every circumstance and to meet every situation man faces; that, finally ,faith was given for realization, the true Christian ever seeing the Lord before him as a light to guide on life's road. To act and live in this realm of faith is to gain the victory over sense, for, how true it is, that we lose out because overthrown by the five enemies of faith, anxiety, fear, doubt, misunderstanding, and unbelief. Through faith in Christ we realize the secret of divine purpose in life. What do we emphasize? The "things" of life, or the "purpose" of life. What do we live for? Merely to eat, and drink, and wear fine clothes, and waste our days on the pleasures of the moment? Or do we seek to know the meaning and purpose of life "The person who says: I can do as I like, or: I can live as I please," said Dr. Rolls, "and till professes loyalty to the church of Jesus Christ, is an unmitigated fraud." Mentioning the covenant between David and Jonathan, he said they first covenanted as friends, then a second time pledged loyalty to each other, and a third time, fidelity, when they swore to be true to one another till death. Every church member should do likewise. Miss Jessie Pattison was the soloist; Rev. Sutcliffe led in prayer, while Dr. Barr closed the service with an appeal for consecration.

MEMORIES OF '26 - O.H.A. TITLISTS

WILF RANGER—Left Wing

WITH CLEVELAND IN 1934.

Wilfred (Biffer) Ranger was another member of Peterboorugh's 1926 O. H. A. champions who was strictly a homebrew product. Born in this city, Ranger first learned the rudiments of the game on ice ponds around Little Lake district and from there advanced in turns through junior, intermediate and senior O.H.A. pastime. During the heydey of Petes' great splurge in the senior ice pastime, Biffer played left wing on the championship team's first line with Frankie Collins at centre and "Ace" Bailey on right flank. Ranger left with McLeod and Dwyer for the Kansas City Plamors, where he lent great offensive assistance to the American league club being one of the greatest stickhandlers in the game. Obtaining his release in 1933, he played with Cleveland Indians in the International league through the present season.

GOLF FACTS NOT THEORIES

By ALEX. J. MORRISON

I'm told that in Japan players practice at least five hours for every hour they spend on the course.

I know that British players regard practice almost as enjoyable as playing.

It remains for American players to dispense with this part of the game almost entirely.

Of course, a few outstanding players have followed the example set by the British. However it's something more than an old English custom. It's the sensible thing to do.

Before you attempt to play even one hole this season give yourself the advantage of a few hours on the practice ground.

Get together as many balls as you can and hit them over and over again with every club in the bag. It'll pay big dividends.

FERRELL KEEPS GOOD CONDITION

Hold-out Hurler Refuses to Accept $5,000 Offer from Cleveland Indians.

MAY RETIRE FROM GAME.

GREENSBORO, N.C., April 5 (C.P.). — Wesley Ferrell, Cleveland Indians' holdout hurler, is keeping in condition on his 100-acre farm near here, but just where he will pay baseball this season and how much he will receive are not among his worries.

"How about this baseball situation," he was asked yesterday as he sat on the running board of a high-priced automobile at his home.

"Well, I got an offer of $5 000 to pitch for the Cleveland club," he replied. "But—well, you see this old bus? How about going on a nice long trip, fishing and playing golf? I've got enough to keep me going for the next thirty years, and to run the old car, too. If things get too tough, I can pitch semi-pro ball for $200 or $300 per game."

Told if it had been rumored that Billy Evans, general manager of the Indians, had visited him or planned to visit him for a talk on his relationship with the club, Ferrell said he had heard nothing of it.

Workouts with Brothers.

The pitcher takes daily workouts with his brothers George and Marvin, both baseball players. The former is now a free agent, while Marvin belongs to Scranton in the New York Pennsylvania League. Until Rick, another brother, left recently to join Boston Red Sox at Sarasota he participated in the daily workouts.

Wes gave a demonstration for 30 minutes to sustain his claim that he was in perfect condition. He showed plenty of steam and control, with a nicely breaking curve.

Irish Out To Win Series In 2 Games

WINNIPEG, April 5.—(C.P.) — St. Michael's College of Toronto prepared to-day to step on the ice against Edmonton Athletic Club here to-night and in the Canadian Junior Hockey Championship in two straight games.

Never before holders of the Memorial Trophy, St. Mike's took a big stride toward the title when they handed the Western Canada champions a 5-0 defeat Tuesday night in the first game of the three-game series.

Victory for St. Mike's to-night will end the series, but an Edmonton win will force a third game to be played here Saturday night. Like St. Mike's, the Edmonton team is trying to give the Alberta capital its first junior hockey title.

Bob McCutcheon, Regina, and Percy Moore, Montreal, will again officiate and the starting lineups are expected to be the same as took the ice in the first struggle.

MONTREAL Y.H.M.A. ADVANCE.

QUEBEC, April 5 — Outscoring 57th Battery of Quebec by 33-28 on last night's game here, the Young Men's Hebrew Association of Montreal last night captured the intermediate basketball championship of the Province of Quebec. The Montrealers won the first game at home on Monday by 22-21 and captured the round on a 55-49 score.

Y.M.H.A. qualified to meet the Ottawa district winner in the next round of the Dominion playdowns.

CHAMPS SCORE IMPRESSIVE WIN IN THIRD GAME

Fort William Herdsmen Definitely Outplayed to Lose 5-1 Decision.

WEBSTER LEADS SCORERS.

Winners Take Two-goal Lead in First Period of Allan Cup Final.

(By Elmer Dulmage, C.P. Staff Writer.)

TORONTO, April 5 (CP)—For the fourth time in its travelled history, the Allan Cup is sitting still for two years. Moncton's Hawks kept the emblem of Canadian amateur hockey supremacy in the Maritimes for the second straight year by defeating Fort William last night 5-1, in the deciding game of the 1934 series.

Beaten, 3-2, in the opening skirmish of the three-game series and hard-pressed to even the count at 4-2 in the second contest, the Hawks cut loose with real power in sending the Thundering Herd to decisive defeat. They amassed a three-goal lead before ever permitting the Forts to become more than casually dangerous.

Moncton's All Star set, drawn from Winnipeg and Kenora in the West, Toronto and Montreal in the East, and bolstered by Maritime stars, wrote its record on a page of Allan Cup history that has been little used. Only three other teams ever won the senior crown in consecutive years.

In 1911 and 1912, the famous old Winnipeg Victorias captured the trophy. Toronto Granites, who won the Olympic championship for Canada in 1924, were winners in the Dominion competition in the two preceding seasons. Fort Arthur won it in 1925 and 1926, both times defeating University of Toronto in the finals.

The Hawks, an all-star cast from goal to the last substitute, displayed tremendous speed and polished passing plays in ousting Fort William. But they were unable to shake the dogged Western champions until the third period last night and even then the Herdsmen fought grimly to the bitter end.

Sammy McManus, fleet left winger, stole the show for one period by punching in two goals for the Hawks. Then Aubrey Webster, curly-headed youngster from Kenora, took over the starring role and accounted for the last three. He received aid by a Fort William defenceman in scoring one.

James Assists in Goal

McManus got his first counter on a pass by the 137-pound Dud James, too light to be the best professional prospect on the Moncton line-up but easily the most effective playmaker. Len Burrage, who outshone Big Bill Gill on the Hawk defence—for a change—broke away with McManus for the second goal, laying down a perfect pass.

Through most of the second stanza the Forts fought to get back these goals. Led by the sharp-shooting Jazzy Manahan, an outstanding junior with Port Arthur back in 1927, the Herd carried the play into Moncton territory and kept it there for most of the period. They might have made headway had it not been for an accident.

As Webster dashed out of a corner beside the Fort William net and flung a pass that was intended for McManus, Defenceman Bobby McCranor of the Forts jumped into the picture. He intercepted the pass and attempted to clear it in the same moment. But his clearance shot was a perfect drive into the upper corner of his own net. Webster was credited with the goal.

There was no fault to find with the Kenora boy's third-period goals, however. He was skating at top speed past the Fort defence when James shot him a pass and Webster lifted it past Goalie Gordon Hacquoil with a sudden twist of his wrist. He picked up McManus' rebound and skated around the prostrate Hacquoil for the last tally.

Manahan scored the lone Lakehead goal midway through the second period during a power play. He got the puck out of a mix-up in front of the Moncton goal and tricked his way in close before firing. The Forts mixed a half-dozen or so similar shots during similar power plays that were conspicuous because they lacked organization of any kind.

PROVIDENCE REDS CAPTURE CANADIAN-AMERICAN TITLE

Billy Coutu Guides Rhode Islanders to 2-1 Victory Over Boston Cubs.

FOR FONTAINE TROPHY.

PROVIDENCE, R.I., April 5 (AP). —Exactly four years to the day from the time they won their first league championships, the Rhode Island Reds last night captured their third Canadian-American Hockey League title. The Reds were guided by Billy Coutu to a 2-1 victory over Boston Cubs here last night and took the championship and the Fontaine Cup with three straight victories.

As was the case in the first game at Boston on Saturday and here on Sunday, Providence came from behind to outscore their battling opponents. It was one of the fastest Canadian-American games to be seen on Providence ice. Lionel Hitchman's squad only going down after a determined battle.

Cubs Open Scoring.

After a goalless first period, Cubs opened the scoring late in the second when Frank Jerwa, first-line centre, converted a pass from Obs Heximer.

Two penalties to Boston players for knocking over little Bobby Taylor early in the third period gave the Reds an advantage from which they quickly tied the score, two former members of Canadiens of the N.H.L. turning the trick. Leo Gaudreault registered on a pass from behind the net by "Gizzy" Hart, veteran left-winger.

For nine more minutes the teams battled tooth and nail, and then Art Giroux, the hero of the series, scored the deciding goal. Hart again furnished the pass. This was Giroux's seventh goal of the series, and it tied the record in a Canadian-American League play-off series. Giroux tallied all four counters in Providence's victory over Cubs here on Sunday night, 4-3. The first game, at Boston, resulted in a 4-1 win for Province last Saturday.

Giroux Bruin Property.

After the game it was revealed that Giroux has been the property of Boston Bruins since March 19, but will only report next fall. The Reds will get Andy Mulligan, defenceman, another player and some cash for the sterling rightwinger.

The attendance last night was 5,765, a record for a play-off game here.

Providence—Goal Byrne; defence McVicar and Mulligan; centre, Gaudreault; wings, Giroux and Hart; subs., Harrington, Murray, Rivers, Taylor, Alexandre, Nichols, Lesieur.

RED SOX MAY LOSE GROVE'S SERVICES

Pitching Star Fears Sore Arm May Rob Him of Effectiveness.

BOSTON, April 5 — The Boston Herald last night was informed by its staff correspondent with Boston Red Sox in Florida that Bob (Lefty) Grove, southpaw pitcher purchased from Philadelphia Athletics reputedly for $100,000, feared his sore arm would prevent him from being any help to the club during the coming American League season.

U.S. COACH SOLD ON CANUCK RUGBY

Tod Rockwell Would Like to See American Football Kicker a More Offensive Threat.

DETROIT, April 5 (C.P.). — One game sold Canadian football to Tod Rockwell, former University of Michigan quarterback and later head coach at North Dakota, and made him one of the leading boosters in United States for inclusion of the rouge in American rules.

Rockwell saw Sarnia Imperials and Toronto Argonauts play last fall at Sarnia for the Canadian senior championship. It was one of the most thrilling gridiron battles he ever watched.

"Until the last 30 seconds of the game, you didn't know who was going to win," explained the chunky expert who preceded Benny Friedman as Michigan's quarterback. "There was always a chance that one of those kickers would shoot one a mile and score a single.

"I would like to see single-point scoring included in our code. Low-scoring games in United States are often dull affairs because out side of getting touchdowns we haven't many ways to score. Argonauts only beat Sarnia 4-3, but the lead changed hands twice, and then was finally tied before the winning single was kicked."

Rockwell is one American critic who does not think Canada has better punters than United States. Al Box of Argos and Bummer Stirling of Imperials would easily hold their own with the best college kickers on this side of the line, he conceded, but they would not have much advantage if any over at least a dozen Rockwell said he could name.

"But to make the kicker an offensive threat—that is what I like," said Rockwell. "Our kicking is purely defensive, whereas in Canada those single scoring points make it just the opposite. The rouge would wow the spectators over here."

"Boy, oh boy, how a halfback fights to get outside his goal line with the ball when he has caught it in the goal zone. That is what I regard as the most spectacular play in Canadian football."

BOB PHIN IS RE-ELECTED.

PRESTON, April 5 — Hespeler will again enter the O.B.A.A. Intermediate series this year, a meeting re-electing Bob Phin as president of the club, A. E. Parr secretary, and Aelxander Jardine treasurer. The team will enter in the intermediate B grouping. The financial statement showed a balance of $70.29 from 1933.

EDDIE COLLINS IS NOT ALARMED

No Intention of Calling Off $100,000 Grove Deal With Connie Mack.

HIS FIRST SORE ARM.

BOSTON, April 5 (C.P.). — Eddie Collins, Boston Red Sox general manager, to-day refused to become alarmed about the reported flare-up of Bob (Lefty) Grove over his $100,000 southpaw pitching arm.

"When two such capable trainers as our Doc Woods and the Athletics' Doc Ebling, without having talked to each other, coincide in their diagnosis of Grove's sore arm, I am confident it will right itself in time," Collins said.

"I really am not surprised. You know this is the first sore arm Lefty has ever experienced, and you may well imagine his state of mind when it refused to respond to treatment at once.

"We have no intention of trying to call off our deal with Connie Mack. It was made in good faith and it is merely one of the breaks of the game that Grove should have contracted a cold or injured his shoulder muscles in some way."

Grove, according to reports from Orlando, Fla., suddenly threw down his glove yesterday while warming up with Coach Tom Daly. He had been cutting loose and became so excited when his arm twinged that he cried out:

"To h——l with it. I guess I can't do the club any good. I might as well hang up my spikes."

RECORD IS SET EARLY CURLING BY LOCAL CLUB

Several Matches and Bonspiels Revived Owing to Long Spell of Continuous Play.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

J. T. Braund Elected President at Annual Meeting of the Organization.

After presenting his report as retiring president of Peterborough Curling Club, during which he reviewed one of the most successful curling seasons in the history of the club, W. M. Cruthers last night relinquished the chair in favor of J. T. Braund who was elected president for the ensuing year by acclamation.

The full slate of officers for the year 1934-35 was elected at the adjourned annual meeting last night as follows:

Honorary President—W. M. Cruthers.
President—J. T. Braund.
Vice-president—Howard Clegg.
Committee of Management — Messrs. G. D. Carlisle, Norman H. Hamley, James W. Richmond and E. R. Shirley.
Representatives to O.C.A.—W. M. Cruthers and J. T. Braund, alternative.
Auditor—H. C. Sootheran.
Umpire—Herb Martin.
Chaplain—Rev. Dr. A. T. Barr.
Bonspiel committee—Messrs. Irwin Hamley, Cecil Williamson, Walter J. Oke, Ray P. Best.

Retiring President

Referring to the fact that the curlers had never experienced such a steady winter in Peterborough, Mr. Cruthers remarked that the ice-maker had taken advantage of the early cold in November, curling being commenced in the third week of that month and having continued without a break until towards the end of the first week in March.

"This has established a record for continuous curling on natural ice that will probably stand for some time. Our opening curling date of November 23, is as far as we can find, a record for Peterborough, and the closing date March 30, only falls a day or two short of another record," he stated.

As a result of favourable weather conditions it had greatly helped to revive several matches and had allowed the club to run off a number of bonspiels and friendly games with other clubs that had not been possible in past years.

"In December we curled for two cups which have been presented to the club and which were originally won in a Toronto Bonspiel in 1892 by a former member of our club, in the person of A. T. Attrill. First prize in this competition was won by Dr. N. H. Sutton's rink and the consolation draw by Walter J. Oke's quartette," he remarked.

Twenty-Eight Rinks

On January 1, in the annual president versus vice-president games, Mr. Cruthers noted there were twenty-eight rinks entered and the vice-president J. T. Braund not only won his own game but the total for the day.

The Robert Neill Trophy was run off early in January on what was probably the poorest ice of the year. The winning rink in this competition which is open to regular schedule rinks of the district was Jack Sedgwick's rink with Jim Richmond's rink the runner up.

The open bonspiel was run on the three game plan again this year, 26 rinks entering the competitions. The Matthews-Blackwell Trophy was played for the first day and was won by F. Brimmell's rink from Lindsay with Don Best's rink the other finalist. On the second day the winner of the Morrow Trophy was Ray Best's rink, this rink being the only one to complete the day's play with three wins. Martin Chenhall's rink finished in second place with two wins and a draw to their credit.

The regular schedule games were completed practically to schedule with only one or two games remaining unplayed. The group winners were rinks skipped by Pete Laing, Ray Best and Walter Oke. In the play-off between these rinks, Ray Best's rink won first, Pete Laing's rink second, and Walter Oke's rink third.

The vice-skips bonspiel was won this year by George Greer after a very close game with Stan Lowe, last year's winner.

Front End Bonspiel.

The Front End Bonspiel was as successful as ever and some very close games were played. The final winning rink was skipped by Lou Brookes and the runner up Jim Cullen.

In February the clubs facilities were placed at the disposal of the Kiwanis Club for a one day Bonspiel, the proceeds from which (nearly $100) will go to the Children's Summer Camp in Jackson's Park. This spiel was exceptionally well supported by nine outside rinks and 15 local rinks.

First prizes went to Percy Percy Skitch's Lindsay rink, second to Ray Bacon's rink, third to Harry Lucas' Cobourg rink. Norm Hamley and Dr. Sutton skipped the other rinks in the play-off.

Smaller spiels have been run by the Games Committe on Saturday afternoons and spare evenings for everything from spoons to hams. These have proved popular and the Games Committee have been able to turn over to the committee a considerable fund which will help to defray the cost of prizes this year.

Some Statistics

Herb Martin, umpire-icemaker-reporter figured that nearly 800 games were played during the season. He also advised that the curlers at Peterborough swung over 2900 tons of rock which was thrown a total distance of about 3,500 miles, not taking into acount some of the fast ones of Alex Kay, Archie Gates and "Doc" Sutton.

Rinks representing the club took part in the Tankard and District Cup games but failed to win the district play-offs. "However," the retiring president remarked, "as Lakefield the district winners did not go to Toronto to play-off, we were privileged as runners-up to send a rink to Toronto. At the last moment R. F. Downey consented to take a rink to represent the club and had some success winning the first game or two."

Mr. Cruthers expressed the opinion that the club should reconsider the present method of picking rinks to represent the club in the O.C.A. play-offs in both Tankard and District Cup competitions.

Junior Activity

In connection with junior activities it was interesting to note that the boys played over 50 games during the season.

The Ontario Ladies' Tankard was played in Peterborough with rinks from Toronto, Kingston and Lakefield. A Peterborough ladies' rink also visited in Quebec and had a couple of games with the "irons."

Between sixty and seventy games were played by Peterborough rinks at outside clubs, in bonspiels and friendly games. George Cairn's rink won the McLaughlin Trophy at Oshawa for the second year in succession and a rink skipped by Mr. Cruthers won the Lindsay Kiwanis Bonspiel.

One rink went to Lindsay bonspiel, two rinks to the Oshawa bonspiel; two to the Lindsay Kiwanis Bonspiel, one to Toronto Bonspiel and five to Oshawa Kiwanis Bonspiel.

The Lindsay, Lakefield and Bobcaygeon cup games were played, the Lindsay and Bobcaygeon cups not having been played for some years. Lindsay were victorious in the Lindsay - Peterborough cup games, while Peterborough won the Lakefield and Bobcaygeon cups by small margins.

Friendly Games

Friendly games were played at Lakefield, Lindsay and at the Toronto Strathcona Club, three rinks being royally entertained in Toronto. We were also privileged to entertain the Strathcona, Lindsay, Bobcaygeon and Lakefield Clubs.

Sympathetic reference was made by the retiring president to the loss sustained by the club in recent months by the sudden deaths of "Dick" Davidson and "Lou" Bowes, who were referred to as "good sportsmen; good fellows and gentlemen always."

After having noted a gratifying increase of twenty per cent in membership, which this year with decreased fees gives the club approximately the same revenue as last year, the retiring president concluded his address by thanking all members for their co-operation throughout the year, with special mention of the committee of management; the Open Bonspiel Committee headed by Harry Foote, and the Games Committee under chairmanship of Howard Clegg.

Financial Statement

The financial statement certified by the auditor and presented by J. W. Mayneord, secretary-treasurer, showed total receipts of $2,235.15 as against total expenditures of $1,702.60 leaving a credit balance as at March 19 last, of $532.55.

The statement Mr. Mayneord explained covered the financial year and not the curling season.

Dr. Sutton, member of the executive of the O.C.A., tendered a brief report of the meeting of that organization which he attended in Toronto, and discussed the single versus double rink in Tankard and District Cup competitions, which is one of the live issues before the association.

As a result of some discussion on the question that followed, Dr. Sutton was instructed when attending the next annual meeting of the association to vote in favor of a single rink Tankard contest, and a double rink District Cup contest.

Arising as a result of a protest made during the past season, discussion also arose a to the legality of junior curler playing in senior schedule events. A motion was recorded that "junior curlers be not allowed to take part in senior schedule games." Ray P. Best was the mover and W. M. Cruthers seconded.

Amendment Defeated

The resolution carried at the vote, 21-17, defeating an amendment moved by Dr. Sutton and seconded by A. W. Archibald, "that no member of the junior club be allowed to take part in scheduled senior games, unless there is no member of the senior club available to fill in the vacancy, but that if a junior is so used, the rink using a junior shall incur a penalty of one point for every six ends."

Prize Winners

Prizes won during the past season were preesnted as follows:

First Schedule.—J. Kendry Trophy and individual electric table lamps, to R. W. Knox, G. Sorensen, G. W. Green, Ray Best, skip. Runners-up (card tables): H. Campbell, R. V. Dawson, H. C. Giroux, W. M. Laing, skip. Third (casseroles): J. D. Mather, C. H. Huffman, T. Holyman, J. Walter Oke, skip.

Humans like something for nothing, and even rasslin' fans are human! And since most of our plugging in the paper is for paid sports, we're glad this time to be able to announce something that's free. It's the amateur rasslin' card at the "Y" this evening, starting at 8.30, and a show that would draw pretty well even if the admission was two bits or so. Six or seven matches will be staged between the best grapplers in town; and two Ontario champions will be here. Here's the card and the spectators are welcome: Bill Hogan, local champ at 126, vs Waddie Waterman at 135; Fred Williams, 135-pound champ here, agianst Jack Bennett at 145; Andy Chartran, 152, vs Kitch Johnson, 154; Waldie Myers, Ontario 135-pound champion, against Bill Taylor, 158; and Ben Engelbloom, 145-pound Ontario titleholder, against Bill later; Carlos Routley and Frank Leahy in a burlesque of the pro game; and possibly Jack Gardner and Mick Magee.

Hugh Campbell told us yesterday that he was no longer interested in icing a senior "A" team here in the O.H.A. next winter. He had been more or less mulling the matter over in his mind, but since the C.A.H.A. turned thumbs down on permitting commercially-named squads to go outside of the O.H.A. in playdowns, he said, "Nothing doing, I'm not interested under such circumstances." You can't blame him, and it looks like many of these strong commercial teams arcund Ontario and in Toronto will continue to play independent hockey and hurt the O.H.A.—and consequently the C.A.H.A.—because of the latter body's dumb action. Too bad locally, as the "Sea Horses" or whatever they would have been called, would have been welcomed here by hockey fans hungry for a return to senior hockey.

• • • • • • •

Incidentally, while talking to Hugh Campbell he spoke of the possibility of the senior ball club—of which he is president—giving the City Baseball League ten bucks to pay its affiliation fee to the O.B.A.A. this week. Just a donation to help the kids' loop get started off right. That's a swell idea and a nice gesture on the part of the senior club officers who have plenty of financial worries of their own these days preparatory to getting a good team lined up and equipped properly for the C.O.B.L. campaign. And it'll mean another vote at the convention in Toronto Saturday.

Here's an item from the Detroit Tigers' training camp down south we got a kick out of: "There are indications that the fighting breed of ball player is making his way back to the nation's diamonds. When Manager Cochrane was showing his Tigers how double steals should be broken up, Jo-Jo White as a base-runner, knocked Flea Clifton galley west on third base. At the first opportunity, Clifton begged Jo-Jo to show him how he slid into the bag. 'I'd like to know how to do that. You nearly kicked my lung out,' said Flea. White demonstrated. He slides with one leg crumpled under him. As he reaches the bag he swings the other leg high and over. It is a steel-shod scythe which mows down arms, legs and feet of the infielder trying to tag him. White is very successful with it. He knocked Johnny Hodapp right off the Cleveland club with it. He knocked glove and ball clear out into centre field off Blondy Ryan of the Giants in the Polo Grounds last spring. Clifton watched him with great interest. That's swell,' he said. 'That will bounce 'em around, won't it?' A tough guy, Mr. Clifton. He could do it before he left the field."

Westclox Seniors last night copped the Ladies' Basketball League championship for the second straight year when they pulled out a 10-6 verdict over Blue Petes down at the Y.W. They won the first game of the series, the second was a tie, and this third fixture wound up the girls' cage season with a bang. It was a fine contest, with the Blue Petes crowding the Alarm Lasses all the way, but the latter having a bit more punch, chiefly through the shooting of G. Robinson who scored six points, to gain the nod. B. Thirnbeck got three points for the Clockmakers and M. Terrace the other one. For the losers, J. Allen notched four points while J. Harvey and V. Davidson got one each. Four of their six marks came on penalty throws. This league has had another good season, and the winners are worthy ones.

Chicago Hawks and Detroit Wings are at it again this eve in Detroit, tangling in the second game of their three-out-of-five series for the Stanley Cup. Hawks won the first in overtime, 2-1. We don't know if this one is broadcast or not, there being no announcement one way or another at the time this was being written. Arrangements are completed for the Leafs'-Wings' tour of Western Canada after this series is settled. Conny Smythe will take the Toronto squad and these players from Detroit: Oude, Young, Buswell, Graham, Weiland, Aurie, Lewis, Goodfellow, Sorrell and Wiseman, and Jack Adams may make the trip also. They'd better make peace first between Clancy and Young as the King is quite peeved at the Detroiter for putting him out of the recent series through injuries.

The Bay of Quinte Baseball League has become resigned to the shift to intermediate 'A' ball as ordered by the O.B.A.A., all except the Brighton team. This outfit may desert the loop and go outlaw with the Northumberland circuit which consists of Baltimore, Colborne, Grafton and Roseneath. Brighton, of course, is outclassed in that Quinte loop, but the solution would seem to lie—as the Belleville writer points out—in the O.B.A.A. getting the Northumberland League to return to organized baseball as intermediate 'B' teams, and give Brighton permission to play in this league. All is quiet yet on the E.P.L. front up this way.

Ed Allan in the Mail says: "The prediction was made in this column over a year ago that baseball players in Ontario would not be ordered to procure amateur cards. One of the amendments to come before the annual meeting of the O.B.A.A. here this week calls for the removal of this clause from the constitution." That amendment may or may not pass, but would be a boon to clubs and players if it did get the approval of a majority of delegates. As a matter of fact there are quite a few controversial matters coming up at this session and it should be one of the liveliest conventions the baseball men have put on in years. Starts Friday evening in the Royal York Hotel, Toronto, and ends up sometime Saturday afternoon.

St. Petersburg, Fla., April 5. If Manager Bill McKechnie of the Boston Braves is right, then Rabbit Maranville, who broke his leg in a game with the Yankees last week, will be back in a tribal uniform before the season is very old.

"I look for the Rabbit to rejoin us in May" said Bill, who is optimistic if anything else.

Character From Handwriting

By BLANCHE A. DRAPER

A Feature Conducted by Peterboroughs Leading Handwriting Analyist for the Readers of The Examiner

Full name and address (complete) must be given in all samples sent in.

Marjorie Lightowlers,
89 Princess Street, City.

Your handwriting is indicative of a longing to make something worth while out of your life but insufficient will power and determination to bring the desired results. You are a lover of beauty You are ambitious and have a certain amount of talent. You are affectionate and easily upset. You would be wise to get out into the sunshine and fresh air as often as possible. Your type should guard your health. You are born under the sign of Libra—the Balance. August and December are your best months and Friday is your best day. Your number is 3. You are possessor of a rather vivid imagination and if it is put to constructive use it should help you considerably.

Isobel Malone,
Norwood, Ont.

Your handwriting shows that you are a person who is ever on the look out for new ideas and plans. You never seem to be quite satisfied with prevailing conditions, or with yourself. You are intelligent and interesting, but will not admit the fact, because of a false modesty. You are a creature of many moods and should try to create harmony in your mind by wearing only the correct colors suitable to your type and your moods. Study your best points, make the most of them, meet new people, get out and make yourself interested in the characteristics of other people. I feel sure that you will find much more happiness and contentment than you appear to be receiving at present.

Yvonne Baker,
Hastings, Ont.

The handwriting on your sample for analysis indicates a changeable nature, rather imaginative and inclined to be impulsive. You appear to want to do so many more things with the time at your disposal, than your health will allow. There is an interesting quality noted in the formation of some of your capital letters in that your material sense is oftentimes overbalanced by the idealistic. You are good natured and have a fine sense of humor. You enjoy music and like out of door recreations. You seem to be sympathetic towards physical sufferers, however. I would not suggest nursing, because your own health would suffer in sympathy with the patient. So by all means be a clerk. You are born under the sign of Aries the Ram, ruled by Mars. June and July are your best months and Tuesday your best day. Your number is 5.

Jean Wright,
438 Roger St., Peterborough.

The handwriting as delineated on your sample for analysis reveals a rather sharp disposition. You are inclined to want your own way and feel quite hurt if you do not get just what you desire at the moment. Some of your letter formations reflect imagination and determination. You are kind, honest and of a general all round good nature. Your capitals suggest an artistic talent which should be developed if possible. Your birthsign is Sagittarius the Centaur, ruled by Jupiter. Your number is 9. Your best months are February and June. Your most fortunate day is Thursday.

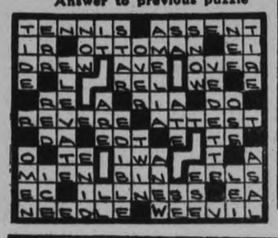
Cherry Collins,
Hastings, Ont.

The handwriting as delineated on your sample for analysis reflects ingenuity and keen intelligence. It tells of discernment and quick thinking qualities. The attendant flourishes of some of your letter formations emphasize confidence, diligence and pride in personal affairs. The small letter formations establish the fact that you are destined to be successful if you continue along the same energetic lines which seem to interest you at the present. Executive ability and the power of supervision belong to you. Try to study languages with a view to bettering your knowledge of books. You are born under the sign of Cancer the Crab, ruled by the Moon. Your number is 10. Your best months February and September and your best day Monday.

Miss Isobelle Hamblin,
433 Armour Rd., Peterborough.

Your handwriting is that of one who is of a very decided and interesting nature. You are one who knows what to expect of others, but who is not certain of the power to delineate characteristics as yet. No doubt if you gave this subject more time and study you would become so engrossed in it's disclosures that you would be tempted to take it up as a life work. Your will power is not quite as well established as you would like it to be, but as you are not by any means mature in years, there is ample time in which to overcome this trait. Your general character is very good. You should be interested in all things scientific—psychology, graphology and numerology, etc. Your birthsign is Gemini the Twins, ruled by Mercury. Your number is 3. Your most fortunate months are April and August and Friday is your best day.

Answer to previous puzzle



THE STARS SAY . . .

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

For Friday, April 6

A particularly lively day, with much tension, bustle and excitement, is presaged by the directing planetary operations. Those affairs in connection with rings, mergers, secret bodies, or manipulated by elements of secrecy, conspiracy or diplomacy, should thrive best.

Those whose birthday it is may find their affairs thriving most signally through methods of intrigue, connivances and subterfuge rather than open measures, during the year.

A child born on this day may have some talents of a strategic, bustle or conniving order, succeeding best with organizations or circles in which intrigue flourishes. Its capacities lean to the unusual, curious and its ideals may be utopian.

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS

Those Nasty Little Pimples

They worry, day after day, wondering how they can get their skin cleared up. The way is to use Burdock Blood Bitters; a remedy that drives out the impurities from the blood, and when this is done the complexion is left without the sign of a pimple.

MYSTERY SKULL LEADS TO PROBE

Kitchener Police Recall 6 Year Old Letter Telling Body Would be Found.

MAILED FROM MONTREAL.

KITCHENER, Ont., April 5.—(C.P.)—The mystery which developed here yesterday when a human skull was unearthed by boys playing in a sand pit off Woodside avenue deepened to-day as police sought a letter which they believe might contain a clue to an old crime.

It was recalled that a letter, said to be anonymous, was received here about six years ago, from Montreal, from a man who said that he was sailing for Europe, and that police would find the body of a woman in the Woodside avenue district if they were to dig thoroughly. Police did dig carefully at that time, but without success. The letter is now being sought in police files.

An examination reveals the skeleton to be that of a woman about 25 years of age. It was shoved into a small hole and covered with only 18 inches of soil. No sign of clothing or buttons might indicate that the body was nude at burial.

It is not thought that the body was that of a local woman, since no woman of that approximate age is listed as missing.

Ready Response For British Bond Loan

LONDON, Eng., April 5. (C. P. Cable).—The public response today to the new British government loan of £150,000,000 in three per cent. bonds was remarkable, although no more than officials expected. Half an hour before the lists opened there was a long line of applicants waiting outside the Bank of England's loan building, representing other banks and big institutions and within two and a half hours the lists were closed. It had been expected the lists for the loan, which is to repay £105,000,000 in which is to repay £105,000 000 in four percent treasury bonds due April 15 and also for refunding part of the floating debt, would be closed before tomorrow.

FAMOUS POLO PLAYER LOSES COUNTRY MANSION

PERRANARWORTHAL, Cornwall, Eng., April 5 (AP).—The palatial country mansion, "Carclew," owned by the noted polo player, Capt. Charles Themayne, was wrecked early to-day by a fire which also destroyed Rembrandt's priceless painting, "Pontius Pilate."

No one was injured, but the occupants of the house escaped only narrowly.

Several members of the Tremayne family and their guests were trapped in various places in the mansion. Both the Captain and Mrs. Traymayne were driven back by the flames when they tried to escape in their nightclothes over the roof. They finally got out down the back staircase.

Mrs. A. H. C. Swinton was caught by the fire in her bedroom but was carried out down a ladder.

Car Completely Wrecked When Driver Hits Train

ST. THOMAS, Ont., April 5 (CP).—Edward Blaise of Oakland, Calif., on his way to New York last night, drove his motor car into the side of a moving Pere Marquette freight train as it was passing over the crossing on No. 3 highway, west of Shedden.

Blaise miraculously escaped with his life, but the motor car wreckage getting under the wheels of the train derailed three freight cars and tied up the railroad for several hours. In the meantime other trains were detoured over the Michigan Central Railway.

Blaise was brought to the Memorial Hospital here. His most serious injury is a broken jaw. He cannot explain how he failed to see the train at the crossing. He was alone in his car at the time.

The Suez canal is approximately 100 miles in length and connects Port Said on the Mediterranean sea with Port Thewfik on the Red sea.

Exports from Shanghai, China, last year were 43 per cent above 1932.

Police Court

Florence Anderson, married, of this city, was arrested here yesterday by local detectives a half hour after her arrival back in the city from Windsor, to which city police say she fled twelve days ago with Ernest Jones, former fireman here.

Mrs. Anderson pleaded guilty to a charge of vagrancy before Magistrate Langley to-day and she was remanded one week for sentence. Asked by the court if she had anything to say, she replied: "No."

Ernest Jones, who left his job on the fire department to run away with the woman, according to police, was arrested yesterday afternoon in Windsor.

"Windsor police arrested him for me on a theft warrant," Chief Newhall said. "Sergeant Meagher left this morning for Windsor and will return to-morrow with Jones, who will be charged in court."

As sequel to one of the criminal cases described "as most disgraceful" that were tried in Supreme Court here last December, Mrs. Alice Leeson was charged with "procuring." Crown authorities have had this action against Mrs. Leeson under consideration for some time in consequence of evidence submitted at the trial of Victor Kaban, who was sentenced to Kingston Penitentiary for a serious offence against a young girl.

The woman did not plead or elect and she was remanded one week for trial. Walter Stevenson is acting as her counsel. Bail was set at $2,000.

On the evidence of Game Overseers Windsor, of Lindsay, and Marshall this city Henry Little, resident of the Chemong Road, was convicted on a charge of illegal fishing through the ice of Chemong Lake on Sunday, March 25. He was fined $20.

The game wardens testified they saw Little in company with two men named Welsh and Milburn, drive out in a truck on the ice to a hole. Ice was broken around the hole and they saw Little take something from his pocket, unwind it and then lay on the ice with his face at the hole. The other men covered his head with a blanket and they stood around as lookouts, the officers said.

Later, the officers said they approached the trio from separate direction. Found in Little's pocket was a long wire snare and a fish decoy, which Game Warden Marshall said was used to snare 'lung through the ice. The line of the decoy was wet, it was said, showing that it had been used recently. It was arranged by the men at that time, both officers said, that Little would "settle the case in court."

Hon. G. N. Gordon, K.C., who conducted Little's defence, offered no evidence in defence. Magistrate Langley said he had no hesitation in convicting the man.

William Saltern, of Dummer Township, pleaded guilty to the charge of using snares illegally to catch foxes. He was fined $10 and no costs, promising Game Warden Marhall to "stand by the game laws henceforth."

CONTROL BILL SCORED

WASHINGTON, April 5. (AP).—Severe criticism of the stock market control bill was voiced to the United States Senate Banking Committee to-day by Samuel Untermyer, one of the foremost advocates of Federal regulation of the exchanges. The short, heavy-set lawyer who served as counsel for the famous Pujo banking inquiry in the house 20 years ago, recommended many changes in the bill, including drastic modification of its disputed marginal provision.

FURTHER PROBE INTO LIVESTOCK

Expect Reports From Auditors on Packing Plant Books, After Recess.

INQUIRY SPREADING.

OTTAWA, April 4.—(CP)—Methods and systemsof livestock marketing will be delved into further when the Stevens mass buying and price spreads committee of the House of Commons resumes its sitting after the parliamentary Easter recess.

Representatives of Livestock Marketing Associations, producers and packing plant officials will appear before the inquiry body to testify further on existing practices and alleged evils. With committee auditors now in the plants of some of the packing plants, the lay-out in the summoning of additional witnesses on this phase of the investigation will depend on their reports within the next few days. These reports will be perused by Hon. H. H. Stevens, chairman of the committee, on his return to the capital sometime this week.

Quebec labor officials also will go before the probe. One of these will be Rene Benard, secretary of the National Catholic Workers Union.

Committee investigators, it was learned today, are pushing their inquiries into a variety of fields. The furniture industry, milling and baker establishments and the garment industry are all included in their work, and a number of these establishments have been visited by the investigating officials of the committee.

Auditors have been located in several chain and departmental stores during the Easter recess also. Heads of these establishments will come before the committee sometime this month.

The date of the next meeting of the committee is expected to be announced on Monday when parliament re-assembles.

Easter Services

AT BRIDGENORTH

(Examiner Correspondence.)

BRIDGENORTH, April 5. — The Passion Week and Easter services held in the three United and Gilmour Baptist churches, through the co-operation of Revs. Wright and Miller, were in every way a success. The attendance at each service was good and the spirit manifested by each congregation was splendid.

In the United churches on Easter Sunday, twenty-two were received in the church, seventeen of these on profession of faith and five by transfer from another congregation. The attendance at church on Easter Sunday was large in each of the four churches. Bridgenorth and Selwyn having record over many past years.

WOOLER UNITED CHURCH

(Examiner Correspondence.)

WOOLER, April 5. — In the United Church on Sunday morning one hundred and fifty eight were at Sunday school, with the superintendent, C. F. Wessels, presiding. Rev. A. Poulter gave an Easter message, prior to going to the study.

At 11 a.m. in the auditorium the Eastern Thankoffering service was conducted.

The president of the Women's Missionary Society, Mrs. C. McMasters, presided.

After the Doxology and invocation, hymn 104, "Christ, the Lord, is Risen to-day," prayer by Rev. A. Poulter.

The junior congregation sang sweetly, followed by the responsive reading, Psalm 724, led by Mrs. S. L. Terrill; an Easter anthem was then given by the choir.

Introductory address by the president, introducing the guest speaker, Mrs. (Rev.) Farnsworth of Belleville, whose message was inspiring, bringing her listeners in close touch to a number of missionaries' lives, showing how the women of Canada can help these workers.

Mrs. Frank Morgan of York Road, sang beautifully an Easter solo.

The offering was taken by Mrs. Dorland and Mrs. McMasters.

Dedicatory prayer and closing hymn.

On Sunday evening Rev. A. Poulter conducted a service, and a pageant, "How the News Reached Caperanum,' was much enjoyed. The characters were eight young people dressed in costumes of old time Biblical style and rich colors; the man of war dressed in steel color warrior's suit, and armour. Theodore Poulter impersonating the boy, Gerald Kemp, the servant; Howard Richards (Quintus); Harry Ormis (Jarius), Howard Orvis' (Ozni), James Terrill (Jarius,) Patricia Poulter (Jarius' daughter), Mildred McColl (Mary Magdalo). "The Old Rugged Cross," was sung by Clifford Rogers, Mrs. Poulter and Mrs. Austin. The decorations of spring flowers, pussy willows and ferns behind the footlights were very effective in the pageant.

Special Easter service was held in the Anglican church on Sunday afternoon. Clergyman and choir of Brighton were present.

BONARLAW

Easter services were held in St. Mark's New Anglican Church on Easter day at 11 a.m. Communion service and 7.30 p.m. evensong.

The rector, Canon W. G. Swayne preachedl at the morning service and fifty of the large congregation took communion. In the evening Canon Swayne conducted the service and the sermon was preached by Rev. F. Beazer, of Roslin, who gave a very powerful message on "The power of the resurrection." The church was almost filled to capacity about 165 being present.

At these services the new vested choir sang for the first time. The choir consists of eight boys: Kennard Baker, Ray McLaren, Chester Baker, Garland McKeown, Ross Fleming, Jack Prest, Glynn and Jack Eastwood; eight ladies: Mrs. (Rev.) W. G. Swayne, Mrs. A. V. Brown, Mrs. Isaac Brown, Miss Iva Brown, Miss Verna Baker, Miss Margaret Brown, Miss Phyllis Barlow and Miss Margaret Barlow; six men: Messrs. S. S. McComb, Charles Lough, Allan McComb, Ralph McKeown, A. V. Brown and J. F. Baker. Organist, Mrs. Jason Baker. Twenty-three persons in all.

For the processional the choir formed in the basement, boys leading, the first boy bearing a beautiful processional cross, then the ladies and the men and clergy in the rear. As the fine old Easter hymn, "Jesus Christ is risen to-day" rang out, the procession reaching from one end of the church to the other, the sight was very inspiring. Upon reaching the chancel the choir filed right and left to the choir seats and completed the hymn.

The order of the recessional was almost the same the first few verses of the hymn being sung in the chancel and then the choir proceeding towards the west end of the church while singing the last stanzas.

During the offertory at the evening service Mrs. Swayne and Mr. Baker sang the duet, "He Lives," unaccompanied.

The altar was beautifully decorated with Easter lillies.

Painful Piles

Go Quick—No Cutting—No Salves

Itching, bleeding or protruding piles go quickly and don't come back, if you really remove the cause. Bad blood circulation in the lower bowel and hemorrhoidal veins causes piles by making the affected parts weak, flabby, almost dead. Salves and suppositories fail because only an internal medicine that stimulates the circulation and drives out the impure blood can actually correct the cause of piles. Dr. J. S. Leonhardt discovered a real internal Pile remedy. After perscribing it for 1,000 patients with success in over 900 cases, he named it HEM-ROID. McDermid and Jury and Bond's Drug Store and druggists everywhere sell HEM-ROID Tablets with guarantee they will end your Pile misery or money back.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE REVIEWS

MONTREAL PRODUCE.

MONTREAL, April 5.—The Montreal Dairy and Produce Market had a steady tone yesterday and prices continued at unchanged levels. Butter quotations continued firm, the high levels of Tuesday causing a let-up in demand. No. 1 grade was generally quoted at 30½c to 31c a pound for cariots or less. Receipts totalled 1,555 boxes.

On the egg market graded shipments in cariots or less were quoted at 19c a dozen for A-large, 18c for A-medum or B and 17c for C grade. Receipts were 3,018 cases.

Chee.se again sold for 11¼c a pound for current make Ontarios, with summer cheese at 11½ to 12½c for white and colored lines. A total of 124 boxes was offered for sale.

Quebec potatoes were slightly firmer at $1.05 to $1.10 for 80-pound bags and New Brunswick Mountains advanced slightly to $1.10 to $1.15. Prince Edward Island Mountains in 90-pound bags were unchanged at $1.30 to $1.40.

TORONTO PRODUCE.

TORONTO, April 5. — Alhough butter prices were firm in the local market yesterday, trading was quiet. Buying was obviously intended to cover only immediate needs, with apparently a strict avoidance of any possibility of stocking ahead. The prospect of an early increase in production made buying in quantity at present high prices a risk which Toronto dealers were not anxious to take. There was no effort on the part of holders to force sales, and No. 1 Ontario creamery solids were again quoted at 29c, with creamery prints selling to the retail trade at 31c.

The cheese market was dull, with new large quoted to the shipper at 11½c to 11¾c, with some few sales said to have dropped to 11¼c. Retail prices were dropped to 13¼c on new large in an effort to stimulate sales. Other grades, however, were quoted without change.

Egg receipts were light, with a fair demand. Graded country shipments were being quoted from 17½c to 18c on grade A-large, A-medium 15½c to 16c, with pullets and C grade 14½c to 15c. Prices on ungraded eggs, delivered, to the shipper were not revised, but a lower range was given on retail quotations at 29c to 21c on grade A-large, A-medium 19c to 20c, and C grade 18c to 19c.

CHICAGO GRAIN.

CHICAGO, April 5.—Liveliest buying witnessed in weeks jerked the wheat market up 2¾c a bushel yesterday from early tumbles to the lowest levels reached of late.

Renewal of inflaton talk from Washington furnished much of the stimulus for wheat price upturns. Special notice was taken of Senate proposals for Government purchase of silver at $1.29 an ounce, together with naming of a House Agriculture sub-committee to consider silver legislation.

Wheat closed strong at almost the day's top, ⅞c to 1⅜c above Tuesday's finish, corn ¼c to ⅝c up, oats ⅝c to ⅞c advanced, and provisions unchanged to 20c higher.

Corn and oats followed wheat down and then up. Temporarily corn touched the bottommost point since Nov. 1.

Provisions averaged higher, responsive to rallies of hog values and of grains.

WINNIPEG GRAIN.

WINNIPEG, April 5. — Liberal offerings were well taken care of on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange yesterday and futures prices closed form ⅛c down to ¼c higher. The May option ended at 67¾c, July at 69c, and October at 70⅝c.

Selling appeared to come chiefly from Government holders, but the offerings were distributed in a manner that did not depress the market. It was estimated something approaching 1,000,000 bushels of wheat were taken out of the pit.

Conservative estimates of the export business in Canadian wheat placed the sales at 500,000 bushels, with much of the movement worked from Vancouver.

There was no improvement in demand for cash grains ond coarse grains duplicated actions of the past few days, holding steady within a narrow range.

FILTH OF HOME SHOCKED WOMEN INVESTIGATING

Claims One Child Reminded Her of Tots From Famine Areas of Europe, Asia.

JUST SKIN AND BONE.

Believes Fewer Children Deserted by Parents During Depression.

TORONTO, April 6 (C.P.). — Miss Kathleen Gorrie, executive secretary of the Protestant Children's Home, told the judicial probe into affairs of the York County Children's Aid Society to-day that she would never forget her frist glimpse into the "squalid filthy" home which the society allegedly neglected.

Judge James Parker is presiding at the hearing of numerous charges of maladministration lodged against the society by the Toronto Child Welfare Board. Evidence during the first two days of the inquiry has centred about the condition of a family which the society allegedly declined to aid. The father was a wounded war veteran and lived with his children and a dope-fiend boarder in filthy surroundings, according to testimony.

Miss Gorrie was the first witness called to-day. In July, 1933, she went to the home in question to investigate conditions there. Her first sight of Norman, one of the children, vividly recalled the pictures of starving children from the famine areas of Europe and the Orient, she declared.

"He was nothing more than skin and bone," she told the inquiry. "I never saw a child who disturbed me more."

Less Aid Asked

Miss Gorrie said that "an interesting phenomenon" of the present day was that 25-percent fewer children were brought to her organization for assistance than in "pre-depression days."

One reason for this, suggested by Miss Gorrie, was that relief, if not "more adequate" was at least more "accessible."

She further suggested that owing to the difficulty of obtaining employment during recent years there had been less desertion of children by mothers and fathers. And problem arising in the work of her organization was referred to the Child Welfare Council, she said. "We pool our experience."

Returning to describe of her visit of the home in question she said "The odor was overwhelming. The interior was very dirty.

Clung To Table

"We saw two children within, one was Norman. There were deep

MYSTERIOUS LIGHT SEEN IN PATIENT'S BREAST

TRIESTE, Italy, April 6 (AP).—A mysterious light emanating from the breast of Signora Monaro, a patient in the Pirano Hospital, is rousing wonderment in medical and official circles.

Nurses noticed, while Signora Monaro slept, that a light like an electric flash seemed to emerge from Signora Monaro's breast, glow for about three seconds, and then disappear.

The phenomenon recurred several times in the night. Physicians were called and said they too saw it.

Last night the sleeping woman was observed by four doctors, Provincial Pretor Genovesi, and Political Secretary Fonda. They witnessed the light.

The populace is not interested, but is sharply divided in its views, one group affirming that a miracle is taking place and the other that Signora Monaro swallowed a flashlight.

Extra Camp Wages To Mean More Work

PORT ARTHUR, April 6 (CP)—General D. M. Hogarth, M.L.A., was advised to-day of the passing of an order-in-council at Toronto setting a new rate of pay for men employed in the road camps on trans-Canada highway construction in Northern Ontario.

Coincident with the revision of wage scales there will be revision of policy in the camps. More work will be expected of the men and with acceleration of progress it is expected it will be possible to drive through from Port Arthur to Winnipeg this fall. Some rock cutting and other heavy work at Vermillion, near Kenora, Ont., and elsewhere will be done by contract.

Firemen Aided Police In Making Arrest Assessed $200 Damages By County Judge

HUNTSVILLE, Ont., April 6.—(CP)—It is wrong for police to call upon firemen to use hose in aiding in arrests, Judge A. A. Mahaffy decided in a case here.

The decision was made in the claim of Charles Rawn who sued five members of the fire brigade for $200 damages to his furniture.

Several weeks ago two Rawn brothers, occupying the home of another brother, were charged with drunkeness. They fought arrest and baffled police. The firemen were called and turned the hose on the house, finally bringing out the two men and arresting and convicting them. The owner of the house sued for damages and was awarded $75 and costs.

OFFICER SLAIN CHIEF ABDUCTED BY TWO GUNMEN

Occupants of Car Stuck in Mud Fire as Police Investigate Hole in Windshield.

BLONDE WOMAN INVOLVED.

Suspected to be Bonnie Parker, Girl Friend of Clyde Barrow, Desperado.

MIAMI, Okla., April 6 (AP). — Constable Cal Campbell was slain and Chief of Police Percy Boyd of Commerce, near here, was kidnapped to-day by two outlaws and their blonde woman companion.

Boyd and Campbell had tried to investigate a bullet hole in the windshield of a car in which the two men and the woman had become stuck in a mudhole.

Witnesses said that before the two reached the machine the occupants opened fire and Campbell fell, dying almost instantly.

The police chief was taken in the car and it sped north-westward, toward Chetopap, Kas., about 10 miles from Commerce. It was not known whether Boyd was wounded.

Officers said they were not yet certain whether the shooting was done with a machine-gun.

They were investigating to determine if Bonnie Parker, the cigar-puffing girl friend of Clyde Barrow, desperado, is a blonde and if perhaps the men were Barrow and Raymond Hamilton, who escaped, aided supposedly by Barrow, from a Texas prison farm some time ago.

FEAR JAPANESE AFTER PEIPING

Chinese Claim Aim is to Set Emperor King on Throne to Rule Northern Provinces.

PROTEST TO LEAGUE.

GENEVA, April 6—(AP)—Chinese circles alleged today that Japan plans to seize Peiping and put Emperor Kang Teh of Manchukuo on the throne there as emperor of the Northern Province of China.

At the request of Wellington Koo, Chinese delegate to the League of Nations, the league distributed to all its members China's protest against the enthronement of Henry Pu-Yi as Emperor of Manchukuo, the Japanese-created state.

The action was considered a diplomatic move on the part of China against Japan.

The protest, which was made by Wang Ching-Wei, foreign minister of China, on the occasion of the enthronement ceremony, calls Pu-Yi a puppet and his assumption of the imperial title high treason against China.

Koo particularly was asked by his government to protest to the committee handling the problem against recognition of Manchukuo.

The committee will meet May 14, at which time, it was stated, Koo is likely to present additional proposals with the object of strengthening the various powers concerned in their determination not to recognize the new state.

Salvage Worker Is Seriously Injured

LONDON, Ont., April 6. (CP)—Severely injured while doing salvage work at the Hunt Flour Mill Thursday afternoon, Leonard Colling, aged 28, lies in Victoria Hospital with only a slight chance for recovery to-day. He is suffering from serious head injuries, received when a mass of debris fell on him from the second storey of the ruined mill section.

Cats

NEW YORK, April 6. (AP).—Women who like cats and men who like dogs won't like this, but Albert Terhune, the author, believes in being honest.

"Cats are the world's greatest spongers," he said. "They reduced comfort to a fine art The only work a cat will ever do is for herself."

Terhune, who writes dog stories, believes cats are the most disloyal of all animals, the only animal man has ever conquered.

He paid tribute to dogs, then pondered the question: "Are dogs more intelligent?" Hesitantly he said 'No," that cats do some marvellously intelligent things. He concluded by saying men hate cats and women love them.

WARKWORTH BOY WINS 2ND PLACE SPEAKING TEST

Importance of Promoting Peace Topics Among Students Stressed at Convention.

TORONTO, April 6 (C.P.).—Their deliberations concluded, more than 2,000 educationists were on their way home to-day after the annual convention of the Ontario Educational Association here.

For three days teachers, trustees and others discussed problems concerning their own and general organizations, and during that time listened to scores of addresses from prominent educationists.

In the dying moments of the mammoth convention, Charles P. Shriner, Niagara Falls, won the public speaking competition of the assocoation, with Allan Buchanan, Warkworth, taking second place, and third going to the only girl in the competition, Irene McKechnie, 12, who travelled 500 miles alone from Hymers in the Thunder Bay district to participate.

Dr. Madge Macklin of the University of Western Ontario was one of the featured speakers on the final day, and told the public schools department the average level of intelligence among school pupils was lower to-day than it was 100 years ago. She suggested sterilization as a remedial action.

Mrs. F. C. Farquharson of Windsor, chairman of the League of Nations Committee of the Home and School section, declared teachers failed in their duty if they did not do their bit toward promoting peace by informing pupils of the aims and accomplishments of the League.

In a resolution passed by the convention, the Government was asked to restore school grants to the level prevailing before the reductions were made with the appearance of the depression.

Lad Is Shot, Walking On Hamilton Street

HAMILTON, April 6. (CP). — Struck in the shoulder by a bullet as he was walking along Cannon street last night, Gasper Distro, 13, was in the General Hospital to-day in a serious condition.

The boy was walking towards his home when he heard a shot and felt a pain in his shoulder. He was rendered almost unconscious by the shock, and a passerby took him to a doctor not far from the spot. He was then removed to the hospital where it was found that the bullet had passed completely through his shoulder.

Police were notified of the affair and are investigating.

OUTLAW HORDES LOOT AND BURN CITY OF KINGYU

2,000 Chinese Bandits Swarm Over High Walls, Ravage Populace.

SURPRISE RAID.

Fleet Into Fastness by Shangtung, Dodging Troops of Fighting Governor.

(By Morris J. Harris, A.P. Foreign Staff.)

SHANGHAI, April 6 (A.P.). — Laying feudal siege to the walled city of Kingyu 300 miles north of here, 2,000 Chinese bandits scaled the walls, looted and ravaged the populace and set fire to the town, said reports reaching here to-day.

Under the leadership of the Mongolian General Liu Kwei-Tang, known as China's most sensational bandit leader, the tattered outlaw horde scaled the walls with ladders, carrying flaming torches.

Two weeks ago General Liu's bandit terrorists were reported to have been crushed in fierce fighting against the forces of General Han Fu-Chu, fighting Governor of Shantung.

But yesterday they struck again at Kingyu, and after swarming into the city, killing and looting right and left, set it afire and departed, loaded with pillage, the reports said.

Outwit Troops.

Despite General Han Fu-Chu's efforts to round up the fleeing band they out-maneuvered the hurriedly organized provincial troops and made into the fastnesses of Shantung and Northern Kiangsu Provinces.

Even vastly superior forces of Government troops have failed to stop Liu Kwei-Tang and his ragamuffin army, which has cut a swath more than 850 miles long from Jehol through Chahar, Hopei and Shantung.

General Han Fu-Chu has placed a price on Liu's head but he is worth more dead than alive, Chinese reports said the Shantung leader is offering 10000 Chinese dollars for his head and 4,000 for his person, the former sum amounting to about $3,500.

GUSTAF AWAITS HIS GRANDSON

Swedish King Leaves Cannes Casino as Prince and Bride Appear.

DUCKS THEM AT BALL.

CANNES, France, April 6. (AP). It was "You chase me and I'll dodge You" for King Gustaf Ossweden and his grandson, the former Prince Sigvard, on the Riviera to-day.

Sigvard arrived from Berlin on a vacation yesterday, bringing with him his commoner bride, the former Erika Patzek of the German films. He apparently was eager for a reconciliation with his royal grandsire, who frowned on the match.

The King, here for tennis, apparently wished to avoid a meeting. When he went to the Casino, he had Sir Hugo de Bathe and an aide do a bit of scouting about. They reported that there was not a princely grandson in sight.

The king relaxed, but not for long. A little later the prince and the comely blonde for whom he lost his royal rights, were spotted. The king, instead of bestowing his blessing, ducked. Then he returned to Nice.

The King diplayed the same reluctance to meet the young couple at a naval ball in honor of officers of the British fleet. He appeared ill at ease. He seemed to be casting apprehensive eyes about—ready to take flight at sight of young Sigvard.

Nevertheless, despite denials, it was believed reconciliation would be effected before long.

SIR ROBERT PEEL DIES

LONDON, April 6.—(C. P. Cable) —Sir Robert Peel, husband of Beatrice Lillie, Toronto-born stage star, died today on the eve of his 36th birthday.

Sir Robert was a great-grandson of the famous Prime Minister, Sir Robert Peel, who founded the Metropolitan Police Force. From him London policemen got the names 'Bobby' and 'Peelers.'

A 13-year-old son is heir to the baronetcy, created in 1800.

Not So Safe

ARNPRIOR, Ont., April 6. (CP)—Keeping the streets safe for pedestrians cost Mayor C. Mulvihill a broken shoulder today. After watching a street gang break up icy ruts on the roadway, the mayor remarked to a critical taxpayer that whatever the municipal council did or did not do, it tried to keep the streets safe. With this remark he turned to walk away, slipped on the icy surface and landed on his shoulder, snapping the bone.

Delegates Battle to Solve Problem of 1934 Carryover of 1,100,000,000 Bushels.

(By George Hambleton—C.P. Staff Writer).

ROME, April 6 (C.P. Cable). — Deciding that negotiation of reciprocal trade treaties lay outside its scope, the World Wheat Conference late to-day declined to take action on a French proposal which called for trade concessions by wheat exporting nations in return for reduction of wheat growing by the importing nations.

ROME, April 6 (C.P. Cable). — France to-day started bargaining in the world wheat conference.

As the assembly representing 15 nations started its second day's deliberations, M. Davinet, the French delegate, formally proposed that wheat exporting countries should be prepared to give commercial benefits in exchange for a reduction in the French wheat production.

This proposal was only one of several steps the conference will consider in its effort to raise the world price of wheat, either by regulating or reducing supplies and increasing the demand.

Trade Pacts In Mind.

France has trade agreements in mind, particularly since recent negotiations to end the tariff "warfare" with the United Kingdom broke down.

The French spokesman, however, contented himself with a general outline of his proposal. He did not specify any particular agreement, or whether or not a series of bilateral agreements were contemplated by France.

The delegates generally expressed sympathy with the idea underlying the French proposal, but felt that until the French delegation was prepared to submit it in a more detailed form it was better to adjourn the discussion. Consideration of the proposal therefore was suspended and the Frenchmen in the meantime will put the scheme into more specific form.

World Carryover.

This afternoon the conference came fact to face with concrete measures to meet the expected world carryover of 1,100,000,000 bushels on August 1, end of the present crop year. These measures cover both schemes to increase con-

U.S. Out Of Scheme To Force Disarming

LONDON, Eng., April 6. (AP).—How the United States stands on a proposal for punitive measures to guarantee execution of a disarmament treaty to-day was explained to Great Britain.

Norman H. Davis, American ambassador-at-large, outlined Washington's views in a forencon conference with Sir John Simon, foreign secretary.

Davis made plain, it was understood, that the United States declined to commit itself to punitive action but woud not interfere with the carrying out, even through military or economic measures, of a programme to enforce disarmament of any European nations.

The United States is still determined, Davis was reported to have stated, to remain aloof from the power of negotiation until European countries have settled their political questions and are ready once again to talk about making a definite reduction of armaments.

OFFICIALS AGREE READJUSTMENT NOW NECESSARY

Economic, Financial Blockades or Diplomatic Cooperation Hinted to Enforce Disarming.

MILITARY FORCE LAST.

German Re-armament Among Points it is Understood Will Be Recognized.

LONDON, Eng., April 6 (AP). The Associated Press learned from authoritative source tonight that the United States would co-operate in economic and financial embargoes against a nation found guilty of violating a disarmament treaty provided the United States could be the sole judge of whether such action is justified.

PARIS, April 6 (C.P.). — An entirely new arms "limitation" conference was shown today to be a practical certainty by a French memorandum to Great Britain approved by the Cabinet.

The brief communication shows that France and Great Britain are in agreement on the necessity of an arms "readjustment" conference, since "disarmament" is dead.

Detailed methods of enforcing an arms treaty were promised later by the memorandum, sent in response to London's request for more specific details on France's demand for safeguards from Britain if a pact is signed.

Under a convention as viewed by France, it was understood German rearmament will be recognized.

These conditions will mask the need of military aid, it was reported, by emphasizing three points by which disarmament might be enforced:

1—An economic blockade.
2—A financial blockade.
3—Diplomatic co-operation, leaving possible military enforcement until the last.

Four Police, One Woman Injured Before Minneapolis Reserves, Firemen, Restore Order.

20 ARRESTED.

MINNEAPOLIS, April 6 (AP) — Four policemen and one unidentified woman were injured to-day when a riot of 3,000 unemployed persons broke out at the court house and city hall.

Twenty persons were arrested before order was restored by police, firemen and deputy sheriffs, called out when the throng bombarded the building with rocks, bottles, sticks and tear gas bombs hurled at them by police.

Police attempted to disperse the mob that blocked traffic on four streets surrounding the court house, with tear gas bombs. The mob, however, seized the bombs and hurled them back, the gas seeping into the building and necessitating the closing of three courts and many offices.

The demonstrations, planned for several days, leaders said, was preceded by a parade dotted with marchers wearing red arm bands and shouting "we want bread. We want work." The chief grievance of the demonstrators was demands for restoration of citizens' welfare administration projects.

The city council, simultaneously, was engaged in a bitter debate over the Farmer-Labor party's state platform calling for a sweeping public ownership program and ultimately defeated a motion to grant the demands of the unemployed for increased poor relief allowance and continuation of the C.W.A. on a cash basis.

Defy Authorities.

The disorder broke out when the mob reached the court house and many marchers climbed atop automobiles parked nearby. Ordered

Anti-uplifter Spoils Scene by Calling Police, Who Make Arrests.

(By Dale Harrison)

NEW YORK, April 6 (AP)—The burglary business turned into a civic uplift movement at 11 o'clock last night when about 20 honest burghers lent a hand to a pair of fellows who were robbing a cigar store.

The Louis Nuss tobacco shop on Lexington Avenue was the locale of this mass movement in burglary. A youth of 21, Harry Wissler, and a 12-year-old companion huddled in the doorway, debated how to effect an entrance.

They decided that by dragging a nearby newsstand over and standing on it, they could get in over the transom. They proceeded accordingly.

By the time the stand was in possession, a good group of burghers had congregated. They watched with interest as the burglary went on.

Wissler attempted to boost his small companion through the transome. Some sympathetic citizens stepped from the crowd and gave him a helping hand.

Once inside, the boy knew what to do.

Crowd Enjoys Scene

The crowd, which had continued to grow, watched with interest as the boy moved about in the store, with the older youth waiting patiently on the newsstand.

At last, the lad, his chore done, prepared to emerge, and ran into a dilemna. He couldn't get up to the transom. What he needed was a crowd of civic uplifters inside to give him a boost.

He hit upon the idea of climbing on a chair, and it was then that the police, called by a lone anti-uplifter, arrived.

In the small boy's pocket the police found two dollars in nickels. They took him, his companion and the nickels to jail, where charges of burglary and juvenile delinquency were distributed in such proportions as the occasion seemed to warrant.

The civic accessories, all honest burghers, dispersed to their homes.

BODIES FOUND OF TWO BABIES

Bodies Wrapped in Soiled Table Cloth Found on Village Dump.

POLICE INVESTIGATING.

PICKERING, Ont., April 6.—(CP) —Finding that the head of one of the two infant bodies found in the municipal dump near here had been crushed in, police today considered the murder angle in connection with the gruesome find.

The bodies, wrapped in a soiled table cloth, were found last night by Joe Gormley of Dunbarton, near here. Both were in an advanced stage of decomposition.

It has been estabished that both children breathed after birth. Dr. Cartwright of Pickering today removed the lungs from both bodies and disproved the original theory that the badies were still born.

Police today found tire marks in the side road leading from the highway down towards the dump. The marks revealed the machine had gone in the ditch in attempting to make a turn in the gravelled narrow road.

Directly apposite the dump is an old frame house which police learned had been inhabited until a week ago. Police were searching the dwelling for some clue which might lead to the solving of the mystery of the deaths.

CURSE BLAMED FOR THE DEATH OF A. E. WIGALL

Husband of Former Cobourg Woman Victim of Pharaoh's Curse.

20TH VICTIM.

Most of People Present at Opening of Tomb Have Died.

TORONTO, Ont., April 6 (Special to The Examiner).—Those who believe that the curse of Pharaoh Tutkhamen followed those who were connected with the opening of his tomb say the death of another Canadian strengthens their theory.

The first was Professor T. L. Fleur of McGill University, Montreal. Friends of Muriel Lillie in Toronto have heard from England that the recent death of her husband, the British archaeologist, Arthur E. Weigall, is also attributed by many people to the "curse," that the imaginative like to suggest has followed those who were present at the opening of the ancient tomb. Weigall is listed as the twentieth victim. There is particularly the mysterious nature of Weigall's death to lend credence to the old superstition. He died in a London Hospital of some unidentified disease. "I never heard him discuss the so-called 'curse'," explained Dr. F. S. Secretan, head of the Central Health Service, whose wife has been a lifelong friend of Weigall's wife; the former Muriel Lillie, sister of the famous Lady Peel, better known by her stage name of Beatrice Lillie. Both Beatrice Lillie and Mrs. Weigall were natives of Cobourg, the doctor to-day recalled.

Worried Over Superstition.

"I think it was a case of his not bothering about the superstition when he was well; but, later, when he became sick, I think he did. To date," explained Dr. Secretan, "most of the people who were present at the original opening of the tomb have died of most mysterious ailments. Weigall's was no exception. He was a man in vigorous health at the time, but fell ill immediately afterwards and passed away at the age of 53 after a lingering and mysterious malady.

"The list began with Lord Car-

BLACK TOM CASE BEEN RE-OPENED

German Spies Blamed for Fatal Jersey City Munitions Blast.

LEANED U.S. TO WAR.

NEW YORK, April 6.—(AP)—The famous "Black Tom" case, which was partially responsible for United States' plunging into the Great War, has been re-opened.

This was revealed today by the World-Telegram, in a story which said that James Larkin, Irish radical, had made an affidavit on the strength of which the United States has asked the American-German mixed claims commission to re-open its suit against Germany for $40,000000 damages resulting from the Black Tom blast.

The affidavit, the World-Telegram says, Charges German officials with directing sabotage operations in the United States before this country entered the war, and places upon German spies responsibility for the terrific munitions explosion which on June 30, 1916, killed four persons and injured hundreds in Jersey City.

The World-Telegram says the affidavit was signed before the American Consul General in Dublin, and that it is now on fyle with the commission in the State Department building at Washington.

For 17 years, investigators for several nations have been trying to assign culpability for the blast, which caused the American public to feel strong resentment against Germany.

25 p.c. INCREASE IN RELIEF ALLOWANCES

FOUND MERITED THROUGH JUMP IN LIVING COST

Henry Also Announces Road Camp Workers Will Get 25 Cents an Hour.

60 CENTS OFF FOR BOARD.

Boost Affects 13,000 Men—Hope to Have 25,000 in Camps Before Summer.

TORONTO, April 6 (C.P.)—Ontario's relief recipients soon will gain a 25 per cent. increase in the value of their food vouchers and workers in Northern Ontario road camps will receive 25 cents an hour, $8.40 a week, after 60 cents a day for board and lodging is deducted.

Both measures were announced yesterday by Premier Geo. S. Henry, who said the Department of Labor had decided relief food allowances should be increased after a survey in which it found the cost of living had risen. He said the measure would be made effective "as quickly as possible."

Decision of the administration to increase wages in Northern work camps will affect about 13 000 men working on the Trans-Canada Highway and other similar projects, including settlers' roads.

At the same time, Mr Henry said, the Govenrment expected to have 25,000 men at work in the camps before warm weather appears.

Prince Brings Wife For Royal Blessing

CANNES, France, April 5. (AP) Prince Sigvard, who gave up his royal rights to marry a pretty German film player, brought his bride to Cannes to-day for grandfather Gustaf's royal blessing.

A reconciliation with the Swedish King, who has often expressed displeasure at so many marriages in his family with commoners, was expected within 4 hours.

King Gustaf, however, was busy ploying tennis and did not see the young people when they arrived.

The Wrong Man

BALTIMORE, April 6.—(CP)—Mrs. Charles Mitchell was testifying in her suit for divorce. The man in the prisoners' box, shaking as though he had the palsy, pleaded not guilty to the charge of desertion.

"Hey, wait a minute," shouted Mrs. Mitchell. "That's not my husband."

Court attendants rummaged in the bull pen, produced a husband the lady would admit jurisdiction over, and the trial went on.

CHICAGO JUDGE BACKS NUDISTS

Prefers Children See Nude Film to Pictures Like "I'm No Angel."

SCORES MAE WEST.

CHICAGO, April 6 (UP)—Judge Joseph David defended nudism yesterday for those who like it and at the same time criticized Mae West for saying "Come up and see me sometime" in a motion picture.

The judge's remarks, made doubly interesting at one point when he gave a good imitation of Miss West speaking a line, came as he denied a mandamus filed in an effort to keep a nudist picture in circulation.

"What's the use," he asked in effect, "of allowing a nudist picture to continue when a higher court already has ruled against girls wearing shorts on a tennis court?"

Yesterday's writ to keep the nudist picture before the public was filed against city officials who had upheld a ban on such exhibits.

"You know," said David, after ruling against showing of the picture, "no two people will ever quite agree on what's moral or decent.

"I don't think I'll ever join a nudist colony. Yet I saw this picture and I saw nothing immoral, indecent or lascivious about it. . . The people in the picture apparently believed they could gain benefits from exposing their bodies to the sun. . . They paid no attention to the fact that they were exposed. . . The scenes were beautiful. . . . I wouldn't give a dime to see the picture, but I'd rather have adolescent girls and goys see it than see 'I'm no Angel'."

At this point, the judge became indignant.

"Mae West cooing 'How'm I doin' judge'—Disgusting!" He said bitterly. "And that scene in another picture where she says 'Come up and see me sometime?'"

SYRUP SEASON LATE THIS YEAR

Marmora Township Man Has Over 600 Trees Tapped—200 Gallon Feed Tank.

FAVORS GRADE SYSTEM.

MARMORA, April 6 (Examiner Correspondence).—Though unusually late in its arrival, the local syrup season should rank as one of the best in recent years, in the opinion of Earl O'Connor of Marmora Township, one of the leading makers in this district.

Calling upon him on Thursday morning when a good day's flow of sap was apparent, The Examiner representative was informed that he had already tapped 600 trees this season and if weather conditions were favorable, he would be tapping more.

A visit to his evaporation building revealed the care that Mr. O'Connor takes in the filtration of sap and in the refining of syrup. Over his 200-gallon feed tank there is a cotton strainer and every receptacle within the building is kept covered. He only uses the best class of wood for firing and a 20-foot stack carries the smoke to a safe distance.

He uses about fifteen cords of wood on an average season. Last season he claims was the poorest since he went into the business in 1919 following service overseas.

One thing he would favor is the grading of the product; for as he points out, the maker whose only concern is to get his syrup on the market the quickest, sets the price that the maker of the finer product who has been taking the greater care, has to accept.

The society hopes to have congress study the poll, when completed, and designate a national tree.

LONE SURVIVOR FOUND IN WILDS

American Picked Up in Andes by Indians Weeks After Plane Crash.

COMPLETELY EXHAUSTED.

CALI, Colombia, April 6 (AP).—Primitive Indians searching for treasure found Newton C. Marshall, of Milwaukee, Wis., alive the sole survivor of an airplane accident on March 10 in the Bolivar-Valle department which took a reported toll of five lives, an official announcement said.

Weak and ill, Marshall had wandered for weeks through the dense jungles of that mountainous region. Escaping with his life from the wrecked plane, Marshall was saved just in time from a terrifying death in the "jungle hell" from which few white men ever have emerged alive.

Marshall was completely exhausted and found it almost impossible to talk when he was located by a tribe of Indians called the Guaqeros, famed for the use of poison arrows in years gone by.

The Scadta Airline, which owned the plane, rushed a physician and nurse from Cali aboard a special plane, and two employees of the company were sent from Bogota to the region where Marshall was reported located.

Identification was officially made, the announcement stated, through papers and a passport the man was carrying.

Reports from the region stated that the plane was not completely destroyed and that it contained the gold cargo which had been snipped in it, destined for the government mint in Medellin.

When it crashed, the plane was en route from Quibdo to Cartago over the great Choco mining area where gold and platinum often are transported by air.

HENRY DEFENDS ONTARIO DEBTS

Also States Retiring Allowances to be Valid in Future to Needy Magistrate.

REFERS TO McCAUGHRIN.

TORONTO, April 6. (CP). — In future retiring allowances will be voted in the Ontario Legislature for needy magistrates. Premier George S. Henry made this known in an address to the meeting of Todmorden Liberal-Conservatives last night when he defended his government's action in the case of former Magistrate Daniel McCaughrin of Orillia.

Premier Henry declared that in the case of Mr. McCaughrin, who charged two cabinet ministers with attempting to "buy" him out of office, the government could have paid Mr. McCaughrin an allowance direct and cut it off his successor's salary.

"He came to us and said he had made bad investments and had only a small pension which was inadequate" Mr. Henry said. Arrangements were made to help the magistrate who later charged an attempt had been made to "buy" his position.

Premier Henry also maintained that every debt his government had contracted was justified. He said the burden of direct relief was distributed over future years when taxpayers would eb better able to bear the burden. He stated the 1927 debt-retirement scheme was only in abeyance and would be resumed when conditions permitted.

FLIERS PREPARE FOR KING'S CUP

All-British Contest This Year Expected to Draw Record Entry.

OF CIVIL PILOTS.

LONDON, April 6 (CP)—Encouragement by the Air Ministry of the light aeroplane club movement throughout the United Kingdom has given extra impetus to the plans for the civil aircraft race for the King's Cup, July 13 and 14 next. A record entry list is expected.

The King's Cup race will start and finish at Hatfield Aerodrome. The entrant and pilot, or pilots or passengers, must be British subjects. Pilots taking part must have flown solo for at least 100 hours before May 1, 1934.

The race is open to any type of bona fide civil aircraft. The aircraft, including the engine and the engine accessories, must have been entirely constructed in the British Empire. For the purposes of the race, a bona fide civil aircraft is an aircraft which was originally designed and subsequently constructed for use in civil aviation activities.

TOURIST TRADE OFF 100 MILLION FOR PAST YEAR

Dominion Statistics Show Total Spent in 1933 Was $117,214,000.

FEWER DAY VISITS.

Overseas Visitors Contributed $7,763,000—417,132 Canadian Cars Entered U. S.

OTTAWA, April 6 (CP)—Tourists visiting Canada spent $117,214,000 during 1933, a report issued yesterday by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics estimated. This was approximately $100,000,000 less than in 1932.

For the most part travellers in Canada came by motor car, the largest number of automobiles entering at Ontario points. For the year a total of 1,844,643 foreign cars were admitted on 24-hour permits through ports of entry in Ontario, as against 2,497,384 in 1932, and 3,470,589 in the boom year of 1930.

Entries in Quebec numbered 199,313 cars, a reduction of only 23,000 from the previous year. The Maritime Provinces admitted 108,571 as against 234,922. The other provinces had considerably fewer admissions. The total of 24-hour permits for the year was 2,233,318, compared with 3,070,390 for 1932.

863,136 for 60 Days

Permits totalling 863,136 for the year were issued for a period not exceeding 60 days, with Ontario admitted 494,304 of these and Quebec 237,007. This compared with a total of 1,032,967 such permits in 1932.

For a period not exceeding six months, 333 permits were granted, of which 150 were issued at Ontario points and 65 in Quebec.

Tourists from overseas contributed $7,763,000 towards Canada's enrichment in 1933 as again $10,543,000 in 1932.

Canada cars exported for touring purposes to the United States numbered 417,132, an increase from 376,857 in 1932. The World's Fair at Chicago was the "magnet" which drew the Canadians, while the favorable exchange rates were also an important factor, says the Bureau's report. The total expenditures of Canadian automobile tourists were estimated at $24,611,000.

NORTHUMBERLAND REGIMENT IS PRESENTED WITH PROGRESS CUP

Col. R. J. Gill, Brigade Commander, Makes Presentation at Regimental Dinner.

AT COLBORNE.

CAMPBELLFORD, April 6 (Examiner Staff Correspondence). — The Progress Cup, donated by Col. R. J. Gill officer commanding the 9th Infantry Brigade, M.D. 3 was officially presented by him on Wednesday evening to the Northumberland Regiment, winners of the trophy at a regimental banquet held in the Brunswick Hotel Colborne, at which Major Whitelaw, A.D.C. and Lt.-Col. F. Wolfram V.D. one-time officer commanding the regiment, were present. The trophy becomes the permanent property of the regiment.

Receiving the cup on behalf of the unit, Col. H. Sauve, V.D., officer commanding, emphasized the fact that the officers of the regiment had stood behind him splendidly during the past year, and without their support the cup could never have been won. He made special mention of the work done by Major M. Fritz, M.S.C., O.C. B Company, and Captain G. H. Free O.C. C Company, and stressed the fact that Captain C. O'Connor-Fenton's company had improved one hundred per cent. during the past year.

In making the presentation, Col. Gill offered the unit his congratulations on its success, pointing out that the Progress Cup was the best award to win, for it spelt progress all along the line. There was going to be keen competition for the cup next year, he said, and he hoped that each unit in the Brigade would give the others the keenest run possible. He also stressed the benefits derived from regimental meetings, and the advantages of being affiliated with the British Permanent Force, as the Northumberland Regiment is with the Fifth Northumberland Fusiliers.

Major Whitelaw, in a short address, told the officers that the Progress Cup was the best one to win and was the prize cup of the competition. "Very often," he said, "a battalion will win a first prize cup because it has better facilities along certain lines, but the winners of Progress Cups were the best units."

The records this year of units in the Kingston district were very good, he stated, even under the very trying circumstances. He felt proud to be associated with them and he was especially pleased at the showing the Northumberland Regiment had made.

"Simply because I came as a representative of the Northumberland Regiment of Canada, no stone was left unturned to show me hospitality." In this simple phrase, Captain T. S. Boyle, D.D., chaplain of the regiment, described his trip to England last year, when he had visited the Fifth Fusiliers as envoy from the Canadian unit. From the first time of landing in London, officers of the regiment had shown that splendid hospitality to him as a representative of the Canadian Northumberlands, that the speaker declared there was no hospitality like that of the English.

Dr. Boyle also spoke of the tradition of that land, where even though officers drop out of the military game, they never lose their love for it or the unit which is theirs. He believed this should also be the spirit of the Canadian officers. "I think as officers of the Northumberland Regiment—a militia unit, we are just the best unit of the lot," the speaker declared.

Captain A. R. Wilmot expressed the pleasure of the officers at the address given by Captain Boyle.

MILLBROOK CAR UPSET IN DITCH

F. A. Kidd and Children Escape Injury On Hill.

DRIVER OVERCOME

MILLBROOK, April 6 (Examiner Correspondence)—F. A. Kidd and his family, Miss Phyllis, Kenneth and Jackie, met with what might have proved a very serious accident while driving to Peterborough early on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Kidd was at the wheel and apparently took a weak turn, driving too close to the shoulder of the road. The car suddenly went into the ditch at the foot of the hill east of the village just beyond the John Thompson farm, and turned over on its side. Fortunately none of the occupants was hurt, though a window of the car, which was otherwise damaged, had to be broken to permit those inside to get out.

Mr. Kidd has no recollection of what actually happened, but was able to drive the car home under its own power when assistance had been given by a Millbrook garage.

Suffering from nervous shock, and the sudden weakness which resulted in the accident, on arrival at his own home Mr. Kidd has since been in bed pending recovery from the unfortunate happening.

CHALLENGE OF PRESENT DAY

MEN'S CLUB SPEAKER.

CAMPBELLFORD, April 6 (By Examiner Staff Correspondent). — The challenge of the present day as it confronts every man, and the need for a new sense of balance and responsibility, formed the theme of a very impressive and instructive talk delivered last evening at Campbellford by the Rev. S. Hill of Hastings, when he featured as the guest speaker at a dinner meeting of the Men's Club of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church.

The banquet, which was catered to by the ladies of the W.M.S., was largely attended; Ross Douglas, the congenial president, being the chairman for the evening. The guest speaker was introduced by Dr. O. C. Watson, who paid a glowing tribute to the good work being done by Mr. Hill in his Hastings charge. The gathering indulged in community singing, led by E. H. Lewis; the accompanist for the evening being Mrs. E. H. Lewis, church organist. Mr. Lewis also rendered a vocal solo.

The challenge of the present day faces every man living, Mr. Hill declared. It was good to be alive; it was good to render service to God and humanity, especially to God; for we are the instruments through which he moves and works and speaks. To-day, the speaker said, we had created many horses, for it was a materialistic age, and the difficulty was to find the riders for the horses. We did not want to go back to the old days, for we are too progressive for that; but if we are to meet the challenge which is offered for us to-day, there were two things necessary for us.

The first of these, said Mr. Hill, was a new sense of balance. We have commercialized life and its issues. We have commercialized sport. We have advanced so far with the secularization of life that we have lost our sense of the values of life, and the one cry is "What is there in it?" To get the true value of life, the speaker said, we must see the value of humanity. We must put a new value on the life of man, and we must conserve that life. We must get into our minds that man has a supreme value above the material; we must get the ideal of brotherhood and realize fully the real need and significance of love; for that was the real value of the human life and the ideal of it.

And we must have a sense of responsibility, Mr. Hill declared. This was one thing that in the past we had shirked, but to-day, with all the many difficulties and dangers confronting us, which at times seem almost like a blank wall, we must be out to win the day, and to play the man. In the past, many of us had been playing the part of very small men, with our little dislikes and evasions. "Let us assume our responsibilities and have a new consciousness of right," the speaker pleaded, "then we will move forward into a greater era of prosperity."

A vote of thanks to the guest speaker was moved by Frank Whitton and M. Peeling, and appreciation of the efforts of the ladies voiced by Frank Taylor and Fred Clark, both of which were passed on by the president.

Dr. L. Stevenson of O.A.C. Addresses Centreville Farmers.

CENTREVILLE, April 6. — Mr. Sherman Cooper met with a very painful accident on Monday afternoon in his chopping mill. While working a band saw his right hand came in contact with the saw and was terribly mangled. He was taken to Cobourg hospital for treatment, and it is feared he may lose two of his fingers.

South Monaghan Township Council sponsored a dance on Tuesday night in the Municipal Hall, in aid of relief. There was a large attendance, a pleasant time, Red Moncrief orchestra furnishing the music.

A meeting of special interest to farmers was held in the Municipal Hall Wednesday in connection with the Department of Agriculture of Ontario and under the supervision of Mr. E. A. Summers, representative for Durham County.

The address was given by Dr. Stevenson, Provincial zoologist, who discussed the life history of the warble fly and the bot fly. By means of charts, he showed the destructive work of these flies, and the proper methods for their extermination. The address was very instructive, and all present decided they would co-operate and endeavor to destroy these flies. Men were appointed to further this movement.

The Women's Missionary Society met on Wednesday afternoon. After singing a hymn, Rev. D. A. McKenzie offered prayer, and Mrs. Harold Tate read the Scripture lesson. Miss Evelyn Donaldson read an interesting account of the Deaconess' library and supply work. Rev. D. A. McKenzie gave a talk on home missions, after which the meeting closed with hymns and prayer.

The Ladies' Aid Society met and elected Mrs. James Whittington president; Mrs. George Bonner, Mrs. James Hutchison and Miss Evelyn Donaldson vice-presidents.

TWEED, April 6. — (Examiner Correspondence.)—Had it not been for the prompt assistance rendered by neighbors, the home of Mr. Andrew Doran near the Sulphide road, might have been destroyed by fire, which it is believed had its origin in a defective chimney. Neighbors formed a bucket brigade, while residents of Tweed arrived with fire extinguishers and helped to quell the flames. Some damage was done to the plaster by water.

Mrs. Harford Tufts met with a painful accident at her home when she fell on the ice and fractured her ankle. The fracture was reduced by Dr. Dales and a plaster cast applied.

FRIDAY, APRIL 6, 1934

UNDOUBTEDLY THERE'S TO BE AN ELECTION.

Recent actions of the Ontario Government should certainly leave no doubt as to the fact that a provincial election is just around the corner.

Tremendous activity in road building, contemplated increases in the rate of pay for the men at highway relief camps and the announcement of a twenty-five per cent. increase in relief allowances are part of the evidence that an appeal to the country is close at hand, and that the Government is endeavoring to create a favorable atmosphere for itself before it takes the plunge.

It may be said that when an election comes in at the door economy flies out of the window, and that would certainly seem to be the case in Ontario at the present time.

All pretence at saving money has apparently been abandoned; the Government will soon be looking for votes, and lavish spending of public money is an old and tried election expedient that in the past has often proven decidedly effective.

There are, of course, thousands of voters in the road camps and on the relief lists, and while the fact that the increases in pay and allowances now announced have come on the eve of an election may be only a coincidence, realists will have considerable difficulty in persuading themselves that the Government's present generosity with the people's own money has not been calculated to improve the chances of the administration's return to power.

A NEW THEORY.

A good way to obtain new and original angles on history is to listen to or read political campaign speeches.

The other night, for example, an Ontario audience was gravely informed that the tariff policy of the present Federal Government was responsible for the fact that France and Italy are now growing more wheat than Canada.

That is a new and a novel theory.

We had always had the impression that it was the Great War that caused European nations to become conscious of the desirability of rendering themselves independent in the matter of food supply, and that they started in right after the conflict to grow enough wheat to take care of themselves.

We had also obtained the idea somewhere that this movement on the part of European countries took on fresh momentum about the time the Canadian wheat pool and Canadian wheat producers generally attempted to secure a higher price for their grain than the rest of the world thought was right.

All that, of course, took place long before the present Government was entrusted with the responsibilities of office, so that it is a bit surprising at this stage to hear a politician seriously contend that a development that began fifteen or sixteen years ago and has been expanding ever since is the fruit of the policies of the administration now in power at Ottawa.

Sometimes when we read such stuff we wonder if our political leaders—of all parties—credit the public with even a minimum amount of common sense.

LOCATING CRIPPLED CHILDREN.

The announcement that next week is to be observed as Ontario Crippled Children Week, and that a systematic effort is to be made to get into touch with children throughout the province who might be helped or cured if the necessary treatment were provided, should be of general interest.

It is hoped that the parents of such children will realize the importance of giving their handicapped little ones a fresh chance in life, and that they will not hesitate to write to Ontario Crippled Children Week, 5 Queen's Park, Toronto, for information.

There are 90 voluntary service organizations in Ontario whose principal contribution to community welfare is the care of crippled children, and a report presented to the Provincial Depart ment of Public Welfare by the Ontario Society for Crippled Children shows that 1,593 little cripples received treatment last year.

This service was made possible by the generous action of such agencies as the service clubs, the Red Cross Society and the Shrine. Each case was investigated and assistance was provided only where the parents could not finance the treatment.

It will be readily admitted that every child has the right to look forward to a happy, useful and independent life, but if he grows up with a serious handicap this may be impossible.

Most crippled children can be helped if their case receives attention soon enough so that early diagnosis and treatment are essential.

That is the object behind next week's campaign, and it is hoped that by means of this special effort every uncared for crippled child in the province located.

THE SPEED LIMIT COMES BACK.

The persistent agitation in certain quarters for the abolition of the automobile speed limit in Ontario will be perceptibly slowed up, it is to be imagined, by he announcement that Great Britain, after a long trial of the no-limit system, has decided to re-establish the speed limit within specified suburban areas.

Fatal accidents have increased in the United Kingdom to such an extent that the Government, recognizing the fact that high speed has been a prominent factor in this unfortunate condition, has been forced to take action.

Statistics for 1933 reveal the fact that British motor accidents took a toll of 7,200 lives last year, as compared with 6,667 in 1932, and that the total of injured climbed from 206,450 to 216,328.

With a death rate of almost twenty a day for each day in the year, it has become necessary to deal with the situation and to attempt to check the rapid increase in the number of fatal accidents, and the first step in this campaign has been the decision to restore the speed limit.

Ontario motorists who have been pressing for speed restrictions to be taken off in this province and have been accustomed to quote the British regulation in support of their claim will be deprived of one of their favorite arguments.

Britain gave the no-limit plan a faithful trial, but a rising tide of automobile fatalities and the multitude of evidence that fast driving accounted for a large proportion of these deaths, have led to a curb on speeding.

Ontario has been well advised to retain a regulation that has at least served as a partial check on fast driving.

THE STRANGE CASE OF JAMES FAHEY.

In 1916 James Lawrence Fahey was married to a school teacher in Western Canada. Since then he has lived a decent life, is the father of three children, has been a resident of Jasper, Alta., for ten years, and is highly regarded there. Recently he was arrested for trespassing in the National Park, and was fingerprinted. Those fingerprints showed afterward that he had escaped from Leavenworth prison in Kansas 22 years ago, having been sent there for complicity in mail robbery. That part of his life he had never told to his wife. Fahey now faces deportation to United States where he may be again placed in prison for the remainder of his days.

Fahey says he was born in Michigan 46 years ago, but left there with his parents when 12 years of age for Spokane, Wash., where he started to chum with boys who were of poor repute as he afterward found out. When he was 19 he went to Omaha, Neb., and one of his friends asked him to go with him to call for a parcel. They got the parcel and were returning on a street car when policemen entered and placed him under arrest. The parcel contained the loot secured when the mail was robbed, although Fahey says he did not know there had been a robbery and had no knowledge of the contents of the bundle. At the trial which followed he was sentenced to spend the rest of his life in Leavenworth prison. After being there a short time there was a riot and a jail delivery and Fahey was one of those who got away. Eventually he made his way to Canada. According to his statement, he said he realized fully that he had been off to the worst possible start, and he desired nothing more than an opportunity to start again and live decently.

Residents of Jasper, headed by the Chamber of Commerce, are doing what they can to save James Fahey from being sent to Leavenworth. They have forwarded a petition to President Roosevelt, admitting in so doing that they are exhibiting presumption in such a course. The Women's Institute has written to the President's wife asking that she do what she can to save this family.

Strange case. James Fahey was sent to prison for two reasons, for punishment and for the protection of society. According to the law of justice he should be sent back to the prison from which he escaped. The fact that Fahey claims he was innocent of the charge against him is something on which one could not well pass opinion, although we have no reason to doubt his claim of innocence.

Back of all this, though, there is something else. Men are also sent to prison to reform them. That may be theory, but if so it is one which is often stated and recognized in a general way. As we see it there are two features which demand attention: (1) the demands of justice which claim that Fahey shall go back to the prison from which he escaped 22 years ago, and (2) the fact that Fahey is not now the type of man who needs to be sent to prison. He has proved that he realized the error he made; he has lived decently; he is a good husband and a father, and that is subscribed to by those who have known him for a good many years.

We cannot point to any chapter or clause in a law book which would say that James Fahey ought to be allowed to stay with his wife and children, and we do not know of any constitutional grounds or international arrangement which might be brought to the attention of President Roosevelt to move him to use his office to see that James Fahey is pardoned. And yet there is that human instinct which would not be satisfied were James Fahey taken from his Canadian home and again placed in Leavenworth prison. If such a thing were done it would seem that there was something seriously lacking in the process. It would appear that the letter of the law was the one thing above all else which was worthy of observance; when it was satisfied and had taken its toll then nothing else mattered. The idea of mercy seasoning justice would be lifted in its entirety from the picture. And there is something in that which does not seem right.

Rightly or wrongly we believe the wife and the children of James Fahey, the efforts of James Fahey himself to go straight and live down the past—all these things can well be thrown into the balance in determining the proper course and the right course. In many ways the demands of mercy and of justice in the case of James Fahey are well spoken in the court scene of Shakespeare's Merchant of Venice:

> But mercy is above this sceptred sway;
> It is enthroned in the hearts of kings,
> It is an attribute to God himself;
> And earthly power doth then show likest God's
> When mercy seasons justice.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENT.

Much new business for Canadian industrial plants is reported. That is the kind of medicine that will soon set the country on its feet again.

When Premier Doumergue of France starts out to cut down the overhead he does not believe in using half-way measures, even in the face of a possible country-wide strike.

Heavy artillery is to be moved into South Oxford for the federal by-election, in spite of the fact that nothing is at stake but a little party prestige.

Mr. Hepburn says that he does not attend receptions given by the Governor-General because he is a "true democrat." It would seem that the Ontario Liberal leader is confusing democracy with demagoguery.

There are to be nudist camps in seventeen different American states this summer, and no doubt the passenger departments of the railways will be glad to furnish more definite information.

STORM DRIFT

By ETHEL M. DELL

CHAPTER 31

The London streets were more animated than the suburban ones they left behind, and they were soon compelled to slacken speed. But still the sense of being hastened to a bourne of which Tiggie knew nothing persisted with him. He had, as it were, stepped from the path of ordinary happenings into a vehicle which, all its ramshackle qualities notwithstanding, would ultimately deposit him—and his silent, almost wraith-like companion—in a sphere where nothing normal could ever happen again.

Throughout what seemed an unending journey these weird ideas ran wildly through his brain, and he was at a loss to cope with them. He could only, as it were, steer his craft head on to the waves and trust sooner or later to find a safe haven for them both.

Now and then in the better-lighted streets he took a glance at the still figure huddled away from him in the corner; but he gathered no satisfaction therefrom. For Viola's head was bent forward upon her breast and her face almost hidden by the upstanding collar of the dark cloak in which she had wrapped herself. Those brief glimpses afforded him no inkling of what was passing in her mind, and presently, disheartened, he abandoned them. It was evidently kinder to leave her alone.

The journey came to an end at last. The taxi bumped and jarred to a standstill, and the roar of a London terminus arose around them.

Tiggie spoke, veiling his persisting embarrassment in a wholly unconscious doggedness. "Here we are! Don't fade away! Jst wait for me while I see to things!"

She raised her head with a half-startled movement, but she said nothing. He opened the door and got out, and she meekly followed, wrapping her cloak more closely round her. She made no attempt to fade while he overpaid the driver and took possession of the modest little suitcase she had brought with her. But there was still to his mind something oddly unreal about her, so that he almost wondered if any besides himself were aware of her presence.

The driver's jovial voice wishing them both luck dispelled the wonder, and he turned his back upon the well-wisher with some abruptness.

He addressed her again, still with that semi-growing curtness. "Come along! I'll get a room for you."

"A room!" she echoed the word blankly on a small gasp of surprise.

He responded bluntly. "Yes. We're not going down tonight. But don't worry! It's all right."

She gave no hint of worrying, yet he had a feeling as though at his words she withdrew more deeply into herself, avoiding discussion. Silently she turned beside him. They entered the great hotel, and the roar and commotion died behind them. The quiet that succeeded was like the muffling fall of a curtain, producing almost a sense of shock. Tiggie went straight forward to the office, leaving her standing alone.

He had scarcely reached it, however, when he received a tap on the shoulder. Turning sharply he perceived Harvey. "Hullo!" he said, staring. In his absorption he had almost forgotten Harvey.

The artist's shrewd eyes smiled their slightly malicious comprehension. "It's all right," he said. "Everything's O. k. I'll register for you. You take her upstairs—rooms on the third floor. The porter knows."

He realized that his supporter had been occupying himself to some purpose since their parting a few hours previously, and a sense of relief came upon him restoring his self-assurance. Harvey was real, eccentricity notwithstanding, and the solid feeling of being backed by him made the venture less preposterous.

He went back to his waiting protege with a considerably lightened heart. "Come along!" he said. "You're tired. You'll be glad to get up to your room."

The words were conventionally uttered, and she received them with a non-committal murmur. But the aloofness—that atmosphere of mystery—that hung about her did not alter, and as they went up in the lift together he found himself wondering if when they reached the top she would still be there.

Then they had arrived and were walking down a long passage after the porter who finally flung open a door and piloted them into a bedroom in which he dumped the suitcase he was carrying with the remark, "Your luggage is in the room next door, sir, end of passage."

With the words he strode out and they stood alone while he tramped back along the corridor to the lift and took himself down to the lower regions.

Tiggie drew a hard breath and looked at her. Yes, she was still there, but so white, so remote, so spiritual, that she might have been a far-off cloud on a dim horizon.

"Well!" he said.

She turned towards him submissively, as if he had given an order. Her eyes were downcast. She spoke no word.

Tiggie glanced around. "Think you'll be comfortable?" he said.

Her throat moved spasmodically. She answered after a moment with obvious effort. "Oh, yes—of course!"

Tiggie, still investigating, suddenly spied a door that evidently gave entrance to the next room. He surveyed it with a doubtful eye, as though uncertain of its intentions. "I don't know what they did that for," he remarked. "Do you mind it?"

Again she seemed to hesitate, and impulsively he turned round to her, his honest face glowing.

"I say, don't be upset!" he pleaded. "It's all right. Take my word for it! Really it's all right."

She made a gesture as though to stay his words. Her ghastly pallor suddenly seemed to force itself upon his notice. What had he been about not to see it before?

He snatched at a chair and pushed it towards her. "Sit down!" he said. "I'll get you something."

She sank down weakly, but in the same moment she stretched out a trembling hand to stay him. "Please wait! Please wait! Don't go down yet!"

He bent over her, every generous instinct awakened by her need. "It's all right," he said again. "There! Just lean against me till you feel better!"

She relaxed with a faint sob. Her face in the glaring electric light made him think of a charcoal picture drawn upon white paper, so black were its shadows. Her eyes were almost closed, but as he watched her, wondering if she would faint, they opened and were raised to his. Their poignant sadness pierced straight to his soul. He felt as though he gazed into unfathomable depth.

With a faint sigh she spoke, her words scarcely more than a whisper. "Tiggie, I want to tell you something—something you'll hardly believe. I ought to have told you sooner, only, you said the past didn't matter—and I—almost—believed you."

"I'll say it again then," said Tiggie stubbornly. "It doesn't."

Her hands moved up his arm. She was clinging to him now like a frightened child. "No! Listen!" she said. "If I don't tell you—someone else will. That man downstairs who spoke to you just now—he knows."

"Who? Harvey? Oh!" Enlightenment came suddenly to Tiggie. "Yes, of course. He told me so. But he doesn't matter. No one ever takes any notice of him."

"What—did he tell you?" Her white lips spoke stiffly; her whole frame had stiffened to rigidity.

Tiggie answered her soothingly. "I really hardly remember. I don't pay much attention to him. He saw you dancing in some show once. That was all he said. But I shouldn't have listened if he'd said more than that. Don't worry so! There's no need."

She hid her face on her arms with a low moan. Her words came muffled, so that he had to bend low to hear them. "No—he wouldn't tell you. He's too kind-hearted. He tried to help me—tried to get me away. He wanted me for a model, but I was afraid of him. He was so odd. I never quite trusted him. Afterwards—afterwards—I wished I had."

"Never mind!" said Tiggie gently. "Never mind!"

She made a spasmodic movement, as though refusing the relief he sought to offer. Her voice had a strangled sound as of suppressed weeping. "No, I'll tell you now. It's better you should know. You may have heard of the child-dancer called Le Reve. They called me that. I wasn't 18 when I had my first success. I'd run away from Philip. He was tyrannical to me, and I wanted to be independent. Everything seemed easy at first—too easy—and I suppose it turned my head. I wasn't a child for long." She paused a moment bowing her head a little lower. He almost hoped she lacked the strength to continue, but quickly she recovered it, forcing herself to continue. "I don't know how to tell you, but I want you to know. I was caught—trapped in a den of evil, through my own folly. I only saved myself at last by running away. It was my own fault of course, but I was young, and I didn't know—what a dreadfully wicked place the world is. When I did realize—I nearly died." Her hands closed faster upon Tiggie. It was like the clutch of a drowning person. Her voice was no more than a gasping whisper now; yet her words reached him. "I got ill, broke down—nearly starved. It was then that he—John Norman—came. He offered me deliverance—marriage. It seemed the only thing left. I hadn't the strength to go on, and my place was filled. So I agreed. He took me to a lawyer's office and we were married. We went straight to India. He was very kind to me. I thought we were going to be happy. And then—I found he was a drunkard."

"You poor child!" Tiggie said with deep compassion.

She raised her head slightly. "How nice of you—to say that! Don't you think I deserved it? I do. It was all—payment. One never stops paying when once one has gone wrong, does one? So I just went on paying, till one night—more than two years after—he flung it at me when he was drunk that—our marriage was a bogus one and—and . . ." Her words began to trip over each other—became piteous inarticulate sounds.

(By Marshall Maslin.)

THE OLD MASCULINE SUPERIORITY

A man and a woman sitting on the train....She's working at a cross-word puzzle in a newspaper. He's not doing anything. She works away writing letters in little squares, now puzzled, now relieved—you know how people are when they are working on one of those things ...But finally she's "stuck". There's a long word she doesn't know, can't guess, can't work out through clues from adjacent letters....And after an interval she appeals to her husband for help.

Sure, he'll help. He takes the paper, squares his shoulders, settles into the seat, studies the puzzle, knits his brow, thinks, scowls, and finally discovers the right word.... He smiles, writes in the word, is proud of himself....But does he give the puzzle back to the lady? Not so you can notice it. It's his now, by right of finding the right word. He keeps it, continues with the puzzle, plugs ahead....But at last, he too, is stumped. He can't think of a ten-letter word for "domestic tranquility." He scratches his left ear, he pushes back his hat, he grunts, he growls, he looks around desperately, disgustedly, he doesn't ask her for help, HE GIVES UP.

Strips the paper apart, gives her the page with the cross-word puzzle on it, settles down into the sports section, and doesn't want anything said about it....She doesn't say anything, either, but her eyes twinkle, and she resumes her work on the puzzle....It has happened before, it will happen again. She knows it will. But she doesn't mind it a bit. She is amused at the man. She knows him through and through. She looks up to him at times, but she also looks down upon him at other times, tenderly, understandingly, as if he were a petulant child....She recognizes the old Masculine Superiority when she sees it. Every woman does....It's one thing that every woman knows. Even little girls learn it soon and take that attitude toward the boasting little boys. Just a matter of observaion and undersanding, that's all....And that's what they mean when they say to each other, "Isn't that just like a man?"

Certainly it is. I'll admit it. Any man will, if you catch him in the proper mood. And any man will deny it hotly, if you try to pin him down at the wrong moment....Don't I know? Absolutely.

Voice of the People

A CHANCE TO EARN

To the Editor of The Examiner,

Dear Sir—Thanks to the letter of the Advisory Committee of Citizens to the unemployed we have arrived at the end of our journey which is just exactly where we began. The committee says that relief must end presumably from lack of funds and that the unemployed must find employment, even no doubt if the wages are much lower than before. Now this jolt for the unemployed is not so serious as it looks. Wages were always considered in terms of what they could buy and if what they will buy has come down in price, as it certainly has done, then wages can come down without doing the wage earner any injustice. And that is just what Japan has done. She has lowered everything which makes it just the same as before for those at home but it has put Japan in command of the world markets of the world.

Meanwhile let us get plots for the unemployed and give them a chance to earn their own relief. Is there no one to take this matter up? Moreover, governments should be made to understand that this matter is not local and therefore municipal and national and therefor governmental.

A Thought

SELF-CONTROL

We have need not only to watch, but to keep up a strong habit of self-control. How it is that every act we do leaves upon us its impression, we know not; but the scars and the seams of our bodily frame may warn us of the havoc sin makes in our unseen nature. The current of our thoughts, the wandering of our imaginations, the tumult of our passions, the flashes of our temper, all the movements and energies of our moral being, leave some mark, with some springing grace, strengthen some struggling fault, decide some doubtful bias, aggravate some growing proneness, and always leave us other and worse than we were before. This is ever going on. By its own continual acting, our fearful and wondering inward nature is perpetually fixing its own character. It has a power of self-determination, which, to those who give over watching and self-control, becomes soon unconscious, and at last involuntary. How carelessly men treat themselves.—Manning.

April Musings

The 1934 American League race is going to give Mr. B. B. Fan many a thrill. He's going to see plenty of closely contested games unless correspondent is mistaken. The clubs, from all appearances, are more evenly matched than they have been for years and it is a sure thing that the pennant won't be decided in July.

× × ×

Since the retrenchment measures taken by the Philadelphia Athletics many of the weaker teams have been strengthened considerably. Chicago, Detroit and Boston have profited by the breakdown of Connie Mack's team and with this added power they must be considered as threats for the first division.

* * *

Although the Washington Senators led the parade in 1933, it is by no means a good bet that they will repeat.

* * *

And so, Mr. Fan, it's going to be a rip snortin' flag chase and you're bound to get your money's worth.

Foreign Affairs

The Nazi Policy is to Widespread a Campaign of Terror No Less Cruel Than That Prevailing in Germany.

(By R. W. L. MAHOOD)

POLAND

Poland has trouble aplenty without Nazi dissension. From Russian and German overlordship to freedom and self government is a long mile. Paderewski has grown prematurely old with responsibility and citizen contention. Secretly the Nazis crept into Poland. Secretly they organized for aggressive procedure. Before Poland had awakened to the danger there were 20,000 Polish Nazis. Nazi literature was printed in the Polish language and secretly disseminated. The converts were organized into Brown Shirts. And they wore the brown shirts. In another part of Poland the Purple Shirts society was organized. In still another part, the Yellow Shirts.

Penetration by The Nazis.

In that part of Poland which was German before the Great War, the Nazis organized the German National Socialist party. In parts that were wholly Polish in sentiment, Polish National Socialist parties were organized. Where there was considerable democratic persuasion the Nazi propagandists had the audacity to organize National Hitler Democratic parties. All of these Nazi parties have been outlawed in Kattowisce and in Polish Upper Silea. So persistent is the Nazi spirit that it still continues to secretly function in these parts of Poland.

Strong measures have been taken by the government against the Hitler Democrats. The loyal Poles dub them Endexs. The Hitler Democrats had a militia of ten thousand. Swallow that, ye lovers of freedom. Look for more about Poland in this column.

SWITZERLAND

Switzerland is a little country. Despotisms surrounded this diminutive land for centuries. The Swiss are a rugged people. Their mountain fastnesses have been held successfully against all odds. Their free institutions have been maintained in the face of government changes elsewhere. Scotland and Switzerland are the most picturesque countries in the world. Scotland folks are as rugged as any on earth. Andrew Carnegie once in New York City gave an address to the St. Andrew's Society. He said of the Scots: For a livelihood they have been forced to plow upon the sea and reap upon the crag. Their lives are an unceasing struggle.

No Place Sacred to the Nazis.

Into both these countries have gone the Nazi propagandists. In Switzerland there are 2,800,000 Germans. For them, this is a hot bed. To attact attention, and to enlist German storm troops have staged demonstrations along the Swiss border. Part of the German boundary is Switzerland. These storm troops have ventured across the international line and have captured Swiss residents. The New York Herald of August 28 declares this violation of Swiss soil is a weekly occurrence. In Canada, this would be protested as kidnapping. Serious complications would arise. It would be challenged. International law would be in voked. Impossible it seems to believe that the Nazi could make any impression on the Swiss people. An ex-General in the Swiss army, Sonderegger, is the leader of the National Front, a Nazi organization. Another group of Nazis, the Eidgenosson, does not hide its admiration for Hitler. Nor does it hide the fact that it receives financial help from Germany. This group wears the Swastika emblem. If Germany did not spend so much for propaganda it could well afford to pay off its war debts.

BELGIUM

Dinasa Party is the name through which the Nazi operate in Belgium. If the Nazi can get rooted in Belgium it can almost anywhere; the people have not been inoculated against the deadly social and political disease germ. Dinasa is an abbreviated term. Lengthened out it means German National Solidarity. The subtle appeal is evident. Of course, the Belgae are of the same ethnic strain as the Germanic. Many Belgians have, in the face of a sacred violated treaty by Germany, been persuaded to join this Dinasa Party.

Dinasa is anti-Semetic. The Belgians are not anti-Semetic. Belgium has been a refuge for persecuted Jews. Dissention has already been aroused by the hostility of the Flemish. The Dinasa has advised the Flemings to fight for independence. The situation is much like that in Ireland. But the Flemings have no Valera. Here is hoping that none such will arise to complicate the internal affairs of Belgium. Belgium suffered beyond endurance in the Great War. Through the machinations of Germany she is now called upon to bear the possibility of being torn to pieces.

To further complicate matters, another organization has been set in motion. It is for Flemings alone. The pompous name is The Maximalist Flemish Party. The inspiration to organize came from Germany. The party has demanded absolute independence from Belgium. To handle the situation the young and newly-crowned king will have no small task. The reader will recall that there was some danger when the young king ascended the throne of a revolution. The danger was real. The revolutionary force was not sufficiently equipped for a show-down. But in numbers it is strong enough to make the path thorny for the Young King of Belgium.

SHIP LINES SUE MONTREAL FOR LOW LACHINE LEVELS

MONTREAL, April 6 (C.P.).— Separate suits against the city of Montreal and the Dufresne Construction Company for damages totalling $75,000 were instituted in Superior Court here to-day by the Canada Steamship Lines and the Tree Navigation Company, Limited.

The two companies charged fault and negligence either on the part of the city or the construction company allowed the Wellington Tunnel under Lachine Canal to be flooded, lowering the water level in the canal, and causing a general stoppage of traffic which resulted in loss of cargo, damage to property, and loss of life.

The Canada Steamship Line is seeking $64,792, while the Tree Line seeks $10,986. The hearing was adjourned sine die.

WINNIPEG, April 6 (C.P.).—With its credit exhausted and no funds to conduct its operations further, the Winnipeg School Board to-day conferred with the City Council's Finance Committee in an effort to clear up the situation.

Airmen Fly To Australia Surveying Air Race Route

DARWIN, Australia, April 6 (CP Cable via Reuters).—Completing a flight from England in 15 days, B. Rubens and K. Waller, Australian and English airmen, arrived to-day at this northern Australian outpost.

Their flight, which took a week longer than the record of 6 days and 17 hours, set last year by Captain T. P. Ulm, was in the nature of a survey of the long route in preparation for the great London to Melbourne air race, which is to be run in October, in connection with the celebration of the centenary of Victoria State.

LIGHT SELL-OFF IN INDUSTRIALS

Losses Limited in Majority of Cases to Small Fractions in To-day's Session.

LIGHT TRADING VOLUME

TORONTO, April 6.—(CP)—Mild liquidating on a thin buying demand resulted in a moderately lower price range today on the industrial section of the Toronto Stock Exchange. Losses were limited in the majority of cases to small fractions, and volume was down generally, Ford A showing the only turnover of importance. The motor car stock was in strong demand at an advance of about a point.

Metal and oil shares perked up a little in the last hour, Nickel pushing up 25 cents to 17.90 and Smelters recovering to close unchanged at 169. Supertest ordinary came to life again and advanced to 25¼, up 1⅞ on small turnover. International Pete closed unchanged at 24.

Trading was only fair in the Distillery group and the close was narrowly lower for Distilers Seagrams and Industrial Alcohol, while Walkers common closed unchanged at 45.

LATE RALLY CUTS MORNING SETBACKS

Mining Section Takes Upward Swing After Barrage of Profit-taking.

TORONTO, April 6 (CP)—The mining section of the Toronto Stock Exchange dug in early this afternoon after slipping for a day and a half under a barrage of profit-taking, and in the last hour a general swing upward took place, the move erasing most of the morning losses and showing net gains in spots. The oils again were the leads, but Noranda was a strong spot in the base metals, chalking up a gain of $1 to $2.25. Silvers were quiet and steady.

Lake Shore gained 75 cents; Dome closed unchanged, and Hollinger, McIntyre, Teck and Hargreaves were still off a little at the close, but up substantially from the morning lows. Hudson Bay, Falconbridge, Sherritt and Sudbury Basin all closed a little higher than on Thursday.

PORT DALHOUSIE CHIEF BADLY BEATEN BY 2 MEN

ST. CATHARINES, Ont., April 6 (C.P.). — Chief of Police Edward Heckadon, of Port Dalhousie, was brutally assaulted during the night by two men. He was knocked unconscious and suffered extensive bruises about the face. He is resting at his home to-day, his face terribly swollen and discolored and both eyes almost shut. Fred Seaburn, 31, Port Dalhousie, is under arrest and the second man is being sought.

"I saw two men carrying a jug of wine," he told the Canadian Press this morning. "I went across the road and I remember taking the jug away from them. I had no idea there was going to be any trouble. That is the last I remember."

Witnesses and Police Are Charged With Protecting Condemned Man

HALIFAX, April 6.—(CP)—A charge that "every one of the witnesses, including the whole police force of the town of Glace Bay, was trying to protect Walter Wilkinson at his trial for murder" was levelled today before the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia by Crown Prosecutor M. A. Patterson of Cape Breton.

The accusation was made as the lawyer argued against the appeal of Wilkinson, convicted at Sydney of murdering his sister-in-law, Mrs. Winifred Wilkinson, and sentenced to be hanged May. 17.

The woman was killed last fall as she sat in a neighbor's home after fleeing from her own residence in night attire. Evidence of the neighbor, Mrs. Helen McLeod, formed the chief grounds upon which the defence has carried its appeal to the full bench. Defence counsel claim Mr. Justice W. F. Carroll should not have allowed her to testify before the petit jury as a conversation with Mrs. Wilkinson a few minutes before the young bride was shot.

narvon, who paid for the excavation work and is generally counted as the discoverer," said Dr. Secretan. An Egyptologist states that as Lord Carnarvon was descending into the tomb with a bird on his shoulder, as a test for the presence of poisonous gases, a snake snatched away the bird and disappeared among the masonry though no crack was visible. Soon after this, Lord Carnarvon fell ill from the bite of a poisonous insect in Egypt, as many assert, and died within 24 hours. We know that two of the men on the list who committed suicide, definitely believed a curse had fallen on them. To those who believe in the occult and the supernatural, these tragedies are directly traceable to the curse pronounced by the ancient Egyptian priests upon any who disturbed the remains of the dead Pharaoh."

Symptoms the Same

Only indirectly, Dr. Secretan confessed, have he and his wife heard that the former Canadian girl now believes that there may have been a "curse." "I think she would be very apt to think so," he said. "She was always very much interested in that sort of thing." Dr. Secretan also recalled how Prof. Theodore La Fleur of McGill University, Montreal, died while on a visit of scientific research to the Pharaoh's last resting place. His symptoms were similar to those of Lord Carnarvon and Arthur Weigall.

Dr. Secretan and his wife sympathize very much with Mrs. Weigall in her loss. "They were very close to each other," Dr. Secretan explained. "He used to write all the lyrics for her music. She was a gifted musician and composer and composed all the music for Beatrice Lillie's famous stage success, 'Charlot's Review'. He also decorated her music room in their home at the Haymarket in London. He was a noted interior decorator as a hobby."

circles under his eyes. He held on to the table as he stood beside it. Nothing ever disturbed me more. I suggested he should go outside. Mrs. X. said he could not stand the sun—that he collapsed if exposed to it."

The witness said she had never seen such a home in such deplorable condition before. She had entered homes where the odor was worse but the dirt was never so prevalent.

"Would you suggest that the children should be taken away from their parents by the Children's Aid Society," asked the commissioner.

Children's Aid Case.

"Yes," replied Miss Gorrie, "if I had charge of the case I would ask the Judge of the Juvenile Court to have the family of children removed from the home and advise that the other family (living in the same home) be investigated so that something might be done for them."

Miss Gorrie said she thought the children were potentially neglected. "The case of family X in my opinion, after many years connected with the Toronto Domestic Relations Court as an official, was a case which warranted action by the Children's Aid Society and I know that if application was made to a juvenile court judge the children would be removed from the home."

Latest Farm Season In Brantford Area

BRANTFORD, Ont., April 6 (CP)—Still further recession in the level of the Grand River, was recorded here at 10.30 this evening. Indications are that unless there are very heavy rains, the peak has been passed for the year.

Frost is still in the ground five inches, and it will prove the latest season for farm and garden operations on record. In some previous years all seeding of farm crops has been done by March 20. It is doubtful if this year April 20 will see it completed.

sumption and to decrease production, all of course with the ultimate aim of raising the world price.

Under the head of increasing consumption come various plans, including denaturing of low grade wheat in order it may be absolutely restricted to use as food for livestock, and the requirement of a higher flour extract. Under the head of decreasing production there are other plans which also take in the possibility of a more rigid control of exports, such as reducing the control period from a year, as at present, to three months, in order to provide for virtually immediate regulation of exports according to demand.

A minimum world export price was also down for consideration, and in itself this will provide much work for the delegates. Meanwhile they were invited to visit the farms established on land reclaimed from the Pontine marshes near Rome, a development on which the Mussolini government particularly prides itself.

off by police they defied authorities to disperse them. The police discharged the tear gas.

Fire Chief Earl Traeger at first refused to attempt to scatter the mob by turning water on them. "They might wreck the fire equipment," he said.

"They might wreck civilization if you let them continue," Municipal Judge Paul S. Carroll replied.

When firemen ultimately tried to connect hose lines to hydrants, several were roughly treated by the crowd. No water was turned on the throng.

Juvenile, district and municipal courts closed soon after the rioting started. Windows were smashed in the Mayor's office, and several court rooms and other quarters in the building.

None of the injured was badly hurt.

Exports In Bacons Keep Steady Trend

TORONTO, April 6.—(C.P.)—Export shipments of Canadian bacon are keeping up close to the average volume of recent months despite the fact that prices have sagged in the British market, due to some increase in home production and to heavier imports from Scandinavian countries. Current wholesale pirces in England are around 75 shillings per hundredweight (112 pounds), compared with 100 shillings in January.

Shipments of Wiltshire sides in January and February totalled 18,547,000 pounds compared with 6,665,000 for the same two months of last year. The February figures were 7,413,800 pounds compared with 2,746,300 in February 1933. Recent firming of the pound sterling has partly offset the drop in old country prices, giving the Canadian shipper a better return than he would be getting had sterling remained around 5.05 as it stood a few weeks ago.

PEACE OF WORLD NOT THREATENED BY NAZI FORCES

Speaker at Kiwanis Luncheon Defends Hitlerism in Germany.

HISTORY REVIEWED.

Hitler Has Accomplished Miracles—Press Bitterly Assailed.

Discountenancing any suggestion that Germany is threatening the peace of the world, Dr. Zeidler as guest speaker at the Kiwanis luncheon at Empress Hotel this afternoon presented a vivid and hopeful word picture of his native land under Nazi government. He forecast a great future for the German nation and referred to Herr Adolph Hitler as the 'prophet of hope.'

Dr. Zeidler, a consulting chemist of British citizenship, was introduced by A. R. Piper as a keen student of international affairs. On his left cheek Dr. Zeidler, carries a deep scar which is regarded by all graduates of Heidelburg University as a mark of extreme honour.

Reviewing the history of his country since the beginning of the Great War, the speaker believed that on August 4, 1914 Imperialism in Germany reached the zenith of its power. The whole of the German people stood back of their Empire entering into the War like everybody else in the belief that the sacrifice was for the welfare of their country.

No Political Unity

Speaking of post-war events, the speaker discussed the financial collapse that developed and the realization on the part of the German people that the nation was without political unity, and that the collossal sacrifice had been made for nothing.

He believed that the Treaty of Versailles which he said Germany had been made to sign upon threat of renewed hostilities, was a document that embodied "'a feeling of fanatical hatred toward Germany". By that treaty, he declared Germany had been dogmatically declared as wholly responsible for the War.

"In short", Dr. Zeidler said "the treaty indicted the proud German nation which has given so much to the world of music, art and science with a stigma which Germany could not be expected to bear indefinitely".

Referring to the effects of the treaty, the speaker dealt with the ultimate financial collapse that had resulted from the stupendous burden of debt with which the nation was saddled. He spoke also of the political chaos that accompanied the economic ills, and said "the Fatherland was rapidly moving towards Communism, when like a saviour a leader came to lift Germany from the degeneration into which she was sinking".

Hitler had accomplished miracles, the speaker thought, declaring that Hitler was a man of the people, who had given his ideas to the people, and who had been voluntarily placed in authority by the people.

Speaking of what he termed "the so-called freedom of the press," Dr Zeidler bitterly assailed what he thought was undue license that was given to "greenhorn" reporters who provided their newspapers with sensational propaganda to boost newspaper circulation.

As an instance, he stated that a well-known journalist writing for one of the most sensational of the Toronto evening papers, had stated in a press despatch from Germany, "Hitler was put into power by a conspiracy of munition makers."

Newspaper, he said, were largely controlled by large money-making interests and the sole purpose of sensationalism was to increase circulation for monetary profit.

He felt that all observers of present-day Germany could testify that Germany is gradually emerging from the slough of despondency, and would have to admit that under Nazi government unemployment had decreased, and the nation had been unified.

While he did not feel that Germany constituted any menace to the peace of the world, the speaker thought it not improbable that the political unrest in France "might start something." The government of France, he said, was doing a great deal of harm to the world at large.

There was too much distrust among the nations of Europe, Dr. Zeidler exclaimed, and it was such distrust that was the source of all evil.

Quoting from a recent speech delivered by His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales at Albert Hall, London, Dr. Zeidler concluded by stating, "Depression and apathy are the devil's own. Before us is a world of trouble whose vital need is greater faith in each other."

A vote of thanks on behalf of the membership of the club was ably expressed by L. J. Pettit, and was extended by President A. B. Gates.

Mrs. Charles Saunders, as guest soloist, provided two song numbers that were greatly appreciated. She was accompanied at the piano by M. B. Chenhall.

President A. B. Gates and Vice-President Ivan Lillico were appointed official delegates to the International Kiwanis Convention at Toronto in June, while Vice-President Al Sharpe and Secretary J. A. McKone were named as alternate delegates.

1,100 Children Attend Matinee At Capitol

Eleven hundred children packed the Capitol Theatre this morning for the special holiday program that was presented by the management. So large was the throng of youthful theatregoers that hundreds were unable to gain admittance and had to be turned away. Long before the show was scheduled to start at ten o'clock a monster queue of children extended for a considerable distance down George Street.

J. A. Stewart, the genial manager of the Capitol Theatre announced that in order to save the children who were unable to gain admittance to-day, the disappointment of being unable to see the special presentation of Mickey Mouse and other comedies, the program would be run over again on Saturday morning at ten o'clock.

CHEAPER BEER?

OTTAWA, April 6. (CP).—Lower prices for beer were forecast in a newspage story in the Ottawa Journal to-day. It stated it was learned on good authority that "co-operation between the Dominion and Ontario governments in reducing taxes and other charges will result in a substantial reduction in the price of beer if the amendments to the Liquor Control Act go into effect in Ontario."

MUSKRAT TRAPPERS OUT ON RICE LAKE

George Nurse Declares Few Rats Died in Their Houses.

"Muskrat trapping in the marshes along the north shore of Rice Lake got under way this week, George Nurse, who lives on the island opposite Hall's Landing, west of Jubilee Point, told The Examiner to-day.

"There is still two feet of ice on the lake" Mr. Nurse said, "but the sun has been working on the marshes and along the shore, and open water is beginning to show again. I read what The Examiner said a few weeks ago about many of the rats being frozen in their houses by the hard winter, but I don't think there has been much loss in our section. I have seen them in the marshes lately, and in my time at the lake I can remember having seen only one muskrat that died in its house. They have a way of providing for themselves pretty well."

Mr. Nurse said he did not expect the catch would be as large as usual, but he did not offer the opinion with any certainty.

Toronto Livestock Review

TORONTO, April 6.—(CP)—Cattle trading was the bright spot on the Toronto Livestock Market last week with prices 15 to 25 cents higher than the previous week's closing level. Cattle trading was active from the opening market and resulted in a good clean-up at the close.

Sheep recorded the biggest drop of the week closing $1 lower at $4 for tops. Calves, hogs and lambs also dropped closing from 25 to 50 cents lower. Supplies of all classes of livestock were about the same in volume as last week.

Prices on steers, heifers and cows were from 15c to 25c higher for the week while bulls sold about steady. Weighty steers ranged from $4.50 to $6.25 with a few tops making $6.50. Choice butcher cattle sold at $5.50 to $5.75 with one small lot at $6.00. The bulk of the butcher sales were between $5 to $5.50.

Butcher cows reached $4.25 for tops with good cows selling mostly at $3.50 to $4. Canners brought as low at $1. Butcher bulls sold at $3 to $3.50. With one top on Monday making $3.75, Bologna bulls brought $2.50 to $2.75. Choice fed calves were stronger at $6.75 to $7.25 with medium downward to $6.50.

The few store cattle offered found a slow sale at $3.50 to $4.25, according to quality. Milkers and springers fell into a slump with prices down to a top of $40 each.

Prices on good and choice veal calves were unchanged with last week's closing level. Common to medium calves, making the bulk of the supply, sold 25c to 50c lower at $4 to $6 cwt.

Hogs had a moderate run, but the buyers were bearish throughout the week on account of easier reports from the British bacon market. After a 25c drop on Monday, prices held unchanged for the balance of the week at $7.40 f.o.b. for bacons, $7.65 off truck and at $8.15 weighed off cars. Packer buyers were still talking lower prices for week-end deliveries.

Sheep and lamb receipts of 3,100 head included 2,400 Western lambs. The supply was too heavy for market demands and, after a steady opening at $8.50 for good lambs, the market dropped to $8 on closing sales. Spring lambs sold in small lots at from $5 to $9 each, according to quality. Sheep slumped $1 on the opening market and remained unchanged for the remainder of the week, closing at $4 for tops. Culls sold downward to $1.50.

WIDE PRICE SPREAD HAS PLACED WEST IN ITS PRESENT DIFFICULTY

Noted Westerner Sees Faith in Soil Unshaken Through Recent Years.

COUNTY UNDEFEATED

[What is the future of the west? Charles Clark, writer of the following, is president of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers' Association, which this August observes its 75th anniversary. Mr. Clark, publisher of the High River Times, High River, Alta., has just returned from the east. This article was written after his conversations with his board of directors, from all over Canada, meeting recently at Ottawa].

By CHARLES CLARK
(Written Especially for Central Press Canadian and The Examiner).

I have the honor of coming from, and returning to, the undefeated west—the agricultural west which has been undermined in the past few years by ruinous prices and, in certain areas, by capricious nature.

The recent years might have crushed a people of weaker calibre, but instead they have served to bring us a strength and stability that was not so apparent in easier times. This does not argue any submissiveness nor contentment with conditions, but it shows a determination to meet the difficulties of the present without incurring further obligations and, at the same time, to bring every force to bear in order to get a fairer deal for the primary products of the country. Any demand from the west for a national livestock board, for a Dominion wheat marketing board need not be dismissed as another brain storm of those radical farmers of the west. It must be seriously considered as the voice of the solid west because towns and cities alike are as dependent on fair agricultural prices as are the farmers.

Faith in Soil

If we of the west had any reason to doubt the fertility of our soil, if we lost faith in our ability to produce, we would be lost, indeed. Although restricted areas have suffered temporarily from drought, the west as a whole produces richly season after season. It has indeed produced too richly, judging from the restrictions now being placed upon production.

My own area of High River may give some indication of the productiveness of an average Alberta community. In the year 1932 a good average year, we shipped by rail 3,578,000 bushels of wheat; 6,502 head of cattle; 3,300 head of sheep; 4,000 head of hogs; 525 head of horses; 225,000 bushels of grain other than wheat; this takes no note of the cast quantities of dairy and creamery butter, cream, eggs and poultry, that have been marketed, nor of the great amount of stock sold by truck in Calgary, 40 miles north.

At fair prices, say, wheat at 60 cents, cattle at 7 cents, hogs at 9 cents, and so on, this wealth would not only have maintained the district in comfort, permitting the payment of obligations and a thriving town trade, but would have diverted thousands to eastern coffers. But prices in 1932 were battered down till the normal income was little better than one-third of what it should have been. The trouble is not in yield, but in revenue, and when Mr. Stitt, M.P. for Selkirk, said in parliament recently that eight per cent. interest in 1929 has become 24 per cent. interest in 1932 and 1933, he spoke only the truth.

We receive quantities of advice on farming methods from the east. We are told to do this and to do that; to go into diversified farming and so on. I would suggest that this advice is quite unnecessary Farmers of the west know their business. They are using their soil for the purpose for which it is situated. Some areas without water or shelter are absolutely unfit for mixed farming.

Oil Areas

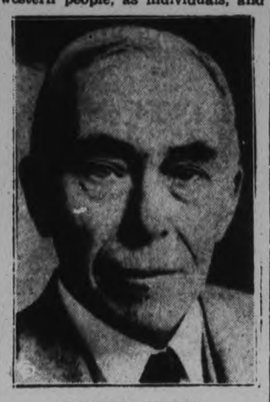
Another great resource of our part of Alberta, which perhaps is not sufficiently realized, is the oil wealth of Turner Valley. The development of the field is towards the south with great wells coming in about seventeen miles west of the town of High River. Last year oil and naptha deliveries to Calgary refineries amounted to $2,365,308. Since the New Year, several big producers have come in—Anaconda II., a 400-barrel-a-day producer, and Highwood Sarcee, another heavy producer. It is anticipated that fifteen new outfits will commence work this spring. This gives merely an indication that we have no reason to doubt the goodness of our land and our resources.

Our troubles are man-made and Mr. Stevens' investigations may have uncovered a few of them.

High interest and disparity between goods bought and goods sold have placed the west in its present difficulties. A few years ago when the wealth from our farms was pouring into eastern factories, our population was headlined as agrarians and agriculturists—important people, who were the best of customers. In the past few years they have again become plain farmers. If certain destructive influences of our country have their way, our farmers will be thrust into peasantry—and they are not a peasant people and never will be. It cannot be done. They are intelligent, educated, expert in their line, thoroughly informed on what is going on, thoroughly aware of their importance in the economic scheme.

Financial Retrenchment

Granted that a few years ago western people, as individuals, and



CHARLES CLARK
Maybe Mr. Stevens Will Show the Reasons Why?

municipalities, have over-spent, they have in recent years shown as equal ability to retrench. I mentioned before that their incomes have been cut about two-thirds; yet they have lived within them, have maintained a wonderful morale—partly through a happy social life. True, they have been unable to restock their homes, to get new facilities or buy new machinery—a situation which eastern factories no doubt have realized. But they have held steady and have been getting by.

Municipalities of Alberta have budgetted to fit the depression. It is natural that a young province, apparently secure in the richness of its resources, should have yielded to the needs for roads, for schools, for all those needs which face a young and ambitious people. It was natural, though hind sight proves it to have been unwise. Municipalities banked too greatly on the future, but it has been nothing short of remarkable to follow their progress in the last three years. In 1930 they were in bad shape, confronted with a situation utterly unexpected and baffling. Collection of taxes resounded internal hostility forced and everything was haywire. "Economy" was the election cry and the sanest, best business men of the district were handed the task of bringing order out of chaos. They did. They cut down every dollar of unnecessary expenditure. They kept open their schools and services, but at reduced wages. They made use of every means to keep within their estimates. And they did. The collection of taxes roused internal hostility at first but it was done. In 1932 councils all over the province had got a definite grip on things. And in 1933 there has been a general reduction in old arrears. People have been learning that taxes must be paid—and they are paid. In some cases tax rates have even been reduced. But all over the province the report from municipalities in 1933 showed an improved financial situation.

Social Services

The social services which we regard as necessary in Alberta, are first of all, schools. This service has been fully maintained, at least in southern Alberta. In our district and 21 similar districts in the province, we consider our municipal hospital service as necessary—it is on a basis of three cents an acre tax and $2 a day hospitalization. We also have a full-time health unit service with annual examination of all children, immunization, vaccination, sanitary inspection, etc. This service will be shared 50 per cent. by the province and 50 per cent. by the district served at a cost of about 35 cents per capita to the public.

In our town, we also have a medical agreement with the doctors, who give medical care to a signer and his family for $25 a year in advance. This gives fairly complete health protection.

Although necessity has laid its compelling hand upon our people, and they are obliged to mark time for the moment, there is no disposition to give up or revert to pioneer conditions. They are forward-looking by nature, and have no intention of discarding anything which they have achieved in the way of facilities. An instance may be given in the rural telephones—while the immediate area around High River is fairly well served, there are outlying townships where, owing to adverse conditions, the telephone service has been discontinued in almost all homes. This brings about an isolation far from desirable, especially in cases of illness or accident. For this reason, local farmers are seriously considering purchasing rural units from the government, and maintaining these as a necessary service, not only for themselves, but for the benefit of others less financially able. The cost would be considerably less than under provincial management, and within the means of many who cannot now afford the service.

This is the real co-operative spirit, a readiness to face and overcome situations which is a most dominating quality of our western people. They are going to win through because their cause is just.

ROLL OF FILMS CLUE TO KILLERS

GIVES POLICE NEW HOPE.

SEATTLE, April 6. (AP)—A roll of undeveloped films, found in the modest Bremerton home of Eugene Chenevert, one of the six victims in the Bremerton slaying last week, to-day furnished authorities with a "startling new development" in the search for the killers.

Chief of Detectives Luke S. May said the film carried the picture of a man who has been "positively identified" by four persons as that of A. Harry Kimble a man of swarthy complexion who was seen in Bremerton as late as the previous Saturday before the Frank Flieder home yielded its ghastly secret last week.

On that occasion, May added, Kimble was seen dancing with Mrs. Frank Flieder, one of the two women victims, in an entertainment place.

The discovery of the film and its development, May said, was the work of John Martin, head of the fingerprinting and identification bureau of the Bremerton police department.

Grandson Unforgiven Says King Gustaf

CANNES, April 6 (AP) — King Gustaf of Sweden to-day let it be known that there was no forgiveness for his grandson, the former Prince Sigvard, who married a commoner.

He was quoted by the Countess de Bonde, wife of the Court Chamberlain, as saying, "I will never forgive Sigvard."

The bride who is the former Fraulein Erika Patzek, German motion picture actress, watched her husband play golf dejectedly near Cannes.

Between tees Sigvard confided to The Associated Press that there had been no reconciliation with his grandfather. He uttered a flat "No," when asked if he and the king were reconciled; then added: "I will talk about the weather or anything else, but I refuse to discuss my private affairs further."

FARMER "PEELS" OFF PRICE FOR NEW FORD V-8

One of This Weeks' Buyers Had the Cash in His Pocket.

EQUALS 1929 DEMAND.

Ross Hood Says Enquiries Indicate Business Will Be Maintained.

Five new Fords sold on Wednesday focussed an unusually bright spot in this week's business, Ross Hood of the company's local agency intimated to The Examiner this morning.

Two cars in one evening was the satisfactory windup of another day this week in what Mr. Hood says is the best season since 1929.

"Our business this Spring is better than any other season since 1930 and is at least equal to our sales in 1929," Mr. Hood stated. "And from the enquiries that we have had, in addition to the actual business, the outlook seems to me just about as promising as we have ever had.

Two of the cars we sold this week were to farmers. One of them apparently knew pretty well what he wanted, and when he had decided on the car he was going to take he pulled out a roll of bills you could hardly jump over, and peeled them off to the exact price of the car, paying in cash. We have had no blank days for some time now, but Wednesday's five was particularly good.

The people like the 1934 Ford V-8, "the car without a price class," our advertising has had the effect of telling the public about the merits of the new models, and the business we have been getting is just a sample of the reports the company's agencies all over Canada and the United States are turning in. We are highly pleased with the season's business so far, and it looks as if it is going to keep up."

Increasing business is news these days. It is getting the headlines in every paper, and rosy reports from the automobile industry are interpreted as one of the signs of the general improvement that has been developing in industry and merchandizing since the turn of the year.

A. C. Evans, Toronto, of the sales department of the Ford Motor Company of Canada, told The Examiner to-day that business throughout Canada has been moving in a greatly increased volume.

Insull Keeps To Room Upon Moslem Holiday

ISTANBUL, April 6 (AP)—Samuel Insull, Sr., Chicago fugitive, had an intimate glimpse of a Moslem holiday to-day.

Because of the religious festival, it was visiting day at the Houes of Detention, where he is held pending his extradition to the United States to face grand larceny and embezzlement charges. Other prisoners in the house received their relatives and friends and the building was lively with conversations.

Insull, however, remained isolated and received no one. He spent much of his day in bed, writing on his memoirs.

The Penal Court is expected to make a formal decision tomorrow on Insull's plea that he be released pending an appeal of the court's decision that he must go to the United States.

HOPE REMAINS IN DIVINE PURPOSE

Interest is Increasing in Mission Conducted by Rev. Dr. Rolls.

LOVE IMPELLING MOTIVE.

"When we see the nations building up armaments, when we observe competitions and rivalries intensified everywhere, while churches languish and people chase will-o-the-wisp amusements, is there any hope you ask?" exclaimed Rev. Dr. C. J. Rolls in his address last evening at George Street Church before a good attendance. "To be sure there is", he said "there is ever hope in the divine purpose. There were three great abiding realities in the bible—faith, hope and love, he continued, with a chapter being given to each. But the thing that matters most is love. To Corinth a city of lust and corruption, was the great chapter on love written; if morality was so low that not a pure woman could be found in it, there was need for a message of pure love. By illustration he showed how all things human pass away, while love abides; "to live in love is to live for ever" he quoted from Drummond. He derided the gospel of works done in vain glory; goodness reaches the highest when unconsciously done, and love gives the victory. The true service is rendered when the love of Christ is the impelling motive. Passing over briefly the various points in the notable chapter in Corinthians 13. Dr. Rolls dwelt on the text: Love seeketh not her own. "How does this fit in with the spirit of the world today?" he asked, "'Is it not true that we are prepared to take all the credit to ourselves, and always give blame to the other fellow?" Christ, however, always was ready to take all the blame and let the other fellow have the credit. Instance after instance was given of the result in human lives of this principle of love, particular reference being made to Sir Jas. Oustram's giving place to General Havelock at the relief of Lucknow, and to an obscure farmer in Tasmania, James Deans, who was always taking the blame and ever giving the other fellow the main chance. "Love" said the preacher, "is the thing we are supposed to know the most, and the thing we practise the least!" Yet John said: God is love, and also: No man hath seen God at any time. Why? Because if love dwelleth in us, then folks have a chance to see and know God. "Let this love be in you that was also in Christ Jesus", he concluded.

The ladies quartette of Murray Street church sang "Steal Away to Jesus", while Dr. Barr offered prayer, and the song service was led by Rev. Sutcliffe. Judging by the attendance, the interest is growing as the mission progresses.

Cattle Prices Lag At Belleville Sale

BELLEVILLE, April 6.—The 24th annual sale of Holstein-Freisians by the Belleville District Holstein-Friesian Breeders' Club was hold here Wednesday, with 26 head of cattle being offered. The demand was not brisk, and prices lagged, probably due to the fact that the class of cattle offered this year was not as good as in former ones.

This district has been depleted of real fine stock by United States buyers, who have been active in the Belleville and Prince Edward district for some time. The highest price paid was $100 which was not the price of a good grade a few years ago.

In the morning a bull contest was held by the Canadian Branch of the Holstein-Freisian Society and a male not named, owned by Earl Burnside of Madoc, was first; Sir Francey Pontiac View, owned by A. Parks of Napanee, second; Madoc Count Inka, owned by J. A. Caskey, Madoc, third; Posch Aberkerk Colanthus, owned by E. Burnside, Madoc, fourth, and Sir Francey Paul, owned by A. Parks & Sons., Napanee, fifth.

All these animals were yearlings or slightly under a year and bred in the purple, but the buyers were not looking for better sires at the afternoon sale. There was a large attendance from all parts of the district.
